The Revelation Of Yahweh Our Father Through Yahshua Messiah His Son
Given to Yahchanan by the Malak

—Notes—

PREFACE

For hundreds of years now, most scholars of the Scriptures have known that the Holy Scriptures have been misused and abused, not only by the early scribes, but also by the translators themselves. In specific instances, certain words or phrases were left untranslated; at times, changes were made to hide the meaning of the words or phrases. In other cases, words were deleted from the original text, either by copyist error, or by flagrant intention. At times, footnotes were written in the Scriptures, in the same way we would make notes in our books; however, these footnotes would later be included in the text by other copyists, who would write these as 'inspired' Scripture, to be read by later generations as part of the original text.

Many phrases have been deliberately mistranslated, in order to hide its true meaning, so that Scripture would not bring to light the deceitful teaching of the established, and popular, religious organizations.

The alteration of Yahweh's Scriptures, either by untranslating or mistranslating, has caused the True Work, which His Prophets spoke of, to be hidden in most translations of the Scriptures, and has been damaging to those who are searching the Scriptures for the way to Eternal Life.

However, the most damaging error in all the Scriptures, was the error of removing YAHWEH'S NAME from the very Scriptures He inspired to be written, and writing in its place the pagan titles of GODS, and SATAN HIMSELF! Because of this grave error, those who are calling upon the names of gods and Satan, even though ignorantly, are actually worshipping the gods and Satan—for they are not calling upon, and with, The NAME of YAHWEH!

These detrimental facts are not hidden. In fact, an abundance of data confirming these statements has been published for many years, but generally confined only to footnotes, Scriptural commentaries, dictionaries, encyclopedias, lexicons, concordances, and technical publications. These facts are indeed plenteous, and they are openly admitted, not only among scholars of the Scriptures, but also among the religious denominations as well.

Joseph Bryant Rotherham, in The Emphasized Bible; A New Translation, Cincinnati, Ohio, The Standard Publishing Co., 1902, Introduction, The Incommunicable Name, says:

The Name Suppressed: THE FACT

It is willingly admitted that the suppression has not been absolute; at least so far as Hebrew and English are concerned. The Name, in its four essential letters (YHWH), was reverently transcribed by the Hebrew copyist, and therefore was necessarily placed before the eye of the Hebrew reader. The latter, however, was instructed not to pronounce it, but to utter instead a less sacred name—ADONAY or ELOHIM. In this way The Name was not suffered to reach the ear of the listener. To that degree it was suppressed. The Septuagint, or ancient Greek version (LXX), made the concealment complete by regularly substituting Kurios; as the Vulgate, in like manner, employed Dominus; both Kurios and Dominus having at the same time their own proper service to render as correctly answering to the Hebrew ADONAY, confessedly meaning 'Lord'. The English versions do nearly the same things, in rendering The Name as LORD, and occasionally GOD; these terms also having their own rightful office to fill as fitly representing the Hebrew titles Adonay and Elohim and El, so that the tetragrammaton is nearly hidden in our public English versions.

The IMMEDIATE CONSEQUENCES of the Suppression

(1.) Partly literary, though more than that. Reference is here made to the confusion into which many things are thrown through this abnormal state of things. 'Baal' is 'lord', and so is 'Adon' (Adonay)—that is distressing; but why add to the embarrassment by rendering YHWH also as 'Lord'? Worst of all is the confusion when 'Y' and Adonay occur together, as they do many times in the Book of Ezekiel (Yechetzqyah). Inasmuch as to say, 'Lord LORD' for 'Adonay Y', was too grotesque and misleading (positively false to the ear), the new device had to be resorted to of rendering this combination by 'Lord GOD'—'GOD' in this case, and not 'Lord' at all, standing for The Name. Even YH (the shorter form) and YHWH (the full form) of the tetragrammaton, coming together, caused a dilemma; though in these instances, the acuteness of the trouble compelled the adoption of a partial remedy, and 'the LORD JEHOVAH; is the result. 'Confusion', then, is a term not a whit too strong to apply to these varying devices. No wonder that even intelligent and educated people are continually forgetting what they have heard or read concerning so involved a matter.

Rotherham then gives reasons why the Name Yahweh must be restored, and from now on retained in the Scriptures:

1. Because its suppression was a mistake. So grave a mistake cannot be corrected too soon. An unwarrantable liberty has been taken; the path of humility is to retrace our steps...it is too heavily burdened with merited critical condemnation—as modern, as a compromise, as a 'mongrel' word, 'hybrid', 'fantastic', 'monstrous'. The facts have only to be known to justify this verdict, and to vindicate the propriety of not employing it in a new and independent translation. What are the facts? And first as to age. The pronunciation Jehovah was unknown until 1520, when it was introduced by Galatinus; but was contested by Le Mercier, J. Drusius, and L. Capellus, as against grammatical and historical propriety.' (Oxford Gesenius, P. 218.) Next, as to formation. 'Erroneously written and pronounced Jehovah, which is merely a combination of the sacred Tetragrammaton and the vowels in the Hebrew for Lord, substituted by the Jews (Yahdaim) for JHVH (YHWH), because they shrank from pronouncing The Name, owing to an old misconception of the two passages (Exodus xx. 7 and Leviticus xiv. 16)...To give the name JHVH the vowels of the word for Lord (Heb. Adonai) and pronounce it Jehovah, is about as hybrid a combination as it would be to spell the name Germany with the vowels in the name Portugal—viz., Gormuna...Jehovah is not older than about 1520 c.e.

The Ancient, and Honored, Name of Yahweh

The very oldest Scriptural text ever found, dating back almost 2,600 years, was found in a tiny silver amulet which contains a Seventh Century b.c.e. extract from the Book of Numbers (6:24-26), the Priestly Blessing. The rolled up amulet was part of a treasure hoard found by a Tel Aviv University archeologist in a First Temple Period family tomb in Jerusalem, Israyl. When this amulet was written, the Temple of Solomon still stood, the heirs of King David still ruled on the throne, and the Dead Sea Scrolls would not be written for another 400 years.

It was three years after its discovery before this fragile amulet could be unrolled by technical experts at the Israyl Museum. On this amulet the NAME OF YAHWEH could be clearly read. Complete details of this magnificent find can be read in the 6-28-86 and 8-9-86 issues of The Jerusalem Post, and the 6-87 issue of The Readers Digest.

THE UNDENIABLE NAME OF YAHWEH

There is no doubt that the True NAME of our Creator is Yahweh. In fact, the evidence is overwhelming.

Unger's Bible Dictionary, Merrill F. Unger, 1957, Moody Press, Chicago, pp. 1177, says:

Yahweh (yă'wê). The Hebrew tetragrammaton (YHWH) traditionally pronounced Jehovah (q. v.) is now known to be correctly vocalized yahwê. New inscriptional evidence from the second and first millennia B. C. point toward this fact. The old view of Le Clerc, modernly propounded by Paul Haupt and developed by W. F. Albright, has commended itself in the light of the phonetic development and grammatical evidence of increased knowledge of Northwest Semitic and kindred tongues. This thesis holds Yahwe to be originally a finite causative verb from the Northwest Semitic root hwy "to be, to come into being," so that the divine name would mean "he causes to be, or exist," i. e., "he creates." Amorite personal names after 2,000 B. C. lend support to the Haupt-Albright view, demonstrating that the employment of the causative stem yahwe "he creates" was in vogue in the linguistic background of early Hebrew.

Wycliffe Bible Encyclopedia, 1975, Vol. 2, pp. 690, Moody Press, Chicago, tells us:

'The Name par excellence for the Creator of Israyl is Yahweh, found 6,823 times in the OT. Through Israyl's deliverance from bondage in Egypt, adoption as a nation, and guidance to the Promised Land, the Redeemer-Creator is especially known by THIS NAME.' (Emphasis ours.)

The Interpreter's Dictionary, 1962, Vol. 4, pp.923, Abingdon Press, Nashville, says:

'YAHWEH—The vocalization of the four consonants of the Israylite name for the Creator, which scholars believe to approximate the original pronunciation.'

James Moffatt, in his translation, The Bible: A New Translation, 1935, Harper and Brothers, informs us in his introduction:

'Strictly speaking this ought to be rendered 'Yahweh' which is familiar to modern readers in the erroneous form of 'Jehovah'. Were this version intended for students of the original, there would be no hesitation whatever in printing 'Yahweh'.

Although Moffatt substitutes the title, 'the Eternal' in the place of the Name of Yahweh, he fully admits a distinct loss of meaning in this.

The Encyclopedia Judaica, 1972, Keter Publishing House, P.O.B. 7145, Jerusalem, Israel, Vol. 7, pp. 680, states emphatically:

'The TRUE PRONUNCIATION of the NAME YHWH WAS NEVER LOST. Several early Greek writers of the Christian Church testify that the Name was pronounced "YAHWEH".'

The personal Name of the Father of Israyl is written in the Hebrew Scriptures with the four consonants YHWH, and is referred to as the 'Tetragrammaton'. At least until the destruction of the First Temple in 586 b.c.e., Yahweh's NAME was pronounced regularly with its proper vowels, as is clear from the Lachish Letters, written shortly before that day. However, at least by the third century before Yahshua our Messiah was born, the pronunciation of the Name YAHWEH was avoided, and Adonai, 'the Lord', was substituted for it.

Adeney and Bennett, tells us:

Some time after the return from the Captivity, and before the beginning of the Christian Era, the Yahdaim (Jews) came to believe that the Holy Name YAHWEH was too sacred to be uttered on ordinary occasions. It was said to be pronounced by the High Priest on the Day of Atonement. At other times, when any one read or quoted aloud from what is called the Old Testament, the word 'Adonay', 'Lord,' was usually substituted for YAHWEH, and similarly the LXX (Septuagint Version) has Kurtos, the Vulgate dominus, and the E.V. LORD, where the Hebrew was YAHWEH. Hebrew was originally written without vowels, but when the 'vowel points' were added, the vowels of 'Adonay' or 'Elohim' were written with YAHWEH, as a direction that these words were to be read INSTEAD OF the word whose consonants were YAHWEH; thus we find the combinations YeHoWaH and YeHoWiH. At the Reformation, the former being the more usual, was sometimes used as the Name of the (Mighty One) of Israyl, and owing to ignorance of its history was misread as 'Jehovah,' a form which has established itself in English, but does not give the pronunciation of the Holy Name it represents.

In the Middle Ages, when the consonantal text was supplied with vowel points by the MASORITES, the Tetragrammaton was substituted in over 130 places in the Hebrew Text with the Canaanite god, 'Adonay', and in some places 'Elohim' (God, Gods) wherever anthropomorphism (ascribing the physical attributes of man to Yahweh) was applied. Whenever they left the Tetragrammaton intact, they placed diacritical marks beneath it to indicate pronunciation of the word to be SPOKEN—ADONAY, not the word WRITTEN—YAHWEH, which the Hebrews considered too sacred to be spoken aloud.

For 'Yahweh' they have substituted 'BAAL', the Babylonian god, and 'ADONAY', the Canaanite god of the Phoenicians, both corresponding to the English word, 'LORD'.

Likewise, the Name of Yahweh's Son, 'YAHSHUA' (Yahweh is Salvation), has been substituted by YESHUA, IESOUS, IESUS, JESUS, and EA-ZEUS (healing Zeus). Webster's Dictionary says that Zeus is the sky god, and is also known as Deus (Latin), Dio (Italian), Dios (Spanish), Dayus (Sanskrit), and Zeus Soter, meaning Zeus the Savior.

The substitution of the Names of Yahweh and Yahshua, by the names of pagan gods, has brought immeasurable harm. Such names as Lord, God, Jesus, and Christ in no way represent the meaning of the NAME revealed by Yahweh our Heavenly Father to Mosheh, and to the ancient Hebrews. By employing these names, the people unknowingly turn the worship of Yahweh into that of gods, and actually ascribe the loving and merciful characteristics of the Father of Israyl, to the pagan gods! (Hoseyeh 2:8).

In their The Kingdom Interlinear Translation of the Greek Scriptures, the Jehovah's Witnesses, The Watchtower Bible and Tract Society of New York, Inc., admit in their Foreword (pp. 23) that:

'While inclining to view the pronunciation 'Yahweh' as the more correct way, we have retained the form 'Jehovah' because of people's familiarity with it since the 14th Century.'

As an opposing example, The New International Version Interlinear Hebrew-English Old Testament, edited by John R. Kohlenberger III, 4 Volumes, Zondervan Publishing House, Grand Rapids, Michigan 49506, elect to USE YAHWEH'S NAME wherever it is written in the Hebrew Text. In Vol. 1, pp. 26, of the Introduction, is found this statement:

'Yahweh, the personal Name of (the Creator), is always translated 'Yahweh', against the practice is the NIV in rendering it as 'LORD'. On the one hand, this prevents confusion of this Name with the title (Adonai) 'my Lord', for the idea of lordship is NOT an integral element of the Name. On the other hand, it may be the use of YAHWEH in this work will encourage the reader to use the personal Name of (Yahweh) in prayer and praise, as is intended by the most common imperative in the Scriptures: (HalleluYahweh) Psalm 104:35: Praise Yahweh!

The Name of Yahweh In The Book of Yahweh

The Holy Name of our Father and Creator, Yahweh, or its shortened form which appears in the compound names of people, propiets, and cities, is the ONE and ONLY Name by which the Creator is known throughout The Holy Scriptures. Following are only a few of the many Scriptures in which YAHWEH is extolled and praised:

Psalm 23:6—'Surely righteousness and mercy will follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in The House of Yahweh forever.'

Psalm 9:10—'They that know Your Name will trust in You! Those who seek You, You will not forsake!

Psalm 83:18—'Let men know that You, Whose Name Alone is YAHWEH, are the Supreme Head over all the earth!'

Isayah 43:3—'For I am Yahweh your Father, the Holy One of Israyl, your Savior...'

Following is a list of only a few of the Scriptures, which show the glorification of Yahweh's Name in His Book: Psalm 68: 4, Exodus 17:8-15, Exodus 15:26, Judges 6:24, Genesis 22:13-14, Acts 2:21, Yereyeh 23:3, Proverbs 30:4, Isayah 42:8, Hoshayeh 2:17, Hebrews 2:12, Psalm 22:22, I Kings 18:21, Yahchanan 12:13, Yahchanan 14:13-14, Acts 4:12.

The Hiding of Yahweh's Name

The Masorites, Hebrew Scribes during the Middle Ages, who added the vowel points to the accepted Hebrew Text, did not 'remove' Yahweh's Name from the Scriptures. They did, however, point the Four Letter Name of Yahweh with the vowel marks of either Elohim or Adonay—pagan names of gods which had been 'accepted' for hundreds of years—effectually establishing in their writings, what had previously been only an 'oral custom'!

These names of the Canaanites' gods were 'accepted' before the time of Yeremyah (Jeremiah) the prophet; and when Yeremyah began his prophesying, he said:

Yeremyah 23:25-27—'I have heard what the prophets say, who prophesy lies in My Name, saying; I have dreamed! I have dreamed! How long will this be in the heart of the prophets who prophesy lies? Yes, they are prophets of the deceit of their own minds; which devise to cause My people to FORGET MY NAME through their dreams, which they tell every man to his neighbor, just as their fathers have forgotten MY NAME for BAAL (Lord).'

The word Baal simply means 'Lord', as shown in any Bible Dictionary. Unger's Bible Dictionary, for instance, under the subject 'Lord', on pp. 665, says:

'Lord (Hebrew, Adon), an early word denoting ownership; hence, absolute control. It is NOT PROPERLY a (righteous) title...MASTER; of kings, as the lords of their subjects.'

(4.) 'Lord, Master, (Greek-Kurios) Supreme...'

(5.) 'Baal (Master) (as noted above, it means Lord)—applied only to heathen deities (gods), or to man as husband, etc...'

Unger also tells us, on this same page, that: 'The Jews, out of a superstitious reverence for the Name Yahweh, always, in reading, pronounce 'Adonai' where 'Yahweh' is written.'

On pp. 413, Unger tells us: 'Baal—common Canaanite word for 'master, lord', was one of the chief male deities of the Canaanite Pantheon, now well known from the religious epic literature discovered at Ras Shamra (ancient Ugarit of the Amarna Letters), from 1921-1937.'

The 1872 Edition of Smith's Bible Dictionary, states (emphasis ours):

'The substitution of the word Lord is most (sad); for, while it in no way represents the meaning of the Sacred Name, the mind has constantly to guard against a confusion with its lower uses, and, above all, the direct personal hearing of the Name on the revelation of YAHWEH...is injuriously out of sight.'

Attempts to Correct Mistakes

The Effect of Hiding Yahweh's Name

Some conscientious scholars have made meager attempts to replace the Name of the Creator in the Holy Scriptures. And their efforts have been much appreciated by serious students of the Holy Writ: their efforts to correct these mistakes have brought about new inroads, leading to deeper studies of Yahweh's word. However, the conscientious Scholars, whose work is now being studied worldwide, knew their work was very insignificant, compared to the corrections that were needed.

An example of this, is in the name of the prophet, Yeremyah, (Jeremiah)—the same prophet who was inspired to write of the people forgetting Yahweh's Name, in Vs. 23:25-27—his own name was changed by the later translators, to HIDE the Name of YAHWEH, which was in his name! By changing Yeremyah, which means, 'May Yahweh Lift Up', to Jeremiah, which means nothing, the later translators effectively hid the Name of Yahweh; therefore, not even a hint of Yahweh's Name remains in this name. In today's modern translations, ALL the place names and the personal names, which originally bore the glory of Yahweh's Name, have been changed; every trace of Yahweh's Name is hidden. The result of this is: a student can read the majority of the later English translations of the Scriptures, and the NAME of the ONLY ONE Who inspired those Scriptures to be written, is not even hinted at!

The Name of Our Messiah, Yahshua

According to the inspired prophecies, the Messiah's Name was to MEAN: Yahweh is Salvation; which is exactly what the Name Yahshua means! In The Book of Yahweh, the Name Yahshua, the True Name of Yahweh's only begotten Son, and our High Priest, Messiah, Redeemer, Ruler, and King, has been restored in the Scriptures. This was of utmost importance, for the Scriptures openly proclaim there is only ONE NAME given on earth, through which all men may achieve salvation (Acts 4:10-12), and that NAME is 'Yahshua'—'Yahweh is Salvation!' Any name, other than the correct Name, will not suffice.

The Holy Scriptures proclaim over and over, that YAHWEH Himself is our Savior (Psalm 27:1, Isaiah 43:11).

Our Messiah Himself stated His mission was to proclaim WHO our Savior is—YAHWEH! (Yahchanan Chapter 17). Obviously, our Messiah's very Name would state Who our Savior is; and the Name of our Messiah makes this distinction: 'Yahweh is Salvation', or 'YAHWEH IS OUR SAVIOR'. That Name is YAHSHUA. (Gesenius' Hebrew-Chaldee Lexicon to the Old Testament, pp. 339).

The world, for the most part, has rejected this Name (Yahshua), and has replaced it with the name YESHUA, or JESUS. However, even the scholars of the Christian Church openly admit that these FALSE NAMES (Yeshua, Jesus) replaced the True Name (Yahshua) in the Scriptures. Louis Hartman, Encyclopedic Dictionary of the Bible, pp. 1141, openly admits this fact in his writings:

'JESUA—In the last few centuries before Christ, the personal name YOSUA (Yahshua) was pronounced and written as YESUA (Yeshua).

New Catholic Encyclopedia, Vol 7., pp. 970:

Jesus (The Name): In English, the name Jesus is a transliteration of the Latin form, 'Iesus', which represents the Greek form 'Iesous', of the Hebrew name 'Yesua (Yeshua). The latter is a LATE FORM, by VOWEL DISSIMILATION, of the Name Yosua (Yahshua).

Mr. Hartman (Encyclopedic Dictionary of the Bible) clearly shows that the original Name Yahshua was first changed by the Hebrews to YESHUA, using the same vowel point system which was used to HIDE the Name of YAHWEH! Then, the Churches perpetuated this error, further changing the name to the present 'Jesus'.

With the subtle use of 'vowel dissimilation', the True Name of the Messiah, Yahshua, was replaced with the name that HID Yahweh's Name—YESHUA, which means 'He will save'. Then, the Greeks wrote a literal transliteration of the Hebrew word 'Yeshua' (Iesous); the Latins (Romans) wrote a literal transliteration of the Greek word 'Iesous' (Jesus); then the English wrote a literal transliteration of the Latin word 'Iesus' (Jesus). All of these names are VOID of the power of Yahweh's Name!

With the use of 'vowel dissimilation,' only a slight change occurs, but this slight change REMOVES the Name of Yahweh, effectively shutting off SALVATION FROM YAHWEH to those who are deceived into using the names of Yeshua and Jesus!

Importance Placed on The Name!

Throughout the Holy Scriptures, one can read of the importance placed on the NAME of Yahweh. Knowing, and using, our Creator's Name in worship and study has been important for each generation, for YAHWEH is the only being Who can give life, as the Holy Scriptures also say:

1 Timothy 6:16—'Who alone has immortality, dwelling in the light which no man can approach unto; Whom no man has seen, nor can see; to Whom belongs honor and power everlasting. HalleluYahweh! Praise Yahweh!'

This Scripture alone shows the great importance that is attached to knowing our Heavenly Father's Name. But as this age grows closer to an end, and all hope of life and protection slowly vanishes; and as it becomes more obvious that mankind will use his capabilities to eradicate all life, it becomes extremely important for people to know our Creator's Name, and become knowledgeable of the great Plan Yahweh reveals in HIS unadulterated word—for it is

ONLY those who CALL WITH the NAME OF YAHWEH who will be delivered at this End Time:

Yahyl (Joel) 2:31-32—'The sun will be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and the terrible day of Yahweh comes. And whoever will CALL WITH THE NAME OF YAHWEH will be delivered; for in Mount Zion in Yerusalem there will be deliverance, as Yahweh has said, among the remnant who has escaped of those whom Yahweh calls.'

The House of Yahweh

The House of Yahweh has purposed to go far beyond all other conscientious Scholars. The House of Yahweh has purposed, not only to replace Yahweh's Name in all the Scriptures in which it was inspired to be written, but we have also purposed to replace Yahweh's wonderful Name in each of the hundreds of places where it was used in compound with place names, and within personal names. As you read these Scriptures, you will see how many times the Name of Yahweh was honored by our forefathers, and also how many times the translators HID this wonderful Name.

TO THE GLORY OF YAHWEH

Most of the Holy men of old would not even be recognized today by their proper names. Because of the drastic steps taken, by both scribes and translators, to suppress Yahweh's Name, the book of Scriptures prevalent in our society today simply is not complete, nor is the will of Yahweh made manifest to the readers.

Therefore, The House of Yahweh has not sought the honor and glory of the Scholarly Establishment in presenting this Translation to the world. The House of Yahweh is giving all GLORY AND PRAISE TO YAHWEH!

As you read the titles of the Chapters in The Book of Yahweh, you will see names you have never seen before. Where there was the slightest possibility that the Name bore the NAME OF YAHWEH, The House of Yahweh has elected to Honor Yahweh with it. This is especially true of the names of the prophets which may have the compound of the name (el-god). We are sure this may upset the Scholarly community, who continually hold to years of admitted mistakes. However, the facts cannot be denied; in fact, they are admitted. The only answer is to bring light in the only means available: The House of Yahweh is giving all GLORY AND PRAISE TO YAHWEH, and is not seeking gratification from the Scholarly Establishment.

The Scriptures

However, the Scriptures themselves have been thoroughly studied, compared, and critiqued; every Scripture that has been changed from the King James Version can be PROVEN beyond any shadow of doubt; thereby building your faith and trust in Yahweh our Heavenly Father, and Creator of the universe.

We have purposed to REPLACE the many vital words which were deliberately left UNTRANSLATED in today's modern English versions; words which, untranslated, disguised the true message which Yahweh inspired to be written, or else perpetuated the many 'traditions of men'—not according to the Scriptures—but rampant in this world!

We have also purposed to remove all words and WHOLE VERSES that have been ADDED to the original Scriptures (such as the 'footnotes' that became 'inspired' Scriptures, as a later copyist included them in the Holy Writings).

Most of the time, these added words change, hide, or contradict the original message of Yahweh; effectively confusing the reader, who is in search of the Truth of Yahweh. We have not omitted these Scriptures arbitrarily; indeed, the commentaries of the Religious Scholars themselves have stated these Scriptural facts. We, only, have acted upon the facts presented.

We have purposed, as well, to clearly translate the many verses that have been left unclear, and not understandable, in other translations. The Book of Yahweh is written in modern English; yet, at the same time with the thought of presenting all the truth of Yahweh. One of the most frequently heard complaints about the translations today, is against the hundreds of unintelligible verses they contain.

The Hebrew and the Greek Scriptures are understandable to those who know the Plan of Yahweh, but to those who did not understand His Plan, the meanings of these phrases were incomprehensible, or else were HATEFUL TO THEM. Therefore, in their translations into other languages, some Scriptures were incomprehensible, or were translated in ways to perpetuate the traditions of men! We have purposed in all of these verses to bring out the clear meaning, so the average layman can read, and then understand, Yahweh's Great Truths in His wonderful Plan for mankind.

The Name of His Book THE BOOK OF YAHWEH

Even the Name of His Book is, in actual fact, the inspired words of Yahweh. Recorded for us, in the book of Isayah, we are commanded to:

Isayah 34:16—Search out THE BOOK OF YAH-

WEH, and read: Not one of these will fail; not one will want her mate, for His mouth has commanded it, and His Spirit has gathered them.'

Praise be to Yahweh, that you are holding in your hand the pure, restored, Holy, and Inspired, Book of Yahweh!

The Word of Yahweh, As In The Original, Without the Pagan Titles

We have purposed in this translation of the Holy Scriptures, never to stray from the inspiration of the original. We know that each inspired word, or phrase, has a purpose for all of Yahweh's called out ones. Therefore, we have purposed to bring back the original words or phrases to their true meaning, if they have been mistranslated.

In the Hebrew manuscripts, the Religious Scholars conclude there are three major texts of Scripture; the oldest, and the original, being the YAHWISTIC works, which use the Name of Yahweh exclusively. These works are referred to as the (J) writings, because they contain ONLY the Name of Yahweh, without the pagan titles: El, Elohim, Adonai. In these first manuscripts, everyone knew instantly the Name of the Creator of all things, because the minds of those who read it, were not confused by reading titles of pagan gods.

The next text of the Scriptures, coming about 100 years later, incorporated the use of PAGAN TITLES, which were adopted FROM the Canaanites, AFTER the children of Israyl entered the Promised Land, even though Yahweh had strictly warned them to stay away from the godworship of the peoples they would come in contact with!

In direct violation of Yahweh's Commandment not to worship hinder gods (Deuteronomy 30:17-19), only 100 years later the Holy Scriptures became polluted with the pagan titles of El, Elohim, Adonai, God, and Lord!

At the time, the use of these pagan terms was accepted, and used, by the copyists to replace Yahweh's Name, or to identify Him in their writings. However, these pagan words can not identify Yahweh our Creator, because they are TITLES of Satan and his angels! Unger's Bible Dictionary, pp. 412, states that the word EL is a Canaanite word meaning 'God', or 'Devil'. The Interpreter's Dictionary of the Bible, Vol. 1, pp. 817, under DEMONOLOGY, says: The word ELOHIM (plural form of EL) means 'demons' or 'gods'.

It is very rewarding to any reader to discover that these pagan titles were not employed in the first, and original, writings. They were, in fact, only accepted by the Israylites after coming into the Land Yahweh had promised them, which was occupied by Canaanites, whose worship was that of DEMONS. And of whom Yahweh had warned His people to avoid!

Our Prayer

It is our prayer that The Book of Yahweh will not only acquaint the reader with the Sacred Names of Yahweh and Yahshua, but will also give the reader a broader vision of the great lengths Satan has gone to, to repress and remove all knowledge, all reverence, and all worship from Yahweh. It is our prayer that men will come to see the seriousness of the mistake of removing Yahweh's Name from the Scriptures, which conscientious Scholars admit, and will turn away from calling upon the gods and lords when praying, reading, and witnessing.

We pray that all men everywhere will see, from the corrections Yahweh inspired to be written in His Book, that Yahweh never identified HIMSELF as a 'god' or as a 'lord,' in any of the original writings; that HE identified HIMSELF, Whose NAME is Yahweh, as our loving Heavenly Father, which is the TITLE He was addressed by His Son. May you so be blessed, and may you, as King David said in Psalm 23:6—'...dwell in The House of Yahweh forever.'

The Great Tribulation

The worst years for mankind are yet to come. Horrifying prophecies are yet to be fulfilled. We are now facing the years spoken of in the Holy Scriptures as, The Great Tribulation. Our Messiah, King, Ruler, High Priest, and Savior, said in Mattithyah 24:21-22—'For then will be GREAT TRIBULATION, such as has not come to pass since the beginning of the world to this time—no, nor ever will be. And unless those days were shortened, there would no flesh be saved; but for the ELECT'S SAKE, THOSE DAYS WILL BE SHORTENED.'

It should be obvious that we are living in an era in the history of man, when mankind has the capability of destroying himself, with nuclear weapons. It should be obvious to any reader of Yahweh's word, that our future depends on Yahweh, if we are to survive these days.

The question in each person's mind now, should be—Can I get my Creator to help me, by calling on the titles of pagan GODS?

It is our prayer that all who read The Book of Yahweh will completely turn to Yahweh with all their hearts, calling WITH the Name of Yahweh, as Yahweh inspired His prophet Yahyl to proclaim in Yahyl 2:31-32.

May Yahweh bless your understanding.

GENESIS

BERESHITH In The Beginning

In the beginning Yahweh created the heavens and the earth.

2 Now the earth became without form and empty; and darkness was upon the face of the deep. And the Spirit of Yahweh was hovering over the face of the waters.

3 And Yahweh said, Let there be light; and there was light.

4 And Yahweh saw the light, that it was beneficial; and Yahweh divided between the light and between the darkness.

5 And Yahweh called the light Day, and the darkness He called Night. And the evening and then the morning were the First Day.

6 And Yahweh said, Let there be an expanse between the waters and let there be separation between waters from the waters.

7 So Yahweh made the expanse, and separated the water under the expanse from the water above it. And it was so.

8 And Yahweh called the expanse Sky. And the evening and then the morning were the Second Day.

9 And Yahweh said, Let the waters under the sky be gathered to one place and let the dry land appear. And it was so.

10 And Yahweh called the dry land Earth and the gathered waters He called Seas. And Yahweh saw that it was fitting.

11 Then Yahweh said, Let the earth produce vegetation: seed-bearing plants and trees on the land that bear fruit with seed in it, according to their various kinds. And it was so.

12 And the earth produced vegetation: seed-bearing plants according to their kind and seed-bearing trees according to their kind. And Yahweh saw that it was right.

13 And the evening and then the morning were the Third Day.

14 And Yahweh said, Let there be lights in the expanse of the sky to separate the day from the night, and let them serve as signs to mark the Feasts, and for days and years.

15 And let them be lights in the expanse of the sky to give light on the earth. And it was so.

16 Yahweh made two great lights—the greater light to govern the day and the lesser light to govern the night. He also made the stars.

17 And Yahweh set them in the expanse of the sky to give light on the earth:

18 To govern the day and the night, and to separate light from darkness. And Yahweh saw that it was right.

19 So the evening and then the morning were the Fourth Day.

20 Then Yahweh said, Let the waters bring forth an abundance of living creatures, and let birds fly above the earth across the expanse of the sky.

21 So Yahweh created great sea creatures and every living thing that moves, with which the waters abounded, according to their kind; and every winged bird according to its kind. And Yahweh saw that it was fitting.

22 And Yahweh blessed them, saying, Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the waters in the seas, and let birds multiply on the earth.

23 So the evening and then the morning were the Fifth Day.

24 Then Yahweh said, Let the earth bring forth the living creature according to its kind: cattle, and creeping thing, and beast of the earth, each according to its kind. And it was so.

25 And Yahweh made the beast of the earth according to its kind, cattle according to its kind, and everything that creeps on the earth according to its kind. And Yahweh saw that it was right.

26 Then Yahweh said, I will make man in My image, according to My likeness; they will have rulership over the fish of the sea, over the birds of the air, over the cattle, and over all the earth and over every creeping thing that creeps upon the earth.

27 So Yahweh created man in His own image, in the image of Yahweh He created him; male and female He created them.

28 Then Yahweh blessed them, and Yahweh said to them; Be fruitful and multiply; fill the earth and subdue it: have rulership over the fish of the sea, over the birds of the air, and over every living thing that moves on the earth.

29 And Yahweh said; Behold, I have given you every herb that yields seed which is on the face of all the earth, and every tree whose fruit yields seed; to you it shall be for food.

30 Also, to every beast of the earth, to every bird of the air, and to everything that creeps on the earth, in which there is life, I have given every green herb for food. And it was so.

31 Then Yahweh saw everything that He had made, and indeed it was very right. So the evening and the morning were the Sixth Day.

CHAP. 2

Thus the heavens and the earth, and all the host of them, were finished,

2 And on the Seventh Day Yahweh ended His work which He had done, and He rested on the Seventh Day from all His work which He had done.

3 Then Yahweh blessed the Seventh Day and set it apart to be holy, because in it He rested from all His work which Yahweh had created and made.

4 This is the genealogical history of the heavens and the earth when they were created, in the day that Yahweh made the earth and the heavens,

5 Before any plant of the field was in the earth, and before any herb of the field had grown: for Yahweh had not caused it to rain on the earth, and there was no man to work the ground;

6 But a mist went up from the earth and watered the whole face of the ground.

7 And Yahweh formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living being.

8 Yahweh planted a garden eastward in Eden, and there He put the man whom He had formed.

9 And out of the ground Yahweh made every tree grow that is pleasant to the sight, and desirable for food. The Tree of Life was in the midst of the garden, and the Tree of the Knowledge of Righteousness and Evil was in the midst also.

10 Now a river went out of Eden to water the garden, and from there it parted and became four riverheads.

11 The name of the first is Pishon: it is the one which encompasses the whole land of Havilah, where there is gold.

12 And the gold of that land is of high quality. Pearls and the onyx stone are there.

13 The name of the second river is Gihon: it is the one which encompasses the whole land of Cush.

14 The name of the third river is Tigris: it is the one which goes toward the east of Assyria. The fourth river is the Euphrates.

15 Then Yahweh took the man and put him in the garden of Eden to work and care for it.

16 And Yahweh commanded the man, saying, Of every tree of the garden you may freely eat;

17 But of the Tree of the Knowledge of Righteousness and Evil you must not eat, for in the day that you eat of it you shall surely die.

18 And Yahweh said, It is not satisfactory that man should be alone; I will make him a helper suitable for him.

19 Out of the ground Yahweh formed every beast of the field and every bird of the air, and brought them to Adam to see what he would name them. And whatever Adam named each living creature, that was its name.

20 So Adam gave names to all cattle, to the birds of the air, and to every beast of the field. But for Adam there was not found a helper suitable for him.

21 And Yahweh caused a deep sleep to fall on Adam, and he slept; and He took flesh and bone from man's side and closed up the flesh in its place.

22 Then the flesh and bone which Yahweh had taken from man, He made into a woman; and He brought her to the man.

23 And Adam said, This is now bone from my bones and flesh from my flesh; She shall be called Woman, because she was taken out of Man.

24 Therefore a man shall leave his father and mother, and he will be united to his wife: and they will be as one flesh.

25 And they were both naked, the man and his wife, and they felt no shame.

CHAP. 3

Now the serpent was more subtle and crafty than any beast of the field which Yahweh had made. And he said to the woman, Has Yahweh indeed said, You shall not eat of every tree of the garden?

2 And the woman said to the serpent, We may eat the fruit of the trees of the garden;

3 But of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, Yahweh has said, You shall not eat it, nor shall you touch it, or you will die.

4 And the serpent said to the woman, You will not surely die.

5 For He knows that in the day you eat of it, your eyes will be opened, and you will be like Him, knowing righteousness and evil.

6 So when the woman saw that the tree was desirable for food, that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree desirable to make one wise, she took of its fruit and ate. She also gave to her husband with her, and he ate.

7 Then the eyes of both of them were opened, and they knew that they were naked; and they sewed fig leaves together and made themselves coverings.

8 And they heard the sound of Yahweh walking in the garden in the cool of the day, and Adam and his wife hid themselves from the presence of Yahweh among the trees of the garden.

9 Then Yahweh called to Adam and said to him, Where are you?

10 So he said, I heard Your voice in the garden, and I was afraid because I was naked; and I hid myself.

11 And He said, Who told you that you were naked? You have eaten from the tree of which I commanded you that you should not eat!

12 Then the man said, The woman whom You gave to be with me, she gave me of the tree and I ate.

13 And Yahweh said to the woman, What is this you have done? And the woman said, The serpent deceived me, and I ate.

14 So Yahweh said to the serpent: Because you have done this, you are cursed more than all cattle, and more than every beast of the field; on your belly you shall go, and you shall eat dust all the days of your life.

15 And I will put enmity between you and the woman, And between your seed and her seed; He shall bruise your head, and you shall bruise His heel.

16 To the woman He said: I will greatly multiply your sorrow and your conception. In pain you shall bring forth children; your desire shall be for your husband, and he shall rule over you.

17 Then to Adam He said, Because you have heeded the voice of your wife, and have eaten from the tree of which I commanded you, saying, You must not eat of it: Cursed will be the ground for your sake; in toil you shall eat from it all the days of your life.

18 Both thorns and thistles it shall bring forth for you, and you shall eat the herb of the field.

19 In the sweat of your face you shall eat bread till you return to the ground, for out of it you were taken; for dust you were, and to dust you shall return.

20 And Adam called his wife's name, Eve, because she was the mother of all living.

21 Also for Adam and his wife did Yahweh make garments of skin, and clothed them.

22 Then Yahweh said, Behold, the man has become like one who has begun to know righteousness and evil. And now, he must not be allowed to put out his hand and also take of the Tree of Life, and eat and live forever.

23 Therefore Yahweh sent him out of the garden of Eden, to work the ground from which he was taken.

24 So He drove out the man; and He placed cherubim at the east of the garden of Eden, and a flaming sword which turned every way, to guard the way to the Tree of Life.

CHAP. 4

Now Adam knew Eve his wife, and she conceived and bore Cain, and she said, I have brought forth a man with the help of Yahweh.

2 Then she bore again, this time his brother Abel was born. Now Abel was a keeper of sheep, but Cain was a tiller of the ground.

3 And on ● one of Yahweh's Sabbaths, it came to pass that Cain brought an offering of the fruit of the ground to Yahweh.

4 Abel also brought of the firstlings of his flock and of their fat. And Yahweh respected and honored Abel and his offering;

5 But He did not respect nor honor Cain and his offering. And Cain was very angry, and his countenance fell.

6 So Yahweh said to Cain, Why are you angry? Why are you downcast?

7 If you do well, will you not be accepted? And if you do not do well, sin is crouching at your door. The desire to sin is with you, but you must overcome it!

8 Now Cain talked with Abel his brother; and it came to pass, when they were in the field, that Cain rose against Abel his brother and killed him.

9 Then Yahweh said to Cain, Where is Abel your brother? And he said, I do not know. Am I my brother's keeper?

10 And He said, What have you done? The voice of your brother's blood cries out to Me from the ground.

11 So now, you are cursed from the earth which has opened its mouth to receive your brother's blood from your hand.

12 When you work the soil, it shall no longer yield its strength to you. A fugitive and a vagabond you shall be on the earth.

13 And Cain said to Yahweh, My punishment is greater that I can bear!

14 Surely You have driven me out this day from the face of the ground; I shall not be seen by Your face. I shall be a fugitive and a vagabond on the earth, and it shall be that anyone who finds me will kill me.

15 And Yahweh said to him, Not so! Whoever kills Cain, vengeance shall be taken on him sevenfold. And Yahweh set a mark on Cain, lest anyone finding him should kill him.

16 Then Cain went out from the presence of Yahweh and dwelt in the land of Nod, on the east of Eden.

17 And Cain knew his wife, and she conceived, and bore Enoch. And he built a city, and called the name of the city after the name of his son, which is Enoch.

18 To Enoch was born Irad; and Irad begot Mehuyael, and Mehuyael begot Methushael, and Methushael begot Lamech.

19 Then Lamech took for himself two wives: the name of his first was Adah, and the name of his second was Zillah.

20 And Adah bore Yabal. He was the father of those who dwell in tents and have livestock.

21 His brother's name was Yubal. He was the father of those who play the harp and flute.

22 And as for Zillah, she also bore Tubal-Cain, a teacher of every craftsman in bronze and iron. And the sister of Tubal-Cain was Naamah.

23 Then Lamech said to his wives: Adah and Zillah, hear my voice; O wives of Lamech, listen to my speech! For I have killed a man for wounding me, even a young man for hurting me.

24 If Cain shall be avenged sevenfold, then Lamech seventy-sevenfold.

25 And Adam knew his wife again, and she bore a son, and named him Seth, for she said, For Yahweh has appointed another seed for me in the place of Abel, whom Cain killed.

26 And as for Seth, to him also a son was born; and he named him Enosh. It was then that the • Name of Yahweh began to be invoked.

CHAP. 5

This is the account of the • begettings of Adam. In the day that Yahweh created man, He made him in the likeness of Yahweh.

2 He created them male and female, and blessed them, and named them Mankind in the day they were created.

3 And Adam lived one hundred and thirty years, and begot a son in his own likeness, after his image, and named him Seth.

4 After he begot Seth, the days of Adam were eight hundred years; and he begot other sons and daughters.

5 So all the days that Adam lived were nine hundred and thirty years; and he died.

6 Seth lived one hundred and five years and begot Enosh.

7 After he begot Enosh, Seth lived eight hundred and seven years, and begot other sons and daughters.

8 So all the days of Seth were nine hundred and twelve years; and he died.

9 Enosh lived ninety years and begot Qenan.

10 After he begot Qenan, Enosh lived eight hundred and fifteen years, and begot other sons and daughters.

11 So all the days of Enosh were nine hundred and five years; and he died.

12 Qenan lived seventy years, and begot

Mahalalyl.

13 After he begot Mahalalyl, Qenan lived eight hundred and forty years, and begot other sons and daughters.

14 So all the days of Qenan were nine hundred and ten years; and he died.

15 Mahalalyl lived sixty-five years, and begot Yared.

16 After he begot Yared, Mahalalyl lived eight hundred and thirty years, and begot other sons and daughters.

17 So all the days of Mahalalyl were eight hundred and ninety-five years; and he died.

18 Yared lived one hundred and sixty-two years, and begot Enoch.

19 After he begot Enoch, Yared lived eight hundred years, and begot other sons and daughters.

20 So all the days of Yared were nine hundred and sixty-two years; and he died.

21 Enoch lived sixty-five years and begot Methuselah.

22 After he begot Methuselah, Enoch walked in reverence of Yahweh three hundred years, and begot other sons and daughters.

23 So all the days of Enoch were three hundred and sixty-five years.

24 And Enoch walked in reverence of Yahweh, and then he was no more, for Yahweh took him away and he died.

25 Methuselah lived one hundred and eighty-seven years, and begot Lamech.

26 After he begot Lamech, Methuselah lived seven hundred and eighty-two years, and begot other sons and daughters.

27 So all the days of Methuselah were nine hundred and sixty-nine years; and he died.

28 Lamech lived one hundred and eighty-two years, and begot a son.

29 And he called his name Noah, saying, This son will comfort us concerning our work and the toil of our hands, because of the ground which Yahweh has cursed.

30 After he begot Noah, Lamech lived five hundred and ninety-five years, and begot other sons and daughters.

31 So all the days of Lamech were seven hundred and seventy-seven years; and he died.

32 And Noah was five hundred years old, and Noah begot Shem, Ham, and Yapheth.

CHAP. 6

Now it came to pass, when men began to multiply on the face of the earth, and daughters were born to them,

2 That the sons of the gods saw the daughters of men, that they were beautiful; and they took wives for themselves of all whom they chose.

3 And Yahweh said, My Spirit will not strive with man forever, for he is indeed flesh; yet his days shall be one hundred and twenty years.

• Began to pray WITH the Name of Yahweh; Anchor Bible, Vol. 1, pp. 37, Doubleday, Garden City, New York. Commentary on the Holy Scriptures, Vol. 1, pps. 253,262, Zondervan, Grand Rapids, MI

• Toledoth: The Genealogical History of Family Descents. Anchor Bible, Vol. 1, pp. 40.

4 There were tyrants on the earth in those days, and also afterward, when the sons of the gods came in to the daughters of men, and they bore children to them. Those were the mighty men who were of old, men of renown and of an infamous name.

5 Then Yahweh saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and every intent of the thoughts of man's heart was only evil, continually.

6 And Yahweh was sorry that He had made man on the earth, and He was grieved in His heart.

7 So Yahweh said, I will destroy man, whom I have created, from the face of the earth; both man and beast, creeping thing and birds of the air, for I am regretting that I have made them.

8 But Noah found regard and honor in the eyes of Yahweh.

9 These are the begettings of Noah. Noah was a just man, perfect in his begettings. Noah walked in the reverence of Yahweh.

10 And Noah begot three sons: Shem, Ham, and Yapheth.

11 The earth also was corrupt before Yahweh, and the earth was filled with violence.

12 So Yahweh looked upon the earth, and indeed it was corrupt; for all flesh had corrupted their way on the earth.

13 And Yahweh said to Noah, The end of all flesh has come before Me, for the earth is filled with violence through them; and I will destroy them with the earth.

14 Make yourself an ark of gopher-wood, that is, cypress; make rooms in the ark, and cover it inside and outside with pitch.

15 And this is how you shall make it: The length of the ark shall be three hundred cubits; 450 ft. long, its width fifty cubits; 75 ft. wide, and its height thirty cubits; 45 ft. high.

16 You shall make a window for the ark, and you shall finish it to a cubit, at least 18 inches, from above; and set the door of the ark in the side. You shall build it with lower, middle, and upper decks inside.

17 And behold, I, Myself, am bringing the flood of waters on the earth, to destroy from under heaven all flesh in which the breath of life is; everything on the earth shall die.

18 But I will establish My covenant with you; and you shall go into the ark; you, your sons, your wife, and your sons' wives with you.

19 And of every living thing of all flesh you shall bring two of every species into the ark, to keep them alive with you; they shall be male and female.

20 Of the birds after their kind, of animals after their kind, and of every creeping thing of the earth after its kind, two of every species will come to you to keep their kind alive.

21 And you shall take for yourself of all food that is eaten, and you shall gather this to yourself; and it shall be food for you and for them.

22 Thus Noah did; according to all that Yahweh commanded him, so he did.

CHAP. 7

Then Yahweh said to Noah, Come into the ark, you and all your household, for I have seen you righteous before Me in this generation.

2 You shall take with you seven each of every clean animal, a male and his female; two each of animals that are unclean, a male and his female;

3 But seven pair of birds of the air, male and female, you will take with you to keep the species alive on the face of all the earth.

4 For after seven days more I will cause it to rain on the earth forty days and forty nights; and I will destroy all living things that I have made from the face of the earth.

5 And Noah did according to all that Yahweh commanded him.

6 Noah was six hundred years old when the flood of waters came on the earth.

7 So Noah, with his sons, his wife, and his sons' wives, went into the ark because of the waters of the flood.

8 Of clean beasts, of unclean beasts, of birds, and of everything that creeps on the earth.

9 Two by two they went into the ark to Noah, male and female, as Yahweh had commanded Noah.

10 And it came to pass after seven days that the waters of the flood were on the earth.

11 In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second moon, the seventeenth day of the moon, on that day all the fountains of the great deep were broken up, and the windows of heaven were opened;

12 And the rain was on the earth forty days and forty nights.

13 On the very same day Noah, and Noah's sons: Shem, Ham, and Yapheth, and Noah's wife, and the three wives of his sons with them, entered the ark—

14 They, every beast after its kind, all cattle after their kind, every creeping thing that creeps on the earth, after its kind, and every bird after its kind, every bird of every species;

15 And they went into the ark to Noah, two by two, of all flesh in which is the breath of life.

16 So those that entered, male and female of all flesh, went in as Yahweh had commanded him; and Yahweh shut him in.

17 Now the flood was on the earth forty days.

The waters increased and lifted up the ark, and it rose high above the earth.

18 The waters came up and greatly increased on the earth, and the ark moved about on the surface of the waters.

19 And the waters prevailed greatly on the earth, and all the high hills under the whole heaven were covered.

20 The waters covered more than twenty feet above the mountains.

21 And all flesh died that lived on the earth; birds, and cattle, and beasts, and every creeping thing that creeps on the earth, and every man:

22 All in whose nostrils the breath of the spirit of life had been; all that lived on the dry land, died.

23 So He destroyed all living things which were on the face of the ground: both man and cattle, creeping thing and bird of the air. They were destroyed from the earth. Only Noah and those who were with him in the ark remained.

24 And the waters flooded the earth one hundred and fifty days.

CHAP. 8

Then Yahweh remembered Noah, and every living thing, and all the animals that came with him in the ark. And Yahweh made a wind to pass over the earth, and the waters receded.

2 The fountains of the deep and the windows of heaven were also stopped, and the rain from heaven was restrained.

3 And the waters receded continuously from the earth. At the end of the hundred and fifty days the waters decreased.

4 Then the ark rested in the seventh moon, the seventeenth day of the moon, on the mountains of Ararat.

5 And the waters decreased continually until the tenth moon. In the tenth moon, on the first day of the moon, the tops of the mountains were seen.

6 So it came to pass, at the end of forty days, that Noah opened the window of the ark which he had made.

7 Then he sent out a raven which kept going to and fro, until the waters had dried up from the earth.

8 He also sent out from himself a dove to see if the waters had abated from the face of the ground.

9 But the dove found no resting place for the sole of her foot, and she returned into the ark to him, for the waters covered the face of the whole earth. So he put out his hand and took her, and drew her into the ark to himself.

10 And he waited yet another seven days, and again he sent the dove out from the ark.

11 Then the dove came to him in the evening and behold, a freshly picked green ear of barley was in her mouth; and Noah knew that the waters had abated from the ground.

12 So he waited yet another seven days and sent out the dove, which did not again return to him anymore.

13 And it came to pass in the six hundred and first year, in the first moon, the first day of the moon, that the waters were dried up from the earth; and Noah removed the covering of the ark, and looked, and truly the surface of the ground was dry.

14 And in the second moon, on the twenty-seventh day of the moon, the earth was dried.

15 Then Yahweh spoke to Noah, saying,

16 Go out of the ark, you and your wife, and your sons and your sons' wives with you.

17 Bring out with you every living thing of all flesh that is with you: birds, and cattle, and every creeping thing that creeps on the earth, so that they may abound on the earth, and be fruitful and multiply on the earth.

18 So Noah went out, and his sons and his wife and his sons' wives with him.

19 Every beast, every creeping thing, every bird; whatever creeps on the earth, went out of the ark.

20 Then Noah built an altar to Yahweh, and took of every clean animal and of every clean bird, and offered burnt offerings on the altar.

21 And Yahweh smelled the pleasing aroma. Then Yahweh said in His heart, I will never again curse the ground for man's sake, although the imagination of man's heart is evil from his youth; nor will I again destroy every living thing, as I have done.

22 While the earth remains, seedtime and harvest, and cold and heat, and winter and summer, and day and night, shall not cease.

CHAP. 9

So Yahweh blessed Noah and his sons, and said to them: Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth.

2 And the fear of you and the dread of you shall be on every beast of the earth, on every bird of the air, on all that moves on earth, and on all the fish of the sea. They are given into your hand.

3 Every clean moving thing that lives shall be food for you. I have given you all clean things, even as the green herbs.

4 But you shall not eat flesh with its life; its blood, in it.

5 Surely for your lifeblood I will demand an accounting; from the hand of every beast I will require it, and from the hand of man. From the hand of every man's brother, I will require the life of man.

6 Whoever sheds man's blood, by man his blood shall be shed; for in the image of Yahweh He made man.

7 And as for you, be fruitful and multiply; bring forth abundantly in the earth and multiply in it.

8 Then Yahweh spoke to Noah and to his sons with him, saying:

9 And as for Me, behold, I establish My covenant with you and with your descendants after you.

10 And with every living creature that is with you: the birds, the cattle, and every beast of the earth with you, of all that go out of the ark, every beast of the earth.

11 Thus I establish My covenant with you: Never again shall all flesh be cut off by the waters of the flood; never again shall there be a flood to destroy the earth.

12 And Yahweh said: This shall be the sign of the covenant which I make between Me and you, and every living creature that is with you, for perpetual generations:

13 I set My rainbow in the cloud, and it shall be for the sign of the covenant between Me and the earth.

14 It shall be, when I bring a cloud over the earth, that the rainbow shall be seen in the cloud;

15 And I will remember My covenant which is between Me and you, and every living creature of all flesh; the waters shall never again become a flood to destroy all flesh.

16 The rainbow shall be in the cloud, and I will look on it to remember the everlasting covenant between Me and every living creature of all flesh that is on the earth.

17 And Yahweh said to Noah, This is the sign of the covenant which I have established between Me and all flesh that lives on the earth.

18 Now the sons of Noah who went out of the ark were Shem, Ham, and Yapheth. And Ham became the father of Canaan.

19 These three were the sons of Noah, and from these the whole earth was populated.

20 And Noah, a man of the soil, was the first to plant a vineyard.

21 Then he drank of the wine and was drunk, and became uncovered in his tent.

22 And Ham, the father of Canaan, saw the nakedness of his father, and told his two brothers outside.

23 But Shem and Yapheth took a garment, laid it on both their shoulders, and went backward, and covered the nakedness of their father. Their faces were turned away, and they did not see their father's nakedness.

24 So Noah awoke from his wine, and knew what his younger son had done to him.

25 Then he said: Cursed be Canaan; a slave of servants he shall be to his brothers.

26 And he said: Blessed be Yahweh, the Father of Shem, and may Canaan be his servant.

27 May Yahweh enlarge Yapheth, and may he dwell in the tents of Shem; and may Canaan be his servant.

28 And Noah lived after the flood three hundred and fifty years.

29 So all the days of Noah were nine hundred and fifty years; and he died.

CHAP. 10

Now these are the begettings of the sons of Noah: Shem, Ham, and Yapheth. And sons were born to them after the flood.

2 The sons of Yapheth were Gomer, Magog, Madai, Yavan, Tubal, Meshech, and Tiras.

3 The sons of Gomer were Ashkenaz, Riphath, and Togarmah.

4 The sons of Yavan were Elishah, Tarshish, Kittim, and Dodanim.

5 From these the coastland gentile peoples were separated into their lands, everyone according to his own language, according to their families, into their nations.

6 The sons of Ham were Cush, Mitzraim, Put, and Canaan.

7 The sons of Cush were Seba, Havilah, Sabtah, Raamah, and Sabtechah; and the sons of Raamah were Sheba and Dedan.

8 Cush begot Nimrod; he began to be a mighty one on the earth.

9 He was a tyrant who deceived, who turned against Yahweh, therefore it is said: Like Nimrod, the tyrant who deceived, who turned against Yahweh.

10 And the beginning of his kingdom was Babel, Erech, Accad, and Calneh in the land of Shinar, that is, Babylon.

11 From that land he went to Assyria and built Neneveh, Rehoboth Ir, Calah,

12 And Resen, between Neneveh and Calah (that is the principal city),

13 Mitzraim begot Ludim, Anamim, Lehabim, Naphtuhim,

14 Pathrusim, and Casluhim (from whom came the Philistines and Caphtorim).

15 Canaan begot Sidon, his firstborn, and Heth;

16 The Yebusite, the Amorite, and the Girgashite;

17 The Hivite, the Arkite, and the Sinite;

18 The Arvadite, the Zemarite, and Hamathite. Afterward the families of the Canaanites were dispersed.

19 And the border of the Canaanites was from Sidon as you go toward Gerar, as far as Gaza; then as you go toward Sodom, Gomorrah, Admah, and Zeboiym, as far as Lasha.

20 These were the sons of Ham, according to their families, according to their languages, in their lands, in their nations.

21 And sons and daughters were born also to Shem, the father of all the children of Eber (Hebrews), the brother of Yapheth the elder son.

22 The sons of Shem were Elam, Asshur, Arphaxad, Lud, and Aram.

23 The sons of Aram were Uz, Hul, Gether, and Meshech.

24 Arphaxad begot Salah, and Salah begot Eber.

25 To Eber were born two sons: the name of one was Peleg, for in his days the earth was divided; and Yoktan was his brother's name.

26 Yoktan begot Almodad, Shepheph, Hatzarmaveth, Yerah,

27 Hadoram, Uzal, Diklah,

28 Obal, Abimael, Sheba,

29 Ohpir, Havilah, and Yobab. All these were the sons of Yoktan.

30 And their dwelling place was from Mesha as you go toward Sephar, the mountain of the east.

31 These were the sons of Shem, according to their families, according to their languages, in their lands, according to their nations.

32 These were the families of the sons of Noah, according to their begettings, in their nations; and from these the nations were divided on the earth after the flood.

CHAP. 11

Now the whole earth had one language and one speech.

2 And it came to pass, as they journeyed from the east, that they found a plain in the land of Shinar; Babylon, and they settled there.

3 Then they said to one another, Come, let us make bricks and burn them thoroughly. They had brick for stone, and they had bitumen for mortar.

4 And they said, Come, let us build ourselves a city, and a tower whose top is in the heavens; let us make a name for ourselves, lest we be scattered abroad over the face of the whole earth.

5 But Yahweh came down to see the city and the tower which the sons of men had built.

6 And Yahweh said, Indeed the people are one and they all have one language, and this is what they begin to do; after this nothing that they purpose to do will be withheld from them.

7 Come now! I will go down, and there I will confuse their language, that they may not understand one another's speech.

8 So Yahweh scattered them abroad from there over the face of all the earth, and they ceased building the city.

9 Therefore its name is called ● Babel, because there Yahweh confounded the languages of all the earth:

10 These are the begettings of Shem: Shem was one hundred years old, and begot Arphaxad two years after the flood.

11 After he begot Arphaxad, Shem lived five hundred years, and begot other sons and daughters.

12 Arphaxad lived thirty-five years, and begot Salah.

13 After he begot Salah, Arphaxad lived four hundred and three years, and begot other sons and daughters.

14 Salah lived thirty years and begot Eber.

15 After he begot Eber, Salah lived four hundred and three years, and begot other sons and daughters.

16 Eber lived thirty-four years and begot Peleg.

17 After he begot Peleg, Eber lived four hundred and thirty years, and begot other sons and daughters.

18 Peleg lived thirty years, and begot Reu.

19 After he begot Reu, Peleg lived two hundred and nine years, and begot other sons and daughters.

20 Reu lived thirty-two years, and begot Serug.

21 After he begot Serug, Reu lived two hundred and seven years, and begot other sons and daughters.

22 Serug lived thirty years, and begot Nahor.

23 After he begot Nahor, Serug lived two hundred years, and begot other sons and daughters.

24 Nahor lived twenty-nine years, and begot Terah.

25 After he begot Terah, Nahor lived one hundred and nineteen years, and begot other sons and daughters.

26 Now Terah lived seventy years, and begot Abram, Nahor, and Haran.

27 These are the begettings of Terah: Terah begot Abram, Nahor, and Haran. Haran begot Lot.

28 And Haran died before his father Terah in his native land, in Ur of the Chaldees.

29 Then Abram and Nahor took wives: the name of Abram's wife was Sarai, and the name of Nahor's wife was Milcah, the daughter of Haran, who was the father of Milcah and the father of Iscah.

30 But Sarai was barren: she had no child.

31 And Terah took his son Abram and his grandson Lot, the son of Haran, and his daughter-in-law Sarai, his son Abram's wife, and they went out with them from Ur of the Chaldees to go to the land of Canaan; and they came to Haran and dwelt there.

32 So the days of Terah were two hundred and five years, and Terah died in Haran.

● Bab-EL, literally: Gate of God, hence: Confusion.

CHAP. 12

Now Yahweh had said to Abram, Get out of your country, from your kindred and from your father's house, to a land that I will show you.

2 I will make of you a great nation, and I will bless you, and make your name great; and you shall be a blessing.

3 And I will bless those who bless you, and curse him who curses you; and in you shall all families of the earth be blessed.

4 So Abram departed as Yahweh had spoken unto him; and Lot went with him. And Abram was seventy-five years old when he departed from Haran.

5 And Abram took Sarai, his wife, and Lot, his brother's son, and all their possessions they had accumulated, and the people they had acquired in Haran, and they went forth to go into the land of Canaan; and into the land of Canaan they came.

6 And Abram traveled through the land as far as the site of Shechem, to the tree of Moreh; and the Canaanites were then in the land.

7 Then Yahweh appeared to Abram, and said, To your descendants I will give this land. And he built an altar there to Yahweh Who appeared to him.

8 And he went from there to the hill east of ● Beth El, and he pitched his tent there; Beth El was to the west of him, and Ai was to the east. There he built an altar to Yahweh, and there he prayed with the Name of Yahweh.

9 Then Abram set out to continue on to the Negev.

10 And there was a famine in the land; Abram went down to Egypt to live there, for the famine was severe in the land.

11 Just as he was about to enter into Egypt he said to Sarai, his wife: See, now I know you are a beautiful woman.

12 And it will be when the Egyptians see you they will know you are my wife and they will kill me, but they will let you live.

13 Now say you are my sister that it may be well for me and my life will be spared because of you.

14 As he came into Egypt the Egyptians saw that she was a very beautiful woman.

15 When Pharaoh's officials saw her they praised her to Pharaoh and she was taken to Pharaoh's palace of women.

16 For Sarai's sake Pharaoh treated Abram well and gave him sheep, cattle, donkeys, menservants, maidservants, female donkeys and camels.

17 But Yahweh inflicted serious diseases upon Pharaoh and his household because of Sarai, Abram's wife.

18 And Pharaoh summoned Abram, and said, What is this you did to me? Why did you not tell me that she was your wife?

19 Why did you say she was your sister? I took her to be for a wife and she is your wife! Take her and go!

20 So Pharaoh gave orders to his men concerning him; and they sent him away with his wife and all that he had.

CHAP. 13

Then Abram went up from Egypt: he, his wife, and everything he had, and Lot went with him to the Negev.

2 Abram had become very wealthy in livestock, silver, and gold.

3 And he went on his journey from the Negev, and from Beth El to the place his tent was placed at the beginning; between Beth El and Ai.

4 To the place of the altar which he had built at the beginning. And there Abram called with the Name of Yahweh.

5 Lot, who went with Abram, also had flocks, herds, and tents.

6 But the land could not support them together, because their possessions were too great to stay together.

7 And there arose a quarrel between Abram's herdsmen and between Lot's herdsmen; and the Canaanite and the Perizzite then lived in the land.

8 So Abraham said to Lot, Let there not now be quarreling between me and you, and between my herdsmen and your herdsmen, for we men are brothers.

9 Is not the whole land before you? Let us part company now. If you go to the left, then I will go to the right. And if you go to the right, then I will go to the left.

10 Then Lot looked up and saw the whole plain of Yordan, that it was well watered everywhere, before Yahweh destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah, like the garden of Yahweh, like the land of Egypt going toward Zoar.

11 Then Lot chose for himself all the plain of Yordan, and Lot journeyed east. And they parted company from each other.

12 Abram lived in the land of Canaan, and Lot lived in the cities of the plain and pitched his tents as far as Sodom.

13 Now the men of Sodom were wicked and were sinning greatly against Yahweh.

14 And Yahweh said to Abram, after Lot had parted from him: Lift your eyes from where you are and look north and south, east and west.

15 All the land you see, to you and your offspring I give forever.

16 And I will make your offspring as the dust of the earth; so that if a man could count the dust of the earth, your descendants also could be numbered.

17 Go, walk through the length and breadth of the land, for I am giving it to you.

18 So Abram moved his tents and went to live near the trees of Mamre near Hebron; and he built an altar there to Yahweh.

CHAP. 14

And it came to pass in the days of Amraphel king of Shinar, Arioch king of Ellasar, Chedorlaomer king of Elam, and Tidal king of Nations, Goyim.

2 That they made war with Bera king of Sodom, Birsha king of Gomorrah, Shinab king of Admah, Shemeber king of Zeboiyim, and the king of Bela, that is Zoar.

3 All these joined forces in the Siddim Valley (the Salt Sea).

4 They had served Chedorlaomer twelve years, but in the thirteenth year they rebelled.

5 In the fourteenth year Chedorlaomer and the kings allied with him came and defeated the Rephaites in Ashteroth Karnaim, the Zuzim in Ham, the Emim in Shaweh Kiryatyam.

6 And the Horites in their mountain of Seir, as far as El Paran near the desert.

7 Then they turned back and came to En Mishpat, (that is Kadesh), and attacked all the country of the Amalekites, and also the Amorites who lived in Hatzetzon Tamar.

8 And the king of Sodom, the king of Gomorrah, the king of Admah, the king of Zeboiyim, and the king of Bela (that is Zoar) went out and joined together in battle in the Valley of Siddim:

9 Against Chedorlaomer king of Elam, Tidal king of Nations, Goyim, Amraphel king of Shinar, and Arioch king of Ellasar: four kings against five.

10 Now the Valley of Siddim was full of tar pits, and when the kings of Sodom and Gomorrah fled, some of the men fell there, and the remainder fled to the mountains.

11 Then they took all the possessions of Sodom and Gomorrah, and all their food, and they went away

12 They also took Lot, Abram's brother's son who lived in Sodom, and his possessions, and departed.

13 Then one who had escaped came and reported this to Abram the Hebrew. Now he lived by the trees of Mamre the Amorite, brother of Eshcol and brother of Aner; they were allies with Abram.

14 Now when Abram heard his brother was taken captive, he armed the three hundred and eighteen trained men born in his household and went in pursuit as far as Dan.

15 During the night Abram divided his men against them, and routed them, and pursued them as far as Hobah, which is north of Damascus.

16 So he recovered all the possessions. Lot and all of his possessions he brought back also, together with the women and the people.

17 And the king of Sodom went out to meet him at the Valley of Shaweh (that is the King's Valley), after his return from the defeat of Chedorlaomer and of the kings with him.

18 Then Melchizedek, king of Salem, brought out bread and wine; he was the priest of Yahweh Most High.

19 And he blessed him, and said, Blessed be Abram by Yahweh Most High, Creator of heaven and earth:

20 And blessed be Yahweh Most High, Who has delivered your enemies into your hand. And he gave him tithes of all.

21 Now the king of Sodom said to Abram, Give me the people and take the possessions for yourself.

22 But Abram said to the king of Sodom, I have lifted my hand to Yahweh Most High, the Creator of heaven and earth.

23 That I will take nothing, even from a thread to a thong of a sandal, so that you will never be able to say, I have made Abram rich.

24 I will accept nothing but what my men have eaten and the share that belongs to the men who went with me: to Aner, Eshcol, and Mamre. Let them have their share.

CHAP. 15

After these things the word of Yahweh came to Abram in a vision, saying, Fear not, Abram, I am your shield. Your reward shall be very great.

2 But Abram said, Father Yahweh, what will You give me, seeing I go childless, and he who inherits my estate is Eliezer of Damascus?

3 And Abram said, You have given me no children; so a servant in my household will be my heir.

4 And behold, the word of Yahweh came to him, saying, This man will not be your heir, but a son coming from your own body will be your heir.

5 He took him outside, and said, Look up at the heavens and count the stars—if indeed you can count them. And He said to him, So shall you descendants be.

6 And Abram believed Yahweh, and He accounted it to him as righteousness.

7 Then He said to him, I am Yahweh Who brought you out of Ur of the Chaldees to give you this land to inherit it.

8 And he said, Father Yahweh, how shall I know that I will inherit it?

9 So Yahweh said to him, Bring Me a heifer, a goat, and a ram, each three years old, along with a dove and a young pigeon.

10 So Abram brought to him all these. Abram cut them in two and arranged the halves opposite each other; but the birds he did not cut in half.

11 Then birds of prey came down on the carcasses, but Abram drove them away.

12 As the sun was going down a deep sleep fell upon Abram; and a thick and dreadful darkness fell upon him.

13 Then He said to Abram: Know certainly that your descendants will be strangers in a land not their own, and they will be enslaved, and they will afflict them four hundred years.

14 But the nation enslaving them will I judge; and afterward they will come out with great possessions.

15 Now as for you, you shall go to your fathers in peace; and you will be buried in a full old age.

16 But in the fourth generation they shall return here, because the sin of the Amorites has not yet reached its full measure.

17 When the sun had set and the darkness had fallen, a smoking fire pot with a blazing torch appeared and passed between the pieces.

18 On that day Yahweh made a covenant with Abram, saying, To your descendants I have given this land: from the river of Egypt to the great river Euphrates;

19 The land of the Kenites, the Kenezites, and the Kadmonites;

20 The Hittites, the Perizzites, and the Rephaites;

21 The Amorites, the Canaanites, the Girgashites, and the Yebusites.

CHAP. 16

Now Sarai, Abram's wife, had borne him no children. But she had an Egyptian maidservant whose name was Hagar.

2 So Sarai said to Abram, Behold, Yahweh has restrained me from bearing children. Please go in to my maid; it may be that I shall obtain children by her. And Abram heeded the voice of Sarai.

3 Then Sarai, Abram's wife, took Hagar her maid, the Egyptian, and gave her to her husband Abram to be his wife, after Abram had been living in the land of Canaan ten years.

4 So he went in to Hagar, and she conceived. And when she saw that she had conceived, her mistress became despised in her eyes.

5 Then Sarai said to Abram, You are responsible for the wrong I am suffering! I gave my maid into your arms; and when she saw that she had conceived, I am despised in her eyes. May Yahweh judge between you and me.

6 So Abram said to Sarai, Your maid is in your hands; do with her as you think best. Then Sarai mistreated her, so she fled from her presence.

7 Then the malak of Yahweh found her by a spring of water in the desert; the spring that is beside the road to Shur.

8 And he said, Hagar, servant of Sarai, where have you come from, and where are you going? And she said, I am fleeing from the presence of my mistress Sarai.

9 So the malak of Yahweh said to her, Return to your mistress and submit yourself under her hand.

10 Then the malak of Yahweh said to her, I will multiply your descendants exceedingly, so that they shall not be counted for multitude.

11 And the malak of Yahweh said to her: Behold, you are with child and you shall bear a son. You shall call his name, Ishmayl, because Yahweh has heard your affliction.

12 He shall be a wild man, and every man's hand shall be against him, and every man's hand shall be against him. And he shall dwell in the presence of all his brethren.

13 Then she called the Name of Yahweh Who spoke to her, You are Yahweh Who Sees; for she said, Have I also here seen Him Who sees me?

14 Therefore the well was called ● Beer Lahai Roi, it is still there between Kadesh and Bered.

15 So Hagar bore Abram a son; and Abram named his son, whom Hagar bore, Ishmayl.

16 Abram was eighty-six years old when Hagar bore Ishmayl to Abram.

CHAP. 17

When Abram was ninety-nine years old, Yahweh appeared to Abram and said to him, I am Almighty Yahweh; walk in My ways and be perfect.

2 And I will make My covenant between Me and you, and will multiply you exceedingly.

3 Then Abram fell on his face, and Yahweh talked with him, saying:

4 As for Me, behold, My covenant is with you, and you shall be the father of many nations.

5 No longer shall your name be called Abram, but your name shall be Abraham; for I have made you a father of many nations.

6 I will make you exceedingly fruitful, and I will make nations of you, and kings shall come from you.

7 I will establish My covenant as an everlasting covenant between Me, and you, and your descendants after you, for all generations to come, to be your Father and the Father of your descendants after you.

8 Also I give to you and your descendants after you the land in which you are a stranger, all the land of Canaan, as an everlasting possession; and I will be their Father.

9 And Yahweh said to Abraham, As for you, you must keep My covenant, you and your descendants after you, throughout their begettings.

10 This is My covenant which you shall keep between Me and you and your descendants after you: Every male among you shall be circumcised.

11 You are to undergo circumcision in the flesh of your foreskins, and it shall be the sign of the covenant between Me and you.

12 For the begettings to come every male among you who is eight days old must be circumcised, including those born in your household or bought with money from a foreigner, even those who are not your offspring.

13 Whether born in your household or bought with your money, they must be circumcised. My covenant in your flesh is to be an everlasting covenant.

14 Any uncircumcised male who has not been circumcised in the flesh, will be cut off from his people; he has broken My covenant.

15 Then Yahweh said to Abraham, As for Sarai your wife, you shall not call her name Sarai, but Sarah shall be her name.

16 And I will bless her and will surely give you a son by her; then I will bless her, and she shall be the mother of nations; kings of peoples shall come from her.

17 Then Abraham fell facedown. He laughed and said in his mind, Shall a son be born to a man who is one hundred years old? And shall Sarah who is ninety years old bear a son?

18 And Abraham said to Yahweh: If only Yahweh would see and accept Ishmayl!

19 Then Yahweh said: Yes! I see Ishmayl. But Sarah your wife will be bearing you a son and you will call his name, Isaac: I will establish My covenant with him for an everlasting covenant, and with his descendants after him.

20 And for Ishmayl, I have heard you. Behold, I will bless him and I will make him fruitful and I will greatly increase him. Twelve rulers he will father, and I will make him into a great nation;

21 But My covenant I will establish with Isaac, whom Sarah shall bear to you by this time next year.

22 When He had finished speaking with Abraham, Yahweh went up from him.

23 So Abraham took Ishmayl his son, all who were born in his house, and all who were bought with his money, every male among the men of Abraham's house, and circumcised the flesh of their foreskins that very day, just as Yahweh had commanded him.

24 Abraham was ninety-nine years old when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.

25 And Ishmayl his son was thirteen years old when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.

26 That very same day Abraham was circumcised, and his son Ishmayl;

27 And all the men of his house, born in the house or bought with money from a stranger, were circumcised with him.

CHAP. 18

Then Yahweh appeared to him near the trees of Mamre while he was sitting at the entrance to his tent in the heat of the day.

2 So Abraham looked up and saw three men standing nearby; and when he saw them, he ran from the tent door to meet them and bowed low to the ground.

3 He said, If I have now found honor in your eyes, my rulers, do not pass your servant by.

4 Please let a little water be brought, and wash your feet, and rest yourselves under the tree.

5 And I will bring a morsel of bread that you may be refreshed, and then you may go on your way, now that you have come to your servant. And they said, Do as you have said.

6 So Abraham hastened into the tent to Sarah, and said, Quickly knead three seahs of fine flour, and bake cakes.

7 And Abraham ran to the herd, took a tender and fat calf, and gave it to a young man, who hastened to prepare it.

8 He then brought some butter and milk and the calf that had been prepared, and set these before them. While they ate, he stood near them under a tree.

9 Then they said to him, Where is Sarah your wife? And he said, Here, in the tent.

10 And He said, I will certainly return to you according to the time of life, and behold, Sarah your wife shall have a son. And Sarah was listening in the tent door which was behind him.

11 Now Abraham and Sarah were old, well advanced in age; and the manner of women had ceased to be with Sarah.

12 Therefore Sarah laughed within herself, saying, After I have grown old, shall I have pleasure, my husband being old also?

13 And Yahweh said to Abraham, Why did Sarah laugh, saying, Shall I surely bear a son since I am old?

14 Is anything too hard for Yahweh? At the springtime next year I will return to you, and Sarah will have a son.

15 But Sarah denied it, saying, I did not laugh; for she was afraid. And He said, No, but you did laugh.

16 Then the men rose from there, and looked toward Sodom; and Abraham went with them to send them on their way.

17 And Yahweh said, Shall I hide from Abraham what I am about to do;

18 Since Abraham shall surely become a great and mighty nation, and all the nations of the earth shall be blessed in him?

19 For I have chosen him, so that he may command his children and his household after him: that they keep the way of Yahweh, to do what is right and just—so that Yahweh may bring about for Abraham what He has promised to him.

20 And Yahweh said, Because the outcry against Sodom and Gomorrah is great, and because their sin is very grievous.

21 I will go down now, and see whether they have done altogether according to the outcry against it, that has come to Me; and if not, I will know.

22 Then the men turned away from there, and went toward Sodom; but Abraham still stood before Yahweh.

23 And Abraham came near, and said, Would You also destroy the righteous with the wicked?

24 Suppose there were fifty righteous within the city: would You also destroy the place and not spare it for the fifty righteous that were in it?

25 Far be it from You to do such a thing as this, to kill the righteous with the wicked, so that the righteous should be as the wicked; far be it from You! Shall not the Judge of all the earth do right?

26 And Yahweh said, If I find in Sodom fifty righteous within the city, then I will spare all the place for their sakes.

27 Then Abraham spoke up again: Now that I have been so bold as to speak to Yahweh, though I am nothing but dust and ashes.

28 Suppose there were five less than the fifty righteous: would You destroy all of the city for lack of five? And He said, If I find there forty-five, I will not destroy it.

29 Then he spoke to Him yet again, and said, Suppose there are only forty found there? And He said, I will not do it for the sake of forty.

30 And he said, Let not Yahweh be angry, and I will speak: Suppose thirty should be found there? And He said, I will not do it if I find thirty there.

31 Abraham said: Now that I have been so bold as to speak to Yahweh, what if only twenty can be found there? And He said, For the sake of twenty, I will not destroy it.

32 And he said, Let not Yahweh be angry, and I will speak but once more: Suppose ten should be found there? And He said, I will not destroy it for the sake of ten.

33 So Yahweh went His way as soon as He had finished speaking with Abraham: and Abraham returned to his place.

CHAP. 19

Now the two malakim came to Sodom in the evening, and Lot was sitting in the gate of Sodom. When Lot saw them, he rose to meet them, and he bowed himself with his face toward the ground.

2 And he said, Here now, my rulers, turn aside to your servant's house and spend the night, and wash your feet; then you may rise early, and go on your way. And they said, No, but we will spend the night in the open square.

3 But he insisted so strongly, that they turned in to him, and entered his house. Then he made them a feast, and baked unleavened bread, and they ate.

4 Now before they lay down, the men of the city: the men of Sodom, both old and young, all the people from every quarter, surrounded the house.

5 And they called to Lot, and said to him, Where are the men who came to you tonight? Bring them out to us, that we may carnally know them.

6 So Lot went out to them through the doorway, and shut the door behind him.

7 And said, My brethren, do not do so wickedly!

8 See now, I have two daughters who have not known a man; let me bring them out to you and you may do to them as you wish; only do nothing to these men, since they have come under the protection of my roof.

9 And they said, Get out of our way! Then they said, This one came to live here and he keeps acting as our judge; now we will deal worse with you than with them. So they pressed hard against the man Lot, and came near to break down the door.

10 But the men reached out their hands and pulled Lot into the house with them, and shut the door.

11 And they struck the men at the doorway of the house with blindness, both small and great, so they became unable to find the door.

12 Then the men said to Lot, Have you anyone else here? Sons-in-law, your sons, your daughters, whomever you have in the city—take them out of this place!

13 For we will destroy this place, because the outcry against them has grown great before the face of Yahweh, and Yahweh has sent us to destroy it.

14 So Lot went out, and spoke to his sons-in-law, who had made marriage contracts with his daughters, and said; Get up, get out of this place: for Yahweh will destroy this city! But to his sons-in-law he seemed to be joking.

15 When the morning dawned, the malakim urged Lot to hurry, saying, Arise, take your wife and your two daughters who are here, or you will be consumed in the destruction of the city!

16 And while he lingered, the men took hold of his hand, his wife's hand, and the hands of his two daughters—Yahweh being merciful to him—and they brought him out, and set him outside the city.

17 So it came to pass when they had brought them outside, that they said, Escape for your life! Do not look behind you, nor stay anywhere in the plain. Escape to the mountains, or you will be destroyed!

18 Then Lot said to them, No, my friends!

19 Indeed now, your servant has found honor in your sight, and you have increased your mercy which you have shown me by sparing my life; but I cannot escape to the mountains, or some evil overtake me and I die.

20 See now, this city is near to flee to, and it is a little one; let me escape there, is it not a little one? and my soul shall live.

21 And he said to him, Behold, I have listened to you concerning this thing also, in that I will not overthrow this city for which you have spoken.

22 Hurry, escape there, for I cannot do anything until you arrive there. Therefore the name of the city was called Zoar.

23 The sun had risen upon the earth when Lot entered Zoar.

24 ● And Yahweh rained down on Sodom and Gomorrah brimstone and fire; by means of this same Yahweh from heaven.

25 Those cities were overthrown: all the plain, all those living in those cities, and all the produce of the ground.

26 But his wife looked back behind him, and she became a pillar of salt.

27 And Abraham went early in the morning to the place where he had stood before Yahweh.

28 Then he looked toward Sodom and Gomorrah, and toward all the land of the plain; and he saw, and beheld the smoke of the land which went up like the smoke of a furnace.

29 And it came to pass, when Yahweh destroyed the cities of the plain, that Yahweh remembered Abraham, in that He sent Lot out of the midst of the destruction, when He overthrew the cities in which Lot had dwelt.

30 Then Lot went up out of Zoar, and lived in the mountains, and his two daughters were with him; for he was afraid to live in Zoar. And he and his two daughters lived in a cave.

31 Now the firstborn said to the younger, Our father is old, and there is no man on the earth to come in to us, as is the custom of all the earth.

32 Come, let us make our father drink wine, and we will lie with him, that we may preserve the lineage of our father.

33 So they made their father drink wine that night. And the firstborn went in and lay with her father, and he did not know when she lay down, nor when she arose.

34 On the next day, the firstborn said to the younger, Behold, I lay with my father last night; let us make him drink wine tonight also, and you go in to lie with him, that we may preserve the lineage of our father.

35 Then they made their father drink wine that night also. And the young arose, and lay with him; and he did not know when she lay down, nor when she arose.

36 Thus both the daughters of Lot were with child by their father.

37 The firstborn bore a son and called his name Moab; he is the father of the Moabites to this day.

38 And the younger, she also bore a son and called his name Ben-Ammi; he is the father of the people of Ammon to this day.

CHAP. 20

And Abraham journeyed from there to the Negev, and lived between Kadesh and Shur. Now for a while he dwelt in Gerar,

2 And there Abraham said of Sarah his wife, She is my sister. And Abimelech king of Gerar sent, and took Sarah.

3 But Yahweh came to Abimelech in a dream by night, and said to him, Behold, you are as well as a dead man, because of the woman whom you have taken, for she is a man's wife.

4 But Abimelech had not come near her; and he said to Him, Will You slay a righteous nation also?

5 Did he not say to me, She is my sister? And she, even she said, He is my brother. In the integrity of my heart and innocence of my hands I have done this.

6 And Yahweh said to him in a dream, Yes, I know that you did this in the integrity of your heart, for I did withhold you from sinning against Me; therefore I did not let you touch her.

7 Now therefore, restore the man's wife; for he is a prophet, and he will pray for you and you shall live. But if you do not restore her, know that you shall surely die, you and all that is yours.

8 So Abimelech rose early in the morning, called all his officials, and told all these things in their hearing; and the men were very afraid.

9 And Abimelech called Abraham, and said to him, What have you done to us? How have I offended you, that you have brought on me and on my kingdom a great guilt? You have done things to me that ought not to be done.

10 Then Abimelech said to Abraham, What reason did you have that you have done this thing?

11 And Abraham said, Because I thought, surely the reverence of Yahweh is not in this place; and they will kill me on account of my wife.

12 But behold, she is truly my sister. She is the daughter of my father, but not the daughter of my mother; and she became my wife.

13 And when Yahweh caused me to wander from my father's household, that I said to her, This is the love you can show to me; in every place wherever we go, say of me: He is my brother.

14 Then Abimelech took sheep, oxen, and male and female servants, and gave them to Abraham; and he restored Sarah his wife to him.

15 And Abimelech said, See, my land is before you; dwell wherever it pleases you.

16 Then to Sarah he said, Behold I have given your brother a thousand pieces of silver; truly this covers the offense against you before all with you and before all others. Now you are completely vindicated.

17 So Abraham prayed to Yahweh; and Yahweh healed Abimelech, his wife, and his maidservants. Then they bore children;

18 For Yahweh had closed up all the wombs of the house of Abimelech because of Sarah, Abraham's wife.

CHAP. 21

Now Yahweh was compassionate to Sarah as He had said, and Yahweh did for Sarah as He had promised.

2 For Sarah conceived and bore Abraham a son in his old age, at the very time of year which Yahweh had promised him.

3 And Abraham called the name of his son who was born to him, whom Sarah bore to him, ● Isaac.

4 Then Abraham circumcised his son Isaac when he was eight days old, as Yahweh had commanded him.

5 Now Abraham was one hundred years old when his son Isaac was born to him.

6 And Sarah said, Yahweh has brought me laughter; all who hear will laugh with me.

7 She also said, Who would have said to Abraham that Sarah would nurse children? Yet I have borne him a son in his old age.

8 So the child grew and was weaned. And Abraham made a great feast on the same day that Isaac was weaned.

9 And Sarah saw the son of Hagar the Egyptian, whom she had borne to Abraham, mocking.

10 Therefore she said to Abraham, Cast out this bondwoman and her son; for the son of this bondwoman shall never be heir with my son, with Isaac.

11 And the matter was very distressing in Abraham's sight because of his son.

12 But Yahweh said to Abraham, Do not let it be distressing in your sight because of the boy, or because of your bondwoman. Whatever Sarah has said to you, listen to her voice; for in Isaac your offspring shall be called.

13 Yet I will also make a nation of the son of the bondwoman, because he is your offspring.

14 So Abraham rose early in the morning and took bread and a skin of water; and putting it on her shoulder, he gave it and the boy to Hagar and sent her away. Then she went away and wandered in the desert wilderness of Beer-sheba.

15 And the water in the skin was used up and she placed the boy under one of the bushes.

16 Then she went and sat down by herself from him at a distance of about a bowshot; for she said to herself, Let me not see the death of the boy. So she sat nearby and lifted her voice and wept.

17 And Yahweh heard the voice of the boy. Then the malak of Yahweh called to Hagar out of heaven, and said to her, What is the matter, Hagar? Fear not, for Yahweh has heard the voice of the boy where he is.

18 Arise, lift up the boy and hold him with your hand for I will make him a great nation.

19 And Yahweh opened her eyes, and she saw a well of water. Then she went and filled the skin with water, and gave the boy a drink.

20 So Yahweh was with the boy, and he grew, and lived in the desert wilderness, and became an archer.

21 He lived in the Wilderness of Paran; and his mother took a wife for him from the land of Egypt.

22 And it came to pass at that time, that Abimelech and Phichol, the commander of his army, spoke to Abraham, saying, The Mighty One is with you in all that you do.

23 Now therefore vow to me by Him that you will not deal falsely with me, with my offspring, or with my descendants, but that according to the kindness that I have showed to you, you will show to me and to the land in which you have lived.

24 And Abraham said, I vow it.

25 Then Abraham reproved Abimelech because of a well of water which Abimelech's servants had seized.

26 And Abimelech said, I do not know who has done this thing; you did not tell me, nor had I heard of it until this day.

27 So Abraham took sheep and oxen and

● Yuzhak meaning, he laughs gave them to Abimelech, and the two of them made a treaty.

28 And Abraham set seven ewe lambs of the flock by themselves.

29 Then Abimelech asked Abraham, What is the meaning of these seven ewe lambs which you have set apart by themselves?

30 And he said, You will accept these seven ewe lambs from my hand, that you may be my witness that I have dug this well.

31 Therefore he called that place ● Beersheba, because the two of them vowed an oath there.

32 Thus they made a treaty at Beersheba. So Abimelech rose with Phichol, the commander of his army, and they returned to the land of the Philistines.

33 Then Abraham planted a tamarisk tree in Beersheba, and there called with the Name of Yahweh, the Everlasting Father.

34 And Abraham stayed in the land of the Philistines many days.

CHAP. 22

Now it came to pass after these things that Yahweh tested Abraham, and said to him, Abraham! And he said, Here I am.

2 And He said, Take now your son, your only son, Isaac, whom you love, and go to the land of Moriyah, and sacrifice him there as a burnt offering on one of the mountains of which I shall tell you.

3 So Abraham rose early in the morning and saddled his donkey, and took two of his young menservants with him, and Isaac his son; and he split the wood for the burnt offering, and arose and went to the place which Yahweh had told him.

4 Then on the third day Abraham lifted his eyes and saw the place afar off.

5 And Abraham said to his young menservants, Stay here with the donkey; the young man and I will go yonder and worship, and we will come back to you.

6 So Abraham took the wood of the burnt offering and put it on Isaac his son; and he took the fire in his hand, and a knife, and the two of them went together.

7 And Isaac spoke to Abraham his father and said, My father? And he said, Here I am, my son. And he said, I see the fire and the wood, but where is the lamb for a burnt offering?

8 And Abraham said, My son, Yahweh will provide for Himself the lamb for a burnt offering. And the two of them went on together.

9 Then they came to the place of which Yahweh had told him. And Abraham built an altar there and placed the wood in order; and he bound Isaac his son and laid him on the altar, on top of the wood.

● Well of the Oath or Well of the Seven

10 And Abraham reached out his hand to take the knife to slay his son.

11 But the malak of Yahweh called to him from heaven and said, Abraham, Abraham! And he said, Here I am.

12 And He said, Do not lay your hand on the young man, nor do anything to him; for now I know that you revere Yahweh, seeing you have not withheld your son, your only son, from Me.

13 Then Abraham lifted his eyes, and looked, and there behind him was a ram caught in a thicket by its horns. So Abraham went and took the ram, and sacrificed it up for a burnt offering, instead of his son.

14 And Abraham called the name of the place, Yahweh-Yireh, that is Yahweh-Will-Provide; as it is said to this day, On the Mountain of Yahweh it will be provided.

15 Then the malak of Yahweh called to Abraham a second time out of heaven.

16 And said: By Myself I have vowed, says Yahweh, because you have done this thing, and have not withheld your son, your only son.

17 Surely in blessing I will bless you, and in multiplying I will multiply your descendants as the stars of the skies and as the sand on the seashore; and your descendants shall possess the gates of their enemies.

18 Through your Seed all the nations of the earth shall be blessed, because you have obeyed My voice.

19 So Abraham returned to his young menservants, and they rose and went together to Beersheba; and Abraham stayed at Beersheba.

20 Now it came to pass after these things that it was told Abraham, saying, Behold Milcah also has borne children to Nahor, your brother:

21 Uz his firstborn, Buz his brother, Kemuel the father of Aram.

22 Chesed, Hatzu, Pildash, Yidlaph, and Bethuel.

23 And Bethuel begot Rebekah. These eight Milcah bore to Nahor, Abraham's brother.

24 His concubine, whose name was Reumah, also bore Tebah, Gaham, Thahash, and Maachah.

CHAP. 23

Sarah lived one hundred and twenty-seven years: the years of the life of Sarah.

2 So Sarah died in Kiryath Arba (that is Hebron) in the land of Canaan, and Abraham came to mourn for Sarah and to weep for her.

3 Then Abraham stood up from before his dead, and spoke to the sons of Heth, saying,

4 I am a stranger and a sojourner among you. Sell me property for a burial place among you, that I may bury my dead out of my sight.

5 And the sons of Heth answered Abraham, saying to him.

6 Hear us, my friend, You are a mighty prince among us; bury your dead in the choicest of our burial places. None of us will refuse you his burial place, that you may bury your dead.

7 Then Abraham stood up, and bowed himself to the people of the land, the descendants of Heth.

8 And he spoke with them, saying, If it is your wish that I bury my dead out of my sight, hear me, and intercede with Ephron the son of Zohar for me;

9 That he may sell me the cave of Machpelah which he has at the end of his field. Let him sell it to me at the full price, as property for a burial place among you.

10 Now Ephron was sitting among the sons of Heth; and Ephron the Hittite answered Abraham in the presence of the sons of Heth, all those who had come to the gate of his city, saying.

11 No, my friend, hear me: I give you the field and the cave in it; I give it to you in the presence of the sons of my people. I give it to you. Bury your dead!

12 Then Abraham bowed himself down before the people of the land;

13 And he said to Ephron in the hearing of the people of the land, saying, If you will hear me, I will pay the price for the field; accept the price from me and I will bury my dead there.

14 And Ephron answered Abraham, saying to him.

15 My ruler, listen to me; the land is four hundred shekels of silver. What is that between you and me? So bury your dead.

16 And Abraham listened to Ephron, and Abraham weighed out the price for Ephron which he had named in the hearing of the sons of Heth: four hundred shekels of silver, according to the weight current among merchants.

17 So the field of Ephron in Machpelah, which was near Mamre, the field and the cave in it, and all the trees in the field within the surrounding border were deeded

18 To Abraham as a possession in the presence of the sons of Heth, in front of all who came in at the gate of his city.

19 And after this Abraham buried Sarah his wife in the cave of the field of Machpelah, near Mamre (that is Hebron) in the land of Canaan.

20 So the field and the cave in it were deeded to Abraham by the sons of Heth as property for a burial place.

CHAP. 24

Now Abraham was old, well advanced in age; and Yahweh blessed Abraham in every way.

2 So Abraham said to the chief servant of his house, who ruled over all that he had, Put your hand under my thigh,

3 And I will want you to vow by Yahweh, Creator of heaven and of the earth, that you will not take a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites, among whom I live in the midst of;

4 But you shall go to my country and to my kindred, and take a wife for my son Isaac.

5 And the servant asked him, What if the woman will not be willing to follow me to this land? Shall I take your son back to the land from which you came?

6 But Abraham said to him, Be sure that you do not take my son back there.

7 Yahweh the Creator of heaven, Who took me from my father's house, and from the land of my kindred, and Who spoke to me and vowed to me, saying, To your descendants I give this land—He will send His malak before you, and you shall take a wife for my son from there.

8 But if the woman is not willing to follow you, then you will be released from this oath; only do not take my son back there.

9 So the servant put his hand under the thigh of Abraham his owner, and vowed to him concerning this matter.

10 Then the servant took ten of Abraham's camels and left, taking with him all kinds of beautiful things by Abraham's hand. He set out for Aram Naharaim, that is northwest Mesopotamia, and made his way to the city of Nahor.

11 And he made his camels kneel down outside the city by a well of water at evening time, the time when women go out to draw water.

12 Then he prayed; Yahweh Father of my owner Abraham, please give me success this day, and show kindness to my owner Abraham.

13 Behold, I am standing by the well of water, and the daughters of the men of the city are coming out to draw water.

14 Now let it be that the young woman to whom I say, Let down your jar so I may drink, and she says, Drink, and I will also give your camels water; let her be the one whom You have chosen for Your servant Isaac. And by this I will know that You have shown kindness to my owner.

15 Before he had finished praying, behold, Rebekah, who was born to Bethuel, son of Milcah, the wife of Nahor, Abraham's brother, came out with her jar on her shoulder.

16 Now the girl was very beautiful to look upon, a virgin; no man had known her. And she went down to the well, filled her jar, and came up.

17 And the servant hurried to meet her, and said, Give me a little water from your jar.

18 So she said, Drink, ruler. Then she hastened and let her jar down to her hand, and gave him a drink.

19 And when she had finished giving him a drink, she said, I will draw water for your camels also, until they have finished drinking.

20 Then she hurried and emptied her jar into the trough, ran back to the well to draw water, and drew for all his camels.

21 And the man, watching her, remained silent so as to know whether Yahweh had made his journey successful or not.

22 So it was, when the camels had finished drinking, that the man took a golden nose ring weighing a beka, that is, 1/5 ounce, and two bracelets for her wrists weighing ten shekels, that is, about four ounces, of gold,

23 And said, Whose daughter are you? Tell me, is there room in your father's house for us to spend the night?

24 So she said to him, I am the daughter of Bethuel, Milcah's son, whom she bore to Nahor.

25 And she said to him also, We have both straw and feed enough, and room to spend the night.

26 Then the man bowed down his head, and worshiped Yahweh,

27 And he said: Praised be Yahweh, Father of my owner Abraham, Who has not abandoned His kindness and faithfulness to my owner. On the journey Yahweh has led me to the very house of my owner's kindred!

28 So the young woman ran, and told her mother's household these things.

29 Now Rebekah had a brother whose name was Laban; and Laban ran out to the man by the well.

30 As soon as he saw the nose ring, and the bracelets on his sister's wrists, and when he heard the words of his sister Rebekah, saying, Thus the man spoke to me; then he went to the man. And there he stood by the camels at the well.

31 And he said, Come in, O blessed of Yahweh! Why do you stand outside? For I have prepared the house and a place for the camels.

32 Then the man came to the house; and he unloaded the camels, and provided straw and feed for the camels, and water to wash his feet and the feet of the men with him.

33 And food was set before him to eat, but he said, I will not eat until I have told about my purpose. And he said, Speak on.

34 So he said, I am Abraham's servant.

35 Now Yahweh has greatly blessed my owner, and he has become wealthy; and He has given him flocks and herds, silver and gold, male and female servants, and camels and donkeys.

36 And Sarah, my owner's wife, bore a son to my owner when she was old; and to him he has given all that he has.

37 Now my owner made me vow, saying, You shall not take a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites, in whose land I dwell.

38 But you shall go to my father's house and to my kindred, and take a wife for my son.

39 And I said to my owner, What if the woman will not follow me?

40 But he said to me, Yahweh, Whom I walk before, will send His malak to be with you, and your journey will be successful; and you shall take a wife for my son from my kindred and from my father's house.

41 You will be clear from this oath when you arrive among my kindred; for if they will not give her to you, then you will be released from my oath.

42 And this day I came to the well, and prayed: Yahweh, Father of my owner Abraham, if only You will now grant success in my journey which I have come!

43 Behold, I stand by the well of water; and now, may it be that when the maiden comes out to draw water, and I say to her, Give me a little water from your jar to drink,

44 And she says to me, Drink, and I will draw for your camels also, may she be the woman whom Yahweh has chosen for my owner's son.

45 But before I had finished praying in my heart, there was Rebekah coming out with her jar on her shoulder; and she went down to the well and drew water. And I said to her, Let me drink.

46 And she made haste and lowered her jar down from her shoulder, and said, Drink, and I will water your camels also. So I drank, and she watered the camels also.

47 Then I asked her, and said, Whose daughter are you? And she said, The daughter of Bethuel, Nahor's son, whom Milcah bore to him. So I put the nose ring on her nose and the bracelets on her wrists.

48 And I bowed my head and worshiped Yahweh, and praised Yahweh, Father of my owner Abraham, Who had led me on the right road to take the granddaughter of my owner's brother for his son.

49 Now, if you will show kindness and faithfulness to my owner, tell me; and if not, tell me so I may turn to the right or to the left.

50 Then Laban and Bethuel answered, and said, The thing comes from Yahweh; we cannot speak to you either evil or well.

51 Here is Rebekah before you; take her and go; and let her be your owner's son's wife, as Yahweh has directed.

52 And it came to pass, when Abraham's servant heard their words, that he bowed down to the ground to Yahweh.

53 Then the servant brought out jewelry of silver, jewelry of gold, and clothing, and gave these to Rebekah. He also gave costly things to her brother and to her mother.

54 And he and the men with him ate, and drank, and stayed all night. Then they arose in the morning, and he said, Send me away to my owner.

55 But her brother and her mother said, Let the young woman stay with us a few days more, about ten; then she may go.

56 But he said to them, Do not detain me, since Yahweh has made my journey successful; send me away, so that I may go to my owner.

57 So they said, We will call the young woman, and ask her personally.

58 Then they called Rebekah, and said to her, Will you go with this man? And she said, I will go.

59 So they sent away Rebekah their sister and her nurse, and Abraham's servant and his men.

60 And they blessed Rebekah, and said to her: Our sister, may you increase to become the mother of thousands of ten thousands; and may your descendants possess the gates of those who hate them.

61 Then Rebekah and her maids arose, and they mounted on the camels and followed the man. So the servant took Rebekah, and left there.

62 Now Isaac came from the way of Beer Lahai Roi, for he lived in the Negev.

63 And Isaac went out to meditate in the field in the evening; and he lifted his eyes and looked, and there the camels were coming.

64 Then Rebekah lifted her eyes; and when she saw Isaac, she dismounted from her camel;

65 For she had said to the servant, Who is this man walking in the field to meet us? And the servant said, It is my owner. So she took a veil, and she covered herself.

66 And the servant told Isaac all the things that he had done.

67 Then Isaac brought her into his mother Sarah's tent; and he took Rebekah, and she became his wife, and he loved her. So Isaac was comforted after his mother's death.

CHAP. 25

Abraham took another wife, and her name was Keturah.

2 And she bore him Zimran, Yokshan, Medan, Midian, Ishbak, and Shuah.

3 Yokshan begot Sheba and Dedan. And the sons of Dedan were Assurim, Letushim, and Leummim.

4 And the sons of Midian were Ephah, Ephher, Hanoch, Abidah, and Eldaah. All these were the children of Keturah.

5 Now Abraham left all that he had to Isaac;

6 But Abraham gave gifts to the sons of the concubines, which Abraham had. And while he was still living, he sent them eastward, away from Isaac his son, to the land of the east.

7 These are the total of the years of Abraham's life, which he lived: one hundred and seventy-five years;

8 Then Abraham breathed his last, and died in a ripe old age, an old man and full of years, and was gathered to his people.

9 And his sons Isaac and Ishmayl buried him in the cave of Machpelah, which is near Mamre, in the field of Ephron the son of Zohar, the Hittite:

10 The field which Abraham purchased from the sons of Heth. There Abraham was buried beside his wife Sarah.

11 And it came to pass after the death of Abraham, that Yahweh blessed his son Isaac. And Isaac lived at Beer Lahai Roi.

12 Now these are the begettings of Ishmayl, Abraham's son whom Hagar the Egyptian, Sarah's maidservant, bore to Abraham.

13 And these were the names of the sons of Ishmayl, by their names, according to their begettings: The firstborn of Ishmayl was Nebayoth; then Kedar, Adbeel, Mibsam,

14 Mishma, Dumah, Massa,

15 Hadad, Tema, Yetur, Naphish, and Kademah.

16 These were Ishmayl's sons, and these were their names by their towns and their settlements; twelve princes according to their nations.

17 These were the years of the life of Ishmayl: one hundred and thirty-seven years; and he breathed his last and died, and was gathered to his people.

18 (They dwelt from Havilah as far as Shur, which is east of Egypt as you go toward Assyria.) And he died in the presence of all his brethren.

19 These are the begettings of Isaac, Abraham's son. Abraham begot Isaac.

20 Isaac was forty years old when he took Rebekah as his wife, the daughter of Bethuel the Aramean of Padan Aram, the sister of Laban the Aramean.

21 Now Isaac prayed to Yahweh for his wife, because she was barren; and Yahweh granted his prayer, and Rebekah his wife conceived.

22 But the children struggled together within her; and she said, If this is so, why is this coming upon me? So she went to inquire of Yahweh.

23 And Yahweh said to her: Two nations are in your womb. Two peoples shall be separated from your body; and one people shall be stronger than the other, and the older shall serve the younger.

24 So when the time came for her to give birth, behold, there were twins in her womb.

25 And the first came out ruddy, and his whole body was like a hairy garment all over; so they called his name Esau, that is, Hairy.

26 Afterward, his brother came out, and his hand took hold of Esau's heel; so his name was called Yaaqob, that is, He Grasps The Heel; He Deceives: Supplanter. Isaac was sixty years old when she bore them.

27 So the boys grew, and Esau was a skillful hunter, a man of the field; but Yaaqob was a quiet man, staying among the tents.

28 And Isaac, who had a taste for wild game, loved Esau, but Rebekah loved Yaaqob.

29 Yaaqob had cooked a stew when Esau came in from the field, and he was famished.

30 And Esau said to Yaaqob, Feed me with that samed stew, for I am famished. Therefore his name was called Edom, that is, Red.

31 But Yaaqob said, Sell me your birthright as of this day.

32 And Esau said, Behold, I am about to die, so what shall this birthright be to me?

33 Then Yaaqob said, Vow to me as of this day. So he vowed to him, and sold his birthright to Yaaqob.

34 And Yaaqob gave Esau bread and stew of lentils; then he ate and drank, then arose and went his way. So Esau despised the birthright.

CHAP. 26

There was a famine in the land, besides the first famine that was in the days of Abraham. And Isaac went to Abimelech king of the Philistines in Gerar.

2 Then Yahweh appeared to him, and said: Do not go down to Egypt;

3 Stay in this land, and I will be with you and bless you; for to you and your descendants I give all these lands, and I will confirm the oath I vowed to Abraham your father.

4 And I will make your descendants multiply as the stars of heaven; I will give to your descendants all these lands; and in your Seed all the nations of the earth shall be blessed;

5 Because Abraham obeyed My voice, and kept My charge, My commandments, My statutes, and My laws.

6 So Isaac stayed in Gerar.

7 Now the men of the place asked him about his wife. And he said, She is my sister, for he was afraid to say, She is my wife; for he thought: The men of the place might kill me on account of Rebekah, because she is beautiful to behold.

8 When Isaac had been there a long time, Abimelech, king of the Philistines, looked through a window, and saw Isaac there caressing Rebekah his wife.

9 Then Abimelech called Isaac, and said, She is your wife! How could you say, She is my sister? And Isaac said to him, Because I thought I might die on account of her.

10 And Abimelech said, What is this you have done to us? One of the people might have lain with your wife, and then you would have brought guilt upon us!

11 So Abimelech charged all his people saying, He who touches this man or his wife, shall surely be put to death.

12 Then Isaac sowed in that land, and reaped in the same year a hundredfold; and Yahweh blessed him.

13 The man became rich, and his wealth continued to grow until he became very wealthy;

14 And he had possessions of flocks and possessions of herds, and a great number of servants. So the Philistines envied him.

15 Now the Philistines had stopped up all the wells which his father's servants had dug in the days of Abraham his father, and they had filled them with earth.

16 And Abimelech said to Isaac, Move away from us, for you have become too powerful for us.

17 Then Isaac moved away from there, and pitched his tent in the Valley of Gerar, and settled there.

18 And Isaac dug again the wells of water, which they had dug in the days of Abraham his father, for the Philistines had stopped them up after the death of Abraham. He also called them by the names which his father had called them.

19 Isaac's servants dug in the valley, and found a well of fresh water there.

20 But the herdsmen of Gerar quarreled with Isaac's herdsmen, saying, The water is our water. So he called the name of the well, Esek, that is, Dispute, because they quarreled with him.

21 Then they dug another well, and they quarreled over that one also. So he called its name Sitnah, that is, Opposition.

22 And he moved from there, and dug another well, and they did not quarrel over it. So he called its name, Rehoboth, that is, Room, because he said, For now Yahweh has made room for us, and we shall be fruitful in the land.

23 Then he went up from there to Beersheba.

24 And Yahweh appeared to him the same night, and said, I am the Father of your father Abraham; do not fear, for I am with you. I will bless you, and multiply your descendants for My servant Abraham's sake.

25 So he built an altar there, and prayed, calling with the Name of Yahweh. And he pitched his tent there; and there Isaac's servants dug a well.

26 Then Abimelech came to him from Gerar, with Ahuzzath, one of his friends, and Phichol, the commander of his army;

27 And Isaac said to them, Why have you come to me, since you were hostile to me, and have sent me away from you?

28 But they said, We have assuredly seen that Yahweh is with you. So we said, Let there now be an oath between you and us; and let us make a treaty with you.

29 In that you will do us not harm, since we have not touched you, and since we have done nothing to you but what is right, and have sent you away in peace. And now, you are blessed by Yahweh.

30 So he made them a feast, and they ate and drank.

31 Then they arose early in the morning, and vowed an oath with one another; and Isaac set them away, and they departed from him in peace.

32 That same day Isaac's servants came and told him about the well which they had dug, and said to him, We have found water.

33 So he called it Shibah, that is, Oath or Seven. Therefore the name of the city is Beer-sheba, that is Well of the Oath or Well of the Seven, to this day.

34 When Esau was forty years old, he took as wives • Adah, the daughter of Elon the Hittite, and Aholibamah, the daughter of Anah, the daughter of Zibeon the Hivite.

35 And they were a grief of mind to Isaac and Rebekah.

CHAP. 27

Now when Isaac was old and his eyes were so dim that he could not see, that he called Esau, his older son, and said to him, My son. And he answered him, Here I am.

2 And he said, Behold now, I am old. I do not know the day of my death.

3 Now take your weapons: your quiver and your bow, and go out to the field, and hunt game for me.

4 And prepare me tasty food, just as I like, and bring it to me that I may eat, and that I myself may bless you before I die.

5 Now Rebekah was listening when Isaac spoke to Esau his son. And Esau went to the field to hunt game and to bring it back.

6 So Rebekah spoke to Yaaqob her son, saying, Behold I heard your father speak to Esau your brother, saying,

7 Bring me game, and make tasty food for me, that I may eat it and bless you in the presence of Yahweh, before my death.

8 Now therefore, my son, obey my voice according to what I command you.

9 Go now to the flock, and bring me from there two choice kids of the goats, and I will prepare tasty food from them for your father, such as he likes.

10 Then you shall take it to your father, that he may eat it, and that he may bless you before his death.

11 Then Yaaqob said to Rebekah his mother, But Esau my brother is a hairy man, and I am a man with smooth skin.

12 What if my father will feel me, and I shall seem to be a deceiver to him, and I bring a curse on myself and not a blessing?

13 But his mother said to him, May your curse be upon me, my son; only obey my voice, and go get the kids for me!

14 And he left, and got them, and brought them to his mother; and his mother made tasty food, such as his father liked.

15 Then Rebekah took the best clothes of her elder son Esau, which were with her in the house, and put them on Yaaqob, her younger son.

16 And she put the skins of the kids of the goats on his hands and on the smooth part of his neck.

17 Then she gave the tasty food, and the bread which she had prepared, into the hand of her son Yaaqob.

18 So he went to his father, and said, My father; and he said, Here I am. Which son are you?

19 And Yaaqob said to his father, I am Esau, your firstborn; I have done just as you told me. Arise, sit and eat of my game, so that you yourself may bless me.

20 But Isaac said to his son, How is it that you found game so quickly, my son? And he said, Because Yahweh your Father gave me success.

21 Then Isaac said to Yaaqob, Come near that I may feel you, my son, whether you are really my son Esau or not.

22 So Yaaqob went near to Issac his father, and he felt him, and said, The voice is the voice of Yaaqob, but the hands are the hands of Esau.

23 And he did not recognize him, because his hands were hairy like his brother Esau's hands; so he blessed him.

24 Then he said, Are you really my son Esau? And he said, I am.

25 And he said, Bring it near to me, and I will eat of my sons' game, so that I myself may bless you. So he brought it near to him, and he ate; and he brought him wine, and he drank.

26 Then his father Isaac said to him, Come near now and kiss me, my son.

27 And he came near, and kissed him; and he smelled the smell of his clothing, and blessed him, saying: Surely the smell of my son is like the smell of a field which Yahweh has blessed.

28 Therefore may Yahweh give you of the dew of heaven; of the fatness of the earth; and plenty of grain and wine.

29 May peoples serve you, and nations bow down to you. Be ruler over your brethren, and may your mother's sons bow down to you. Cursed be everyone who curses you, and blessed be he who blesses you!

30 Then as soon as Isaac had finished blessing Yaaqob, and Yaaqob had scarcely gone out from the presence of Isaac his father, that Esau his brother came in from his hunting.

31 He also had prepared tasty food, and brought it to his father, and said to his father, Let my father arise, and eat of his son's game, that you yourself may bless me.

32 And his father Isaac said to him, Who are you? And he said, I am your son, your first-born, Esau.

33 Then Isaac trembled violently, and said, Who? Where is the one who hunted game and brought it to me? I ate all of it before you came, and I have blessed him; and indeed he will be blessed.

34 When Esau heard the words of his father, he cried with a loud and bitter cry, and said to his father, Bless me, me also, O my father!

35 But he said, Your brother came in deceit, and has taken away your blessing.

36 And Esau said, Is he not rightly named Yaaqob? For he has supplanted me these two times. He took away my birthright, and now behold, he has taken away my blessing!

37 Then Isaac answered and said to Esau, Indeed I have made him your ruler, and all his brethren I have given to him as servants: with grain and wine I have sustained him. What shall I do now for you, my son?

38 And Esau said to his father, Have you only one blessing, my father? Bless me, me also, O my father! And Esau lifted up his voice, and wept.

39 Then Isaac his father answered, and said to him: Behold, your dwelling shall be of the fatness of the earth, and of the dew of heaven from above.

40 By your sword you shall live, and you shall serve your brother. But when you grow restless, you will throw his yoke from off your neck.

41 So Esau held a grudge against Yaaqob because of the blessing with which his father blessed him, and Esau said in his heart, The days of mourning for my father are near; then I will kill my brother Yaaqob.

42 And the words of Isaac her older son were told to Rebekah. So she sent, and called Yaaqob her younger son, and said to him, Surely your brother Esau consoles himself concerning you in planning to kill you.

43 So now, my son, obey my voice: arise, and flee to my brother Laban in Haran,

44 And stay with him a few days, until your brother's fury subsides;

45 Until your brother's anger turns away from you, and he forgets what you have done to him. Then I will send for you, and bring you from there. Why should I lose both of you in one day?

46 And Rebekah said to Isaac, I am disgusted with living because of the daughters of Heth. If Yaaqob takes a wife of the daughters of Heth, like these daughters of this land, what will life be to me?

CHAP. 28

Then Isaac called Yaaqob, and blessed him, and charged him, and said to him: You shall not take a wife from the daughters of Canaan.

2 Arise, go to Padan Aram, to the house of Bethuel your mother's father; and take yourself a wife from there, of the daughters of Laban your mother's brother.

3 May Almighty Yahweh bless you, and make you fruitful, and multiply you that you may be a multitude of peoples;

4 And give you the blessing of Abraham, to you and your descendants with you, that you may inherit the land in which you are a stranger, which Yahweh gave to Abraham.

5 So Isaac sent Yaaqob away, and he went to Padan Aram, to Laban the son of Bethuel the Aramean, the brother of Rebekah, the mother of Yaaqob and Esau.

6 Esau saw that Isaac had blessed Yaaqob, and sent him away to Padan Aram to take himself a wife from there, and that as he blessed him he gave him a charge, saying, You shall not take a wife from the daughters of Canaan:

7 And that Yaaqob had obeyed his father and his mother, and had gone to Padan Aram.

8 Also Esau saw that the daughters of Canaan did not please his father Isaac.

9 So Esau went to Ishmayl, Abraham's son, and took Bashemath, the sister of Nebayoth, to be his wife, in addition to the wives he had.

10 And Yaaqob went out from Beersheba, and went toward Haran.

11 So he came to a certain place and stayed there all night, because the sun had set. And he took one of the stones of that place, and put it at his head; and he lay down in that place to sleep.

12 Then he dreamed, and behold, a ladder resting on the earth and its top reaching to heaven; and the malakim of Yahweh were ascending and descending on it.

13 And behold, Yahweh stood there, and said: I am the Father of Abraham your father, and the Father of Isaac: the land on which you lie, I will give to you and your descendants.

14 Also your descendants shall be as the dust of the earth; you shall spread abroad to the west and the east, to the north and the south; and in you and in your Seed all the families of the earth shall be blessed.

15 Behold, I am with you, and I will keep you wherever you go, and I will bring you back to this land; for I will not leave you until I have done what I have promised to you.

16 Then Yaaqob awoke from his sleep, and said, Surely Yahweh is in this place, and I did not know it!

17 And he was afraid, and said, How awesome is this place! This is none other than the house of Yahweh, and this is the gate of heaven!

18 Then Yaaqob rose early in the morning, and took the stone that he had put at his head, set it up as a pillar, and poured oil on top of it.

19 And he called the name of that place Beth Yahweh, that is, The House of Yahweh; but the name of that city had been Luz previously.

20 Then Yaaqob made a vow, saying, If Yahweh will be with me, and keep me in this way that I am going, and give me bread to eat and clothing to put on,

21 So that I come back to my father's house in peace, then Yahweh shall be my Heavenly Father;

22 And this stone I have set as a pillar shall be Yahweh's House, and of all that You give me I will surely give a tenth to You.

CHAP. 29

So Yaaqob continued on his journey, and came to the land of the people of the east.

2 And he looked, and saw a well in the field; and behold, there were three flocks of sheep lying by it; for out of that well they watered the flocks. A large stone was on the well's mouth.

3 Now all the flocks would be gathered there; and they would roll the stone from the well's mouth, water the sheep, and put the stone back in its place on the well's mouth.

4 And Yaaqob said to them, My brethren, where are you from? And they said, We are from Haran.

5 Then he said to them, Do you know Laban the son of Nahor? And they said, We know him.

6 So he said to them, Is he well? And they said, He is well. And behold, his daughter Rachel is coming with their sheep.

7 Then he said, Look, it is still high day; it is not time for the cattle to be gathered together. Water the sheep, then go and feed them.

8 But they said, We cannot until all the flocks are gathered together, and they have rolled the stone from the well's mouth; then we water the sheep.

9 Now while he was still speaking with them, Rachel came with her father's sheep, for she was a shepherdess.

10 And when Yaaqob saw Rachel, the daughter of Laban his mother's brother, and the sheep of Laban his mother's brother, that Yaaqob went near and rolled the stone from the well's mouth, and watered the flock of Laban, his mother's brother.

11 Then Yaaqob kissed Rachel, and lifted up his voice, and wept.

12 And Yaaqob told Rachel that he was her father's relative, and that he was Rebekah's son. So she ran and told her father.

13 Then it came to pass, when Laban heard the report about Yaaqob, his sister's son, that he ran to meet him, and embraced him, and kissed him, and brought him to his house. So he told Laban all these things.

14 And Laban said to him, Surely you are my bone and my flesh. And he stayed with him for a moon of days.

15 Then Laban said to Yaaqob, Because you are my relative, should you therefore serve me for nothing? Tell me what your wages should be.

16 Now Laban had two daughters: the name of the elder was Leah, and the name of the younger was Rachel.

17 Leah had delicate eyes, but Rachel was beautiful of form and appearance.

18 Now Yaaqob loved Rachel, and he said, I will serve you seven years for Rachel, your younger daughter.

19 And Laban said, It is better that I give her to you, than that I should give her to another. Stay with me.

20 So Yaaqob served seven years for Rachel, and they seemed only a few days to him, because of the love he had for her.

21 Then Yaaqob said to Laban, Give my wife to me, for my contracted time is fulfilled, so I may go in to her.

22 And Laban gathered together all the men of the place and made a feast.

23 Now it came to pass in the evening that he took Leah his daughter, and brought her to Yaaqob; and he went in to her.

24 And Laban gave his maid Zilpah to his daughter Leah as her maidservant.

25 So in the morning, behold it was Leah. And he said to Laban, What is this you have done to me? Was it not for Rachel that I served you? Why then have you deceived me?

26 And Laban said, It is not the custom in our country to give the younger before the first-born.

27 Complete Leah's bridal week, and we will give you Rachel also, for the service which you will serve with me for still another seven years.

28 Then Yaaqob did so and completed Leah's bridal week. So he gave him his daughter Rachel as wife also.

29 And Laban gave his maidservant Bilhah to his daughter Rachel as a maidservant.

30 Then Yaaqob also went in to Rachel, and he loved Rachel more than he loved Leah. And he served with Laban still another seven years.

31 When Yahweh saw that Leah was loved less, He opened her womb; but Rachel was barren.

32 So Leah conceived, and bore a son, and she called his name Reuben, that is See, a Son; for she said, Yahweh has surely looked on my misery. Now therefore, my husband will love me.

33 Then she conceived again, and bore a son, and said, Because Yahweh has heard that I am loved less, He has therefore given me this son also. And she called his name Simeon, that is, Heard.

34 She conceived again, and bore a son, and said, Now this time my husband will become attached to me, because I have borne him three sons. Therefore his name was called Levi, that is, Attached.

35 And she conceived again, and bore a son, and said, This time I will praise Yahweh. Therefore she called his name • Yahdah. Then she stopped bearing.

CHAP. 30

Now when Rachel saw that she bore Yaaqob no children, Rachel was jealous of her sister, and said to Yaaob, Give me children, or else I will die!

2 And Yaaqob's anger was aroused against Rachel, and he said, Am I in the place of Yahweh, Who has withheld you from bearing children?

3 So she said, Here is my maidservant Bilhah; go in to her, and she will bear a child on my knees, that I may have children by her.

4 Then she gave him Bilhah her maid as wife, and Yaaqob went in to her.

5 And Bilhah conceived, and bore Yaaqob a son.

6 Then Rachel said, Yahweh has judged my case; and He has also heard my voice and given me a son. Therefore she called his name Dan, that is, Judge.

7 And Rachel's maid Bilhah conceived again, and bore Yaaqob a second son.

8 Then Rachel said, With great struggling I have struggled with my sister, and I have won. So she called his name Naphtali, that is My Struggle.

9 When Leah saw that she had stopped bearing, she took Zilpah her maidservant, and gave her to Yaaqob as wife.

10 And Leah's maid Zilpah bore Yaaqob a son.

11 Then Leah said, A troop is coming! So she called his name Gad, that is Troop.

12 And Leah's maidservant Zilpah bore Yaaqob a second son.

13 Then Leah said, I am joyous, for the daughters will call me blessed. So she called his name Asher, that is Joyful.

14 Now Reuben went in the days of wheat harvest, and found mandrakes in the field, and brought them to his mother Leah. Then Rachel said to Leah, Give me of your son's mandrakes.

15 But she said to her, Is it a small matter that you have taken away my husband? Would you take away my son's mandrakes also? And Rachel said, He will lie with you tonight, for your son's mandrakes.

16 When Yaaqob came out of the field in the evening, Leah went out to meet him, and said, You must come in to me, for I have surely hired you with my son's mandrakes. And he lay with her that night.

17 And Yahweh listened to Leah, and she conceived, and bore Yaaqob a fifth son.

18 Leah said, Yahweh has given me my hire, because I have given my maidservant to my husband. So she called his name Issachar, that is Hire.

19 Then Leah conceived again, and bore Yaaqob a sixth son.

20 And Leah said, Yahweh has presented me with a precious gift. Now my husband will honor me, because I have borne him six sons. So she called his name, Zebulun, that is Honor.

21 Afterward, she bore a daughter, and called her name Dinah, that is Justice.

22 Then Yahweh remembered Rachel, and Yahweh listened to her, and opened her womb.

23 And she conceived and bore a son, and said, Yahweh has taken away my reproach.

24 So she called his name • Yahseph, that is, May Yahweh Add, and said, May Yahweh add to me another son.

25 After Rachel had given birth to Yahseph, Yaaqob said to Laban, Send me away, that I may go to my own home, and to my country.

26 Give to me my wives and my children, for whom I have served you, and let me go; for you know my service which I have done for you.

• Yahdah means I will praise Yahweh. The name, Yahdah, is a contraction of the Name, Yahweh and the phrase, I will praise. Anchor Bible, Vol. 1, pp. 228. Doubleday, Garden City, New York and The New International Version Hebrew-English Old Testament, Vol. 1, pp. 77. Zondervan Publishing, Grand Rapids, MI. From this name is mistakenly derived the modern name, 'Jew', a designator, originally, of all people who worship Yahweh: Clarke's Commentary, Vol. 1, pp. 184. Abingdon Press, New York, N.Y. Like the Name, Yahweh, and all other names with the Name of Yahweh compounded in it, after the Babylonian Captivity, and prior to the time of our Messiah, the Temple Eliie came to believe the Name, Yahweh, was too holy to pronounce. His Name became 'ineffable'. Due to this erroneous belief, vowel points were added to these names as a signal to the reader to avoid pronunciation of the Name, Yahweh, in any way. Later Scholars, unaware of these pointing codes, translated these names with the vowel points added, and, as a result, the erroneous name Yehudah (Masoretic), Jehudah (King James Version) and Judah (King James and all later versions) were created. Century Bible, Vol. 1, pp. 91. T.E. and E.C. Jack, Edinburgh, Scotland, and Peake's Commentary on the Bible, Thomas Nelson, London, England. Some have admitted Yahweh's Name IS in the name given to Yaaqob's fourth son, but that it should be pronounced, Yahudah, the long u sound coming from the letter waw, within Yahweh's Name. However, in Hebrew's original, unadulterated form it contains no vowels.: A Practical Grammar for Classical Hebrew, pp. 6. Clarendon Press, Oxford, England. So the letter waw, in Classical Hebrew, functions as a silent conjunction, connecting the Yah in Yahweh's Name and the dah in Adah; I will Praise The Hebraic Tongue Restored, pps. 112-113. G.P. Putnam's Sons, New York, N.Y. Due to the fact that Yahweh is to be praised, the proper name, YAHDAH, will be used throughout this translation to give Honor and Glory to YAHWEH, for He expects His People to Honor and Glorify Him.

• Yahseph, means: May Yahweh Add. See Genesis 49:22-26 for the blessings Yahweh added.

27 And Laban said to him If I have found honor in your eyes, please stay. I have learned by divination that Yahweh has blessed me, because of you.

28 Then he said, Name me your wages and I will pay it.

29 And Yaaqob said to him, You know how I have served you, and how your livestock has fared with me.

30 The little you had before I came has increased greatly, and Yahweh has blessed you wherever I have been. But now, when may I do something for my own household?

31 So he said, What shall I give you? And Yaaqob said, Do not give me anything. If you will do this one thing for me I will continue to feed and keep your flocks:

32 Let me go through all your flocks today, to remove all the speckled and spotted sheep, all the brown lambs, and all the speckled among the goats. They shall be my wages.

33 So my honesty will answer for me, if the subject of my wages comes before you: every animal not speckled and spotted among the goats, and brown among the lambs will be considered stolen, if it is with me.

34 And Laban said, Agreed! Let it now be according to your word.

35 So that day he removed the male goats that were speckled and spotted, all the female goats that were speckled and spotted, every one that had white on them, and all the brown ones among the lambs, and gave them into the hands of his sons.

36 Then he put three days' journey between himself and Yaaqob, and Yaaqob continued to tend the rest of Laban's flocks.

37 Now Yaaqob took for himself branches of green poplar, almond, and plane trees, then peeled white strips in them, and exposed the white which was in the branches.

38 And the branches which he had peeled, he set in front of the flocks at the watering trough, where the flocks came to drink; so that they should conceive when they came to drink.

39 So the flocks mated in front of the branches, and the flocks bore streaked, speckled, and spotted.

40 Yaaqob set apart the young of the flock by themselves, but made the rest face the streaked and dark-colored animals that belonged to Laban. Thus he made separate flocks for himself, and did not put them with Laban's animals.

41 Whenever the stronger females mated, Yaaqob would place the branches in the troughs in front of the animals; so they would mate near the branches.

42 But if the animals were weak, he would not place them there. So the weak animals went to Laban, and the strong ones to Yaaqob.

43 In this way the man became exceedingly wealthy, and had large flocks, female and male servants, and camels and donkeys.

CHAP. 31

Now Yaaqob heard the words of Laban's sons, saying, Yaaqob has taken away all that was our father's, and from what was our father's, he has acquired all this wealth.

2 And Yaaqob saw that the attitude of Laban was not toward him as it had been.

3 Then Yahweh said to Yaaqob, Return to the land of your fathers and to your kindred, and I will be with you.

4 So Yaaqob went, and called Rachel and Leah to the field, to his flock;

5 And said to them, I see your father's attitude, that it is not toward me as it had been; but Yahweh, Father of my father, has been with me.

6 And you know that with all my strength I have served your father;

7 Yet your father has cheated me, and changed my wages ten times; but Yahweh did not allow him to harm me.

8 If he said; The speckled shall be your wages, then all the flocks bore speckled. And if he said; The streaked shall be your wages, then all the flocks bore streaked.

9 So Yahweh has taken away the livestock of your father, and has given them to me.

10 Now as the sheep bred this breeding season, I lifted my eyes and saw in a dream, that the rams which leaped upon the flocks were streaked, speckled, and gray-spotted.

11 Then the malak of Yahweh spoke to me in a dream, saying; Yaaqob. And I said; Here I am.

12 And He said, Lift your eyes now, and look: all the rams which leap on the flocks are streaked, speckled, and gray-spotted; for I have seen all that Laban is doing to you.

13 I am Yahweh from Beth Yahweh; The House of Yahweh, where you anointed the pillar, and where you made a vow to Me. Now arise, get out of the land, and return to the land of your kindred.

14 Then Rachel and Leah answered, and said to him, Does there remain any portion or inheritance for us in our father's house?

15 Are we not considered strangers by him? For he has sold us, and has also completely consumed what was paid for us.

16 All these riches which Yahweh has taken from our father are ours and our childrens'; now then, whatever Yahweh has said to you, do it.

17 Then Yaaqob rose, and set his sons and his wives on camels;

18 And he carried away all his livestock and all his possessions which he had gained; his acquired livestock which he had gained in Padan Aram, to go to his father Isaac in the land of Canaan.

19 Laban had gone to shear his sheep, and Rachel then stole the household gods that were her father's.

20 Moreover, Yaaqob deceived Laban the Aramean, by not telling him he was running away.

21 So he fled with all that he had: He arose and crossed the river, and headed toward the hill country of Gilead.

22 And Laban was told on the third day that Yaaqob had fled.

23 Then he took his relatives with him and pursued him for seven days' journey, and he overtook him in the hill country of Gilead.

24 But Yahweh had come to Laban the Aramean in a dream by night, and said to him, Be careful that you speak to Yaaqob neither blessings nor curses.

25 So Laban overtook Yaaqob. Now Yaaqob had pitched his tent on the hill; and Laban, with his brethren, pitched in the hill country of Gilead;

26 And Laban said to Yaaqob: What have you done, that you have deceived me and carried away my daughters like captives taken with the sword?

27 Why did you flee away secretly, and steal away from me, and deceive me; for I might have sent you away with joy and songs, with timbrel and harp?

28 And you did not allow me to kiss my sons and my daughters. Now you have done foolishly in so doing.

29 It is in my power to do you harm, but Yahweh, the Father of your father spoke to me last night, saying, Be careful that you speak to Yaaqob neither blessing nor cursing.

30 And now, you have surely gone because you greatly long for your father's house; but why did you steal my gods?

31 Then Yaaqob answered, and said to Laban, I was afraid, for I thought you would take your daughters from me by force.

32 But with whomever you find your gods, do not let him live. In the presence of our relatives, identify what I have of yours, and take it with you. For Yaaqob did not know that Rachel had stolen the gods.

33 And Laban went into Yaaqob's tent, into Leah's tent, and into the two maidservants' tents, but he did not find his gods. Then he went out of Leah's tent and entered Rachel's tent.

34 Now Rachel had taken the household gods, put them in the camel's saddle, and sat on them. And Laban searched all about the tent but did not find them.

35 And she said to her father, Let it not anger you, my father, that I cannot rise before you; for the manner of women is with me. And he searched, but did not find the household gods.

36 Then Yaaqob was angry, and rebuked Laban, and Yaaqob said to Laban: What is my crime, and what is my sin, that you have hunted after me?

37 Although you have searched all my possessions, what part of your household things have you found? Set it here before my relatives and also your relatives, and let them judge between the two of us.

38 These twenty years I have been with you; your ewes and your female goats have not miscarried their young, and I have not eaten the rams of your flock.

39 That which was torn by wild beasts I did not bring to you; I bore the loss myself. Also, you demanded payment from my hand whether it was stolen by day or stolen by night.

40 This was my situation! In the day the drought consumed me, and the frost consumed me by night, and sleep departed from my eyes.

41 It has been thus in your household the twenty years I have served you. I served you fourteen years for your two daughters, and six years for your flock; and you have changed my wages ten times.

42 Unless the Heavenly Father of my fathers: Yahweh—the Father of my father Abraham and the Reverence of my father Isaac—had been with me, you would surely have sent me away empty-handed. But Yahweh has seen my affliction and the labor of my hands, and He rebuked you last night.

43 And Laban answered, and said to Yaaqob, These women are my daughters, and these children are my children, and these flocks are my flocks. All that you see is mine. But what can I do this day about my daughters or about their children whom they have borne?

44 Now therefore, come, let us make a covenant, you and I, and let it be a witness between you and me.

45 So Yaaqob took a stone, and set it up as a pillar.

46 Then Yaaqob said to his brethren, Gather stones. And they took stones and made a heap, and they ate there on the heap.

47 Laban called it Yegar Sahadutha, in Aramaic that is Heap of Witness, but Yaaqob called it Galeed, in Hebrew that is Heap of Witness.

48 And Laban said, This heap is a witness between you and me this day. Therefore, its name was called Galeed.

49 And also Mizpah, that is Watch, because he said, May Yahweh keep watch between you and me when we are absent from one another.

50 If you afflict my daughters, or if you take wives other than my daughters, although no man is with us, remember that Yahweh is witness between you and me!

51 Then Laban said to Yaaqob, Here is this heap, and here is this pillar, which I have placed between you and me.

52 This heap is a witness, and this pillar is a witness, that I will not pass beyond this heap to you and you will not pass beyond this heap and this pillar to me, for harm.

53 Yahweh Almighty of Abraham and Nahor, the Heavenly Father of their father, judge between us. And Yaaqob vowed by the Reverence of his father Isaac.

54 Then Yaaqob offered a sacrifice there on the hill, and called his brothers to eat bread. And they ate bread, and stayed all night on the hill.

55 And early in the morning Laban arose, and kissed his sons and daughters, and blessed them. Then Laban departed from there, and returned to his home.

CHAP. 32

So Yaaqob went on his way, and the malakim of Yahweh encountered him.

2 When Yaaqob saw them, he said, This is Yahweh's camp! So he called the name of that place Mahanaim, that is, Two Camps.

3 Then Yaaqob sent messengers ahead of him to Esau, his brother in the land of Seir, the country of Edom.

4 And he commanded them, saying, Speak in this way to my brother Esau: Thus your servant Yaaqob says; I have stayed with Laban, and remained there until now.

5 I have oxen, donkeys, flocks, and male and female servants; and I have sent to tell my brother, in order that I might find honor in your sight.

6 Then the messengers returned to Yaaqob saying, We came to your brother, Esau, and he also is coming to meet you; and four hundred men are with him.

7 Then Yaaqob was greatly afraid and distressed; and he divided the people that were with him, and the flocks and herds and camels, into two companies;

8 And he said, If Esau comes to the one company and attacks it, then the other company which is left will escape.

9 Then Yaaqob prayed, O Heavenly Father of my father Abraham, and Heavenly Father of my father Isaac, O Yahweh Who said to me, Return to your country and to your kindred, and I will deal well with you,

10 I am not worthy of the least of all the mercies and of all the faithful truth which You have shown Your servant; for I crossed over this Yarden with my staff, and now I have become two companies.

11 Deliver me, I pray, from the hand of my brother, from the hand of Esau; for I fear him, that he should come and attack me, and the mothers with the children.

12 For You promised, I will surely increase you, and make your descendants as the sand of the sea, which cannot be numbered for multitude.

13 So he spent the night there, and took what came to his hand as a gift for Esau his brother:

14 Two hundred female goats and twenty male goats, two hundred ewes and twenty rams, 15 Thirty female camels with their young, forty cows and ten bulls, twenty female donkeys, and ten foals.

16 Then he put them in the care of his servants, every drove by itself, and said to his servants, Go over in front of me, and put some distance between each successive drove.

17 And he gave orders to the first one, saying, When Esau my brother meets you, and asks you, saying, To whom do you belong, and where are you going, and to whom do these animals in front of you belong?

18 Then you shall say to him, They are your servant Yaaqob's. They are a present sent to my ruler Esau; and behold, he also is behind us.

19 He also instructed the second, the third, and all who followed the droves, saying, In this manner you shall speak to Esau when you encounter him;

20 And also say, Behold your servant Yaaqob is behind us. For he thought to himself, I will appease him with the present that goes in front of me, and afterward I will see his face; maybe he will accept me.

21 So the gifts went on over before him, but he himself spent that night in the camp.

22 And he arose that night and took his two wives, his two maidservants, and his eleven sons, and crossed over the ford of Yabbok.

23 He took them, and sent them over the stream, and then sent over all his possessions.

24 Then Yaaqob was left alone; and a Man wrestled with him until the breaking of day.

25 Then when He saw that He did not prevail against him, He touched the socket of his hip; and the socket of Yaaqob's hip was out of joint as He wrestled with him.

26 And He said, let Me go for the day breaks. But he said, I will not let You go unless You bless me!

27 So He said to him, What is your name? And he said, Yaaqob.

28 And He said, Your name shall no longer be called Yaaqob, that is Supplanter, but it will be ● Israyl; for you have struggled with Yahweh and with men, and have prevailed.

29 Then Yaaqob asked, Him saying, Tell your name, I ask. And He said, Why is it that you ask about My name? Then He blessed him there.

30 And Yaaqob called the name of the place, Peniyl, that is Face of Yahweh. For I have seen Yahweh face to face, and my life was spared.

31 The sun rose above him as he left Peniyl, and he limped on his hip.

32 Therefore, to this day the children of Israyl do not eat the muscle that shrank on the hip socket, because He touched the socket of Yaaqob's hip in the muscle that shrank.

CHAP. 33

Now Yaaqob lifted his eyes and looked, and there was Esau coming, and with him were four hundred men. So he divided the children among Leah, Rachel, and the two maidservants.

2 And he put the maidservants and their children in front, Leah and her children behind, and Rachel and Yahseph last.

3 Then he crossed over in front of them, and bowed himself to the ground seven times, until he came near to his brother.

4 But Esau ran to meet him, and embraced him, and fell on his neck and kissed him, and they wept.

5 And he lifted his eyes, and saw the women and children, and said, Who are these with you? And he said, They are the children whom Yahweh has compassionately given your servant.

6 Then the maidservants came near, they and their children, and bowed down.

7 And Leah also came near with her children, and they bowed down. Afterward Yahseph and Rachel came near, and they bowed down.

8 Then Esau said, What do you mean by all the droves of animals which I met? And he said, They are gifts to find honor in the sight of my brother.

9 But Esau said, I have enough, my brother; keep what you have for yourself.

10 But Yaaqob said, No, please, if I have now found honor in your sight, then accept my gifts from my hand. For to see your face is like seeing the face of Yahweh, now that you have received me with honor.

11 Please, accept my gifts that are brought to you, because Yahweh has dealt bountifully with me, and because I have all I need.

12 Then Esau said, Let us be on our way; let us go, and I will go before you.

13 But Yaaqob said to him, my brother knows that the children are weak, and the flocks and herds which are nursing, are with me, and if the men should drive them hard one day, then all the flock will die.

14 Please let my brother go on ahead in front of his servant. I will lead on slowly at a pace which the livestock with me, and the children, are able to endure, until I come to my brother in Seir.

15 Then Esau said, Let me leave with you some of the men with me. But he said, What need is there? Just let me find honor in your sight, my brother.

16 So Esau returned that day on his way to Seir.

17 But Yaaqob, however, journeyed to Succoth, built himself a house, and made booths for his livestock. Therefore the name of the place is called Succoth, that is, Booths.

18 Then Yaaqob came safely to the city of Shechem, in the land of Canaan, when he came from Padan Aram; and he pitched his tent in the sight of the city.

19 And he bought the tract of land where he had pitched his tent, from the children of Hamor, Shechem's father, for one hundred pieces of silver.

20 Then he erected an altar there, and called it, Mighty is the Father of Israyl.

CHAP. 34

Now Dinah, the daughter of Leah, whom she had borne to Yaaqob, went out to see the daughters of the land.

2 And when Shechem, the son of Hamor the Hivite the ruler of that area, saw her, he took her, and lay with her, and violated her.

3 His heart was strongly attracted to Dinah, the daughter of Yaaqob; and he loved the young woman and spoke tenderly to the young woman.

4 So Shechem spoke to his father Hamor, saying, Get me this young woman as my wife.

5 And Yaaqob heard that he had defiled Dinah his daughter. Now his sons were with his livestock in the field; so Yaaqob held his peace until they came in.

6 Then Hamor, the father of Shechem, went out to Yaaqob, to speak with him.

7 And the sons of Yaaqob came in from the field when they heard; and the men were hurt, and also very angry because he had done an evil thing against Israyl—by lying with Yaaqob's daughter, a thing which ought not to be done.

● Israyl, i.e. Yisrayl, means Struggler By Yahweh's Side. NIV Interlinear Hebrew-English Old Testament, Vol. 1, pp. 89, Zondervan, Grand Rapids, MI; or Ruler As Yahweh Would Rule: Strong's Exhaustive Concordance, #3478, Abingdon, Nashville, TN.

8 But Hamor spoke with them, saying, The heart of my son Shechem longs for your daughter. Give her to him as a wife.

9 And make marriages with us; give your daughters to us, and take our daughters to yourselves;

10 So you shall settle among us, and the land shall be open to you. Live and trade in it, and acquire possessions for yourselves in it.

11 Then Shechem said to Dinah's father, and her brothers, Let me find honor in your eyes, and whatever you say to me I will give.

12 Make the bride price ever so much dowry and gift, and I will give according to what you tell me, but give me the young woman as a wife.

13 Then the sons of Yaaqob answered Shechem and Hamor his father, and spoke deceitfully, because he had defiled Dinah their sister.

14 And they said to them, We cannot do this thing, to give our sister to one who is uncircumcised, for that is a shame to us.

15 Only on one condition will we consent to you: If you will become as we are: and every male of you is circumcised.

16 Then we will give our daughters to you and we will take your daughters to us; and we will settle among you, and we will become one people.

17 But, if you will not listen to us and be circumcised, then we will take our daughter and be gone.

18 And their proposal pleased Hamor and Shechem, Hamor's son.

19 So the young man lost no time in doing what they said, because he was delighted with Yaaqob's daughter. Also the young man was the most honored of all his father's household.

20 And Hamor and Shechem his son came to the gate of their city, and spoke with the men of their city, saying:

21 These men are at peace with us. Therefore, let them settle in the land and trade in it. For the land is indeed large enough for them. Let us take their daughters to us as wives, and let us give them our daughters.

22 Only on this one condition will these men consent to settle with us, to become one people: if every male among us is circumcised, as they are circumcised.

23 Will not their livestock, their property, and every animal of theirs become ours? Only let us give our consent to them, and they will settle among us.

24 All who went out of the gate of his city agreed with Hamor and Shechem his son; every male was circumcised, all who went out of the gate of his city.

25 Then on the third day, when they were in pain, the two of the sons of Yaaqob: Simeon and Levi, Dinah's brothers, each took his sword, and came boldly into the city, and killed all the males.

26 And they killed Hamor and Shechem his son with the edge of the sword, and took Dinah from Shechem's house, and went out from there.

27 The sons of Yaaqob then came upon the slain, and plundered the city where their sister had been defiled.

28 They took their sheep, their oxen, and their donkeys. They took what was in the city and what was in the field.

29 And they took all their wealth. All their children and their wives they took captive; and they took as plunder all that was in the houses.

30 Then Yaaqob said to Simeon and Levi, You have brought trouble upon me, by making me as a stench among the inhabitants of the land: among these Canaanites and Perizzites: and since I am few in number, if they gather themselves together against me, they will kill me. I shall be destroyed, my household and I.

31 But they said, Should he treat our sister like a harlot?

CHAP. 35

Then Yahweh said to Yaaqob, Arise and go up to Beth Yahweh, and stay there, and make an altar there to Yahweh Who appeared to you when you fled from the face of Esau your brother.

2 And Yaaqob said to his household, and to all with him, Put away the gods among you! Become pure and holy, and change your garments.

3 Then let us arise, and go up to ● Beth Yahweh; and I will make an altar there to Yahweh Who answered me in the day of my distress, and has been with me in the way which I have gone.

4 So they gave Yaaqob all the gods in their hands, and the earrings in their ears, and Yaaqob hid them under the tree by Shechem.

5 And they journeyed, and the terror of Yahweh was upon the cities all around them; and the men of them did not pursue the sons of Yaaqob.

6 So Yaaqob came to Luz in the land of

● Beth Yahweh, means: The House of Yahweh.

Canaan, he and all the people with him.

7 And he built an altar there, and called the place Beth Yahweh; because there Yahweh appeared to him when he fled from the face of his brother Esau.

8 Now Deborah, Rebekah's nurse, died, and she was buried under the great tree, below Beth Yahweh. So the name of it was called Allon Bachuth, that is Great Tree of Weeping.

9 After Yaaqob returned from Padan Aram, Yahweh appeared to him again, and blessed him:

10 Yahweh said to him, Your name is Yaaqob, but you will no longer be called Yaaqob, that is He Grasps the Heel; ie He Deceives; Supplanter; but your name will be Israyl, that is, Ruler As Yahweh Would Rule. So He named him Israyl.

11 And Yahweh said to him: I am Yahweh, the Almighty Father of your fathers; be fruitful and multiply; a nation and a community of nations will come from you, and kings will come from your body.

12 The land I gave to Abraham and Isaac, I also give to you and to your descendants after you.

13 Then Yahweh went up from him at the place where he had talked with him.

14 So Yaaqob set up a pillar in the place where He talked with him, a pillar of stone; and he poured a drink offering on it, and he poured oil on it.

15 And Yaaqob called the name of the place where Yahweh spoke with him, Beth Yahweh.

16 Then they moved on from Beth Yahweh. While they were still some distance from Ephrath, Rachel began to give birth, and had hard labor.

17 And as she was having great difficulty in childbirth, the midwife said to her, Do not be afraid, for you have another son.

18 And as her life was going, for she died, that she called the name of her son, Ben-Oni, that is, Son of my Sorrow; but his father named him Benyamin, that is Son of My Right Hand.

19 So Rachel died, and was buried on the way to Ephrath (that is, Bethlehem).

20 Over her tomb Yaaqob set up a pillar, and to this day that pillar marks Rachel's tomb.

21 Then Israyl moved on again and, pitched his tent beyond Migdal (tower) Eder.

22 While Israyl was living in that land, Reuben went and lay with Bilhah, his father's concubine; and Israyl heard of it. Now Yaaqob had twelve sons:

23 The sons of Leah were Reuben, Yaaqob's firstborn, and Simeon, Levi, Yahdah, Issachar, and Zebulun;

24 The sons of Rachel were Yahseph and Benyamin;

25 The sons of Bilhah, Rachel's maidser-vant, were Dan and Naphtali;

26 And the sons of Zilpah, Leah's maidservant, were Gad and Asher. These were the sons of Yaaqob who were born to him in Padan Aram.

27 Then Yaaqob came home to his father Isaac at Mamre, or Kiryath-Arba (that is Hebron), where Abraham and Isaac had stayed.

28 Now the years of Isaac were one hundred and eighty years.

29 So Isaac breathed his last, and died, and was gathered to his people, being old and full of days; and his sons, Esau and Yaaqob, buried him.

CHAP. 36

Now these are the begettings of Esau, who is Edom.

2 Esau took his wives from the daughters of Canaan: Adah the daughter of Elon the Hittite; Aholibamah the daughter of Anah, the daughter of Zibeon the Hivite;

3 And Bashemath, Ishmayl's daughter, sister of Nebayoth.

4 Now Adah bore Eliphaz to Esau, and Bashemath bore Reuel.

5 And Aholibamah bore Yeush, Yaalam, and Korah. These were the sons of Esau, who were born to him in the land of Canaan.

6 Then Esau took his wives, his sons, his daughters, and all members of his household, his cattle and all his animals, and all his possessions which he had gained in the land of Canaan, and went to a country away from the presence of his brother Yaaqob.

7 Their possessions were too great for them to remain together; the land where they were staying could not support them both, because of their livestock.

8 So Esau settled in the hill country of Seir. Esau is Edom.

9 These are the begettings of Esau, the father of the Edomites in Mount Seir;

10 These were the names of Esau's sons: Eliphaz, the son of Adah the wife of Esau, and Reuel, the son of Bashemath the wife of Esau.

11 And the sons of Eliphaz were Teman, Omar, Zepho, Gatam and Kenaz.

12 Now Timna was the concubine of Eliphaz, Esau's son, and she bore Amalek to Eliphaz. These were the sons of Adah, Esau's wife.

13 These were the sons of Reuel: Nahath, Zerah, Shammah, and Mizzah. These were the sons of Bashemath, Esau's wife.

14 These were the sons of Aholibamah, Esau's wife, the daughter of Anah, the daughter of Zibeon. And she bore to Esau: Yeush, Yaalam, and Korah.

15 These were the chiefs of the sons of Esau. The sons of Eliphaz, the firstborn son of Esau, were Chief Teman, Chief Omar, Chief Zepho, Chief Kenaz,

16 Chief Korah, Chief Gatam, and Chief Amalek. These were the chiefs of Eliphaz in the land of Edom. They were the sons of Adah.

17 These were the sons of Reuel, Esau's son: Chief Nahath, Chief Zerah, Chief Shammah, and Chief Mizzah. These were the chiefs of Reuel in the land of Edom. These were the sons of Bashemath, Esau's wife.

18 And these were the sons of Aholibamah, Esau's wife: Chief Yeush, Chief Yaalam, and Chief Korah. These were the chiefs who descended from Aholibamah, Esau's wife, the daughter of Anah.

19 These were the sons of Esau, who is Edom, and these were their chiefs.

20 These were the sons of Seir the Horite who lived in the region: Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah.

21 Dishon, Ezer, and Dishan. These were the chiefs of the Horites, the sons of Seir, in the land of Edom.

22 And the sons of Lotan were Hori and Hemam. Lotan's sister was Timna.

23 These were the sons of Shobal: Alvan, Manahath, Ebal, Shepho, and Onam.

24 These were the sons of Zibeon: both Aiah and Anah. This was the Anah who found the water in the wilderness, as he pastured the donkeys of Zibeon, his father.

25 These were the children of Anah: Dishon and Aholibamah the daughter of Anah.

26 These were the sons of Dishon: Hemdan, Eshban, Ithran, and Keran.

27 These were the sons of Ezer: Bilhan, Zaanvan, and Akan.

28 These were the sons of Dishan: Uz and Aran.

29 These were the chiefs of the Horites: Chief Lotan, Chief Shobal, Chief Zibeon, Chief Anah.

30 Chief Dishon, Chief Ezer, and Chief Dishan; these were the chiefs of the Horites, according to their divisions, in the land of Seir.

31 These were the kings who reigned in Edom before any Israelite king reigned:

32 Bela the son of Beor reigned in Edom, and the name of his city was Dinhabah.

33 And when Bela died, Yobab the son of Zerah of Bozrah succeeded him as king.

34 When Yobab died, Husham from the land of the Temanites succeeded him as king.

35 And when Husham died, Hadah the son of Bedad, who attacked Midian in the field of Moab, succeeded him as king.

36 When Hadad died, Samlah of Masrekah succeeded him as king.

37 And when Samlah died, Shaul of Rehoboth-on-the-River succeeded him as king.

38 When Shaul died, Baal-Hanan, the son of Achbor succeeded him as king.

39 And when Baal-Hanan, the son of Achbor, died, Hadad succeeded him as king; and the name of his city was Pau and his wife's name was Mehetabel, the daughter of Matred, the daughter of Me-Zehab.

40 And these were the names of the chiefs of Esau, according to their clans and their regions: Chief Timnah, Chief Alvah, Chief Yetheth,

41 Chief Aholibamah, Chief Elah, Chief Pionon,

42 Chief Kenaz, Chief Teman, Chief Mibzar,

43 Chief Magdiel, and Chief Iram. These were the chiefs of Edom, according to their settlements in the land they occupied. This was Esau, the father of the Edomites.

CHAP. 37

Now Yaaqob lived in the land where his father had stayed, the land of Canaan.

2 These are the begettings of Yaaqob. Yahseph, a young man, then seventeen years old, was feeding the flock with his brothers, the sons of Bilhah and the sons of Zilpah, his father's wives, and he brought their father a bad report about them.

3 Now Israyl loved Yahseph more than any of his other sons, because he had been born to him in his old age; and he made him a richly ornamented robe.

4 When his brothers saw their father loved him more than all his brothers, they hated him, and could not speak a kind word to him.

5 Yahseph dreamed a dream, and when he told it to his brothers, they hated him even more.

6 He said to them, Hear this dream which I have dreamed:

7 We were binding sheaves of grain in the field, when behold, my sheaf arose and stood upright; and your sheaves stood all around, and bowed down to my sheaf.

8 His brothers said to him, Do you intend to reign over us? Will you actually rule us? And they hated him all the more, because of his dream and what he had said.

9 Then he had another dream, and he told it to his brothers, and said, Listen, I have dreamed another dream, and this time the sun, the moon, and the eleven stars bowed down to me.

10 When he told his father as well as his brothers, his father rebuked him, and said to him, What is this dream you dreamed? Will your mother, and I, and your brothers actually come and bow down to the ground before you?

11 His brothers were jealous of him, but his father kept the matter in mind.

12 Then his brothers went near Shechem to tend their father's flocks.

13 And Israyl said to Yahseph. Your brothers are grazing the flocks near Shechem. Come, I am sending you to them. And he said, Here I am.

14 Then he said to him, Go, and see if it is well with your brothers, and well with the flocks, and bring back word to me. So he sent him out of the Valley of Hebron, and he went toward Shechem.

15 A man found him wandering around in the fields, and asked him, What are you looking for?

16 So he said, I am seeking my brothers. Tell me where they are grazing their flocks.

17 And the man said, They have moved on from here, and I heard them say, Let us go to Dothan. So Yahseph went after his brothers, and found them in Dothan.

18 But they saw him in the distance, and before he reached them, they plotted to kill him.

19 They said to each other, Here comes that dreamer!

20 Come now, let us kill him, and throw him into one of these cisterns, and say: Some beast has devoured him. We shall see what becomes of his dreams!

21 When Reuben heard this, he tried to deliver him from their hands; he said, Let us not take his life:

22 Shed no blood, but throw him into this cistern here in the desert; but do not lay a hand on him. Reuben said this that he might deliver him out of their hands, and bring him back to his father.

23 So when Yahseph came to his brothers, they stripped Yahseph of his robe, the robe of rich ornamentation that was upon him.

24 Then they took him, and threw him into a cistern. Now the cistern was empty, and no water was in it.

25 And when they sat down to eat a meal, they lifted their eyes, and saw a caravan of Ishmaylites coming from Gilead. Their camels were loaded with spices, balm and myrrh; and they were on their way to take them down to Egypt.

26 So Yahdah said to his brothers, What will we gain if we kill our brother and cover up his blood?

27 Come, let us sell him to the Ishmaylites, and not lay our hands on him, for he is our brother; our flesh and blood. And his brothers agreed.

28 When the Midianite traders passed by, they pulled Yahseph up, and lifted him out of the cistern; and they sold him for twenty shekels, about eight ounces, of silver to the Ishmaylites, who took him to Egypt.

29 When Reuben returned to the cistern, he saw Yahseph was not there, and he tore his clothes.

30 He went back to his brothers, and said, The boy is not there! Where can I turn now?

31 Then they took Yahseph's robe, slaughtered a male of the goats, and dipped the robe in the blood.

32 They took the richly ornamented robe back to their father, and said to him, We have found this. Do you know whether it is your son's robe, or not?

33 He recognized it, and said, My son's robe! A wild beast has devoured him! Yahseph has surely been torn to pieces!

34 Then Yaaqob tore his clothes, put on sackcloth, and mourned for his son many days.

35 All his sons and daughters came to comfort him; but he refused to be comforted, and he said, No! I shall go down into my grave mourning for my son! So his father wept for him.

36 Now the Midianites had sold him in Egypt to Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh; the captain of the guard.

CHAP. 38

At that time Yahdah left his brothers, and went down to stay with a man of Adullam, Hirah the Adullamite.

2 And Yahdah met there a daughter of a Canaanite man named Shua; and he married her, and went in to her.

3 So she conceived, and bore a son, and he called his name Er.

4 She conceived again, and bore a son, and she called his name Onan.

5 And she conceived yet again, and bore a son, and called his name Shelah. It was at Kezib that she gave birth to him.

6 Then Yahdah took a wife for Er his firstborn, and her name was Tamar.

7 But Er, Yahdah's firstborn, was wicked in Yahweh's sight; so Yahweh put him to death.

8 Then Yahdah said to Onan, Go in to your brother's wife, and fulfill your duty to her as a brother-in-law, to produce offspring for your brother.

9 But Onan knew the offspring would not be his; so whenever he lay with his brother's wife, he spilled his seed on the ground, to keep from producing offspring for his brother.

10 And the thing he did was evil in Yahweh's sight; so He put him to death also.

11 Then Yahdah said to Tamar his daughter-in-law: Live as a widow in your father's house till my son Shelah is grown. For he thought: He may die, just as his brothers did. And Tamar went to live in her father's house.

12 After a long time Yahdah's wife, the daughter of Shua, died. When Yahdah was recovered from his grief, he went up to Timnah, to the men who were shearing his sheep; and his friend, Hirah the Adullamite went with him.

13 And it was reported to Tamar: Look, your father-in-law is going up to Timnah, to shear his sheep.

14 So she took off her widow's garments, covered herself with a veil to disguise herself, and then sat down at the entrance to Enaim, which is on the road to Timnah; for she saw that Shelah was grown, but she was not given to him as a wife.

15 When Yahdah saw her, he thought she was a harlot, because she had covered her face.

16 Because he did not know that she was his daughter-in-law, he turned to her by the way, and said, Let me come in to you. So she said, What will you give me, that you may come in to me?

17 Then he said, I will send you a young goat from my flock. And she said, Will you give me a pledge to hold until you send it?

18 Then he said, What pledge shall I give you? So she said, Your signet and cord, and your staff in your hand. Then he gave them to her, and went in to her, and she conceived by him.

19 After she left, she took off her veil and put on her widow's clothes again.

20 Then Yahdah sent the young goat by his friend the Adullamite, in order to get his pledge back from the woman; but he did not find her.

21 He then asked the men who lived there, Where is the shrine harlot who was beside the road at Enaim? And they said, There was no harlot in this place.

22 So he went back to Yahdah, and said, I cannot find her. Also the men of the place said there was no harlot in this place.

23 Then Yahdah said, Let her keep what she has, or we will become a laughingstock; for I sent this young goat, and you have not found her.

24 About three moons after that, Yahdah was told, saying; Tamar, your daughter-in-law, has played the harlot. As a result, she is with child by harlotry. So Yahdah said, Bring her out, and let her be burned!

25 As she was being brought out, she sent a message to her father-in-law, saying, By the man to whom these belong, I am with child. And she said, See if you recognize whose these are: the signet and cord, and the staff.

26 Yahdah recognized them, and said, She is more righteous than I, because I did not give her to Shelah, my son. But he never knew her again.

27 When the time came for her to give birth, behold, twin boys were in her womb.

28 As she was giving birth, one of them put out his hand; so the midwife took a scarlet thread, and tied it on his wrist, and said, This one came out first.

29 But when he drew back his hand, behold, his brother came out, and she said, How did you break out? And he was named Perez, that is Breaking Out.

30 Then his brother, who had the scarlet thread on his wrist, came out; and he was given the name Zerah, that is Scarlet.

CHAP. 39

Now Yahseph had been taken down to Egypt. And Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh: captain of the guard, an Egyptian, bought him from the Ishmaylites who had taken him down there.

2 Yahweh was with Yahseph, and he was a successful man; and he lived in the house of his owner, the Egyptian.

3 When his owner saw that Yahweh was with him, and that Yahweh have him success in everything he did,

4 That Yahseph found honor in his eyes, and be-came his attendant. Potiphar made him overseer of his house, and put into his hand everything that he had.

5 So it was, from the time he had made him overseer of his house and all that he had, that Yahweh blessed the Egyptian's house for Yahseph's sake; and the blessing of Yahweh was on all that Potiphar had in the house and in the field.

6 So he entrusted all that he had into Yahseph's hand, and he did not concern himself with anything, except for the bread which he ate. And Yahseph was handsome in form and appearance.

7 And after a while his owner's wife cast longing eyes upon Yahseph; and she said, Lie with me.

8 But he refused, and said to his owner's wife, My owner does not concern himself with what I do in his house, and he has committed all that he has to my care.

9 No one is greater in this house than I am; nor has he kept back anything he has, except you, because you are his wife. How, then, could I commit such great wickedness, and sin against Yahweh?

10 And though she spoke to Yahseph day after day, he refused to carnally lie with her, or even be with her.

11 But it came to pass about this time, when Yahseph went into the house to do his work, and none of the men of the house was inside, 12 That she caught him by his cloak, and said, Come lie with me. But he left his cloak in her hand, and ran out of the house.

13 When she saw that he had left his cloak in her hand and had run out of the house,

14 That she called her household servants, and said to them; See, he has brought in to us a Hebrew to make sport of us! He came in here to lie with me, but I screamed.

15 So when he heard me scream, and cry out for help, that he left his cloak with me, and fled, and ran out of the house;

16 And she kept his cloak beside her until his owner came home.

17 Then she told him this story: The Hebrew servant whom you brought to us, came in to me to make sport of me.

18 But as soon as I screamed for help, he left his cloak beside me, and ran out of the house.

19 When his owner heard the words his wife spoke to him, saying, Your servant did to me after this manner, then his anger burned in him.

20 Then Yahseph's owner took him, and put him in prison: the place where the king's prisoners were confined; and there he was imprisoned.

21 But Yahweh was with Yahseph, and showed him kindness, and He gave him honor in the sight of the warden of the prison.

22 So the warden put Yahseph in charge of all those held in the prison, and he was made responsible for all that was done there.

23 The warden paid no attention to anything under Yahseph's care, because Yahweh was with Yahseph and gave him success in whatever he did.

CHAP. 40

And it was after these things that the cupbearer and the baker of the king of Egypt offended their ruler, the king of Egypt;

2 And Pharaoh was angry with his two officers, the chief cupbearer and the chief baker.

3 And put them in custody in the house of the captain of the guard, in the same prison where Yahseph was confined.

4 The captain of the guard assigned them to Yahseph, and he attended them. So they had been in custody for some time.

5 Then the cupbearer and the baker of the king of Egypt, who were confined in the prison, dreamed a dream the same night; and each dream had a meaning of its own.

6 Now Yahseph came to them the next morning, and he saw that they were dejected;

7 So he asked Pharaoh's officers who were with him in custody in his owner's house, Why are your faces so sad today?

8 And they said to him, We each have dreamed a dream, and there is no interpreter for it. And Yahseph said to them, Do not interpretations belong to Yahweh? Tell your dreams to me.

9 Then the chief cupbearer told his dream to Yahseph, and said to him, Behold, in my dream a vine was in front of me,

10 And in the vine were three branches; it was as though it budded, its blossoms shot forth, and its clusters brought forth ripe grapes.

11 Then Pharaoh's cup was in my hand; and

I took the grapes, and pressed them into Pharaoh's cup, and placed the cup in Pharaoh's hand.

12 And Yahseph said to him, This is the interpretation of it: The three branches are three days.

13 Now within three days Pharaoh will lift up your head, and restore you to your position; and you will put Pharaoh's cup in his hand, just as you used to do when you were his cupbearer.

14 But when all goes well with you, remember me, and show me kindness; mention me to Pharaoh and get me out of this prison.

15 For indeed I was forcibly carried off from the land of the Hebrews; and also I have done nothing here to deserve putting me into the prison.

16 When the chief baker saw that Yahseph had given a pleasing interpretation, he said to Yahseph, I was also in my dream, and there on my head were three baskets of bread;

17 In the top basket were all kinds of baked items for Pharaoh, and the birds ate of them out of the basket on my head.

18 So Yahseph answered, and said, This is the interpretation of it: The three baskets are three days.

19 Within three days Pharaoh will lift off your head, and hang you on a tree, and the birds will eat away your flesh.

20 Now on the third day was Pharaoh's birthday, and he gave a feast for all his officials; and he lifted up the head of the chief of the cupbearers, and the head of the chief of the bakers in the presence of his officials:

21 He restored the chief cupbearer to his position, so that he once again put the cup into Pharaoh's hand, 22 But he hanged the chief baker, just as Yahseph had spoken to them in his interpretation.

23 However, the chief cupbearer did not remember Yahseph; he forgot him.

CHAP. 41

When two full years had passed, Pharaoh had a dream: and behold, he stood by the river Nile,

2 When out of the river there suddenly came up seven cows, sleek and fat, and they grazed among the reeds.

3 Then after them seven other cows, ugly and gaunt, came up out of the Nile, and stood beside those on the riverbank.

4 And the cows that were ugly and gaunt ate up the seven sleek, fat cows. Then Pharaoh woke up.

5 He slept again, and dreamed a second time; and seven heads of grain came up on one stalk, healthy and full.

6 But after them seven other heads of grain sprouted, thin and scorched by the east wind.

7 The thin heads of grain swallowed up the seven healthy, full heads. So Pharaoh awoke, and it had been a dream.

8 Now in the morning his mind was troubled, so he sent and called for all the magicians of Egypt and all of its wise men. Then Pharaoh told them his dreams; but there was no one who could interpret them for Pharaoh.

9 Then the chief cupbearer spoke to Pharaoh, saying: Today I am reminded of my shortcomings!

10 Once when Pharaoh was angry with his servants, and he imprisoned me and the chief baker in custody in the house of the captain of the guard,

11 That we each dreamed a dream in one night, he and I both, and each dream had a meaning of its own.

12 Now there was a young Hebrew man with us, a servant of the captain of the guard. And we told him our dreams, and he interpreted our dreams for us; giving each man the interpretation of his own dream.

13 And it came to pass just as he interpreted for us: he restored me to my office, and he hanged him.

14 Then Pharaoh sent and called Yahseph, and they brought him quickly out of the dungeon: when he shaved and changed his clothing, he came to Pharaoh.

15 Pharaoh then said to Yahseph, I have dreamed a dream, and there is no one who can interpret it. But I have heard it said of you that you can understand a dream to interpret it.

16 So Yahseph answered, I can not do it, but Yahweh will give Pharaoh the answer he desires.

17 Then Pharaoh said to Yahseph: In my dream I was standing on the bank of the Nile.

18 When seven cows suddenly came up out of the Nile, sleek and fat and they grazed among the reeds.

19 Then seven other cows came up after them: scrawny and very ugly and lean. I had never seen such ugly cows in all the land of Egypt.

20 And the gaunt and ugly cows ate up the first seven fat cows.

21 When they had eaten them up, no one would have known they had eaten them, for they were just as ugly and gaunt as at the beginning. So I awoke.

22 Also, I saw in my next dream seven heads of grain came up on one stalk, healthy and full.

23 Then seven other heads sprouted: withered and scorched by the east wind;

24 And the thin heads of grain swallowed up the seven full heads. I told this to the magicians, but none could explain it to me.

25 Then Yahseph said to Pharaoh, The dreams of Pharaoh are one and the same. Yahweh has shown Pharaoh what He is about to do.

26 The seven fat cows are seven years, and the seven full heads of grain are seven years: the dreams are one and the same.

27 And the seven gaunt and ugly cows which came up after them are seven years, and the seven worthless heads of grain, scorched by the east wind, are seven years of famine.

28 It is just as I have spoken to Pharaoh: Yahweh has shown Pharaoh what He is about to do.

29 Seven years of great abundance will come throughout all the land of Egypt;

30 But after them seven years of famine will arise; and all the abundance in Egypt will be forgotten, and the famine will ravage the land.

31 The abundance will not be remembered in the land, because the famine following will be so severe.

32 The dream was repeated to Pharaoh in two forms, because the matter is firmly established by Yahweh; and Yahweh will shortly do it.

33 And now let Pharaoh select a discerning and wise man, and set him in charge of the land of Egypt.

34 Let Pharaoh make and appoint commissioners over the land, to collect one-fifth of the produce of the land of Egypt in the seven abundant years.

35 And they will collect all the food of those abundant years that are coming, and store up grain under the authority of Pharaoh, and they will keep the food in the cities.

36 And the food will be in reserve for the country, to be used in the seven years of famine that will come upon Egypt, so that the country may not be ruined by the famine.

37 So the plan seemed right to Pharaoh and to all his officials.

38 So Pharaoh asked them, Can we find anyone like this very man in whom is the Spirit of Yahweh, Whom he worships?

39 Then Pharaoh said to Yahseph, Inasmuch as Yahweh, Whom you worship, has made all this known to you, there is no one so discerning and wise as you.

40 You shall be in charge of my palace, and all my people shall be ruled according to your word; only in regard to the throne will I be greater than you.

41 And Pharaoh said to Yahseph, Behold, I have set you over all the land of Egypt.

42 Then Pharaoh took his signet ring from his finger, and put it on Yahseph's finger. He clothed him in garments of fine linen, and put a gold chain around his neck;

43 And he had him ride in a chariot, as his second-in-command, and they cried out in front of him; Bow the knee! So he set him over all the land of Egypt.

44 Then Pharaoh said to Yahseph, I am Pharaoh, but without your consent no one will lift his hand or foot in all Egypt.

45 And Pharaoh called Yahseph's name, Zaphnath-Paaneah, (Tsophnath Paneach) and gave him Asenath, the daughter of Poti-Pherah, priest of On, that is, Awen; Heliopolis: the city of the sun god. So Yahseph went out over all the land of Egypt.

46 Yahseph was thirty years old when he entered the service of Pharaoh king of Egypt. And Yahseph went out from the presence of Pharaoh, and went throughout all the land of Egypt.

47 During the seven abundant years the ground brought forth plentifully;

48 Yahseph collected all the allotted food produced in those seven years of abundance in Egypt, and stored up the food in the cities. He stored up in every city the food which came from the fields surrounding them.

49 Yahseph gathered huge quantities of grain, like the sand of the sea; it was so much that he stopped counting, because it was beyond measure.

50 And to Yahseph were born two sons before the years of famine came, whom Asenath, the daughter of Poti-Pherah, priest of On, bore to him.

51 Yahseph called the name of the firstborn, ● Menasheh, that is Making To Forget: for I am caused to forget all my toil and all my father's house.

52 And the name of the second he named, Ephraim that is, Fruitfulness: for Yahweh caused me to be fruitful in the land of my affliction.

53 Then the seven years of abundance, which were in the land of Egypt, came to an end;

54 And the seven years of famine began to come, as Yahseph had said. The famine was in all other lands, but throughout all the land of Egypt there was food.

55 When all Egypt began to feel the famine, the people cried to Pharaoh for food. Then Pharaoh told all the Egyptians, Go to Yahseph; whatever he says to you, do.

56 When the famine had spread over the face of all countries, Yahseph opened the storehouses, and sold grain to the Egyptians; for the famine became severe in the land of Egypt.

57 So all countries came to Egypt to buy grain from Yahseph, because the famine was severe in all the world.

CHAP. 42

When Yaaqob learned there there was grain

● Erroneously translated, Menasheh, in other English Versions: Strong's Exhaustive Concordance, word #4519; Hebrew Dictionary, Abingdon Press, Nashville, TN.

in Egypt, he said to his sons, Why do you just keep looking at one another?

2 I have heard there is grain in Egypt; go down to that place and buy for us there, so we may live, and not die.

3 So Yahseph's ten brothers went down into Egypt to buy grain.

4 But Yaaqob did not send Yahseph's brother, Benyamin, with his brothers, for he thought, Some harm might come to him.

5 So the sons of Israyl were among those who went to buy grain, for the famine was in the land of Canaan also.

6 Now Yahseph was the governor over the land and who sold grain to all its people. So when Yahseph's brothers arrived, they bowed down to him with their faces to the ground.

7 Yahseph saw his brothers, and recognized them, but he acted as a stranger to them, and spoke roughly to them. Then he said to them, Where do you come from? And they said, From the land of Canaan to buy food.

8 Although Yahseph recognized his brothers, his brothers did not recognize him.

9 Then Yahseph remembered the dreams which he had dreamed about them, and said to them, You are spies! You have come to see where our land is unprotected!

10 But they said to him, No, O ruler! Your servants have only come to buy food.

11 We are all one man's sons; we are honest men! Your servants are not spies!

12 But he said to them, No, but you have come to see where our land is unprotected.

13 But they said, Your servants were twelve brothers, the sons of one man in the land of Canaan. The youngest is now with our father, and one is no more.

14 But Yahseph said to them, It is just as I told you: You are spies!

15 And this is how you will be tested: As surely as Pharaoh lives, you will not leave this place unless your youngest brother comes here.

16 Send one of your number, and let him bring your brother. You others shall be kept in prison, that your words may be tested to see whether there is any truth in you; or else, by the life of Pharaoh, you are surely spies!

17 So he put them all together in prison for three days.

18 Then Yahseph said to them the third day, Do this and you will live, for I reverence Yahweh:

19 If you are honest men, let one of your brothers be confined to your prison house, while the rest of you go and take grain back for the famine of your households;

20 Then bring your youngest brother to me, so your words may be verified, and you shall not die. And they did so.

21 Then they said, one to another, Surely we are being punished because of our brother. for we saw his anguish when he pleaded with us, and we would not listen; that is the reason this distress has come upon us.

22 Reuben then said, Did not I tell you not to sin against the boy; and you would not listen? Now we are accounting for his blood.

23 They did not realize Yahseph understood them, for he had spoken to them through an interpreter.

24 And he turned himself away from them and wept. Then he turned back to them, and spoke to them again. He separated Simeon from them and bound him in front of their eyes.

25 Then Yahseph gave a command to fill their sacks with grain, then to put each man's silver back into their sacks, and to give them provisions for their journey. So he did this for them.

26 And they loaded their grain onto their donkeys and left from there.

27 At the place where they stopped for the night, one of them opened his sack to get feed for his donkey, and saw his silver in the mouth of his sack.

28 Then he said to his brothers: My silver has been returned! Here it is in my sack! And their hearts sank and each brother trembled, and said: What is this that Yahweh has done to us?

29 When they came to Yaaqob their father in the land of Canaan, they told him all that had transpired to them, and said:

30 The man who is ruler of the land spoke harshly to us, and accused us as spies of the country.

31 But we said to him, We are honest men; we are not spies;

32 We are twelve brothers, sons of our father; one is no more and the youngest is with our father this day in the land of Canaan.

33 Then the man, the ruler of the land, said to us: By this test will I know you are honest men: Leave one of your brothers with me; take food for the famine in your households and leave from here.

34 But bring your youngest brother here to me, that I may know you are not spies, but you are truly honest men. Then I will give your brother back to you, and then you may trade in the land.

35 Then, as they were emptying their sacks, there, in each man's sack, was his pouch of silver! When they and their father saw the money pouches, they were afraid.

36 Then Yaaqob their father said to them, You have deprived me of my children! Yahseph is no more! Simeon is no more! And Benjamin you would take away from me! All things are against me!

37 Then Reuben said to his father, You may kill two of my sons, if I do not bring him back to you. Entrust him to my care, and I will bring him back to you!

38 But he said, My son will not go down with you, for his brother is dead, and he is left alone. If any harm befell him along the way, you would bring down my gray hair with sorrow to the grave.

CHAP. 43

Now the famine was still severe in the land.

2 So when they had eaten all the grain they had brought from Egypt, their father said to them, Go back, buy us a little more food.

3 But Yahdah answered him, and said: The man solemnly warned us, saying, You shall not see my face unless your brother is with you.

4 If you will send our brother with us, then we will go down and buy you more food;

5 But if you will not send him, then we will not go down; for the man said to us, You shall not see my face unless your brother is with you.

6 Then Israyl asked, Why did you bring this trouble on me, by telling the man you had another brother?

7 But they replied, The man asked us pointedly about ourselves and our kindred. He asked, Is your father still alive? Do you have another brother? And we answered him only as he asked. Could we have known that he would say, Bring your brother down?

8 Then Yahdah said to Israyl his father, Send the boy along with me, and we will leave at once; so that we and you and our children may live and not die.

9 I myself will guarantee his safety; from my hand I will be responsible for him. If I do not bring him to you and set him in front of you, then let me bear the blame before you all of my life.

10 If we had not lingered, surely by now we could have gone and returned two times!

11 And their father Israyl said to them, If it must be so, then do this: Take some of the best products of the land in your bags, and carry a present to the man; a little balm, a little honey, spices and myrrh, pistachio nuts and almonds.

12 Take double the amount of money with you, and return the money that was put back into your sacks. Maybe it was a mistake.

13 Take your brother also, and go back to the man;

14 And may Yahweh Almighty grant you mercy before the man, so that he will let your other brother and Benjamin come back with you. If I am bereaved, I am bereaved!

15 So the men took the gifts and the double amount of money, and, along with Benjamin, they hurried down to Egypt and presented themselves to Yahseph.

16 When Yahseph saw Benjamin with them, he said to the steward of his house, Take these men to my house, and slaughter an animal, and prepare it; for these men will eat with me at noon.

17 Then the man did as Yahseph told him; and the man brought the men into Yahseph's house.

18 Now the men were frightened when they were brought into Yahseph's house; for they thought, It is because of the silver that was put back into our sacks the first time; he is seeking an excuse to attack us, and seize us as slaves, and take our donkeys.

19 When they came near to the entrance to Yahseph's house, they spoke to Yahseph's steward, saying;

20 We truly came down the first time to buy food;

21 But at the place where we stopped for the night, we opened our sacks and each of us found his silver, the exact weight, in the mouth of his sack. So we have brought it back with us.

22 We have also brought down other silver with us to buy more food. We do not know who put our money in our sacks.

23 But he said, Shalom unto you. Do not be afraid. Yahweh, the Father of your father has given you treasure in your sacks; I received your silver. Then he brought Simeon out to them.

24 So the man brought the men into Yahseph's house and gave them water, and they washed their feet, and then he fed their donkeys.

25 They made their gifts ready for Yahseph's coming at noon, for they heard they would eat a meal there.

26 When Yahseph came home, they presented him the gifts they brought to his house; and they bowed down before him to the ground.

27 Then he asked them about their well-being, and then he said, Is your father well, the old man of whom you spoke? Is he still alive?

28 And they answered, You servant, our father, is still alive and well. And they bowed low to pay him honor.

29 Then he looked up, and saw his brother Benjamin, his mother's son, and said, Is this your younger brother, of whom you spoke to me? And he said, Yahweh be compassionate to you, my son.

30 Now he was deeply moved because of his brother; so Yahseph hurried out to find a place to weep. And he went into his chamber and wept there.

31 Then he washed his face and came out, controlling himself, he said; Serve the food.

32 They served him by himself, the brothers by themselves, and the Egyptians who ate with him by themselves; because Egyptians could not eat with Hebrews, for that is abominable to the Egyptians.

33 And they took their seats at the direction of Yahseph's will, in the order of their ages, from the firstborn to the youngest; and the men looked at each other in astonishment.

34 When portions were served to them from Yahseph's table, Benjamin's portion was five times as much as any of his other brothers. So they feasted with him, and drank freely.

CHAP. 44

Now Yahseph gave the steward of his house instructions, saying: Fill the men's sacks with as much food as they can carry, and put each man's silver in the mouth of his sack.

2 Also put my goblet, the silver one, in the mouth of the youngest one's sack, along with the silver of his grain money. So he did as Yahseph said.

3 As the morning dawned, the men were sent on their way with their donkeys.

4 And when they had not gone far out of the city, Yahseph said to his steward, Go after the men; and when you catch up with them, say to them; Why have you repaid kindness with evil?

5 Is not this the goblet which my ruler drinks from, and also uses for divination? This is an evil thing you have done.

6 So he overtook them, and he repeated those words to them.

7 And they said to him; Why does our ruler say such things? Far be it from us that your servants should do such a thing.

8 In fact, we even brought back to you, from the land of Canaan, the silver we found inside the mouths of our sacks, so why would we steal silver or gold from your ruler's house?

9 If any of your servants is found to have it, let him die, and we, all of us, will be your ruler's slaves!

10 And he said, Very well, let it be as you say. Whoever is found to have it will become my slave; but the rest of you will be blameless.

11 Then each of them quickly lowered his sack to the ground, and opened it.

12 Then the steward searched, beginning with the oldest and ending with the youngest; and the goblet was found in Benjamin's sack.

13 At this, they tore their clothes. Then each man loaded his donkey, and they returned to the city.

14 Yahdah and his brothers came to Yahseph's house, for he was still there; and they threw themselves to the ground in front of him.

15 Yahseph said to them, What is this you have done? Did you not know that such a man as I can find things out by divination?

16 Then Yahdah said, What will we say to my ruler? What can we say? How can we prove our innocence? Yahweh has uncovered our guilt in this matter. We are now my ruler's slaves; we, ourselves, and also the one who was found to have the goblet.

17 But Yahseph said, Far be it from me to do such a thing! Only the man who was found to have the goblet will become my slave. As for the rest of you, go up in peace to your father.

18 Then Yahdah went up to him, and said, My ruler, let your servant speak a word to my ruler. Do not be angry with your servant, though you are even like Pharaoh himself.

19 My ruler asked his servants, saying: Have you a father or a brother?

20 And we answered my ruler, We have a father, an old man, and there is a young son born to him in his old age. His brother is dead, and he alone is left of his mother's sons; and his father loves him.

21 Then you said to your servants, Bring him down to me, that I may see him.

22 And we said to our ruler, The boy cannot leave his father; if he leaves him, his father will die.

23 But you told your servants, Unless your youngest brother comes down with you, you shall see my face no more.

24 So it was, when we went up to your servant, my father, that we told him the words of my ruler.

25 Then our father said, Go back, and buy a little more food.

26 But we said, We cannot go down. Only if our youngest brother is with us will we go; for we will not be allowed to see the man's face unless our youngest brother is with us.

27 Then your servant, my father, said to us, You know that my wife bore me two sons;

28 And the one went away from me, and I said, He has surely been torn to pieces, and I have not seen him since.

29 If you take this one from me too, and harm comes to him, you will bring my gray head down to my grave in sorrow.

30 So now, if we go to your servant, my father, and the boy is not with us, my father's life being bound with the life of my brother's;

31 It will be, when he sees the boy is not with us, that he will die. So your servants will bring down the gray hair of your servant, our father, with sorrow to his grave.

32 I, your servant, guaranteed the boy's safety to my father. by saying to him; If I do not bring him back to you, then I will bear the blame before my father all my life.

33 Now, therefore, allow your servant to re- main in the place of the boy, as a slave to my ruler, and allow the boy to go up with his brothers.

34 For how can I go up to my father if the boy is not with me? No! Do not let me see the sorrow that would come upon my father.

CHAP. 45

Then Yahseph could no longer control himself in front of all his attendants, and he cried out; Have everyone leave my presence! So there was no one with Yahseph when he made himself known to his brothers.

2 And he wept aloud, and the Egyptians heard him; and Pharaoh's house heard of it.

3 Then Yahseph said to his brothers, I am Yahseph! Does my father still live? But his brothers could not answer him, for they were terrified at his presence.

4 Then Yahseph said to his brothers, Come near to me. And when they came near, he said; I am Yahseph your brother, whom you sold into Egypt.

5 And now, do not be distressed nor angry with yourselves for selling me here, for Yahweh sent me ahead of you to save lives.

6 For two years the famine has been in the land, and for the next five years there will still be no plowing nor reaping.

7 Therefore, Yahweh sent me ahead of you, to insure for you a remnant on the earth, and to save your lives in a great deliverance.

8 So then, it was not you who sent me here, but Yahweh; and He made me father to Pharaoh, and ruler of his entire household, and ruler of all Egypt.

9 Hurry and go up to my father, and say to him; This is what your son Yahseph says: Yahweh has made me ruler of all Egypt. Come down to me, do not tarry.

10 You shall live in the region of Goshen, and you shall be near me; you, your children and grandchildren, your flocks and herds, and all that you have.

11 I will provide for you there, so that you and your household, and all that you have, will not become destitute; for there are still five years of famine to come.

12 You can see for yourselves, and the eyes of my brother Benyamin can see, that it is really me that speaks to you.

13 Also, tell my father of all my honor in Egypt, and of all that you have seen. And you shall hurry and bring my father down here.

14 Then he put his arms around his brother Benjamin, and wept; and Benjamin wept upon his neck.

15 And he kissed all his brothers, and wept over them. Afterward, his brothers talked with him.

16 When the news was reported in Pharaoh's house, saying; Yahseph's brothers have come; it was pleasing to Pharaoh and his officials.

17 And Pharaoh said to Yahseph, Tell your brothers; Do this: Load your beasts, and leave here to return to the land of Canaan.

18 Bring your father and your families back to me. I will give you the best of the land of Egypt; and you will eat of the fat of the land.

19 You are also directed to tell them, Do this: Take carts out of the land of Egypt for your little ones and your wives; bring your father, and come.

20 Do not be concerned about your possessions, for the best of all the land of Egypt will be yours.

21 So the sons of Israyl did as Pharaoh told Yahseph. Yahseph gave them carts, and he gave them provisons for their journey.

22 To each of them he gave new clothing; but to Benjamin he gave three hundred shekels; about 7.5 pounds, of silver and five sets of clothing.

23 And he sent these to his father: ten donkeys loaded with the best things of Egypt, and ten female donkeys loaded with grain, and bread, and other provisons for his father's journey.

24 So he sent his brothers away, and as they left, he said to them; See that you do not quarrel along the way.

25 So they went up out of Egypt, and came to their father, Yaaqob, in the land of Canaan.

26 They told him: Yahseph is still alive! He is governor over all the land of Egypt. Yaaqob's heart was stunned, and he did not believe them.

27 But when they told him all the words which Yahseph had said to them, and when he saw the carts which Yahseph had sent to carry him, the spirit of Yaaqob their father revived.

28 And Israyl said; Enough! Yahseph my son is still alive! I will go and see him before I die!

CHAP. 46

So Israyl set out on his journey with all that he had; and when he came to Beersheba, he offered sacrifices to Yahweh, the Father of his father Isaac.

2 Then Yahweh spoke to Israyl in the night visions, and said; Yaaqob! Yaaqob!. And he answered, Here I am.

3 And He said, I am Yahweh, the Father of your father; do not fear to go down to Egypt, for there I will make of you a great nation.

4 I will go down to Egypt with you, and I will surely bring you back again. And Yahseph's own hand will close your eyes.

5 Then Yaaqob left Beersheba; and Israyl's sons took their father Yaaqob, and their children, and their wives, in the carts that Pharaoh had sent to carry him.

6 They also took with them their livestock, and the possessions they had acquired in Canaan; and Yaaqob and all his offspring went to Egypt.

7 He took with him to Egypt his sons and grandsons, and his daughters and granddaughters; and all his descendants be brought with him to Egypt

8 Now these were the names of the children of Israyl, Yaaqob and his sons, who went to Egypt: Reuben was Yaaqob's firstborn.

9 The sons of Reuben were Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi.

10 The sons of Simeon were Yemuel, Yamin, Ohad, Yachin, Zohar, and Shaul the son of a Canaanite woman.

11 The sons of Levi were Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

12 The sons of Yahdah were Er, Onan, Shehlah, Perez, and Zerah (but Er and Onan died in the land of Canaan). The sons of Perez were Hezron and Hamul.

13 The sons of Issachar were Tola, Puwah, Yashub, and Shimron.

14 The sons of Zebulun were Sered, Elon and Yachleel.

15 These were the sons of Leah, whom she bore to Yaaqob in Padan Aram, with his daughter Dinah. All the persons, his sons and his daughters, were thirty-three.

16 The sons of Gad were Zephon, Haggi, Shuni, Ezbon, Eri, Arodi, and Areli.

17 The sons of Asher were Yimnah, Ishwah, Ishwi, and Berach. Their sister was Serah. And the sons of Berach were Heber and Malchiel.

18 These were the sons of Zilpah, whom Laban gave to Leah his daughter; and these she bore to Yaaqob: sixteen persons.

19 The sons of Rachel, Yaaqob's wife, were Yahseph and Benjamin.

20 And to Yahseph in the land of Egypt were born Menasheh and Ephraim, whom Asenath, the daughter of Poti-Pherah, priest of On, bore to him.

21 The sons of Benjamin were Belah, Beker, Ashbel, Gera, Naaman, Ehi, Rosh, Muppim, Huppim, and Ard.

22 These were the sons of Rachel, who were born to Yaaqob: Fourteen persons in all.

23 The son of Dan was Hushim.

24 The sons of Naphtali were Yachzeel, Guni, Yezer, and Shillem.

25 These were the sons of Bilhah, whom Laban gave to Rachel his daughter, and she bore these to Yaaqob: seven persons in all.

26 All the persons who went with Yaaqob to Egypt, who came from his body, not counting his sons' wives, numbered sixty-six persons.

27 With the two sons of Yahseph who were born to him in Egypt, the members of Yaaqob's family which went to Egypt, were seventy in all.

28 Now Yaaqob sent Yahdah ahead of him to Yahseph, to point directions to the way to Goshen; and they arrived in the region of Goshen.

29 Then Yahseph made ready his chariot, and went up to Goshen to meet his father, Israyl. As soon as Yahseph appeared in front of him, Yahseph threw his arms around his father, and wept for a long time.

30 Then Israyl said to Yahseph. Now I am ready to die, since I have seen your face, in that you are still alive.

31 Then Yahseph said to his brothers and to his father's household, I will go up and speak to Pharaoh, and say to him: My brothers and those of my father's household, who were living in the land of Canaan, have now come to me.

32 The men are shepherds; they tend livestock, and they have brought with them their flocks and herds, and everything they own.

33 When Pharaoh calls you in, and asks: What is your occupation?

34 You should answer him in this way: Your servants have tended livestock from our youths, even until now, just as our fathers did.

35 Then you will be allowed to settle in the region of Goshen, for all shepherds are an abomination to the Egyptians

CHAP. 47

Then Yahseph went, and told Pharaoh: My father and brothers, their flocks and their herds, and all that they possess, have come from the land of Canaan; and they are now in the land of Goshen.

2 And he chose five of his brothers, and presented them before Pharaoh.

3 Then Pharaoh asked his brothers, What is your occupation? And they answered Pharaoh: Your servants are shepherds, just as our fathers were.

4 They also said to him: We have come to live here in the land, because your servants have no pasture for their flocks, for the famine is severe in the land of Canaan. So now, allow your servants to settle in the land of Goshen.

5 Pharaoh then spoke to Yahseph, saying: Your father and your brothers have come to you,

6 And the land of Egypt is before you: settle your father and your brothers in the best part of the land. Let them live in the land of Goshen. And if you know of any among them with special competence, then put them in charge of my own livestock.

7 Then Yahseph brought in his father Yaaqob, and set him before Pharaoh; and Yaaqob greeted Pharaoh.

8 Pharaoh then asked Yaaqob: How old are you?

9 And Yaaqob said to Pharaoh: The days of the years of my pilgrimage are one hundred and thirty years. My years have been few and difficult, and they have not equalled the days of the years of the life of my fathers in the days of their pilgrimage.

10 Then Yaaqob bade farewell to Pharaoh, and went out from Pharaoh's presence.

11 So Yahseph settled his father and brothers in Egypt and gave them a possession of property in the best part of the land, the district of Ramesses, as Pharaoh had commanded.

12 Yahseph also provided his father, and his brothers, and all his father's household, with food, according to the number in their families.

13 There was no food in all the land; for the famine was so severe; both Egypt and Canaan wasted away because of the famine.

14 Yahseph collected all the money that was found in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Canaan, for the grain which was bought; and he brought it to Pharaoh's palace.

15 When the money was gone in the land of Egypt and in the land of Canaan, all the Egyptians then came to Yahseph, and said: Our money is gone, but why should we die in front of you? Give us food!

16 Then Yahseph said: Offer your livestock, and then I will give food for your livestock, since your money is gone.

17 So they brought their livestock to Yahseph; and he gave them food in exchange for their horses, flocks, cattle of the herds, and donkeys. And he brought them through that year with food, in exchange for all their livestock.

18 When that year was over, they came to him the following year, and said: We can not hide from our ruler the fact that our money is gone; and since our ruler also has our herds of livestock, there is nothing left in the sight of our ruler, but our bodies and our lands.

19 Why should we die in front of your eyes, we and our land as well? Buy us and our land in exchange for food, and we, with our land, will be servants of Pharaoh. Give us seed so that we may live and not die, that the land may not become desolate.

20 So Yahseph bought all the land in Egypt for Pharaoh. The Egyptians, every man, sold their fields because the famine was too severe upon them. So the land became Pharaoh's.

21 And Yahseph moved the people into the cities, reducing them to servitude, from one end of Egypt to the other.

22 Only the land of the priests he did not not buy; for the priests had regular rations allotted to them from Pharaoh; and they had food enough from their allotment Pharaoh gave them. Therefore that is why they did not have to sell their lands.

23 Yahseph said to the people; I have this day bought you and your land for Pharaoh. Here is seed for you, so you can sow the land.

24 But at the harvest you shall give one-fifth to Pharaoh. Four-fifths shall be your own, as seed for your field, and food for your households and children.

25 So they said; You have saved our lives; May we find honor in the eyes of our ruler, and we will be servants to Pharaoh.

26 So Yahseph established it as a law in the land of Egypt, to this day, that one-fifth of the produce belongs to Pharaoh. It was only the land of the priests that did not become Pharaoh's.

27 Now Israyl settled in the land of Egypt, in the region of Goshen; and they had possessions there, and were fruitful and multiplied exceedingly.

28 And Yaaqob lived in the land of Egypt seventeen years. So the length of Yaaqob's life was one hundred and forty-seven years.

29 When the time drew near that that Israyl must die, he called his son Yahseph, and said to him; If I have found honor in your sight, put your hand under my thigh, and promise that you will show me kindness and true faithfulness. Do not bury me in Egypt.

30 Let me lie with my fathers. Carry me out of Egypt, and bury me in their burial place. And he said; I will do as you have said.

31 Then Yaaqob said; Vow to me. And Yahseph vowed to him. So Israyl bowed, and worshiped at the head of his bed.

CHAP. 48

And after these things Yahseph was informed; Your father is sick; and he took with him his two sons, Menasheh and Ephraim.

2 When Yaaqob was told; Behold Yahseph, your son, has come to you; Israyl then gathered his strength, and sat up in the bed.

3 Then Yaaqob said to Yahseph: Yahweh Almighty appeared to me at Luz in the land of Canaan, and blessed me,

4 Saying; I will make you fruitful and multiply you, and I will make of you a multitude of people, and give this land to your descendants after you for an everlasting possession.

5 Therefore, your two sons born to you in Egypt before I came to you, are mine. Ephraim and Menasheh are mine, just as Reuben and Simeon are mine.

6 Any offspring whom you beget after them shall be yours, but they will be called by the name of their brothers in the territory they inherit.

7 As I was returning from Padan, Rachel died by my side in the land of Canaan, while we were still on the way, a little distance from Ephrath. So I buried her there beside the road to Ephrath, (that is, Bethlehem).

8 Then Israyl saw Yahseph's sons, and asked; Whose are these?

9 And Yahseph said to his father; They are my sons, whom Yahweh has given me here. And Yaaqob said; Bring them to me now, so I may bless them!

10 Now Israyl's eyes were failing from age; he could not see well. So Yahseph brought them to Israyl, and he kissed and embraced them.

11 Then Israyl said to Yahseph; I never expected to see your face again, and now Yahweh has allowed me to see your children as well!

12 Then Yahseph removed them from beside Israyl's knees, and bowed down with his face to the ground.

14 But Israyl reached out his right hand and put it on Ephraim's head, though he was the younger, and crossing his arms, he put his left hand on Menasheh's head, even though Menasheh was the firstborn,

15 And he blessed Yahseph, and said; May the Heavenly Father before Whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac walked; Yahweh Who has been my Shepherd all my life to this very day; the Malak delivering me from all harm; May He bless these boys.

16 May my name be called upon them, and the name of my fathers, Abraham and Isaac. May they increase greatly in the midst of the earth.

17 When Yahseph saw that his father placed his right hand on Ephraim's head, it was displeasing in his sight. He took hold of his father's hand to move it from Ephraim's head to the head of Menasheh, 18 And Yahseph said; Not so, my father, for this one is my firstborn. Put your right hand upon his head.

19 But his father refused, and said; I know, my son, I know. He, too, will become a people, and he too will become great; nevertheless, his younger brother will be greater than he, and his descendants will become a multitude of nations.

20 Yaaqob blessed them on that day, saying; Through you will Israyl bless itself, by saying this: May Yahweh make you like Ephraim and Menasheh.

21 Then Israyl said to Yahseph, I am about to die, but Yahweh will be with you and will bring you back to the land of your fathers.

22 And to you, I give one portion more than to your brothers, the portion which I took from the Amorites with my sword and my bow.

CHAP. 49

Then Yaaqob called for his sons, and said; Gather together, so I may tell you what will befall you in the last days.

2 Gather together and listen, you sons of Yaaqob; listen to Israyl your father.

3 Reuben, you are my firstborn, my might, the first sign of my strength, excelling in honor, exceeding in rank;

4 Turbulent like water, you will no longer excel; for you went up onto your father's bed, onto my couch and defiled it.

5 Simeon and Levi are brothers; their swords are weapons of violence.

6 Let me not enter their council. Let my glory not be joined to their assembly; for in anger they killed a man, and for their pleasure they hamstrung an ox.

17 Cursed be their anger; so fierce, and their fury; so cruel! I will scatter them in Yaaqob and disperse them throughout Israyl.

8 Yahdah, your brothers will praise you; your hand will be on the neck of your enemies; your father's sons will bow down to you.

9 You are a lion's cub, O Yahdah; you return from the prey, my son. Like a lion, he crouches and lies down; like a lion's breed, who dares to rouse him?

10 The scepter will not depart from Yahdah, nor a ruling staff; lawgiver, from between his feet, until He comes to Whom tribute belongs and the obedience of the nations is His.

11 Tethering his donkey to the vine; tethering his donkey colt to the choicest branch; he will wash his garments in wine; he will wash his robes in the blood of grapes.

12 His eyes will be darker than wine, and his teeth whiter than milk.

13 Zebulun will live by the seashore and become a haven for ships; his border will extend toward Sidon.

14 Issachar is a strong donkey lying down between two saddlebags.

15 When he sees how pleasing is his resting place, and how pleasant is his land, then he will bend his shoulder to bear a burden; and he will submit to forced labor.

16 Dan will provide his people with justice, as one of the tribes of Israyl.

17 Dan will be a serpent by the road; a viper along the path, that bites the horse's heels so its rider tumbles backward.

18 I have waited for Your salvation, O Yahweh!

19 Gad shall be raided by raiders, but he shall raid at their heels.

20 Asher's bread shall be rich, and he shall furnish delicacies for kings.

21 Naphtali is a doe set free, that utters beautiful words.

22 ● Yahseph is a wild colt, a wild colt by a spring; a wild donkey on a terraced hill.

23 With bitterness archers attacked him; they shot at him with hostility.

24 But each one's bow would not bend, and their arms were weak, because of the hands of the Mighty One of Yaaqob; because of the Shepherd, the Rock of Israyl; because of your father's Father Who helps you; because of the Almighty Who blesses you:

25 With blessings of the heavens above; blessings of the deep that lies below; blessings of the breast and womb;

26 Blessings of grain stalk and blossom; blessings of mountains eternal; the delights of hills everlasting; Let all these rest on the head of Yahseph; on the crown of the head of the one set apart, consecrated to a specific task, from his brothers.

27 Benyamin is a ravenous wolf; In the morning he devours the foe, and in the evening he divides the plunder.

28 All these are the twelve tribes of Israyl, and this is what their father said to them when he bade them farewell, addressing to each an appropriate message.

29 Then he gave them these instructions, saying; I am about to be gathered to my people. Bury me with my fathers, in the cave in the field of Ephron the Hittite;

30 The cave in the field of Machpelah, near Mamre in the land of Canaan, which Abraham bought, with the field, from Ephron the Hittite, as a possession for a burial place.

31 There they buried Abraham and Sarah, his wife; there they buried Isaac and Rebekah, his wife; and there I buried Leah.

32 The field and the cave in it were purchased from the sons of Heth.

33 And when Yaaqob had finished instructing his sons, he drew his feet up into the bed, and breathed his last; and was gathered to his people.

CHAP. 50

Then Yahseph fell on his father's face, and he wept over him, and kissed him.

2 Then Yahseph directed his servants the physicians to embalm his father; so the physicians embalmed Israyl.

3 And they took forty days, for that was the time required for embalming. And the Egyptians mourned for him seventy days.

4 And when the days of mourning had passed, Yahseph said to Pharaoh's court; If now

I have found honor in your sight, speak now to Pharaoh, and tell him:

5 My father made me vow an oath saying; Behold, I am about to die; bury me in the tomb I dug for myself in the land of Canaan. Therefore, let me go up and bury my father, and then I will return.

6 And Pharaoh said; Go up and bury your father, as he made you vow.

7 So Yahseph went up to bury his father. With him went all Pharaoh's officials, the dignitaries of his court, and all the dignitaries of Egypt;

8 As well as all the household of Yahseph, and his brothers and those belonging to his father's household. Only their children, and their flocks and herds, were left in Goshen.

9 Chariots and horsemen went up with him. It was a very great company.

10 When they reached the threshing floor of Atad, past the Yordan River, they lamented loudly and bitterly. There, Yahseph observed a seven-day period of mourning for his father.

11 When the Canaanites, who lived there, saw the mourning at the threshing floor of Atad, they said; This is a solemn mourning by the Egyptians. Therefore its name was called Abel Mitzraim, that is, Mourning of the Egyptians, which is near the Yordan.

12 So Yaaqob's sons did for him just as he had commanded them:

13 His sons carried him to the land of Canaan and buried him in the cave of the field of Machpelah, near Mamre, which Abraham bought with the field from Ephron the Hittite, as property for a burial place.

14 And after he had buried his father, then Yahseph returned to Egypt; he, and his brothers, and all who went up with him to bury his father.

15 When Yahseph's brothers saw that their father was dead, they said; What if Yahseph holds a grudge against us, and repays us for all the evil we did to him?

16 So they sent word to Yahseph, saying; Before your father died he commanded, saying;

17 This is what you shall say to Yahseph: Please! Now forgive the sin of your brothers and their wrong against you. For they treated you badly. Please forgive the sins of the servants of the Heavenly Father of your father. When their message came to him, Yahseph wept.

18 His brothers then came, and threw themselves down in front of him, saying; We are your servants.

19 But Yahseph said to them, Do not be afraid. For am I in the place of Yahweh?

20 You intended harm against me, but Yahweh intended it for blessing, in order to accomplish this day the keeping alive of many people.

21 So then, do not be afraid; I will provide for you and your children. And he reassured them, and spoke kindly to them.

22 So Yahseph stayed in Egypt, he and his father's household. And Yahseph lived one hundred and ten years, 23 And he saw the third generation of Ephraim's children. The children of Machir, son of Manasheh, were placed at birth on Yahseph's knees; they were counted as his.

24 Then Yahseph said to his brothers; I am about to die, but Yahweh will surely come to your aid, and take you up out of this land to the land He promised on oath to Abraham, Isaac, and Yaaqob.

26 Then Yahseph made the sons of Israyl vow an oath, saying; Yahweh will surely come to your aid, and then you must carry my bones up from this place.

27 So Yahseph died, being one hundred and ten years old; and they embalmed him, and he was put in a coffin in Egypt.

EXODUS

SEFER YEZI'AT MIZRAYIM Book of the Departure from Egypt (We-Eleh Shemoth, And These Are The Names)

And these are the names of the sons of Israyl who entered Egypt with Yaaqob; each with his family, they came with Yaaqob.

2 Reuben, Simeon, Levi, and Yahdah;

3 Issachar, Zebulun, and Benyamin;

4 Dan, Naphtali, Gad, and Asher.

5 All the sons who came from the loins of Yaaqob were seventy persons, for Yahseph was in Egypt already.

6 Now Yahseph and all his brothers, and all that generation died.

7 But the children of Israyl were fruitful and increased abundantly, multiplied and grew exceedingly mighty; and the land was filled with them.

8 Then a new king, who did not know Yahseph, came to power in Egypt.

9 And he said to his people; Look, the people of the children of Israyl are more numerous and powerful than we are.

10 Come! Let us deal shrewdly with them, or they will increase even more numerously; and if war breaks out, then they may join our enemies, and fight against us, and then they will leave this land.

11 So they put slavedrivers over them to oppress them with forced labor; and they built Pithom and Rameses as store cities for Pharaoh.

12 But the more they oppressed them, the more they multiplied and grew. So the Egyptians came to dread the children of Israyl.

13 So the Egyptians made the children of Israyl serve with rigor; crushing oppression.

14 And they made their lives bitter with hard bondage—in mortar, in brick, and in all manner of service in the field. In all their hard labor the Egyptians used them ruthlessly.

15 Then the king of Egypt spoke to the midwives for the Hebrews; the name of the first was Shiphrah and the name of the second was Puah;

16 Saying; When you do the duties of a midwife for the Hebrew women, and see them on the birthstools, if it is a boy, then kill him; but if it is a girl, then let her live.

17 But the midwives had the fear of Yahweh, and did not do as the king of Egypt commanded them; but they let the male children live.

18 So the king of Egypt sent for the midwives, and asked them; Why have you done this thing, and allowed the male children to live?

19 And the midwives answered Pharaoh, and said; Hebrew women are not like Egyptian women; they are vigorous, and give birth before the midwives arrive.

20 So Yahweh was kind to the midwives; and He multiplied the people so they became even more numerous.

21 And because the midwives had the fear of Yahweh, then He gave families to them.

22 Then Pharaoh commanded all his people, saying; Every son who is born to the Hebrews you must throw into the river, but every daughter you shall let live.

CHAP. 2

Now a man of the house of Levi married a Levite woman;

2 And the woman conceived, and bore a son. When she saw he was a beautiful child, she hid him three moons.

3 But when she could no longer hide him, she made a papyrus basket for him, and coated it with tar and pitch. Then she placed the child in it, and laid it among the reeds along the bank of the Nile;

4 And his sister stood at a distance to know what would be done to him.

5 Then the daughter of Pharaoh went down to the Nile to bathe; and her attendants walked along the river bank. Then she saw the basket among the reeds, and sent her slave girl to get it.

6 When she opened it, she saw the baby, and the baby wept. So she had compassion on him, and said; This is one of the Hebrews' children.

7 Then the baby's sister said to Pharaoh's daughter; Shall I go and get one of the Hebrew women to nurse the baby for you?

8 And Pharaoh's daughter said to her; Go. So the girl went, and got the baby's mother.

9 Then Pharaoh's daughter said to her; Take this child away, and nurse him for me; and I will give you your wages. So the woman took the child, and nursed him.

10 And the child grew, and she brought him to Pharaoh's daughter, and he became as her son. So she called his name ● Mosheh, that is Drawing Out, saying; Because I drew him out of the water.

11 Now when Mosheh was grown, he went out to his people, and watched them at their hard labor. Then he saw an Egyptian beating a Hebrew, one of his brothers.

12 So he looked this way and that way, and when he saw no one, he killed the Egyptian, and hid him in the sand.

13 When he went out the next day, two Hebrew men were fighting, and he said to the one who was in the wrong; Why are you hitting your fellow Hebrew?

14 Then he said; Who made you a ruler and judge over us? Do you intend to kill me, like you killed the Egyptian? Then Mosheh was afraid, and thought, Surely this thing is known!

15 When Pharaoh heard of this matter, he tried to kill Mosheh. But Mosheh fled from Pharaoh, and went to the land of Midian; and he sat down by a well.

16 Now a priest of Midian had seven daughters. They came to the well and drew water, filling the troughs to water their father's flock.

17 But some shepherds then came along, and drove them away. Then Mosheh stood up and rescued them; and he watered their flock.

18 When they returned to Reuel, their father, he asked them; How is it that you have returned so soon today?

19 And they answered; An Egyptian rescued us from the shepherds, then he also drew water for us and watered the flock.

20 So he asked his daughters; And where is he? Why is it that you have left the man? Invite him that he may eat bread.

21 Then Mosheh agreed to stay with the man; and he gave Zipporah, his daughter, to Mosheh in marriage.

22 And she bore him a son, and he called his name Gershom; that is, Stranger There, for he said; I have become a stranger in a foreign land.

23 During that long period of time, the king of Egypt died. Then the children of Israyl groaned because of their slavery, and they cried out; and their cry for help came up to Yahweh, because of the bondage.

24 So Yahweh heard their groaning, and Yahweh remembered His covenant with Abraham, with Isaac, and with Yaaqob;

25 And Yahweh looked upon the children of Israyl, and Yahweh was concerned for them.

CHAP. 3

Now Mosheh was tending the flock of Yethro; that is, His Excellency, his relation-by-law, a priest of Midian; and he led the flock to the back of the desert, and came to Horeb, the mountain of Yahweh.

2 There, the malak of Yahweh appeared to him in a flame of fire from within a bush. Mosheh looked, and beheld, though the bush was on fire, it did not burn up.

3 So Mosheh thought, I will now go over and see this strange sight, why the bush does not burn up.

4 When Yahweh saw that he came to look, Yahweh called to him from within the bush, and said; Mosheh! Mosheh! And he answered; Here I am.

5 Then He said; Do not come any closer to this place. Take your sandals from off your feet, for the place where you stand is holy ground.

6 Then He said, I am the Heavenly Father of your father, the Father of Abraham, the Father of Isaac, and the Father of Yaaqob. At this, Mosheh hid his face, for he was afraid to look upon Yahweh.

7 And Yahweh said; I have surely seen the oppression of My people in Egypt, and have heard their cry because of their slavedrivers; and I am concerned about their suffering.

8 So I have come down to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians, and to bring them up from that land to a rich and spacious land, to a land flowing with milk and honey; the home of the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites, and the Yebusites.

9 And now, behold; the cry of the children of Israyl has reached Me, and I have also seen the way the Egyptians are oppressing them.

10 Come now, go! I am sending you to Pharaoh to bring My people, the children of Israyl, out of Egypt.

11 But Mosheh said to Yahweh; Who am I, that I should go to Pharaoh and bring the children of Israyl out of Egypt?

12 And Yahweh said; I will be with you. And this will be the sign to you that it is I Who has sent you: When you have brought the people out of Egypt, you will worship Yahweh on this mountain.

13 Then Mosheh said to Yahweh; Suppose I go to the children of Israyl, and say to them; The Almighty Father of your fathers has sent me to you, and they ask me; What is His Name? Then what shall I tell them?

14 Then Yahweh said to Mosheh; ● I am Who I am. And He said; This is what you are to say to the children of Israyl; ● YAHWEH has sent me to you.

15 Yahweh also said to Mosheh; This also shall you say to the children of Israyl; Yahweh the Heavenly Father of your fathers, the Mighty One of Abraham, the Mighty One of Isaac, and the Mighty One of Yaaqob, has sent me to you.

This is MY NAME forever, and this is ● MY MEMORIAL: the Name by which I am to be remembered by, from generation to generation, for all generations.

16 Go, and gather together the elders of Israyl, and say to them; Yahweh, the Mighty Father of your fathers, the Almighty Father of Abraham, Isaac, and Yaaqob, appeared to me, and said: I have watched over you, and I have seen what has been done to you in Egypt.

17 And I have promised to bring you up out of your affliction in Egypt, to the land of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Yebusites; to a land flowing with milk and honey.

18 The elders of Israyl will listen to you. Then you and the elders are to go to the king of Egypt, and say to him; Yahweh, the Almighty Father of the Hebrews, has met with us. Therefore, let us take a three day journey into the desert, to offer sacrifices to Yahweh our Heavenly Father.

19 But I know the king of Egypt will not let you go. No, not unless a mighty hand compels him.

20 So, I will stretch out My hand, and strike the Egyptians with all My wonders which I will perform among them. Then, after that, he will let you go.

21 And I will also give the people of the children of Israyl honor in the sight of the Egyptians, so when you leave, you will not go out empty-handed.

22 Every woman is to ask of her neighbor and also of any woman living in her house, for articles of silver, and gold, and clothing; which you shall put on your sons and daughters. And so you will plunder the Egyptians.

CHAP. 4

Then Mosheh answered and said; What if they do not believe me or listen to me? Suppose they say; Yahweh has not appeared to you!

2 Then Yahweh said to him; What is that in your hand? And Mosheh answered; A staff.

3 So Yahweh said to him; Cast it on the ground. Then he cast it on the ground and it became a serpent; and Mosheh ran away from it.

4 Then Yahweh said to Mosheh; Reach out your hand and take it by the tail. So he reached out his hand and caught it and it turned back into a staff in his hand.

5 This will be so they may believe that

Yahweh, the Mighty Father of their fathers, the Father of Abraham, the Father of Isaac, and the Father of Yaaqob, has appeared to you.

6 Then Yahweh said; Now put your hand inside your cloak. So Mosheh put his hand into his cloak; and when he took it out, behold his hand was leprous, like snow.

7 Then Yahweh said; Now put your hand into your cloak again. Then he put his hand back inside his cloak; and when he took it out, it was restored like his other flesh.

8 Then Yahweh said; If they do not believe you, nor pay attention to the showing of the first sign, then they may believe the showing of the second sign.

9 But, if they do not believe even these two signs nor listen to you, then take water from the Nile and pour it on the dry ground. The water you take from the river will become blood on the dry ground.

10 Then Mosheh said to Yahweh; O Yahweh, I have never been eloquent, not in the past nor since You have spoken to Your servant; I am slow of speech and slow of tongue.

11 Yahweh said to him; Who gave man his mouth? Who makes him deaf or mute? Who gives him sight or makes him blind? Is it not I, Yahweh?

12 Now, go! I will help you, and teach you what you shall say.

13 Instead he said; O Yahweh, please send someone else to do it!

14 Then Yahweh's anger burned against Mosheh, and He said; Is not Aaron, the Levite, your brother? I know he can speak well. Behold, he is already going out to meet you; and when he sees you he will be glad in his heart.

15 Now, you will speak to him and put the words in his mouth. And I will be with your mouth and with his mouth, and I will teach you what you will do;

16 Then he will speak to the people for you, and it will be as if he were your mouth; and you will be to him as inspiration from Yahweh.

17 But take this staff with you in your hand, so you can perform the signs with it.

18 So Mosheh left, and went back to Yethro, his relation by law, and said to him. Let me go, and return to my people who are in Egypt, to see if any of them are still alive. Yethro said to Mosheh; Go in peace.

19 Yahweh said to Mosheh in Midian; Go, return to Egypt; for all the men are dead who sought to kill you.

20 Then Mosheh took his wife and and his sons, and put them on a donkey, and started back to the land of Egypt. And Mosheh took the staff of Yahweh in his hand.

21 And Yahweh said to Mosheh, When you return to Egypt, see that you perform all these wonders in front of Pharaoh, which I have given you the power to do. But, I will harden his heart, so that he will not let the people go.

22 Then you shall say to Pharaoh; This is what Yahweh says: Israyl is My son, My firstborn;

23 And I told you to let My son go, so he may worship Me. But you refused to let him go; so I will kill your son, your firstborn.

24 And on the way, at a lodging place, Yahweh met him and sought to kill him;

25 But Zipporah took a flint knife and cut off her son's foreskin, and drew near Mosheh's feet with it, saying; Surely you are a bridegroom of blood to me!

26 So Yahweh let him alone. (Zipporah said, bridegroom of blood, referring to circumcision).

27 And Yahweh said to Aaron; Go into the wilderness desert to meet Mosheh. So he went, and met him at the mountain of Yahweh, and kissed him.

28 So Mosheh told Aaron all the words of Yahweh Who had sent him, and all the signs that He had commanded him.

29 Then Mosheh and Aaron gathered together all the elders of the children of Israyl, 30 And Aaron told them all the words Yahweh had spoken to Mosheh. He also performed the signs in the sight of the people; and the people believed.

31 And when they heard that Yahweh was concerned for the children of Israyl, and that He had seen their affliction, then they bowed their heads and worshipped.

CHAP. 5

Afterward Mosheh and Aaron went to Pharaoh, and said; This is what Yahweh Almighty, Father of Israyl, says: Let my people go, so they may hold a feast to Me in the wilderness.

2 Then Pharaoh said; Who is Yahweh, that I should obey Him; and let Israyl go? I do not know Yahweh! And I will not let Israyl go!

3 So they said; The Mighty Father of the Hebrews has met with us. Let us take three days' journey into the desert, and sacrifice to Yahweh; or He may strike us with plagues or with the sword.

4 But the king of Egypt said to them; Mosheh and Aaron, why are you taking the people from their work? Get back to your labor!

5 Then Pharaoh said; Look, the people of the land are numerous, and you are stopping them from working!

6 So the same day Pharaoh gave this command to the slavedrivers of the people and to the foremen in charge, saying;

7 You are no longer to supply the people with straw to make bricks, as you have previously. Let them go and gather straw for themselves.

8 But, you are to require the same quota of bricks which they made previously. You shall not reduce their quota. They are lazy! That is why they are crying out; Let us go and sacrifice to our Father.

9 Let their work be hard, so the men will be employed at it and not standing around listening to lying words!

10 Then the slavedrivers and the foremen of the people went out, and spoke to the people, saying; Pharaoh says: I will not give you straw anymore.

11 Go, and gather your own straw, wherever you can find it; but your work will not be reduced at all.

12 So the people scattered throughout all the land of Egypt, in order to gather stubble to use for straw.

13 And the slavedrivers kept pressing them to hurry, saying; Complete your work, your daily quota required of you each day, just as when you had straw!

14 And the foremen of the children of Israyl, whom Pharaoh's slavedrivers had appointed, were beaten, and asked; Why haven't you performed your assigned work, by making your assigned quota of bricks, both yesterday and today, as you have previously?

15 Then the foremen of the children of Israyl went and appealed to Pharaoh, saying; Why are you dealing this way with your servants?

16 There is no straw given to your servants, yet they say to us; Make bricks! Your servants are being beaten, but the fault is in your own people.

17 But Pharaoh said to them; You are lazy! You are lazy! That is why you keep saying, Let us go sacrifice to Yahweh!

18 So now, go and work! No straw will be given to you; yet you must produce your full quota of bricks!

19 The foremen of the children of Israyl realized they were in trouble, after it was said; You shall not reduce the number of bricks from your daily quota.

20 So, when they came out from Pharaoh, they found Mosheh and Aaron, who were waiting to meet them.

21 The foremen said to them; May Yahweh look on you, and judge; for you have made us a stench to Pharaoh and his servants, and have put a sword in their hand to kill us.

22 So Mosheh returned to Yahweh, and said; O Yahweh, why have You brought trouble upon this people? Is this why You have sent me?

23 Ever since I went to Pharaoh to speak with Your Name, he has brought trouble upon this people, and You have not delivered Your people at all.

CHAP. 6

Then Yahweh said to Mosheh, Now you will see what I will do to Pharaoh. Because of My mighty hand, he will let them go. Because of My mighty hand, he will drive them out of his country.

2 And Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, and said to him: I am Yahweh.

3 I appeared to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Yaaqob as Yi Shaddai; Almighty Strength, but by MY NAME YAHWEH, was I not known to them?

4 I have also established My covenant with them, to give them the land of Canaan, the land of their journeys where they were strangers.

5 Moreover, I have also heard the groaning of the children of Israyl, whom the Egyptians keep in slavery; and I have remembered My covenant.

6 Therefore, say to the children of Israyl: I am Yahweh, and I will bring you out from under the yoke of the Egyptians. I will free you from their bondage, and I will redeem you with an outstretched arm, and with mighty acts of judgment.

7 I will take you as My people, and I will be your Heavenly Father. Then you will know that I am Yahweh your Father Who brought you out from under the yoke of the Egyptians.

8 And I will bring you into the land which I lifted up My hand, vowing, to give to Abraham, Isaac, and Yaaqob; and I will give it to you as a possession: I am Yahweh.

9 So Mosheh reported this to the children of Israyl; but they would not listen to Mosheh, because of their discouraged spirit and cruel bondage.

10 And Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying;

11 Go, tell Pharaoh king of Egypt that he must let the children of Israyl go out of his country.

12 But Mosheh spoke to Yahweh, saying; If the children of Israyl will not listen to me, why then should Pharaoh listen, since I speak with faltering lips?

13 Now Yahweh spoke to Mosheh and Aaron about the children of Israyl and about Pharaoh king of Egypt, and He commanded them to bring the children of Israyl out of Egypt.

14 These were the heads of their fathers' houses: The sons of Reuben, the firstborn of Israyl, were Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi. These are the clans of Reuben.

15 And the sons of Simeon were Yemuel, Yamin, Ohad, Yachin, Zohar, and Shaul the son of a Canaanite woman. These were the clans of Simeon.

16 These were the names of the sons of Levi according to their begettings: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari. And Levi lived one hundred and thirty-seven years.

17 The sons of Gershon were Libni and Shimei according to their clans.

18 And the sons of Kohath were Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel. And Kohath lived one hundred and thirty-three years.

19 The sons of Merari were Mahli and Mushi. These were the clans of Levi according to their begettings.

20 Now Amram married •Yahchebed, his father's sister, and she bore him Aaron and Mosheh. And Amram lived one hundred and thirty-seven years.

21 The sons of Izhar were Korah, Nepheg, and Zichri.

22 And the sons of Uzziel were Mishael, Elzaphan, and Zithri.

23 Aaron married Elisheba, daughter of Amminadab, sister of Naashon; and she bore him Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

24 And the sons of Korah were Assir, Elkannah, and Abiasaph. These are the clans of the Korahites.

25 Eleazar, Aaron's son, married one of the daughters of Putiel, and she bore him Phinehas. These are the heads of the fathers of the Levites, according to their clans.

26 These are the same Aaron and Mosheh to whom Yahweh said: Bring out the children of Israyl from the land of Egypt by their divisions.

27 They are the ones who spoke to Pharaoh king of Egypt, to bring out the children of Israyl from Egypt. These are the same Mosheh and Aaron.

28 It came to pass on the day Yahweh spoke to Mosheh in the land of Egypt, 29 That Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying; I am Yahweh. Tell Pharaoh king of Egypt all that I tell you.

30 But Mosheh said to Yahweh; Behold, since I speak with faltering lips, why should Pharaoh listen to me?

CHAP. 7

Then Yahweh said to Mosheh: Behold I have made you as a mighty one to Pharaoh, and Aaron your brother will be your prophet.

2 You are to speak all that I command you; and Aaron your brother is to tell Pharaoh that he must let the children of Israyl go out of his country;

3 But I will harden Pharaoh's heart. Even though I will multiply My signs and My wonders in the land of Egypt,

4 Pharaoh will not listen to you. Then I will lay My hand upon Egypt, and bring My armies and My people, the children of Israyl, out of the land of Egypt by mighty acts of judgment.

•Yahchebed, means: Yahweh is Made Glorious

5 And the Egyptians shall know that I am Yahweh, when I stretch out My hand against Egypt, and bring the children of Israyl from among them.

6 And Mosheh and Aaron did just as Yahweh commanded them; this they did.

7 And Mosheh was eighty years old and Aaron was eighty-three years old when they spoke to Pharaoh.

8 Then Yahweh spoke to Mosheh and Aaron, saying:

9 When Pharaoh speaks to you, saying; Perform a miracle for me, then you shall say to Aaron; Take your staff and throw it down in front of Pharaoh, to become a serpent.

10 So Mosheh and Aaron went to Pharaoh and did just as Yahweh commanded them; Aaron threw down his staff in front of Pharaoh and his officials, and it became a serpent.

11 Pharaoh then summoned the wise men, and the sorcerers; and the magicians of Egypt did the same things with their secret arts:

12 Every magician threw down his staff, and they became serpents. But Aaron's staff swallowed up their staffs.

13 Yet Pharaoh's heart became hard and he would not listen to them, just as Yahweh had said.

14 So Yahweh said to Mosheh: Pharaoh's heart is hard and unyielding; he refuses to let the people go.

15 Go to Pharaoh in the morning, when he goes out to the water. You shall wait by the river's bank to meet him; and the staff which was turned to a serpent, you shall take in your hand.

16 Then say unto him; Yahweh, the Mighty Father of the Hebrews, has sent me to you to say: Let My people go, that they may worship Me in the wilderness; but until now you have not listened.

17 Thus says Yahweh; By this you will know that I am Yahweh: With the staff that is in my hand, I will strike the water of the Nile; and it will be changed into blood.

18 The fish in the river shall die, the river shall stink, and the Egyptians will be unable to drink the water of the river.

19 Then Yahweh spoke to Mosheh; Say to Aaron: Take your staff and stretch out your hand over the waters of Egypt—over their streams, over their rivers, over their ponds, and over all their reservoirs—and they will turn to blood. There shall be blood throughout all the land of Egypt, both in wood and stone jars and buckets.

20 And Mosheh and Aaron did just as Yahweh commanded. So he raised the staff and struck the waters of the Nile, in the sight of Pharaoh and of his officials; and all the waters in the river were turned to blood.

21 The fish in the river died, the river stank, and the Egyptians could not drink the water of the river. Blood was throughout all the land of Egypt.

22 But the magicians of Egypt did the same things by their secret arts; and Pharaoh's heart became hard, and he would not listen to them, just as Yahweh had said.

23 And Pharaoh turned and went into his palace; and his heart was not moved by this.

24 So all the Egyptians dug along the Nile for water to drink, because they could not drink the water in the river.

25 And seven days passed after Yahweh had struck the river.

CHAP. 8

Then Yahweh spoke to Mosheh; Go to Pharaoh, and say to him: Thus says Yahweh, Let My people go, so they may worship Me.

2 But if you refuse to let them go, then I will plague all your country with frogs;

3 The Nile River will teem with frogs which shall go up, and come into your house, into your bedchamber, on your bed, into the houses of your officials, on your people, into your ovens, and into your kneading troughs.

4 The frogs shall go up on you, and on your people, and on all your officials.

5 Then Yahweh said to Mosheh; Tell Aaron: Stretch out your hand with your staff over the streams, over the canals, and over the ponds; and make frogs come up on the land of Egypt.

6 So Aaron stretched out his hand over the waters of Egypt; and the frogs came up and covered the land of Egypt.

7 But the magicians did the same things with their secret arts, and also brought up frogs on the land of Egypt.

8 Then Pharaoh summoned Mosheh and Aaron, and said; Pray to Yahweh that He will take away the frogs from me and from my people, and I will let the people go to offer sacrifices to Yahweh.

9 And Mosheh said to Pharaoh; I leave to you the honor of setting the time for me to intercede in prayer for you, and your officials, and your people—to rid the frogs from you and your houses, and that they remain in the Nile only.

10 So Pharaoh said: Tomorrow. And Mosheh said; It will be according to your word, in order that you may know that there is no One like Yahweh our Heavenly Father.

11 The frogs will depart from you, from your houses, from your officials, and from your people; and they will remain in the Nile only.

12 And Mosheh and Aaron went out from Pharaoh; and Mosheh cried out to Yahweh concerning the frogs which He had brought against Pharaoh.

13 So Yahweh did as Mosheh requested, and the frogs died out of the houses, out of the courtyards, and out of the fields;

14 They gathered them together in heaps, and the land stank.

15 But when Pharaoh saw there was relief, he hardened his heart, and did not listen to them; just as Yahweh had said.

16 So Yahweh said to Mosheh; Tell Aaron: Stretch out your staff and strike the dust of the ground, and it will become gnats throughout all the land of Egypt.

17 And they did as Yahweh commanded: Aaron stretched out his hand with his staff and struck the dust of the earth; and it became gnats on man and beast. All the dust of the ground became gnats throughout all the land of Egypt.

18 But when the magicians tried to produce gnats by their secret arts, they could not. So there were gnats on man and beast.

19 Then the magicians said to Pharaoh; This is the singer of Yahweh. But Pharaoh's heart was hard, and he would not listen; just as Yahweh had said.

20 Then Yahweh said to Mosheh; Rise early in the morning, and confront Pharaoh as he comes out to the water, and say to him: Thus says Yahweh; Let My people go, that they may worship Me.

21 But if you will not let My people go, I will send the fly upon you and your officials, on your people and into your houses. The houses of the Egyptians, and the ground also, will be full of flies.

22 But on that day I will deal differently with, and sever, the land of Goshen where My people live; no flies will be there, in order that you will know that I, Yahweh, am in this land.

23 I will make a distinction, and put a deliverance, between My people and your people. Tomorrow shall this sign be.

24 And Yahweh did this. Dense swarms of flies poured into Pharaoh's palace and into the houses of his officials; and throughout Egypt the land was ruined because of the flies.

25 Then Pharaoh summoned Mosheh and Aaron, and said; Go, sacrifice to Yahweh here in the land.

26 But Mosheh said; That would not be right to do. The sacrifices we offer Yahweh our Father would be detestable to the Egyptians. And if we offer sacrifices that are detestable in their sight, will they not stone us?

27 We must go three days' journey into the wilderness and sacrifice to Yahweh our Father as He has commanded us.

28 Pharaoh said; I will let you go to sacrifice to Yahweh your Father in the wilderness; only you must not go very far away; and pray for me.

29 And Mosheh answered; As soon as I leave you, I will pray to Yahweh; and tomorrow the flies will leave Pharaoh, his officials and his people. Only be sure that Pharaoh does not deal deceitfully any further, by not letting the people go to offer sacrifices to Yahweh.

30 So Mosheh went out from Pharaoh, and prayed to Yahweh.

31 And Yahweh did according to the request of Mosheh; He removed the flies from Pharaoh, from his officials, and from his people. Not one remained.

32 But Pharaoh hardened his heart this time also, and he would not let the people go.

CHAP. 9

Then Yahweh said to Mosheh; Go in to Pharaoh, and tell him: Thus says Yahweh, the Mighty One of the Hebrews: Let My people go, that they may worship Me.

2 For if you refuse to let them go, and continue to hold them back,

3 The hand of Yahweh will bring a terrible plague on your livestock in the field: on your horses, and donkeys, and camels, and on your cattle, and sheep, and goats.

4 But Yahweh will make a difference between the livestock of Israyl and the livestock of Egypt: Nothing shall die of all which belongs to the children of Israyl.

5 And Yahweh appointed a set time, and said; Tomorrow Yahweh will do this thing in the land.

6 And Yahweh did this thing on the next day, and all the livestock of Egypt died; but of the livestock of the children of Israyl, not one died.

7 Then Pharaoh sent men to investigate, and found not even one of the animals of the children of Israyl had died. Yet his heart was hardened and unyielding, and he would not let the people go.

8 Then Yahweh said to Mosheh and Aaron; Take for yourselves handfuls of soot from a furnace, and let Mosheh toss it into the air in the sight of Pharaoh.

9 It will become fine dust in all the land of Egypt, and it will cause boils that fester on man and beast throughout all the land of Egypt.

10 So they took soot from the furnace and stood before Pharaoh; and Mosheh tossed the soot into the air, and it caused boils that festered on man and beast.

11 And the magicians could not at all stand before Mosheh because of the boils, for the boils were on the magicians and on all the Egyptians.

12 But Yahweh hardened the heart of Pharaoh, and he would not listen to them; just as Yahweh had said to Mosheh.

13 Then Yahweh said to Mosheh, Rise early in the morning, and confront Pharaoh, saying to him; Thus says Yahweh, the Mighty One of the Hebrews: Let My people go, that they may worship Me.

14 Or this time I will send the full force of My plagues against you, and against your officials, and your people, in order that you may know there is none like Me in all the earth.

15 For by now I could have stretched out My hand, and struck you and your people with a plague that would have wiped you from the earth;

16 But I have raised you up and spared you for this very purpose: that I might show you MY POWER, and that MY NAME might be proclaimed in all the earth.

17 As yet, you still exalt yourself against My people, by not letting them go.

18 Therefore, at this time tomorrow I will send the worst hailstorm that has ever fallen on Egypt, from the day it was founded until now.

19 Behold, send now and gather your livestock and all that you have in the field; for the hail shall come down on every man and every beast which is found in the field, and is not brought home; and they shall die.

20 Those who feared the word of Yahweh among the officials of Pharaoh, made his servants and livestock flee to their houses;

21 But those who did not regard the word of Yahweh left his servants and livestock in the fields.

22 Then Yahweh said to Mosheh; Stretch out your hand toward the sky, so that hail may fall upon all the land of Egypt—on man, on beast, and on every thing growing in the field, throughout the land of Egypt.

23 So Mosheh stretched out his staff toward the sky, and Yahweh sent thunder, hail, and flashing lightning to the ground. So Yahweh rained hail on the land of Egypt.

24 Hail fell, and lightning flashed back and forth with the hail. It was the worst storm in all the land of Egypt since it had become a nation.

25 Throughout Egypt hail struck everything in the fields, both men and animals; it beat down everything growing in the fields, and stripped every tree.

26 Only in the land of Goshen, where the children of Israyl were, there was no hail.

27 Then Pharaoh summoned Mosheh and Aaron, and said to them; I have sinned this time. Yahweh is in the right and my people and I are in the wrong.

28 Pray to Yahweh that there may be no more mighty thundering and hail; for we have had enough. I will let you go, and you shall not have to stay any longer.

29 Then Mosheh said to Pharaoh; As soon as I have gone out of the city, I will spread out my hands in prayer to Yahweh; the thunder will cease, and there will be no more hail, in order that you may know that the earth is Yahweh's.

30 But I know that you and your officials still do not yet fear Yahweh our Heavenly Father.

31 Now the flax and the barley were struck; destroyed in the hail, for the barley was in the green ear and the flax was in the bloom.

32 But the wheat and the spelt were not struck, for they were not grown up; ripening later.

33 So Mosheh went out of the city from Pharaoh, and spread out his hands in prayer to Yahweh; then the thunder and hail ceased, and the rain stopped pouring on the earth.

34 When Pharaoh saw that the rain, the hail, and the thunder had ceased, he sinned yet more, and he and his officials hardened their hearts.

35 So Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and he would not let the children of Israyl go; just as Yahweh had said through Mosheh.

CHAP. 10

And Yahweh said to Mosheh; Go to Pharaoh; for I have hardened his heart and the hearts of his officials, in order that I may perform My signs in front of them,

2 And that you may tell your children and your children's children how I dealt harshly with the Egyptians, and how I performed My signs among them; that you may know that I am Yahweh.

3 So Mosheh and Aaron came in to Pharaoh, and said to him; This is what Yahweh, the Father of the Hebrews, says: How long will you refuse to humble yourself before Me? Let My people go, that they may worship Me.

4 Or else, if you refuse to let My people go, tomorrow I will bring locusts into your country;

5 They will cover the face of the ground, so that it cannot be seen. They will devour what little you have left after the hail, including every tree that is growing in your fields.

6 They will fill your houses, the houses of all your officials, and the houses of all the Egyptians, which neither your fathers, nor your fathers' fathers have ever seen, from the day they settled in this land until now. Then Mosheh turned and left Pharaoh.

7 And Pharaoh's officials said to him; How long shall this man be a snare to us? Let the people go, so they may worship Yahweh their Heavenly Father. Do you not yet realize that Egypt is ruined?

8 So Mosheh and Aaron were brought back to Pharaoh, and he said to them; Go! Serve Yahweh! But who are the ones that will be going?

9 Then Mosheh answered; We will go with our young and our old; with our sons and our daughters; and with our flocks and our herds we will go, for we must hold a feast to Yahweh.

10 Then Pharaoh said to them; May Yahweh be with you, as assuredly as I will let you and your little ones go! An evil intention is what you harbour, planning to leave Egypt with all your belongings is standing plainly before your face! It is evident to all.

11 No! Only the men may go and worship Yahweh, since that is what you have been asking for. Then Mosheh and Aaron were driven out of Pharaoh's presence.

12 And Yahweh said to Mosheh; Stretch out your hand over Egypt, so the locusts will swarm over the land, and devour everything growing in the fields; everything left by the hail.

13 So Mosheh stretched out his staff over the land of Egypt; and Yahweh made an east wind blow across the land all that day and all that night. By morning the wind had brought the locusts;

14 They invaded all Egypt, and settled down in every area of the country in great numbers. Never before had there been such a plague of locusts, nor will there ever be again.

15 The locusts covered all the ground, until it was darkened. They devoured all that was left after the hail, everything growing in the fields, and the fruit on the trees. Nothing green remained on tree or plant in all the land of Egypt.

16 Then Pharaoh quickly summoned Mosheh and Aaron, and said; I have sinned against Yahweh your Father, and against you.

17 Now therefore, please forgive my sin only this once, and pray to Yahweh your Father that He may take away from me this death only.

18 So Mosheh went out from Pharaoh, and entreated Yahweh in prayer.

19 And Yahweh turned a very strong west wind, which took the locusts away and blew them into the Red Sea. There remained not one locust in all the territory of Egypt.

20 But Yahweh hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he did not let the children of Israyl go.

21 Then Yahweh said to Mosheh; Stretch out your hand toward the sky, that there may be darkness over the land of Egypt; darkness that can be felt.

22 So Mosheh stretched out his hand toward the sky, and there was thick darkness in all the land of Egypt for three days.

23 No one could see anyone else or leave his place for three days. Yet all the children of Israyl had light in the places where they lived.

24 Then Pharaoh summoned Mosheh and said; Go! Serve Yahweh! Even your women and children may go with you; only let your flocks and your herds be kept back.

25 But Mosheh said; You must allow us to have sacrifices and burnt offerings to present to Yahweh.

26 Our livestock shall also go with us; not a hoof shall be left behind. We have to use some of them in worshiping Yahweh our Father, and until we get there, we will not know what we are to use to worship Yahweh.

27 But Yahweh hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he would not let them go.

28 Then Pharaoh said to Mosheh; Get away from me! Make sure you do not appear before me again! For in the day you see my face, you shall die!

29 And Mosheh said; You have spoken truthfully; I will never see your face again.

CHAP. 11

Now Yahweh had said to Mosheh; I will yet bring one more plague on Pharaoh and on Egypt. Afterward he will let you go from here. When he lets you go, he will surely drive you out of here completely.

2 Tell the people that men and women alike are to ask their neighbors for articles of silver and gold.

3 Yahweh had made the Egyptians honorably disposed toward the people. Moreover, the man Mosheh was highly regarded in Egypt by Pharaoh's officials and by the people.

4 Then Mosheh said; Thus says Yahweh: About midnight I will go through the midst of Egypt;

5 Every firstborn son in Egypt will die, from the firstborn of Pharaoh who sits on his throne, even to the firstborn of the maidservant who is at her handmill, including all the firstborn of the cattle, as well.

6 Then there will be loud wailing throughout all the land of Egypt, such as was not like it before, nor shall ever be like it again.

7 But among the children of Israyl not a dog will whet his tongue at any man or animal. Then you will know that Yahweh makes a distinction, and a deliverance, between Egypt and Israyl;

8 And all these officials of yours will come to me, bowing down before me, and saying; Go! Get out, you and all the people who follow you! After that, I will go out. Then Mosheh went out from Pharaoh in hot anger.

9 But Yahweh said to Mosheh; Pharaoh will not listen to you, in order that My wonders may be multiplied in the land of Egypt.

10 So Mosheh and Aaron did all these wonders in front of Pharaoh; and Yahweh hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he did not let the children of Israyl go out of his country.

CHAP. 12

And Yahweh said to Mosheh and Aaron in the land of Egypt:

2 This Moon shall be your beginning of Moons; it shall be the First Moon of the Year to you.

3 Speak to all the congregation of Israyl, saying: On the Tenth Day of this First Moon, each man is to take a lamb for his family, one for each household.

4 If any household is too small for the lamb, let him and his brother next to his house share it, having taken into account the number of people there are. You are to determine the amount of lamb needed in accordance with what each person will eat.

5 Your lamb must be without blemish, a male of the first year. You may take it from the sheep or from the goats;

6 And you must keep it until the Fourteenth Day of the same Moon; then the whole multitude of the congregation of Israyl shall kill it ● between the two evenings.

7 And they shall take some of the blood and put it on the sides and tops of the doorframes of the houses, in which they eat the lamb.

8 Then they must eat the meat in that night; roasted in fire. With unleavened bread and with bitter herbs they shall eat it.

9 Do not eat it raw, nor boiled at all with water; only roasted in fire, its head with its legs, and with its entrails.

10 And you must let nothing of it remain until morning; but that which remains of it until morning, you must burn with fire.

11 And in this way you shall eat it: with a belt on your waist, your sandals on your feet, and your staff in your hand. Eat it in haste; it is Yahweh's Passover.

12 For I will pass through the land of Egypt this night, and strike down all the firstborn in the land of Egypt; both men and animals, and I will execute judgment on all the gods of Egypt. I am Yahweh.

13 And the blood will be a sign for you on the houses where you are. And when I see the blood, I will pass over you; and the plague shall not be upon you to destroy you, when I strike the land of Egypt.

14 And this day shall be to you for a memorial; and you shall keep it as a Feast to Yahweh throughout your generations. You shall keep it as a Feast by an Ordinance forever.

15 Seven days you must eat unleavened bread. On the day before you must remove leaven from your houses. For whoever eats leavened bread from the first day through the seventh day of Yahweh's Feast of Unleavened Bread, that person will be cut off from Israyl.

16 On the first day there shall be a Holy Convocation, and on the seventh day there shall be a Holy Convocation for you. No manner of work shall be done on these days; except that which everyone must eat—that only may be done by you.

17 And you must observe the Feast of Unleavened Bread, for it was on this very day that I brought your divisions out of Egypt; therefore, you shall observe this day throughout your generations by an ordinance forever.

18 In the First Moon, on the Fourteenth Day of the Moon at evening, you must eat unleavened bread until the Twenty-First day of the Moon at evening.

19 Seven days no leaven shall be found in your houses; for whoever eats what is leavened, that same person shall be cut off from the congregation of Israyl, whether a stranger or a native of the land.

20 You must eat nothing leavened. In all your habitations you must eat unleavened bread.

21 Then Mosheh summoned all the elders of Israyl, and said to them; Go out, select and take a lamb according to your families, and kill the Passover lamb.

22 And you shall take a bunch of hyssop, and dip it into the blood that is in the basin, and put some of the blood on the top and on both sides of the doorframe; and not one of you must go out of the door of his house until the morning;

23 For Yahweh will pass through to strike down the Egyptians; and when He sees the blood on the top and sides of the doorframe, Yahweh will PASS OVER that doorway, and will not permit the Destroyer to enter your houses, and strike you down.

24 And you shall observe this thing as an ordinance for you and your sons forever.

25 And it will be, when you have come into the land which Yahweh will give you, just as He has promised, that you shall observe this ceremony.

26 And when your children ask you; What do you mean by this service?

27 Then you are to tell them; It is the Passover Sacrifice to Yahweh, Who passed over the houses of the children of Israyl in Egypt, and spared our houses when He struck down the Egyptians. So the people bowed their heads and worshiped.

28 Then the children of Israyl went away, and did just as Yahweh had commanded Mosheh and Aaron, so they did.

29 And it came to pass at midnight that Yahweh struck down all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh who sat on the throne, to the firstborn of the captives in the dungeon, and all the first-born of the livestock.

● Ben Erechim: From around 3:00 in the afternoon until sunset

30 Pharaoh, and all his officials, and all the Egyptians rose up during the night, and there was loud wailing in Egypt, for there was not a house where there was not one dead.

31 And he summoned for Mosheh and Aaron by night, and said; Get up! Leave from among my people, both you and the children of Israyl. Go! Serve Yahweh as you have said.

32 Also take your flocks and your herds, as you have said, and be gone! Bless me also.

33 And the Egyptians urged the people, that they might hurry them out of the land. For they said; We shall all be dead.

34 So the people took their dough before it was leavened, and carried it on their shoulders in kneading troughs wrapped in clothing.

35 Now the children of Israyl had done as Mosheh had instructed, and they had already asked the Egyptians for articles of silver and gold, and for clothing.

36 And Yahweh had given the people honor in the sight of the Egyptians, so that they gave them what they had asked for. In this way, they plundered the Egyptians.

37 Then the children of Israyl journeyed from Rameses to Succoth. There were about six hundred thousand men on foot, besides women and children.

38 And a mixed multitude of people also went up with them, as well as large droves of livestock, both flocks and herds.

39 And they baked unleavened cakes from the dough they had brought out of Egypt; for it was not leavened, because they were driven out of Egypt, and could not wait, neither had they prepared provisions for themselves.

40 Now the length of time the children of Israyl lived in Egypt was four hundred and thirty years.

41 And at the end of the four hundred and thirty years, on that very same day it came to pass that all Yahweh's divisions went out from the land of Egypt.

42 It is a night to be much observed unto Yahweh for bringing them out of the land of Egypt; this is that night of Yahweh to be observed by all the children of Israyl throughout their generations.

43 And Yahweh said to Mosheh and Aaron; This is the ordinance of the Passover: No stranger is to eat of it;

44 But every man's slave who is bought for money, when you have circumcised him, then he may eat it.

45 A foreigner and a hired servant may not eat it.

46 It must be eaten inside one house; take none of the meat outside the house; neither shall you break any of its bones.

47 All the congregation of the children of Israyl shall • sacrifice it.

48 And when a stranger lives among you and wants to sacrifice the Passover to Yahweh, let all his males be circumcised, and then let him come near, and sacrifice it; and he shall be as a native of the land. But no uncircumcised person shall eat of it.

49 One law shall be for the native-born and for the stranger who dwells among you.

50 Thus all the children of Israyl did; just as Yahweh commanded Mosheh and Aaron, so they did.

51 And it came to pass on that very same day that Yahweh brought the children of Israyl out of the land of Egypt by their divisions.

CHAP. 13

Then Yahweh spoke to Mosheh saying;

2 Consecrate, sanctifying to Me every first-born male. The first offspring of every womb among the children of Israyl belongs to Me, both of man and animal; it is Mine.

3 And Mosheh said to the people: Remember this day in which you went out of Egypt, out of the house of bondage; for by strength of hand Yahweh brought you out of it. No leavened bread shall be eaten.

4 On this day you came out in the Moon Abib; Moon of Green Ears of Barley.

5 And it will be when Yahweh brings you into the land of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Hivites, and the Yebusites, which He vowed to your fathers to give you, a land flowing with milk and honey, that you are to keep this service in this Moon.

6 Seven days you must eat unleavened bread, and in the seventh day there shall be a feast to Yahweh.

7 Unleavened bread must be eaten seven days; and no leavened bread shall be seen with you, neither shall there be leaven seen with you in all your quarters.

8 And in that day you shall tell your son, saying; This is done because of what Yahweh did for me when I came out of Egypt.

9 And it shall be as a sign to you upon your hand and as a memorial between your eyes, that Yahweh's Law may be in your mouth; for with a strong hand Yahweh has brought you out of Egypt.

10 You shall therefore keep this ordinance in its season from year to year.

11 And it shall be when Yahweh brings you into the land of the Canaanites, as He vowed to you and your forefathers, and gives it to you,

12 That you shall set apart to Yahweh all that opens the womb; that is, every firstling that comes from an animal which you have; the males shall be Yahweh's.

13 But every firstling of a donkey you shall redeem with a lamb; and if you will not redeem it, then you shall break its neck. And all the firstborn of man among your sons you must redeem.

14 In days to come when your son asks you, saying: What does this mean? Say to him; By strength of hand Yahweh brought us up out of Egypt, from the house of bondage;

15 And when Pharaoh stubbornly refused to let us go, Yahweh killed every firstborn in Egypt, both of man and animal. This is why I sacrifice to Yahweh the first male offspring of every womb, and redeem each of my firstborn sons.

16 And it shall be as a sign upon your hand and as frontlets between your eyes, for by strength of hand Yahweh brought us up out of Egypt;

17 And when Pharaoh let the people go, Yahweh did not lead them through the way of the land of the Philistines, although that was shorter; for Yahweh said: If they face war, they might change their minds, and return to Egypt.

18 So Yahweh led the people out by the way of the wilderness of the Red Sea. The children of Israyl went up in armed ranks out of the land of Egypt.

19 And Mosheh took the bones of Yahseph with him, because Yahseph had placed the sons of Israyl under solemn oath, saying; Yahweh will surely come to your aid, and then you must carry my bones up with you from this place.

20 So they traveled from Succoth, and camped in Etham at the edge of the wilderness.

21 And Yahweh went in front of them by day in a pillar of cloud, to lead their way; and by night in a pillar of fire, to give them light; so they could travel by day or night.

22 He did not take away the pillar of cloud by day, nor the pillar of fire by night, from before the people.

CHAP 14

And Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying:

2 Tell the children of Israyl to turn back and encamp near Pi Hahiroth, between Migdol and the sea. They are to encamp by the sea, directly opposite Baal Zephon.

3 By this, Pharaoh will think; The children of Israyl are wandering around the land in confusion, hemmed in by the desert wilderness.

4 Then I will harden Pharaoh's heart, so he will pursue them; and I will gain honor over Pharaoh and over all his army, that the Egyptians may know that I am Yahweh. And they did so.

5 When the king of Egypt was told the people had fled, and the heart of Pharaoh and his officials was turned against the people, they then said; Why have we done this, letting Israyl go from serving us?

6 So he made ready his chariot, and took his army with him.

7 He took six hundred of the best chariots, along with all the other chariots of Egypt; and officers were over all of them.

8 So Yahweh hardened the heart of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and he pursued the children of Israyl; and the children of Israyl went out with a high hand; boldly;

9 But the Egyptians pursued them; all the horses and chariots of Pharaoh, his horsemen and his army, and overtook them camping by the sea beside Pi Hahiroth, opposite Baal Zephon.

10 And as Pharaoh approached, the children of Israyl looked up, and behold, there were the Egyptians marching after them. They were terrified, and the children of Israyl cried out to Yahweh.

11 And they said to Mosheh; Because there were no graves in Egypt, have you taken us away to die in the wilderness? What have you done to us by taking us out of Egypt?

12 Did we not say to you in Egypt: Leave us alone; let us serve the Egyptians? It would have been better for us to serve the Egyptians, than to die in this wilderness.

13 And Mosheh said to the people; Do not fear, stand still, and see the salvation of Yahweh, which He will accomplish for you today. For the Egyptians whom you see today, you shall see them again no more forever.

14 Yahweh will fight for you, and you shall hold your peace.

15 Then Yahweh said to Mosheh; Why do you cry to Me? Tell the children of Israyl to go forward.

16 But lift up your staff, and stretch out your hand over the sea, to divide it; and the children of Israyl shall go on dry ground through the midst of the sea.

17 And I indeed will harden the hearts of the Egyptians, and they will follow them. And I will gain honor over Pharaoh and over all his army, his chariots, and his horsemen.

18 And the Egyptians shall know that I am Yahweh, when I have gained honor for Myself over Pharaoh, his chariots, and his horsemen.

19 Then the malak of Yahweh, who had been traveling in front of Israyl's army, withdrew and went behind them. The pillar of cloud also moved from in front of them, and stood behind them, 20 Coming between the armies of Egypt and the camp of Israyl. Throughout the night the cloud brought darkness to the one side and light to the other side; so neither went near the other all night long.

21 And Mosheh stretched out his hand over the sea; and Yahweh caused the sea to go back by a strong east wind all that night, and made the sea into dry ground, and the waters were divided.

22 And the children of Israyl went into the midst of the sea upon the dry ground; and the waters were a wall to them on their right hand, and on their left.

23 And the Egyptians pursued them, going after them into the midst of the sea, all Pharaoh's horses, his chariots, and his horsemen.

24 And in the morning watch Yahweh looked down upon the army of the Egyptians, through the pillar of fire and cloud, and He threw it into confusion:

25 He made the wheels of their chariots become jammed, so they drove them with difficulty. And the Egyptians said; Let us flee from the face of Israyl, for Yahweh fights for them against the Egyptians!

26 Then Yahweh said to Mosheh; Stretch out your hand over the sea, that the waters may come back upon the Egyptians, on their chariots, and on their horsemen.

27 So Mosheh stretched out his hand over the sea, and when the morning appeared the sea returned to its full depth as the Egyptians were fleeing into it. So Yahweh overthrew the Egyptians in the midst of the sea.

28 And the water flowed back, and covered the chariots and horsemen, the entire army of Pharaoh that had followed the children of Israyl into the sea. Not one of them survived.

29 But the children of Israyl walked upon dry ground in the midst of the sea; and the waters were a wall to them on their right hand, and on their left.

30 So Yahweh saved Israyl that day out of the hand of the Egyptians, and Israyl saw the Egyptians dead on the seashore.

31 So Israyl saw the great work which Yahweh had done upon the Egyptians; so the people revered Yahweh, and believed Yahweh, and His servant Mosheh.

CHAP. 15

Then Mosheh and the children of Israyl sang this song to Yahweh, saying: I will sing to Yahweh, for He has triumphed gloriously! The horse and its rider He has thrown into the sea!

2 Yahweh is my strength and song, and He has become my Salvation; He is My Heavenly Father and I will praise Him; My father's Father and I will exalt Him.

3 Yahweh is a mighty warrior; Yahweh is His Name.

4 Pharaoh's chariots and his army He has cast into the sea; His chosen officers also are drowned in the Red Sea.

5 The depths have covered them; They sank to the bottom like a stone.

6 Your right hand, O Yahweh, has become glorious in power; Your right hand, O Yahweh, has dashed the enemy in pieces.

7 And in the greatness of Your excellence

You have overthrown those who rose against You; You sent forth Your wrath which consumed them like stubble.

8 And with the blast of Your nostrils the waters were gathered together; the floods stood upright like a heap; the depths congealed in the heart of the sea.

9 The enemy said; I will pursue, I will overtake, I will divide the spoil! My desire shall be satisfied on them. I will draw my sword, my hand shall destroy them.

10 You blew with Your wind, the sea covered them; they sank like lead in the mighty waters.

11 Who among the gods is like You, O Yahweh? Who is like You, majestic in holiness, awesome in praises, working wonders?

12 You stretched out Your right hand; the earth swallowed them.

13 You in Your mercy have led forth the people You have redeemed; You have guided them in Your strength to Your holy habitation.

14 The people will hear and be afraid; sorrow will take hold of the inhabitants of Philistia.

15 The chiefs of Edom will be terrified, the leaders of Moab will be seized with trembling, the rulers of Canaan will melt away;

16 Terror and dread will fall upon them, by the power of Your arm; they will be as still as a stone, until Your people pass by, O Yahweh, until the people You have purchased pass by.

17 You will bring them in, and plant them on the mountain of Your inheritance, the place, O Yahweh, You made for Your dwelling, the Sanctuary, O Yahweh, which Your hands have established; The House of Yahweh.

18 Yahweh will reign for ever and ever.

19 When Pharaoh's horses went with his chariots and his horsemen into the sea, Yahweh brought back the waters of the sea upon them. But the children of Israyl went on dry ground in the midst of the sea.

20 Then Miriam the prophetess, the sister of Aaron, took the timbrel in her hand, and all the women went out after her, with timbrels and with dances.

21 And Miriam answered them; Sing to Yahweh, for He has triumphed gloriously! The horse and its rider, He has thrown into the sea!

22 Then Mosheh brought Israyl from the Red Sea; then they went out into the Wilderness of Shur. And they went three days in the wilderness, and found no water.

23 Now when they came to Marah, they could not drink the waters of Marah, for they were bitter. Therefore the name of it was called Marah, meaning, Bitter.

24 So the people murmured against Mosheh, saying; What shall we drink?

25 Then Mosheh cried out to Yahweh, and Yahweh showed him a tree; and when he cast the wood into the waters, the waters were made sweet. There He made for them a statute and an ordinance, and there He proved; tested, them.

26 And said; If you will diligently listen to the voice of Yahweh your Father, and do what is right in His sight, and will give ear to His commandments, and keep all His statutes, I will put none of these diseases upon you, which I have brought upon the Egyptians; for I am Yahweh Ropheka; Yahweh Your Healer.

27 Then they came to Elim, where there were twelve wells of water and seventy palm trees; so they camped there near the water.

CHAP. 16

Then they journeyed from Elim, and all the congregation of the children of Israyl came to the Wilderness of Sin, between Elim and Sinai, on the Fifteenth Day of the Second Moon after they departed from the land of Egypt.

2 And the whole congregation of the children of Israyl murmured against Mosheh and Aaron in the wilderness;

3 And the children of Israyl said to them; If only we had died by Yahweh's hand in Egypt! There we sat around pots of meat, and ate all the food we wanted; but you have brought us into this wilderness to starve the entire congregation to death!

4 Then Yahweh said to Mosheh; I will rain bread from heaven for you. The people are to go out and gather enough for each day, in order that I may test them, to see whether they will walk in My Law, or not.

5 On the sixth day they shall prepare what they bring in; and it shall be twice as much as they gather on the previous days.

6 And Mosheh and Aaron said to all the children of Israyl; At evening, then you shall know that Yahweh has brought you out of the land of Egypt.

7 And in the morning you will see the glory of Yahweh; for He hears your murmurings against Him. But who are we, that you should murmur against us?

8 Mosheh also said; You will know that it was Yahweh when He gives you meat to eat in the evening, and all the bread you want in the morning; for Yahweh hears your murmurings which you make against Him. But what are we? Your murmurings are not against us, but against Yahweh.

9 Then Mosheh spoke to Aaron; Say to all the congregation of the children of Israyl: Come before Yahweh, for He has heard your murmurings.

10 And as Aaron spoke to the whole congregation of the children of Israyl, they looked toward the wilderness, and behold, the glory of Yahweh appeared in a cloud.

11 And Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying;

12 I have heard the murmurings of the children of Israyl. Speak to them saying; Between the two evenings you shall eat meat, and in the morning you shall be filled with bread. Then you will know that I am Yahweh your Father.

13 And so it was at evening that quail came and covered the camp, and in the morning there was a layer of dew around the camp;

14 And when the dew was gone, thin flakes like frost appeared on the ground.

15 When the children of Israyl saw it, they said to one another; Manna?, What is it? For they did not know what it was. So Mosheh said to them; This is the bread Yahweh has given you to eat.

16 This is the thing which Yahweh has commanded: Each one is to gather as much as he needs. Take an omer for each person you have in your tent.

17 And the children of Israyl did as they were commanded; some gathered much, others gathered little,

18 And when they measured it by the omer, he who gathered much did not have too much, and he who gathered little did not have too little. Each one gathered as much as he needed.

19 And Mosheh said; No one is to keep any of it until morning.

20 Notwithstanding, they did not listen to Mosheh; but some of them left part of it until morning, and it bred worms and stank. And Mosheh was angry with them.

21 So each morning they gathered it, every man according to his needs, and when the sun grew hot, it melted away.

22 And on the Sixth Day they gathered twice as much bread, two omers for each person; and the rulers of the congregation came and told Mosheh.

23 Then he said to them; This is what Yahweh has commanded: Tomorrow is to be a day of rest, a Holy Sabbath to Yahweh. So bake what you will bake today and boil what you will boil, and save what is leftover, and keep it until morning.

24 So they saved it until morning, as Mosheh commanded; and it did not stink nor were there any worms in it.

25 Then Mosheh said; Eat it today, because today is a Sabbath to Yahweh. Today you will not find it on the ground.

26 Six days you shall gather it, but on the Seventh Day, the Sabbath, there will be none.

27 Nevertheless, some of the people went out on the Seventh Day to gather it, but they found none.

28 Then Yahweh said to Mosheh; How long will you refuse to keep My commandments and My laws?

29 Behold! Yahweh has given you the Sabbath; that is why on the Sixth Day He gives you bread for two days. Let every man remain in his place; let no man go out of his place on the Seventh Day.

30 So the people rested on the Seventh Day.

31 And the house of Israyl called the bread, Manna, meaning: What Is It? It was like white coriander seed, and the taste of it was like wafers made with honey.

32 And Mosheh said; This is what Yahweh has commanded: Take an omer of manna and keep it for the generations to come, so they can see the bread I gave you to eat in the wilderness, when I brought you out of Egypt.

33 And Mosheh directed Aaron, saying: Take a pot and put a full omer of manna in it, and keep it in front of Yahweh, to be kept for your generations.

34 As Yahweh commanded Mosheh, so Aaron put the manna in front of the Testimony, that it might be kept.

35 The children of Israyl ate manna forty years until they came to an inhabited land; they ate manna until they came to the border of the land of Canaan.

36 An omer is one-tenth of an ephah.

CHAP. 17

Then all the congregation of the children of Israyl set out on their journey from the Wilderness of Sin, traveling as Yahweh commanded them. They camped at Rephidim, but there was no water for the people to drink.

2 Therefore, the people quarreled and contended with Mosheh, and said; Give us water, that we may drink. And Mosheh said to them; Why do you quarrel with me? Why do you tempt and test Yahweh?

3 But the people thirsted for water there, and the people murmured against Mosheh, and said; Why did you bring us out of Egypt to make us, and our children, and livestock die of thirst?

4 And Mosheh cried out to Yahweh, saying; What shall I do for this people? They are almost ready to stone me!

5 Yahweh said to Mosheh; Go on in front of the people, and take with you some of the elders of Israyl. Take also in your hand the staff with which you struck the Nile, and go.

6 Behold, I will stand there before you upon the rock at Horeb; and you shall strike the rock, and water will come out of it for the people to drink. So Mosheh did this in the sight of the elders of Israyl.

7 So he called the name of the place Massah, that is, Testing, Tempted, and Meribah, that is, Strife, Contention, because of the quarreling of the children of Israyl, and because they tempted and tested Yahweh, saying; Is Yahweh among us, or not?

8 Then the Amalekites came and fought with Israyl at Rephidim.

9 And Mosheh said to Yahshua; Choose out some men, and go out to fight the Amalekites. Tomorrow I will stand on the top of the hill with the staff of Yahweh in my hand.

10 So Yahshua did as Mosheh had said to him, and fought with Amalek. And Mosheh, Aaron, and Hur went up to the top of the hill.

11 And as long as Mosheh held up his hands, Israyl was winning, but whenever he lowered his hands, Amalek was winning.

12 But Mosheh's hand became heavy; so they took a stone and put it under him, and he sat on it. Aaron and Hur then supported his hands, one on one side, and the other on the other side; and his hands were steady until the going down of the sun.

13 So Yahshua defeated Amalek and his people with the edge of the sword.

14 Then Yahweh said to Mosheh; Write this on a scroll as a memorial; something to be remembered, and rehearse it in the hearing of Yahshua, that I will utterly blot out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven.

15 And Mosheh built an altar, and called its name; Yahweh Nissi, that is, Yahweh is my Banner, 16 For he said; Hands were lifted up to the throne of Yahweh. Yahweh will be at war against Amalek from generation to generation.

CHAP. 18

Now Yethro, the priest of Midian and relative-by-law to Mosheh, heard of everything Yahweh had done for Mosheh and for his people Israyl; and how Yahweh had brought Israyl out of Egypt.

2 And Yethro, Mosheh's relation-by-law, had received Zipporah, Mosheh's wife, after he had sent her back,

3 With her two sons; of whom the name of one son was Gershom, that is, A Stranger There, for Mosheh said; I have become an alien in a strange land,

4 And the other was named Yliezer, that is, My Power Is Help, for he said; My father's Father was my helper; He saved me from the sword of Pharaoh.

5 Yethro, Mosheh's relation-by-law, together with Mosheh's sons and wife, came to him in the wilderness where he was camped, at the mountain of Yahweh.

6 Yethro had sent word to Mosheh, saying; I am coming to you with your wife, and her two sons with her.

7 So Mosheh went out to meet his relative-by-law, and bowed down and kissed him. They greeted each other, and they went into the tent;

8 And Mosheh told Yethro all that Yahweh had done to Pharaoh and to the Egyptians for Israyl's sake, all the hardship that had come upon them in the way, and how Yahweh had delivered and saved them.

9 And Yethro rejoiced for all the blessed things which Yahweh had done for Israyl, whom He had delivered out of the hand of the Egyptians.

10 And Yethro said; Blessed be Yahweh, Who has delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of Pharaoh, and Who has delivered the people from under the hand of the Egyptians.

11 Now I know that Yahweh is greater than all the gods; elohim, for He did this to those who had treated Israyl arrogantly.

12 Then Yethro, relative-by law to Mosheh, took a burnt offering, and sacrificed to Yahweh. And Aaron came with all the elders of Israyl to eat bread with Yethro before Yahweh.

13 Now on the next day Mosheh took his seat to judge the people; and the people stood around him from morning until evening.

14 And when Yethro saw all that Mosheh was doing for the people, he said; What is this you are doing for the people? Why do you alone sit as judge, while all these people stand around you from morning until evening?

15 And Mosheh answered Yethro; Because the people come to me to inquire of Yahweh.

16 Whenever they have a dispute, it is brought to me, and I decide between the parties; and I do make them know the statutes of Yahweh, and I instruct them in His laws.

17 Mosheh's relative-by-law then said to him; What you are doing is not the best thing.

18 Both you and these people with you will surely wear yourselves out. The work is too heavy for you; you cannot handle it alone.

19 Listen now to me, and I will give you sound advice, and may Yahweh be with you: You must be the people's representative before Yahweh and bring their disputes to Him.

20 And you shall teach them the ordinances and laws, and shall show them the way in which they must walk, and the work that they must do.

21 Moreover, you shall select from all the people able men, such as reverence Yahweh, men of truth, hating covetousness; and place them as rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens.

22 And let them judge the people at all times, but have them bring every difficult case to you; the simple cases they can decide themselves. So it will be easier for you, for they will bear the burden with you.

23 If you will do this thing, and Yahweh so commands you, then you will be able to endure the strain, and all the people will also go to their places in peace; satisfied.

24 And Mosheh listened to Yethro, and did all that he had said.

25 And Mosheh chose able men out of all Israyl, and made them heads over the people: rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens.

26 And they judged the people at all times; the hard cases they brought to Mosheh, but the simple ones they decided themselves.

27 Then Mosheh let Yethro depart, and he went his way into his own land.

CHAP. 19

In the Third Moon after the children of Israyl had left Egypt, on the very same day, they came to the Wilderness of Sinai.

2 For they had departed from Rephidim, coming to the Wilderness of Sinai where they camped in the wilderness in front of the mountain.

3 And Mosheh went up to Yahweh, and Yahweh called to him from the mountain, and said; This is what you shall say to the house of Yaaqob, and tell the children of Israyl:

4 You have seen what I have done to Egypt; and how I carried you on wings of eagles and brought you to Myself.

5 Now therefore, if you will truly obey My voice and keep My covenant, then you shall be a special treasure to Me above all people; for all the earth is Mine.

6 And you shall be to Me a kingdom of priests, and a holy nation. These are the words that you shall speak to the children of Israyl.

7 And Mosheh came, and summoned the elders of the people, and set before them all the words Yahweh had commanded him to speak.

8 And all the people answered together, and said; All that Yahweh has spoken, we will do. So Mosheh brought their answer back to Yahweh.

9 And Yahweh said to Mosheh; I am going to come to you in a thick cloud, so the people will hear Me speaking with you, and believe you forever. And Mosheh reported to Yahweh what the people had said.

10 Then Yahweh said to Mosheh; Go to the people, and sanctify today and tomorrow, and have them wash their clothes.

11 And let them be ready for the third day; for on the third day Yahweh will come down upon Mount Sinai in the sight of all the people.

12 And you shall set limits for the people around the mountain, and tell them; Be careful you do not go up into the mountain, nor touch its base. Whoever touches the mountain shall surely be put to death;

13 And not a hand is to be laid on him: he shall surely be stoned or shot with arrows. Whether man or animal, he shall not be permitted to live. When the ram's horn sounds a long blast, they may go up to the mountain.

14 And Mosheh went down from the mountain to the people, and sanctified and consecrated them. They washed their clothes,

15 And he said to the people; Prepare yourselves for the third day. Do not come near your wives.

16 And on the third day, in the morning, there were thunderings and lightnings, and a thick cloud on the mountain. And the sound of the shofar was very loud, so that all the people in the camp trembled.

17 And Mosheh brought the people out of the camp to meet with Yahweh, and they stood at the foot of the mountain.

18 Now Mount Sinai was completely engulfed in smoke, because Yahweh descended upon it in fire; and its smoke ascended like the smoke of a furnace, and all the people trembled greatly.

19 And when the sound of the shofar sounded long, and became louder and louder, Mosheh spoke, and the voice of Yahweh answered him by voice.

20 And Yahweh came down upon Mount Sinai, on the top of the mountain; and Yahweh called Mosheh to the top of the mountain, and Mosheh went up.

21 And Yahweh said to Mosheh; Go down and warn the people, so that they do not force their way through to see Yahweh, and many of them perish.

22 Also let the priest who come near Yahweh sanctify and consecrate themselves, or Yahweh will break out against them.

23 And Mosheh said to Yahweh; The people cannot come up to Mount Sinai, for You warned us saying; Put limits around the mountain and set it apart as holy.

24 And Yahweh said to him; Go down, and then come up; you, and Aaron with you. But the priests and the people must not force their way through to come up to Yahweh, or He will break out against them.

25 So Mosheh went down to the people, and spoke to them.

CHAP. 20

And Yahweh spoke all these words, saying:

2 I am Yahweh your Heavenly Father Who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

3 You shall have no hinder gods at all in front of Me.

4 You shall not make for yourself any carved image; an idol, in the form of anything in heaven above, or on the earth beneath, or in the waters below.

5 You shall not bow down to them nor serve them; for I, Yahweh your Father, am a jealous

Heavenly Father, punishing the children for the lawbreaking of the fathers to the third and fourth generation of those who hate Me,

6 But showing love to thousands who love Me, and keep My commandments.

7 You shall not take the Name of Yahweh your Heavenly Father to ● bring it to nothing, for Yahweh will not hold him guiltless who brings dishonor upon or profanes His Name.

8 Remember the Sabbath Day, to keep it holy.

9 Six days you shall labor and do all your work,

10 But the Seventh Day is the Sabbath of Yahweh your Heavenly Father. In it you shall do no work; you, nor your wife, nor your son, nor your daughter, nor your manservant, nor your maidservant, nor your cattle, nor the stranger who dwells within your gates.

11 For in six days Yahweh made the heavens and the earth, the sea, and all that is in them; and rested the Seventh Day. Therefore, Yahweh blessed the Sabbath Day, and hallowed it; made the Sabbath Day holy.

12 Honor your father and your mother, so your days may be long upon the land which Yahweh your Father is giving you.

13 You shall not murder.

14 You shall not commit adultery.

15 You shall not steal.

16 You shall not bear false testimony against your brother.

17 You shall not covet; lust after, your brother's house; you shall not covet your brother's wife, nor his manservant, nor his maidservant, nor his ox, nor his donkey, nor anything that belongs to your brother.

18 And all the people saw the thunder and lightning, and heard the shofar, and saw the mountain in smoke; and when the people saw it, they stood at a distance and trembled.

19 Then they said to Mosheh; You speak with us, and we will listen; but do not let Yahweh speak with us, or we will die.

20 Mosheh said to the people; Do not fear; for Yahweh has come to test you, so that the reverence of Yahweh will be with you, so that you do not commit sin.

21 Yet the people remained at a distance, but Mosheh drew near the thick darkness where Yahweh was.

22 And Yahweh said to Mosheh; This is what you shall say to the children of Israyl: You have seen that I have talked with you from heaven:

23 Do not make for yourselves gods of silver or gold alongside of Me.

24 An altar of earth you shall make for Me, and you shall sacrifice upon it your burnt offerings and your peace offerings, of your sheep, and your oxen. In every place I cause My Name to be honored I will come to you, and I will bless you.

● Leviticus 19:12, Leviticus 20:2-3, Leviticus 22:31-32, Nehemyah 13:15-17, Hebrews 6:4-6.

25 If you make an altar of stone for Me, do not build it with cut stone; for you will defile it if you use a tool on it.

26 Nor shall you go up to My altar by steps, so your nakedness may not be exposed on it.

CHAP. 21

Now these are the judgments which you shall set before them.

2 If you buy a Hebrew slave, he shall serve you for six years. But in the seventh year he shall go out free without paying anything.

3 If he comes alone, he is to go free alone; but if he has a wife when he comes, she is to go out with him.

4 If his owner has given him a wife, and she bears him sons or daughters, the woman and her children shall belong to her owner, and the man shall go out by himself.

5 But if the servant plainly says; I love my owner, my wife, and my children; I will not go out free,

6 Then his owner shall bring him to the judges. He shall take him to the door or the doorpost, and pierce his ear through with an awl. Then he will be his servant for life.

7 If a man sells his daughter to be a maidservant, she shall not go out as the menservants do.

8 If she does not please her owner, who has betrothed her to himself, then he shall let her be redeemed. He shall have no right to sell her to strangers, because he has broken faith with her.

9 If he has betrothed her to his son, he shall grant her the rights of a daughter.

10 If he marries another woman, he must not deprive the first one of her food, clothing, and marital rights.

11 And if he does not do these three for her, then she shall go out free, without any payment of money.

12 Anyone who strikes a man and kills him shall surely be put to death.

13 However, if he did not kill intentionally, but Yahweh allows it to come to pass, he is to flee to a place I will designate.

14 But if a man schemes, and acts with premeditation against his brother, to kill him with guile, you shall take him from My altar; and put him to death.

15 And he who strikes his father or his mother shall surely be put to death.

16 And he who kidnaps a man and sells him, or if he is found in his possession, shall surely be put to death.

17 And he who curses his father or his mother shall surely be put to death.

18 And if men quarrel, and one hits the other with a stone or with his fist, or a tool and he does not die but is confined to bed, 19 If the other gets up, and walks around outside with his staff; the one who struck the blow will not be held responsible. However, he must pay the injured man for the loss of his time, and see that he is completely healed.

20 Or if a man beats his servant or his maidservant with a rod and the slave dies as a direct result, he must surely be punished,

21 However, he is not to be punished if the slave gets up after a day or two, since the slave is his property.

22 If men fight and hurt a woman with child, so that she gives birth prematurely, but there is no serious injury, the offender must be fined whatever the woman's husband demands, and the court allows.

23 But if there is serious injury, you are to take life for life,

24 Eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot,

25 Burn for burn, wound for wound, stripe for stripe.

26 And if a man hits a manservant or maidservant in the eye and destroys it, he must let the servant go free to compensate for the eye.

27 And if he knocks out his servant's tooth, or his maidservant's tooth, he shall let him go free for the sake of his tooth.

28 If a bull gores a man or woman to death, then the bull shall surely be stoned, and its flesh shall not be eaten. But the owner of the bull will not be held responsible.

29 But, if the bull tended to thrust out with its horns, and this was made known to its owner, and he has not kept it penned up, so that it has killed a man or a woman, the bull shall be stoned and its owner also shall be put to death.

30 However, if payment is demanded of him, he may redeem his life by paying whatever is demanded;

31 Whether it has gored a son or gored a daughter, according to this judgment it shall be done to him.

32 If the bull gores a manservant or a maidservant, he shall give to their owner thirty shekels of silver, and the bull shall be stoned.

33 And if a man uncovers a pit, or digs a pit and fails to cover it, and an ox or a donkey falls into it,

34 The owner of the pit must pay for the loss; he must pay its owner, and the dead animal will be his.

35 If one man's bull injures the bull of another, and it dies, they are to sell the living bull and divide both the money and the dead animal, equally.

36 However, if it was known that the bull had the habit of goring, yet the owner did not keep it penned up, the owner must surely pay, bull for bull; and the dead shall be his own.

CHAP. 22

If a man steals an ox or a sheep, and slaughters it or sells it, he shall pay back five head of oxen for the ox, and four sheep for the sheep.

2 If the thief is found breaking in, and he is struck so that he dies, the defender is not guilty for his bloodshed.

3 But if he strikes him after sunrise, he is guilty of bloodshed. A thief must make full restitution, but if he has nothing, then he shall be sold for his theft.

4 If the theft is found alive in his possession, whether it is an ox, donkey, or sheep, he shall pay back double.

5 If a man causes a field or vineyard to be grazed, and lets loose his animals and they feed in another man's field, he shall make restitution from the best of his own field and the best of his own vineyard.

6 If a fire breaks out and catches in thorn-bushes so that it burns stacked grain, standing grain, or a field, he who kindled the fire shall surely make restitution.

7 If a man gives his brother silver or possessions for safekeeping, and they are stolen from the brother's house, the thief, if he is caught, must pay back double;

8 But if the thief is not found, then the owner of the house must appear in front of the judges to determine whether he has laid his hands on the other man's property.

9 In all cases of illegal possession of an ox, a donkey, a sheep, a garment, or any other lost property which another claims to be his, both parties are to bring their cases in front of the judges. The one whom the judges declares guilty, must pay back double to his brother.

10 If a man gives a donkey, an ox, a sheep or any other animal to his brother for safekeeping, and it dies, or is injured, or is driven away while no one is looking,

11 The issue between them will be settled by an oath of Yahweh, that the brother did not lay hands on the other person's property. And the owner is to accept this, and no restitution is required.

12 But if the animal was stolen from the brother, he must make restitution to the owner.

13 If it was torn to pieces by a wild animal, he shall bring in the remains as evidence, and he will not be required to pay for the torn animal.

14 And if a man borrows an animal from his brother, and it is injured or dies while the owner is not present, he must make restitution.

15 But if the owner is with the animal, the borrower will not have to pay. If the animal was hired, the money paid for the hire covers the loss.

16 And if a man seduces a virgin who is not betrothed to be married, and sleeps with her, he must surely pay the bride-price for her, and she shall be his wife.

17 If her father utterly refuses to give her to him, he shall still pay the bride-price for virgins.

18 You shall not permit a witch to live.

19 Whoever lies with an animal must surely be put to death.

20 He who sacrifices to any gods, and not to Yahweh only, will be utterly destroyed.

21 You shall neither mistreat nor oppress a stranger, for you were strangers in the land of Egypt.

22 You shall not take advantage of any widow or orphan.

23 If you afflict them in any way, and they cry to Me at all, I will surely hear their cry;

24 And My wrath will be aroused, and I will kill you with the sword. And your wives will become widows, and your children will become fatherless.

25 If you lend money to one of My people among you who is needy, do not be like a moneylender; charge him no interest.

26 If you take your brother's cloak as a pledge, return it to him by sunset,

27 Because his cloak is the only covering he has for his body. What else will he sleep in? And it will be when he cries out to Me, I will hear, for I am compassionate.

28 Do not blaspheme Yahweh, and do not revile your judges, nor curse the ruler of your people.

29 You shall not delay to offer the first of your ripe produce or of your vineyard. The firstborn of your sons you shall offer to Me;

30 Likewise you shall do with your oxen and your sheep. It shall be with its mother seven days; on the eighth day you shall give it to Me.

31 And you are to be My holy people; neither shall you eat the meat of an animal torn by wild beasts; cast it to the dogs.

CHAP. 23

You shall not spread a false report. Do not help an evil man, by being an unrighteous witness.

2 Do not follow the crowd in doing evil. When you give testimony in a lawsuit, do not pervert justice by siding with the crowd.

3 And do not show respect of persons to a poor man in his lawsuit.

4 If you come across your enemy's ox or donkey wandering off, be sure to take it back to him.

5 If you see the donkey of someone who hates you lying under its burden, and you might refrain from helping it, you shall surely help him with it.

6 You must not pervert the judgment of your poor in his lawsuit.

7 Keep yourself far from a false matter; and do not put an innocent or righteous person to death, for I will not acquit the guilty.

8 Do not accept a bribe, for a bribe blinds those who see, and twists the words of the righteous.

9 Also you shall not oppress a stranger, for you know the heart of a stranger, because you were strangers in the land of Egypt.

10 Six years shall you sow your land, and gather in its produce.

11 But the seventh year you shall let it rest and lie fallow, so that the poor among your people may get food from it, and the wild animals may eat what is left. Do the same with your vineyard and your olive grove.

12 Six days you shall do your work, and on the Seventh Day you shall rest, so that your ox and your donkey may rest, and the son of your maidservant and the stranger may be refreshed.

13 In all things I have said to you, be careful to do them, and make no mention of the name of hinder gods, neither let it be heard from your mouth.

14 Three times in the year shall you keep a Feast to Me:

15 You shall keep the Feast of Unleavened Bread. You shall eat unleavened bread seven days, as I commanded you, at the \bullet time appointed in the Moon of Green Ears of Barley; Abib, for in it you came out of Egypt; and none shall appear before Me empty;

16 And keep the Feast of Harvest with the firstfruits of the crops you sow in your field; and the Feast of Ingathering at the end of the year, when you gather in your crops from the field.

17 Three times in the year all your males shall appear in front of Yahweh.

18 You shall not offer the blood of My sacrifice with leavened bread; nor shall the fat of My sacrifice remain until morning.

19 The first of the firstfruits of your land you shall bring into The House of Yahweh. You shall not boil a young goat in its mother's milk.

20 Behold I am sending a malak in front of you, to keep you in the way, and to bring you into the place which I have prepared.

21 Attend to him and obey his voice; do not rebel against him, for he will not forgive your transgressions, for My Name is in him.

22 But if you will truly obey what he says, and do all that I speak, then I will be an Enemy to your enemies, and an Adversary to your adversaries.

23 For My malak will go ahead of you and bring you into the land of the Amorites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Canaanites, the Hivites, and the Yebusites; and I will cut them off.

24 You shall not bow down to their gods, nor serve them, nor do after their works; but you shall utterly overthrow them, and completely break down their sacred pillars.

25 And you shall serve Yahweh your Father, and He will bless your bread and your water; and I will take sickness away from the midst of you.

26 Nothing shall suffer miscarriage or be barren in your land; the number of your lifespan, I will fulfill.

27 I will send My fear ahead of you, and throw into confusion every nation you encounter; and I will make all your enemies turn their backs and run.

28 And I will send hornets in front of you, which shall drive the Hivite, the Canaanite, and the Hittite from before you.

29 But I will not drive them from before you in a single year, because the land would become desolate, and the wild animals too numerous for you.

30 Little by little I will drive them out from before you, until you have increased, and you inherit the land.

31 And I will set your borders from the Red Sea, to the Sea of the Philistines, and from the desert to the River Euphrates. For I will deliver the inhabitants of the land into your hand, and you shall drive them out before you.

32 You shall make no covenant with them, nor with their gods.

33 Do not let them live in your land, or they will cause you to sin against Me; for if you worship their gods, it will certainly be a snare unto you.

CHAP. 24

And He said to Mosheh; Come up unto Yahweh, you and Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israyl. You are to worship at a distance;

2 And Mosheh alone is to come near Yahweh, but they shall not come near; nor shall the people go up with him.

3 So Mosheh came and told the people all the words of Yahweh, and the judgments of Yahweh; and all the people answered with one voice, and said; All the words which Yahweh has said, we will do.

4 And Mosheh wrote all the words of Yahweh, and rose up early in the morning, and built an altar at the foot of the mountain, and set up twelve pillars representing the twelve tribes of Israyl.

5 Then he sent young men of the children of Israyl, and they offered burnt offerings, and sacrificed young bulls as peace offerings to Yahweh.

6 Mosheh took half the blood and put it in basins, and half the blood he sprinkled on the altar.

7 Then he took the Book of the Covenant and read it to the people, and they said; All that Yahweh has said we will do, and be obedient.

8 Then Mosheh took the blood, and sprinkled it on the people, and said; Behold, the blood of the covenant, which Yahweh has made with you according to all these words.

9 And Mosheh went up, also Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and the seventy elders of Israyl,

10 And they saw the Heavenly Father of Israyl. And under His feet there was something like a pavement made of sapphire, clear as the very sky itself.

11 And upon these nobles of the children of Israyl He did not lay His hand; and they saw Yahweh, and they ate and drank.

12 Then Yahweh said to Mosheh; Come up to Me on the mountain, and be there, and I will give you tablets of stone, and the Law and commandments I have written, that you may teach them.

13 Then Mosheh set out with Yahshua his assistant, and Mosheh went up on the mountain of Yahweh.

14 He said to the elders; Wait here for us until we return to you. Truly Aaron and Hur are with you. If anyone is involved in a dispute, let him go to them. "

15 Then Mosheh went up into the mountain, and a cloud covered the mountain.

16 And the glory of Yahweh rested upon Mount Sinai and the cloud covered it six days. And on the Seventh Day Yahweh called to Mosheh out of the midst of the cloud.

17 To the eyes of the children of Israyl, the sight of the glory of Yahweh looked like a consuming fire on top of the mountain.

18 And Mosheh entered the midst of the cloud as he went on up the mountain; and he stayed on the mountain forty days and forty nights.

CHAP. 25

Then Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying:

2 Speak to the children of Israyl, that they bring Me an offering. From every man who gives it willingly, you are to take My offering;

3 And this is the offering which you shall take from them: gold, silver, and bronze;

4 Blue, purple and scarlet yarn, fine linen and goats' hair;

5 Rams' skins dyed red, goats' skins, and acacia wood;

6 Oil for the light, and spices for the anointing oil and for the sweet incense;

7 Onyx stones, and stones to be set in the ephod and in the breastplate.

8 And let them make Me a sanctuary, that I may dwell among them.

9 According to all that I show you, after the pattern of the tabernacle, and the pattern of all its furnishings, exactly so shall you make it.

10 And they shall make an ark of acacia wood, two and a half cubits long, a cubit and a half wide, and a cubit and a half high; 3 3/4 feet long and 2 1/4 feet wide and high.

11 Overlay it with pure gold, both inside and out, and make a gold molding all around.

12 Cast four rings of gold for it, and fasten them to the four corners; two rings on one side, and two rings on the other side.

13 Then make poles of acacia wood, and overlay them with gold.

14 Put the poles into the rings on the sides of the ark, so the ark may be carried by them.

15 The poles shall remain in the rings of the ark; they shall not be removed from it.

16 And you shall place into the ark the Testimony which I will give you.

17 Make a mercy seat; an atonement cover, of pure gold. Two and a half cubits shall be its length, and a cubit and a half shall be its width; about 3 3/4 feet long and 2 1/4 feet wide.

18 And make two cherubim out of hammered gold; at the two ends of the mercy seat you shall make them:

19 Make one cherub on one end and the second cherub on the other. You shall make the cherubim at the two ends of it of one piece with the mercy seat.

20 And the cherubim shall stretch out their wings above, covering the mercy seat with their wings, and they shall face one another, each facing down to the cover.

21 You shall place the mercy seat on top of the ark; and in the ark you shall put the Testimony that I will give you.

22 And there I will meet with you, and I will speak with you from above the mercy seat—from between the two cherubim which are on the ark of the Testimony—about all things which I will give you in commandment to the children of Israyl.

23 Make a table of acacia wood, two cubits long, a cubit wide, and a cubit and a half high, about 3 feet long, 1 1/2 feet wide, and 2 1/4 feet high.

24 Overlay it with pure gold, and make a gold molding all around.

25 Also make rim around it, a handbreadth wide, and put a gold molding on the rim.

26 Make four gold rings for the table, and fasten them to the four corners, where the four legs are.

27 The rings are to be close to the rim, to hold the poles used in carrying the table.

28 Make the poles of acacia wood; overlay them with gold, and carry the table with them.

29 And make its plates and ladles of pure gold, as well as its pitchers and bowls, for the pouring out of offerings.

30 Put the showbread: the bread of the Presence, on this table in front of Me always.

31 Make a lampstand of pure gold; and hammer it out, base and shaft. Its flowerlike cups, buds, and blossoms shall be of one piece with it.

32 Six branches are to extend from the sides of the lampstand: three on one side and three on the other.

33 Three cups, shaped like almond flowers with buds and blossoms, are to be on one branch, three on the next branch, and the same for all six branches which extend from the lampstand.

34 And on the shaft of the lampstand there are to be four cups shaped like almond flowers, with buds and blossoms:

35 One bud shall be under the first pair of branches extending from the lampstand, a second bud under the second pair, and a third bud under the third pair, six branches in all.

36 The buds and branches shall all be of one piece with the lampstand, hammered out of pure gold.

37 Then make its seven lamps, and set them up on it so they light the space in front of it.

38 Its wick trimmers and trays are to be of pure gold.

39 A talent, that is, about 75 pounds, of pure gold is to be used for the lampstand and all these accessories.

40 And see that you make them according to the pattern which was shown to you on the mountain.

CHAP. 26

Make the tabernacle with ten curtains of finely twisted linen, and blue, purple and scarlet yarn, with cherubim worked into them by a skilled craftsman.

2 All the curtains are to be the same size: twenty-eight cubits long and four cubits wide, each about 42 feet long and 6 feet wide.

3 Join five of the curtains together, and do the same with the other five.

4 Make loops of blue material along the edge of the end curtain in one set, and do the same with the end curtain in the other set.

5 Make fifty loops on one curtain and fifty loops on the end curtain of the other set; so that the loops of one correspond to the loops on the other.

6 Then make fifty gold clasps, and use them to fasten the curtains together; so that the tabernacle is one unit.

7 Make curtains of goats' hair for the tent over the tabernacle, eleven curtains altogether.

8 All eleven curtains are to be the same size: thirty cubits long and four cubits wide, each about 45 feet long and 6 feet wide.

9 Join five of the curtains together into one set, and the other six into another set. Fold the sixth curtain double at the front of the tent.

10 Make fifty loops along the edge of the end curtain in one set and also along the edge of the end curtain in the other set.

11 Then make fifty bronze clasps, and put them in the loops; to fasten the tent together as one unit.

12 As for the additional length of the tent curtain, the half curtain that is left over is to hang down at the rear of the tabernacle.

13 The tent curtains will be a cubit, about 1 1/2 feet, longer on both sides; what is left will hang over the sides of the tabernacle, so as to cover it.

14 Make for the tent a covering of rams' skins dyed red, and over that a covering of hides of goats' skins.

15 Make upright frames of acacia wood for the tabernacle;

16 Each frame is to be ten cubits long and a cubit and a half wide, each about 15 feet long and 2 1/4 feet wide.

17 With them make two projections set parallel to each other, for fitting them together. Make all the frames of the tabernacle in this way.

18 Make twenty frames for the south side of the tabernacle.

19 And make forty silver bases to go under them, two bases for each frame: one under each projection.

20 For the other side, the north side of the tabernacle, make twenty frames.

21 And forty silver bases, two under each frame.

22 Make six frames for the far end, that is, the west end of the tabernacle.

23 And make two frames for the corners at the far end.

24 At these two corners they must be double from the bottom all the way to the top, and fitted into a single ring; both shall be like that.

25 So there will be eight frames and sixteen silver bases, two under each frame.

26 Also make bars of acacia wood; five for the frames on one side of the tabernacle.

27 Five for those on the other side, and five for the frames on the west, at the far end of the tabernacle.

28 The center bar is to extend from end to end at the middle of the frames.

29 Overlay the frames with gold, and make gold rings to hold the bars. Also overlay the bars with gold.

30 And you shall raise up the tabernacle

according to its pattern, which you were shown on the mountain

31 Make a Veil woven of blue, purple and scarlet yarn and finely twisted linen, with che-rubin woven into it by a skilled craftsman.

32 Hang it with gold hooks on four posts of acacia wood, which have been overlaid with gold, and are standing on four silver bases.

33 Hang the Veil from the clasps, and place the ark of the Testimony behind the Veil. The Veil will separate the Holy Place from the Most Holy Place; the Holy of Holies.

34 Put the mercy seat; the atonement cover, on the ark of the Testimony in the Most Holy Place.

35 Place the table outside the Veil on the north side of the tabernacle, and put the lamp-stand opposite it on the south side.

36 For the entrance to the tent, make a curtain screen of blue, purple, and scarlet yarn and finely twisted linen, the work of a weaver.

37 Make gold hooks for this curtain, and five posts of acacia wood overlaid with gold. And cast five bronze bases for them.

CHAP. 27

Build an altar of acacia wood, three cubits high; about 4 1/2 feet high. It is to be square, five cubits long and five cubits wide; about 7 1/2 feet long and wide.

2 Make a horn at each of its four corners, so that the horns and the altar are of one piece, and overlay the altar with bronze.

3 Make all its utensils of bronze: its pots to remove the ashes, its shovels, its sprinkling bowls, its meat forks, and its firepans.

4 Make a grating for it, a bronze network, and make a bronze ring at each of the four corners of the network.

5 Put it under the ledge of the altar, so that it is halfway up the altar.

6 Make poles of acacia wood for the altar, and overlay them with bronze.

7 The poles are to be inserted into the rings, so they will be on two sides of the altar when it is carried.

8 Make the altar hollow, out of boards. As it was shown you on the mountain, so shall they make it.

9 Make a courtyard for the tabernacle: The south side shall be a hundred cubits long; about 150 feet, and is to have curtains of finely twisted linen.

10 With twenty posts and twenty bronze bases, and with silver hooks and bands on the posts.

11 The north side shall also be a hundred cubits long, and is to have curtains, with twenty posts and twenty bronze bases, and with silver hooks and bands on the posts.

12 The west end of the courtyard shall be fifty cubits wide; about 75 feet wide, and have curtains, with ten posts and ten bases.

13 On the east end, toward the sunrise, the courtyard shall also be fifty cubits wide.

14 Curtains fifteen cubits long; each about 22 1/2 feet long, are to be on one side of the entrance, with three posts and three bases.

15 And curtains fifteen cubits long are to be on the other side of the entrance, with three posts and three bases.

16 For the entrance to the courtyard, provide a curtain screen twenty cubits long; about 30 feet, of blue, purple and scarlet yarn and finely twisted linen, the work of a weaver, with four posts and four bases.

17 All the posts around the courtyard are to have silver bands and hooks, and bases of bronze.

18 The courtyard shall be a hundred cubits long and fifty cubits wide; about 150 feet long and 75 feet wide, with curtains of finely twisted linen five cubits high; about 7 1/2 feet high, and with bronze bases.

19 All the other articles used in the service of the tabernacle, whatever their function, including all the tent pegs for it and those for the courtyard, are to be of bronze.

20 Command the children of Israyl to bring you clear oil of pressed olives for the light, so the lamps may be kept burning continuously.

21 In the Tent of Meeting, which is outside the Veil that is in front of the Testimony; in the Holy Place, Aaron and his sons are to keep the lamps burning in front of Yahweh, from the evening until the morning. This is to be a statute forever for their generations, on behalf of the children of Israyl.

CHAP. 28

Bring Aaron your brother to you from among the children of Israyl, along with his sons Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar, so they may serve Me as priests.

2 Make holy garments for your brother Aaron, for glory and for beauty.

3 Tell all the skilled men to whom I have given wisdom in such matters, that they are to make garments for Aaron, for his consecration and sanctification, so he may serve Me as priest.

4 These are the garments they are to make for the High Priest: a breastplate, an ephod, a robe, a woven tunic, a turban; mitznepheth, and a sash. They are to make these holy garments for your brother Aaron, and other priestly garments for his sons, so they may serve Me as priests.

5 Have them use gold, and blue, purple and scarlet yarn, and fine linen.

6 Make the High Priest's ephod of gold, and of blue, purple and scarlet yarn, and of finely twisted linen, the work of a skilled craftsman.

7 It is to have two shoulder pieces attached to two of its corners, so it can be fastened.

8 Its skillfully woven waistband is to be like it: of one piece with the ephod, and made with gold, and with blue, purple, and scarlet yarn, and with finely twisted linen.

9 Take two onyx stones, and engrave on them the names of the sons of Israyl.

10 Engrave them in the order of their birth, six names on one stone, and the remaining six on the other.

11 Engrave the names of the sons of Israyl on the two stones the same way a gem cutter engraves a seal. Then mount the stones in gold settings.

12 And fasten them on the shoulder pieces of the ephod, as memorial stones for the sons of Israyl. Aaron is to bear their names before Yahweh on his shoulders as a memorial before Yahweh.

13 Make settings of gold.

14 And two braided chains of pure gold, like a rope, and attach the chains to the settings.

15 You shall make a breastplate for judgment, the work of a skilled craftsman. Make it like the ephod: of gold, and of blue, purple, and scarlet yarn, and of finely twisted linen.

16 It is to be square, a span long and a span wide, about 9 inches square, and folded double.

17 Then mount four rows of precious stones on it: In the first row there shall be a ruby, a topaz, and a beryl;

18 In the second row a turquoise, a sapphire; lapis lazuli, and an emerald;

19 In the third row a jacinth, an agate, and an amethyst;

20 In the fourth row a chrysolite, an onyx, and a jasper. Mount them in gold settings.

21 There are to be twelve stones, one for each of the names of the sons of Israyl, each engraved like a seal with the name of one of the twelve tribes.

22 For the breastplate make braided chains of pure gold, like a rope.

23 Make two gold rings for it, and fasten them to two corners of the breastplate.

24 Fasten the two gold chains to the rings at the corners of the breastplate.

25 And the other ends of the chains to the two settings, attaching them to the shoulder pieces of the ephod, at the front.

26 Make two gold rings, and attach them to the other two corners of the breastplate, on the inside edge next to the ephod.

27 Make two more gold rings, and attach them to the bottom of the shoulder pieces, on the front of the ephod, close to the seam just above the waistband of the ephod.

28 The rings of the breastplate are to be tied to the rings of the ephod with blue cord, connecting it to the waistband, so that the breastplate will not swing out from the ephod.

29 Whenever Aaron enters the Holy Place, he will bear the names of the sons of Israyl over his heart, on the breastplate of judgment, as a memorial in front of Yahweh continuously.

30 Also put the Urim and Thummim in the breastplate, so they may be over Aaron's heart whenever he enters the presence of Yahweh. Thus Aaron will always bear the means of giving judgment for the children of Israyl over his heart in front of Yahweh continuously.

31 Make the robe of the ephod entirely of blue cloth.

32 With an opening for the head in its center; And there shall be a woven edge like a collar around this opening, so that it will not tear.

33 Make pomegranates of blue, purple, and scarlet yarn around the hem of the robe, with gold bells between them.

34 The gold bells and the pomegranates are to alternate around the hem of the robe.

35 Aaron must wear it when he ministers, so the sound of the bells will be heard when he enters the Holy Place in front of Yahweh, and when he comes out; so that he will not die.

36 Make a plate of pure gold and engrave on it as on a seal: Qodesh la-Yahweh; HOLY TO YAHWEH.

37 Fasten a blue cord to it, to attach it to the turban; mitznepheth.

38 It will be on Aaron's forehead, and he will bear the iniquity of the holy things which the children of Israyl consecrate and hallow, whatever their gifts may be. It shall always be on his forehead, that they may be acceptable in front of Yahweh.

39 Weave the tunic of fine linen, and make the turban; mitznepheth, of fine linen. The sash is to be of woven work.

40 For Aaron's sons; the regular priests, make tunics, sashes, and CAPS; migbaoth, (the Kippah) for glory and for beauty.

41 So you shall put his holy garments on Aaron your brother, and their holy garments on his sons with him. You shall anoint them, consecrate them, and sanctify them, that they may minister to Me as priests.

42 Make them linen undergarments to cover their nakedness, reaching from the waist to the thigh.

43 Aaron and his sons must wear them whenever they enter the Tent of Meeting, or approach the altar to minister in the Holy Place, that they do not incur iniquity, and die. It shall be a statute forever to him and his descendants after him.

CHAP. 29

This is what you are to do to consecrate and hallow them, so they may minister to Me as priests: Take one young bull and two rams without blemish,

2 And unleavened bread, unleavened cakes mixed with oil, and unleavened wafers spread with oil.

3 Put them in one basket, and present them in it, along with the bull and the two rams.

4 Then bring Aaron and his sons to the entrance of the Tent of Meeting, and you shall wash them with water.

5 Take the High Priest's garments and dress Aaron with the tunic, the robe of the ephod, the ephod itself, and the breastplate. Fasten the ephod on him by its skillfully woven waistband.

6 Put the turban; mitznepeth, on his head and attach the holy pure gold diadem, which says: Holy To Yahweh, to the turban.

7 Take the anointing oil, and anoint him by pouring it on his head.

8 Then you shall bring his sons and dress them in the regular priest's garments. Put tunics on them.

9 And put caps; migbaoth, (the Kippah), on Aaron and his sons. Then tie sashes on Aaron and on his sons. The Priesthood shall be theirs for a perpetual statute. In this way you shall ordain and consecrate Aaron and his sons.

10 Bring the bull to the front of the Tabernacle of Meeting, and Aaron and his sons shall put their hands on the head of the bull.

11 Then you shall kill the bull in Yahweh's presence, at the entrance to the Tabernacle of Meeting.

12 You shall take of the blood of the bull, and put it on the horns of the altar with your finger, and pour out the rest of it at the base of the altar.

13 Then take all the fat that covers the entrails, the fatty lobe covering the liver, and both kidneys with the fat around them, and burn them on the altar.

14 But burn the bull's flesh, and its hide, and its offal outside the camp. This is a sin offering.

15 Take one of the rams; and Aaron and his sons shall put their hands on the head of the ram.

16 Then you shall kill the ram; and you shall take its blood and sprinkle it all around on the altar.

17 Then you shall cut the ram in pieces; wash its entrails and its legs, putting them with the head and the other pieces.

18 Then burn the entire ram on the altar. This is a burnt offering to Yahweh, a pleasing aroma, an offering made to Yahweh by fire.

19 Then take the other ram, and Aaron and his sons shall lay their hands on its head.

20 Then you shall kill the ram; and take some of its blood, and put it on the lobes of the right ears of Aaron and on his sons, on the thumbs of their right hands, and on the big toes of their right feet; then sprinkle blood against the altar on all sides.

21 And take some of the blood that is on the altar, and some of the anointing oil, and sprinkle it on Aaron and his High Priest's garments, and on his sons and their regular priest's garments. Then he and his garments and his sons and their garments shall be consecrated and hallowed together.

22 Take from this second ram the fat, the fat tail, the fat covering the entrails, the fat lobe of the liver, both kidneys with the fat around them, and the right thigh. Now this is the ram of consecration.

23 From the basket of unleavened bread, which is before Yahweh, take a loaf of bread, and a cake made with oil, and a wafer.

24 Put all these in the hands of Aaron and his sons, and wave them in front of Yahweh as a wave offering.

25 Then take them from their hands, and burn them on the altar, along with the burnt offering of the first ram for a pleasing aroma to Yahweh, an offering made to Yahweh by fire.

26 Then you shall take the breast of the ram of Aaron's consecration, the second ram, and wave it as a wave offering in front of Yahweh, and it will be your share.

27 And from the ram of the consecration, you shall sanctify and consecrate those parts which belong to Aaron and his sons: the breast that was waved and the thigh that was heaved.

28 This is always to be the regular share from the children of Israyl for Aaron and his sons, by a statute forever. They shall have these contributions which the children of Israyl present to Yahweh from their peace offerings.

29 Aaron's holy garments will belong to his descendants, so they can be anointed and consecrated in them.

30 The son who succeeds him as High Priest, and comes to the Tent of Meeting to minister in the Holy Place, is to wear them seven days.

31 Take the ram of the consecration and boil its meat in a holy place.

32 At the entrance to the Tabernacle of Meeting, Aaron and his sons are to eat the meat of the ram and the unleavened bread that is in the basket.

33 They are to eat these things with which the atonement was made, to consecrate and to sanctify them; but a stranger shall not eat these, because these are holy.

34 If any of the meat of the consecration offerings, or of the unleavened bread, remains until the morning, then you shall burn the remainder with fire. It shall not be then eaten, because it is holy.

35 Do for Aaron and his sons everything I have commanded you, taking seven days to consecrate and ordain them.

36 Sacrifice a bull each day as a sin offering to make atonement. You shall cleanse and purify the altar when you make atonement for it, and you shall anoint it to sanctify and consecrate it.

37 Seven days you shall make atonement for the altar, and sanctify it. And the altar shall be most holy; and whatever touches the altar must be holy.

38 This is what you shall offer on the altar daily; two lambs of the first year, day by day continually; the Tamid:

39 Offer one in the morning and the other between the two evenings.

40 With the first lamb, offer a tenth of an ephah, about two quarts, of fine flour mixed with a fourth of a hin, about one quart, of oil from pressed olives, and a fourth of a hin, about one quart, of wine as a drink offering.

41 Sacrifice the other lamb between the two evenings with the same grain offering and its drink offering as in the morning; a pleasing aroma, an offering made by fire to Yahweh.

42 Throughout your generations to come, this burnt offering is to be made regularly at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting in front of Yahweh, where I will meet with you, to speak with you;

43 There also I will meet with the children of Israyl, and the tabernacle shall be sanctified by My glory.

44 So I will consecrate and sanctify the Tent of Meeting and the altar. I will also sanctify both Aaron and his sons to minister to Me as priests.

45 Then I will dwell among the children of Israyl, and be their Heavenly Father.

46 They will know that I am Yahweh their Heavenly Father Who brought them out of Egypt, that I may dwell among them. I am Yahweh their Heavenly Father.

CHAP. 30

Make an altar to burn incense upon; you shall make it of acacia wood.

2 It is to be square, a cubit long and a cubit wide, and two cubits high, about 1 1/2 feet long and wide and about 3 feet high; and its horns are to be of one piece with it.

3 Overlay the top, and all the sides, and the horns with pure gold, and make a gold molding around it.

4 Make two gold rings for the altar below the molding, two on opposite sides, to hold the poles used to carry it.

5 Make the poles of acacia wood and overlay them with gold.

6 And you shall put the altar of incense in front of the veil that is in front of the ark of the Testimony, which is before the mercy seat that is over the Testimony, where I will meet with you.

7 Aaron must burn fragrant incense on the altar every morning when he tends the lamps.

8 He must burn incense again when he lights the lamps at evening, so incense will burn regularly in front of Yahweh, a perpetual incense in front of Yahweh throughout your generations.

9 Do not offer on this altar any other incense, nor any burnt offering or grain offering, and do not pour a drink offering upon it.

10 Once a year Aaron shall make atonement upon its horns, with the blood of the sin offering of atonement; once a year he shall make atonement upon it throughout your generations. It is most holy to Yahweh.

11 Then Yahweh said to Mosheh;

12 When you take the census of the children of Israyl, to count them, each one must pay Yahweh a ransom for his life at the time he is counted. Then no plague will come on them when you number them.

13 This is what everyone among those who are numbered shall give: half a shekel according to the shekel of the sanctuary, about 1/5 ounce. The half-shekel is an offering to Yahweh.

14 Everyone included among those who are numbered, being twenty years old and above, shall give an offering to Yahweh.

15 The rich shall not give more, and the poor shall not give less, than half a shekel; giving an offering to Yahweh to make atonement for yourselves.

16 And you shall take the atonement money of the children of Israyl, and shall appoint it for the service of the Tabernacle of Meeting, that it may be a memorial for the children of Israyl in front of Yahweh, to make atonement for yourselves.

17 Then Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying;

18 You shall also make a laver of bronze, with its base also of bronze, for washing. Place it between the Tabernacle of Meeting and the altar, and put water in it.

19 Aaron and his sons are to wash their hands and feet with water from it.

20 Whenever they enter the Tent of Meeting, they shall wash with water, so they will not die. Also, when they approach the altar to minister, by presenting an offering made by fire to Yahweh, 21 They shall wash their hands and feet, so they will not die. This is to be a statute forever for Aaron and his descendants throughout their generations.

22 Then Yahweh said to Mosheh;

23 Take the following fine spices: 500 shekels, about 12 1/2 pounds, of liquid myrrh, half as much sweet-smelling cinnamon (250 shekels), 250 shekels of sweet-smelling cane, 24 Five hundred shekels of cassia, all according to the sanctuary shekel, and a hin, about 4 quarts, of olive oil.

25 And you shall make from these a holy anointing oil, an ointment compounded according to the art of the perfumer. It shall be a holy anointing oil.

26 With it you shall anoint the Tent of Meeting and the ark of the Testimony;

27 The table, with all its utensils, the lampstand, with its utensils, the altar of incense;

28 The altar of burnt offering, with all its utensils, and the laver and its base.

29 You shall sanctify them, that they may be most holy; whatever touches them must be holy.

30 And you shall anoint Aaron and his sons, and sanctify and consecrate them, that they may minister to Me as priests.

31 And you shall speak to the children of Israyl, saying: This shall be a holy anointing oil to Me throughout your generations.

32 Do not pour it on men's bodies, and do not make any oil with the same formula. It is holy, and it shall be holy to you.

33 Whoever compounds any like it, or whoever puts any of it on anyone other than a priest, must be cut off from his people.

34 Then Yahweh said to Mosheh: Take sweet spices, gum resin, onycha, and galbanum, and pure frankincense, all in equal amounts,

35 And make a fragrant blend of incense, a compound according to the art of the perfumer. It is to be salted, pure, and holy.

36 Grind some of it to powder, and place it in front of the Testimony in the Tent of Meeting, where I will meet with you. It shall be most holy to you.

37 Do not make any incense with this formula for yourselves. It shall be to you holy for Yahweh.

38 Whoever makes any like it to enjoy its fragrance, he shall be cut off from his people.

CHAP. 31

Then Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying:

2 See, I have chosen Bezaleel son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Yahdah,

3 And I have filled him with the Spirit of Yahweh, with skill, ability, and knowledge in all kinds of crafts:

4 To make artistic designs for work in gold, silver, and bronze;

5 In cutting jewels for setting; to work in carving wood; and to engage in all manner of craftsmanship.

6 Also I have appointed with him Oholiab son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, to help him. Also I have given skill to all the craftsmen to make everything I have commanded you:

7 The Tabernacle of Meeting, the ark of the Testimony and the mercy seat; the atonement cover, that is on it, and all the furniture of the Tabernacle;

8 The table and its utensils, the pure lampstand with all its utensils, the altar of incense,

9 The altar of burnt offering with all its utensils, and the washing laver and its base,

10 The woven garments; the holy garments for Aaron the priest and the garments of his sons, to minister as priests,

11 And the anointing oil and sweet incense for the Holy Place. They are to make them according to all that I have commanded you.

12 And Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying:

13 Speak also to the children of Israyl, saying: Surely My Sabbaths you shall keep, for it is a sign between Me and you throughout your generations, that you may know that I am Yahweh Who sanctifies you, and makes you holy.

14 You shall keep the Sabbath, therefore, for it is holy to you. Everyone who profanes it shall surely be put to death; for whoever does any work on that day, that person shall be cut off from among his people.

15 For six days work shall be done, but the Seventh Day is the Sabbath of rest, holy to Yahweh. Whoever does any work on the Sabbath Day, he shall surely be put to death.

16 Therefore the children of Israyl shall keep the Sabbath, to observe the Sabbath throughout their generations as a perpetual covenant.

17 It is a sign between Me and the children of Israyl forever; for in six days Yahweh made the heavens and the earth, and on the Seventh Day He rested and was refreshed.

18 And when He had made an end of speaking with him on Mount Sinai, He gave Mosheh two tablets of the Testimony, tablets of stone written with the finger of Yahweh.

CHAP. 32

When the people saw Mosheh delayed coming down from the mountain, the people gathered together around Aaron, and said to him: Come, make us a god who will go before us. As for this fellow, Mosheh, who brought us up out of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him.

2 Then Aaron said to them; Break off the golden earrings in the ears of your wives, your sons, and your daughters, and bring them to me.

3 So all the people took off their earrings, and brought them to Aaron.

4 He took what they handed him and made it into an idol cast in the shape of a calf, fashioning it with an engraving tool. Then they said; This is your god, O Israyl, that brought you out of the land of Egypt!

5 When Aaron saw this, he built an altar in front of the calf, and announced; Tomorrow is a feast to Yahweh.

6 So the next day the people rose early, and offered burnt offerings, and brought peace offerings; and the people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play.

7 Then Yahweh said to Mosheh; Go, get down! For your people whom you brought out of the land of Egypt have become corrupt!

8 They have turned aside quickly out of the way which I commanded them. They have made themselves a molded calf, and worshiped it, and sacrificed to it, and said; This is your god, O Israyl, that brought you out of the land of Egypt!

9 And Yahweh said to Mosheh; I have seen this people, and truly it is a very stiffnecked people!

10 Now therefore, let Me alone, that My wrath may burn hot against them, and I may consume them; and I will make of you a great nation.

11 Then Mosheh pleaded with Yahweh his Heavenly Father, and said: Yahweh, why does Your wrath burn hot against Your people, whom You have brought out of the land of Egypt with great power and with a mighty hand?

12 Why should the Egyptians speak, and say; He brought them out with the intent of killing them on the mountains, and of consuming them from the face of the earth? Turn from Your fierce wrath, and relent from this harm to Your people.

13 Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israyl, Your servants, whom You vowed by Your own self, and said to them; I will multiply your descendants as the stars of heaven; and all this land that I have spoken of, I give to your descendants, and they shall inherit it forever.

14 So Yahweh relented from the harm He said He would do to His people.

15 And Mosheh turned, and went down from the mountain, with the two tablets of the Testimony in his hand. The tablets were written on both sides; on one side and the other, they were written.

16 The tablets were the work of Yahweh, and the writing was the writing of Yahweh engraved on the tablets.

17 And when Yahshua ben Nun heard the noise of the people as they shouted, he said to Mosheh; There is a noise of war in the camp.

18 But he said: It is not the voice of shouts of victory, nor the voice of those who cry out in defeat. It is the voice of singing that I hear.

19 As soon as Mosheh came near the camp, he saw the calf and the dancing. So Mosheh's anger became hot, and he threw the tablets out of his hands, and broke them at the foot of the mountain.

20 Then he took the calf they had made, burned it in the fire, and ground it to powder, scattered it on the water, and made the children of Israyl drink it.

21 Mosheh said to Aaron; What did this people do to you, that you have brought this great sin upon them?

22 So Aaron said; Do not be angry. You know the people, how prone they are to evil.

23 They said to me; Make us a god that will go before us. As for this fellow Mosheh, who brought us up out of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him.

24 And I said to them; Whoever has any gold jewelry, take it off. Then they gave me the gold, and I threw it into the fire, and this calf came out!

25 Mosheh saw that the people were unrestrained and that Aaron had let them get out of control, and a laughingstock to their enemies.

26 Then Mosheh stood in the entrance of the camp, and said; Whoever is on Yahweh's side, let him come to me. And all the sons of Levi gathered themselves together to him.

27 And he said to them; This is what Yahweh, the Father of Israyl, says; Let every man put his sword on his side, and go through the camp, from one end to the other, and let every man kill his brother, every man his companion, and every man his neighbor.

28 So the sons of Levi did as Mosheh commanded, and that day about three thousand men of the people died.

29 Then Mosheh said; Consecrate yourselves today to Yahweh, that He may bestow on you a blessing this day; for every man has opposed his son and his brother.

30 The next day Mosheh said to the people; You have sinned a great sin. But now I will go up to Yahweh and it may be that I can make atonement for you.

31 So Mosheh went back to Yahweh, and said; Oh, what a great sin these people have sinned, and have made for themselves a god of gold!

32 Yet now, I pray, forgive their sin; but if not, then blot me out of Your book which You have written.

33 Yahweh replied to Mosheh; Whoever has sinned against Me, I will blot him out of My book.

34 Now go, lead the people to the place I spoke of, and My malak will go in front of you. However, when the time comes for Me to punish, I will bring punishment upon them for sin.

35 And Yahweh struck the people with a plague because of what they did with the calf Aaron had made.

CHAP. 33

Then Yahweh said to Mosheh; Depart, go up from here, you and the people whom you have brought out of the land of Egypt, to the land which I promised to Abraham, Isaac, and Yaaqob, saying; To your descendants I will give it.

2 And I will send a malak in front of you and drive out the Canaanite, the Amorite, the Hittite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Yebusite.

3 Go up to the land flowing with milk and honey; for I will not go up in your midst because you are a stiff-necked people, and I might destroy you on the way.

4 When the people heard these distressing words, they mourned and no one put on his ornament; ady, meaning, fancy head covering.

5 For Yahweh had said to Mosheh; Say to the children of Israyl; You are a stiff-necked people. I could go through your midst in one moment, and consume you. Now therefore, take off your ornaments, your fancy headcoverings, until I may know what to do to you.

6 So the children of Israyl stripped off their ornaments, their fancy headcoverings, by Mount Horeb.

7 Now Mosheh took his tent and pitched it outside the camp, far from the camp, and called it the tent of meeting. Everyone who sought Yahweh went out to the tent of meeting which was outside the camp.

8 Whenever Mosheh went out to the tent, all the people rose and each man stood at his tent door and watched Mosheh until he had gone into the tent.

9 As Mosheh went into the tent, the pillar of cloud would come down and stay at the entrance, while Yahweh spoke with Mosheh.

10 Whenever the people saw the pillar of cloud standing at the entrance to the tent, they all stood and worshiped, each at the entrance to his tent.

11 Yahweh would speak to Mosheh face to face, as a man speaks with his friend. And he would return to the camp, but his servant, Yahshua ben Nun, a young man, did not depart from the tabernacle.

12 Then Mosheh said to Yahweh; You say to me: Lead these people, but You have not let me know whom You will send with me. You have said; I know you by name and you have found honor with Me.

13 Now therefore I pray, if I have found honor in Your sight, show me now Your way, that I may know You, and that I may continue to find honor with You. Remember this nation is Your people.

14 Yahweh replied; My Presence will go with you, and I will give you rest.

15 Then Mosheh said to Him; If your Presence does not go with us, do not send us up from here;

16 How will it be known that You are pleased with me and with Your people, unless You go with us? And what else would separate me and all Your people from all of the other people on the face of the earth?

17 And Yahweh said to Mosheh; Truly, the thing you ask I will do, for you are honored in My eyes, and I know you by name.

18 Then Mosheh said; Show me now Your glory.

19 And Yahweh said; I will make all My righteousness pass in front of you; and I will proclaim My Name, Yahweh, in your presence. I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion.

20 But He said; You cannot see My face; for no man may see Me, and live.

21 Then Yahweh said; There is a place near Me, where you may stand on a rock.

22 While My glory passes by, I will put you in the cleft of the rock, and will cover you with My hand while I pass by.

23 Then I will take away My hand, and you shall see My back; but My face must not be seen.

CHAP. 34

Yahweh said to Mosheh; Chisel two tablets of stone, like the first, and I will write on those tablets the words that were on the first tablets, which you broke.

2 Be ready in the morning, and come up in the morning to Mount Sinai, and present yourself to Me there, on the top of the mountain.

3 No one shall come up with you, and no man is to be seen throughout all the mountain; let neither flocks nor herds feed in front of that mountain.

4 So he cut two tablets of stone like the first. Then Mosheh rose early in the morning and went up Mount Sinai, as Yahweh had commanded him; and he took the two tablets of stone with him.

5 Then Yahweh descended in the cloud, and stood with him there, and proclaimed the Name of Yahweh.

6 Yahweh passed in front of him, and proclaimed; Yahweh, Yahweh Almighty, merciful, and compassionate, long-suffering, and abounding in righteousness and truth,

7 Keeping mercy for thousands, forgiving iniquity, and transgression, and sin; but by no means leaving unpunished those who are guilty; Who punishes the sin of the fathers upon the children and the children's children, to the third and fourth generation.

8 So Mosheh made haste, and bowed his head toward the earth, and worshiped.

9 Then he said; If now I have found honor in Your sight, O Yahweh, let my Heavenly Father go with us, I pray. Although this is a stiff-necked people, forgive our iniquity and our sin, and take us as Your inheritance.

10 And He said: I am making a covenant with you: In front of all your people, I will do marvels such as have not been done in all the earth, nor in any nation; and all the people among whom you are shall see the work of Yahweh. For it is an awesome thing that I will do with you.

11 Observe what I command you this day. I am driving out from in front of you the Amorite, the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Yebusite.

12 Be careful that you make no treaties with the inhabitants of the land where you are going, or they will be a snare in your midst.

13 But you shall destroy their altars, break their sacred pillars, and cut down their sacred poles; Asherah poles.

14 You shall worship no hinder gods at all, for Yahweh, Whose Name is Jealous, is a jealous Father, Who is provoked by any gods.

15 Be careful to make no treaty with those who live in the land; for when they prostitute themselves to their gods and sacrifice to them, they will invite you, and you will eat their sacrifices.

16 And when you take of their daughters for your sons, and their daughters prostitute themselves to their gods, your sons will prostitute themselves with them.

17 You shall make no molded gods for yourselves.

18 The Feast of Unleavened Bread you shall keep. Seven days you must eat unleavened bread, as I commanded you, in the time appointed of the Moon Abib: Green Ears of Barley, for in the Moon of Green Ears of Barley you came out from Egypt.

19 The first offspring of every womb belongs to Me, including the firstborn males of your livestock, whether from herd or flock.

20 But the firstling of a donkey you shall redeem with a lamb. If you will not redeem him, then you shall break his neck. All the firstborn of your sons you shall redeem. And none shall appear in front of Me empty-handed.

21 Six days shall work be done, but on the Seventh Day you shall rest. In plowing time and in harvest you shall rest.

22 You shall observe the Feast of Weeks with the firstfruits of the wheat harvest, and the Feast of Ingathering during the feast circuit; rekufah, at the end of the Sacred Year of Yahweh, in the fall.

23 Three times in the year all your men shall appear in front of Yahweh, the Heavenly Father of Israyl.

24 And I will drive out the nations in front of you and enlarge your borders; no man will covet your land when you go up to appear before Yahweh your Father three times in the year.

25 You shall not offer the blood of My sacrifice with leaven, nor shall the sacrifice of the Passover Feast be left until morning.

26 The first of the firstfruits of your land you shall bring to The House of Yahweh, to your Father. You shall not boil a young goat in its mother's milk.

27 Then Yahweh said to Mosheh; ● Write these words; for in accordance with these words I have made a covenant with you, and with Israyl.

28 So Mosheh was there with Yahweh forty days and forty nights; he neither ate bread nor drank water. And ● Yahweh wrote on the tablets the words of the covenant, the Ten Commandments.

29 When Mosheh came down from Mount Sinai with the two tablets of the Testimony in his hand, Mosheh did not know the skin of his face shone, because he had spoken to Yahweh.

30 When Aaron and all the children of Israyl saw Mosheh, behold, the skin of his face shone, and they were afraid to come near him.

31 Then Mosheh called to them, and Aaron and all the rulers of the congregation returned to him; and Mosheh talked with them.

32 Afterward, all the children of Israyl came near; and he gave them, as commandments, all that Yahweh had spoken with him on Mount Sinai.

33 When Mosheh had finished speaking with them, he put a veil over his face.

34 But whenever Mosheh went in before Yahweh to speak with Him, he removed the veil until he came out. And when he came out, to tell the children of Israyl what Yahweh had commanded.

35 They saw his face shining. Then Mosheh would put the veil back over his face, until he went in to speak with Yahweh.

CHAP. 35

Then Mosheh gathered all the congregation of the children of Israyl together, and said to them; These are the words which Yahweh has commanded you to do:

2 For six days work shall be done, but the Seventh Day shall be a holy day for you, a Sabbath of rest to Yahweh. Whoever does any work on it shall be put to death.

● Vs. 34:27—Mosheh wrote the words, which Yahweh commanded him to write; Exodus 34:10-26. ● Vs. 34:28—Yahweh Himself wrote the words of the Ten Commandments, on the tablets; Mosheh had carved out; Deuteronomy 10:2-4.

3 You shall kindle no fire throughout your habitations on the Sabbath Day.

4 And Mosheh spoke to all the congregation of the children of Israyl, saying: This is what Yahweh has commanded, saying:

5 From what you have, take an offering for Yahweh. Whoever is of a willing heart, is to bring to Yahweh an offering of gold, silver, and bronze:

6 Blue, purple and scarlet yarn, fine linen, and goats' hair;

7 Rams' skins dyed red; goats' skins, and acacia wood;

8 Olive oil for the light; spices for the anointing oil and for the sweet incense;

9 Onyx stones and other gems, to be mounted on the ephod and breastplate.

10 All who are skilled among you, shall come and make everything Yahweh has commanded:

11 The Tabernacle, with its Tent, its covering, its clasps, frames, reinforcement bars, posts, and bases;

12 The ark, with its poles and the mercy seat; the atonement cover, and the Veil that shields it;

13 The table, with its poles and all its articles and the bread of the Presence; the showbread;

14 The lampstand that is for light, with its accessories, lamps, and oil for the light;

15 The altar of incense, with its poles, the anointing oil, and the fragrant incense; the curtain screen for the doorway at the entrance to the tabernacle;

16 The altar of burnt offering, with its bronze grating, its poles and all its utensils; the bronze laver, with its stand;

17 The curtains of the courtyard, with its posts and bases; and the curtain for the entrance to the courtyard;

18 The tent pegs for the tabernacle, and for the courtyard, and their ropes;

19 The woven garments worn for ministering in the sanctuary, both the holy garments for Aaron the High Priest, and the garments for his sons, when they serve as ordinary priests.

20 Then all the congregation of the children of Israyl departed from the presence of Mosheh.

21 Then everyone came whose heart was stirred, everyone whose spirit was willing, and they brought Yahweh's offering for the work of the Tent of Meeting, for all its service, and for the holy garments.

22 They came, both men and women, as many as had a willing heart, bringing earrings, nose rings, rings and necklaces. They all presented their gold as a wave offering to Yahweh.

23 Everyone who had blue, purple, or scarlet yarn, and fine linen, or goats' hair, rams' skins dyed red, or goats' skins, brought them.

24 Those presenting an offering of silver or bronze brought it as an offering to Yahweh, and everyone who had acacia wood for any part of the work, brought it.

25 Every skilled woman spun with her hands, and brought what she had spun: blue, purple, or scarlet yarn, or fine linen.

26 All the women who were willing and had the skill, spun the goats' hair.

27 The rulers brought onyx stones, and the stones to be set in the ephod and in the breastplate,

28 And spices and olive oil for the light, and for the anointing oil, and for the fragrant incense.

29 The children of Israyl brought a free-will offering to Yahweh; all the men and women whose hearts were willing, brought for all the work which Yahweh had commanded to be done by the hand of Mosheh.

30 Then Mosheh said to the children of Israyl; Behold, Yahweh has called by name Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Yahdah;

31 And He has filled him with His Spirit, in wisdom and understanding, in knowledge and in all manner of workmanship.

32 To make artistic designs for work in gold, silver and bronze.

33 To cut and set stones, to work in wood, and to engage in all manner of artistic craftsmanship.

34 And He has given both him and Oholiab son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, the ability to teach others.

35 He has filled them with skill to do all manner of work as craftsmen, designers, tapestry makers in blue, purple, and scarlet yarn and fine linen; and weavers, all of them leading craftsmen and designers.

CHAP. 36

So Bezaleel, Oholiab, and every skilled person to whom Yahweh has given skill and ability, to know how to carry out all the work of constructing the sanctuary, are to do the work; just as Yahweh has commanded.

2 Then Mosheh summoned Bezaleel, and Oholiab, and every skilled person to whom Yahweh had given ability, and who was willing to come and do the work.

3 They received from Mosheh all the offerings the children of Israyl had brought for the work of the service of making the sanctuary. So they continued bringing to him freewill offerings every morning.

4 Then all the craftsmen who were doing all the work of the sanctuary came, each from the work he was doing.

5 And they spoke to Mosheh saying, The people bring much more than enough for the service of the work Yahweh commanded to be done.

6 Then Mosheh gave an order, and they caused it to be proclaimed throughout the camp: No man or woman is to make anything else as an offering for the sanctuary. And so the people were restrained from bringing:

7 For the material they already had, was more than enough to do all the work.

8 All the skilled men among the workmen made the tabernacle with ten curtains of finely twisted linen, and blue, purple, and scarlet yarn, with cherubim worked into them by a skilled craftsman.

9 All the curtains were the same size: twenty-eight cubits long and four cubits wide; about 42 feet long and 6 feet wide.

10 They joined five of the curtains together, and did the same with the other five.

11 Then they made loops of blue material along the edge of the end curtain in one set, and the same was done with the end curtain in the other set.

12 They also made fifty loops on one curtain, and fifty loops on the end curtain of the other set, with the loops opposite each other.

13 Then they made fifty gold clasps, and used them to fasten the two sets of curtains together; so that the tabernacle was one unit.

14 They made curtains of goats' hair for the tent over the tabernacle; he made eleven curtains.

15 All eleven curtains were the same size: thirty cubits long and four cubits wide; about 45 feet long and 6 feet wide.

16 They joined five of the curtains into one set, and the other six into another set.

17 Then they made fifty loops along the edge of the end curtain in one set, and also along the edge of the end curtain in the other set.

18 They made fifty bronze clasps to fasten the tent together, as a unit.

19 Then they made for the tent a covering of rams' skins dyed red, and over that a covering of goats' skins.

20 They made upright frames of acacia wood for the tabernacle:

21 Each frame was ten cubits long and a cubit and a half wide; about 15 feet long and 2 1/4 feet wide.

22 With two projections set parallel to each other. They made all the frames of the tabernacle in this way.

23 They made twenty frames for the south side of the tabernacle.

24 And made forty silver bases to go under them: two bases for each frame, one under each projection.

25 For the other side, the north side of the tabernacle, they made twenty frames.

26 And forty silver bases, two under each frame.

27 They made six frames for the far end, that is, the west end of the tabernacle.

28 And two frames were made for the corners of the tabernacle at the far end.

29 At these two corners the frames were double from the bottom all the way to the top, and fitted into a single ring; both were made alike:

30 So there were eight frames and sixteen silver bases, two under each frame.

31 They also made bars of acacia wood: five for the frames on one side of the tabernacle.

32 Five for those on the other side, and five for the frames on the west, at the far end of the tabernacle.

33 They made the center bar, so that it extended from end to end at the middle of the frames.

34 They overlaid the frames and bars with gold, and made their gold rings as places for the bars.

35 They made the Veil of blue, purple, and scarlet yarn and finely twisted linen, with cherubim worked into it by a skilled craftsman.

36 They made four posts of acacia wood for it, and overlaid them with gold. They made gold hooks for them, and cast their four silver bases.

37 For the entrance to the tent, they made a curtain screen of blue, purple, and scarlet yarn and finely twisted linen, the work of a weaver;

38 And they made five posts with hooks for them. They overlaid the tops of the posts and their bands with gold, and made their five bases of bronze.

CHAP. 37

And Bezaleel made the ark of acacia wood, two and a half cubits long, and a cubit and a half wide, and a cubit and a half high; that is, about 3 3/4 feet long and 2 1/4 feet wide and high.

2 He overlaid it with pure gold, both inside and out, and made a gold molding around it.

3 He cast four gold rings for it, and fastened them to its four feet, with two rings on one side and two rings on the other.

4 Then he made poles of acacia wood, and overlaid them with gold.

5 And he inserted the poles into the rings on the sides of the ark to carry it.

6 He made the mercy seat; the atonement cover, of pure gold, two and a half cubits long and a cubit and a half wide; about 3 3/4 feet long and 2 1/4 feet wide.

7 Then he made two cherubim, out of hammered gold, at the ends of the cover.

8 He made one cherub on one end, and the second cherub on the other; at the two ends he made them of one piece with the cover.

9 The cherubim had their wings spread upward, overshadowing the cover with them. The cherubim faced each other, looking toward the cover.

10 He made the table of acacia wood, two cubits long, a cubit wide, and a cubit and a half high; about 3 feet long, 1 1/2 feet wide, and 2 1/4 feet high.

11 Then he overlaid it with pure gold, and made a molding of gold all around it.

12 He also made a rim around it a handbreadth wide, and put a gold molding on the rim.

13 He cast four gold rings for the table and fastened them to the four corners, where the four legs were.

14 The rings were put close to the rim to hold the poles used in carrying the table.

15 The poles for carrying the table were made of acacia wood, and were overlaid with gold.

16 He made the utensils of pure gold, which were for the table: plates, ladles, bowls, and the pitchers for the pouring out of the drink offerings.

17 He also made the lampstand of pure gold, hammering it out. He hammered out its base and shaft; and its flowerlike cups, buds and blossoms were of one piece with it.

18 Six branches extended from the sides of the lampstand: three on one side and three on the other.

19 Three cups, shaped like almond flowers, with buds and blossoms, were on one branch, three on the next branch, and the same for all six branches extending from the lampstand.

20 And on the lampstand were four cups, shaped like almond flowers, with buds and blossoms.

21 One bud was under the first pair of branches extending from the lampstand; a second bud under the second pair; and a third bud under the third pair: for the six branches in all.

22 The buds and the branches were all of one piece with the lampstand, hammered out of pure gold.

23 He made its seven lamps, its wick trimmers, and its trays of pure gold.

24 He made the lampstand and all its accessories from one talent, that is, about 75 pounds, of pure gold.

25 He made the incense altar out of acacia wood: It was square, a cubit long, a cubit wide, and two cubits high, about 1 1/2 feet long and wide, and about 3 feet high. Its horns were made of one piece with it.

26 He overlaid it with pure gold; the top, and all the sides, and the horns were overlaid with pure gold; and he also made a gold molding around it.

27 He made two rings of gold for it, below the molding: two on opposite sides, to hold the poles used to carry it.

28 He made the poles of acacia wood, and overlaid them with gold.

29 He also made the holy anointing oil, and the pure incense of sweet spices, according to the art of the perfumer.

CHAP. 38

He built the altar of burnt offering of acacia wood, three cubits high; about 4 1/2 feet high. It was square: five cubits long and five cubits wide; about 7 1/2 feet long and wide.

2 He made its horns on its four corners, so the horns and the altar were all of one piece. He overlaid the altar with bronze.

3 He made all its utensils of bronze: its pots, shovels, sprinkling bowls, meat forks, and firepans.

4 He made a grating for the altar: a bronze network, to be under its ledge, coming halfway up the altar.

5 He cast four rings, to hold the poles for the four corners of the bronze grating.

6 He made the poles of acacia wood, and overlaid them with bronze.

7 He inserted the poles into the rings, so they would be on the sides of the altar for carrying it. He made the altar hollow, with boards.

8 He made the laver for washing, of bronze and its base of bronze. The laver and base were made from the mirrors of the women who served at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

9 Then he made the courtyard: The south side was a hundred cubits long; about 150 feet long, and had curtains of finely twisted linen.

10 With twenty posts and twenty bronze bases, and with silver hooks and bands on the posts.

11 The north side was also a hundred cubits long; about 150 feet long, and had twenty posts and twenty bronze bases, with silver hooks and bands on the posts.

12 The west end was fifty cubits wide; about 75 feet wide, and had curtains, with ten posts and ten bases, with silver hooks and bands on the posts.

13 The east end, toward the sunrise, was also fifty cubits wide; about 75 feet wide.

14 Curtains fifteen cubits long; about 22 1/2 feet long, were on one side of the east entrance, with three posts and three bases.

15 And curtains fifteen cubits long; about 22 1/2 feet long, were on the other side of the east entrance to the courtyard, with three posts and three bases.

16 All the curtains around the courtyard were of finely twisted linen.

17 The bases for the posts were of bronze; the hooks and the bands on the posts were of silver, and their tops were overlaid with silver. So all the posts of the courtyard had silver bands.

18 The curtain screen for the entrance to the courtyard was of blue, purple, and scarlet yarn, and finely twisted linen; the work of a weaver. It was twenty cubits long; about 30 feet long. The height of the curtain screen was the same as the other curtains for the courtyard: five cubits high; about 7 1/2 feet high.

19 The curtain screen had four posts and four bronze bases. Their hooks and bands were silver, and their tops were overlaid with silver.

20 All the tent pegs of the Tabernacle itself, and of the surrounding courtyard, were bronze.

21 This is the inventory of the materials used for the tabernacle, the tabernacle of the Testimony, which was recorded at Mosheh's command by the Levites, under the direction of Ithamar son of Aaron, the priest.

22 Now Bezaleel son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Yahdah, made everything Yahweh commanded Mosheh.

23 And with him was Oholiab son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, a craftsman and designer, and a weaver in blue, purple, and scarlet yarn and fine linen.

24 The total amount of the gold from the wave offerings used for all the work on the tabernacle was 29 talents and 730 shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary. The weight of the gold was a little over one ton, over 2,000 pounds.

25 The silver obtained from those of the community, who were counted in the census, was 100 talents and 1,775 shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary. The weight of the silver was a little over 3 3/4 tons; over 7,500 pounds of silver.

26 The atonement offering was a bekah for each man, that is half a shekel, according to the shekel of the sanctuary; about 1/5 ounce, for everyone included in the numbering of those counted, twenty years old or more; a total of 603,550 men.

27 From the 100 talents of silver were cast the bases for the sanctuary, and the bases for the Veil; 100 bases for the 100 talents, one talent for each base.

28 Then from the 1,775 remaining shekels of silver, that is, about 45 pounds, he made the hooks for the posts; he overlaid the tops of the posts, and he made their bands.

29 The bronze from the wave offering was 70 talents and 2,400 shekels; about 2 1/2 tons; about 5,000 pounds.

30 He used the bronze to make the bases for the entrance to the Tent of Meeting, the bronze altar with its bronze grating, and all its utensils;

31 The bases for the surrounding courtyard, and those for its entrance, and all the tent pegs for the tabernacle, and those for the surrounding courtyard.

CHAP. 39

From the blue, purple, and scarlet yarn they made woven garments for ministering in the Holy Place, and made the holy garments for Aaron, as Yahweh commanded Mosheh.

2 He made the ephod of gold, and of blue, purple, and scarlet yarn, and of finely twisted linen.

3 The gold was hammered into thin sheets and cut into threads, to work it in with the blue, purple, and scarlet yarn, and fine linen; the work of a skilled craftsman.

4 They made shoulder pieces for the ephod, which were attached to two of its corners, so it could be fastened.

5 The skillfully woven waistband of the ephod was of the same workmanship: woven of gold, and of blue, purple, and scarlet yarn, and of finely twisted linen, as Yahweh had commanded Mosheh.

6 They set the onyx stones in gold settings, and engraved them, as seals are engraved, with the names of the sons of Israyl.

7 Then he put them on the shoulder pieces of the High Priest's ephod, as memorial stones for the sons of Israyl, as Yahweh had commanded Mosheh.

8 And he made the breastplate, the work of a skilled craftsman. It was woven like the workmanship of the ephod: of gold, and of blue, purple, and scarlet yarn, and of finely twisted linen.

9 It was square, a span long and a span wide, that is, about 9 inches square, and folded double.

10 In the breastplate they set four rows of precious stones. In the first row there was a ruby, a topaz, and a beryl;

11 In the second row a turquoise, a sapphire; lapis lazuli, and an emerald;

12 In the third row a jacinth, an agate, and an amethyst;

13 In the fourth row a chrysolite, an onyx and a jasper. They were mounted in gold settings.

14 There were twelve stones, one for each of the names of the sons of Israyl; each engraved like a seal with the name of one of the twelve tribes.

15 For the breastplate they made braided chains of pure gold, like a rope.

16 They made two gold settings, and two gold rings, and fastened the rings to two of the corners of the breastplate.

17 They fastened the two gold chains to the rings at the corners of the breastplate, 18 And the other ends of the chains were fastened to the two settings, attaching them to the shoulder pieces of the ephod at the front.

19 And they made two gold rings, and attached them to the other two corners of the breastplate, on the inside edge next to the ephod.

20 Then they made two more gold rings, and attached them to the bottom of the shoulder pieces of the front of the ephod, close to the seam just above the waistband of the ephod.

21 They tied the rings of the breastplate to the rings of the ephod with blue cord, connecting it to the waistband, so that the breastplate would not swing out from the ephod, as Yahweh had commanded Mosheh.

22 He made the robe of the ephod entirely of blue, woven by a weaver.

23 With an opening in the center of the robe, like the opening of a collar, and a band around this opening so it would not tear.

24 They made pomegranates of blue, purple, and scarlet yarn, and of finely twisted linen around the hem of the robe.

25 And they made bells of pure gold, and attached them around the hem, between the pomegranates:

26 A bell and a pomegranate, a bell and a pomegranate, all around the hem of the robe to be worn for ministering, as Yahweh had commanded Mosheh.

27 For Aaron and his sons, they made: tunics of fine linen, woven by a weaver;

28 And a turban; mitznepheth, of fine linen, and the caps; migbaoth, (the Kippah) of fine linen, and the undergarments of finely twisted linen;

29 And the sashes, of finely twisted linen and of blue, purple, and scarlet yarn; the work of a weaver, as Yahweh commanded Mosheh.

30 Then they made the plate, the holy diadem; the crown, out of pure gold, and engraved on it, like an inscription on a seal: Qodesh la-Yahweh: HOLY TO YAHWEH.

31 They fastened a blue cord to it, to attach it to the High Priest's turban; mitznepheth, as Yahweh had commanded Mosheh.

32 Thus all the work on the tabernacle of the Tent of Meeting was finished. The children of Israyl did everything according to all that Yahweh had commanded Mosheh. So they did.

33 Then they brought the tabernacle to Mosheh: the tent and all its furnishings: its clasps, frames, bars, posts, and bases;

34 The covering of rams' skins dyed red, the covering of goats' skins, and the Veil of the Covering;

35 The ark of the Testimony with its poles, and the mercy seat; the atonement cover;

36 The table with all its utensils, and the bread of the Presence; the showbread;

37 The pure gold lampstand with its row of lamps, and all its accessories; and the pressed olive oil for the light;

38 The gold altar, the anointing oil, the sweet incense, and the curtain screen for the entrance to the tent;

39 The bronze altar with its bronze grating, its poles and all its utensils; the laver for washing, and its stand;

40 The curtains of the courtyard; all the furnishings for the tabernacle: the Tent of Meeting;

41 And the woven garments worn for ministering in the Holy Place, both the holy garments for Aaron the High Priest, and the garments for his sons, when they serve as ordinary priests.

42 According to all Yahweh had commanded Mosheh, the children of Israyl had done all the work.

43 Then Mosheh looked over all the work, and truly they had done it; as Yahweh had commanded, in this way they had done it. And Mosheh blessed them.

CHAP. 40

Then Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying:

2 On the First Day of the First Moon, you shall set up the tabernacle of the Tent of Meeting.

3 You shall put in it the ark of the Testimony, and partition off the ark with the Veil.

4 Bring in the table, and set out the things that are to be set in order on it. Then bring in the lampstand, and set up its lamps.

5 Then place the gold altar of incense in front of the ark of the Testimony, and put up the curtain screen to the entrance of the Tent of Meeting.

6 Then place the altar of burnt-offering in front of the entrance to the tabernacle of the Tent of Meeting.

7 Place the laver for washing between the Tabernacle of Meeting and the altar of burnt-offering, and put water in it.

8 Set up the courtyard all around, and put up the entrance screen at the courtyard entrance.

9 Then take the anointing oil, and anoint the Tabernacle and all that is in it; and you shall consecrate and hallow it and all its utensils, and it shall be holy.

10 Then anoint the altar of burnt offering, and all its utensils. Consecrate and sanctify the altar; and the altar shall be most holy.

11 Anoint the laver for washing, and its stand, and consecrate and sanctify it.

12 Then you shall bring Aaron and his sons to the entrance of the Tent of Meeting, and wash them with water from the consecrated laver.

13 Then you shall put the holy garments on Aaron; and anoint and consecrate him, so he may minister to Me as High Priest.

14 Bring his sons, and dress them in the tunics;

15 Anoint them just as you anointed their father, so they may minister to Me as ordinary priests. Their anointing shall surely be an everlasting priesthood throughout their generations.

16 Thus Mosheh did. According to all that Yahweh had commanded him, so he did.

17 In the First Moon in the Second Year, on the First Day of the Moon, the Tabernacle was raised up.

18 So Mosheh raised up the Tabernacle, by putting the bases in place, erecting the frames, inserting the bars, and setting up the posts.

19 He spread the tent over the Tabernacle, and put the covering of the tent on top of it, as Yahweh had commanded Mosheh.

20 He took the Testimony, and put it into the ark, inserted the poles through the rings of the ark, and put the mercy seat; the atonement cover, on top of the ark.

21 He brought the ark into the Tabernacle, hung up the Veil of the Covering, and partitioned off the ark of the Testimony in the Holy of Holies, as Yahweh had commanded Mosheh on the mountain.

22 He put the table in the Tabernacle of Meeting, in the Holy Place, on the north side of the Holy Place, on the outside of the Veil.

23 He set the bread of the Presence in order upon the table in front of Yahweh, as Yahweh had commanded Mosheh.

24 He put the lampstand in the Tabernacle of Meeting, in the Holy Place, across from the table, on the south side of the Tabernacle;

25 He set up the lamps in front of Yahweh, as Yahweh had commanded Mosheh.

26 He put the gold altar of incense in the Tabernacle of Meeting, in the Holy Place, directly in front of the Veil;

27 And he burned sweet incense on it, as Yahweh had commanded Mosheh.

28 He hung up the curtain screen at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting; at the entrance to the Holy Place.

29 He put the altar of burnt offering in front of the entrance to the Tent of Meeting, in the courtyard, and offered upon it the burnt offering and the grain offering, as Yahweh had commanded Mosheh.

30 He set up the laver between the Tent of Meeting and the altar in the courtyard, and put water in it there for washing;

31 And Mosheh, Aaron, and his sons washed their hands and their feet from it.

32 When they went into the Tent of Meeting, and when they came near the altar, they washed, as Yahweh had commanded Mosheh.

33 And Mosheh raised up the courtyard all around the Tabernacle and the altar, and hung up the curtain screen of the courtyard gate. So Mosheh finished the work.

34 Then the cloud covered the Tent of Meeting, and the glory of Yahweh filled the Tabernacle.

35 And Mosheh was not able to enter the Tent of Meeting because the cloud rested above it, and the glory of Yahweh filled the Tabernacle.

36 When the cloud was lifted up from above the Tabernacle, the children of Israyl went onward in all their journeys.

37 But if the cloud was not lifted up, then they did not travel until the day it was lifted up.

38 So the cloud of Yahweh was above the Tabernacle by day, and fire was in the cloud over the Tabernacle by night, in the sight of all the house of Israyl throughout all their journeys.

LEVITICUS

Torath Kohanim: The Law of The Priests

WAYYIKRA And He Called

And He called to Mosheh, and Yahweh spoke to him from the Tent of Meeting, saying:

2 Speak to the children of Israyl, and say to them: When any one of you brings an offering to Yahweh, you shall bring your offering from your animals: from your herds or from your flocks.

3 If his offering is a BURNT OFFERING from the herd, let him offer a male without blemish. He shall offer it of his own free will, at the door of the Tent of Meeting in front of Yahweh.

4 He shall put his hand on the head of his burnt offering, and it will be accepted on his behalf, to make atonement for him.

5 He shall kill the bull in front of Yahweh; and the priests, the sons of Aaron, shall bring the blood, and sprinkle the blood all around on the altar at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting:

6 He shall skin the burnt offering, and cut it into its pieces.

7 The sons of Aaron, the priests, shall put fire on the altar, laying the wood in order on the fire.

8 Then the priests, Aaron's sons, shall arrange the pieces, including the head and the fat, in order on the wood which is on the fire on the altar;

9 But first he shall wash its entrails and its legs with water, then the priest shall burn all on the altar, as a burnt offering; an offering made by fire, a sweet aroma to Yahweh.

10 If, however, his offering is of the flocks: from the sheep or from the goats, as a burnt offering, he shall bring a male without blemish;

11 He shall kill it on the north side of the altar in front of Yahweh; and the priests, Aaron's sons, shall sprinkle its blood all around on the altar.

12 And he shall cut it into its pieces, including its head and its fat; and the priest shall lay the pieces in order, on the wood which is on the fire upon the altar;

13 But first he shall wash the entrails and the legs with water, then the priest shall bring all of it, and burn it upon the altar. It is a burnt offering, an offering made by fire, a sweet aroma to Yahweh.

14 If, however, his burnt offering to Yahweh is from the birds: then he shall bring his offering from the turtledoves or from the pigeons.

15 The priest shall bring it to the altar, wring off its head, and burn it upon the altar; its blood shall be drained out at the side of the altar.

16 Before the bird is burned, the priest shall remove its crop and its feathers, and throw them beside the altar on the east side, into the place for ashes.

17 Then he shall split it at its wings, not dividing it completely, and the priest shall then burn it on the altar, on the wood arranged on the fire. It is a burnt offering, an offering made by fire, a sweet aroma to Yahweh.

CHAP. 2

When anyone offers a GRAIN OFFERING to Yahweh, his offering shall be of fine flour. He shall pour oil on it, and put frankincense on it.

2 He shall bring it to the sons of Aaron, the priests. A priest shall take from it a handful of fine flour, the oil, and all the frankincense, and the priest shall burn it as a memorial portion on the altar; an offering made by fire, a sweet aroma to Yahweh.

3 The remaining portion of the grain offering shall be Aaron's and his sons'. It is a most holy offering to Yahweh made by fire.

4 If you bring as an offering a grain offering baked in the oven, it shall be unleavened cakes of fine flour mixed with oil, or unleavened wafers anointed with oil.

5 If your offering is a grain offering prepared on a griddle, it shall be of fine flour, unleavened and mixed with oil.

6 Break this into pieces, and pour oil on it; it is a grain offering.

7 If your offering is a grain offering cooked in a pan, it shall be make of fine flour with oil.

8 Bring the grain offering made of these things to Yahweh. Present this to the priest, and he shall bring it to the altar.

9 Then the priest shall take from the grain offering a memorial portion, to burn it on the altar; an offering made by fire, a pleasing aroma to Yahweh.

10 What remains of the grain offering is Aaron's and his sons'. It is a most holy offering to Yahweh made by fire.

11 No grain offering you bring to Yahweh shall be made with leaven: for you shall burn no leaven, nor any honey, in any offering to Yahweh made by fire.

12 Offerings of the firstfruits with leaven you may bring to Yahweh, but they shall not be burned on the altar for a pleasing aroma.

13 Every offering of your grain offerings you shall season with salt; you shall not allow the salt of the covenant of Yahweh to be lacking from your grain offering. With all your offerings, you shall offer salt.

14 If you offer a grain offering of your firstfruits to Yahweh, you shall offer crushed heads of new grain, roasted in the fire.

15 Put oil on it and lay frankincense on it. It is a grain offering.

16 Then the priest shall burn the memorial portion: a handful of the crushed grain, its oil, with all the frankincense, as an offering made by fire to Yahweh.

CHAP. 3

When an offering is a PEACE OFFERING, it shall be brought from the herd, either a male or a female. It shall be without blemish in front of Yahweh.

2 The offerer shall lay his hand on the head of his offering, and kill it at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting; and Aaron's sons, the priests, shall sprinkle the blood all around on the altar.

3 Then he shall offer from that sacrifice of peace offering, an offering of it made by fire to Yahweh: the fat that covers the entrails, and all the fat on the entrails,

4 The two kidneys, and the fat around them near the loins, and the fatty lobe attached to the liver above the kidneys. These portions he shall remove;

5 Then Aaron's sons shall burn these on the altar, on top of the burnt offering that is on the burning wood; an offering made by fire, an aroma pleasing to Yahweh.

6 If he offers an animal from the flock as a sacrifice of peace offering to Yahweh, he is to offer either a male or a female, without blemish.

7 If he offers a lamb as his peace offering, then he shall offer it in front of Yahweh.

8 He shall lay his hand on the head of his peace offering, and kill it in front of the Tent of Meeting; then Aaron's sons shall sprinkle its blood all around on the altar.

9 And he shall offer from that sacrifice of the peace offering, an offering of it made by fire to Yahweh: its fat and the whole fat tail shall be removed close to the backbone, the fat that covers the entrails, and all the fat on the entrails,

10 The two kidneys, and the fat on them near the loins, and the fatty lobe attached to the liver above the kidneys, he shall remove these;

11 And the priest shall burn these on the altar as food; an offering made by fire to Yahweh.

12 If his peace offering is a goat, then he shall offer it in front of Yahweh.

13 He shall lay his hand on its head, and kill it in front of the Tent of Meeting, and the sons of Aaron shall sprinkle its blood all around on the altar.

14 Then he shall offer from it these parts as an offering made by fire to Yahweh: the fat that covers the entrails, and all the fat on the entrails,

15 The two kidneys, and the fat on them near the loins, and the fatty lobe attached to the liver above the kidneys. These he shall remove.

16 Then the priest shall burn these on the altar as food; an offering made by fire for a pleasing aroma. All of this fat belongs to Yahweh.

17 This is a perpetual statute throughout your generations in all your dwellings: You shall not eat any of this fat, nor blood.

CHAP. 4

And Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying:

2 Speak to the children of Israyl, saying: If a person ignorantly, unintentionally, sins against any of the commandments of Yahweh, which must not be done; but he does what is forbidden by them, these are My instructions:

3 If the anointed priest sins, bringing guilt on the people, then let him offer to Yahweh a young bull without blemish as a SIN OFFERING for the sins he has sinned.

4 He shall bring the bull to the entrance of the Tent of Meeting in front of Yahweh. He shall lay his hand on the bull's head, and kill the bull in front of Yahweh.

5 Then the anointed priest shall take some of the bull's blood, and bring it into the Tent of Meeting.

6 The priest shall dip his finger in the blood, and sprinkle some of the blood seven times in front of Yahweh; in front of the Veil of the Holy Place.

7 The priest shall put some of the blood on the horns of the altar of incense in front of Yahweh, which is in the Tent of Meeting. He shall then pour the remaining blood of the bull at the base of the altar of burnt offering which is at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting, in the courtyard.

8 He shall remove from it all the fat of the bull as the sin offering; the fat that covers the entrails, and all the fat on the entrails.

9 The two kidneys, and the fat on them near the loins, and the fatty lobe attached to the liver above the kidneys. These he shall remove.

10 These he shall remove, just as they were removed from the bull or cow of the peace offering; and the priest shall burn these on the altar of burnt offering.

11 But the bull's hide, and all its flesh, with its head and legs, its entrails and offal—

12 The whole bull, he shall carry outside the camp, to the clean place where the ashes are poured out, and burn it on wood with fire. Where the ashes are poured out, it shall be burned.

13 Now if the whole congregation of Israyl sins ignorantly, and does what is forbidden in any of Yahweh's commandments; though the congregation is unaware of this sin: they are still guilty.

14 When the sin they have sinned becomes known, then the congregation shall offer a young bull for the sin, bringing it in front of the Tent of Meeting.

15 The elders of the congregation shall lay their hands on the head of the bull, in front of Yahweh. Then the bull shall be killed in front of Yahweh.

16 The anointed priest shall bring some of the bull's blood into the Tent of Meeting;

17 Then the priest shall dip his finger into the blood, and sprinkle it seven times in front of Yahweh, in front of the Veil.

18 And he shall put some of the blood on the horns of the incense altar in front of Yahweh, which is in the Tent of Meeting. He shall pour the remaining blood at the base of the altar of burnt offering, which is at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting, in the courtyard.

19 He shall take all the designated fat from it, and burn it on the altar.

20 He shall do with this bull, as he does with the bull of a sin offering; so he shall do with it. And the priest shall make atonement for the whole congregation, and it shall be forgiven them.

21 Then he shall carry the bull outside the camp, and burn it as he burned the first bull. It is a sin offering for the congregation.

22 When a ruler sins ignorantly, and does what is forbidden in any of the commandments of Yahweh our Father: he is guilty.

23 When he is made aware of the sin he has sinned, he shall bring as his sin offering a male of the goats; a male goat without blemish.

24 He shall lay his hand on the head of the goat, and kill it at the place they kill the burnt offering, in front of Yahweh; it is a sin offering.

25 The priest shall take some of the blood of the sin offering with his finger, put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and pour its blood at the base of the altar of burnt offering.

26 He shall burn all its designated fat on the altar, like the fat of the peace offerings. So the priest shall make atonement for the ruler concerning his sin, and it shall be forgiven him.

27 If any other member of the congregation sins ignorantly, and does what is forbidden in any of Yahweh's commandments: he is still guilty.

28 When he is made aware of the sin he has sinned, then he shall bring as his sin offering a female goat without blemish.

29 He shall lay his hand on the head of his sin offering, and kill the sin offering at the place of the burnt offering.

30 Then the priest shall take some of its blood with his finger, and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering, pouring its remaining blood at the base of the altar.

31 He shall remove all its designated fat, as fat is removed from the peace offerings; and the priest shall burn it on the altar for a pleasing aroma to Yahweh. So the priest shall make atonement for him, and it shall be forgiven him.

32 If he brings a lamb as his sin offering, he shall bring a female without blemish.

33 Then he shall lay his hand on the head of his sin offering, and kill it as a sin offering at the place they kill the burnt offering.

34 The priest shall take some of the blood of his sin offering with his finger, and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering, pouring its remaining blood at the base of the altar.

35 He shall remove all its designated fat; as the fat of the lamb is removed in the same way as the sacrifices of the peace offerings. Then the priest shall burn it on the altar, on top of the offerings made to Yahweh by fire. So the priest shall make atonement for his sin that he has committed, and it shall be forgiven him.

CHAP. 5

If a person sins because he does not speak up when he hears a public charge, to testify regarding something he has seen, or knows about: he will be held responsible;

2 Or if a person touches any unclean thing, whether the carcass of an unclean beast, or the carcass of unclean livestock, or the carcass of an unclean creeping thing; even though he is unaware of it: he has become unclean, and is guilty;

3 Or if he touches human uncleanness, anything that would make a man defiled; even though he is unaware of it, when he learns of it:

he will be guilty:

4 Or if a person vows an oath, speaking thoughtlessly by his mouth, to do evil or to do well, whatever that a man may pronounce by an oath, even though he is unaware of it, when he learns of it: he will be guilty.

5 When anyone is guilty in any of these matters, he shall confess he has sinned in that thing.

6 And he shall bring his TRESPASS OFFERING to Yahweh for his sin which he has sinned: a female from the flock: a lamb or a goat, as a sin offering. So the priest shall make atonement for him concerning his sin.

7 If he is not able to bring a lamb, then he shall bring to Yahweh two turtledoves or two pigeons for his trespass he has committed: one as a sin offering, and the other as a burnt offering.

8 And he shall bring them to the priest, who shall offer that which is for the sin offering first, and wring off its head from its neck, but shall not divide it completely.

9 Then he shall sprinkle some of the blood of the sin offering on the side of the altar, and the rest of the blood shall be drained out at the base of the altar. It is a sin offering.

10 And he shall offer the second as a burnt offering in the prescribed manner. So the priest shall make atonement on his behalf, for his sin which he has sinned; and it shall be forgiven him.

11 But if he is not able to bring two turtledoves or two young pigeons, then he who sinned shall bring for his trespass offering one-tenth of an ephah of fine flour; probably about 2 quarts, as a sin offering. He shall put no oil on it, nor shall he put frankincense on it, for it is a sin offering.

12 Then he shall bring it to the priest, and the priest shall take his handful of it as a memorial portion, and burn this handful on the altar according to the offerings made by fire to Yahweh. It is a sin offering.

13 The priest shall make atonement for him, for his sin that he has sinned in any of these matters; and this shall be forgiven him. The remaining portion of this flour shall be the priest's, as a grain offering.

14 And Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying:

15 If a person commits a trespass, and sins ignorantly in regard to any of Yahweh's holy things, then he shall bring to Yahweh, as his trespass offering, a ram without blemish from the flocks, along with the proper value in silver of the trespass, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, as a trespass offering.

16 And he shall make restitution for the harm he has done in regard to the holy thing, and shall add one-fifth of its value, and give it to the priest; and the priest shall make atonement for him with the ram of the trespass offering:

and it shall be forgiven him.

17 If anyone sins, and commits any of these things which are forbidden to be done by the commandments of Yahweh, though he does not know it, yet he is guilty, and shall bear his iniquity.

18 And he shall bring to the priest a ram without blemish from the flock, with your estimated valuation, as a trespass offering. So the priest shall make atonement for him regarding his ignorance, erring and not knowing it: and it shall be forgiven him.

19 It is a trespass offering; he has certainly trespassed against Yahweh.

CHAP. 6

And Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying:

2 If a person sins and commits a trespass against Yahweh, by lying to his brother about what was delivered to him for safekeeping, or about a pledge, or about a robbery, or if he has deceived and extorted from his brother,

3 Or if he has found what was lost and lies concerning it, or vows falsely; in any one of these things a man may do: sinning;

4 Then it shall be, because he has sinned and is guilty, that he shall restore what he has stolen; or the thing which he has deceitfully obtained, or what was delivered to him for safekeeping, or the lost thing which he found:

5 For all he has vowed falsely about, he shall restore its full value, adding one-fifth more to it, and giving it to whomever it belongs on the day of his trespass offering.

6 Then he shall bring his trespass offering to Yahweh: a ram without blemish from the flock, along with your valuation, as a trespass offering, to the priest.

7 So the priest shall make atonement for him in front of Yahweh, and he shall be forgiven for any one of these things he may have done in trespass.

8 Then Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying:

9 Command Aaron and his sons, saying: This is the law of the BURNT OFFERING: The burnt offering shall be on the altar hearth all night until morning, and the fire of the altar shall be kept burning on it.

10 And the priest shall put on his linen garment, and his linen undergarments, and take up the ashes of the burnt offering the fire has consumed on the altar, putting them beside the altar.

11 Then he shall take off his garments, putting on other garments, and carry the ashes outside the camp, to the clean place.

12 The fire on the altar shall be kept burning on it. It shall not be put out. The priest shall burn wood on it every morning, and lay the burnt offering in order upon it; and he shall burn on it the fat of the peace offerings.

13 The fire must be kept burning on the altar continuously; it must not go out.

14 This is the law of the GRAIN OFFERING: The sons of Aaron shall offer it on the altar in front of Yahweh.

15 He shall take from it a handful of the fine flour of the grain offering, with its oil, and all the frankincense which is on the grain offering, and shall burn it on the altar for a pleasing aroma, as a memorial to Yahweh.

16 The remainder of it Aaron and his sons shall eat. As unleavened bread it shall be eaten; in a holy place, in the court of the Tent of Meeting, they shall eat it.

17 It shall not be baked with leaven. I have given it to them as their portion from My offerings made by fire. It is most holy, like the sin offering and the trespass offering.

18 All the males among the children of Aaron may eat it. This is a statute forever in your generations, concerning the offerings made by fire to Yahweh. Everyone who touches them must be holy.

19 And Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying:

20 This is the offering of Aaron and his sons, which they shall offer to Yahweh on the day he is anointed: one-tenth ephah; about 2 quarts, of fine flour as a daily grain offering; half of it in the morning and half of it in the evening.

21 It shall be prepared with oil on a griddle; bring it well-mixed, and present the grain offering, broken in pieces, as an aroma pleasing to Yahweh.

22 The priest from among his sons, who is anointed to succeed in his place, shall offer it. It is a statute forever to Yahweh. It shall be completely burned.

23 Every grain offering of a priest shall be burned completely; it must not be eaten.

24 And Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying:

25 Speak to Aaron and to his sons, saying: This is the law of the SIN OFFERING: In the place where the burnt offering is killed, the sin offering shall also be killed in front of Yahweh. It is most holy.

26 The priest who offers it for sin shall eat it. It shall be eaten in a holy place, in the court of the Tent of Meeting.

27 Everyone who touches its flesh must be holy. And when its blood is sprinkled on any garment, you must wash it on which it was sprinkled, in a holy place.

28 But the earthen vessel it was boiled in shall be broken. If it is boiled in a bronze pot, it must be both scoured and rinsed in water.

29 All the males among the priests may eat it. It is most holy.

30 But no sin offering whose blood is brought into the Tent of Meeting, to make atonement in the Holy Place, shall be eaten. It must be burned completely in the fire.

CHAP. 7

This is the law for the TRESPASS OFFERING; it is most holy.

2 In the place they killed the burnt offering, they shall kill the trespass offering. Its blood the priests shall sprinkle all around on the altar;

3 And he shall offer from it all its fat: the fat tail, and the fat that covers the entrails,

4 The two kidneys, and the fat that is around them near the loins, and the fatty lobe attached to the liver above the kidneys. These designated items he shall remove;

5 And the priest shall burn them on the altar, as an offering made by fire to Yahweh. It is a trespass offering.

6 Every male among the priests may eat it. It must be eaten in a holy place; it is most holy.

7 The trespass offering is like the sin offering; one law concerns them both. The priest who makes atonement with it shall have it.

8 The priest who offers anyone's burnt offering, may keep the skin of the burnt offering he has offered.

9 Also, every grain offering baked in an oven, or cooked in a pan, or on a griddle, belongs to the priest who offers it.

10 However, every grain offering, whether mixed with oil or dry, belongs equally to all the sons of Aaron.

11 This is the law of the sacrifice of PEACE OFFERINGS, which he shall offer to Yahweh:

12 If he offers it for THANKSGIVING, then along with this thanksgiving offering, he is to offer cakes of unleavened bread mixed with oil, unleavened wafers spread with oil, and cakes of fine flour, well-kneaded and mixed with oil.

13 Along with his peace offering of thanksgiving, he is to present an offering of leavened bread.

14 He is to bring one of each kind as a heave offering to Yahweh. It shall belong to the priest who sprinkles the blood of the peace offering.

15 The meat of his peace offering for thanksgiving shall be eaten the same day it is offered. He shall not leave any of it until morning.

16 If, however, his offering is the result of a VOW, or is a FREEWILL OFFERING, the offering shall be eaten the same day he offers his sacrifice, and on the next day the remainder of it may also be eaten;

17 The remainder of the meat of this offering must be burned with fire on the third day.

18 If any of the flesh of the vow or freewill peace offering is eaten at all on the third day, it shall not be accepted, nor shall it be credited to the one who brought it. Whoever offers it shall be an abomination, and the person who eats of it shall bear guilt.

19 The meat that touches any unclean thing shall not be eaten; it must be burned with fire. As for the other clean meat, all who are clean may eat of it.

20 But the person who eats the flesh of the peace offerings to Yahweh, while he is unclean, that person shall be cut off from his people.

21 If anyone touches anything unclean—whether human uncleanness, or an unclean animal, or any unclean, abominable thing, and then eats any of the meat of the peace offering belonging to Yahweh, that person shall be cut off from his people.

22 And Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying:

23 Speak to the children of Israyl, saying: You shall not eat any fat of cattle, or sheep, or goats designated in the burnt offerings to Yahweh.

24 The fat of an animal found dead, or torn by wild animals, may be used for any other purpose, but you must not eat it.

25 Anyone who eats the fat of an animal from which an offering by fire is made to Yahweh, must be cut off from his people.

26 And you shall not eat any blood in any of your dwellings, whether of bird or animal.

27 Whoever eats any blood, that person shall be cut off from his people.

28 And Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying:

29 Speak to the children of Israyl, saying: Anyone who brings a peace offering to Yahweh, is to bring part of it as his sacrifice to Yahweh;

30 With his own hands he is to bring the offering made to Yahweh by fire: he is to bring the designated fat, together with the breast, and wave the breast before Yahweh, as a WAVE OFFERING.

31 The priest shall burn the fat on the altar, but the breast belongs to Aaron and his sons.

32 Also the right thigh you shall give to the priest as a HEAVE OFFERING, from the sacrifices of your peace offerings.

33 He among the sons of Aaron, who offers the blood of the peace offering and the fat, shall have the right thigh for his part.

34 The breast of the wave offering, and the thigh of the heave offering, I have taken from the children of Israyl, from their peace offerings, and I have given them to Aaron the priest and to his sons—from the children of Israyl by a statute forever.

35 This is the consecrated, sanctified portion allotted to Aaron and his sons, from the offerings made by fire to Yahweh, on the day they were presented to minister unto Yahweh as priests.

36 Yahweh commanded this to be given to them by the children of Israyl, on the day He anointed them, by a statute forever throughout their generations.

37 This is the law of the burnt offering, the grain offering, the sin offering, the trespass offering, the consecrations, and the sacrifice of the peace offering.

38 Which Yahweh commanded Mosheh on Mount Sinai, on the day when He commanded the children of Israyl to offer their offerings to Yahweh in the Wilderness of Sinai.

CHAP. 8

And Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying:

2 Take Aaron and his sons with him, and the garments, the anointing oil, a bull as the sin offering, two rams, and a basket of unleavened bread.

3 And gather all the congregation together at the entrance to the courtyard of the Tent of Meeting.

4 And Mosheh did as Yahweh commanded him, and the congregation was gathered together at the entrance to the courtyard of the Tent of Meeting.

5 Then Mosheh said to the congregation: This is what Yahweh has commanded to be done.

6 Then Mosheh brought Aaron and his sons forward, and washed them with the water from the laver.

7 And he put the tunic on Aaron, girded him with the sash, clothed him with the robe, and put the ephod on him. He also tied the ephod to him by its skillfully woven waistband; so it was fastened on him.

8 He placed the breastplate on him, and put the Urim and Thummim in the breastplate.

9 And he put the turban; mitznepeth, on his head. On the front of the turban; mitznepeth, he set the gold plate, the holy diadem; the crown, tying it on the front of the turban, as Yahweh had commanded.

10 Then Mosheh took the anointing oil, and anointed the tabernacle and all that was in it; and so consecrated and sanctified them.

11 He sprinkled some of it on the altar seven times, anointed the altar and all its utensils, and the laver for washing, and its base, to consecrate and sanctify them.

12 He poured some of the anointing oil on Aaron's head, and anointed him, consecrating and sanctifying him.

13 Then Mosheh brought Aaron's sons, and put tunics on them, girded them with sashes, and put the caps; migbaoth, (the Kippah) on them, as Yahweh had commanded Mosheh.

14 And Mosheh brought the bull for the sin offering. Then Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the bull for the sin offering.

15 And Mosheh killed it. Then he took the blood, and put some on the horns of the altar all around with his finger to purify the altar; and he poured the blood at the base of the altar. So he consecrated and sanctified it, and made atonement for it.

16 Then he took all the fat on the bull's entrails, the fatty lobe attached to the liver, and the two kidneys with their fat; and Mosheh burned these on the altar.

17 But the bull: its hide, its flesh, and its offal, he burned with fire outside the camp in a clean place, as Yahweh had commanded Mosheh.

18 Then he brought one of the rams as the burnt offering, and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the ram;

19 And Mosheh killed it. Then he sprinkled the blood all around on the altar.

20 He cut the ram into pieces; and Mosheh burned the head, the pieces, and the fat,

21 First washing the entrails and the legs in water; burning the whole ram on the altar. It was a burnt offering for a pleasing aroma; an offering made by fire to Yahweh, as Yahweh had commanded Mosheh.

22 Then he brought the second ram, the ram of consecration. Then Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of this ram;

23 Then Mosheh killed it. He took some of its blood, and put it on the tip of Aaron's right ear, on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot.

24 Then he brought Aaron's sons, and Mosheh put some of this blood on the tips of their right ears, on the thumbs of their right hands, and on the big toes of their right feet. Then Mosheh sprinkled the blood all around on the altar.

25 Then he took the fat from this second ram, and the fat tail, all the fat from the entrails, the fatty lobe attached to the liver, the two kidneys and their fat, and the right thigh;

26 And from the basket of unleavened bread in front of Yahweh, he took a cake of bread, and one made with oil, and a wafer. He put these on the fat portions, and on the right thigh.

27 He put all these in Aaron's and his sons' hands, and waved them as a wave offering in front of Yahweh.

28 Then Mosheh took them from their hands, and burned them on the altar, placing them on the burnt offering. They are consecration offerings for a pleasing aroma, an offering made by fire to Yahweh.

29 Then Mosheh took the breast, and waved it as a wave offering in front of Yahweh. It was Mosheh's part of the ram of consecration; as Yahweh had commanded Mosheh.

30 Then Mosheh took some of the anointing oil, and some of the blood from the altar, and sprinkled this on Aaron, on his garments, and on his sons, and on their garments. So he con- secrated and sanctified Aaron and his garments, and his sons and their garments.

31 And Mosheh said to Aaron and his sons; Boil the flesh at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting, and eat it there with the bread in the basket, from the consecration offerings, as I commanded, saying; Aaron and his sons shall eat it.

32 What remains of the flesh and of the bread, you shall burn with fire.

33 And you shall not leave the entrance to the Tent of Meeting for seven days, until the days of your consecration and ordination are ended. Your consecration will be for seven days.

34 What Yahweh has done this day, Yahweh has commanded, to make atonement for you.

35 Therefore, you must stay at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting day and night for seven days, and keep the charge of Yahweh, so that you may not die; for that is what I have been commanded.

36 So Aaron and his sons did all the things Yahweh had commanded by the hand of Mosheh.

CHAP. 9

On the eighth day, Mosheh summoned Aaron and his sons, and the elders of Israyl.

2 He said to Aaron; Take for yourself a young bull as a sin offering, and a ram as a burnt offering, each without blemish, and offer them in front of Yahweh.

3 Then to the children of Israyl you shall speak, saying; Take a male goat as a sin offering, and a calf and a lamb, both of the first year and without blemish, as a burnt offering.

4 Also a bull and a ram, as peace offerings to offer in front of Yahweh, and a grain offering mixed with oil; for today Yahweh will appear to you.

5 So they brought what Mosheh commanded to the front of the Tent of Meeting; and all the congregation drew near, and stood in front of Yahweh.

6 Then Mosheh said; This is the thing Yahweh has commanded you to do, so the glory of Yahweh may appear to you.

7 And Mosheh said to Aaron; Go to the altar, offer your sin offering and your burnt offering, and make atonement for yourself and for the people; sacrifice the offering that is for the people, and make atonement for them, as Yahweh commanded.

8 So Aaron went to the altar, and killed the calf of the sin offering for himself.

9 Then the sons of Aaron brought the blood to him, and he dipped his finger in the blood, put it on the horns of the altar, and poured the remaining blood at the base of the altar.

10 But the fat, the kidneys, and the fatty lobe from the liver of the sin offering, he burned on the altar, as Yahweh had commanded Mosheh:

11 And the flesh and the hide he burned with fire outside the camp.

12 Then he killed the burnt offering, and the sons of Aaron brought the blood to him, which he sprinkled all around on the altar.

13 Then they brought the burnt offering to him, with its pieces and head, and he burned them on the altar,

14 First washing the entrails and the legs, then burning them completely on the altar.

15 Then he brought the sin offering for the people: the goat for their sin offering, and killed it like the first one.

16 Then he brought the burnt offering, and offered it according to the prescribed manner.

17 Then he brought the grain offering, took a handful of it, and burned it on the altar in addition to the morning's burnt offering.

18 He killed the bull and the ram: the peace offerings for the people. Then Aaron's sons brought to him the blood, which he sprinkled all around on the altar.

19 The fat from the bull and the ram, the fatty tail, the fat covering on the entrails and kidneys, the two kidneys, and the fatty lobe attached to the liver:

20 They put this fat on the breasts; then he burned the fat on the altar;

21 But the breasts and the right thigh Aaron waved, as a wave offering in front of Yahweh, as Mosheh had commanded.

22 Then Aaron lifted his hand toward the people, and blessed them. And, having sacrificed the sin offering, the burnt offering, and the peace offering, he stepped down.

23 Then Mosheh and Aaron went into the Tent of Meeting. When they came out, they blessed the people. Then the glory of Yahweh appeared to all the people.

24 And fire came out from the Presence of Yahweh, and consumed the burnt offering, and the fat on the altar. When all the people saw this, they shouted for joy, and fell face downward.

CHAP. 10

Nadab and Abihu, the sons of Aaron, each took his censer and put fire in it, put incense on it, and offered unauthorized, profane fire in front of Yahweh, contrary to His command.

2 So fire came out from Yahweh, and devoured them; so they died in front of Yahweh.

3 Then Mosheh said to Aaron: This is what Yahweh spoke of when He said: Among those who come near Me, I must be sanctified; regarded as Holy, and before all the people I must be glorified. And Aaron held his peace.

4 Then Mosheh called Mishael and Elzaphan, the sons of Uzziel, the uncle of Aaron, and said to them; Come near, and carry your cousins outside the camp, away from the front of the sanctuary.

5 So they came near, and carried them by their tunics out of the camp, as Mosheh had said.

6 And Mosheh said to Aaron and to his sons, Eleazar and Ithamar; Do not uncover your heads, nor tear your clothes, or you will die; and Yahweh will be angry with the whole congregation. But let your brothers, the whole house of Israyl, bewail those whom Yahweh has destroyed by fire.

7 You shall not go out from the entrance of the Tent of Meeting, or you shall die; for the anointing oil of Yahweh is upon you. So they did as Mosheh said.

8 Then Yahweh spoke to Aaron, saying:

9 Do not drink wine nor strong drink, you, nor your sons with you, when you go into the Tent of Meeting, or you shall die. It shall be a statute forever throughout your generations.

10 You must distinguish between the holy and unholy, and between the unclean and the clean, 11 And you must teach the children of Israyl all the statutes which Yahweh has spoken to them, by the hand of Mosheh.

12 Then Mosheh spoke to Aaron, and to Eleazar and Ithamar, his sons who were left: Take the grain offering that remains of the offerings made by fire to Yahweh, and eat it without leaven beside the altar, for it is most holy.

13 You must eat it in a holy place, because it is your share and your sons' share of the offerings made by fire to Yahweh, for so I have been commanded.

14 The breast of the wave offering and the thigh of the heave offering you shall eat in a clean place: you, your sons, and your daughters with you; for your share and your sons' share; given from the sacrifices of peace offering from the children of Israyl.

15 The thigh of the heave offering and the breast of the wave offering they shall bring with the offerings of fat made by fire to offer, as a wave offering in front of Yahweh. And it shall be yours, and your sons' with you, by a statute forever, as Yahweh has commanded.

16 When Mosheh diligently inquired about the goat of the sin offering, and found that it had been burned up, he was angry with Eleazar and Ithamar, Aaron's remaining sons, and asked:

17 Why have you not eaten the sin offering in a holy place? It is most holy, and Yahweh has given it to you to take away the guilt of the congregation, by making atonement for them in front of Yahweh.

18 Since its blood was not taken into the Holy Place, you should have eaten the goat in the holy sanctuary area, as I commanded.

19 Then Aaron said to Mosheh: Today they have offered their sin offering, and their burnt offering in front of Yahweh; but such things have befallen me! If I had eaten the sin offering today, would it have been acceptable in Yahweh's sight?

20 So when Mosheh heard this, he was appeased.

CHAP. 11

And Yahweh spoke to Mosheh and Aaron, saying to them;

2 Speak to the children of Israyl, saying: These are the animals you may eat among all the beasts upon the land:

3 You may eat any animal that has a split hoof, completely divided, and which chews the cud; these you may eat.

4 Nevertheless, there are some that only chew the cud, or only have a split hoof; you must not eat these: the camel, because it chews the cud, but does not have a split hoof; it is unclean to you.

5 The coney, or rock badger, because it chews the cud, but does not have a split hoof; it is unclean to you;

6 The rabbit, because it chews the cud, but does not have a split hoof; it is unclean to you;

7 And the pig, although it has a split hoof completely divided, yet it does not chew the cud; it is unclean to you.

8 Their meat you shall not eat, and their carcasses you shall not touch. They are unclean to you.

9 These you may eat of all that are in the waters: whatever has both fins and scales in the waters, whether in the seas or in the rivers, that you may eat.

10 But everything in the seas or in the rivers that does not have both fins and scales, whether among all the fish that school, or among all the other living creatures in the water: they are an abomination;

11 And they will be an abomination to you. You must not eat their flesh, but you shall regard their carcasses as an abomination.

12 Whatever is in the waters, not having both fins and scales, is to be abominable to you.

13 These you shall regard as abominable among the birds; they shall not be eaten, for they are an abomination: the eagle, the vulture, the buzzard,

14 The kite, and the falcon after their kinds;

15 Every raven after its kind,

16 The ostrich, the horned owl, the seagull, and the hawk after its kind;

17 The little owl, the fisher owl, and the screech owl;

18 The white owl, the desert owl, the osprey;

19 The stork, the heron after its kind, the hoopoe, and the bat.

20 All flying insects that walk on all fours will be an abomination to you;

21 Yet, these you may eat of every flying insect that walks on all fours: those which have jointed legs above their feet for hopping on the ground.

22 These you may eat: the locust after its kind, the destroying locust after its kind, the cricket after its kind, and the grasshopper after its kind.

23 But every other flying insect which has four feet shall be an abomination to you;

24 And by these you will make yourself become unclean: whoever touches the carcass of any of them will be unclean until sunset;

25 Whoever picks up one of their carcasses must wash his clothes, and be unclean until sunset;

26 The carcass of every animal which does not have a split hoof, completely divided, and which also does not chew the cud, is unclean for you; everyone who touches its carcass shall be unclean.

27 Of all the animals that walk on all fours, those that walk on their paws, are unclean for you; whoever touches any such carcass shall be unclean until sunset.

28 Whoever picks up their carcasses shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until sunset: they are unclean to you.

29 Of the animals that move about on the ground, these are unclean to you: the mole, the mouse, and the large lizard after its kind;

30 The gecko, the monitor lizard, the sand reptile, the sand lizard, and the chameleon.

31 These are unclean to you among all that moves about on the ground. Whoever touches them, when they are dead, shall be unclean until evening.

32 When one of them dies and falls on something, that article, whatever its use, shall be unclean; whether an item of wood, clothing, skin, or sack, whatever item it is that is used in work, it must be put in water. And it shall be unclean until sunset; then it shall be clean.

33 Any earthenware vessels, which their carcasses fall into, must be broken; and whatever was in the vessel shall be unclean:

34 Any food that could be eaten, but has water on it from such a vessel, is unclean, and any liquid that could be drunk from it is unclean.

35 Anything that one of their carcasses falls upon shall be unclean; a clay oven or cooking stove must be broken down. They become unclean, and shall be unclean to you.

36 Nevertheless, a spring or a cistern for collecting water shall remain clean; but whoever touches one of these carcasses becomes unclean.

37 If a carcass falls on any seeds that are to be sown, they remain clean;

38 But if water has been put on the seed, then a carcass falls on it; it is then unclean to you.

39 If an animal you are allowed to eat dies, he who touches its carcass shall be unclean until sunset;

40 Anyone who eats of its carcass shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until sunset. He also who carries its carcass shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until sunset.

41 Every creature that moves about on the ground, including worms, slugs, snails, and snakes, is an abomination. It shall not be eaten;

42 Whether it moves about on its belly, or walks on all fours, or on many feet among all creatures that move about on the ground—these you shall not eat, for they are an abomination.

43 You shall not make yourselves abominable with any creature that moves about on the ground. Do not defile yourselves by means of them, nor be made unclean by them.

44 I am Yahweh your Heavenly Father. You shall therefore consecrate and sanctify yourselves, and you shall be holy; for I am holy. Neither shall you defile yourselves with any creature that moves about on the ground.

45 I am Yahweh, Who brought you up out of the land of Egypt, to be your Heavenly Father. You shall therefore be holy, for I am holy.

46 This is the law of the animals, and the birds, and every living thing that moves in the waters, and every creature that moves about on the ground.

47 You must distinguish between the unclean and the clean—between the animal that may be eaten, and the animal that may not be eaten.

CHAP. 12

And Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying:

2 Speak to the children of Israyl, saying: If a woman has conceived, and gives birth to a male child, then she shall be unclean seven days; as in the days of her monthly period, she shall be unclean.

3 On the eighth day the flesh of his foreskin must be circumcised.

4 She shall then continue in the blood of her purification thirty-three more days. She shall not touch any holy thing; qodesh, nor come into any consecrated place; miqqedash, until the days of her purification are over: for a total of forty days.

5 However, if she gives birth to a female child, then she shall be unclean two weeks, fourteen days, as in her monthly period; and she shall continue in the blood of her purification sixty-six more days: for a total of eighty days.

6 When the days of her purification are over, whether for a son or a daughter, then she shall bring to the priest a lamb of the first year as a burnt offering, and a young pigeon or a turtledove as a sin offering, to the entrance of the Tent of Meeting.

7 Then he shall offer it in front of Yahweh, to make atonement for her; and then she will be clean from her flow of blood. This is the law for her who has given birth to a male or a female.

8 If she is not able to bring a lamb, then she may bring two turtledoves or two young pigeons; one as a burnt offering and the other as a sin offering. In this way, the priest shall make atonement for her, and she will be clean.

CHAP. 13

And Yahweh spoke to Mosheh and Aaron, saying:

2 When anyone has a swelling, or a rash, or a bright spot on his skin that may become an infectious skin disease like leprosy, then he shall be brought to Aaron the priest, or to one of his sons, the priests.

3 The priest shall look at the sore on the skin of the body; and if the hair on the sore has turned white, and the sore appears deeper than the rest of his skin, it is an infectious skin disease. When the priest examines him, he shall pronounce him ceremonially unclean.

4 If the spot on his skin is white, but does not appear to be more than skin deep, and the hair in it has not turned white, the priest is to put the infected person in isolation for seven days.

5 On the seventh day, the priest is to examine him, and if he sees the sore is unchanged, and has not spread in the skin, he is to keep him isolated another seven days.

6 On the next seventh day the priest is to examine him again, and if the sore has faded and has not spread in the skin, the priest shall pronounce him clean; it was only a rash. The man must wash his clothes, and he will be clean.

7 But, if the rash does spread in his skin after he has shown himself to the priest to be pronounced clean, he must appear before the priest again.

8 The priest is to examine him, and if the rash has spread in the skin, he shall pronounce him unclean; it is an infectious disease.

9 When anyone has an infectious skin disease, he must be brought to the priest.

10 The priest is to examine him, and if there is a white swelling in the skin that has turned the hair white, and a spot of raw flesh is in the swelling.

11 Then it is a chronic skin disease, and the priest shall pronounce him unclean. He shall not put him in isolation, for he is already pronounced unclean, and there is no question.

12 If the disease breaks out all over the skin, and the infection covers all the skin of the infected person, from his head to his foot, every place the priest looks;

13 Then the priest shall examine him, and if the disease has covered his whole body, he shall pronounce that person clean. Since it has all turned white, he is clean.

14 But whenever raw flesh appears on him, he will be unclean.

15 When the priest sees the raw flesh, he shall pronounce him unclean. The raw flesh is unclean: he has an infectious disease.

16 Should the raw flesh change, and then turn white, he must go to the priest.

17 The priest is to examine him, and if the sores have turned white, the priest shall pronounce the infected person clean. He is clean.

18 When someone has a boil on his skin, and the boil heals.

19 And in the place where the boil was, a white swelling or reddish-white spot appears, he must present himself to the priest.

20 The priest is to examine it, and if it appears to be more than skin deep, and the hair in it has turned white, the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It is an infectious skin disease that has broken out where the boil was.

21 But if the priest examines it, and there is no white hair in it, and it is not more than skin deep, and has faded, then the priest is to put him in isolation for seven days.

22 If it should have at all spread over the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It is an infectious skin disease.

23 But if the spot is unchanged, and has not spread, then it is only a scar from the boil, and the priest shall pronounce him clean.

24 When someone receives a burn by fire on their skin, and a reddish-white or white spot appears in the raw flesh of the burn,

25 The priest is to examine the spot, and if the hair in it has turned white, and it appears to be more than skin deep, it is an infectious disease that has broken out within the burn. The priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is an infectious skin disease.

26 But if the priest examines it, and there is no white hair in the spot, and if the spot is not more than skin deep, and has faded, then the priest is to put him in isolation for seven days.

27 On the seventh day the priest is to examine him again, and if it is spreading in the skin, the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It is an infectious skin disease.

28 But if the spot is unchanged and has not spread within the skin, but has faded, it is a swelling from the burn, and the priest shall pronounce him clean. It is only a scar from the burn, and not infectious.

29 If a man or woman has a sore on the head: in the hair, or on the chin in the beard,

30 The priest is to examine the sore, and if it appears to be more than skin deep, and the hair in it is yellow and thin, the priest shall pronounce that person unclean. It is an itch, an infectious disease of the head or chin.

31 But if, when the priest examines the sore and it does not seem to be more than skin deep, and there is no black hair in it, then the priest is to put the infected person in isolation for seven days.

32 On the seventh day the priest is to re-examine the sore, and if the itch has not spread, and there is no yellow hair in it, and it does not appear to be more than skin deep;

33 Then he must be shaved except for the diseased area, and the priest is to keep him in isolation another seven days.

34 On the seventh day the priest is again to examine the itch, and if it has not spread in the skin, and appears to be no more than skin deep, the priest shall pronounce him clean. He must wash his clothes, and he will be clean.

35 But if the itch does spread within the skin after he is pronounced clean,

36 The priest is to re-examine him. If the itch then has spread in the skin, the priest does not need to look for yellow hair, there is no question: the person is unclean.

37 But if, in his judgment it is unchanged, and black hair has grown in it, the itch has healed. He is clean, and the priest shall pronounce him clean.

38 When a man or woman has white spots on the skin,

39 The priest is to examine them. If the spots are dull white, then it is a harmless rash which has broken out on the skin; that person is clean.

40 When a man has lost his hair, and is bald, he is clean.

41 If he has lost his hair from the front of his scalp, and has a bald forehead, he is clean.

42 But if he has a reddish-white sore on his bald head or forehead, it is an infectious disease breaking out on his head or forehead.

43 The priest is to examine him, and if the swollen sore on his head or his forehead is reddish-white, like an infectious skin disease,

44 The man is diseased, and is unclean. The priest shall pronounce him unclean, because of the sore that is on his head.

45 The person with such an infectious disease must wear torn clothes, uncover his head, cover the lower part of his face, and cry out: Unclean! Unclean!

46 He shall be unclean all the days he has the sore. He is unclean, and shall live alone. He must live outside the camp.

47 And if any clothing is contaminated with mildew: woolen or linen clothing.

48 Any woven or knitted material of linen, or wool, any leather or anything made of leather,

49 And if the contamination in the clothing, or leather, or woven or knitted material, or any leather article is greenish or reddish, it is a spreading mildew, and must be shown to the priest.

50 The priest is to examine the mildew, and isolate the article in question for seven days.

51 On the seventh day he is to re-examine it, and if the mildew has spread in the clothing, in the woven or knitted material, or in the leather, whatever its use, it is a destructive mildew; the article is unclean.

52 He must burn up the clothing, the woven or knitted material of wool or linen, or any leather article having the contamination in it. The mildew is destructive; the article must be burned up.

53 But if, when the priest examines it, the mildew has not spread in the clothing, or the woven or knitted material, or the leather article,

54 He shall give instructions for the contaminated article to be washed. Then he is to isolate it for another seven days.

55 After the article in question has been washed, and after these seven days have passed, the priest is to re-examine it. If the mildew has not changed its appearance, even though it has not spread, it is unclean. Burn it with fire, whether the mildew has affected one side or the other.

56 But if, when the priest examines it, the mildew has faded after the article has been washed, he is to tear the contaminated part out of the clothing, or the woven or knitted material, or the leather.

57 But if it reappears in the clothing, the woven or knitted material, or in the leather article, it is spreading; and whatever has the mildew must be burned with fire.

58 The clothing, or the woven or knitted material, or any leather article that has been washed and is rid of the mildew, must then be washed again, and it will be clean.

59 This is the law concerning contamination by mildew in woolen or linen clothing, woven or knitted material, or any leather article used for any purpose, for pronouncing them clean or unclean.

CHAP. 14

And Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying;

2 This shall be the law for the leprous or diseased person, for the day of his cleansing when he shall be brought to the priest:

3 The priest shall first go outside the camp, and examine him. If the person has been healed of his leprosy or infectious skin disease,

4 The priest shall instruct him to take two live, clean birds, and some cedar wood, scarlet yarn, and hyssop; and bring it to the priests.

5 Then the priest shall instruct that one of the living birds shall be killed over fresh water in a clay pot.

6 He is then to take the other living bird and dip it, together with the cedar wood, the scarlet yarn, and the hyssop, into the blood of the bird that was killed over the fresh water.

7 Seven times he shall sprinkle the one to be cleansed of the leprosy or the infectious disease, and pronounce him clean. Then he is to release the living bird in the open fields.

8 After this ceremony, he may come into the camp, but he must stay outside his tent for seven days. Then the person to be ceremonially cleansed must wash his clothes, shave off all his hair, and bathe with water; then he will be ceremonially cleansed.

9 On the seventh day he must shave off all his hair: he must shave his head, his beard, his eyebrows, and the rest of his hair. He must wash his clothes, and bathe himself with water; and then he will be clean.

10 On the eighth day he must bring two male lambs and one ewe lamb, each of the first year and each without blemish, along with three-tenths of an ephah, about 6 quarts, of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering, and a log of oil, about 2/3 of a pint of oil.

11 The priest who is to pronounce him clean, shall present both the one to be cleansed, and his offerings, in front of Yahweh at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

12 Then the priest is to take one of the male lambs, and offer it as a trespass offering, along with the log of oil. He shall wave both in front of Yahweh as a wave offering.

13 Then he shall kill the lamb in the place where he kills the sin offering and the burnt offering; in a holy place. Just as the sin offering belongs to the priest, so also the trespass offering belongs to the priest. It is most holy.

14 The priest is to take some of the blood of the trespass offering, and put it on the lobe of the right ear of the one to be cleansed, on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot.

15 The priest shall then take some of the log of oil, pour it into the palm of his own left hand, 16 Dip his right forefinger into the oil in his palm, and with his finger sprinkle some of it in front of Yahweh seven times.

17 The priest is to put some of the oil remaining in his palm on the lobe of the right ear of the one to be cleansed, on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot, on top of the blood placed there previously from the trespass offering.

18 The rest of the oil in his palm the priest shall put on the head of the one to be cleansed. So the priest shall make atonement for him in front of Yahweh.

19 Then the priest is to kill the sin offering, and make atonement for the one to be cleansed from his uncleanness. After that, the priest shall kill the burnt offering,

20 Offering it on the altar together with the grain offering. So the priest shall make atonement for him; and he shall be clean.

21 But if he is a poor man, and cannot afford these, he must take one male lamb as a trespass offering to be waved, to make atonement for him; one-tenth of an ephah, about 2 quarts, of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering; a log of oil.

22 And two turtledoves or two young pigeons, which he is able to afford: one shall be a sin offering, and the other shall be a burnt offering.

23 On the eighth day he must bring them for his cleansing, to the priest at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting, in front of Yahweh.

24 The priest is to take the lamb for the trespass offering, together with the log of oil, and wave them both in front of Yahweh, as a wave offering.

25 He shall kill the lamb for the trespass offering, and take some of its blood and put it on the lobe of the right ear of the one to be cleansed, on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot.

26 The priest is to pour some of the oil into the palm of his own left hand, 27 And with his right forefinger sprinkle some of the oil from his palm seven times in front of Yahweh.

28 Some of the oil in his palm he is to put on the same places he put the blood of the trespass offering—on the lobe of the right ear of the one to be cleansed, on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot.

29 The remaining oil in his left palm the priest shall put on the head of the one to be cleansed, to make atonement for him in front of Yahweh.

30 Then he shall kill the turtledoves or the young pigeons, which the person can afford,

31 Such as he is able to afford: one for the sin offering, and the other for the burnt offering, together with the grain offering. So the priest shall make atonement for him who is to be cleansed in front of Yahweh.

32 This is the law for anyone who is leprous, or has an infectious skin disease, and who cannot afford the regular offerings for his cleansing.

33 And Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying,

34 When you enter the land of Canaan, which I give you as a possession, and I put a spreading mildew in a house in that land,

35 The owner of the house must go and tell the priest: I have seen something that looks like mildew in my house.

36 The priest is to order the house to be emptied before he goes in to examine the mildew, so that nothing in the house will be pronounced unclean. After this, the priest is to go in and inspect the house.

37 He is to examine the mildew on the walls, and if it has greenish or reddish depressions that appear to be deeper than the surface of the wall,

38 The priest shall go out of the house, and at the entrance close up the house for seven days.

39 On the seventh day the priest shall return to inspect the house. If the mildew has spread on the walls, 40 He is to order that the contaminated stones be torn out, and thrown into an unclean place outside the town.

41 He must have all the inside walls of the house scraped, and the material that is scraped off dumped into an unclean place outside the town.

42 Then they are to take other stones to replace these, and take new clay and plaster the house.

43 If the mildew reappears in the house after the stones have been torn out, and the house scraped and plastered,

44 Then the priest is to go and examine it again, and if the mildew has spread in the house, it is a destructive mildew; the house is unclean.

45 The house must be torn down: all its stones, timbers, and all the plaster, and taken out of the town to an unclean place.

46 Anyone who goes into the house while it is closed up will be unclean until sunset.

47 Anyone who sleeps or eats in the house must wash his clothes.

48 But if the priest comes to examine it, and the mildew has not spread after the house has been plastered, he shall pronounce the house clean, because the mildew is gone.

49 To cleanse and purify the house, he is to take two birds, along with some cedar wood, scarlet yarn, and hyssop;

50 And he shall kill one of the birds over fresh water in a clay pot.

51 Then he is to take the cedar wood, the hyssop, the scarlet yarn and the living bird, dip them into the blood of the dead bird mixed with the fresh water, and sprinkle the house seven times.

52 He shall cleanse and purify the house with the bird's blood, the fresh water, the live bird, the cedar wood, the hyssop and the scarlet yarn.

53 Then he is to release the living bird in the open fields outside the town. In this way, he will make atonement for the house, and it will be clean.

54 This is the law for any leprous or infectious skin diseases, for an itch,

55 For mildew in clothing, or in a house,

56 And for a swelling, a rash, or a bright spot—

57 To determine when something is clean or unclean. This is the law of leprosy, or infectious skin diseases, and mildew.

CHAP. 15

And Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying:

2 Speak to the children of Israyl, and say to them: When any man has a discharge, the discharge is unclean.

3 Whether it continues flowing from his body, or is blocked; it will make him unclean. This is how his discharge will bring about uncleanness:

4 Every bed the man with a discharge lies on will be unclean, and anything he sits on will be unclean.

5 Anyone who touches his bed must wash his clothes, and bathe with water, and he will be unclean until sunset.

6 Whoever sits on anything that the man with a discharge sat on, must wash his clothes and bathe with water, and he will be unclean until sunset.

7 Whoever touches the man who has a discharge, must wash his clothes, and bathe with water, and he will be unclean until sunset.

8 If the man with the discharge spits on someone who is clean, that person must wash his clothes, and bathe with water, and he will be unclean until sunset.

9 Everything the man sits on when riding will be unclean,

10 And whoever touches any of the things that were under him, will be unclean until sunset. Whoever picks up those things, must wash his clothes and bathe with water, and he will be unclean until sunset.

11 Anyone the man with a discharge touches, without rinsing his hands with water, must wash his clothes, and bathe with water, and he will be unclean until sunset.

12 A clay pot that the man touches must be broken, and any wooden article is to be rinsed with water.

13 When a man is cleansed from his discharge, he is to count off seven clean days for his ceremonial cleansing. After sunset of the seventh day; beginning the eighth day, he must wash his clothes and bathe himself with running water, and he will be clean.

14 On the eighth day he must take two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, and come in front of Yahweh to the entrance to the Tent of Meeting, and give them to the priest.

15 The priest is to kill them; one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering. So the priest shall make atonement for him in front of Yahweh, because of his discharge.

16 When any man has an emission of semen, then he shall bathe all his body in water, and he will be unclean until sunset.

17 Any clothing or leather that has semen on it must be washed with water, and it will be unclean until sunset.

18 When a man lies with a woman, and there is an emission of semen, both must bathe with water, and they will be unclean until sunset.

19 When a woman has her regular flow of blood, the impurity of her monthly period; niddah, it will last for seven days. Anyone who touches her during this time will be unclean until sunset.

20 Anything she lies on during her period will be unclean, and anything she sits on will be unclean.

21 Whoever touches her bed, must wash his clothes, and bathe with water, and he will be unclean until sunset.

22 Whoever touches anything she sits on, must wash his clothes, and bathe with water, and he will be unclean until sunset.

23 Whether it is the bed or anything she was sitting on, when anyone touches it, he will be unclean until sunset.

24 If a man lies with her, and her monthly flow touches him, he will be unclean for seven days; any bed he lies on will be unclean. On the eighth day she will bath and be clean.

25 When a woman has a discharge of blood for many days at a time other than her monthly period; zavah, or has a discharge that continues beyond her period; zavah, she will be unclean as long as she has the discharge. She will be unclean just as in the days of her period.

26 Any bed she lies on, while her discharge continues, will be unclean; as her bed is during her monthly period, and anything she sits on will be unclean, just as during her monthly period.

27 Whoever touches them will be unclean; he must wash his clothes, and bathe with water, and he will be unclean until sunset.

28 When her discharge has finally stopped, she must count off seven clean days; then she will be ceremonially clean.

29 On the eighth day she must take two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, and bring them to the priest at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

30 The priest is to kill one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering. In this way, he will make atonement for her before Yahweh, for the uncleanness of her discharge; zavah.

31 You must keep the children of Israyl aware of, and separate from, things that make them unclean, so they will not die in their uncleanness • BY DEFILING MY TABERNACLE which is among them.

32 These are the laws for the man who has a discharge, for anyone made unclean by an emission of semen.

33 For a woman in her monthly period; niddah, for a man with a discharge, or a woman with a discharge; zavah, and for a man who lies with a woman who is ceremonially unclean.

CHAP. 16

And Yahweh spoke to Mosheh after the death of the two sons of Aaron, when they offered unauthorized and profane fire in front of Yahweh, and died.

2 And Yahweh said to Mosheh; Tell your brother Aaron not to come whenever he chooses into the Most Holy Place; the Holy of Holies, behind the Veil—in front of the mercy seat; the atonement cover on the ark; otherwise, he will die, because I appear in the cloud over the mercy seat.

3 This is how Aaron is to come into the • Most Holy Place: with the blood of a young bull for a sin offering, and of a ram for a burnt offering.

4 He is to put on the holy linen tunic, with the linen undergarments next to his body. He is to tie the linen sash around him, and put on the linen turban; the High Priest's mitznepeth. These are holy garments; so he must bathe himself with water before he puts them on.

5 And he shall take from the congregation of the children of Israyl, two male goats for a sin offering, and a ram for a burnt offering.

6 Aaron is to offer the bull for his own sin offering first, to make atonement for himself and his household;

7 Then he is to take the two goats, and present them in front of Yahweh, at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

8 He is to cast lots for the two goats—one lot for Yahweh, and the other for the scapegoat; azazel, goat of removal.

9 Aaron shall bring the goat whose lot falls to Yahweh, and kill it for a sin offering;

10 But the goat chosen by lot as the scapegoat, shall be presented alive in front of Yahweh, to be used for making atonement by sending it into the desert as a scapegoat.

11 Aaron shall bring the bull for his own sin offering to make atonement for himself and his household, and he is to kill the bull for his own sin offering.

12 He is to take a censer full of burning coals from the altar in front of Yahweh, and two handfuls of finely ground sweet incense, and take them behind the Veil.

13 He is to put the incense on the fire in front of Yahweh, and the smoke of the incense will conceal the mercy seat; the atonement cover above the Testimony, so that he will not die.

14 He is to take some of the bull's blood, and with his finger sprinkle it on the mercy seat, on the east; and in front of the mercy seat he shall sprinkle seven times.

15 He shall then kill the goat of the sin offering for the people, and take its blood behind the Veil, and do with it as he did with the bull's blood: He shall sprinkle it on the mercy seat and in front of it.

16 In this way, he will make atonement for the Most Holy Place, because of the uncleanness and rebellion of the children of Israyl, whatever their sins have been. He is to do the same for the Tent of Meeting; the Holy Place, which remains among them in the midst of their uncleanness.

17 No one is to be in the Tent of Meeting; the Holy Place, from the time Aaron goes in to make atonement in the Most Holy Place, until he comes out; and first having made atonement for himself and his household, and for the whole congregation of Israyl.

18 Then he shall come out to the altar that is in front of Yahweh, and make atonement for it. He shall take some of the bull's blood, and some of the goat's blood, and put it on the horns of the altar.

19 He shall sprinkle some of the blood on it with his finger seven times; to cleanse it, and to consecrate and sanctify it from the uncleanness of the children of Israyl.

20 When Aaron has finished making atonement for the Most Holy Place, the Tent of Meeting; the Holy Place, and the altar, he then shall bring forward the live goat.

• Vs. 15:31—Only a ceremonially clean person could make his appearance at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

• Vs. 16:3—The High Priest could enter the Most Holy Place ONLY on the Day of Atonement.

CHAP. 17

21 And Aaron shall lay both his hands on the head of the live goat, confess over it all the iniquities of the children of Israyl, and all their transgressions, concerning all their sins and rebellion; putting them on the head of the goat, and shall send it away into the wilderness, by the hand of a man appointed for the task.

22 The goat shall carry on itself all their iniquities; and in a solitary place he shall release the goat in the wilderness.

23 Then Aaron is to go into the Tent of Meeting; the Holy Place, and take off the linen garments he put on before he entered the Most Holy Place, and he is to leave them there.

24 He shall bathe himself with water in a holy place, and put on his regular garments. Then he shall come out, and kill the burnt offering for himself, and the burnt offering for the people: to make atonement for himself and for the people.

25 He shall also burn the fat of the sin offering on the altar.

26 The man who releases the goat as a scapegoat must wash his clothes and bathe himself with water. Afterward, he may come into the camp.

27 The bull and the goat for the sin offerings, whose blood was brought into the Most Holy Place, to make atonement, must be taken outside the camp. There, their hides, flesh, and offal are to be burned up.

28 The man who burns them must wash his clothes, and bathe himself with water. Afterward, he may come into the camp.

29 This shall be a statute forever for you: On the Tenth Day of the Seventh Moon you shall afflict your souls; ●you must fast*, and do no work at all—whether a native of your own country, or a stranger who sojourns among you.

30 For on that day ATONEMENT will be made for you, to cleanse you from all your sins in front of Yahweh.

31 It is a Sabbath of solemn rest for you, and you shall afflict your souls. It is a statute forever.

32 And the priest, who is anointed, and consecrated, and ordained to succeed his father as High Priest, is to make the atonement. He is to put on the holy linen garments.

33 And make atonement for the Most Holy Place, for the Tent of Meeting; the Holy Place, and the altar, and for the priests, and all the people of the congregation.

34 This shall be an everlasting statute for you, to make atonement for the children of Israyl for all their sins once a year. And he did as Yahweh commanded Mosheh.

And Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying:

2 Speak to Aaron, to his sons, and to all the children of Israyl, and say to them; This is what Yahweh has commanded:

3 Whatever man of the house of Israyl who sacrifices a cow, or a bull, a lamb, or a goat; in the camp, or outside of it;

4 And does not bring it to the entrance of the Tent of Meeting, to present it as an offering to Yahweh in front of the Tabernacle of Yahweh, that man shall be considered guilty of bloodshed. He has shed blood, and must be cut off from his people.

5 This is so the children of Israyl will bring to Yahweh the sacrifices they are now making in the open fields. They must bring them to the priest, that is, to Yahweh, at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting, and sacrifice them as peace offerings.

6 The priest is to sprinkle the blood against the altar of Yahweh, at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting, and burn the fat as a pleasing aroma to Yahweh.

7 They must no longer offer any of their sacrifices to the demons, after whom they have prostituted themselves, playing the harlot. This shall be a statute forever for them throughout their generations.

8 Say to them: Whatever man of the house of Israyl, or of the strangers who sojourn among you, who offers a burnt offering or sacrifice,

9 And does not bring it to the entrance of the Tent of Meeting to sacrifice it to Yahweh, that man must be cut off from his people.

10 Whatever man of the house of Israyl, or of the strangers who sojourn among you, who eats any blood, I will set My face against that person who eats blood; and will cut him off from among his people.

11 For the life of the flesh is in the blood, and I have given it to you to make an atonement for yourselves on the altar. It is the blood that makes atonement for one's life.

12 Therefore, I say to the children of Israyl: No one among you shall eat blood, nor shall any stranger who sojourns among you eat blood.

13 Whatever man of the children of Israyl, or of the strangers who sojourn among you, who hunts and catches any animal or bird that may be eaten, he shall pour out its blood, and cover it with dust;

14 For it is the life of all flesh. Its blood sustains its life. Therefore, I said to the children of Israyl: You shall not eat the blood of any flesh; for the life of all flesh is its blood. Whoever eats it shall be cut off.

15 Anyone, whether he is a native of your own country or a stranger, who eats anything found dead, or torn by wild animals, he shall both wash his clothes and bathe in water, and be unclean until sunset; then he shall be clean.

●No food or drink of any kind is to be consumed on THE DAY OF ATONEMENT, from the Ninth at sunset through the Tenth at sunset—on the Tenth Day of the Seventh Moon of Yahweh's Sacred Year—Leviticus 23:27-32.

16 But if he does not wash his clothes nor bathe his body in water, then he shall bear his iniquity.

CHAP. 18

And Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying,

2 Speak to the children of Israyl and say to them: I am Yahweh your Father.

3 After the doings of the land of Egypt where you dwelt, shall you not do; and after the doings of the land of Canaan, where I am bringing you, shall you not do; neither shall you walk in their ordinances.

4 You shall observe and do My judgments, and keep My ordinances, to walk in them. I am Yahweh.

5 You must therefore keep My statutes, and My judgments, which, if a man does, he will live through them: I am Yahweh.

6 None of you shall approach anyone who is near of kin to him, in order to have sexual relations. I am Yahweh.

7 The nakedness of your father, which is the nakedness of your mother, you shall not uncover; she is your mother. Do not have sexual relations with her.

8 Do not have sexual relations with your father's wife, though not your own mother; it is your father's nakedness.

9 You shall not have sexual relations with your sister, the daughter of your father or of your mother, whether born at home or born abroad.

10 You must not have sexual relations with your son's daughter or your daughter's daughter; your granddaughters. Their nakedness you shall not uncover, for they are your own flesh.

11 You must not have sexual relations with your father's wife's daughter; your half-sister, begotten by your father, she is your sister; you shall not uncover her nakedness.

12 You shall not have sexual relations with your father's sister, your aunt. She is your father's near kinswoman.

13 You shall not have sexual relations with your mother's sister, your aunt. She is your mother's near kinswoman.

14 You shall not have sexual relations with your father's brother's wife. You shall not approach his wife; she is your aunt.

15 You shall not uncover the nakedness of your daughter-in-law. She is your son's wife; you shall not have sexual relations with her.

16 You shall not have sexual relations with your brother's wife, your sister-in-law. She belongs to your brother.

17 You shall not marry a woman and her daughter, nor shall you take her son's daughter or her daughter's daughter, her granddaughter, to have sexual relations. They are her near kinswomen; it is wickedness and lewdness.

18 You must not marry a woman in addition to her sister, to be a rival to her, having sexual relations with the second sister while your wife is living.

19 Also, you shall not have sexual relations with a woman during the uncleanness of her monthly period; niddah, nor during any similar uncleanness; zavah.

20 Moreover, you shall not have sexual relations with your neighbor's wife, to defile yourself, along with her.

21 You shall not give any of your children to be passed through the fire, to sacrifice them to Molech. You shall not profane the Name of Yahweh by giving your children to gods. I am Yahweh.

22 You shall not have sexual relations with a man, as with a woman. It is an abomination.

23 Neither shall you have sexual relations with any animal and defile yourself, along with it; neither shall any woman present herself to have sexual relations with an animal. It is confusion and perversion.

24 Do not defile yourselves in any of these ways, for this is how the nations that I am going to drive out before you became defiled:

25 And the land is defiled. Therefore I punish the sin thereof upon it, and the land itself vomits out her inhabitants.

26 You shall therefore keep My statutes and My judgments, and you must not commit any of these abominations; neither any of your own nation nor any of the strangers that sojourns among you—

27 (For all these abominations have the people of the land done, who were before you, and thus the land is defiled; unholy)—

28 Or the land will vomit you out, if you defile it, as it vomited out the nations that were before you.

29 For whosoever shall commit any of these abominations, the person who commits them shall be cut off from among his people.

30 Therefore shall you keep My ordinance, and commit none of these abominable customs, which were committed before you, and that you do not defile yourselves with them. I am Yahweh your Father.

CHAP. 19

And Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying:

2 Speak to all the congregation of the children of Israyl, and say to them: You shall be holy, for I, Yahweh, your Heavenly Father am Holy.

3 Every one of you shall honor his mother and his father, and keep My Sabbaths: I am Yahweh your Father.

4 Do not turn to gods, nor make for yourselves molten images: I am Yahweh your Father.

5 If you offer a sacrifice of peace offering to Yahweh, you shall offer it of your own free will.

6 It shall be eaten the same day you offer it, and also on the next day; but if any remains until the third day, it must be burned in the fire.

7 If it is eaten at all on the third day, it is an abomination. It shall then not be accepted by Yahweh.

8 Whoever eats it shall bear responsibility for his sin, because he has profaned what is holy to Yahweh; that person shall be cut off from his people.

9 When you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not completely harvest the corners of your field, nor shall you gather the gleanings of your harvest.

10 You shall not glean your vineyard, nor shall you gather every grape of your vineyard. You shall leave them for the poor and the stranger; I am Yahweh your Father.

11 You shall not steal, nor deal falsely, nor lie one to another.

12 Do not vow false with My Name, and so profane the Name of your Father. I am Yahweh.

13 You shall not defraud your brother, nor rob him. Do not hold back the wages of a hired man overnight.

14 Do not curse the deaf or put a stumbling-block in front of the blind; but reverence your Father. I am Yahweh.

15 Do not pervert judgment: You shall not show partiality to the poor, nor honor to the person of the great. In righteousness you shall judge your brother fairly.

16 You shall not go about tale-bearing or slandering among your people. Do not do anything that endangers your brother's life. I am Yahweh.

17 You shall not hate your brother in your heart. Rebuke your brother frankly, so you will not share in his guilt.

18 Do not seek revenge nor bear a grudge against one of your own people; but you shall love your brother as yourself. I am Yahweh.

19 You must keep My statutes. You must not let your livestock breed with another kind. You shall not sow your field with mixed seed. You shall not wear clothing woven of linen and wool, as the holy things in the Tent of Meeting are made.

20 Whoever has sexual relations with a slave woman betrothed as a concubine to another man, but who has not been ransomed nor given her freedom, there shall be due punishment. But they shall not be put to death, because she was not free.

21 And he who is guilty shall bring his trespass offering to Yahweh, to the entrance to the Tent of Meeting; a ram as a trespass offering.

22 The priest shall make atonement for him with the ram of the trespass offering in front of Yahweh, for his sin which he has done. And the sin he has committed shall be forgiven him.

23 When you have come into the land, and plant any kind of fruit tree, regard its fruit as uncircumcised, that is, forbidden. Three years it shall be forbidden to you. It shall not be eaten.

24 In the fourth year all its fruit will be holy, as a PRAISE OFFERING to Yahweh, which you will give to the priests.

25 Then, in the fifth year, you may eat its fruit. In this way, your harvest will be increased. I am Yahweh your Father.

26 You shall not eat anything with the blood. You shall not practice divination nor soothsaying.

27 You shall not shave around the sides; rounding the corners, of your head, nor trim the corners of your beard, disfiguring the edges of your beard.

28 You shall not cut your bodies for the dead, nor put tattoo marks on yourselves. I am Yahweh.

29 Do not prostitute your daughter, to cause her to be a harlot; or the land will fall into harlotry, and the land will become full of wickedness.

30 You shall keep My Sabbaths, and Reverence My Sanctuary. I am Yahweh.

31 Do not turn to mediums nor familiar spirits. Do not seek after them, to be defiled by them. I am Yahweh.

32 You shall stand up before the gray headed, and honor the presence of an old man; and revere your Heavenly Father. I am Yahweh.

33 If a stranger lives with you in your land, do not mistreat him.

34 The stranger living with you must be treated as one of your native-born, and you shall love him as yourself; for you were strangers in the land of Egypt. I am Yahweh.

35 Do not use dishonest standards when measuring length, weight, or quantity.

36 You shall have honest balances, honest weights, an honest ephah; a dry measure and an honest hin; a liquid measure. I am Yahweh your Father Who brought you out of the land of Egypt;

37 Therefore, you must observe all My statutes and My judgments, and perform and do them. I am Yahweh.

CHAP. 20

And Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying:

2 Again you shall say to the children of Israyl: Whoever among the children of Israyl, or among the strangers who live with you in the land, who gives any of his children to Molech, he shall surely be put to death. The people of the land shall stone him with stones.

3 I will set My face against that man and will cut him off from his people; for by giving his children to Molech, he has defiled My Sanctuary, and profaned My Holy Name.

4 And if the people of the land should in any way hide their eyes from that man, when he gives some of his children to Molech; and they do not kill him.

5 Then I will set My face against that man and against his family, and will cut off their people; both him, and all who follow him in prostituting themselves to Molech.

6 And the person who turns to mediums and familiar spirits, to prostitute himself with them, I will set My face against that person, and cut him off from his people.

7 Consecrate and sanctify yourselves therefore, and be holy, for I am Yahweh your Father.

8 You must therefore keep My statutes, and perform and do them; I am Yahweh Who consecrates and sanctifies you.

9 If anyone curses his father or mother, he shall surely be put to death. He has cursed his father or his mother. His blood shall be upon his own head.

10 The man who commits adultery with another man's wife—or with the wife of his brother—the adulterer and adulteress shall surely be put to death.

11 The man who has sexual relations with his father's wife has uncovered his father's nakedness; both of them shall surely be put to death. Their blood shall be upon their own heads.

12 If a man has sexual relations with his daughter-in-law, both of them shall surely be put to death. They have committed perversion. Their blood shall be upon their own heads.

13 If a man has sexual relations with a male, as he has sexual relations with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination. They shall surely be put to death. Their blood shall be upon their own heads.

14 If a man marries a woman and also her mother, it is wickedness. They shall be burned with fire, both he and they, in order that there may be no wickedness among you.

15 If a man has sexual relations with an animal, he shall surely be put to death, and you shall kill the animal.

16 If a woman approaches an animal and has sexual relations with it, you shall kill the woman and the animal. They shall surely be put to death. Their blood is upon them.

17 If a man marries his sister, the daughter of either his father or his mother, and they have sexual relations, it is a wicked thing. They must be cut off in the sight of their people; he has uncovered his sister's nakedness, and he will bear the guilt of his sin.

18 If a man lies with a woman during her monthly period; niddah, or during her other uncleanness; zavah, and has sexual relations with her, he has exposed the source of her flow, and she has also uncovered it. Both of them must be cut off from their people.

19 Do not have sexual relations with the sister of your mother or the sister of your father; your aunt, for that would uncover his near of kin. They shall bear their guilt.

20 If a man has sexual relations with his uncle's wife; his aunt, he has uncovered his uncle's nakedness. They will bear their sin; they shall die childless.

21 If a man marries his brother's wife, it is an unclean, impure thing. He has uncovered his brother's nakedness. They shall be childless.

22 You must therefore keep all My statutes and all My judgments, and perform and do them, so that the land where I am bringing you to live may not vomit you out;

23 And you must not walk according to the customs of the nations that I am going to drive out before you. Because they committed all these things, I abhorred and loathed them.

24 But I have said to you; You shall inherit their land, and I will give it to you to possess, a land flowing with milk and honey. I am Yahweh your Father Who has separated and set you apart from the nations.

25 You must therefore distinguish between clean and unclean animals, and between clean and unclean birds. You shall not make yourselves abominable by animal or by bird, or by any kind of living thing that moves along on the ground—those which I have set apart as unclean for you.

26 You are to be My holy ones, for I, Yahweh, am Holy, and have separated and set you apart from the nations, that you should be Mine.

27 A man or woman who is a medium, or who has familiar spirits, shall surely be put to death; they shall stone them with stones. Their blood shall be upon their own heads.

CHAP. 21

Yahweh spoke to Mosheh; Speak to the ordinary priests, the sons of Aaron, and say to them: None shall make himself ceremonially unclean for those who die among his people,

2 Except for his relatives who are nearest to him: his wife who is as his own body, his mother, his father, his son, his daughter, and his brother;

3 Also his virgin sister who is dependent on him, since she has no husband, for her he may defile himself.

4 Otherwise, he must not defile himself, making himself ceremonially unclean, being a chief man among his people, to profane himself.

5 Priests must not shave their heads, nor shave off the edges of their beards, nor make any cuttings in their bodies.

6 They shall be holy to their Father and not profane the Name of their Father. Because they offer the offerings of Yahweh made by fire, the food of their Father, they are to be holy.

7 They must not marry women defiled by harlotry, nor divorced from their husbands; for the priest is holy to Yahweh.

8 Therefore you shall regard him as holy, because they offer of the food of Yahweh. He shall be holy to you, for I, Yahweh, Who sets you apart as holy, am Holy.

9 If a priest's daughter defiles herself by playing the harlot, she profanes her father. She shall be burned with fire.

10 And the High Priest among his brethren, upon whose head the anointing oil was poured and who is consecrated to wear the High Priest's garments, must not uncover his head nor tear his clothes in mourning, for any person whatsoever.

11 He shall not go near any dead body; he must not defile himself, not even for his father or his mother,

12 Nor shall he go out of the Sanctuary of his Father Yahweh, nor profane it, because he has been dedicated and consecrated by the anointing oil of Yahweh. I am Yahweh.

13 The woman the High Priest marries must be a virgin.

14 He must not marry a widow, nor a divorced woman, nor a woman defiled through harlotry; but he shall marry a virgin of his own people, of the house of Aaron, as wife.

15 In this way he will not profane his offspring among his people, for I am Yahweh Who sets him apart as holy.

16 And Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying:

17 Speak to Aaron, saying: No man from your generations to come, who has any defect, may come near to offer the food of his Heavenly Father.

18 No man who has any defect may come near: no man who is blind or lame, disfigured in face, or deformed in limb,

19 A man who has a broken foot or a broken hand,

20 Or who is a hunchback or a dwarf, or who has a defect in his eye, or who has festering or running sores, or a eunuch.

21 No man of the descendants of Aaron the priest, who has a defect, shall come near to offer the offerings made by fire to Yahweh. He has a defect; he must not come near to offer the food to his Heavenly Father.

22 He may, however, eat the food of his Heavenly Father, both of the most holy offerings and the holy offerings;

23 Only he must not go near the Veil nor approach the altar, because he has a defect, and so profane My Sanctuary. I am Yahweh Who sets them apart as holy.

24 So Mosheh told this to Aaron and his sons, and to all the children of Israyl.

CHAP. 22

And Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying:

2 Speak to Aaron and his sons, that they treat with respect the holy offerings the children of Israyl consecrate to Me, so they will not profane My Holy Name. I am Yahweh.

3 Say to them: Whoever of all your descendants throughout your generations, who goes near the holy things the children of Israyl consecrate and sanctify to Yahweh, while he is ceremonially unclean, that person shall be cut off from My Presence: I am Yahweh.

4 Whatever man of the descendants of Aaron, who is a leper, or who has an infectious skin disease, or has a bodily discharge, shall not eat the holy offerings until he is ceremonially clean. He will also be unclean if he touches something defiled by a corpse, or by anyone who has an emission of semen,

5 Or if he touches any crawling thing that makes him unclean, or any person who makes him unclean, whatever his uncleanness may be—

6 The person who has touched any such thing shall be unclean until sunset. He must not eat any of the holy offerings unless he has bathed himself with water;

7 And when the sun goes down he shall be clean; and afterward he may eat the holy offerings, because it is his food.

8 Whatever is found dead or torn by wild animals, he must not eat, to become defiled by it. I am Yahweh.

9 They shall therefore keep My ordinance so they do not become guilty and die for profaning them by contempt. I am Yahweh Who sets them apart as holy.

10 No one outside a priest's family may eat the holy offerings, nor may the guest of a priest or his hired worker eat it.

11 But if the priest buys a person with his money, that person may eat it; or if a slave is born in his house, his slave may eat his food.

12 If a priest's daughter marries anyone other than a priest, she may not eat any of the holy offerings.

13 But if the priest's daughter becomes a widow or divorced, and has no child, and has returned to her father's house as in her youth, she may eat her father's food, but no unauthorized person may eat any of it.

14 If anyone eats a holy offering by mistake, he must make restitution to the priest for the offering, and add a fifth of the value to it.

15 The priests must not desecrate nor profane the holy offerings the children of Israyl present to Yahweh.

16 By allowing them to eat the holy offerings, and so bring upon them guilt requiring payment, I am Yahweh Who sets them apart and makes them holy.

17 And Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying;

18 Speak to Aaron and his sons, and to all the children of Israyl, and say to them: Whatever man of the house of Israyl, or of the strangers living in Israyl, who offers his sacrifice for any of his vows, or for any of his freewill offerings, which they offer to Yahweh as a burnt offering.

19 You must present a male without blemish or defect from the cattle, sheep, or goats, in order that it may be accepted on your behalf.

20 Whatever has a defect or blemish, you must not offer it, for it will not be acceptable on your behalf.

21 Whoever offers a sacrifice of peace offering to Yahweh to fulfill his special vow, or as a freewill offering, it must be brought from the cattle or the sheep, and it must be perfect to be acceptable. There shall be no defect in it.

22 Do not offer to Yahweh the blind, the injured, nor the maimed, neither anything with warts, or festering or running sores. Do not place any of these on the altar as an offering made by fire to Yahweh.

23 You may, however, present as a freewill offering a cow, or bull, or a sheep that is deformed or stunted, but it will not be accepted in fulfillment of a vow.

24 You must not offer to Yahweh an animal whose testicles are bruised, crushed, torn, or cut. You must not do this in your own land.

25 And you must not accept such animals from the hand of a foreigner, and offer them as the food for your Heavenly Father. They will not be accepted on your behalf, for they are deformed and have defects.

26 And Yahweh said to Mosheh;

27 When a cow, or a bull, or a sheep, or a goat is born, it is to remain with its mother for seven days. From the eighth day on, it will be acceptable as an offering made by fire to Yahweh.

28 Whether it is a cow or ewe sheep, do not kill both her and her young on the same day.

29 And when you offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving to Yahweh, offer it that it may be acceptable for you:

30 It must be eaten that same day; you shall leave none of it until morning; I am Yahweh.

31 Therefore you shall keep My commandments, and perform and do them; I am

Yahweh.

32 You shall not profane My Holy Name, but I will be Hallowed among the children of Israyl. I am Yahweh Who sanctifies you, and sets you apart as holy;

33 Who brought you out of the land of Egypt, to be your Heavenly Father. I am Yahweh.

CHAP. 23

And Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying;

2 Speak to the children of Israyl, and say to them: Concerning the Feasts of Yahweh, which you shall proclaim to be ● Holy Convocations; these are My Feasts:

3 Six days shall work be done, but the Seventh Day is a Sabbath of solemn rest, a Holy Convocation. You shall do no work on it. It is the Sabbath of Yahweh in all your dwellings.

4 These are the Feasts of Yahweh, His Holy Convocations, which you shall proclaim in their seasons:

5 On the Fourteenth of the First Moon, ● between the two evenings, Yahweh's Passover Sacrifice is to be killed.

6 And on the Fifteenth Day of the same Moon is the Feast of Unleavened Bread to Yahweh; seven days you must eat unleavened bread.

7 On the first day you shall have a Holy Convocation; you shall do no regular work on it,

8 But you shall offer an offering made by fire to Yahweh for seven days. The seventh day shall be a Holy Convocation; you shall do no regular work on it.

9 And Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying;

10 Speak to the children of Israyl, and say to them: When you come into the land which I am giving to you, and you reap its harvest, then you shall bring a sheaf of the firstfruits of your harvest to the priest;

11 And he shall wave the sheaf in front of Yahweh, to be accepted for you. On the day after the First Holy Day Sabbath the priest shall wave it.

12 You shall offer on that day when you wave the sheaf, a male lamb of the first year, without blemish or defect, as a burnt offering to Yahweh.

13 The Omer Grain Offering shall be two-tenths of an ephah; about 4 quart, of fine flour mixed with oil, an offering made by fire to Yahweh for a pleasing aroma; and its drink offering shall be one-fourth of a hin, about 1 quart, of wine.

14 And you shall eat neither bread, nor parched grain, nor fresh green ears, until the very day you have brought this Omer Offering to Yahweh. This shall be a statute forever throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

● Holy Convocations: Gathering together by the command of Yahweh, at the times appointed by Yahweh. ● Between the Two Evenings: between around 3:00 in the afternoon and sunset.

15 And you shall count for yourselves, from the day after the First Holy Day Sabbath—from the day that you brought the sheaf of the wave offering: seven full weeks shall be completed.

16 Count off fifty days up to the day after the seventh Sabbath; then you shall offer a new grain offering to Yahweh.

17 You shall bring from your habitations two wave loaves made from two-tenths of an ephah; about 4 quarts, of fine flour. They shall be baked with leaven; the Firstfruits to Yahweh.

18 And you shall offer with the bread seven lambs of the first year without blemish, one young bull, and two rams. They shall be burnt offerings to Yahweh, with their grain offerings and their drink offerings, an offering made by fire for a pleasing aroma to Yahweh.

19 Then you shall kill one kid of the goats as a sin offering, and two male lambs of the first year as a sacrifice of peace offering.

20 The priest shall wave them with the bread of the Firstfruits as a wave offering in front of Yahweh, with the two lambs. They shall be holy to Yahweh for the priests.

21 And you shall proclaim on that same day that it may be a Holy Convocation to you, Shavuot; the Feast of Weeks, the Feast of Firstfruits. You shall do no regular work on it. It shall be a statute forever in all your dwellings throughout your generations.

22 And when you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not completely harvest the corners of your field when you reap, nor shall you gather any gleanings from your harvest. You shall leave them for the poor and for the stranger: I am Yahweh your Heavenly Father.

23 And Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying:

24 Speak to the children of Israyl, saying: In the Seventh Moon, on the First of the Moon, you shall have a Sabbath, a Memorial of Blowing of Trumpets; the Feast of Trumpets, a Holy Convocation.

25 You shall do no regular work on it; but you shall offer an offering made by fire to Yahweh.

26 And Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying:

27 Also the Tenth of this Seventh Moon is the Day of Atonement. It shall be a Holy Convocation for you. You shall ● afflict your souls, and offer an offering made by fire to Yahweh.

28 You shall do no work at all on that same day, for it is the Day of Atonement, to make atonement for you in front of Yahweh your Heavenly Father.

29 Any person who is not afflicted on that same day, he shall be cut off from his people.

30 Any person who does any work on that same day, he shall be cut off from among his people.

31 You shall do no manner of work at all; it shall be a statute forever throughout your generations in all your dwellings, wherever you may live.

32 It is to you a Sabbath of rest, and you shall afflict yourselves. On the Ninth of the Moon at evening; at the setting of the sun, through the Tenth of the Moon at evening; at the setting of the sun, from evening until evening, you shall celebrate your Sabbath.

33 Then Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying:

34 Speak to the children of Israyl, saying: The Fifteenth Day of this Seventh Moon is the Feast of Tabernacles for seven days unto Yahweh.

35 On the first day there shall be a Holy Convocation; you shall do no regular work on it;

36 But for seven days you shall offer an offering made by fire to Yahweh. On the eighth day you shall have a Holy Convocation; the Last Great Day, and you shall offer an offering made by fire to Yahweh. It is the Closing Gathering of Yahweh's Sacred Year, and you shall do no customary, regular work on it.

37 These are the Feasts of Yahweh which you shall proclaim to be Holy Convocations, to offer an offering made by fire to Yahweh, a burnt offering, a grain offering, a sacrifice, and drink offerings, required on each day.

38 These offerings are in addition to those for Yahweh's Sabbaths, and in addition to your gifts, and whatever you have vowed, and all the freewill offerings you give to Yahweh.

39 So on the Fifteenth Day of the Seventh Moon, when you have gathered in the fruit of the land, you must keep the Feast of Yahweh for seven days. On the first day there shall be a Sabbath, and on the eighth day a Sabbath.

40 On the first day you are to take choice fruit from the trees; pomegranates, and palm branches, boughs from leafy trees and willows of the brook; and you shall rejoice in front of Yahweh your Father for seven days.

41 You shall keep it as a Feast to Yahweh for seven days in the year. It shall be a statute forever in your generations. You shall celebrate it in the Seventh Moon.

42 And you shall live in booths for seven days. All who are native born children of Israyl shall live in booths.

43 In order that your generations may know that I made the children of Israyl to live in booths when I brought them out of the land of Egypt; I am Yahweh your Heavenly Father.

44 So Mosheh declared to the children of Israyl the Feasts of Yahweh.

● Not eating any food nor drinking any liquid on The Day of Atonement from the Ninth at sunset through the Tenth at sunset.

Yahweh's Feasts: The Weekly Seventh Day Sabbath, The Passover Feast of Unleavened Bread, The Day of Pentecost, The Feast of Trumpets, The Day of Atonement, The Feast of Tabernacles, The Last Great Day.

CHAP. 24

And Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying:

2 Command the children of Israyl to bring you clear oil of pressed olives for the light, so that the lamps may be kept burning continually.

3 Outside the Veil of the Testimony, in the Holy Place, Aaron shall be in charge of it from evening until morning in front of Yahweh continually; it shall be a statute forever in your generations.

4 The lamps on the pure gold lampstand in front of Yahweh must be tended continually.

5 And take fine flour, and bake twelve loaves of bread with it. Two-tenths of an ephah; about 4 quarts of fine flour, shall be used to make each loaf.

6 You shall set them in two rows, six in a row, on the table of pure gold in front of Yahweh.

7 And along each row put some pure frankincense as a memorial portion to represent the bread, and to be an offering made to Yahweh by fire.

8 Every Weekly Sabbath he shall set it in order in front of Yahweh regularly, Sabbath after Sabbath, on behalf of the children of Israyl, by an everlasting covenant.

9 And it shall be for Aaron and his sons, and they shall eat it in a holy place; for it is their most holy part of their regular share of the offerings made by fire to Yahweh, by a lasting covenant.

10 Now the son of an Israylite woman, whose father was an Egyptian, went out among the children of Israyl; and this Israylite woman's son and a man of Israyl fought each other in the camp.

11 And the Israylite woman's son blasphemed the Name of Yahweh with a curse. So they brought him to Mosheh. (His mother's name was Shelomith the daughter of Dibri, of the tribe of Dan.)

12 Then they put him in custody, until the will of Yahweh would be made clear to them.

13 Then Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying;

14 Take the blasphemer outside the camp; and all those who heard him, are to lay their hands on his head, and the entire congregation is to stone him.

15 Then you shall speak to the children of Israyl, saying: If anyone curses Yahweh, he shall bear his sin;

16 And anyone who blasphemes the Name of Yahweh, he must be put to death. All the congregation must stone him; the stranger as well as him who is born in the land. When he blasphemes the Name of Yahweh, he shall be put to death.

17 Whoever takes the life of a human being, he must be put to death.

18 Anyone who takes the life of someone's animal, must make restitution; life for life.

19 If anyone injures his brother, whatever he has done, so shall it be done to him:

20 Fracture for fracture, eye for eye, tooth for tooth. As he has injured the other, so he is to be injured.

21 And whoever kills an animal must make restitution, but whoever kills a man must be put to death.

22 You shall have the same law for the stranger and for the one from your own country; for I am Yahweh your Father.

23 Then Mosheh spoke to the children of Israyl, and they took the blasphemer outside the camp and stoned him with stones. So the children of Israyl did as Yahweh commanded Mosheh.

CHAP. 25

And Yahweh spoke to Mosheh on Mount Sinai, saying;

2 Speak to the children of Israyl, and say to them: When you come into the land which I give you, then the land shall keep a Sabbath unto Yahweh.

3 Six years you shall sow your field, and six years you shall prune your vineyard, and gather in its fruit;

4 But in the Seventh Year there shall be a Sabbath of solemn rest for the land, a Sabbath to Yahweh. You shall neither sow your field nor prune your vineyard.

5 What grows voluntarily of your harvest you shall not reap, nor gather the grapes of your untended vine. The land is to have a year of rest.

6 Whatever the land yields during the Sabbath Year will be food for you—for yourself, your manservant and maidservant, for the hired worker and for the stranger who lives among you,

7 For your livestock and the animals in your land—all it produces shall be for food.

8 And you shall count seven Sabbaths of years for yourself, seven times seven years; and the time of the seven Sabbaths of years shall be to you forty-nine years.

9 Then you have the Trumpet of the Jubilee sounded everywhere on the Tenth Day of the Seventh Moon; on the Day of Atonement sound the trumpet throughout your land.

10 Consecrate the fiftieth year, and proclaim liberty throughout the land to all its inhabitants. It shall be a ● Jubilee for you; and each of you shall return to his possession, and each of you shall return to his family.

● Yobel. The continuous sound of the Silver Trumpets, announcing The Fiftieth Year.

11 That fiftieth year shall be a Jubilee to you. In it you shall neither sow nor reap what grows voluntarily, nor gather the grapes from your untended vines.

12 For it is the Jubilee; it shall be holy to you; you shall eat its produce from the field.

13 In this Year of Jubilee each of you shall return to his possession.

14 And if you sell anything to your brother or buy from your brother's hand, you shall not oppress one another.

15 You are to buy from your brother on the basis of the number of years since the Jubilee. And he is to sell to you on the basis of the number of years left for harvesting crops.

16 When the years are many, you are to increase the price, and when the years are few, you are to decrease the price, because what he is really selling you is the number of crops.

17 Do not take advantage of each other, but revere your Father; for I am Yahweh your Heavenly Father.

18 So you shall observe My statutes and keep My judgments, and perform and do them; and you will live in the land in safety.

19 Then the land will yield its fruit, and you will eat your fill, and live there in safety.

20 And if you say; What shall we eat in the Seventh Year if we do not plant or harvest our crops?

21 I will send you such a blessing in the Sixth Year that the land will yield enough for three years.

22 While you plant during the eighth year, you will eat from the old crop and will continue to eat from it until the harvest of the ninth year comes in.

23 The land must not be sold permanently, because the land is Mine and you are but strangers and My tenants.

24 Throughout the country that you hold as a possession, you must provide for the redemption of the land.

25 If one of your brothers becomes poor, and has sold some of his possession, his nearest kinsman is to come and redeem what his brother has sold.

26 If, however, a man has no one to redeem it for him, but he himself becomes financially able to redeem it,

27 Then let him count the years since its sale, and restore the balance to the man to whom he sold it, that he may return to his possession.

28 But if he is not able to restore it to himself, then what was sold shall remain in the hand of him who bought it until the Year of Jubilee. Then in the Jubilee it shall be released, and he shall return to his possession.

29 If a man sells a house in a walled city, then he may redeem it within a whole year after it is sold; within a full year he may redeem it.

30 But if it is not redeemed within the space of a full year, then the house in the walled city shall permanently belong to him who bought it, throughout his generations. It shall not be released in the Jubilee.

31 But houses in villages without walls around them are to be considered as open country. They can be redeemed, and they are to be returned in the Jubilee.

32 The Levites always have the right to redeem their houses in the Levitical towns, which they possess.

33 So the property of the Levites is redeemable, (that is, a house sold in any town they hold) and is to be returned in the Jubilee, because the houses in the towns of the Levites are their property among the children of Israyl.

34 But the pastureland belonging to their towns must not be sold; it is their permanent possession.

35 If one of your brothers becomes poor and is unable to support himself among you, help him as you would a stranger or a sojourner, so he can continue to live among you.

36 Do not take interest of any kind from him, but revere your Father, that your brother may live with you.

37 You shall not lend him your money for usury, nor lend him your food at a profit.

38 I am Yahweh your Father Who brought you out of the land of Egypt, to give you the land of Canaan and to be your Heavenly Father.

39 If one of your brothers becomes poor among you and sells himself to you, do not make him work as a slave.

40 He is to be treated as a hired worker or a sojourner among you; he is to work for you until the Year of Jubilee.

41 Then he and his children are to be released and he will go back to his own clan and to the property of his forefathers.

42 Because the children of Israyl are My servants, whom I brought out of Egypt, they must not be sold as slaves.

43 You shall not rule over him ruthlessly, but you shall revere your Heavenly Father.

44 Your male and female slaves are to come from the nations around you; from them you may buy slaves.

45 You may also buy some of the sojourners living among you and members of their clans born in your country, and they will become your property.

46 You may take them as an inheritance to will to your children after you; they shall be your permanent slaves. But your brothers, the children of Israyl, you shall not rule over one another ruthlessly.

47 If a sojourner or stranger among you becomes rich and one of your brothers becomes poor and sells himself to the sojourner or stranger among you,

48 He retains the right of redemption after he has sold himself. One of his relatives may redeem him:

49 An uncle or a cousin or any blood relative in his clan may redeem him. Or if he is able, he may redeem himself.

50 He and his buyer are to count the time from the year he sold himself up to the Year of Jubilee. The price for his release is to be based on the rate paid to a hired man for that number of years.

51 If many years remain, he must pay for his redemption a larger share of the price paid for him.

52 If only a few years remain until the Year of Jubilee, he is to figure a few years, and pay for his redemption accordingly.

53 He is to be treated as a man hired from year to year; you must see to it that his owner does not rule over him ruthlessly.

54 Even if he is not redeemed in any of these ways, he and his children are to be released in the Year of Jubilee.

55 For the children of Israyl belong to Me as servants. They are My servants, whom I brought out of Egypt. I am Yahweh your Heavenly Father.

CHAP. 26

You shall not make gods for yourselves; neither an image, nor a sacred pillar shall you raise up for yourselves, nor shall you set up a carved stone in your land to bow down to it, for I am Yahweh your Father.

2 You shall keep My Sabbaths and reverence My Sanctuary. I am Yahweh.

3 If you walk in My statutes and keep My commandments, and perform and do them,

4 Then I will give you rain in its season, the land shall yield its produce, and the trees of the field shall yield their fruit.

5 Your threshing shall last until the time of vintage, and the vintage shall last until the time of sowing. You shall eat your food until you are full, and live in your land safely.

6 I will give peace in the land, and you shall lie down, and none will make you afraid; I will rid the land of wild beasts, and the sword will not go through your land.

7 You will chase your enemies, and they shall fall by the sword in front of you.

8 Five of you shall chase a hundred, and a hundred of you shall put ten thousand to flight; your enemies shall fall by the sword in front of you.

9 For I will look upon you with honor and make you fruitful, multiply you, and confirm My covenant with you.

10 You shall eat the old harvest and clear out the old because of the new.

11 I will set My tabernacle among you, and I will not abhor you.

12 I will walk among you and be your Father, and you shall be My people.

13 I am Yahweh your Father Who brought you out of the land of Egypt, that you should not be their slaves; I have broken the bars of your yoke and made you walk upright.

14 But if you do not obey Me, and do not observe and do all these Commandments,

15 And if you despise My Statutes, or if you abhor My Judgments, so that you do not perform and do all My Commandments, and so violate My Covenant,

16 I also will do this to you: I will bring upon you sudden terror, wasting diseases and fever that will destroy your sight and drain away your life. You will plant seed in vain, because your enemies will eat it.

17 I will set My face against you so that you will be defeated by your enemies; those who hate you will rule over you, and you will flee even when no one is pursuing you.

18 If after all this you will not listen to Me, I will punish you for your sins seven times over.

19 I will break down your stubborn pride, and make the sky above you like iron and your earth like brass.

20 And your strength shall be spent in vain; for your land shall not yield its produce, nor shall the trees of the land yield their fruit.

21 Then, if you walk contrary to Me, and are not willing to obey Me, I will multiply your afflictions seven times over, as your sins deserve.

22 I will send wild animals against you, and they will rob you of your children, destroy your cattle, and make you so few in number that your highways will be desolate and empty.

23 And if in spite of these things you do not accept My correction and are not reformed by Me, but walk contrary to Me,

24 Then I also will walk contrary to you, and I will punish you yet seven times over for your sins.

25 And I will bring a sword against you to avenge the breaking of My Covenant. When you withdraw together within your cities, I will send pestilence among you and you will be given into the hand of the enemy.

26 When I cut off your supply of food, ten women will be able to bake your bread in one oven, and they will dole out the bread by weight. You will eat, but you will not be satisfied.

27 If in spite of this you still do not obey Me, but continue to walk contrary to Me,

28 Then I also will in My fury continue to walk contrary to you, and I, even I, will chastise you seven times over for your sins.

29 You shall eat the flesh of your sons and you shall eat the flesh of your daughters.

30 I will destroy your high places, cut down your incense altars, and throw your carcasses upon the lifeless forms of your gods; and I shall abhor you.

31 I will lay your cities waste and bring your sanctuaries to desolation, and I will not smell the fragrance of your pleasing aromas.

32 I will bring the land to desolation, and your enemies who live in it shall be astonished by it.

33 I will scatter you among the nations and draw out a sword after you; your land shall be desolate and your cities wasted.

34 Then the land shall enjoy its Sabbaths as long as it lies desolate and you are in your enemies' land; then the land shall rest and enjoy its Sabbaths.

35 As long as it lies desolate, the land will have the rest it did not have during the Sabbaths you lived in it.

36 As for those of you who are left, I will make their hearts so fearful in the lands of their enemies that the sound of a wind-blown leaf will put them to flight. They will run as though fleeing from the sword, and they will fall, even though no one is pursuing them.

37 They will stumble over one another as though fleeing from the sword, even though no one is pursuing them. So you will not be able to stand before your enemies.

38 You shall perish among the nations, and the land of your enemies shall eat you up.

39 And those of you who are left shall waste away because of their iniquity in your enemies' lands; also because of their fathers' sins they will waste away.

40 But if they will confess their sins and the sins of their fathers, with their unfaithfulness in which they were unfaithful to Me, in which they also have walked contrary to Me.

41 Which made Me walk contrary toward them so that I sent them into the land of their enemies, then when their uncircumcised hearts are humbled and they pay for this sin,

42 Then I will remember My covenant with Yaaqob, and My covenant with Isaac, and My covenant with Abraham I will remember; I will remember the land.

43 The land also shall be left empty by them, and will enjoy its Sabbaths while it lies desolate without them; they will accept their guilt, because they despised My Judgments and because they abhorred My Statutes.

44 Yet in spite of this, when they are in the land of their enemies, I will not reject them or abhor them so as to destroy them completely, breaking My covenant with them. I am Yahweh their Father.

45 But for their sake I will remember the covenant with their ancestors, whom I brought out of the land of Egypt in the sight of the nations, that I might be their Father. I am Yahweh.

46 These are the Statutes and Judgments, and Laws which Yahweh made between Himself and the children of Israyl on Mount Sinai by the hand of Mosheh.

CHAP. 27

Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying:

2 Speak to the children of Israyl, and say to them: When a man consecrates by a special vow certain persons to Yahweh, by giving equivalent values,

3 Set the value of a male between the ages of twenty and sixty at fifty shekels, that is, about 1 1/4 pounds, of silver, according to the sanctuary shekel, that is, about 2/5 ounce per shekel.

4 And if it is a female between these ages, set her value at thirty shekels, that is, about 12 ounces of silver.

5 If it is a person between the ages of five and twenty, set the value of a male at twenty shekels, that is, about 8 ounces of silver, and of a female at 10 shekels, that is, about 4 ounces.

6 If it is a person between one moon and five years, set the value of a male at five shekels of silver, that is, about 2 ounces, and that of a female at three shekels of silver, that is about 1 1/4 ounces.

7 If it is a person sixty years old or more, set the value of a male at fifteen shekels, that is about 6 ounces of silver and of a female at ten shekels, that is about 4 ounces.

8 If anyone making the vow is too poor to pay the specified amount, he is to present the person to the priest, who will set the value for him according to what the man making the vow can afford.

9 If what he vowed is an animal that is acceptable as an offering to Yahweh, such an animal given to Yahweh becomes holy.

10 He must not exchange it or substitute a worthy one for a bad one, or a bad one for a worthy one; if he should substitute one animal for another, both it and the substitute become holy.

11 If what he vowed is a ceremonially unclean animal, one that is not acceptable as an offering to Yahweh, the animal must be presented to the priest, 12 Who will judge its quality as worthy or bad. Whatever value the priest then sets, that is what it will be.

13 If the owner desires at all to redeem it, then he must add one-fifth to the priest's valuation.

14 If a man dedicates his house as something holy to Yahweh, the priest will judge its value for it, so shall it remain.

15 If the man who dedicates his house redeems it, he must add one-fifth more to its valuation; and the house will again become his.

16 If a man dedicates to Yahweh part of his inherited family land, its value is to be set according to the amount of seed needed to plant it. A homer of barley seed, probably about 6 bushels, shall be valued at fifty shekels of silver, about 1 1/4 pounds silver.

17 If he dedicates his field during the Year of Jubilee, the value that has been set will stand, 18 But if he dedicates his field after the Jubilee, the priest will determine the value according to the number of years remaining until the next Year of Jubilee; and its set value will be reduced.

19 If he who dedicates the field ever wants to redeem it, then he must add one-fifth to its estimated value, and the field will again become his.

20 But if he does not want to redeem the field, or if he has sold the field to another man, it can never be redeemed.

21 When the field is released in the Jubilee, it will become holy to Yahweh; like a ● devoted field, it will become the property of the priests.

22 If a man dedicates to Yahweh a field he has bought, which is not a part of his inherited family land, 23 Then the priest will determine its value up to the Year of Jubilee, and the man must pay the priest's valuation on that day, as a holy offering to Yahweh.

24 In the Year of Jubilee the field will return to the person from whom it was bought, to the one who inherits the land as a possession.

25 Every value is to be set according to the sanctuary shekel, twenty gerahs to the shekel, about 1/50 ounce of silver to each gerah.

26 No one is to dedicate the firstborn of an animal, since the firstborn already belongs to Yahweh; whether from the herd or from the flock, male or female, it is Yahweh's.

27 If it is an unclean animal, then he may redeem it according to the valuation of the priest, and shall add one-fifth of its value to it. If it is not redeemed, then it shall be sold according to the priest's valuation.

28 But nothing a man may own, then devote as a holy offering to Yahweh—whether man, animal, or family land—may be sold or redeemed; everything so devoted is most holy to Yahweh.

29 No person under the ban; devoted, who becomes doomed to destruction among men, shall be redeemed. He must be put to death.

30 A tithe, that is, 1/10, of everything from the land, whether grain from the soil, or fruit from the trees, belongs to Yahweh. It is holy to Yahweh.

31 If a man wants to redeem any of his tithes, he must add one-fifth to the value of it.

32 The entire tithe of the herd or the flock; whatever passes under the rod, every tenth animal, is holy to Yahweh.

33 He must not pick out the finest from the bad, nor make any substitution. If he does make a substitution, both the chosen animal and also its substitute, becomes holy, and cannot be redeemed.

34 These are the commandments which Yahweh commanded Moshah for the children of Israyl on Mount Sinai.

● Chereim. Refers to the irreversible giving over of things or persons to Yahweh, often by completely destroying them. This differs from the Dedication Vow of Valuation.

NUMBERS

BEMIDBAR In The Wilderness

Yahweh spoke to Mosheh in the wilderness of Sinai, in the Tent on Meeting, on the First Day of the Second Moon, in the second year after they had come out of the land of Egypt, saying;

2 Take a census of all the congregation of the children of Israyl, by their clans and families, listing every man by name, man by man.

3 You and Aaron are to number, by their divisions, all the men in Israyl—from twenty years old and above—all those who are able to go to war for Israyl.

4 One man from each tribe is to help you; each one the head of his father's house.

5 These are the names of the men who shall stand with you, to assist you: from the tribe of Reuben, Elizur the son of Shedeur;

6 From the tribe of Simeon, Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai;

7 From the tribe of Yahdah, Nahshon son of Amminadab;

8 From the tribe of Issachar, Nethaneel the son of Zuar;

9 From the tribe of Zebulun, Eliab the son of Helon;

10 From the two tribes of Yahseph: from Ephraim, Elishama son of Ammihud; from Menasheh, Gamaliel son of Pedahzur

11 From the tribe of Benyamin, Abidan the son of Gideoni;

12 From the tribe of Dan, Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai;

13 From the tribe of Asher, Pagiel the son of Ocran;

14 From the tribe of Gad, Eliasaph the son of Deuel;

15 From the tribe of Naphtali, Ahira the son of Enan.

16 These were the men chosen from the congregation, leaders of their ancestral tribes. They were the heads of the clans of Israyl.

17 Mosheh and Aaron took these men who had been called by name.

18 And they gathered all the congregation together on the First Day of the Second Moon. Each man individually indicated their ancestry by their clans and families. The men, twenty years old and upward were listed by name, one by one.

19 As Yahweh had commanded Mosheh, so he numbered them in the Wilderness of Sinai.

20 From the descendants of Reuben: (the firstborn son of Israyl) all the men twenty years old or more, who were able to go to war, were listed by name, man by man, according to the records of their clans and families;

21 Those men who were numbered of the tribe of Reuben, were 46,500.

22 From the descendants of Simeon: all the men twenty years old or more, who were able to go to war, were listed by name, man by man, according to the records of their clans and families;

23 Those men who were numbered of the tribe of Simeon, were 59,300.

24 From the descendants of Gad: all the men twenty years old or more, who were able to go to war, were listed by name, man by man, according to the records of their clans and families;

25 Those men who were numbered of the tribe of Gad, were 45,650.

26 From the descendants of Yahdah: all the men twenty years old or more, who were able to go to war, were listed by name, man by man, according to the records of their clans and families;

27 Those men who were numbered of the tribe of Yahdah, were 74,600.

28 From the descendants of Issachar: all the men twenty years old or more, who were able to go to war, were listed by name, man by man, according to the records of their clans and families;

29 Those men who were numbered of the tribe of Issachar, were 54,400.

30 From the descendants of Zebulun: all the men twenty years old or more, who were able to go to war, were listed by name, man by man, according to the records of their clans and families;

31 Those men who were numbered of the tribe of Zebulun, were 57,400.

32 From the two tribes of Yahseph: from the descendants of Ephraim: all the men twenty years old or more, who were able to go to war, were listed by name, man by man, according to the records of their clans and families;

33 Those men who were numbered of the tribe of Ephraim, were 40,500.

34 From the descendants of Menasheh: all the men twenty years old or more, who were able to go to war, were listed by name, man by man, according to the records of their clans and families;

35 Those men who were numbered of the tribe of Menasheh, were 32,200.

36 From the descendants of Benjamin: all the men twenty years old or more, who were able to go to war, were listed by name, man by man, according to the records of their clans and families;

37 Those men who were numbered of the tribe of Benjamin, were 35,400.

38 From the descendants of Dan: all the men twenty years old or more, who were able to go to war, were listed by name, man by man, according to the records of their clans and families;

39 Those men who were numbered of the tribe of Dan, were 62,700.

40 From the descendants of Asher: all the men twenty years old or more, who were able to go to war, were listed by name, man by man, according to the records of their clans and families;

41 Those men who were numbered of the tribe of Asher, were 41,500.

42 From the descendants of Naphtali: all the men twenty years old or more, who were able to go to war, were listed by name, man by man, according to the records of their clans and families;

43 Those men who were numbered of the tribe of Naphtali, were 53,400.

44 These were the men counted by Mosheh and Aaron and the twelve leaders of Israyl, each one representing his ancestor's house.

45 So all the sons of Israyl, twenty years old or more, who were able to go to war in Israyl, were counted according to their families.

46 The total number of all those men counted, were 603,550.

47 But the descendants of Levi were not numbered among them by their ancestor's tribe;

48 For Yahweh had spoken to Mosheh, saying:

49 You must not count the tribe of Levi, nor include them among the census of the other children of Israyl.

50 You shall appoint the sons of Levi over the tabernacle of the Testimony, over all its furnishings, and everything belonging to it. They are to carry the tabernacle and all its furnishings, and they are to take care of it, and encamp around it.

51 Whenever the tabernacle is to move, the descendants of Levi are to take it down, and whenever the tabernacle is to be set up, the descendants of Levi are to set it up. Anyone else who goes near it shall be put to death.

52 The children of Israyl are to set up their tents by divisions, each man in his own camp, everyone by his own standard.

53 But the tribe of Levi shall camp around the tabernacle of the Testimony, so that wrath will not fall on the congregation of the children of Israyl. The sons of Levi are to be responsible for the care of the tabernacle of the Testimony.

54 Thus the children of Israyl did according to all that Yahweh commanded Mosheh. So they did.

CHAP. 2

Yahweh spoke Mosheh and Aaron, saying:

2 Everyone of the children of Israyl shall come under his own standard, beside the banner of his father's house. They shall camp some distance from the Tent of Meeting.

3 On the east side, toward the rising of the sun, the divisions of the camp of Yahdah are to encamp under this standard. The leader of the people of Yahdah is Nahshon son of Amminadab;

4 His division was numbered at 74,600.

5 The tribe of Issachar will camp next to Yahdah. The leader of the people of Issachar is Nethaneel son of Zuar;

6 His division was numbered at 54,400.

7 The tribe of Zebulun will be next to Issachar. The leader of the people of Zebulun is Eliab son of Helon;

8 His division was numbered at 57,400.

9 All the men assigned to the camp of Yahdah; from the tribes of Yahdah, Issachar, and Zebulun, numbered 186,400. These shall break camp, and set out first.

10 On the south will be the divisions of the camp of Reuben, under their standard. The leader of the tribe of Reuben is Elizur son of Shedeur;

11 His division was numbered at 46,500.

12 The tribe of Simeon will camp next to Reuben. The leader of the tribe of Simeon is Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai;

13 His division was numbered at 59,300.

14 The tribe of Gad will be camped next to Simeon. The leader of the tribe of Gad is Eliasaph son of Deuel;

15 His division was numbered at 45,650.

16 All the men assigned to the camp of Reuben; from the tribes of Reuben, Simeon, and Gad, numbered 151,450. They will break camp, and set out second.

17 Then the Tent of Meeting and the camp of the tribe of Levi will set out in the middle of the camps. They will set out in the same order as they encamp, each in his own place, under his standard.

18 On the west will be the divisions of the camp of Ephraim, under their standard. The leader of the tribe of Ephraim is Elishama son of Ammihud;

19 His division was numbered at 40,500.

20 The tribe of Menasheh will be next to Ephraim. The leader of the tribe of Menasheh is Gamaliel son of Pedahzur;

21 His division was numbered at 32,200.

22 The tribe of Benjamin will be next. The leader of the tribe of Benjamin is Abidan son of Gideon;

23 His division was numbered at 35,400.

24 All the men assigned to the camp of Ephraim; from the tribes of Ephraim, Menasheh, and Benjamin, numbered 108,100. They will break camp, and set out third, behind the Tent of Meeting and the tribe of Levi.

25 On the north will be the division of the camp of Dan, under their standard. The leader of the tribe of Dan is Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai;

26 His division was numbered at 62,700.

27 The tribe of Asher will camp next to Dan. The leader of the tribe of Asher is Pagiel son of Ocran;

28 His division was numbered at 41,500.

29 The tribe of Naphtali will be next. The leader of the tribe of Naphtali is Ahira son of Enan;

30 His division was numbered at 53,400.

31 All the men assigned to the camp of Dan; from the tribes of Dan, Asher, and Naphtali, numbered 157,600. They will break camp and set out last, under their standards.

32 These are the ones who were numbered of the children of Israyl, according to their father's houses. All those in the camps, by their divisions, numbered 603,500;

33 But the tribe of Levi was not numbered among the children of Israyl, as Yahweh commanded Mosheh.

34 Thus the children of Israyl did everything as Yahweh commanded Mosheh. That is the way they encamped under their standards, and that is the way they broke camp and set out, each with his clan and his family.

CHAP. 3

These are the begettings of the family of Aaron and Mosheh, at the time Yahweh talked with Mosheh on Mount Sinai;

2 And these are the names of the sons of Aaron: Nadab, the firstborn, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

3 These are the names of the sons of Aaron, the anointed priests, who were consecrated and ordained to serve as priests;

4 But Nadab and Abihu had died in front of Yahweh, when they offered profane and unauthorized fire in front of Yahweh while they encamped in the Wilderness of Sinai. They had no sons; so only Eleazar and Ithamar served as priests during the lifetime of their father Aaron.

5 And Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying:

6 Bring the tribe of Levi near, and present them before Aaron the High Priest, in order that they may assist him.

7 They are to perform duties for him and for the whole community at the Tent of Meeting, to do the work of the tabernacle.

8 They shall take care of all the furnishings of the Tent of Meeting, fulfilling the obligations of the children of Israyl, by doing the work of the tabernacle on their behalf.

9 You shall give the sons of Levi to Aaron and his sons. They are given entirely to Me from among the children of Israyl.

10 Appoint Aaron and his sons to serve in the Priesthood. Anyone else who enters the Holy Place must be put to death.

11 Then Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying:

12 I, Myself, have taken the Levites from among the children of Israyl, instead of every firstborn son who opens the womb among the children of Israyl. Therefore, the Levites shall be Mine, 13 For all the firstborn are Mine. On the day that I struck all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, I sanctified and set apart for Myself all the firstborn in Israyl, whether man or animal.

● They are to be Mine. I am Yahweh.

14 Then Yahweh spoke to Mosheh in the Wilderness of Sinai, saying:

15 Number the children of Levi by their families and clans. Count every male one moon old or more.

16 So Mosheh numbered them, as he was commanded by the word of Yahweh.

17 These were the names of the sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

18 These were the names of the sons of Gershon, by their clans: Libni and Shimei.

19 The sons of Kohath, by their clans, were: Amram, Izehar, Hebron, and Uzziel.

20 The sons of Merari, by their clans, were: Mahli and Mushi. These were the Levite clans, according to their families.

21 From Gershon came the clans of the Libnites and the clans of the Shimites. These were the clans of the Gershonites.

22 The number of all the males one moon old or more, who were numbered, was 7,500.

23 The clans of the Gershonites were to camp on the west; behind the tabernacle.

24 The leader of the fathers' house of the Gershonites was Eliasaph the son of Lael.

25 The duties of the children of Gershon in the Tent of Meeting was the care of the tabernacle, the tent with its coverings, the curtain screen at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

26 The curtains of the courtyard, the curtain screen at the entrance to the courtyard surrounding the tabernacle and altar, and the ropes, and everything related to their use.

27 From Kohath came the clan of the Amramites, the clan of the Izharites, the clan of the Hebronites, and the clan of the Uzzielites. These were the clans of the Kohathites.

28 The number of all the males a moon old or more was 8,600.

29 The clans of the children of Kohath were to camp on the south side of the tabernacle.

30 The leader of the fathers' house of the clans of the Kohathites was Elizaphan the son of Uzziel.

31 They were responsible for the care of the ark, the table, the lampstand, the altars, the articles of the sanctuary used in ministering, the Veil, and everything related to their use.

32 Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest was to be chief over the leaders of the Levites, the overseer of those who kept charge of the sanctuary.

33 From Merari came the clan of the Mahlites and the clan of the Mushites. These were the clans of Merari.

34 The number of all the males a moon old or more who were numbered was 6,200.

35 The leader of the fathers' house of the clans of Merari was Zurriel the son of Abihail. They were to camp on the north side of the tabernacle.

36 The clans of Merari were appointed to take care of the frames of the tabernacle, its bars, posts, bases, all its equipment, and everything related to their use.

37 As well as the posts of the surrounding courtyard with their bases, tent pegs and ropes.

38 Those who were to camp in front of the tabernacle, on the east side, in front of the Tent of Meeting, were Mosheh, and Aaron and his sons. They were responsible for the care of the Sanctuary on behalf of the children of Israyl. Anyone else who approached the Sanctuary, the Holy Place and the Most Holy Place, was to be put to death.

39 The total number of the sons of Levi, counted and numbered at Yahweh's command by Mosheh and Aaron, according to their clans, including every male a moon old or more, was 22,000.

40 Then Yahweh said to Mosheh: Number all the firstborn males of the children of Israyl, from a moon old and above, and take the number of their names.

41 And you shall take the Levites for Me in place of all the firstborn among the children of Israyl, and the livestock of the Levites in place of all the firstborn of the livestock of the children of Israyl. I am Yahweh.

42 So Mosheh numbered all the firstborn among the children of Israyl as Yahweh commanded him.

43 And all the firstborn males, from a moon old or more, listed by name, were 22,273.

44 Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying:

45 Take the Levites instead of all the firstborn among the children of Israyl, and the livestock of the Levites instead of their livestock. The Levites shall be Mine. I am Yahweh.

46 To redeem the 273 firstborn children of Israyl who exceed the number of the Levites.

47 Collect five shekels for each one, that is, about 2 ounces of silver each, according to the sanctuary shekel which weighs twenty gerahs, taking probably 50 gerahs to make an ounce.

48 Give the money for the redemption of the additional children of Israyl to Aaron and his sons.

49 So Mosheh collected the redemption money from those who exceeded the number redeemed by the Levites.

50 From the firstborn of the children of Israyl he collected silver weighing 1,365 shekels, that is, about 35 pounds of silver, according to the sanctuary shekel.

51 Mosheh gave their redemption money to Aaron and his sons, as he was commanded by the word of Yahweh.

CHAP. 4

Yahweh spoke to Mosheh and Aaron, saying:

2 Take a census of the sons of Kohath from among the children of Levi, by their clans, and by their father's house.

3 Count all the men from thirty to fifty years of age who come to serve in the work in the Tent of Meeting.

4 This is the service of the sons of Kohath in the Tent of Meeting: the care of the most holy things.

5 When the camp is to move, Aaron and his sons are to go in and take down the Veil and cover the ark of the Testimony with it.

6 Then they are to cover this with hides of goat skins, spread a cloth of solid blue over that and put the poles in place.

7 Over the table of the Presence they are to spread a blue cloth and put on it the plates, ladles and bowls, and the pitchers for drink offerings. The bread that is continually there is to remain upon it.

8 Over these they are to spread a scarlet cloth, cover that with hides of goat skins and put its poles in place.

9 They are to take a blue cloth and cover the lampstand that is for light, together with its lamps, its wick trimmers and trays, and all its pitchers for the oil used to supply it.

10 Then they are to wrap it and all its accessories in a covering of goats' hides and put it on a carrying frame.

11 Over the golden altar they are to spread a blue cloth and cover that with goats' hides and put its poles in place.

12 They are to take all the articles used for ministering in the sanctuary, wrap them in a blue cloth, cover that with goat hides, and put them on a carrying frame.

13 They are to remove the ashes from the bronze altar and spread a purple cloth over it.

14 Then they are to place on it all the utensils used for ministering at the altar, including the firepans, meat forks, shovels, and sprinkling bowls. Over it they are to spread a covering of goat hides and put its poles in place.

15 After Aaron and his sons have finished covering the holy furnishings and all the holy articles, and when the camp is ready to move, then the sons of Kohath are to come to do the carrying, but they must not touch the holy things or they will die. The Kohathites are to carry those things that are in the Tent of Meeting.

16 Eleazar son of Aaron the priest, is to have charge of the oil for the light, the fragrant incense, the regular grain offering, and the anointing oil. He is to be in charge of the entire tabernacle and everything in it, including its holy furnishings and articles.

17 Yahweh spoke to Mosheh and Aaron, saying;

18 Do not cut off the tribe of the clans of the Kohathites from among the Levites; take care that the Kohathites do not incur death through any negligence or want of consideration on your part.

19 So that they may live and not die when they come near the most holy things; do this for them: Aaron and his sons shall go in and appoint each of them to his service and his task.

20 But they shall not go in to watch while the holy things are being covered or they will die.

21 Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying;

22 Also take a census of the sons of Gershon, by their fathers' house and by their clans.

23 Count all the men from thirty to fifty years of age who come to serve in the work at the Tent of Meeting.

24 This is the service of the clans of Gershon; in serving and carrying.

25 They are to carry the curtains of the tabernacle, the Tent of Meeting, its covering and the outer covering of goats' hides, and curtains for the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

26 The curtains of the courtyard surrounding the tabernacle and altar, the curtain screen for the entrance, the ropes, and all the equipment used in its service. So shall they serve.

27 Aaron and his sons shall assign all the service of the sons of the Gershonites, all their tasks, and all their service. And you shall appoint to them all their tasks as their duty.

28 This is the service of the clans of the Gershonites at the Tent of Meeting. Their duties are to be under the direction of Ithamar son of Aaron, the priest.

29 Number the sons of Merari by their clans and by their fathers' house.

30 Count all the men from thirty to fifty years of age who come to serve in the work at the Tent of Meeting.

31 This is their duty as they perform service at the Tent of Meeting; to carry the frames of the tabernacle, its bars, posts, and bases.

32 As well as the posts of the surrounding courtyard with their bases, tent pegs, ropes, all their equipment and everything related to their use. You shall assign to each man by name the items he must carry.

33 This is the service of the clans of the sons of Merari, as they work at the Tent of Meeting under the direction of Ithamar son of Aaron, the priest.

34 Mosheh, Aaron, and the leaders of the congregation counted the Kohathites by their clans and families.

35 All the men from thirty to fifty years of age who came to serve in the work in the Tent of Meeting, 36 Counted by clans, were 2,750.

37 This was the total of all those in the Kohathite clans who served in the Tent of Meeting. Mosheh and Aaron counted them according to Yahweh's command through Mosheh.

38 The sons of Gershon were counted by their clans and by their families.

39 All the men from thirty to fifty years of age who came to serve in the work at the Tent of Meeting,

40 Counted by their clans and families, were 2,630.

41 This was the total of those in the Gershonite clans who served at the Tent of Meeting. Mosheh and Aaron counted them according to the commandment of Yahweh.

42 The families of the sons of Merari were counted by their clans and families.

43 All the men from thirty to fifty years of age who came to serve in the work at the Tent of Meeting, 44 Counted by their clans, were 3,200.

45 This was the total of those in the clans of Merari. Mosheh and Aaron counted them according to the word of Yahweh by the hand of Mosheh.

46 So Mosheh, Aaron, and the leaders of Israyl counted all the sons of Levi by their clans and families.

47 All the men from thirty to fifty years of age who came to do the work of serving and carrying the Tent of Meeting—

48 Those who were numbered were 8,580.

49 According to the commandment of Yahweh they were numbered by the hand of Mosheh, each according to his service and according to his assigned tasks; thus were they numbered as Yahweh commanded Mosheh.

CHAP. 5

Yahweh spoke to Mosheh and Aaron, saying:

2 Command the children of Israyl that they put out of the camp every leper and every person having an infectious skin disease, everyone who has a discharge and whoever becomes ceremonially unclean because of a dead body.

3 Send away both male and female; you shall put them outside the camp so they will not defile their camp where I dwell among them.

4 The children of Israyl did this. They put them outside the camp as Yahweh spoke to Mosheh. So the children of Israyl did.

5 Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying:

6 Speak to the children of Israyl; When a man or woman commits any wrong common to mankind, being unfaithful to Yahweh, that person is guilty.

7 And must confess the sin he has committed: breach of trust or wrongful misappropriation of the property of another, living or dead. He shall make restitution for his trespass in full value plus one-fifth of the valuation, and give it to the one he has wronged.

8 But if the man has no kinsman to whom restitution may be made for the wrong, the restitution for the wrong must go to Yahweh for the priests, along with the ram of the atonement, making atonement for him.

9 Every offering of all the holy things of the children of Israyl, which they bring to the priest, shall be his.

10 Every man's holy things shall be his. Whatever any man gives the priest shall be his.

11 Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying:

12 Speak to the children of Israyl, and say to them: If any man's wife goes astray and behaves unfaithfully toward him,

13 By sleeping with another man, and this is hidden from her husband and her impurity is undetected (since there was no witness against her nor was she caught in the act)—

14 And if the spirit of jealousy comes over her husband and he suspects his wife and she is impure, or if he is jealous and suspects her even though she is not impure—

15 Then the man shall bring his wife to the priest. He shall also bring the offering required for her; one-tenth of an ephah of barley meal, that is, probably about 2 quarts; he shall pour no oil on it and put no frankincense on it, because it is a Grain Offering of Jealousy, an offering of remembrance for bringing sin to remembrance.

16 Then the priest shall bring her and stand her in front of Yahweh.

17 Then he shall take some holy water in a clay jar and put some dust from the tabernacle floor into the water.

18 After the priest has had the woman stand in front of Yahweh, then he shall uncover the woman's head, loosening the woman's hair, and put the offering for remembering in her hands, which is the Grain Offering of Jealousy. The priest shall have in his hand the bitter water that brings a curse.

19 Then the priest shall put the woman under oath, and say to her; If no other man has slept with you and you have not gone astray and become impure while married to your husband, may this bitter water that brings a curse not harm you.

20 But if you have gone astray while married to your husband, and you have defiled yourself by sleeping with a man other than your husband—

21 Here the priest is to put the woman under this curse of the oath, and he is to say to the woman—May Yahweh make you a curse and an oath among your people, when He causes your thigh to waste away and your abdomen to swell; causing you to be childless through various afflictions.

22 May this water that brings a curse, causing guilt to come to light, enter your body, so that your abdomen swells and your thigh wastes away; causing you to be childless because of various afflictions. Then the woman is to say: So be it. So be it.

23 Then the priest shall write these curses on a scroll, and then wash them off into the bitter water.

24 And he shall have the woman drink the bitter water that brings a curse, and this water will enter her and cause bitter suffering.

25 The priest is to take from her hand the Grain Offering for Jealousy, and wave the offering before Yahweh, and bring it to the altar:

26 The priest is then to take a handful of the grain offering as a memorial offering portion, and burn it on the altar. After that, he is to have the woman drink the water.

27 If she has defiled herself, and has been unfaithful to her husband, when she is made to drink the water that brings a curse, it will go into her and cause bitter suffering; her abdomen will swell and her thigh will waste away, causing her to be barren, and she will become accursed among her people.

28 But if the woman has not defiled herself, and is clean, then she shall be cleared of guilt, and will be able to have children.

29 This is the law of jealousy, when a woman goes astray and defiles herself while married to her husband,

30 Or when feelings of jealousy come over a man because he suspects his wife. The priest is to have her stand in front of Yahweh and is to execute all this law upon her.

31 Then the man shall be innocent of any wrongdoing, but the woman will bear the consequences of her sin.

CHAP. 6

Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying:

2 Speak to the children of Israyl, and say to them: When a man or woman wants to make a special vow; a vow of separation to Yahweh as a Nazirite,

3 He shall abstain from wine or other fermented drink and must not drink vinegar made from wine or from other fermented drink. He must not drink grape juice or eat grapes or raisins.

4 As long as he is separated as a Nazirite, he must not eat anything that comes from the grapevine, not even the seeds or skins.

5 During the entire period of his vow of separation no razor may be used on his head. He must be holy until the period of his separation to Yahweh is over; he must let the hair of his head grow long.

6 Throughout the period of his separation to Yahweh he must not go near a dead body.

7 Even if his own father or mother or brother or sister dies, he must not make himself ceremonially unclean for them because his separation to Yahweh is on his head.

8 All the days of his separation he shall be holy to Yahweh.

9 If someone dies suddenly in his presence, thus defiling the hair he has dedicated, he must shave his head on the day of his cleansing. On the seventh day he shall shave it.

10 Then on the eighth day he shall bring two turtledoves or two young pigeons to the priest, to the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

11 The priest is to offer one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering to make atonement for him because he sinned by reason of the dead body, and he shall consecrate his head that same day.

12 He must dedicate himself to Yahweh for the period of his separation and must bring a male lamb in its first year as a trespass offering. The former days shall be lost because he became defiled during his separation.

13 Now this is the law of the Nazirite when the days of his separation are fulfilled: he shall be brought to the entrance to the Tent of Meeting,

14 Where he is to present his offerings to Yahweh: one male lamb in its first year without blemish as a burnt offering, one ewe lamb in its first year without blemish as a sin offering, one ram without blemish as a peace offering,

15 A basket of unleavened bread, cakes of fine flour mixed with oil, unleavened wafers spread with oil, and their grain offering with their drink offerings.

16 Then the priest shall bring them in front of Yahweh and offer his sin offering and his burnt offering;

17 And he shall offer the ram as a sacrifice of peace offering to Yahweh, with the basket of unleavened bread. The priest shall also offer its grain offering and its drink offering.

18 Then at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting the Nazirite must shave off the hair that he dedicated. He is to take the hair and put it in the fire that is under the sacrifice of the peace offering.

19 After the Nazirite has shaved off the hair of his dedication, the priest is to place in his hands a boiled shoulder of the ram, one unleavened cake from the basket, and one unleavened wafer,

20 And the priest shall wave them as a wave offering in front of Yahweh. They are holy for the priest, together with the breast of the wave offering and the thigh of the heave offering. After that the Nazirite may drink wine.

21 This is the law of the Nazirite who vows his offering to Yahweh in accordance with his separation, in addition to whatever else he can afford. He must fulfill the vow he has made, according to the law of the Nazirite.

22 Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying:

23 Speak to Aaron and his sons, saying: This is how you are to bless the children of Israyl. Say to them:

24 YAHWEH BLESS YOU AND KEEP YOU.

25 YAHWEH MAKE HIS FACE SHINE UPON YOU AND BE MERCIFUL TO YOU.

26 YAHWEH LIFT UP HIS COUNTERTENANCE UPON YOU, AND GIVE YOU PEACE.

27 So they will put My Name on the children of Israyl, and I will bless them.

CHAP. 7

When Mosheh had finished setting up the tabernacle, he anointed it and consecrated and sanctified it and all its furnishings. He also anointed and consecrated the altar and all its utensils.

2 Then the leaders of Israyl, the heads of families who were the tribal leaders in charge of those who were counted, made offerings.

3 They brought as their offerings before Yahweh six covered carts and twelve oxen, an ox from each leader and a cart from every two leaders. These they presented in front of the tabernacle.

4 Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying:

5 Accept these from them, that they may be used in the work of the Tent of Meeting; and you shall give them to the Levites, as each man's service requires.

6 So Mosheh took the carts and the oxen, and gave them to the Levites.

7 Two carts and four oxen he gave to the sons of Gershon, as their service required,

8 And four carts and eight oxen he gave to the sons of Merari, as their service required, under the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron, the priest.

9 But to the sons of Kohath he gave none, because they were to carry on their shoulders the holy things, for which they were responsible.

10 When the altar was anointed, the leaders brought their offerings for its dedication and presented them in front of the altar.

11 For Yahweh had said to Mosheh; Each day one leader is to bring his offering for the dedication of the altar.

12 The one who offered his offering on the first day was Nahshon the son of Amminadab, from the tribe of Yahdah.

13 His offering was one silver plate weighing a hundred and thirty shekels, that is, about 3 1/4 pounds, and one silver sprinkling bowl weighing seventy shekels, that is, about 1 3/4 pounds, both according to the sanctuary shekel, each filled with fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering;

14 One gold ladle weighing ten shekels, that is, about 4 ounces, filled with incense;

15 One young bull, one ram, and one male lamb of the first year for a burnt offering;

16 One male goat for a sin offering;

17 And two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs of the first year, to be sacrificed as a peace offering. This was the offering of Nahshon son of Amminadab.

18 On the second day Nethaneel son of Zuar, the leader of Issachar, brought his offering.

19 The offering he brought was one silver plate weighing a hundred and thirty shekels, and one silver sprinkling bowl weighing seventy shekels, both according to the sanctuary shekel, each filled with fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering;

20 One gold ladle weighing ten shekels, filled with incense;

21 One young bull, one ram, and one male lamb of the first year for a burnt offering;

22 One male goat for a sin offering;

23 And two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs of the first year, to be sacrificed as a peace offering. This was the offering of Nethaneel son of Zuar.

24 On the third day, Eliab son of Helon, the leader of the people of Zebulun, brought his offering.

25 His offering was one silver plate weighing a hundred and thirty shekels, and one silver sprinkling bowl weighing seventy shekels, both according to the sanctuary shekel, each filled with fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering;

26 One gold ladle weighing ten shekels, filled with incense;

27 One young bull, one ram, and one male lamb of the first year, for a burnt offering;

28 One male goat for a sin offering;

29 And two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs of the first year, to be sacrificed as a peace offering. This was the offering of Eliab son of Helon.

30 On the fourth day Elizur son of Shedeur, the leader of the tribe of Reuben, brought his offering.

31 His offering was one silver plate weighing a hundred and thirty shekels, and one silver sprinkling bowl weighing seventy shekels, both according to the sanctuary shekel, each filled with fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering;

32 One gold ladle weighing ten shekels, filled with incense;

33 One young bull, one ram, and one male lamb of the first year, for a burnt offering;

34 One male goat for a sin offering;

35 And two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs of the first year, to be sacrificed as a peace offering. This was the offering of Elizur son of Shedeur.

36 On the fifth day Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai, the leader of the tribe of Simeon, brought his offering.

37 His offering was one silver plate weighing a hundred and thirty shekels, and one silver sprinkling bowl weighing seventy shekels, both according to the sanctuary shekel, each filled with fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering;

38 One gold ladle weighing ten shekels, filled with incense;

39 One young bull, one ram, and one male lamb of the first year, for a burnt offering;

40 One male goat for a sin offering;

41 And two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs of the first year, to be sacrificed as a peace offering. This was the offering of Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai.

42 On the sixth day Eliasaph son of Deuel, the leader of the tribe of Gad, brought his offering.

43 His offering was one silver plate weighing a hundred and thirty shekels, and one silver sprinkling bowl weighing seventy shekels, both according to the sanctuary shekel, each filled with fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering;

44 One gold ladle weighing ten shekels, filled with incense;

45 One young bull, one young ram, and one male lamb of the first year, for a burnt offering;

46 One male goat for a sin offering;

47 And two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs of the first year, to be sacrificed as a peace offering. This was the offering of Eliasaph son of Deuel.

48 On the seventh day Elishama son of Ammihud, the leader of the tribe of Ephraim, brought his offering.

49 His offering was one silver plate weighing a hundred and thirty shekels, one silver sprinkling bowl weighing seventy shekels, both according to the sanctuary shekel, each filled with fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering;

50 One gold ladle weighing ten shekels, filled with incense;

51 One young bull, one ram, and one male lamb of the first year, for a burnt offering;

52 One male goat for a sin offering;

53 And two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs of the first year, to be sacrificed as a peace offering. This was the offering of Elishama son of Ammihud.

54 On the eighth day Gamaliel son of Pedahzur, the leader of the tribe of Menasheh, brought his offering.

55 His offering was one silver plate weighing a hundred and thirty shekels, and one silver sprinkling bowl weighing seventy shekels, both according to the sanctuary shekel, each filled with fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering;

56 One gold ladle weighing ten shekels, filled with incense;

57 One young bull, one ram, and one male lamb of the first year, for a burnt offering;

58 One male goat for a sin offering;

59 And two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs of the first year, to be sacrificed as a peace offering. This was the offering of Gamaliel son of Pedahzur.

60 On the ninth day Abidan son of Gideoni, the leader of the tribe of Benjamin, brought his offering.

61 His offering was one silver plate weighing a hundred and thirty shekels, and one silver sprinkling bowl weighing seventy shekels, both according to the sanctuary shekel, each filled with fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering;

62 One gold ladle weighing ten shekels, filled with incense;

63 One young bull, one ram, and one male lamb of the first year, for a burnt offering;

64 One male goat for a sin offering;

65 And two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs of the first year, to be sacrificed as a peace offering. This was the offering of Abidan son of Gideoni.

66 On the tenth day Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai, the leader of the tribe of Dan, brought his offering.

67 His offering was one silver plate weighing a hundred and thirty shekels, and one silver sprinkling bowl weighing seventy shekels, both according to the sanctuary shekel, each filled with fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering;

68 One gold ladle weighing ten shekels, filled with incense;

69 One young bull, one ram, and one male lamb of the first year, for a burnt offering;

70 One male goat for a sin offering;

71 And two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs of the first year, to be sacrificed as a peace offering. This was the offering of Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai.

72 On the eleventh day Pagiel son of Ocran, the leader of the tribe of Asher, brought his offering.

73 His offering was one silver plate weighing a hundred and thirty shekels, and one silver sprinkling bowl weighing seventy shekels, both according to the sanctuary shekel, each filled with fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering;

74 One gold ladle weighing ten shekels, filled with incense;

75 One young bull, one ram, and one male lamb of the first year, for a burnt offering;

76 One male goat for a sin offering;

77 And two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs of the first year, to be sacrificed as a peace offering. This was the offering of Pagiel son of Ocran.

78 On the twelfth day Ahira son of Enan, the leader of the tribe of Naphtali, brought his offering.

79 His offering was one silver plate weighing a hundred and thirty shekels, and one silver sprinkling bowl weighing seventy shekels, both according to the sanctuary shekel, each filled with fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering;

80 One gold ladle weighing ten shekels, filled with incense;

81 One young bull, one ram, and one male lamb of the first year, for a burnt offering;

82 One male goat for a sin offering;

83 And two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs of the first year, to be sacrificed as a peace offering. This was the offering of Ahira son of Enan.

84 These were the Dedication Offerings from the leaders of the children of Israyl when the altar was anointed: 12 silver plates, 12 silver sprinkling bowls and 12 gold ladles.

85 Each silver plate weighed a hundred and thirty shekels, that is, about 3 1/4 pounds each.

and each sprinkling bowl seventy shekels, that is, about 1 1/4 pounds each. All the silver in these vessels weighed two thousand four hundred shekels, that is, about 60 pounds of silver, according to the shekel of the sanctuary.

86 The twelve gold ladles filled with incense weighed ten shekels each, that is, about 4 ounces each, according to the shekel of the sanctuary. All the gold in these ladles weighted one hundred and twenty shekels, that is, about 3 pounds of gold, according to the shekel of the sanctuary.

87 The total number of animals for the burnt offering came to twelve young bulls, twelve rams, and twelve male lambs of the first year, together with their grain offering. Twelve male goats were offered for the sin offering.

88 The total number of animals for the sacrifice of the peace offering came to twenty four oxen, sixty rams, sixty male goats, and sixty male lambs of the first year. This was the Dedication Offering for the altar after it was anointed.

89 When Mosheh entered the Tent of Meeting to speak with Yahweh, he heard the voice of One speaking to him from above the mercy seat: atonement cover on the ark of the Testimony between the two cherubim. In this way Yahweh spoke to Mosheh.

CHAP. 8

Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying:

2 Speak to Aaron, and say to him: When you set up the lamps, the seven lamps are to give light in front of the lampstand.

3 And Aaron did so: he arranged the lamps to face toward the front of the lampstand, as Yahweh commanded Mosheh.

4 This is how the lampstand was made: It was made of hammered gold, from its base to its blossoms. The lampstand was made exactly like the pattern Yahweh had shown Mosheh.

5 Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying:

6 Take the Levites from among the children of Israyl and make them ceremonially clean.

7 You shall do this to them to purify them: Sprinkle the water of cleansing on them; then have them shave their whole bodies and wash their clothes, and so purify and cleanse themselves.

8 Have them take a young bull with its grain offering of fine flour mixed with oil; then you are to take another young bull as a sin offering.

9 Bring the Levites to the front of the Tent of Meeting and you shall gather together the whole congregation of the children of Israyl.

10 You are to bring the Levites in front of Yahweh and the children of Israyl shall lay their hands on the Levites.

11 Aaron is to present the Levites in front of Yahweh as a wave offering from the children of Israyl, so that they may be ready to do and perform the work of Yahweh.

12 Then the Levites shall lay their hands on the heads of the young bulls, then you are to use the one for a sin offering to Yahweh and the other for a burnt offering, to make atonement for the Levites.

13 You shall then stand the Levites in front of Aaron and his sons, and then present them as a wave offering to Yahweh.

14 In this way you are to separate and set the Levites apart from among the children of Israyl, and the Levites will be Mine.

15 After you have cleansed and purified the Levites and presented them as a wave offering, they are to come to do their work at the Tent of Meeting.

16 They are the children of Israyl who are to be given completely to Me. I have taken them as My Own instead of and in place of all who open the womb of the firstborn of all the children of Israyl.

17 Every firstborn male in Israyl, whether man or animal, is Mine. When I struck down all the firstborn in Egypt, I set them apart for Myself.

18 But I have taken the Levites instead of and in the place of all the firstborn of the children of Israyl.

19 And I have given the Levites as a gift to Aaron and his sons from among the children of Israyl, to do the work for the children of Israyl in the Tent of Meeting, and to make atonement on behalf of the children of Israyl so that no plague will strike the children of Israyl when they go near the sanctuary.

20 Mosheh, Aaron, and all the congregation of the children of Israyl did to the Levites as Yahweh commanded Mosheh concerning the Levites. So the children of Israyl did to them.

21 The Levites cleansed and purified themselves and washed their clothes. Then Aaron presented them as a wave offering in front of Yahweh and made atonement for them to purify them.

22 After that, the Levites came to perform and do their work at the Tent of Meeting under the supervision of Aaron and his sons. As Yahweh commanded Mosheh concerning the Levites, so they did to them.

23 Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying:

24 This pertains to the Levites: From the age of twenty-five years old and above they shall come to take part in the work at the Tent of Meeting.

25 But at the age of fifty years old they must cease performing this work, and work no longer.

26 They may assist their brothers in performing their duties at the Tent of Meeting, but they themselves must not do the work. Thus you shall do to the Levites, assigning their responsibilities.

CHAP. 9

Yahweh spoke to Mosheh in the Wilderness of Sinai, in the First Moon of the second year after they had come out of the land of Egypt, saying:

2 Let the children of Israyl • sacrifice the Passover at its appointed season:

3 On the Fourteenth Day of this Moon, between the two evenings, you must sacrifice it in its appointed season. According to all its rites and its ceremonies, you must sacrifice it.

4 So Mosheh told the children of Israyl that they must sacrifice the Passover.

5 And they sacrificed the Passover on the Fourteenth Day of the First Moon, between the two evenings, between around 3:00 in the afternoon and sunset, in the Wilderness of Sinai. According to all that Yahweh commanded Mosheh, so the children of Israyl did.

6 Now there were men who were ceremonially unclean because of the body of a dead man, so they could not sacrifice the Passover on that day. So they came to Mosheh and Aaron that same day,

7 And said to Mosheh; We have become unclean because of a dead body of a man, but why are we kept from presenting the Offering of Yahweh in its appointed season with the children of Israyl?

8 And Mosheh said to them; Wait until I may hear what Yahweh will command concerning you.

9 Then Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying;

10 Speak to the children of Israyl, saying: If anyone of you or any of your descendants is unclean because of a dead body, or away on a journey, he may still sacrifice Yahweh's Passover;

11 On the Fourteenth Day of the Second Moon, between the two evenings, between around 3:00 in the afternoon and sunset, they shall sacrifice it. They must eat the lamb with unleavened bread and bitter herbs.

12 They shall leave none of it until morning, nor break one of its bones. According to all the ordinances of the Passover they must sacrifice it.

13 But the man who is ceremonially clean and is not on a journey, but fails to sacrifice the Passover, that same person shall be cut off from among his people, because he did not bring the Offering of Yahweh at its appointed season. That man will bear the consequences of his sin.

14 And if a stranger living among you wants to sacrifice Yahweh's Passover Offering he must do so according to the rite of the Passover and according to its ceremony. You shall have one ordinance, both for the stranger and the native of the land.

15 And on the day the tabernacle was set up, the cloud covered the tabernacle of the Tent of the Testimony. From evening until morning the cloud above the tabernacle looked like fire.

16 That is how it continued to be; the cloud covered it by day, and the appearance of fire covered it by night.

17 Whenever the cloud lifted from above the Tent, the children of Israyl set out. Whenever the cloud settled, the children of Israyl encamped.

18 At Yahweh's command the children of Israyl would journey and at Yahweh's command they would set up camp. As long as the cloud stayed above the tabernacle they remained camped.

19 Even when the cloud remained over the tabernacle a long time, the children of Israyl obeyed Yahweh's charge and order, and did not set out.

20 Sometimes the cloud was over the tabernacle only a few days, then according to the command of Yahweh they would remain encamped, and according to the command of Yahweh they would set out on their journey.

21 Sometimes the cloud stayed only from evening until morning, and when it lifted in the morning, they would set out. Whether by day or by night, whenever the cloud was taken up, they would journey.

22 Whether the cloud stayed over the tabernacle for two days, for a moon, or for a year, the children of Israyl would remain in camp and not set out; but when it lifted, they would journey.

23 At the command of Yahweh they remained encamped, and at the command of Yahweh they journeyed. They kept the charge of Yahweh, in accordance with Yahweh's command through Mosheh.

CHAP. 10

Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying:

2 Make two silver trumpets; chatsotserot, of hammered silver, and use them for calling the congregation together, and for causing the camps to set forward.

3 When both silver trumpets are sounded: Teki'ah; an extended, unbroken note, the whole community is to gather together in front of you at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

4 If only one silver trumpet is sounded: Teki'ah, only the leaders, the heads of the clans of Israyl, are to gather together in front of you.

5 When you sound the advance: Teruah;

• Erroneously translated KEEP in most modern translations.

short, sharp, separate notes, the camps that lie on the east side, that is, Yahdah along with Issachar and Zebulun, shall then begin their journey.

6 When you sound the advance: Teruah, the second time, then the camps that lie on the south side: the tribe of Reuben along with Simeon and Gad, shall begin their journey. They shall sound the call: Teruah, for them to begin their journeys.

7 And when the congregation is to be gathered together, you shall blow the Teki'ah, but not sound the Teruah.

8 The sons of Aaron, the priests, are to blow the trumpets. This shall be to you as an ordinance forever throughout your generations.

9 When you go to war in your land against an enemy who is oppressing you, then you shall make the clarion call on these trumpets, and you will be remembered by Yahweh your Father, and you will be saved from your enemies.

10 Also in the day of your gladness, in your Appointed Feasts, and at your New Moon Festivals, you shall make the clarion call on the trumpets over your burnt offerings and over the sacrifices of your peace offerings. And it will be a memorial remembrance for you in front of Yahweh your Father. I am Yahweh your Heavenly Father.

11 On the Twentieth Day of the Second Moon of the second year, the cloud was lifted up from above the tabernacle of the Testimony.

12 Then the children of Israyl set out from the Wilderness of Sinai on their journeys until the cloud came to rest in the Wilderness of Paran.

13 So they started out, for the first time, according to the command of Yahweh by the hand of Mosheh.

14 The divisions of the camp of Yahdah went first under his standard. Nahshon son of Aminadab was in command.

15 Nethaneel son of Zuar was over the division of the tribe of Issachar, 16 And Eliab son of Helon was over the division of the tribe of Zebulun.

17 Then the tabernacle was taken down and the sons of Gershon, and the sons of Merari who carried it, set out.

18 The divisions of the camp of Reuben went next under his standard. Elizur son of Shedeur was in command.

19 Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai was over the division of the tribe of Simeon.

20 And Eliasaph son of Deuel was over the division of the tribe of Gad.

21 Then the Kohathites set out, carrying the holy things. (The tabernacle would be set up when they arrived.)

22 The divisions of the camp of Ephraim went next under his standard. Elishama son of Ammihud was in command.

23 Gamaliel son of Pedahzur was over the division of the tribe of Menasheh.

24 And Abidan son of Gideoni was over the division of the tribe of Benyamin.

25 Then the divisions of the camp of Dan set out under his standard. They formed the rear guard of all the camps. Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai was in command.

26 Pagiell son of Ocran was over the division of the tribe of Asher.

27 And Ahira son of Enan was over the division of the tribe of Naphtali.

28 This was the order of march for the children of Israyl, according to their divisions when they set out on their journey.

29 Now Mosheh said to Hobab his brother-in-law, the son of Reuel the Midianite; Mosheh's father-in-law: We are setting out for the place about which Yahweh said; I will give it to you. Come with us and we will treat you well; for Yahweh has promised great blessings upon Israyl.

30 But he said to him: I will not go, but I will return to my own land and to my kinsmen.

31 But Mosheh said: Please do not leave us. You know where we should camp in the desert, and you can be our eyes.

32 If you come with us we will share with you whatever blessings Yahweh gives us.

33 So they set out from the mountain of Yahweh and traveled for three days. The ark of the covenant of Yahweh went in front of them during those three days to search out a resting place for them.

34 And the cloud of Yahweh was above them by day when they went out from the camp.

35 And it was whenever the ark set out, Mosheh said: Rise up, O Yahweh! Let Your enemies be scattered, and let those who hate You flee in front of You.

36 Whenever it came to rest, he said:

37 Return, O Yahweh, to the multitudes of the thousands of Israyl.

CHAP. 11

Now the people complained about their hardships in the hearing of Yahweh, and it displeased Him; and His anger was aroused. So the fire of Yahweh burned among them and consumed some in the outskirts of the camp.

2 When the people cried out to Mosheh, he prayed to Yahweh, and the fire died down.

3 So that place was called Taberah, that is, Burning, because fire from Yahweh had burned among them.

4 The rabble of the mixed multitude with them began to crave other food, and again the children of Israyl started wailing, and said; If we only had meat to eat!

5 We remember the fish we ate in Egypt at no cost, also the cucumbers, melons, leeks, onions, and garlic.

6 But now we have lost our appetite. There is nothing we ever see but this manna!

7 Now the manna was like coriander seed, and its color like the color of bdellium; white.

8 The people went about and gathered it, ground it on millstones or beat it in the mortar, cooked it in pans, and made cakes of it; and its taste was like the taste of cakes made with olive oil.

9 When the dew fell on the camp in the night, the manna also came down.

10 Mosheh heard the people of every family wailing, everyone at the entrance of his tent, and the anger of Yahweh was greatly aroused. Mosheh also was displeased.

11 So Mosheh said to Yahweh; Why have You afflicted me, Your servant? What have I done to displease You, that You put the burden of all these people on me?

12 Did I conceive all these people? Did I give them birth? Why do You tell me to carry them in my arms, as a guardian carries a nursing child, to the land You promised on oath to their forefathers?

13 Where can I get meat for all these people? They keep wailing to me; Give us meat to eat!

14 I cannot carry all these people by myself. The burden is too heavy for me.

15 If this is how You are going to treat me, kill me right now, if I have found honor in Your sight, and do not let me see the failure of my hopes and efforts.

16 Yahweh said to Mosheh: Gather and bring to Me seventy men of the elders of Israyl, whom you know to be the leaders and officials among the people. Have them come to the Tent of Meeting, that they may stand there with you.

17 Then I will come down and talk with you there, and I will take of the Spirit that is upon you and will put the same upon them, and they shall bear the burden of the people with you, so you may not bear it yourself alone.

18 Then you shall say to the people; Consecrate and sanctify yourselves in preparation for tomorrow, when you will eat meat. Yahweh heard you when you wailed: If only we had meat to eat! We were better off in Egypt! Now Yahweh will give you meat, and you will eat it.

19 You shall not eat it for just one day, or two days, nor five, ten, or twenty days,

20 But for a whole moon! Until it comes out of your nostrils and becomes loathsome to you, because you have rejected Yahweh Who is among you and have wailed before Him saying: Why did we ever leave Egypt?

21 Mosheh said to Yahweh: Here I am among over 600,000 men on foot, and You say: I will give them meat to eat for a whole moon!

22 Would they have enough if flocks and herds were slaughtered for them? Would they have enough if all the fish in the sea were caught for them?

23 Then Yahweh answered Mosheh; Is Yahweh's arm too short? You will now see whether or not what I say will come to pass for you or not.

24 So Mosheh went out and told the people the words of Yahweh, and he gathered the seventy men of the elders of the people and placed them around the tent.

25 Then Yahweh came down in the cloud and spoke to him, and took of the Spirit that was upon him, and placed the same upon the seventy elders. When the Spirit rested on them, they prophesied, and did not cease.

26 However, two men whose names were Eldad and Medad, had remained in the camp. They were listed among the elders but did not go out to the tent. Yet the Spirit also rested on them, and they prophesied in the camp.

27 And a young man ran and told Mosheh and said; Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp.

28 So Yahshua the son of Nun, Mosheh's assistant since his youth, said; My leader, Mosheh, stop them!

29 Then Mosheh said to him; Are you jealous for my sake? Oh, that all of Yahweh's people were prophets and that Yahweh would put His Spirit upon them!

30 Then Mosheh and the elders of Israyl returned to the camp.

31 Now a wind went out from Yahweh and it drove quail in from the sea. They flew down all around the camp to about two cubits, that is, about 3 feet, above the ground, as far as a day's walk in any direction.

32 And the people stayed up all that day and that night, and all the next day, and gathered the quail. No one gathered less than ten omers, that is, probably about 60 bushels. Then they spread them out all around the camp drying them in the sun.

33 But while the meat was still between their teeth, before it was chewed, the wrath of Yahweh was aroused against the people and Yahweh struck the people with a very great plague.

34 Therefore he called the name of that place Kibroth Hattaavah, meaning, Graves of Craving, because there they buried the people who had yielded to craving.

35 From Kibroth Hattaavah the people moved to Hazeroth, and camped at Hazeroth.

CHAP. 12

Then Miriam and Aaron spoke against Mo-

sheh because of the Ethiopian woman whom he had married; for he had married an Ethiopian woman.

2 And they said: Has Yahweh spoken only through Mosheh? Has He not spoken through us also? And Yahweh heard it.

3 (Now the man Mosheh was very humble, more than all men who were on the face of the earth.)

4 At once Yahweh said to Mosheh, Aaron, and Miriam: Come out, you three, to the Tent of Meeting! So the three of them came out.

5 Then Yahweh came down in the pillar of cloud and stood at the entrance to the Tent and summoned Aaron and Miriam. Both of them went forward.

6 And He said; Hear now My words: If there is a prophet among you, I, Yahweh, will reveal Myself to him in visions; I will speak to him in a dream.

7 Not so with My servant Mosheh. He is faithful in all My House.

8 I speak with him face to face, plainly and not in dark sayings; he sees the form of Yahweh. Why, then, were you not afraid to speak against My servant Mosheh?

9 So the anger of Yahweh burned against them; and He departed.

10 When the cloud departed from above the tabernacle, suddenly Miriam was leprous, as white as snow. Aaron turned toward Miriam, and saw that she had leprosy;

11 And he said to Mosheh; Oh, my brother! Please do not hold this sin against us, which we have so foolishly done.

12 Please do not let her be as a stillborn infant, whose flesh is half consumed when it comes out of its mother's womb!

13 So Mosheh cried out to Yahweh, saying: Please, heal her, O Yahweh, I pray!

14 Then Yahweh said to Mosheh; If her father had but spit in her face, would she not be shamed seven days? Let her be shut out of the camp seven days, and after that she may be brought back in.

15 So Miriam was confined outside the camp for seven days; and the people did not journey on until she had been brought back in.

16 After that, the people left Hazeroth, and camped in the Wilderness of Paran.

CHAP. 13

Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying;

2 Send men to spy out the land of Canaan, which I am giving to the children of Israyl. From each tribe of their ancestors, send one of their leaders.

3 So, at Yahweh's command, Mosheh sent them out from the Wilderness of Paran. All of them were leaders of the children of Israyl.

4 Now these were their names: From the tribe of Reuben, Shammua the son of Zaccur;

5 From the tribe of Simeon, Shaphat the son of Hori;

6 From the tribe of Yahdah, Caleb the son of Yephunneh;

7 From the tribe of Issachar, Igal the son of Yahseph;

8 From the tribe of Ephraim, Oshea, Yahshua, the son of Nun;

9 From the tribe of Benyamin, Palti the son of Raphu;

10 From the tribe of Zebulun, Gaddiel the son of Sodi;

11 From the tribe of Yahseph; from the tribe of Menasheh, Gaddi the son of Susi;

12 From the tribe of Dan, Ammiel the son of Gemalli;

13 From the tribe of Asher, Sethur the son of Michael;

14 From the tribe of Naphtali, Nahbi the son of Vophsi;

15 From the tribe of Gad, Geuel the son of Machi.

16 These are the names of the men Mosheh sent to spy out the land. (And Mosheh gave Oshea son of Nun the name, YAHSHUA.)

17 When Mosheh sent them to spy out the land of Canaan, he said to them; Go up through the Negev, and on into the hill country.

18 See what the land is like, and whether the people who live there are strong or weak, few or many;

19 Whether the land they live in is fine or evil; whether the cities they inhabit are fortified or unfortified.

20 Whether the soil is fertile or poor; and whether there are forests there, or not. Be of great courage. Bring back some of the fruit of the land. Now the time was the season of the first ripe grapes.

21 So they went up and spied out the land, from the Wilderness of Zin as far as Rehob, near the entrance of Hamath.

22 They went up through the Negev, and came to Hebron, where Ahiman, Sheshai, and Talmai, the descendants of Anak, lived. (Now Hebron was built seven years before Zoan in Egypt.)

23 When they reached the Valley of Eshcol; Cluster, they cut off a branch bearing a single cluster of grapes. Two of them carried it on a pole between them, along with some pomegranates and figs.

24 That place was called the Valley of Eshcol, Valley of the Cluster, because of the cluster of grapes the sons of Israyl cut off there.

25 At the end of forty days, they returned from spying out the land.

26 So they came back to Mosheh, and Aaron, and all the congregation of the children of Israyl in the Wilderness of Paran, at Kadesh. They reported back word to them, and to all the congregation; and showed them the fruit of the land.

27 Then they gave Mosheh this account: We went to the land where you sent us, and it truly flows with milk and honey. This is its fruit.

28 But the people who live there are powerful, and the cities are fortified and very large. Also, we saw the descendants of Anak there.

29 The Amalekites live in the Negev; the Hittites, the Yebusites, and the Amorites live in the hill country; and the Canaanites live near the sea and along the Yordan.

30 Then Caleb silenced those people in front of Mosheh, and said; Let us go up at oncen and take possession, for we can certainly do it.

31 But the men who had gone up with him said; We are not able to attack those people! They are stronger than we are!

32 Thus they spread among the children of Israyl a bad report about the land they had spied out, saying; The land we spied out de-vours those living in it. All the people we saw there are of great size.

33 We saw Nephilim there (the descendants of Anak came from the Nephilim). We seemed like grasshoppers in our own sight, and we looked the same to them.

CHAP. 14

Then all the congregation raised up their voices, and cried that night.

2 And all the children of Israyl murmured against Mosheh and Aaron, and the whole congregation said to them; If only we had died in Egypt! Or in this wilderness!

3 Why has Yahweh brought us to this land, only to let us die by the sword? Our wives and children will be taken as plunder. Would it not be better for us to return to Egypt?

4 So they said to one another; We should choose a leader, and go back to Egypt.

5 Then Mosheh and Aaron fell on their faces in front of all the children of Israyl gathered there,

6 And Yahshua ben Nun and Caleb ben Yephunneh, who were among those who had spied out the land, tore their clothes;

7 And they spoke to all the congregation of the children of Israyl, saying; The land we passed through, and spied out, is an exceedingly excellent land.

8 If Yahweh is pleased with us, He will lead us into that land, a land flowing with milk and honey, and He will give it to us.

9 Only do not rebel against Yahweh, and do not be afraid of those people. They are only so much dead meat. Their protection has left them, because Yahweh is with us. Do not fear them.

10 But the whole congregation spoke of stoning them. Then the glory of Yahweh appeared in the Tent of Meeting in front of all the children of Israyl;

11 And Yahweh said to Mosheh: How long will these people reject Me? How long will they refuse to believe Me, with all of these signs I have performed among them?

12 I will strike them down with a plague, and disinherit them; and I will make of you a nation greater and mightier than they.

13 But Mosheh said to Yahweh: Then the Egyptians will hear of it, for by Your might You brought these people out from among them;

14 And they will tell the inhabitants of this land about it. They have already heard that You, O Yahweh, are with these people, and that You, O Yahweh, have been seen face to face; that Your cloud stays over them, and that You go before them in a pillar of cloud by day, and a pillar of fire by night.

15 Now, if You kill these people to a man, then the nations which have heard of Your fame, will speak about You, and say;

16 Yahweh was not able to bring these people into the land He promised them on oath, so He killed them in the wilderness.

17 Now may Yahweh's power be displayed, just as You have spoken, saying:

18 Yahweh is longsuffering and abundant in mercy, forgiving iniquity and transgression; but He by no means absolves the guilty ones. He punishes the iniquity of the fathers on the children, to the third and fourth generation.

19 Forgive the iniquity of this people, I pray, just as You have forgiven this people, according to the greatness of Your mercy, since the time we have left Egypt.

20 Then Yahweh said: I have forgiven them, as you asked.

21 But as surely as I live, and as surely as the glory of Yahweh shall fill the whole earth:

22 Not one of the men who saw My glory, and the miraculous signs I performed in Egypt and in the wilderness; but who disobeyed Me, and put Me to the test these ten times—

23 Not one of them will ever see the land I promised on oath to their forefathers, nor shall any of those who rejected Me see it!

24 But because My servant Caleb has a different spirit in him, and has followed Me fully, I will bring him into the land where he went, and his descendants shall inherit it.

25 Since the Amalekites and Canaanites are living in the valleys, turn back tomorrow, and set out toward the wilderness, along the route to the Red Sea.

26 Then Yahweh spoke to Mosheh and Aaron, saying;

27 How long will this wicked congregation murmur against Me? I have heard their murmuring, which the children of Israyl murmur against Me;

28 So say to them: As surely as I live, says Yahweh, I will do to you the very things I heard you murmur about:

29 The bodies of you who murmured against Me shall fall in this wilderness—every one of you twenty years old or more who was counted in the census, and who has murmured.

30 Not one of you will enter the land I vowed with uplifted hands that I would let you live in, except for Caleb ben Yephunneh and Yahshua ben Nun.

31 As for your children you said would be taken as plunder: I will bring them in, and they shall have the land that you have despised and rejected.

32 But as for you, you will die in this wilderness!

33 Your sons will be shepherds in this wilderness forty years, suffering for your unfaithfulness, until the last of your bodies lies in this wilderness.

34 For forty years—one year for each of the forty days you spied out the land—you shall suffer for your guilt, and you shall know of My altering of My purpose concerning you.

35 I, Yahweh, have spoken; and I will surely do these things to this evil congregation, who are gathered together against Me. They will meet their end in this desert, and here they will be buried!

36 So the men Mosheh had sent to spy out the land, who returned and made the whole congregation murmur against him, by spreading a bad report concerning it;

37 These very men responsible for spreading the bad report about the land were struck down, and died of a plague in front of Yahweh.

38 Of all the men who went to spy out the land, only Yahshua ben Nun and Caleb ben Yephunneh remained alive.

39 When Mosheh told these words to all the children of Israyl, the people mourned greatly.

40 Early the next morning, they turned and went onward to the high hill country, and said: Here we are, we will go to the place Yahweh has promised! We have sinned!

41 Then Mosheh said: Why are you disobeying Yahweh's command to turn southward? This will not succeed.

42 Do not go up, because Yahweh is not with you. You will be defeated by your enemies, 43 For the Amalekites and the Canaanites will stand against you, and you will die by the sword. Because you have turned away from Yahweh, Yahweh will not be with you.

44 Nevertheless, in their presumption, they went up toward the high hill country, but neither Mosheh nor the ark of Yahweh's covenant moved from the camp.

45 Then the Amalekites and the Canaanites, who lived in that hill country, came down and attacked them, driving them back all the way to Hormah.

CHAP. 15

Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying:

2 Speak to the children of Israyl, and say to them: When you have come into the land I am giving you to live in,

3 And you present offerings made by fire to Yahweh, from the herd or the flock, as an aroma pleasing to Yahweh—whether burnt offerings or sacrifices, for special vows, freewill offerings, or offerings in your solemn Feasts—

4 The one who presents his offering shall also present to Yahweh a grain offering of one-tenth of an ephah, about 2 quarts, of fine flour mixed with one-fourth of a hin, about 1 quart, of oil.

5 With each lamb for the burnt offering or the sacrifice, also prepare one-fourth of a hin of wine, about 1 quart of wine.

6 With each ram, prepare two-tenths of an ephah, about 4 quarts, of fine flour mixed with one-third of a hin, about 1 1/4 quarts, of oil,

7 And also one-third of a hin of wine as a drink offering. Offer these as an aroma pleasing to Yahweh.

8 When you prepare a young bull as a burnt offering or sacrifice, for a special vow, or a peace offering to Yahweh,

9 Bring with each bull a grain offering of three-tenths of an ephah, about 6 quarts, of fine flour mixed with one-half a hin, about 2 quarts, of oil.

10 Also bring one-half a hin of wine as a drink offering. This will be an offering made by fire, as an aroma pleasing to Yahweh.

11 Each bull or ram, each lamb or young goat, is to be prepared according to this manner.

12 Do this for each offering, for as many offerings as you sacrifice.

13 All who are native-born must do these things in this manner, when he brings an offering to Yahweh made by fire, as a pleasing aroma.

14 Whenever a stranger, or whoever is among you throughout your generations, presents an offering made by fire as an aroma pleasing to Yahweh, he must do exactly as you do.

15 One ordinance shall be for you of the congregation, and for the stranger who sojourns with you, as an ordinance forever throughout your generations. As you are, so shall the stranger be in front of Yahweh.

16 One Law and one manner shall be for you and for the stranger who sojourns with you.

17 Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying:

18 Speak to the children of Israyl, and say to them: When you come into the land to which I am taking you, as soon as you enter upon the soil of the Promised Land, even before you have subjugated the enemy there, and settled down in comfort.

19 When you eat of the food of the land, present a portion as an offering to Yahweh: teruma; that which is lifted off, or separated to the requirements of the sanctuary.

20 Present a cake from the first of your ground meal and present it as an offering from the threshing floor.

21 Throughout your generations you shall give this offering to Yahweh from the first of your ground meal.

22 Now if you sin unintentionally, and do not observe all these commandments which Yahweh has spoken to Mosheh—

23 Any of Yahweh's commands to you through him, from the day Yahweh gave them and continuing throughout your generations—

24 And if this is unintentionally committed without the knowledge of the congregation, then the whole congregation is to offer a young bull for a burnt offering as an aroma pleasing to Yahweh, along with its prescribed grain offering and its prescribed drink offering, and a male goat for a sin offering.

25 So the priest shall make atonement for the whole congregation of the children of Israyl, and it shall be forgiven them, for it was unintentional and they have brought to Yahweh for their wrong an offering made by fire and a sin offering.

26 The whole congregation of the children of Israyl and the stranger living among them will be forgiven, because all the people were involved in the unintentional sin.

27 But if just one person sins unintentionally, then he shall bring a female goat of the first year for a sin offering.

28 So the priest shall make atonement for the person who sins unintentionally in front of Yahweh, to make atonement for him; and it shall be forgiven him.

29 You shall have one law for him who sins unintentionally, whether he is native born among the children of Israyl or whether he is the stranger who sojourns among them.

30 But the person who sins presumptuously and defiantly, whether he is native-born or is a stranger, that one brings reproach on Yahweh and blasphemes Him. That person must be cut off from his people.

31 Because he has despised the word of Yahweh and broken His commandments, that person must surely be cut off, and his guilt shall be upon his own head.

32 While the children of Israyl were in the wilderness, they found a man gathering sticks on the Sabbath Day.

33 And those who found him gathering sticks brought him to Mosheh and Aaron, and to all the congregation.

34 They kept him in custody because it was not clear what should be done to him.

35 Then Yahweh said to Mosheh; The man must surely be put to death; all the congregation shall stone him with stones outside the camp.

36 So the congregation took him outside the camp and stoned him to death, just as Yahweh commanded Mosheh.

37 Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying:

38 Speak to the children of Israyl: Tell them to make tassels: Tzitzit, on the corners of their garments: Tallits, throughout their generations, and to put a cord of blue in each tassel: Tzitzit.

39 And you shall have the tassel; Tzitzit, that you may look upon it and remember all the commandments of Yahweh and do them, and that you follow not after the lusts of your own heart and your own eyes which you used to go whoring after.

40 And that you may remember and do all My commandments, and be holy to your Father.

41 I am Yahweh, your Father Who brought you out of the land of Egypt to be your Father. I am Yahweh, Your Heavenly Father.

CHAP. 16

Now Korah son of Izhar, the descendant of Kohath son of Levi, and certain descendants of Reuben; Dathan and Abiram the sons of Eliab, and On the son of Peleth, used, and won men.

2 And they rose up against Mosheh. With them were 250 leaders of the congregation of the children of Israyl, representatives of the congregation; men of renown.

3 They gathered together to oppose Mosheh and Aaron, and said to them; You have gone too far! The whole congregation is holy, every one of them, and Yahweh is with them. Why then do you exalt yourselves and set yourselves above Yahweh's assembly?

4 When Mosheh heard this, he fell downward on his face;

5 Then he said to Korah and all his followers: Tomorrow morning Yahweh will show who is His and who is holy, and He will have that person come near him. The man He chooses He will cause to come near him.

6 You, Korah, and all those that follow you, are to do this: Take censers;

7 And tomorrow put fire in them and put incense in them in front of Yahweh. The man whom Yahweh chooses will be the one who is holy. You sons of Levi are the ones who have gone too far!

8 Then Mosheh said to Korah; Hear now, you sons of Levi:

9 Does it seem like a small thing to you that Yahweh the Father of Israyl has set you apart from the congregation of Israyl and brought you near to Himself, to do the work of the tabernacle of Yahweh, and to stand before the congregation to minister to them?

10 Does it seem like a small thing that He has brought you, and all your brothers of the Levites with you, near Himself? Is that why you are seeking the priesthood also?

11 It is Yahweh that you and all your followers have gathered together against, for what is Aaron, that you murmur against him?

12 Then Mosheh summoned Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, descendants of Reuben. But they said; We will not come!

13 Isn't it enough that you have brought us out of a land flowing with milk and honey, to kill us in the wilderness? And now you also want to keep acting like a prince over us!

14 Moreover, you have not taken us into a land flowing with milk and honey, and you have not given us an inheritance of fields and vineyards. You are deceiving everyone! No, we will not come!

15 Then Mosheh became very angry, and said to Yahweh: Do not accept their offering! I have not taken so much as a donkey from them. They accuse me of tyranny, but I have never so far abused my power and position as to accept even the meanest gift from any one of them, nor have I wronged any one of them!

16 Mosheh said to Korah: You and all of those who follow you, are to appear before Yahweh tomorrow—you and your company, as well as Aaron.

17 Each of you is to take his censer, and put incense in it—250 censers in all—and present it in front of Yahweh. You and Aaron are to present your censers also.

18 So each man took his censer, put fire in it, laid incense on the fire, and stood at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting.

19 And Korah gathered all the congregation against them at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting; and the glory of Yahweh appeared to all the congregation,

20 And Yahweh spoke to Mosheh and Aaron, saying:

21 Separate yourselves from among this congregation, so I may consume them completely!

22 Then they fell face downward, and cried out: O Yahweh, Distinguisher of those who are guilty and those who are misled, shall one man sin, and You be angry with the whole congregation?

23 Then Yahweh said to Mosheh;

24 Speak to the congregation, saying: Move away from the tents of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram.

25 Then Mosheh rose and went to Dathan and Abiram, and the elders of Israyl followed him.

26 He spoke to the congregation, warning them: Move back from the tents of these wicked men! Touch nothing of theirs or you will be consumed because of the multitude of their sins!

27 So they moved away from around the tents of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram. Then Dathan and Abiram came out and were standing at the entrances to their tents with their wives, their sons, and their children.

28 Then Mosheh said: By this you will know that Yahweh has sent me to do all these things and that it was not done of my own will:

29 If these men die a natural death, and experience only that which usually comes to pass against men, then Yahweh has not sent me.

30 But if Yahweh creates a new thing, and the earth opens its mouth and swallows them up, along with all that belongs to them, and they go down alive into their grave, then you will understand these men have rejected Yahweh.

31 As soon as he finished speaking all these words, the ground split apart underneath them,

32 And the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them up, along with their households, and all Korah's men and all their possessions were swallowed up with them.

33 They and all those with them went down alive into their grave. The earth closed over them, and they perished from among the congregation.

34 At their cries, all Israyl around them fled, shouting: The earth will swallow us too!

35 And a fire came out from Yahweh and consumed the 250 men who were offering incense.

36 Then Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying:

37 Tell Eleazar son of Aaron, the priest, to take the censers out of the smoldering remains, for they are holy. Scatter the burning coals in the censers far away from the altar.

38 The censers of the men who sinned at the cost of their lives have become holy, for these were presented in front of Yahweh. Hammer these censers into sheets to overlay the altar, and they shall be a sign to the children of Israyl.

39 So Eleazar the priest collected the bronze censers which those who were burned up had presented, and he had them hammered out to overlay the bronze altar.

40 Just as Yahweh commanded him through Mosheh. This was to be a memorial remembrance to the children of Israyl that no one except a descendant of Aaron should come to burn incense in front of Yahweh, or he would become like Korah and his followers.

41 On the next day all the congregation of the children of Israyl murmured against Mosheh and Aaron, saying; You have killed the people of Yahweh.

42 But when the congregation gathered in opposition to Mosheh and Aaron, and turned toward the Tent of Meeting, suddenly the cloud covered it, and the glory of Yahweh appeared.

43 Then Mosheh and Aaron went to the front of the Tent of Meeting,

44 And Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying;

45 Get away from among this congregation, that I may consume them completely! And they fell downward on their faces.

46 Then Mosheh said to Aaron; Take your censer, and put fire in it from the altar! Put incense upon the fire, and quickly take it to the congregation, and make atonement for them; for wrath has gone out from Yahweh. The plague has begun.

47 Then Aaron took it, as Mosheh commanded, and ran into the midst of the congregation. The plague had already started among the people, but Aaron offered the incense, and made atonement for them.

48 And he stood between the dead and the living, and the plague stopped.

49 But 14,700 people died from the plague, in addition to those who had died because of Korah.

50 Then Aaron returned to Mosheh at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting, for the plague had stopped.

CHAP. 17

Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying;

2 Speak to the children of Israyl, and get twelve staffs from them, one from the leaders of each of their ancestral tribes. Write the name of each man on his staff.

3 Write Aaron's name on the staff of Levi, for there shall be one staff for the head of each ancestral tribe.

4 Place them in the Tent of Meeting in front of the Testimony, where I meet with you.

5 The staff belonging to the man I choose will sprout, and I will rid Myself of this constant murmuring against you by the children of Israyl.

6 So Mosheh spoke to the children of Israyl, and each of their leaders gave him one staff each; twelve staffs in all, one for each leader of their ancestral tribes, and Aaron's staff was among them.

7 And Mosheh placed the staffs before Yahweh, in front of Yahweh in the Tent of Meeting.

8 The next day Mosheh entered the Tent of Meeting in front of the Testimony, and saw that Aaron's staff, which represented the house of Levi, had not only sprouted, but had budded, blossomed, and produced almonds.

9 Then Mosheh brought out all the staffs from in front of Yahweh, to all the children of Israyl. They looked at them; and each man took his own staff.

10 And Yahweh said to Mosheh; Put back Aaron's staff in front of the Testimony, to be kept as a sign against the rebels, that you may put their murmurings away from Me, so that they will not die.

11 Thus Mosheh did just as Yahweh had commanded him. So he did.

12 And the children of Israyl spoke to Mosheh, saying; We will die! Surely we are lost! We are lost!

13 Anyone who even comes near the tabernacle of Yahweh will die. Are we all going to die?

CHAP. 18

Then Yahweh said to Aaron; You and your sons, and your ancestral tribe with you, are to bear the responsibility for the sins against the Sanctuary; and you and your sons, alone, are to bear the responsibility for the sins against the Priesthood.

2 Bring with you your brothers of the tribe of Levi, the tribe of your ancestors, to join you and assist you when you and your sons minister in front of the Tent of the Testimony.

3 They are to be responsible to you, and are to perform all the duties of the Tent; but they must not go near the furnishings of the Holy Place or the altar, or both they and you will die.

4 They are to join you, and be responsible for the care of the Tent of Meeting; all the work at the Tent. And no one else may come near where you are.

5 You are to be responsible for the care of the Sanctuary and the altar, so that wrath will not fall on the children of Israyl again.

6 I, Myself, have chosen your brothers, the Levites, from among the children of Israyl as a gift to you, given by Yahweh to do the work of the Tent of Meeting.

7 But only you and your sons may serve as priests in connection with everything at the altar and behind the Veil; in the Holy Place and the Holy of Holies, and you shall serve. I am giving you the service of the priesthood as a gift. Anyone else who comes near the Sanctuary must be put to death.

8 Then Yahweh said to Aaron; I, Myself, have put you in charge of the offerings presented to Me; terumah. All the holy offerings the children of Israyl give to Me, I give to you and to your sons, as your portion and regular share.

9 You are to have the part of the most holy offerings kept back and reserved from the fire.

From all the gifts they bring to Me as most holy offerings; from every grain offering, from every sin offering, and from every trespass offering which they give to Me, that part belongs to you and to your sons.

10 In a most holy place you shall eat it; every male shall eat it. You must regard it as holy.

11 This is also yours: Whatever is set aside from the gifts of all the wave offerings of the children of Israyl, I give this to you and your sons and daughters as your regular share. Everyone in your household who is ceremonially clean may eat it

12 I give you all the finest olive oil, and all the finest new wine, and the grain they give to Yahweh as the firstfruits of their harvest.

13 All the first ripe fruit in their land, which they bring to Yahweh, shall be yours. Everyone in your household who is ceremonially clean may eat it.

14 Everything in Israyl that is devoted to Yahweh: cherem, is yours.

15 The first offspring of every womb, both man and animal, that is offered to Yahweh is yours. But you must redeem every firstborn son and every firstborn male of unclean animals.

16 When those devoted things: your firstborn son who opens the womb or the firstborn of your unclean animals, are one moon of age, you must redeem them at the redemption price set at five shekels, about 2 ounces, of silver, according to the sanctuary shekel, which weighs twenty gerahs, about 50 gerahs to the ounce.

17 But you must not redeem the firstborn of an ox, a sheep, or a goat; they are holy. Sprinkle their blood on the altar and burn their fat as an aroma made by fire to Yahweh as a pleasing aroma.

18 Their meat is to be yours, just as the breast of the wave offering and the right thigh are yours.

19 Whatever is set aside from the holy offerings the children of Israyl present to Yahweh, I give to you and your sons and daughters as your regular share by an ordinance forever. It is a covenant of salt forever in front of Yahweh, with you and your descendants with you.

20 Then Yahweh said to Aaron: You shall have no inheritance in their land, nor shall you have any portion among them. I am your Portion and your Inheritance among the children of Israyl.

21 See, I give the children of Levi all the tithes: the tenth, in Israyl as their inheritance in return for the work they perform and do while serving at the Tent of Meeting.

22 From now on the children of Israyl must not go near the Tent of Meeting, or they will bear the consequences of their sin, and they will die.

23 It is the Levites who shall perform and do the work of the Tent of Meeting, and bear the responsibility for offence and sin against it. It shall be a statute forever throughout your generations, that among the children of Israyl Levi shall have no inheritance.

24 Then Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying:

25 Speak this to the Levites, and say to them: When you take the tenth from the children of Israyl, which I have given to you from them as your inheritance, then you must present a tenth of that tithe as an offering; terumah, to Yahweh.

26 In this way you shall also offer an offering; terumah, to Yahweh from all your tithes which you receive from the children of Israyl. You shall give Yahweh's offering: the first tithe, from it to Aaron the priest.

27 And your offering; terumah, shall be reckoned to you as though it were the grain of the threshing floor and as the fullness of the winepress.

28 In this way you shall also offer an offering; terumah, to Yahweh from the tithes you receive from the children of Israyl. From these tithes you must give Yahweh's portion, the tenth, to Aaron the priest.

29 You must present as Yahweh's portion, the tenth, the best and holiest part of everything that has been given to you.

30 You shall say to the Levites: When you have presented the best part, it will be accounted to you as if it were the increase of the threshing floor or the winepress.

31 You and your households may eat the rest of it anywhere, for it is your wages for your work at the Tent of Meeting.

32 By presenting the best part of it you will not be guilty of sin by eating and enjoying the produce of the threshing floor and winepress as and when you please. But you must not defile the holy offerings of the children of Israyl, or you will die.

CHAP. 19

Yahweh spoke to Mosheh and Aaron, saying:

2 This is a statute of the law Yahweh has commanded, saying: Speak to the children of Israyl and tell them to bring you a ● red heifer without blemish or defect, and that has never been under a yoke; never having been used for secular purposes.

3 Give it to Eleazar the priest; it is to be taken outside the camp and slaughtered in front of him.

4 Then Eleazar the priest is to take some of its blood with his finger, and sprinkle some of its blood seven times toward the front of the

● Parah Adumah: The Ashes Of The Red Heifer were placed in the water of purification, used in the cleansing of those who were ritually defiled because of contact with a dead body.

Tent of Meeting.

5 While he watches, the heifer shall be burned in his sight: its hide, its flesh, its blood, and its offal shall be burned.

6 The priest is to take some cedar wood, hyssop, and scarlet wool, and throw them onto the burning heifer.

7 After that, the priest must wash his clothes and bathe himself with water. He may then come into the camp, but he will be ceremonially unclean until sunset.

8 And the one who burns it shall wash his clothes and bathe himself in water, and he shall be unclean until sunset.

9 Then a man who is clean shall gather up the Ashes Of The Red Heifer and put them in a ceremonially clean place outside the camp. They shall be kept by them for the congregation of the children of Israyl for the water of purification from impurity. It is for purifying from sin.

10 The man who gathers up the Ashes Of The Red Heifer must also wash his clothes, and he also will be unclean until sunset. It shall be a statute forever to the children of Israyl and to the stranger who dwells among them.

11 He who touches the dead body of anyone shall be unclean seven days.

12 He must purify himself with the water on the third day and on the seventh day; then he will be clean. But if he does not purify himself on the third day and seventh days, he will not be clean.

13 Whoever touches the dead body of anyone and fails to purify himself, defiles the tabernacle of Yahweh. That person shall be cut off from Israyl. He shall remain unclean, because the water of purification was not sprinkled on him. His uncleanness is still on him.

14 This is the law that applies when a person dies in a tent; anyone who enters the tent and anyone who is in it will be unclean for seven days.

15 And every open vessel, which has no lid fastened on it, is unclean.

16 Anyone out in the open who touches someone who has been killed with a sword, or someone who has died a natural death, or anyone who touches a human bone or a grave, will be unclean for seven days.

17 And for the unclean person, put some ashes from the burned purification offering into a jar and pour fresh water over them.

18 Then a man who is ceremonially clean is to take some hyssop, dip it into the purifying water, and sprinkle the tent and all the furnishings and the people who were there. He must also sprinkle anyone who has touched a human bone or a grave of someone who has been killed or someone who has died a natural death.

19 The man who is clean is to sprinkle the unclean person on the third and on the seventh days, and on the seventh day he is to purify him. The person being cleansed must wash his clothes and bathe with water, and at sunset he will be clean.

20 But the man who is unclean and does not purify himself, that person shall be cut off from among the congregation, because he has defiled the sanctuary of Yahweh. The water of purification has not been sprinkled on him, and he is unclean.

21 This is a perpetual statute for them. The man who sprinkles the water of purification must also wash his clothes, and anyone who touches the water of purification will be unclean until sunset.

22 Anything that an unclean person touches becomes unclean, and anyone who touches what the unclean has touched becomes unclean until sunset.

CHAP. 20

The whole congregation of the children of Israyl came into the Wilderness of Zin in the First Moon, and they stayed at Kadesh. Miriam died there and was buried there.

2 Now there was no water for the congregation, and the people gathered in opposition to Mosheh and Aaron.

3 They quarreled and contended with Mosheh, and said: If only we had died when our brothers fell dead in front of Yahweh!

4 Why did you bring the congregation of Yahweh into this wilderness, that we and our livestock should die here?

5 Why did you bring us up out of Egypt to this terrible place? It has no grain, no figs, no grapevines, no pomegranates, and there is no water to drink!

6 Mosheh and Aaron went from the presence of the congregation, to the entrance of the Tent of Meeting, and they fell downward on their faces, and the glory of Yahweh appeared to them.

7 Yahweh said to Mosheh:

8 Take the staff, and you and your brother Aaron gather the congregation together. While they are watching you, speak to that rock and it will pour out its water. You will bring water out of the rock for the community so they and their livestock can drink.

9 So Mosheh took the staff from in front of Yahweh, as He commanded him.

10 And Mosheh and Aaron gathered the congregation together in front of the rock. Then Mosheh said to them: Hear now, you rebels! Must we bring you water out of this rock?

11 Then Mosheh raised his arm and struck the rock twice with his staff. Water gushed out, and the congregation and their livestock drank.

12 Then Yahweh spoke to Mosheh and Aaron: Because you did not trust and believe Me enough to honor Me as Holy in the sight of the children of Israyl, therefore you will not bring this congregation into the land which I have given them.

13 These were the waters of Meribah, meaning, Quarreling or Contention, where the children of Israyl quarreled with Yahweh and where He showed himself Holy among them.

14 Mosheh sent messengers from Kadesh to the king of Edom, saying: This is what your brother Israyl says: You know about all the hardships that have come upon us.

15 Our forefathers went down into Egypt, and we lived there many years. The Egyptians afflicted us and our fathers.

16 When we cried out to Yahweh, He heard our cry and sent the malak and brought us up out of Egypt. Now here we are in Kadesh, a city on the edge of your territory.

17 Please let us pass through your country. We will not go through any field or vineyard, or drink water from any well. We will travel along the king's highway and will not turn to the right or to the left until we have passed through your country.

18 But Edom answered him: You may not pass through my land. If you try, we will march out and attack you with the sword.

19 So the children of Israyl said to him: We will go along the main road, and if we or our livestock drink any of your water, we will pay for it. We only want to pass through on foot, nothing more.

20 But they replied again: You may not pass through. Then Edom came out against them with a large and powerful army.

21 Because Edom refused to let them go through their territory, Israyl then turned away from him.

22 Then the whole congregation of the children of Israyl left Kadesh and came to Mount Hor.

23 And Yahweh spoke to Mosheh and Aaron in Mount Hor near the border of Edom, saying:

24 Aaron shall be gathered to his people. He will not enter the land I give the children of Israyl, because both of you rebelled against My command at the waters of Meribah.

25 Get Aaron and his son Eleazar and take them up Mount Hor.

26 Remove Aaron's garments and put them on his son Eleazar, because Aaron will be gathered to his people. He will die there.

27 So Mosheh did just as Yahweh commanded, and they went up to Mount Hor in the sight of all the congregation.

28 Mosheh removed the garments from Aaron and put them on Eleazar his son. And Aaron died there on top of the mountain. Then Mosheh and Eleazar came down from the mountain.

29 When all the congregation learned that Aaron was dead, all the house of Israyl mourned for Aaron thirty days.

CHAP. 21

When the king of Arad, the Canaanite who lived in the Negev, heard that Israyl was coming along the road to Atharim, he attacked the children of Israyl and captured some of them.

2 Then Israyl made this vow to Yahweh: If You will deliver these people into our hands, we will completely destroy their cities.

3 Yahweh listened to Israyl's plea, and delivered up the Canaanites. They utterly destroyed them and their cities; cherem. So the name of that place was called Hormah, meaning, Utter Destruction.

4 Then they journeyed from Mount Hor, by the way of the Red Sea, to go around the land of Edom. But the people grew impatient along the way;

5 They spoke against Yahweh, and against Mosheh, and said: Why have you brought us up out of Egypt to die in this wilderness? There is no bread! There is no water! And we detest this miserable food!

6 And Yahweh sent venomous snakes among them; they bit the people, and many of the people of Israyl died.

7 So the people came to Mosheh, and said: We have sinned when we spoke against Yahweh and against you. Pray that Yahweh will take the snakes away from us. So Mosheh prayed for the people.

8 And Yahweh said to Mosheh: Make a snake, and put it up on a pole; anyone who is bitten can look at it, and live.

9 So Mosheh made a bronze snake, and put it up on a pole. And when anyone was bitten by a snake, and looked at the bronze snake, he lived.

10 Then the children of Israyl moved on, and camped in Oboth.

11 Then they set out from Oboth, and camped in Iye Abarim, in the wilderness which is east of Moab, toward the sunrise.

12 From there they moved on, and camped in the Valley of Zered.

13 They set out from there, and camped alongside the Arnon, which is in the wilderness extending into the territory of the Amorites. The Arnon is the border of Moab, between Moab and the Amorites.

14 That is why the Book of the Wars of Yahweh says: Waheb in Suphah and the ravines, the Arnon,

15 And the slope of the ravines that reaches to the dwelling of Ar, and lies on the border of Moab.

16 From there, they continued on to Be'er, the well where Yahweh said to Mosheh; Gather the people together and I will give them water.

17 Then Israyl sang this song: Spring up, O well! All of you sing about it.

18 The well the leaders dug, dug by the nations' nobles, by the lawgiver with their staves. And from the wilderness they went to Mattanah.

19 From Mattanah to Nahaliel; from Nahaliel to Bamoth.

20 And from Bamoth to the valley in Moab where the top of Pisgah looks down on the wasteland.

21 Then Israyl sent messengers to Sihon, king of the Amorites, saying:

22 Let us pass through your country. We will not turn aside into any field or vineyard, or drink water from any well. We will travel along the king's highway until we have passed through your territory.

23 But Sihon would not let Israyl pass through his territory. He gathered all his people together and came out against Israyl in the wilderness. When he reached Yatzah, he fought with Israyl.

24 Then Israyl defeated him with the edge of the sword, and took possession of his land from the Arnon to the Yabbok, as far as the people of Ammon, because the border of the Ammonites was fortified.

25 So Israyl captured all these cities, and Israyl occupied them, including Heshbon and all its surrounding settlements.

26 Heshbon was the city of Sihon king of the Amorites, who had fought against the former king of Moab and had taken from him all his land as far as the Arnon.

27 That is why the poets say: come to Heshbon and let it be rebuilt; let Sihon's city be restored.

28 For fire went out from Heshbon; a flame from the city of Sihon; it consumed Ar of Moab, the citizens of Arnon's heights.

29 Woe to you, O Moab! You are destroyed, O people of Chemosh! He has give up his sons as fugitives, and his daughters as captives, to Sihon king of the Amorites.

30 But we have overcome them: Heshbon has perished as far as Dibon. Then we laid waste as far as Nophah, which extends to Medeba.

31 So Israyl lived in the land of the Amorites.

32 After Mosheh had sent spies to Yazer, the children of Israyl captured its surrounding settlements and drove out the Amorites who were there.

33 Then they turned and went up along the road toward Bashan, and Og king of Bashan and his whole army marched out to meet them in battle at Edrei.

34 Yahweh said to Mosheh; Do not be afraid of him, for I have handed him over to you, along with his whole army and his land. You shall do to him as you did to Sihon king of the Amorites, who lived at Heshbon.

35 So they defeated him, his sons, and all his people, until there was no survivors left. And they took possession of his land.

CHAP. 22

Then the children of Israyl traveled to the plains of Moab and camped along the Yordan across from Yericho.

2 Now Balak the son of Zippor saw all that Israyl had done to the Amorites,

3 And Moab was terrified because there were so many people. Moab was filled with dread because of the children of Israyl.

4 So Moab said to the elders of Midian: This horde is going to lick up everything around us, just like an ox licks up grass from the field. So Balak son of Zippor, who was king of Moab at that time,

5 Sent messengers to summon Balaam son of Beor, who was at Pethor, near the Euphrates River, in his native land. Balak said: A people has come out of Egypt. They cover the face of the land and have settled next to me.

6 Now come and put a curse upon these people, because they are too powerful for me. Then maybe I will be able to defeat them and drive them from the country. For I know that those whom you bless are blessed, and those whom you curse are cursed.

7 So the elders of Moab and the elders of Midian left, taking the diviner's fee in their hand. When they came to Balaam, they told him what Balak had said.

8 Balaam said to them; Lodge here tonight, and I will bring you the answer just as Yahweh gives it to me. So the princes of Moab stayed with Balaam.

9 Then Yahweh came to Balaam and asked: Who are these men with you?

10 Balaam said to Yahweh; Balak son of Zippor, king of Moab, sent me this message:

11 A people that has come out of Egypt covers the face of the land. Now come and put a curse on them for me. It may then be that I will be able to fight them and drive them away.

12 But Yahweh said to Balaam: Do not go with them. You must not put a curse on those people, because those people are blessed.

13 The next morning Balaam rose up and said to the princes of Balak: Go back to your land, for Yahweh has refused to give me permission to go with you.

14 So the princes of Moab returned to Balak and said: Balaam refuses to come with us.

15 Then Balak sent other princes, more numerous and distinguished than the first.

16 They came to Balaam and said to him; This is what Balak son of Zippor says: do not let anything keep you from coming to me.

17 Because I will certainly reward you greatly and will do whatever you say. Come and put a curse on these people for me.

18 Then Balaam answered, saying to the princes of Balak; Even though Balak were to give me his palace filled with silver and gold, I could not go beyond the word of Yahweh, to do any less or any more than He says.

19 Now therefore, also stay here tonight, as the others did, and I will find out what more Yahweh will say to me.

20 Yahweh came to Balaam that night and said to him; Since they came to summon you, rise and go with them. But only the word I speak to you is the only word you are commanded to say.

21 So Balaam rose up in the morning, saddled his donkey, and went with the princes of Moab.

22 But Yahweh was very angry because he went, and the malak of Yahweh took his stand in the road to oppose him. Balaam was riding on his donkey, and his two servants were with him.

23 When the donkey saw the malak of Yahweh standing in the road with a drawn sword in his hand, she turned off the road into a field. So Balaam beat her to turn her back onto the road.

24 Then the malak of Yahweh stood in a narrow path between two vineyards, with walls on both sides.

25 When the donkey saw the malak of Yahweh, she pressed close to the wall, crushing Balaam's foot against it. So he beat her again.

26 Then the malak of Yahweh went on further, and stood in a narrow place where there was no room to turn, either to the right hand or to the left.

27 When the donkey saw the malak of Yahweh in that situation, she lay down under Balaam. Then Balaam became so angry that he began to beat her with his staff.

28 Then Yahweh opened the donkey's mouth, and she said to Balaam; What have I done to you, that you have beat me these three times?

29 And Balaam answered the donkey and said; Because you have made a fool of me. If I had a sword in hand, I would kill you right now.

30 Then the donkey said to Balaam; Am I not your own donkey which you have always ridden, ever since I became yours, to this day? Was I ever in the habit of doing this to you? And he said; No.

31 Then Yahweh opened Balaam's eyes, and he saw the malak of Yahweh standing in the road with his sword drawn. So he bowed low and fell downward on his face.

32 Then the malak of Yahweh asked him; Why have you beaten your donkey these three times? I have come here to oppose you because your way is a perverted one in front of Yahweh.

33 The donkey saw me and turned aside from me these three times. If she had not turned aside from me, I would surely have killed you by now, and have allowed her to live.

34 Balaam said to the malak of Yahweh; I have sinned. I did not realize you were standing in the road to oppose me. Now if this displeases you, I will turn back.

35 Then the malak of Yahweh said to Balaam; Go with the men, but speak only what I tell you. So Balaam went with the princes of Balak.

36 Now when Balak heard that Balaam was coming, he went out to meet him at a city of Moab on the Arnon border, at the edge of his territory.

37 Balak said to Balaam; Did I not send you an urgent message, summoning you? Why did you not come? Am I not able to reward you?

38 And Balaam said to Balak; Well, I have now come to you, but I can not say just anything. I must speak only what Yahweh puts in my mouth.

39 Then Balaam went with Balak, going to Kiryath Huzoth.

40 Balak sacrificed cattle and sheep, and gave some to Balaam and to the princes who were with him.

41 The next morning Balak took Balaam up to Bamoth-Baal to see the extent of the people.

CHAP. 23

Then Balaam said; Build me seven altars here, and sacrifice for me here seven bulls and seven rams.

2 So Balak did just as Balaam had ordered; and Balak and Balaam offered a bull and a ram on each altar.

3 Then Balaam said to Balak; Stay here beside your offering while I go aside. Maybe Yahweh will come to meet with me, and whatever He reveals to me is what I will tell you.

4 Then Yahweh met Balaam, and he said to Him; I have prepared the seven altars, and I have sacrificed a bull and a ram on each altar.

5 Then Yahweh put a message in Balaam's mouth and said; Go back to Balak and give him this message.

6 So he returned to him and found him standing beside his burnt offering, with all the princes of Moab.

7 Then Balaam uttered his oracle: Balak brought me from Aram, from the mountains of the east. Come curse Yaaqob for me, and come denounce Israyl.

8 How can I curse those whom Yahweh has not cursed? And how can I denounce those whom Yahweh has not denounced?

9 From the top of the rocks I see him, and from the heights I behold him. There I see a people who live apart and who do not consider themselves one of the nations.

10 Who can count the dust of Yaaqob, or number the stock of Israyl? Let me die the death of the righteous, and may my end be like theirs.

11 Then Balak said to Balaam: What are you doing to me? I brought you here to curse my enemies, and I see you are bountifully blessing them!

12 So he answered and said: Must I not be diligent to speak what Yahweh has put in my mouth?

13 Then Balak said to him: Come with me to another place where you can see them; you shall see only the outer part of them but not all. Curse them for me from there.

14 So he brought him to the field of Zophim on the top of Pisgah, and there he built seven altars and sacrificed a bull and a ram on each altar.

15 Balaam said to Balak: Stay here beside your burnt offering while I meet over there.

16 Yahweh met with Balaam and put a message in his mouth, and said: Go back to Balak, and this shall you say to him.

17 So he went back to him and found him standing beside his burnt offering, and the princes of Moab were with him. And Balak said to him: What did Yahweh say?

18 Then he uttered his oracle: Arise, Balak, and listen; hear me, son of Zippor.

19 Yahweh is not a man, that He should lie, or a son of man, that He should repent. What He has said, will He not do it? Or what He has spoken, will He not make it come to pass?

20 Behold, I am commanded to bless; And when He has blessed, I cannot change it.

21 None has seen iniquity in Yaaqob. Neither has one seen perverseness in Israyl: Yahweh his Father is with him, and the shout of a King is among them.

22 Yahweh Who is bringing them forth out of Egypt is for them, He has strength like the wild ox.

23 For there is no enchantment with Yaaqob, neither is there any divination with Israyl: Now it is said of Yaaqob and of Israyl: See what Yahweh has done!

24 Behold, a people that rises up like a lioness, and as a lion it lifts itself up. It shall not lie down until it devours the prey, and drinks the blood of the slain.

25 Then Balak said to Balaam: Neither curse them at all nor bless them at all!

26 But Balaam answered and said to Balak: Did I not tell you: All that Yahweh speaks, that I must do?

27 Then Balak said to Balaam: Come, let me take you to another place. It may be that Yahweh will let you curse them for me from there.

28 And Balak took Balaam to the top of Peor, overlooking the wasteland.

29 Then Balaam said to Balak: Build me seven altars here, and sacrifice seven bulls and seven rams for me.

30 Balak did as Balaam had said, and offered a bull and a ram on each altar.

CHAP. 24

Now when Balaam saw that it pleased Yahweh to bless Israyl, he did not resort to sorcery as at other times, but turned his face toward the wilderness.

2 When Balaam looked out and saw Israyl encamped according to their tribes, the Spirit of Yahweh came upon him.

3 Then he uttered his oracle: The oracle of Balaam son of Beor, the oracle of one whose eyes are opened.

4 The oracle of one who hears the word of Yahweh, who sees a vision from the Almighty, who has fallen down, but whose eyes are opened.

5 How beautiful are your tents; tallits. O Yaaqob, and your dwelling places; O Israyl!

6 Like valleys that spread out, like gardens by the riverside, like aloes planted by Yahweh, like cedars beside the waters.

7 Water will flow from their buckets; their seed will have abundant water. Their King shall be higher than Agag, and His Kingdom shall be exalted.

8 Yahweh brings him out of Egypt: They have strength like a wild ox. They shall consume the nations, their enemies. They shall break their bones and pierce them with their arrows.

9 Like a lion they crouch and lie down. And as a lion, who will rouse him up? Blessed is he who blesses you, and cursed is he who curses you.

10 Then Balak's anger burned against Balaam, and he struck his hands together. Balak said to Balaam: I summoned you to curse my enemies, but you have only blessed them these three times.

11 Now leave at once! I said I would greatly reward you, but in fact Yahweh has kept you from being rewarded!

12 So Balaam said to Balak: Did I not say to the messengers you sent to me;

13 Even if Balak gave me his palace filled with silver and gold, I could not go beyond the command of Yahweh, to speak either righteousness or evil of my own will, but what Yahweh commanded me to speak, that I must speak?

14 Now I am going back to my own people; but come, and I will advise you what this people will do to your people in the latter days.

15 Then he uttered his oracle: The oracle of Balaam son of Beor, the oracle of one whose eyes are opened:

16 The oracle of him who hears the words of Yahweh, and knows the knowledge of the Most High, who sees a vision from the Almighty, who falls down prostrate but whose eyes are opened wide.

17 I see Him, but not now; I behold Him, but not near. A Star shall come out of Yaaqob; a Scepter shall rise out of Israyl, and shall crush through the two sides of the skull of Moab, and break down all the noisy boasters of the sons of Sheth.

18 Edom shall be a possession. Seir also, their enemies, shall be a possession, while Israyl does valiantly.

19 Out of Yaaqob One shall become a Ruler and destroy the survivors of the city.

20 Then he looked on Amalek, and uttered his oracle: Amalek was the first among the nations, but his end shall come to destruction.

21 Then he looked on the Kenites, and uttered his oracle: Though firm is your dwelling place, and though your nest is set in the rock:

22 Nevertheless, Kain shall be wasted. How long until Asshur carries you away captive?

23 Then he uttered his oracle: Alas! Who shall live when Yahweh does this?

24 But ships shall come from the coasts of Greece, and they shall subjugate Asshur, and subjugate Eber, those regions on the other side of the Euphrates. But he also shall come to destruction.

25 Then Balaam rose up, leaving to return to his home; Balak also went his own way.

CHAP. 25

While Israyl was staying in Shittim, meaning, Acacia Grove, the people began to commit sexual immorality with Moabite women.

2 They invited them to the sacrifices of their gods, and the people went and bowed down in front of their gods.

3 So Israyl joined in worshipping the Baal of Peor; the Lord of Peor, and Yahweh's anger burned against them.

4 Then Yahweh said to Mosheh; Take all the leaders of the people and kill the offenders.

Hang them out in broad daylight in front of Yahweh, so that Yahweh's fierce anger may turn away from Israyl.

5 So Mosheh said to the judges of Israyl; Every one of you is to kill his men who were joined in worship to the Baal of Peor; the Lord of Peor.

6 Then one of the children of Israyl came and brought to his brethren a Midianite woman in the sight of Mosheh and in the sight of all the congregation of the children of Israyl, who were weeping at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting.

7 When Phinehas son of Eleazar, son of Aaron, the priest, saw this, he left the congregation and took a spear in his hand.

8 He followed after the man of Israyl, and went right into his tent, into the chambers. He drove the spear through both of them, through the man of Israyl and into the woman's body. Then the plague stopped among the children of Israyl.

9 But those who died in the plague numbered 24,000.

10 Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying;

11 Phinehas the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, the priest, has turned My anger away from the children of Israyl. He was as zealous as I am Zealous for My Honor among them, so that I did not put an end to them in My zeal.

12 Therefore tell him I am making My covenant of peace with him.

13 He and his descendants will have a covenant of a lasting priesthood, because he was zealous for the Honor of Yahweh and made atonement for the children of Israyl.

14 The name of the Israylite who was killed with the Midianite woman, was Zimri the son of Salu, the leader of a family of Simeon.

15 The name of the Midianite woman who was killed was Cozbi the daughter of Zur, a tribal chief of a Midianite family.

16 Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying;

17 Treat the Midianites as enemies and kill them.

18 Because they treated you as enemies when they deceived you in the affair of Peor, and in the affair of Cozbi, the daughter of a chief of Midian, who was killed in the day of the plague which came as a result of Peor.

CHAP. 26

After the plague, Yahweh spoke to Mosheh and Eleazar the son of Aaron, the priest, saying;

2 Take a census of all the congregation of the children of Israyl from twenty years old and above, according to their fathers' houses; families, who are able to go to war in Israyl.

3 So on the plains of Moab, by the Yarden across from Yericho, Mosheh and Eleazar the priest spoke with them, and said;

4 Take a census of the men twenty years old and above, just as Yahweh commanded Mosheh and the children of Israyl who came out of the land of Egypt. These were those counted in this census:

5 The descendants of Reuben, the firstborn son of Israyl, according to their clans, were: Hanoch, the clan of the Hanochites; Pallu, the clan of the Palluites;

6 Hezron, the clan of the Hezronites; and Carmi, the clan of the Carmites.

7 These are the clans from the sons of Reuben. Those who were numbered of them were 43,730.

8 The son of Pallu was Eliab.

9 And the sons of Eliab were Nemuel, Dathan, and Abiram. The same Dathan and Abiram were the representatives of the people who contended against Mosheh and Aaron, along with Korah, when they contended and quarreled against Yahweh.

10 The earth opened its mouth and swallowed them along with Korah, whose followers died when the fire devoured the 250 men; and they became a sign.

11 However, the line of Korah did not die out, as the line of Dathan and Abiram did.

12 The descendants of Simeon, by their clans, were: Nemuel, the clan of the Nemuelites; Yamin, the clan of the Yaminites; Yakin, the clan of the Yakinites;

13 Zerah, the clan of the Zarhites; and of Shaul, the clan of the Shaulites.

14 These are the clans from the sons of Simeon. Those who were numbered of them were 22,200.

15 The descendants of Gad, by their clans, were: Zephon, the clan of the Zephonites; Haggi, the clan of the Haggites; Shuni, the clan of the Shunites;

16 Ozni, the clan of the Oznites; Eri, the clan of the Erites;

17 Arodi, the clan of the Arodites; and Areli, the clan of the Arelites.

18 These are the clans from the sons of Gad. Those who were numbered of them were 40,500.

19 Er and Onan were sons of Yahdah, but they died in Canaan.

20 The descendants of Yahdah, according to their clans, were: Shelah, the clan of the Shelanites; Perez, the clan of the Perezites; and Zerah, the clan of the Zarhites.

21 And the descendants of Perez, according to his clans, were: Hezron, the clan of the Hezronites; and Hamul, the clan of the Hamulites.

22 These are the clans from the sons of Yahdah. Those who were numbered of them were 76,500.

23 The descendants of Issachar, according to their clans, were: Tola, the clan of the Tolaites; Puah, the clan of the Puites;

24 Yashub, the clan of the Yashubites; And Shimron, the clan of the Shimronites.

25 These are the clans from the sons of Issachar. Those who were numbered of them were 64,300.

26 The descendants of Zebulun, according to their clans, were: Sereb, the clan of the Serebites; Elon, the clan of the Elonites; and Yachleel, the clan of the Yachleelites.

27 These are the clans from the sons of Zebulun. Those who were numbered of them were 60,500.

28 The descendants of Yahseph, by their clans through Menasheh and Ephraim, were:

29 The descendants of Menasheh, according to his clans, were: Machir, the clan of the Machirites. Machir begot Gilead. Gilead was the father of the clan of the Gileadites.

30 These were the descendants of Gilead, according to their clans: Iezer, the clan of the Iezerites; Helek, the clan of the Helekites;

31 Asriel, the clan of the Asrielites; Shechem, the clan of the Shechemites;

32 Shemida, the clan of the Shemidaites; Hephher, the clan of the Hephherites.

33 Zelophehad son of Hephher had no sons; he had only daughters, whose names were Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.

34 These are the clans from the sons of Menasheh ben Yahseph. Those who were numbered of them were 52,700.

35 The descendants of Ephraim, according to his clans, were: Shuthelah, the clan of the Shuthelahites; Beker, the clan of the Bekerites; and Tahan, the clan of the Tahanites.

36 These were the descendants of Shuthelah, through Eran, the clan of the Eranites.

37 These are the clans from the sons of Ephraim ben Yahseph. Those who were numbered of them were 32,500.

38 The descendants of Benyamin, according to their clans, were: Bela, the clan of the Belaites; Ashbel, the clan of the Ashbelites; Ahiram, the clan of the Ahiramites;

39 Shupham, the clan of the Shuphamites; and Hupham, the clan of the Huphamites.

40 The descendants of Bela, through Ard and Naaman, according to their clans, were: Ard, the clan of the Ardites, and Naaman, the clan of the Naamites.

41 These are the clans from the sons of Benyamin. Those who were numbered of them were 45,600.

42 The descendants of Dan, according to their clans, were: Shuham, the clan of the Shuhamites. These were the clans of Dan:

43 All of them were Shuhamite clans. Those who were numbered of them were 64,400.

44 The descendants of Asher, according to their clans were Yimna, the clan of the Yimnites; Yishwi, the clan of the Yishwites; and Beriah, the clan of the Beriites.

45 Through the descendants of Beriah was Heber, the clan of the Heberites; and Malkiel, the clan of the Malkielites.

46 Asher had a daughter named Serah.

47 These are the clans from the sons of Asher. Those who were numbered of them were 53,400.

48 The descendants of Naphtali, according to their clans, were: Yachzeel, the clan of the Yachzeelites; Guni, the clan of the Gunites;

49 Yezer, the clan of the Yezerites; and Shillem, the clan of the Shillemites.

50 These are the clans from the sons of Naphtali. Those who were numbered of them were 45,400.

51 The total number of the men of Israyl was 601,730.

52 Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying;

53 To these the land shall be allotted as an inheritance, based on the number of names.

54 To a large tribe you shall give a larger inheritance, and to a smaller tribe you shall give a smaller inheritance. Each is to receive its inheritance according to the number of those listed.

55 The land is to be divided by lot. Each ancestral tribe will receive its inheritance in this way.

56 Each inheritance is to be divided by lot between the larger and smaller.

57 The descendants of Levi, according to their clans, were: Gershon, the clan of the Gershonites; Kohath, the clan of the Kohathites; and Merari, the clan of the Merarites.

58 These also were Levite clans: the clan of the Libnites, the clan of the Hebronites, the clan of the Mahlites, the clan of the Mushites, and the clan of the Korathites. Kohath begot Amram.

59 The name of Amram's wife was Yahchebed the daughter of Levi, who was born to Levi in Egypt. To Amram she bore Aaron, Mosheh, and their sister Miriam.

60 To Aaron were born Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

61 But Nadab and Abihu died when they offered profane and unauthorized fire in front of Yahweh.

62 These are the clans from the sons of Levi. Those who were numbered of them, from the age of one moon old and older, were 23,000. They were not counted along with the other tribes of Israyl because they received no inheritance among them.

63 These are those who were numbered by Mosheh and Eleazar, the priest, who counted the sons of Israyl on the plains of Moab, by the Yordan across from Yericho.

64 Not one of them was among those counted by Mosheh and Aaron, the priest, when they counted the sons of Israyl in the Wilderness of Sinai.

65 For Yahweh had said of them: They shall surely die in this wilderness. So there was not one man left of them, except Caleb the son of Yephunneh and Yahshua the son of Nun.

CHAP. 27

Then came the daughters of Zelophehad the son of Hephher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Menasheh, from the clan of Menasheh ben Yahseph. The names of the daughters of Zelophehad were Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.

2 They approached the entranceway of the tabernacle of meeting to stand in front of Mosheh, Eleazar the priest, and all the leaders of the congregation of Israyl. They said to them:

3 Our father died in the wilderness, but he was not among the followers of Korah who banded together against Yahweh, but he died for his own sin, and left no sons.

4 Why should our father's name disappear from among his clan because he has no son? Therefore, give us an inheritance among the brothers of our father.

5 So Mosheh brought their case before Yahweh.

6 And Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying:

7 The daughters of Zelophehad speak the truth. You shall surely give them a possession of inheritance among their father's brothers, and cause the inheritance of their father to pass to them.

8 And you shall speak to the children of Israyl and say: If a man dies and has no son, then you shall cause his inheritance to pass to his daughter.

9 If he has no daughter, then you shall give his inheritance to his brothers.

10 If he has no brothers, then you shall give his inheritance to his father's brothers.

11 And if his father has no brothers, then you shall give his inheritance to the nearest kinsman in his clan, and he shall possess it. And this shall be to the children of Israyl a statute of judgment, just as Yahweh commanded Mosheh.

12 Then Yahweh said to Mosheh: Go up into this mountain in the Abarim range, the top of Pisgah, one of the peaks of Mt. Nebo, and see the land I have given to the children of Israyl.

13 And when you have seen it, you also shall be gathered to your people, just as Aaron your brother was gathered.

14 For in the Wilderness of Zin, when the congregation rebelled at the waters, both of you disobeyed My command to Honor Me as Holy in front of their eyes. (These were the waters of Meribah, at Kadesh in the Wilderness of Zin).

15 Mosheh then spoke to Yahweh, saying:

16 May Yahweh, the Discerner Who knows the varying spirits of men, appoint a man over the congregation,

17 To go out and come in before them; one who will lead them out, and bring them in, so the congregation of Yahweh may not be like sheep which have no shepherd.

18 Yahweh said to Mosheh; Take Yahshua ben Nun with you, a man in whom I discern this spirit, and lay your hand on him;

19 Set him before Eleazar the High Priest, and before all the congregation, and inaugurate him in their sight.

20 Give him some of your authority, so the whole congregation of the children of Israyl will obey him.

21 He shall stand before Eleazar the High Priest, who will obtain My decisions for him, by inquiring of the Urim before Yahweh. Then, at his command, he and the entire congregation of the children of Israyl will go out, and at his command, they will come in.

22 So Mosheh did as Yahweh commanded him: He took Yahshua, and set him before Eleazar the High Priest, and before all the congregation;

23 And he laid his hands on him, and inaugurated him, just as Yahweh had commanded by the hand of Mosheh.

CHAP. 28

Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying;

2 Command the children of Israyl, and say to them: See that you ● present to Me, at the appointed time, the food for My offerings made by fire, as an aroma pleasing to Me.

3 And you shall say to them; This is the offering made by fire that you are to present to Yahweh: two lambs of the first year, without blemish, as a regular burnt offering each day:

4 Sacrifice one lamb in the morning, and the other between the two evenings; the Morning and Evening Tamid.

5 Present with each lamb one-tenth of an ephah; about 2 quarts, of fine flour as a grain offering, mixed with one-fourth of a hin; about 1 quart, of pressed olive oil.

6 This is the regular burnt offering instituted at Mount Sinai, as a pleasing aroma, an offering made by fire to Yahweh.

7 The accompanying drink offering is to be one-fourth of a hin; about 1 quart, with each lamb. Pour out the drink offering to Yahweh at the Sanctuary.

8 Sacrifice the second lamb between the two evenings, along with its prescribed grain offering, and its prescribed drink offering. You shall offer it as an offering made by fire to Yahweh, as a pleasing aroma.

9 And on the Sabbath Day, make an offering of two lambs of the first year without blemish, together with its drink offering, and two-tenths of an ephah; about 4 quarts, of fine flour, mixed with oil—one ephah for each lamb.

10 This is the burnt offering for every Sabbath Day, in addition to the regular burnt offering: the Morning and Evening Tamid, and its drink offering.

11 On the first day of every New Moon, present to Yahweh a burnt offering of two young bulls, one ram, and seven lambs of their first year, all without blemish;

12 With each bull there is to be a grain offering of three-tenths of an ephah; about 6 quarts, of fine flour mixed with oil; with the ram, a grain offering of two-tenths of an ephah; about 4 quarts, of fine flour mixed with oil;

13 And with each lamb, a grain offering of one-tenth of an ephah; about 2 quarts, of fine flour mixed with oil. This is for a burnt offering, an offering made by fire to Yahweh as a pleasing aroma.

14 With each bull there is to be a drink offering of one-half of a hin; about 2 quarts, of wine; with the ram, there is to be one-third of a hin; 1 1/4 quarts of wine; and with each lamb there is to be one-fourth of a hin; about 1 quart of wine, as a drink offering. This is the burnt offering that is to be made at each New Moon during the year.

15 Besides the regular burnt offering: the Morning and Evening Tamid, with its drink offering that is also made on first day of the New Moon, one male goat is also to be presented to Yahweh, as a sin offering.

16 On the Fourteenth Day of the First Moon, between the two evenings, ● Yahweh's Pass-over lamb is to be sacrificed;

17 And on the Fifteenth day of this Moon is the Feast; unleavened bread must be eaten for seven days.

18 On the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread is a holy convocation. You shall do no regular work;

19 But you shall present an offering made by fire to Yahweh, as a burnt offering, of two young bulls, one ram, and seven lambs of their first year. Be sure they are without blemish.

20 With each bull prepare a grain offering of three-tenths of an ephah; about 6 quarts, of fine flour mixed with oil; with the ram, prepare two-tenths; about 4 quarts, of fine flour mixed with oil;

● Numbers 28:2-8 deals with The Morning and Evening Tamid: the daily, continual burnt offerings. One lamb, with its accompanying grain offering and wine offering, was offered in the morning, and the other lamb, with its accompanying grain offering and wine offering, was offered in the afternoon—between the two evenings. The TAMID was offered every single day throughout the year, and was the centre and core of public worship at the Temple.

● Exodus 12:47-49, Leviticus 23:5, Numbers 9:2-14

21 And with each of the seven lambs, offer one-tenth; about 2 quarts of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering.

22 Also include one male goat as a sin offering, to make atonement for you.

23 Prepare and sacrifice these, in addition to the regular morning burnt offering; the Morning Tamid.

24 In this way, prepare the food for the offering made by fire every day, for seven days, as an aroma pleasing to Yahweh. Throughout the Feast of Unleavened Bread this shall be offered, besides the regular burnt offering, the Morning and Evening Tamid, with its prescribed drink offering.

25 And on the seventh day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread you shall have a holy convocation. You shall do no regular, customary work.

26 On the day of firstfruits, when you present to Yahweh an offering of new grain at the Feast of Weeks, you shall have a holy convocation. You shall do no regular, customary work;

27 But you shall present a burnt offering to Yahweh for a pleasing aroma, of two young bulls, one ram, and seven lambs of their first year.

28 With each bull there is to be a grain offering of three-tenths of an ephah; about 6 quarts, of fine flour mixed with oil; with the ram, the grain offering is two-tenths of an ephah, about 4 quarts, of fine flour mixed with oil;

29 And with each of the seven lambs, the grain offering is one-tenth of an ephah, about 2 quarts, of fine flour mixed with oil.

30 Also include one male goat as a sin offering, to make atonement for you.

31 Prepare and sacrifice these, together with their prescribed drink offerings, in addition to the regular burnt offerings and its grain offerings, in addition to the Morning and Evening Tamid. Be sure they are without blemish.

CHAP. 29

On the First Day of the Seventh Moon you shall have a holy convocation; you shall do no regular, customary work. It is a day for you to sound the trumpets; the Feast of Trumpets,

2 And you shall offer a burnt offering, as an aroma pleasing to Yahweh, of one young bull, one ram, and seven lambs of their first year, all without blemish.

3 With the bull offer a grain offering of three-tenths of an ephah; about 6 quarts, of fine flour mixed with oil; with the ram, its grain offering is to be two-tenths of an ephah, about 4 quarts, of fine flour mixed with oil;

4 And with each of the seven lambs, its grain offering is to be one-tenth of an ephah; about 2 quarts, of fine flour mixed with oil.

5 Also include one male goat as a sin offering, to make atonement for you.

6 This Feast of Trumpets offering is in addition to the regular New Moon offering, and the Morning and Evening Tamid burnt offerings, along with their prescribed grain and drink offerings. They are offerings made to Yahweh by fire, as a pleasing aroma to Him.

7 On the Tenth Day of this Seventh Moon you shall have a holy convocation; you shall ● afflict your souls, and you shall not do any work at all;

8 But you shall sacrifice a burnt offering to Yahweh as a pleasing aroma, of one young bull, one ram, and seven lambs of their first year. Be sure they are without blemish.

9 With the bull, prepare a grain offering of three-tenths of an ephah; about 6 quarts, of fine flour mixed with oil; with the ram, the grain offering is to be two-tenths of an ephah; about 4 quarts, of fine flour mixed with oil;

10 And with each of the seven lambs, the grain offering is to be one-tenth of an ephah; about 2 quarts, of fine flour mixed with oil.

11 Also include one male goat as a sin offering, to make atonement for you, in addition to the ● Sin Offering for Atonement, and the regular burnt offering with its prescribed grain and drink offering; the Morning and Evening Tamid.

12 On the Fifteenth Day of the Seventh Moon you shall have a holy convocation; you shall do no regular, customary work, and you shall keep a Feast to Yahweh for seven days: The Feast of Tabernacles.

13 On the First Holy Day of the Feast of Tabernacles, you shall present an offering made by fire, as an aroma pleasing to Yahweh, a burnt offering of thirteen young bulls, two rams, and fourteen male lambs of the first year, all without blemish.

14 With each of the thirteen bulls, prepare a grain offering of three-tenths of an ephah, about 6 quarts, of fine flour mixed with oil. With each of the two rams, prepare two-tenths of an ephah; about 4 quarts, of fine flour mixed with oil.

15 And with each of the fourteen lambs, prepare one-tenth of an ephah; about 2 quarts, of fine flour mixed with oil.

16 Also include one male goat as a sin offering, to make atonement for you, in addition to the regular burnt offering, the Morning and Evening Tamid, with its prescribed grain and drink offerings.

● Fast without eating any food or drinking any liquid on the Day of Atonement. ● Sin Offering for Atonement; Numbers Chapter 16.

17 On the second day of the Feast of Tabernacles sacrifice twelve young bulls, two rams, and fourteen male lambs of the first year, all without blemish.

18 With the bulls, rams, and lambs, prepare their grain offerings and drink offerings according to the number and manner specified.

19 Also include one male goat as a sin offering, to make atonement for you, in addition to the regular burnt offering, the Morning and Evening Tamid, with its prescribed grain and drink offerings.

20 On the third day of the Feast of Tabernacles sacrifice eleven bulls, two rams, and fourteen male lambs of the first year, all without blemish.

21 With the bulls, rams, and lambs, prepare their grain offerings and drink offerings according to the number and manner specified.

22 Also include one male goat as a sin offering, to make atonement for you, in addition to the regular burnt offering, the Morning and Evening Tamid, along with its prescribed grain and drink offerings.

23 On the fourth day of the Feast of Tabernacles sacrifice ten bulls, two rams, and fourteen male lambs of the first year, all without blemish.

24 With the bulls, rams, and lambs, prepare their grain offerings and drink offerings according to the number and manner specified.

25 Also include one male goat as a sin offering, in addition to the regular burnt offering, the Morning and Evening Tamid, along with its prescribed grain and drink offerings.

26 On the fifth day of the Feast of Tabernacles sacrifice nine bulls, two rams, and fourteen male lambs of the first year, all without blemish.

27 With the bulls, rams, and lambs, prepare their grain offerings and drink offerings according to the number and manner specified.

28 Also include one male goat as a sin offering, to make atonement for you, in addition to the regular burnt offering, the Morning and Evening Tamid, along with their prescribed grain and drink offerings.

29 On the sixth day of the Feast of Tabernacles sacrifice eight bulls, two rams, and fourteen male lambs of the first year, all without blemish.

30 With the bulls, rams, and lambs, prepare their grain offerings and drink offerings according to the number and manner specified.

31 Also include one male goat as a sin offering, in addition to the regular burnt offering, the Morning and Evening Tamid, along with its prescribed grain and drink offerings.

32 On the seventh day of the Feast of Tabernacles sacrifice seven bulls, two rams, and fourteen male lambs of the first year, all without blemish.

33 With the bulls, rams, and lambs, prepare their grain and drink offerings according to the number and manner specified.

34 Also include one male goat as a sin offering, in addition to the regular burnt offering, the Morning and Evening Tamid, along with its prescribed grain and drink offerings.

35 On the eighth day, the Last Great Day, you shall have a holy convocation. You shall do no regular, customary work;

36 But you shall present a burnt offering, an offering made by fire as an aroma pleasing to Yahweh, of one bull, one ram, and seven lambs of the first year, all without blemish.

37 With the bull, the ram, and the lambs, prepare their grain offerings and drink offerings, according to the number and manner specified.

38 Also include one male goat as a sin offering, to make atonement for you, in addition to the regular burnt offering, the Morning and Evening Tamid, along with its prescribed grain and drink offerings.

39 In addition to what you vow, and in addition to your freewill offerings, prepare these for Yahweh at your appointed Feasts—your burnt offerings, grain offerings, drink offerings, and peace offerings.

40 So Mosheh told the children of Israyl all these things, just as Yahweh had commanded him.

CHAP. 30

Then Mosheh spoke to the heads of the tribes of Israyl, saying; This is what Yahweh has commanded:

2 When a man vows a vow to Yahweh, or vows an oath to bind himself to some pledge, he shall not break his word. He must do everything he said he would do.

3 When a young woman, still living in her father's house, vows a vow to Yahweh, or vows an oath to bind herself to some pledge,

4 And her father hears about her vow or pledge but says nothing to her, then all her vows and every pledge by which she has obligated herself, will stand.

5 But if her father forbids her when he hears about it, none of her vows or pledges, by which she obligated herself, will stand. Yahweh will release her, because her father has forbidden her.

6 If she marries after she makes a vow, or after she utters a rash promise by which she obligates herself,

7 And her husband hears about it but says nothing to her, then her vows, or the pledges by which she obligated herself, will stand.

8 But if her husband forbids her when he hears about it, he nullifies the vow that obli-gates her, or the rash promise by which she has obligated herself, and Yahweh will release her.

9 But any vow or pledge taken by a widow or divorced woman will be binding upon her.

10 If a woman living with her husband makes a vow, or obligates herself by a pledge under oath,

11 And her husband hears about it but says nothing to her and does not forbid her, then all her vows or the pledges she has obligated herself to, will stand.

12 But if her husband nullifies them when he hears about them, then none of the vows or pledges that came from her mouth will stand. Her husband has forbidden them, and Yahweh will release her.

13 Her husband may confirm her vow, or her husband may make it void.

14 But if her husband says nothing to her about it from day to day, then he confirms all her vows or the pledges binding upon her. He has confirmed them by saying nothing to her when he hears about them.

15 If he, however, nullifies them some time after he hears about them, then he is responsible for her guilt.

16 These are the statutes Yahweh gave Mosheh concerning relationships between a man and his wife, and between a father and his young daughter still living in his house.

CHAP. 31

Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying:

2 Take vengeance for the children of Israyl upon the Midianites. After that, you will be gathered to your people.

3 So Mosheh spoke to the people, saying: Arm some of your men for war, and let them go against the Midianites to take vengeance for Yahweh upon Midian.

4 Send into battle a thousand men from each of the tribes of Israyl.

5 So twelve thousand men armed themselves for battle, recruited from the clans of Israyl; one thousand men from each tribe.

6 Then Mosheh sent them to war, a thousand from each tribe, along with Phinehas son of Eleazar, the priest, who took with him the holy articles, and the signal trumpets in his hand.

7 And they fought against the Midianites, just as Yahweh commanded Mosheh, and they killed all the males.

8 They killed the kings of Midian, namely: Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur, and Reba—the five kings of Midian. They also killed Balaam son of Beor with the sword.

9 The children of Israyl took all the women and children of Midian as captives, along with the spoil of their cattle, flocks, and possessions.

10 They burned all the towns where the Midianites had settled, and put their fortifications to the fire.

11 They took all the spoil and all the plunder, both of man and beast.

12 Then they brought the captives, the plunder, and the spoil to Mosheh, to Eleazar the priest, and to the camp of the congregation of the children of Israyl, on the plains of Moab, by the Yordan across from Yericho.

13 And Mosheh, Eleazar the priest, and all the leaders of the congregation, went to meet them outside the camp.

14 But Mosheh was angry with the officers of the army—the captains of thousands and the captains of hundreds, who returned from the battle.

15 Mosheh said to them: Have you kept all the women alive?

16 It was these women, through the counsel of Balaam, who caused the children of Israyl to trespass against Yahweh in the incident of Peor, causing a plague among the congregation of Yahweh.

17 Now therefore, kill every little boy, and kill every woman who has slept with a man.

18 But save for yourselves every girl who has never slept with a man.

19 All of you who have killed anyone or touched anyone who was killed, must stay outside the camp seven days. On the third day and on the seventh day you must purify yourselves and your captives.

20 Purify every garment, everything made of leather, everything woven of goat hair, and everything made of wood.

21 Then Eleazar the priest said to the men who had gone into the battle; This is the ordinance of the law Yahweh has commanded to Mosheh:

22 The gold, silver, bronze, iron, tin, and lead,

23 Everything that can endure fire, you must put them through the fire, and they will be clean, then it shall also be purified with the water of purification. But all that cannot endure fire, must be put through that water.

24 And you shall wash your clothes on the seventh day and be clean, and afterward you may come into the camp.

25 Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying:

26 Take a count of all the plunder taken, of man and beast. You, and Eleazar the priest, and the chief fathers of the congregation are to count it.

27 Divide the plunder into two parts: Between those who took part in the battle, and between the congregation.

28 From those who fought in the battle, set apart as tribute for Yahweh one out of every five hundred counted, of the persons, the cattle, the donkeys, and the sheep.

29 Take it from their half, and give it to Eleazar the priest as a heave offering to Yahweh.

30 And from the half divided to the children of Israyl, you shall take one of every fifty counted, drawn from the persons, the cattle, the donkeys, and the sheep, from all the livestock, and give them to the Levites who keep charge and are responsible for the care of Yahweh's tabernacle.

31 So Mosheh and Eleazar the priest did as Yahweh commanded Mosheh.

32 The plunder remaining from the spoils that the men of war took was 675,000 sheep,

33 72,000 cattle,

34 61,000 donkeys,

35 And 32,000 women who had never slept with a man.

36 The half portion for those who had gone out to battle was: 337,500 sheep.

37 Yahweh's tribute of these sheep was 675.

38 The cattle was 36,000, of which Yahweh's tribute was 72.

39 The donkeys were 30,500, of which Yahweh's tribute was 61.

40 The persons were 16,000, of which Yahweh's tribute was 32.

41 So Mosheh gave the tribute, Yahweh's heave offering, to Eleazar the priest, as Yahweh commanded Mosheh.

42 The half belonging to the children of Israyl, which Mosheh set apart from that of the men who went to war—

43 The half belonging to the congregation was 337,500 sheep,

44 36,000 cattle,

45 30,500 donkeys,

46 And 16,000 persons.

47 From the half belonging to the children of Israyl, Mosheh took one of every fifty counted, drawn from man and beast, and gave them to the Levites who kept charge and were responsible for the care of the tabernacle of Yahweh, as Yahweh commanded Mosheh.

48 Then the officers who were over the units of the army: the captains of thousands and the captains of hundreds, went to Mosheh

49 And they said: Your servants have taken a count of the men who fought in the battle, who were under our command, and not a man of us is missing.

50 Therefore, we have brought as an offering to Yahweh the gold articles each of us acquired: armlets, bracelets, signet rings, earrings, and necklaces, to make atonement for ourselves in front of Yahweh.

51 Mosheh and Eleazar the priest accepted from them the gold; all the crafted ornaments.

52 All the gold from the captains of thousands and captains of hundreds, which was offered to Yahweh weighed 16,750 shekels, that is, about 450 pounds of gold.

53 Each man who went to battle had taken spoil, every man for himself.

54 Mosheh and Eleazar the priest accepted the gold from the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and brought it into the Tent of Meeting as a memorial for the children of Israyl in front of Yahweh.

CHAP. 32

The children of Reuben and the children of Gad had a great multitude of livestock. When they saw the land of Yazer and the land of Gilead was an excellent land for raising livestock,

2 The children of Gad and the children of Reuben came before Mosheh, and Eleazar the priest, and the leaders of the congregation, and said;

3 Ataroth, Dibon, Yazer, Nimrah, Heshbon, Elealeh, Shebam, Nebo, and Beon—

4 The land Yahweh subdued in front of the children of Israyl, is a land for raising livestock, and your servants have livestock.

5 They said; If we have found honor in your sight, let this land be given to your servants as a possession, and do not take us over the Yarden.

6 But Mosheh said to the children of Gad and to the children of Reuben: Shall your brothers go to war while you sit here?

7 Why do you discourage the children of Israyl from going over into the land Yahweh has given them?

8 This is what your fathers did when I sent them from Kadesh Barnea to spy out the land.

9 When they went up to the Valley of Eshcol, Valley of the Cluster, and saw the land, they discouraged the children of Israyl so much, they did not go into the land Yahweh had given them.

10 So Yahweh's anger burned on that day, and He vowed an oath, saying:

11 Surely none of the men who came up from Egypt, from twenty years old and above, shall see the land which I promised to Abraham, Isaac, and Yaaqob, because they have not wholeheartedly followed Me.

12 Except Caleb ben Yephunneh, the Kenizite, and Yahshua ben Nun, for they have wholeheartedly followed Yahweh.

13 So Yahweh's anger burned against Israyl, and He made them wander in the wilderness forty years, until all that generation which had done evil in Yahweh's sight was dead.

14 Now look! You have come up in your fathers' place, a brood of sinners, to make Yahweh even more angry against Israyl!

15 If you turn away from following Him, He will once again leave them in this wilderness, and you will destroy all these people.

16 Then they came up to him and said: We will build sheepfolds for our livestock, and cities for our women and children.

17 But we ourselves will be armed and ready to go to battle for the children of Israyl, until we have brought them to their place, and our women and children will live in the fortified cities for protection from the inhabitants of the land.

18 We will not return to our homes until every one of the children of Israyl has received his inheritance.

19 We will not inherit with them on the other side of the Yarden and beyond, because our inheritance will have fallen on the east side of the Yarden.

20 Then Mosheh said to them: If you will do as you have said—if you will arm yourselves in front of Yahweh for battle.

21 And all your armed men will cross over the Yarden in front of Yahweh, staying until He has driven out His enemies from in front of Him.

22 Then when the land becomes subdued in front of Yahweh, you may then return and be blameless before Yahweh and before Israyl. Then this land will be your possession in front of Yahweh.

23 But if you do not do as you have said, then take note of this warning: You will have sinned against Yahweh, and you may be sure your sin will find you out.

24 Build cities for your women and children, build sheepfolds for your sheep, and do everything that has proceeded from your mouth.

25 The children of Gad and the children of Reuben then said to Mosheh; We, your servants, will do everything as you have commanded.

26 Our children, our wives, our flocks, and all our livestock will remain here in the cities of Gilead;

27 But we, your servants; every man armed for battle in front of Yahweh, will cross over, just as you have said.

28 Then Mosheh gave instructions concerning them to Eleazar the priest, to Yahshua ben Nun, and to the family heads of the tribes of the children of Israyl.

29 Mosheh instructed them; If the children of Gad and the children of Reuben cross over the Yarden with you, every one armed and ready for battle in front of Yahweh; when the land is subdued before you, then you shall give them the land of Gilead as a possession.

30 But if they do not cross over armed for battle with you, they shall have possessions among you the in land of Canaan.

31 Then the children of Gad and the children of Reuben answered; Everything Yahweh has said to your servants, that is what we will do.

32 We will cross over, armed in front of Yahweh, into the land of Canaan, but the possession of our inheritance will be on this side of the Yarden.

33 So Mosheh gave to the children of Gad, to the children of Reuben, and to the half tribe of Menasheh ben Yahseph, the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites and the kingdom of Og king of Bashan; the whole land with the cities within its boundaries, and the cities of the surrounding territory.

34 The children of Gad built up Dibon, Araroth, and Aroer,

35 Atroth, Shophan, Yazer, and Yogbehah,

36 Beth Nimrah, and Beth Haran—all as fortified cities, and they built sheepfolds for their sheep.

37 The children of Reuben built up Heshbon and Elealah and Kiryathiam, 38 Nebo and Baal Meon (changing their names) and Shibmah. They gave names to the cities they built up.

39 The children of Machir, of the half tribe of Menasheh, went to Gilead and captured it, and drove out the Amorites who were in it.

40 So Mosheh gave Gilead to Machir ben Menasheh, and he lived in it.

41 Yair ben Menasheh also captured their small towns, and called them Havvoth Yair, which means, The Settlements of Yair.

42 And Nobah captured Kenath and its surrounding towns, and he called it Nobah, after his own name.

CHAP. 33

These are the journeys of the children of Israyl when they came out of Egypt by divisions under the leadership of Mosheh and Aaron.

2 Mosheh wrote down the starting points; each place from which they went forth to proceed to another place, of their journeys at the command of Yahweh. These are their stages at their points of beginning as they set out:

3 And they set out from Rameses in the First Moon, on the fifteenth day of the first Moon; on the ● day after the Passover was sacrificed, the children of Israyl marched out boldly in the sight of all the Egyptians.

4 For the Egyptians were burying all their firstborn, whom Yahweh had killed among them. Also upon all the ● gods of Egypt

●The Passover Lambs were killed on the Fourteenth Day of the First Moon, between around 3:00 in the afternoon and sunset. Exodus 12:47-49, Leviticus 23:5, Numbers 9:24. ●In killing the firstborn of all living beings of Egypt, man and beast, Yahweh smote the objects of Egyptian worship. Not a single god of Egypt was unrepresented by some beast.

Yahweh had executed judgments.

5 The children of Israyl set out from Ramesses, and encamped at Succoth.

6 They set out from Succoth and encamped at Etham, which is on the edge of the wilderness

7 They set out from Etham, turned back to Pi Hahiroth which is east of Baal Zephon, and encamped near Migdol.

8 They set out from near Pi Hahiroth and walked through the middle of the sea on into the wilderness. They went three days' journey into the Wilderness of Etham and encamped at Marah.

9 They set out from Marah and came to Elim. At Elim were twelve springs of water and seventy palm trees; so they encamped there.

10 They set out from Elim and encamped by the Red Sea.

11 They set out from the Red Sea and encamped in the Wilderness of Sin.

12 They set out from the Wilderness of Sin and encamped at Dophkah.

13 They set out from Dophkah and encamped at Alush.

14 They set out from Alush and encamped at Rephidim, where there was no water for the people to drink.

15 They set out from Rephidim and encamped in the Wilderness of Sinai.

16 They set out from the Wilderness of Sinai and encamped at Kibroth Hattaavah.

17 They set out from Kibroth Hattaavah and encamped at Hazeroth.

18 They set out from Hazeroth and encamped at Rithmah.

19 They set out from Rithmah and encamped at Rimmon Perez.

20 They set out from Rimmon Perez and encamped at Libnah.

21 They set out from Libnah and encamped at Rissah.

22 They set out from Rissah and encamped at Kehelathah.

23 They set out from Kehelathah and encamped at Mount Shepher.

24 They set out from Mount Shepher and encamped at Haradah.

25 They set out from Haradah and encamped at Makheloth.

26 They set out from Makheloth and encamped at Tahath.

27 They set out from Tahath and encamped at Terah.

28 They set out from Terah and encamped at Mithkah.

29 They set out from Mithkah and encamped at Hashmonah.

30 They set out from Hashmonah and encamped at Moseroth.

31 They set out from Moseroth and encamped at Bene Yaakan.

32 They set out from Bene Yaakan and encamped at Hor Hagidgad.

33 They set out from Hor Hagidgad and encamped at Yotbathah.

34 They set out from Yotbathah and encamped at Abronah.

35 They set out from Abronah and encamped at Ezion Geber.

36 They set out from Ezion Geber and encamped at Kadesh, which is in the Wilderness of Zin.

37 They set out from Kadesh and encamped at Mount Hor, on the border of the land of Edom.

38 Then Aaron the priest went up to Mount Hor, at the command of Yahweh, and died there. He died there on the First Day of the Fifth Moon, in the Fortieth Year after the children of Israyl had come out of the land of Egypt.

39 Aaron was one hundred and twenty-three years old when he died on Mount Hor.

40 The Canaanite king of Arad, who lived in the Negev in the land of Canaan, heard the children of Israyl were coming, 41 So they set out from Mount Hor and encamped at Zalmonah.

42 They set out from Zalmonah and encamped at Punon.

43 They set out from Punon and encamped at Oboth.

44 They set out from Oboth and encamped at Iye Abarim, on the border of Moab.

45 They set out from Iye Abarim and encamped at Dibon Gad.

46 They set out from Dibon Gad and encamped at Almon Diblathaim.

47 They set out from Almon Diblathaim and encamped in the mountains of the Abirim range, in front of Nebo.

48 They set out from the mountains of the Abirim range and encamped in the plains of Moab, by the Yordan across from Yericho.

49 There they encamped by the Yordan, from Beth Yesimoth as far as Abel Shittim; Abel Acacia Grove, in the plains of Moab.

50 Yahweh spoke to Mosheh in the plains of Moab, by the Yordan across from Yericho, and said;

51 Speak to the children of Israyl, and tell them; When you have crossed the Yordan into the land of Canaan,

52 Drive out all the inhabitants of the land from in front of you. Destroy all their carved images, and cast images, and tear down and demolish all their high places.

53 Take possession of the land and live in it, for I have given you the land to possess.

54 Distribute the land by lot for an inheritance, according to the clans of Israyl. To the larger tribe you shall give a larger inheritance, and to the smaller tribe you shall give a smaller inheritance. Whatever falls to them by lot will be theirs. Divide it according to your ancestral tribes.

55 But if you do not drive out the inhabitants of the land from in front of you, then those whom you let remain shall be dirt in your eyes and thorns in your sides. They will be nothing but trouble to you in the land where you live.

56 Moreover, I will then do to you, as I had planned to do to them.

CHAP. 34

Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying:

2 Command the children of Israyl, and say to them: When you come into the land of Canaan, the land that shall fall by lots to you as an inheritance—your land shall have these boundaries—

3 Your SOUTHERN BORDER will include some of the Wilderness of Zin along the border of Edom. On the east, your southern border will start from the end of the Salt Sea; the Dead Sea.

4 Then cross south of the Ascent of Akrabim; Scorpion Pass, continue on to Zin and go south to Kadesh Barnea. Then it will go to Hazar Addar and over to Azmon.

5 Where it will turn, join the Wadi of Egypt and end at the Mediterranean Sea.

6 Your WESTERN BORDER will be the coast of the Great Sea; the Mediterranean Sea. This will be your border on the west.

7 For your NORTHERN BORDER, run a line from the Great Sea; the Mediterranean Sea.

8 To Mount Hor; from Mount Hor to the entrance of Hamath; go on to Zedad, 9 Continue to Ziphron, and end at Hazar Enan. This will be your border on the north.

10 For your EASTERN BORDER, run a line from Hazar Enan to Shepham.

11 Go down from Shepham to Riblah, on the east side of Ain, and continue along the slopes east of the Sea of Kinnereth; the Sea of Galilee.

12 Then go down along the Yordan and end at the Salt Sea; the Dead Sea. These borders shall be your borders, and the land therein shall be your land.

13 Mosheh commanded the children of Israyl, saying: This is the land you shall inherit by lot. Yahweh has commanded it be given to the nine tribes and to the half-tribe.

14 The tribe of the children of Reuben, the tribe of the children of Gad, and the half-tribe of Menasheh ben Yahseph have already received their inheritance.

15 The two tribes and the half-tribe have received their inheritance on this side of the Yordan across from Yericho: east of the Yordan River, toward the sunrise.

16 Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying:

17 These are the names of the men who are to divide the land among you as an inheritance: Eleazar the priest and Yahshua ben Nun.

18 And you shall appoint one leader of every tribe to help divide the land for the inheritance.

19 These are the names of those men who were appointed: Caleb ben Yephunneh, the leader from the tribe of Yahdah;

20 Shemuel ben Ammihud, the leader from the tribe of Simeon;

21 Elidad ben Kison, the leader from the tribe of Benyamin;

22 Bukki ben Yogli, the leader from the tribe of Dan;

23 Hanniel ben Ephod, the leader from the tribe of Menasheh ben Yahseph.

24 Kemuel ben Shiptan, the leader from the tribe of Ephraim ben Yahseph.

25 Elizaphan ben Parnach, the leader from the tribe of Zebulun;

26 Paltiel ben Azzan, the leader from the tribe of Issachar;

27 Ahihud ben Shelomi, the leader from the tribe of Asher;

28 Pedahel ben Ammihud, the leader from the tribe of Naphtali.

29 These are the men Yahweh commanded to divide the land inheritance among the children of Israyl in the land of Canaan.

CHAP. 35

Yahweh spoke to Mosheh in the plains of Moab, by the Yordan across from Yericho, saying:

2 Command the children of Israyl to give the Levites cities to live in, from the inheritance they will possess. Also give the Levites the common-land around these cities.

3 They shall have these cities to live in, and the open land around them shall be for their cattle, herds, and animals.

4 The open land around the cities you give the Levites will extend out from the walls of the city a thousand cubits in all directions, that is, 1,500 feet.

5 Outside the city, measure two thousand cubits on the east side, two thousand cubits on the south side, two thousand cubits on the west side, and two thousand cubits on the north side, with the city in the center. This was a total area of 3,000 feet extending in all directions from the Levitical city. 1,500 feet was for open land to pasture cattle, and the remaining 1,500 feet was for fields and vineyards; all of this was the 'common-land'. This shall belong to them as common-land for the cities.

6 Six of the cities you give to the Levites will be cities of refuge, to which a person who has killed someone may flee. In addition to these six cities, you shall add forty-two cities.

7 So all the cities you will give to the Levites will total forty-eight cities, along with the common-land commanded with them.

8 The cities you give the Levites, from the land the children of Israyl possess, are to be given in proportion to the inheritance of each tribe. From the larger tribes you shall give many cities, and from the smaller tribes you shall give fewer.

9 Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying:

10 Speak to the children of Israyl, and tell them: When you cross the Yordan into the land of Canaan,

11 Then appoint cities to serve as your cities of refuge, where a person who accidentally kills someone may flee.

12 They shall be cities of refuge from the blood-avenger, so that a person accused of murder may not die before he stands in judgment in front of the congregation.

13 Of all the cities you give, six shall be cities of refuge.

14 You shall appoint three cities on this side of the Yordan, and three cities in the land of Canaan to be cities of refuge.

15 These six cities shall be for refuge for the children of Israyl, for the stranger, and for the sojourner living among them, so that any person who accidentally kills another person may find refuge there.

16 However, if a man strikes someone with an iron object, so that he dies, he is a murderer. The murderer shall surely be put to death.

17 Or if anyone has a stone in his hand that could kill, and he strikes someone so that he dies, he is a murderer: the murderer shall surely be put to death.

18 Or if anyone has a wooden object in his hand which is used as a weapon, and he hits someone so that he dies, he is a murderer. The murderer shall surely be put to death.

19 The blood-avenger himself shall put the murderer to death. When he meets him, he shall put him to death.

20 If anyone with premeditated malice shoves another, or throws something at him intentionally, so that he dies,

21 Or in hatred he strikes him with his hand, so that he dies; the one who struck him shall surely be put to death, for he is a murderer. The blood-avenger shall put the murderer to death when he meets him.

22 But, if without hostility, someone suddenly shoves another, or unintentionally throws something at him,

23 Or without seeing him, drops a stone on him that could kill him, and he dies; then since he was not his enemy and he did not intend to harm him;

24 The congregation must judge between him and the blood-avenger according to these judgments.

25 In these cases the congregation must protect the one accused of murder from the hand of the blood-avenger, and send him back to the city of refuge to which he fled. He must stay there until the death of the high priest who was anointed with the holy oil.

26 However, if the accused ever goes outside the limits of the city of refuge where he fled,

27 And the blood-avenger finds him outside the limits of his city of refuge, the blood-avenger may kill the accused and shall not himself be guilty of murder.

28 Because the accused must remain in his city of refuge until the death of the high priest. But after the death of the high priest the accused may then return to the land of his possession.

29 These judgments shall be a statute of judgment to you throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

30 Anyone who kills a person is to be put to death as a murderer only on the testimony of witnesses, but only one witness is not sufficient to put a person to death.

31 You must take no ransom for the life of a murderer sentenced to death. He must surely be put to death.

32 You must not accept a ransom for anyone who has fled to his city of refuge, in order that he may return and live in his own land before the death of the priest.

33 You must not pollute the land where you are going. Blood defiles the land, and atonement cannot be made for the land on which blood has been shed, except by the blood of the one who shed it.

34 Therefore, do not defile and pollute the land you live on and where I dwell within your midst, for I, Yahweh, live among the children of Israyl.

CHAP. 36

The family heads of the clan of Gilean ben Makir, the son of Menasheh ben Yahseph, approached and spoke in front of Mosheh, and in front of the heads of the children of Israyl, saying

2 When Yahweh commanded you to give the land as an inheritance to the children of Israyl, according to lot, He instructed you to give the inheritance of our brother Zelophehad to his daughters.

3 Now, if they become married to any of the sons of the other tribes of the children of Israyl, then their inheritance will be taken from the inheritance of our fathers, and it will be added to the inheritance of the tribe they marry into.

And so part of the inheritance allotted to us will be taken away.

4 Then when the Jubilee of the children of Israyl comes, their inheritance will be added to the inheritance of the tribe into which they marry, and their property will be taken from the tribal inheritance of our forefathers.

5 Then Mosheh commanded the children of Israyl, according to the word of Yahweh, saying: The tribe of the sons of Yahseph speaks the truth.

6 This is what Yahweh commands for the daughters of Zelophehad: Let them marry whom they please as long as they marry within the tribal clan of their father.

7 No inheritance in Israyl is to pass from tribe to tribe, for every one of the children of Israyl shall keep the tribal land inheritance of their father's tribe.

8 And every daughter who possesses an inheritance in any tribe of the children of Israyl shall be the wife of one who belongs to her father's tribal clan. In this way, the children of Israyl each may possess the inheritance of his fathers.

9 And no inheritance shall change hands from one tribe to another. Every tribe shall then keep its own inheritance.

10 Just as Yahweh commanded Mosheh, so the daughters of Zelophehad did:

11 Mahlah, Tirzah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Noah married their cousins on their father's side.

12 They married within the clans of the descendants of Menasheh ben Yahseph, and their inheritance remained in their father's clan and tribe.

13 These are the commandments and the judgments Yahweh commanded the children of Israyl through Mosheh in the plains of Moab, by the Yordan across from Yericho.

DEUTERONOMY

ALAH-HaDEBARIM And These Are The Words

And these are the words Mosheh spoke to all Israyl in the wilderness east of the Yordan, that is, in the Arabah, opposite Suph, between Paran and Tophel, Laban Hazeroth, and Dizahab.

2 (It is eleven days' journey from Horeb by way of Mount Seir to Kadesh Barnea.

3 In the fortieth year after leaving Egypt, in the Eleventh Moon, on the First Day of the moon, Mosheh proclaimed to the children of Israyl all that Yahweh had commanded him concerning them.

4 This was after he had defeated Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, and at Edrei after defeating Og king of Bashan, who reigned in Ashtaroth.

5 On this side of the Yordan, on the east in the territory of Moab, Mosheh began to explain this law, saying:

6 Yahweh our Father spoke to us in Horeb, saying: You have stayed here long enough at this mountain.

7 Turn and set out into the hill country of the Amorites. Go to all the neighboring peoples in the Arabah, in the mountains, in the western foothills, in the Negev, and along the seacoast, to the land of the Canaanites, and to Lebanon, as far as the great River Euphrates.

8 See, I have set the land in front of you. Now go in and take possession of the land Yahweh promised to your fathers—to Abraham, Isaac, and Yaaqob—to give them and their descendants after them.

9 I spoke to you at that time, saying: I am not able to bear the burden of you by myself.

10 Yahweh your Father has multiplied you, and here you are today, like the stars in heaven for number.

11 May Yahweh the Mighty Heavenly Father of your fathers make you a thousand times more numerous than you are, and bless you as He has promised you!

12 But how can I bear your problems, and your burdens, and your complaints all by myself?

13 Choose wise, understanding, and knowledgeable men from among your tribes, and I will set them over you.

14 And you answered me and said: The thing you have told us to do is the thing that should be done.

15 So I took the leading men of your tribes, wise and knowledgeable men, and made them heads over you—captains of thousands, captains of hundreds, captains of fifties, captains of tens, and as tribal officials.

16 And I charged and commanded your judges at that time, saying: Hear the disputes between your brothers, and judge righteously and fairly between a man and his brother, or a man and the stranger who is with him.

17 You must not show partiality in judgment. You shall listen to the small man as well as to the mighty man, and you must not be afraid in any man's presence; for the judgment you render is the judgment of Yahweh. Bring to me any case too hard for you, and I will hear it.

18 And I told you at that time all the things you were to do.

19 So we set out from Horeb as Yahweh had commanded us, and went through all that great and terrible wilderness you saw on the way to the mountains of the Amorites. Then we came to Kadesh Barnea.

20 Then I said to you: You have come to the mountains of the Amorites, which Yahweh our Father is giving us;

21 Now look, Yahweh your Father has set the land in front of you. Go in and take possession of it, just as Yahweh the Mighty Father of your fathers has instructed you. Do not fear or be discouraged.

22 Then everyone of you approached me and said: Let us send men before us, and let them spy out the land for us, and bring back a report about the way we should go in and the cities we shall come to.

23 And the plan was well-pleasing to me, so I selected twelve of your men, one man from each tribe.

24 And they set out and went up into the mountains, and came to the Valley of Eshcol, Valley of the Cluster, and spied it out.

25 They also took some of the fruit of that land and brought it back to us, along with this report: It is a rich land Yahweh our Father is giving us.

26 Nonetheless, you would not go up. You rebelled against the command of Yahweh your Father;

27 And you murmured in your tents, and said: It is because Yahweh hates us that He has brought us out of the land of Egypt to deliver us into the hands of the Amorites to destroy us.

28 Where can we go? Our brothers have completely discouraged us, saying: The people are bigger and taller than we are. The cities are huge and fortified to the sky. We have also seen the sons of the Anakim there.

29 Then I said to you: Do not be terrified. Do not even be afraid of them.

30 Yahweh your Father goes in front of you. It will be He Who fights for you, just as He did for you in Egypt right in front of your eyes.

31 In the wilderness you saw how Yahweh your Father carried you all the way you went until you came to this place, just as a man carries his son.

32 Yet, for all that, you did not believe Yahweh your Father.

33 Who went in the way in front of you to search out a place for you to pitch your tents, to show you the way in which you should go: in the fire by night and in the cloud by day.

34 When Yahweh heard what you said, He was angry, and vowed an oath saying:

35 Surely not one of these men of this evil generation shall see that rich land I promised to give to your fathers.

36 Except Caleb ben Yephunneh: he shall see it, and to him and his children I will give the land he has walked upon, because he wholeheartedly followed Yahweh.

37 Yahweh was also angry with me because of you, saying: Even you shall not enter it either.

38 But Yahshua ben Nun, who stands beside you to assist you, he shall enter into it. Encourage him, for he shall cause Israyl to inherit it.

39 And the little ones that you said would be taken captives, your children who do not yet know right from evil: they will enter the land. I will give it to them and they will take possession of it.

40 But as for you, turn around and set out into the wilderness along the route to the Red Sea.

41 Then you answered and said to me, We have sinned against Yahweh! We will go up and fight, just as Yahweh has commanded! So every one of you put on his weapons, and thought it would be easy to go up into the hill country.

42 But Yahweh said to me: Tell them: Do not go up or fight, for I am not with you, and you will be defeated in front of your enemies.

43 So, I warned you, but you would not listen and rebelled against the command of Yahweh, and presumptuously and arrogantly went up into the hill country.

44 The Amorites who lived in the hill country came out against you and chased you like a swarm of bees, driving you back from Seir to Hormah.

45 You came back and wept in front of Yahweh, but Yahweh would not listen to you, and turned a deaf ear to your weeping.

46 So you remained in Kadesh many days: all the time you spent there.

CHAP. 2

Then we turned back and set out into the wilderness along the route to the Red Sea, just as Yahweh instructed me, and we made our way around Mount Seir many days.

2 Yahweh spoke to me, saying:

3 You have made your way around this hill country long enough; now turn northward.

4 Also command the people, saying: You are about to pass through the territory of your brothers, the descendants of Esau, who live in Seir. They will be afraid of you, so watch yourselves carefully.

5 Do not provoke them to war, for I will not give you any of their land, not so much as even one foot, because I have given Mount Seir to Esau as a possession.

6 You shall pay them money for the food you eat, and you shall pay them money for the water you drink.

7 Yahweh your Father has blessed you in all the work of your hands. He has watched over your travels through this great wilderness. These forty years Yahweh your Father has been with you, and you have lacked nothing.

8 So we went on past our brothers, the descendants of Esau, who live in Seir. We turned from the Arabah road, which comes up from Elath and Ezion Geber, and set out along the wilderness road of Moab.

9 Then Yahweh said to me: Do not harass Moab, nor provoke them to battle, for I will not give you any of their land as a possession, because I have given Ar to the descendants of Lot as a possession.

10 (The Emim had lived there in times past. They were a people as strong, numerous, and tall as the Anakim.)

11 They were also regarded as Rephaites, like the Anakim, but the Moabites call them Emim.

12 All of these formerly lived in Seir, but the descendants of Esau drove them out, and destroyed them from in front of them, and settled in their place, just as Israyl did to the land of their possession which Yahweh gave them.)

13 Now get up and cross over the Valley of Zered, so we crossed over the Valley of Zered.

14 And the time-span it took us to come from Kadesh Barnea until we crossed over the Valley of Zered was thirty-eight years, until all the generation of fighting men had perished from the camp, just as Yahweh had vowed to them.

15 For truly, Yahweh's hand was against them until He had completely destroyed them from the camp.

16 Now when the last of these fighting men had finally perished from among the people.

17 Yahweh spoke to me, saying:

18 Today you are to pass by the region of Moab at Ar.

19 When you come close to the people of Ammon, do not harass them or provoke them to battle, for I will not give you any of the land of the people of Ammon as a possession, for I have given it to the descendants of Lot as a possession.

20 (That also was considered a land of the Rephaites, who used to live there; but the Ammonites called them Zamzummites.

21 They were a people as strong, numerous, and tall as the Anakites. Yahweh destroyed them from in front of the Ammonites, who drove them out and settled in their place.

22 Yahweh had done the same for the descendants of Esau, who lived in Seir, when he destroyed all those from in front of them. They drove them out and have lived in their place to this day.

23 And as for the Avvites who lived in towns as far as Gaza, the Caphtorites coming out from Caphtor; Crete, destroyed them and settled in their place.)

24 Rise up, set out on your journey, and cross over the Arnon River. See! I have given into your hand Sihon the Amorite, king of Heshbon, and his land. Begin to take possession of it, and engage him in battle.

25 This day I will begin to put the dread and fear of you on all the nations under the whole heaven. They shall hear the report of you, and they shall tremble and be in anguish because of you.

26 And I sent messengers from the Wilderness of Kedemoth, to Sihon king of Heshbon, with words of peace, saying:

27 Let us pass through your land. We will keep strictly on the main road, and we will not turn aside either to the right hand nor to the left.

28 You shall sell us food to eat and water to drink, for its price in silver. Only let us pass through on foot.

29 Just as the descendants of Esau, who live in Seir, and the Moabites, who live in Ar, allowed us to pass on through, until we crossed the Yordan, entering the land Yahweh our Father is giving us.

30 But Sihon king of Heshbon would not let us pass through, for Yahweh your Father hardened his spirit and made his heart stubborn, in order that He might give him into your hands, as it is this day.

31 And Yahweh said to me; Behold, I have begun to give Sihon and his land over to you. Begin to conquer and possess it, so you may inherit his land.

32 Then Sihon and all his people came out against us to fight at Yatzah.

33 And Yahweh our Father delivered him over to us and we defeated him, his sons, and all his people.

34 We took all his cities at that time, and we utterly and completely destroyed; cherem, the men, women, and children of every city. We left no person alive.

35 But the livestock and the plunder from the cities we had captured, we carried off for ourselves.

36 From Aroer, which is on the bank of the Arnon River, and from the city in the ravine as far as Gilead, not one city was too strong for us. Yahweh our Father gave them all to us.

37 But you did not go near the land of the people of Ammon, or anywhere along the River Yabbok, or to the cities in the hills, or wherever Yahweh our Father had forbidden us.

CHAP. 3

Then we turned and went up along the road to Bashan; and Og king of Bashan, along with all his army, came out against us to battle at Edrei.

2 And Yahweh said to me; Do not fear him, for I have delivered him and all his people into your hand. You shall do to him as you did to Sihon king of the Amorites, who lived at Heshbon.

3 So Yahweh our Father also delivered into our hands Og king of Bashan, along with all his army. We attacked him until he had no survivors remaining.

4 We took all his cities at that time. There was not one of the sixty cities that we did not take from them; the whole region of Argob, Og's kingdom in Bashan.

5 All these cities were fortified with high walls, gates, and bars, and there were also a great many unwallled villages.

6 We utterly and completely destroyed them; cherem, as we did to Sihon king of Heshbon, killing every man, woman, and child from every city.

7 But all the livestock and the plunder from their cities we carried off for ourselves.

8 At that time we took the land on this side of the Yordan from these two kings of the Amorites; from the River Arnon to Mount Hermon.

9 (The Sidonians call Hermon Sirion, and the Amorites call it Senir).

10 We took all the cities on the plain, and all Gilead, and all Bashan as far as Salecah and Edrei, cities of Og's kingdom in Bashan.

11 (Only Og king of Bashan had remained of the remnant of the Rephaites. His bed was made of iron and was nine cubits long, and four cubits wide, according to the standard cubit, that is, probably more than 13 feet long and six feet wide. It is still in Rabbah of the Ammonites.)

12 And the land we took possession of at that time—from the territory north of Aroer by the Arnon River, including half the hill country of Gilead, together with its cities—I gave to the Reubenites and the Gadites.

13 The rest of Gilead, together with its cities, and all of Bashan, the kingdom of Og, I gave to the half-tribe of Menasheh. (The whole region of Argob in Bashan used to be known as a land of the Rephaites.)

14 Yair, a descendant of Menasheh, took the whole region of Argob as far as the border of the Geshurites and the Maacathites. It was named after him, so that to this day Bashan is called Havvoth Yair: The Settlements of Yair.

15 And I gave Gilead to Machir.

16 But to the Reubenites and the Gaddites I gave the territory extending from Gilead down to the Arnon River (the middle of the river being the border) and out to the Yabbok River, which is the border of the Ammonites.

17 Its western border was the Yordan in the Arabah, from Kinnereth (Galilee) to the Sea of the Arabah (the Dead Sea), below the slopes of Pisgah.

18 I commanded you at that time, saying: Yahweh your Father has given this land to you as your possession. All your fighting men shall cross over armed for battle in front of your brothers, the children of Israyl.

19 But your wives, your children, and your livestock (I know you have much livestock) shall stay in your cities which I have given you.

20 Until Yahweh has given rest to your brothers, as He has to you, and they also possess the land Yahweh your Father is giving them on the other side of the Yordan. After that, each of you may return to his possession I have given you.

21 And I commanded Yahshua ben Nun at that time, saying: Your eyes have seen all that Yahweh your Father has done to these two kings. Yahweh will do the same to all the kingdoms you pass through.

22 You must not fear them, for Yahweh your Father Himself fights for you.

23 Then I pleaded with Yahweh at that time, saying:

24 O Yahweh my Father, You have begun to show to Your servant Your greatness and Your mighty hand, for what god is there in heaven or on earth who can do the works that You do, and the mighty deeds You perform?

25 I pray, let me go over and see the rich land on the other side of the Yordan: that fine hill country and Lebanon.

26 But Yahweh was angry with me because of you, and would not listen to me. So Yahweh said to me: That is enough! Do not speak to Me anymore of this matter!

27 Go up to the top of Pisgah, and look toward the west, the north, the south, and the east. Look at it with your eyes, but you shall not cross over the Yordan.

28 But commission Yahshua ben Nun, and encourage and strengthen him, for he will go in front of this people, and he will cause them to inherit the land you will have seen.

29 So we stayed in the valley opposite Beth Peor.

CHAP. 4

Hear now, O Israyl, the statutes and the judgments which I teach you to observe and do, that you may live, and go in and possess the land which Yahweh, the Heavenly Father of your fathers, is giving you.

2 You shall not add to the word which I command you, nor shall you take anything from it, so that you may keep the commandments of Yahweh your Father which I command you.

3 Your eyes have seen what Yahweh did to Baal Peor; The Lord of Peor. For all the men who followed Baal Peor; The Lord of Peor, Yahweh your Father has destroyed them from among you.

4 But you who held fast to Yahweh your Father are alive, everyone of you this day.

5 See, I have taught you statutes and judgments, just as Yahweh my Father commanded me, so that you may follow them in the land you are entering to take possession of.

6 Therefore, be careful to observe and do them; for this is your wisdom and your understanding in the sight of the nations who will hear of all these statutes, and say: Surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people.

7 What other nation is so great as to have their gods with them, the way Yahweh our Father is near us whenever we pray to Him?

8 And what other nation is so great as to have such righteous statutes and judgments as are in all this body of law which I set in front of you this day?

9 Only take heed to yourself, and diligently keep yourself from forgetting the things your eyes have seen, nor let them depart from your heart all the days of your life. And teach them to your children and to your children's children.

10 Remember the day you stood in front of Yahweh your Father at Horeb, when Yahweh said to me; Gather the people to Me, and I will let them hear My words, so they may learn to revere Me all the days they live on the earth, and so they may teach their children.

11 You came near and stood at the foot of the mountain, and the mountain blazed with fire to the very heavens, with black clouds and thick darkness.

12 Then Yahweh spoke to you out of the midst of the fire. You heard the sound of the words, but you saw no form; there was only a voice.

13 He declared to you His covenant which He commanded you to follow, and Ten Commandments He wrote on two tablets of stone,

14 And Yahweh commanded me at that time to teach you statutes and judgments you are to follow in the land that you are crossing the Yordan to possess.

15 Take careful heed to yourselves, for you saw no form when Yahweh spoke to you at Horeb from the midst of the fire;

16 Watch that you do not become corrupt and make for yourselves a god, an image of any shape, whether formed like a man or a woman,

17 Or like any animal on earth or any bird that flies in the air,

18 Or like any creature that moves along the ground, or any fish in the water below.

19 And when you look up to the sky and you see the sun, the moon, and all the stars—all that which is arrayed in the heavens—do not be enticed into bowing down to them and worshipping things Yahweh has allotted to all the nations under heaven.

20 But as for you, Yahweh has taken you and brought you out of the iron melting-pot, out of Egypt, to be His people, His inheritance, as you now are this day.

21 Yahweh was angry with me because of you, and He vowed that I would not cross over the Yordan, and that I would not enter the rich land Yahweh your Father is giving you as an inheritance.

22 So I must die in this land, and I must not cross over the Yordan; but you shall cross over and possess that rich land.

23 Be careful not to forget the covenant of Yahweh your Father that He made with you; do not make for yourselves a god, the likeness of anything which Yahweh your Father has forbidden.

24 For Yahweh your Father is a consuming fire, a jealous Heavenly Father, and is provoked by any god.

25 When you beget children and grandchildren, and have grown old in the land and if you then become corrupt and make any kind of god, doing evil in the sight of Yahweh your Father, and provoking Him to anger, 26 Then I call heaven and earth to witness against you this day, that you will soon utterly perish from the land which you are crossing the Yordan to possess. You will not prolong your days in it, but you will be utterly destroyed.

27 And Yahweh will scatter you among the nations and people, and you will be left few in number among the heathen where Yahweh will drive you.

28 And there you will serve gods, the work of men's hands, made of wood and stone, which neither see, nor hear, nor eat, nor smell.

29 But if from there you seek Yahweh your Father you will find Him, if you seek for Him with all your heart and with all your soul.

30 When you are in distress, and all these things come upon you in the latter days, when you turn to Yahweh your Father and obey His voice, 31 For Yahweh your Father is a merciful Father; He will not forsake you, nor destroy you, nor forget the covenant with your forefathers, which He confirmed to them by an oath.

32 Ask now about the former days, long before your time, from the day Yahweh created man on the earth; ask from one end of the heavens to the other. Has anything so great as this ever come to pass, or has anything like it ever been heard of?

33 Has any other people heard the voice of their god, as you have heard the voice of Yahweh speaking out of fire, and lived?

34 Has any god ever tried to take for himself one nation out of another nation, by testings, by signs, by wonders, by war, by a mighty hand, by an outstretched arm, and by great deeds; like all the things Yahweh your Father did for you in Egypt, right in front of your eyes?

35 You were shown these things so that you might know that Yahweh is the Mighty Heavenly Father, and beside Him there is no other.

36 From heaven He made you hear His voice, to discipline and instruct you. On earth He showed you His great fire, and you heard His words out of the midst of the fire.

37 And because He loved your forefathers, therefore, He chose their descendants after them; and He brought you out of Egypt by His Presence and with His mighty power, 38 To drive out from in front of you nations greater and mightier than you, to bring you in to their land to give it to you for your inheritance, as it is this day.

39 Therefore, know this day, and acknowledge it in your heart, that Yahweh Himself is the Father in heaven above and on the earth beneath. There is no other.

40 You shall therefore keep His statutes and

His commandments which I command you this day, that it may go well with you and with your children after you, and that you may prolong your days in the land which Yahweh your Father is giving to you for all time.

41 Then Mosheh set apart three cities on this side of the Yordan, toward the rising of the sun.

42 Where anyone who had killed a person could flee if he had unintentionally killed his brother without premeditated malice, and that by fleeing to one of these cities, he might save his life:

43 These were the cities: Bezer, in the wilderness on the plateau, for the Reubenites; Ramoth, in Gilead, for the Gadites, and Golan, in Bashan, for the Menashites.

44 And this is the Law Mosheh set before the children of Israyl:

45 These are the testimonies, and the statutes, and the judgments Mosheh spoke to the children of Israyl, after they came out of Egypt.

46 And when they were in the valley near Beth Peor, east of the Yordan in the land of Sihon king of the Amorites who reigned in Heshbon, whom Mosheh and the children of Israyl defeated as they came out of Egypt.

47 And they took possession of his land, and the land of Og king of Bashan; two kings of the Amorites on this side of the Yordan, toward the rising of the sun.

48 This land extended from Aroer on the rim of the Arnon River to Mount Sirion, (that is, Hermon).

49 And included all the Arabah east of the Yordan, as far as the Sea of the Arabah, The Dead Sea, below the slopes of Pisgah.

CHAP. 5

Mosheh summoned all Israyl, and said to them: Hear, O Israyl, the statutes and judgments I speak in your hearing today, that you may learn them and be careful to observe and do them.

2 Yahweh our Father made a covenant with us in Horeb;

3 Yahweh did not make this covenant with our fathers, but with those of us who are here today, those of us who are alive.

4 Yahweh spoke to you face to face out of the midst of the fire on the mountain.

5 I stood between Yahweh and you at that time, to declare to you the word of Yahweh, because you were afraid of the fire, and did not go up the mountain, and He said:

6 I am Yahweh your Father, Who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

7 You shall have no hinder gods at all in front of Me.

8 You shall not make for yourself any carved image, or any likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the waters below;

9 You shall not bow down to them nor serve them, for I, Yahweh your Father, am a jealous Heavenly Father, punishing the children for the sins of their fathers to the third and fourth generations of those who hate Me;

10 But showing mercy to thousands of those who love Me, and keep My commandments.

11 You shall not take the Name of Yahweh your Father to bring it to nothing, for Yahweh will not hold him guiltless who brings dishonor upon, or profanes, His Name.

12 Observe the Sabbath Day, to keep it holy, as Yahweh your Father commanded you;

13 Six days you shall labor and do all your work,

14 But the Seventh Day is the Sabbath of Yahweh your Father. In it you shall not do any work: you, nor your son, nor your daughter, nor your manservant, nor your maidservant, nor your ox, nor your donkey, nor any of your cattle, nor the stranger living within your gates, so your manservant and your maidservant may rest, as well as you.

15 Remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt, and that Yahweh your Father brought you out from there by a mighty hand and by an outstretched arm. Therefore, Yahweh your Father commanded you to keep the Sabbath Day.

16 Honor your father and your mother, as Yahweh your Father has commanded you, so your days may be long, and that it may be well with you in the land Yahweh your Father is giving you.

17 You shall not murder.

18 You shall not commit adultery.

19 You shall not steal.

20 You shall not bear false witness, bringing false testimony, against your brother.

21 You shall not covet; lust after, your neighbor's wife; and you shall not covet your brother's house, his field, his manservant, his maidservant, his ox, his donkey, or anything that belongs to your brother.

22 These are the words Yahweh proclaimed in a loud voice to your whole congregation there on the mountain, from the midst of the fire, the cloud, and the thick darkness; and He added nothing more. Then He wrote them on two stone tablets, and gave them to me.

23 When you heard the voice from the midst of the darkness, while the mountain was ablaze with fire, all the heads of your tribes and your elders came to me.

24 And you said: Surely Yahweh our Father has shown us His glory and His greatness, and we have heard His voice from the midst of the fire, and today we have seen that a man can live, even if Yahweh speaks with him.

• Leviticus 19:12, Leviticus 20:2-3, Leviticus 22:31-32, Nehemiah 13:15-17, Hebrews 6:4-6.

25 But now, why should we die? This great fire will consume us. If we hear the voice of Yahweh our Father any more, we will die;

26 For who is there of all mere men, who have heard the voice of the Living Mighty One speaking from the midst of the fire, as we have, and continued to live?

27 You go near, and you listen to all Yahweh our Father may say, then tell us all that Yahweh our Father says to you. Then we will listen to you, and obey what He says.

28 Then Yahweh listened to your words when you spoke to me, and He said to me: I have heard the words of this people, which they have spoken to you. Everything they said was the truth.

29 Oh, that their hearts and minds would be inclined to reverence Me, and always keep My commandments! Then it would be well with them and with their children, forever!

30 Go, tell them to return to their tents;

31 But as for you, stay here with Me, so that I may give you all the commandments, the statutes, and the judgments you are to teach them, so they may observe and do them in the land I am giving them to possess.

32 So be careful to do as Yahweh your Father has commanded you; you must not turn aside to the right hand, nor to the left.

33 You must walk in all the ways Yahweh your Father has commanded you, so that you may live, so that it may be well with you in the land, and so you may prolong your days in the land you shall possess.

CHAP. 6

Now these are the commandments, the statutes, and the judgments which Yahweh your Father has commanded me to teach you: so that you may observe them in the land you are crossing over to possess;

2 So that you may revere Yahweh your Father by keeping all His statutes and His commandments, which I command you, your son, and your son's son all the days of your life; and so that your days may be prolonged.

3 Hear therefore, O Israyl, and be careful to obey; so it may be well with you, and so that you may greatly multiply, as Yahweh, the Mighty Father of your fathers, has promised you, in the land that flows with milk and honey,

4 Hear, O Israyl, Yahweh is our Father. Yahweh is One.

5 And you must love Yahweh your Father with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your might.

6 And these words which I command you this day must be in your heart;

7 And you must teach them diligently to your children, and talk about them when you sit in your house, and when you walk on the road, and when you lie down, and when you rise up.

8 You shall bind them as a sign upon your hand, and they shall be as frontlets between your eyes.

9 And you shall write them on the door-frames of your houses, and on your gates.

10 When Yahweh your Father brings you into the land He vowed with an uplifted hand to give to your fathers: to Abraham, Isaac, and Yaaqob, to give you large and flourishing cities, which you did not build;

11 Houses filled with all kinds of wonderful things, which you did not provide; dug out wells, which you did not dig out; vineyards and olive trees, which you did not plant—when you eat and are full,

12 Beware that you do not forget Yahweh Who brought you out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage.

13 Yahweh your Father you must reverence, and Him you must serve, and by His Name you must take your oaths.

14 Do not follow after hinder gods: the gods of the people all around you;

15 For Yahweh your Father, Who is among you, is jealous, and His anger will burn against you, and He will destroy you from the face of the earth.

16 You must not tempt (test) Yahweh your Father, as you tested Him in Massah.

17 You must diligently keep the commandments of Yahweh your Father, with His testimonies and His statutes, which He has given you.

18 You must do what is right and lawful in the sight of Yahweh, so it may be well with you, so that you may go in and possess the rich land which Yahweh promised on oath to give to your fathers, 19 Thrusting out all your enemies from in front of you, as Yahweh has spoken.

20 When your children ask you in time to come: What is the meaning of these testimonies, statutes, and judgments Yahweh our Father has commanded?

21 Then you shall tell your children: We were slaves of Pharaoh in Egypt, and Yahweh brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand.

22 Yahweh showed signs and wonders in front of our eyes, great and terrible, upon Egypt, on Pharaoh, and on all his household.

23 Then He brought us out from there, so that He might bring us in, and give us the land that He promised by an oath to our fathers.

24 And Yahweh commanded us to observe and do all these statutes, to reverence Yahweh our Father, for our well-being, that He might preserve us alive, as it is this day.

25 And it will be OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS, if we observe to do all these commandments; His Law, before Yahweh our Father, as He has commanded us.

CHAP. 7

When Yahweh your Father brings you into the land you go to possess, and has thrust out many nations from in front of you—the Hittites, Gergashites, Amorites, Canaanites, Perizzites, Hivites, and the Yebusites—seven nations larger and stronger than you.

2 And when Yahweh your Father has delivered them over to you, and you have defeated them, then you must utterly destroy them; cherem. You must make no treaty with them, nor show mercy to them.

3 You must not make marriages with them. You must not give your daughter to their son, nor take their daughter for your son.

4 For they will turn your sons away from following Me, to serve hinder gods; then Yahweh's anger will burn against you, and you will suddenly be destroyed.

5 This is how you shall deal with them: you must destroy their altars, break down their sacred pillars; symbols of the sun-god, Baal, cut down their ● sacred poles; Asherah poles, and burn their gods in the fire.

6 For you are a people holy to Yahweh your Father. Yahweh your Father has chosen you to be a people for Himself, a special treasure above all other peoples on the face of the earth.

7 Yahweh did not set His love upon you, nor choose you, because you were more numerous than any other people, for you are the fewest of all peoples;

8 But because Yahweh loves you, and because He would keep the oath He vowed with uplifted hand to your fathers; to bring you out with a mighty hand, and to redeem you from the house of bondage, from the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt.

9 Know, therefore, that Yahweh is your Father. He is Mighty. He is the Faithful Father Who keeps His covenant and mercy for a thousand generations of those who love Him and keep His commandments;

10 But repays those who hate Him to their face—by destroying them! He will not be slack to him who hates Him; He will repay him to his face.

11 Therefore, you must keep the commandments, the statutes, and the judgments which I command you this day, to observe and do them.

12 Then, because you listened to these laws, and were careful to keep and do them—Yahweh your Father will keep His covenant and mercy with you, which He vowed by oath to your fathers.

13 He will love you, and bless you, and multiply you. He will also bless the fruit of your womb, and the fruit of your land, your grain, your new wine, your oil, the increase of your cattle, and the offspring of your flocks, in the land He vowed on oath to your fathers to give you.

14 You shall be blessed above all peoples. There shall not be a male or female barren among you, nor among your livestock.

15 Yahweh will take away from you all sickness. He will not afflict you with any of the diseases you knew in Egypt, but will lay them on all those who hate you.

16 You must destroy all the peoples; cherem, whom Yahweh your Father delivers over to you. You shall not look upon them with pity, nor shall you serve their gods, for these things would be a trap for you.

17 If you should ever start thinking to yourselves: These nations are stronger than we are, how can we drive them out?

18 But you must then remember what Yahweh your Father did to Pharaoh and to all Egypt; then you will not be afraid of them.

19 You saw with your own eyes the great trials, the signs, the wonders, the mighty hand and the outstretched arm with which Yahweh your Father brought you out. Yahweh your Father will also do all these things to the people you may have fear of.

20 Moreover, Yahweh your Father will send the hornet among the survivors who may hide from you, so even they will be destroyed.

21 You must have no fear of them, for Yahweh your Father, Who is among you, is a great and awesome Power.

22 Yahweh your Father will drive out those nations from in front of you little by little. You will not destroy them all at once, or the beasts of the field would become too numerous for you;

23 But Yahweh your Father will hand them over to you, inflicting defeat upon them, until they are destroyed.

24 He will deliver their kings into your hand, and you will blot out their names from the earth. No one will be able to withstand you, and you will destroy them.

25 You must burn the images of their gods in the fire. You must not covet, lust after, the silver or gold that covers them, nor take it for yourselves, or you will be ensnared and entrapped by it, for it is an abomination to Yahweh your Father.

26 You must not bring an abomination into your house, or you will be doomed to destruction; cherem, just like it. You must utterly detest and abhor it, for it is an accursed thing set apart for cherem.

CHEREM: The Hebrew term refers to the irrevocable giving over of things or persons to Yahweh, often by completely destroying them.

CHAP. 8

You must be careful to observe and do every commandment which I give you today, so that you may live, and multiply, and go in and possess the land Yahweh vowed on oath to your fathers.

2 You must remember that Yahweh your Father led you all the way these forty years in the wilderness, in order to humble you, test you, and know what was in your heart; the seat of your intelligence, to see whether you would keep His commandments, or whether you would not.

3 So He humbled you, and allowed you to hunger, and fed you with manna, which you did not know of nor did your fathers know of it; so He might make you to know that man does not live by bread only, but by every word that proceeds out of the mouth of Yahweh, does man live.

4 Your garments did not grow old upon you, nor did your feet swell these forty years.

5 Know then in your heart; the seat of your intelligence, that as a man disciplines his son, in the same way Yahweh your Father disciplines you.

6 Therefore you shall keep the commandments of Yahweh your Father, to walk in His ways, and to reverence Him.

7 For Yahweh your Father is bringing you into a rich land, a land of brooks, fountains, and springs of flowing water in the valleys and hills;

8 A land of wheat and barley, vines, fig trees, and pomegranates, a land of olive oil and honey;

9 A land where you will eat bread to the full, and where you will lack nothing; a land where stones are made of iron, and its hills are mined for copper.

10 When you have eaten and are satisfied, then you must bless Yahweh your Father for the rich land He has given you.

11 Beware that you do not forget Yahweh your Father, by not keeping His commandments, His judgments, and His statutes which I am giving you this day;

12 Or when you have eaten and are satisfied, and have built beautiful houses and live in them;

13 And when your herds and your flocks grow large, and your silver and gold increases, and all you have is multiplied,

14 Then you will become proud, and you will forget Yahweh your Father Who brought you out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage;

15 Who led you through that great and terrible wilderness of fiery serpents and scorpions, through that thirsty land where there was no water; Who brought forth water for you out of the rock of flint;

16 Who fed you in the wilderness with manna, which your fathers did not know of, that He might humble you, and test you, so that in your latter end it might go well with you.

17 Then you might say in your heart; the seat of your intelligence: It was my own power and the strength of my own hand that gained me all this wealth.

18 But then you must remember that it is Yahweh your Heavenly Father Who gives you the power to acquire wealth, for in this way He confirms His covenant He vowed on oath to your fathers, as it is this day.

19 If you, by any means, ever forget Yahweh your Father, and follow hinder gods to serve and worship them, I testify and witness against you this day that you will surely perish.

20 You shall perish just like the nations Yahweh is destroying in front of you, because you would not obey the voice of Yahweh your Father.

CHAP. 9

Hear, O Israyl: You are to cross over the Yarden today, and go in to drive out nations larger and stronger than yourself, with great cities fortified to the sky.

2 The people are strong and tall, the descendants of the Anakim, whom you have known of and heard said of; Who can stand against a descendant of Anak?

3 But understand today that Yahweh your Father is He Who goes over in front of you as a consuming fire. He will destroy them and subdue them in front of you, so you shall drive them out and quickly destroy them, just as Yahweh has promised you.

4 But do not even think in your heart, after Yahweh your Father has thrust them out from in front of you, and say to yourself: Because of my own righteousness Yahweh has brought me in to possess this land. No! It was because of the wickedness of these same nations that Yahweh is driving them out from in front of you.

5 It is not because of your righteousness, or the uprightness and integrity of your heart that you are going in to take possession of their land; but because of the wickedness of these nations Yahweh your Father will drive them out from in front of you, and so He may perform the word which Yahweh vowed on oath to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Yaaqob.

6 Understand therefore, that Yahweh your Father is not giving you this rich land to possess because of your righteousness, for you are a stiff-necked people!

7 Remember, and never forget, how you provoked Yahweh your Father to wrath in the wilderness. From the day you set out from the land of Egypt until you have come to this place, you have been rebellious against Yahweh!

8 At Horeb you provoked Yahweh to so much wrath, that Yahweh was angry enough with you to have completely destroyed you!

9 When I went up into the mountain to receive the tablets of stone: the tablets of the covenant Yahweh made with you, I stayed on the mountain forty days and forty nights. I did not eat bread, nor did I drink water.

10 Then Yahweh gave me two tablets of stone, written with the finger of Yahweh. On them were all the words Yahweh had spoken to you on the mountain from out of the midst of the fire, on the day you were gathered together.

11 At the end of forty days and forty nights Yahweh gave me the two tablets of stone; the tablets of the covenant.

12 Then Yahweh said to me; Get down from here at once! Your people whom you brought out of Egypt are acting corruptly. They have quickly turned aside from the way I have commanded them; they have made a god for themselves!

13 Yahweh said to me; I have seen this people, and they truly are a stiff-necked people!

14 Let Me alone so I may destroy them and blot out their names from under heaven; then I will make of you a nation stronger and more numerous than they.

15 So I turned and went down from the mountain while it was ablaze with fire, with the two tablets of the covenant in my two hands.

16 When I looked, I saw that you had sinned against Yahweh your Father, and you had made for yourselves a god cast in the shape of a calf! You had turned quickly from the way Yahweh had commanded you.

17 Then I took the two tablets and threw them out of my hands, and broke them to pieces right in front of your eyes.

18 And like the first time, I fell down in front of Yahweh for forty days and forty nights; I did not eat bread nor drink water, because of all the sins you had committed, doing what was evil in the sight of Yahweh, to provoke Him to anger.

19 I feared the anger and hot displeasure Yahweh held against you, for He was angry enough to destroy you, but Yahweh listened to me that time as well.

20 Yahweh was also very angry with Aaron and would have destroyed him, so I prayed for Aaron at the same time.

21 Then I took that sinful thing, the calf you had made, and burned it with fire, crushed it, ground it until it was fine as dust, and threw the dust into the brook that flowed down the mountain.

22 At Taberah, at Massah, and at Kibroth Hattaavah, you also provoked Yahweh to wrath.

23 Then, when Yahweh commissioned you from Kadesh Barnea saying: Go up and take the land I have given you; you rebelled against the command of Yahweh your Father. You did not believe Him nor obey His voice.

24 You have been rebellious against Yahweh from the day I met you.

25 For this, I cast myself down in front of Yahweh; forty days and forty nights I stayed before Him, because Yahweh had said He would destroy you.

26 I therefore prayed to Yahweh and said: O Yahweh, do not destroy Your people and Your inheritance whom You have redeemed through Your great power, whom You have brought out of Egypt with a mighty hand.

27 Remember Your servants, Abraham, Isaac, and Yaaqob. Do not look on the stubbornness of this people, or on their wickedness, or on their sin,

28 Or the land from which You brought us will say: Because Yahweh was not able to take them into the land He had promised them, and because He hated them, He brought them out to put them to death in the wilderness.

29 Yet they are Your people and Your inheritance, whom You brought out by Your mighty power and by Your outstretched arm.

CHAP. 10

At that time Yahweh said to me; Chisel out two stone tablets like the first ones, and come up to Me on the mountain, also make yourself an ark of wood.

2 And I will write on the tablets the words that were on the first tablets, which you broke. Then you shall put them in the ark.

3 So I made an ark of acacia wood, chiseled out two tablets of stone like the first ones, and went up the mountain with these two tablets in my hand.

4 Yahweh wrote on these tablets what He had written on the first ones; the Ten Commandments He had proclaimed to you on the mountain, out of the midst of the fire in the day you were gathered together. Then Yahweh gave them back to me.

5 And I turned and came down from the mountain, and put the tablets in the ark I had made. And there they are, just as Yahweh commanded me.

6 (Now the children of Israyl set out from the wells of Bene Yaakan to Moserah. There Aaron died and was buried, and Eleazar his son succeeded him as priest.

7 From there they set out to Gudgodah, and from Gudgodah to Yotbathah, a land of rivers of water.

8 At that time Yahweh set apart the tribe of Levi to carry the ark of the covenant of Yahweh.

to stand in front of Yahweh to minister and to pronounce blessings in His Name, as they do to this day.

9 That is why Levi has no portion nor inheritance with his brothers: Yahweh is his inheritance, just as Yahweh your Father promised him.)

10 Just like the first time, I stayed in the mountain forty days and forty nights; Yahweh also heard me at that time, and Yahweh chose not to destroy you.

11 Then Yahweh said to me; Go, lead the people on their way so they may go in and possess the land I vowed on oath to their fathers to give them.

12 And now, O Israyl, what does Yahweh your Father require of you, but to reverence Yahweh your Father, to walk in all His ways, to love Him, to serve Yahweh your Father with all your heart, and with all your soul, 13 To keep the commandments of Yahweh, and His statutes I command you this day for your well being?

14 Heaven, and the highest heavens, and the earth with all that is in it, truly belongs to Yahweh your Father.

15 Yet Yahweh delighted only in your fathers, to love them. He chose their descendants after them: you, above all other peoples, as it is this day.

16 Therefore circumcise the foreskin of your heart, and do not be stiff-necked any longer.

17 For Yahweh your Father is King of kings and Ruler of rulers, the great Power, mighty and terrible, Who shows no partiality to persons, nor takes a bribe.

18 He executes justice for the fatherless and the widow, and loves the stranger, giving him food and clothing.

19 And you are to love the stranger, for you were strangers in the land of Egypt.

20 You shall revere Yahweh your Father and serve Him, hold fast to Him and take your oaths in His Name.

21 He is your Praise. He is your Father Who has done for you these great and awesome things your own eyes have seen.

22 Your forefathers went down into Egypt with seventy persons, and now Yahweh your Father has made you as numerous as the stars in the sky.

CHAP. 11

You shall love Yahweh your Father and keep His charge, His statutes, His judgments, and His commandments always.

2 Remember this day that your children were not the ones who have known and experienced the chastening and discipline of Yahweh your Father, or His greatness, His mighty hand, His outstretched arm,

3 His signs, His acts He performed in the midst of Egypt, to Pharaoh king of Egypt, and to all his land;

4 What He did to the Egyptian army; to their horses and chariots; how He made the waters of the Red Sea flow over them as they were pursuing you, and how Yahweh brought lasting destruction upon them, to this day;

5 What He did for you in the wilderness until you came to this place;

6 And what He did to Dathan and Abiram the sons of Eliab, the son of Reuben: how the earth opened its mouth right in the middle of all Israyl, and swallowed them up along with all their households, their tents and every living thing that belonged to them;

7 But it was your own eyes that saw every one of these great acts Yahweh has done.

8 Therefore, you must keep every commandment I give you today, that you may be strong, and go in and take possession of the land you cross over to possess;

9 And so that you may prolong your days in the land Yahweh vowed on oath to give to your fathers—to them and their descendants—a land flowing with milk and honey.

10 The land you go to possess is not like the land of Egypt you came from, where you planted your seed, and watered it by foot, as you would a vegetable garden,

11 But the land you are crossing the Yordan to take possession of is a land of mountains and valleys that drinks water from the rain of heaven.

12 It is a land Yahweh your Father cares for. The eyes of Yahweh your Father are always upon it, from the ● beginning of the year to the very end of the year.

13 Then it shall be, if you diligently obey My commandments I give you this day, to love Yahweh your Father and serve Him with all your heart and with all your soul,

14 Then I will give the rain for your land in its season; the early rain, in the fall of the year, and the latter rain, in the spring of the year, so you may gather in your grain, your new wine, and your oil.

15 And I will send grass in your fields for your livestock, so you may eat and be filled.

16 Take heed and be very careful, or your heart will be deceived, and you will turn away and serve hinder gods and worship them.

17 And Yahweh's anger will burn against you, and He will shut up the heavens, so there will be no rain, and the land will yield no produce, and you will quickly perish from the rich land Yahweh is giving you.

18 Store up these words of mine in your heart and in your soul, and bind them as a sign upon your hand, that they may be as frontlets between your eyes.

19 You shall teach them to your children, and speak of them when you sit in your house, when you walk in the road, when you lie down, and when you rise up.

20 You shall write them on the doorframes of your houses and on your gates:

21 So your days and the days of your children may be numerous—like the days of the heavens above the earth—in the land which Yahweh vowed on oath to your fathers to give them.

22 If you carefully observe and do all these commandments I am giving you to follow—to love Yahweh your Father, to walk in all His ways, and to hold fast to Him—

23 Then Yahweh will drive out all these nations from in front of you, and you will dispossess nations larger and stronger than you.

24 Every place the sole of your foot treads shall be yours: from the wilderness to Lebanon, and from the River Euphrates to the Western Sea; the Mediterranean.

25 No man will be able to stand against you. Yahweh your Father will put the dread of you and the fear of you upon the whole land, just as He has said.

26 Behold, I am setting in front of you today a blessing and a curse—

27 The blessing if you obey the commandments of Yahweh your Father, which I am giving you this day;

28 Or the curse if you do not obey the commandments of Yahweh your Father, and turn aside from the way I am setting in front of you, to follow after gods you have not known.

29 When Yahweh your Father has brought you into the land you are entering to possess, you shall proclaim these blessings on Mount Gerizim, and these curses on Mount Ebal.

30 These mountains are on the other side of the Yordan, toward the west, in the land of the Canaanites who live in the Arabah in the vicinity of Gilgal, beside the great trees of Moreh.

31 For you will cross over the Yordan, and go in to possess the land Yahweh your Father is giving you, and you will take it and live in it.

32 And you must be careful to observe and do all the statutes and judgments of this Law, which I set in front of you this day.

CHAP. 12

These are the statutes and judgments; The Law, which you must observe to do in the land which Yahweh, the Heavenly Father of your fathers is giving you to possess, all the days that you live upon the earth.

2 You must utterly destroy all the places where the nations you shall drive out have worshiped their gods—on the high mountains, on the hills, and under every spreading tree—

3 You must destroy their altars, break down their sacred pillars; images of the sun-god Baal, and burn their sacred poles; Asherah poles. Cut down the images of their gods, and wipe out their names from those places.

4 You must not worship Yahweh your Father in such ways;

5 But you are to seek the habitation of your Father; The House of Yahweh—the place which Yahweh your Father shall choose out of all your tribes to establish His Name—and there you must go.

6 There you must bring your burnt offerings and sacrifices, your tithes, and special gifts you have vowed to give, your freewill offerings, and the firstborn of your herds and flocks.

7 There, in front of Yahweh your Father, you and your families shall eat, and you shall rejoice in all that you have put your hand to do, because Yahweh your Father has blessed you.

8 You must not at all do as we are doing here this day—every man doing whatever is right in his own eyes—

9 Since you have not yet come to the rest and the inheritance Yahweh your Father is giving you.

10 But when you cross over the Yordan, and live in the land Yahweh your Father is giving you to inherit, and when He gives you rest from all your enemies round about you, and you live in safety.

11 Then there will be a place Yahweh will choose to establish His Name; and there you will bring all that I command you: your burnt offerings and sacrifices, your tithes and special gifts, and all the choice things you have vowed to Yahweh;

12 And you shall rejoice in front of Yahweh, you and your wife, your sons, your daughters, your menservants, your maidservants, and the Levite who lives within your gates, since he has no portion nor inheritance with you.

13 Be careful not to sacrifice your burnt offerings in every place you please;

14 But only in the place Yahweh chooses out of one of your tribes. There you must offer your burnt offerings, and there you must do all that I command you.

15 Nevertheless, you may slaughter your animals in any of your towns, and eat as much of the clean meat as you want, just as if it were gazelle or deer, according to the blessing Yahweh your Father gives you. Both the ceremonially clean and unclean may eat of this.

16 Only you must not eat the blood; you must pour it on the ground like water.

17 You must not eat the tithe of your grain, new wine, and oil, or the firstborn of your herds and flocks, or whatever you have vowed to give, or your freewill offerings or special gifts in your own cities.

18 But you must eat these in front of Yahweh your Father in the place Yahweh your Father chooses: you and your wife, your son and your daughter, your manservant, your maidservant, and the Levite who lives within your gates; and you shall rejoice in front of Yahweh your Father in everything you put your hand to.

19 Be careful that you do not neglect the Levite as long as you live in your land.

20 When Yahweh your Father enlarges your territory, as He has promised you, and you say: I would like some meat to eat, because you want to eat meat, then you may eat as much meat as you desire.

21 If the place where Yahweh your Father chooses • to put His Name is too far from you, then you may slaughter from your herd or from your flock Yahweh has given you, just as I have commanded you, and in your own cities you may eat as much of them as you want.

22 Just as the gazelle and the deer are eaten, so you may eat them; the ceremonially unclean and the ceremonially clean alike may eat them.

23 But be sure that you do not eat the blood, because the blood is the life, and you must not eat the life with the meat.

24 You must not eat the blood. Pour it out on the ground like water.

25 You must not eat it, so it may go well with you and your children after you, when you have done what is right in the sight of Yahweh.

26 Take only the holy things you have, and your vowed offerings, and go to the place Yahweh chooses.

27 There you must offer your burnt offerings; both the meat and the blood, on the altar of Yahweh your Father, and the blood of your sacrifices shall be poured out on the altar of Yahweh your Father, then you shall eat the meat.

28 Observe and obey all these words I command you, so it may go well with you and with your children after you forever, when you do what is lawful and holy in the sight of Yahweh your Father.

29 When Yahweh your Father cuts off the nations from in front of you, and you displace them and live in their land,

30 Be careful not to be ensnared into following them by asking about their gods, saying: How did these nations serve their gods? I also will do the same.

31 You must not worship Yahweh your Father in their way, for every abomination to Yahweh, which He hates, they have done to their gods. They even burn their sons and daughters in the fire as sacrifices to their gods.

32 Whatsoever I command you, be careful to observe and do it; you shall not add to it, nor take away from it.

CHAP. 13

If there arises among you a prophet, or one who foretells by dreams, and he gives you a sign or a wonder,

2 And the sign or the wonder he spoke to you comes to pass, but then he says: Let us follow after gods, (which you have not known) and let us serve them:

3 You must not listen to the words of that prophet or that foreteller of dreams, for Yahweh your Father is testing you to know whether you love Yahweh your Father with all your heart and all your soul, or whether you do not.

4 It is Yahweh your Father you must walk after, and it is Him you must revere. Keep His commandments and obey His voice, then you shall serve Him and hold fast to Him.

5 Then that prophet or that foreteller of dreams must be put to death, because he has spoken rebellion in order to entice you from the way Yahweh your Father commanded you to walk, and to turn you away from Yahweh your Father Who brought you out of the land of Egypt, and redeemed you from the house of bondage. So you must purge the evil from your midst.

6 If your brother, the son of your mother, or your son or daughter, or the wife of your bosom, or your closest friend, secretly entices and tempts you, saying: Let us go and worship gods (gods that neither you nor your fathers have known);

7 Gods of the people around you, whether close to you or far away from you, gods from one end of the earth, to the other end of the earth),

8 Do not yield to them nor even listen to them. Show them no pity. Do not spare them nor conceal them;

9 But you must surely kill them. Your hand shall be first against them to put them to death, then afterward the hand of all the people.

10 You shall stone them with stones until they die, because they sought to entice and tempt you away from Yahweh your Father Who brought you out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage.

11 Then all Israyl will hear of this and be afraid, and no one among you will do such an evil thing again.

12 If you hear it said about one of the cities that Yahweh is giving you to live in—

• In Leviticus 17:2-6 it had been commanded that every animal, even for ordinary consumption, must be slain at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting. This was a temporary precept for the period of the Israylites' sojourn in the wilderness. This precept is now replaced by another in this chapter of Deuteronomy. Israyl was now about to settle in Canaan, and the individual Israylite could not be expected to go to the central sanctuary each time he wanted to slaughter an animal for food.

13 That corrupt men have risen up among you and enticed and led the inhabitants of their own city astray, saying: Let us go and worship gods (which you have not known),

14 Then you must inquire, probe, and investigate it thoroughly. And if it is true and it has been proven that such an abomination was committed among you, 15 You shall surely kill the inhabitants of that city with the edge of the sword, utterly destroying; cherem, all that is in it with its livestock.

16 Gather all the plunder of that city into the middle of the street, and completely burn the city along with the plunder, as a whole burnt offering to Yahweh your Father. It is to remain a ruin forever, never to be rebuilt.

17 None of those condemned, accursed things shall be found in your hands, so Yahweh will turn away from His fierce wrath and show you mercy, and will have compassion on you and multiply you, just as He promised on oath to your fathers, 18 Because you obey Yahweh your Father, and keep all His commandments I command you this day, to do what is right and lawful in the eyes of Yahweh your Father.

CHAP. 14

You are the children of Yahweh your Father. You must not cut yourselves, nor shave the front of your heads for the dead;

2 For you are a holy people to Yahweh your Father. Yahweh has chosen you to be a people for Himself, a special treasure over all the peoples who are on the face of the earth.

3 You must not eat any abominable thing;

4 These are the animals you may eat: the ox, the sheep, the goat,

5 The deer, the gazelle, the roe deer, the wild goat, the mountain goat, the antelope, and the mountain sheep.

6 And you may eat every animal that has a split hoof completely divided, and that also chews the cud.

7 However, of those that chew the cud or of those that have a split hoof completely divided, you may not eat these: the camel, the rabbit, or the coney. Although they chew the cud, they do not have a split hoof; they are unclean for you.

8 And the swine; the pig, is unclean for you; although it has a split hoof, it does not chew the cud. You must not eat their meat, nor touch their carcasses.

9 These you may eat of all that are in the waters: you may eat all that has both fins and scales.

10 Whatever does not have both fins and scales you must not eat it. It is unclean for you.

11 All clean birds you may eat.

12 But these you must not eat: the eagle, the vulture, the black vulture,

13 The red kite, the black kite, and any kind of falcon,

14 Any kind of raven,

15 The horned owl, the screech owl, the gull, any kind of hawk,

16 The little owl, the great owl, the white owl,

17 The desert owl, the osprey, the cormorant,

18 The stork, any kind of heron, the hoopoe, and the bat.

19 All flying insects that swarm are unclean to you; do not eat them.

20 But any winged creature which is clean, you may eat it.

21 Do not eat anything you find already dead. You may give it to a foreigner in any of your towns, and he may eat it, or you may sell it to a stranger. But you are a people holy to Yahweh your Father. You must not boil a young goat in its mother's milk.

22 You must truly tithe all the increase of the grain your field produces year by year.

23 Eat the Second Tithe of your grain, your new wine, your oil, and the firstlings of your herds and of your flocks, in front of Yahweh your Father in the place He chooses to establish His Name, in order that you may learn to revere Yahweh your Father always.

24 But if the way is too long for you, so you are not able to carry it, or if the place Yahweh your Father has chosen to set His Name is too far from you, when Yahweh your Father has blessed you;

25 Then you are to exchange it into money, take the money into your hand, and you shall go to the place Yahweh your Father chooses.

26 Then you shall spend that money for whatever you desire to have: for oxen, or for sheep, or for wine, or for strong drink, or for whatever you desire to have. You shall then eat there in front of Yahweh your Father, and you shall rejoice: you and your household.

27 And do not neglect the Levite who lives within your cities, for he has no part nor inheritance with you.

28 At the end of every third year you shall bring out all of your produce designated that year; the Third Tithe, and store it up within your cities.

29 Then the Levite, who is also allotted the First Tithe, because he has no portion nor inheritance with you, and the stranger and the fatherless and the widow, who are within your cities, may come and eat, and be satisfied, so Yahweh your Father may bless you in all the work of your hands.

CHAP. 15

At the ● end of seven years you shall grant a release.

2 This is the form of the release: Every creditor who has lent to his brother shall cancel the loan he has made. He shall not press his brother for payment for a release has been proclaimed in honor of Yahweh: Yahweh's Release.

3 From a foreigner you may press for payment, but you shall release what is owed from your brother.

4 But there should be no poor and needy among you, for Yahweh will greatly bless you in the land Yahweh your Father is giving you to possess as an inheritance—

5 And there will be no poor and needy among you only if you fully obey Yahweh your Father, and are careful to observe and do all these commandments, which I command you this day;

6 For Yahweh your Father will bless you, just as He has promised you. You shall lend to many nations, but you shall not borrow from them. You shall rule over many nations, but they shall not rule over you.

7 If there is a poor brother living within any cities in the land Yahweh your Father is giving you, you must not harden your heart nor be tightfisted toward your poor brother.

8 But you must be openhanded to him, and willingly lend him enough of whatever he needs.

9 Be careful not to think this evil thought: The seventh year, the year for canceling debts, is very near; and then you have no compassion on your needy brother, and give him nothing. He then just might appeal to Yahweh, and the evil your brother is suffering will come upon you.

10 You must surely give to him, and you will not give to him grudgingly; for you are actually lending to Yahweh; and Yahweh your Father will bless you in all your works, and in all you put your hand to do.

11 But the poor will never cease from the land. Therefore I command you, saying: You shall open wide your hand to your poor and needy brother in your land.

12 If your brother, a Hebrew man or a Hebrew woman, sells himself to you, or is sold to you, and serves you six years, then in the seventh year you must let him go free from you.

13 And when he is released from you, you must not let him go away empty-handed;

14 You must supply him liberally from your flock, from your threshing floor, and from your winepress. What Yahweh has blessed you with, you are to give to him.

15 You must remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt, and Yahweh your Father redeemed you; this is why I command this thing this day.

16 But if he says to you; I do not want to leave you, because he loves you and your household, and is well off with you;

17 Then you shall take an awl, and push it through his ear lobe into the door, and he will be your servant for life. To your maidservant you shall do the same.

18 It must not seem like a hardship to you when you set him free from you, for he has been worth twice as much as that of a hired hand these six years. Then Yahweh your Father will bless you in all that you do.

19 All the firstborn males that come from your herd and your flock, you must sanctify and set apart to Yahweh your Father. You must do no work with the firstborn of your herd, nor shear the firstborn of your flock.

20 You and your household of the Levites shall eat it; meat from the sacrifices of the firstborn animals, in front of Yahweh your Father year by year at the place Yahweh chooses.

21 If there is any blemish in it; lameness, blindness, or any other defect, you must not sacrifice it to Yahweh your Father;

22 You must eat it within your cities, as you would the gazelle or deer; the ceremonially unclean and the ceremonially clean alike may eat it.

23 Only you must not eat its blood; you must pour it on the ground like water.

CHAP. 16

Watch for the Moon of Green Ears of Barley; Abib, and ● sacrifice the Passover to Yahweh your Father, for in the Moon of Green Ears of Barley Yahweh your Father brought you out of Egypt by night.

2 Therefore, you must sacrifice the Passover to Yahweh your Father from the flock and the herd, at the place Yahweh chooses to establish His Name.

3 You must eat no leavened bread with it, but for seven days eat unleavened bread; the bread of affliction, (for you came out of the land of Egypt in haste) so ● you may remember the day you set out from the land of Egypt all the days of your life.

4 No leaven shall be seen among you in all your territory for seven days, nor shall any of the meat you sacrificed on the evening before the first day remain overnight until the morning.

● Shemittah: The soil was not to be sown and all debts were cancelled. This Law was intended for an agricultural community, in which each family had its homestead. A debt would only be contracted in a case of dire emergency. The loan was, therefore, an act of charity, rather than a business transaction.

● Erroneously translated KEEP in most modern translations. The Passover Lambs were killed on the Fourteenth Day of the First Moon, beginning around 3:00 on the afternoon, and continuing until sunset—Exodus 12:47-49, Leviticus 23:5, Numbers 9:2-14.

5 You may not sacrifice the Passover within any of your cities Yahweh your Father gives you.

6 But only at the place Yahweh your Father chooses to establish His Name. There you must sacrifice the Passover at evening: at the ● going of the sun: ● at the season you came out of Egypt.

7 And you shall roast and eat it in the place Yahweh your Father chooses, and in the morning you shall turn and go to your tents.

8 Six days you must eat unleavened bread, and on the seventh day there shall be a holy convocation to Yahweh your Father. You must do no work.

9 You must count seven weeks for yourself. Begin to count the seven weeks from the time you begin to put the sickle to the standing grain.

10 Then you shall observe the Feast of Weeks to Yahweh with a proportion of a freewill offering from your hand, which you will give just as Yahweh blesses you.

11 You shall rejoice in front of Yahweh your Father—you and your wife, your son, your daughter, your manservant, your maidservant, the Levite who lives within your city, the stranger, the fatherless, and the widows among you—at the place Yahweh your Father chooses to establish His Name.

12 And you must remember that you were a slave in Egypt, and you must be careful to observe and do these statutes.

13 You must observe the Feast of Tabernacles seven days, after you have gathered from your threshing floor and from your winepress;

14 And you shall rejoice at your Feast—you and your wife, your son, your daughter, your manservant, your maidservant, the Levite, the stranger, and the fatherless, and the widows in your cities—

15 Seven days you must keep a joyous Feast to Yahweh your Father at the place He will choose, for Yahweh your Father will bless you in all your produce, and in all the work of your hands, so you will surely have joy.

16 Three times a year all your males shall appear in front of Yahweh your Father at the place He will choose—at the Feast of Unleavened Bread, at the Feast of Weeks, and at the Feast of Tabernacles—and they must not appear in front of Yahweh empty handed;

17 Every man shall give as he is capable of giving, in proportion to the blessing Yahweh your Father has given you.

18 You must appoint judges and officers in all the cities Yahweh your Father gives you, from each of your tribes, and they shall judge the people with righteous judgment.

19 You must not pervert justice. You must not show partiality, nor take a bribe. Because a bribe blinds the eyes of the wise and twists the words of the righteous.

20 You must follow justice, and only justice, so you may live, and inherit the land Yahweh your Father is giving you.

21 You must not plant a tree to be used as a sacred pole; Asherah pole, beside the altar which you shall make to Yahweh your Father,

22 And you must also not set up a sacred pillar; image of the sun-god Baal—for these Yahweh your Father hates.

CHAP. 17

Do not sacrifice to Yahweh your Father a bull or sheep which has any blemish or defect, for that is an abomination to Yahweh your Father.

2 If there is found among you, within any of your cities Yahweh your Father has given you, a man or woman who has done evil in the sight of Yahweh by transgressing His covenant,

3 And has gone and worshiped and served gods, bowing down to them, or to the sun, the moon, or the stars of the sky; which I have told you not to do,

4 And this has been brought to your attention, then you must investigate this thoroughly. If it is true, and it has been proven that this abominable thing has been done in Israyl,

5 Then take that man or woman, who has committed this evil deed, to your city gate, and stone that person to death.

6 On the testimony of two or three witnesses may a person be put to death, but no one may be put to death on the testimony of only one witness.

7 The hands of the witnesses must be the first against him to put him to death, then afterward the hands of all the people. In this way you must purge the evil from among you.

8 If a case comes up which is too difficult for you to judge; whether bloodshed, lawsuits, or assaults, then you shall take them to the place Yahweh your Father will choose.

9 Go to the priests, who are Levites, and to the judge who is in office at that time. Ask for their decision, and they will give you the sentence of judgment.

10 You must act according to the sentence they pronounce for you at the place Yahweh chooses. Be careful to do all they order you to do.

11 According to the Law they teach you, you shall do, and according to the decisions they give you, you shall do. You must not turn aside to the right hand nor to the left from the sentence they pronounce for you.

12 The man who acts presumptuously, and shows contempt for the priest who stands to minister in front of Yahweh your Father, or for the judge, that man must be put to death. In this way you will purge the evil from Israyl.

13 Then all the people shall hear of it and will be afraid, and no one will ever act contemptuously again.

14 When you enter the land Yahweh your Father is giving you, and have taken possession of it, and are living in it, and you say: Let us set a king over us like all the nations around us.

15 Then be sure you set a king over you whom Yahweh your Father chooses. He must be from among your own brothers. He must not be a foreigner who is not your brother.

16 He must not acquire great numbers of horses for himself or make the people return to Egypt to get more of them, for Yahweh has told you: You must not go back that way again.

17 He shall not marry many wives, nor accumulate silver and gold; or his heart; his understanding, will be led astray.

18 When he sits on the throne of his kingdom, then he shall write for himself a copy of this Law (borrowed from the priests who are Levites), on a scroll.

19 It is to remain with him, and he is to study it all the days of his life, so he may learn to revere Yahweh his Father and be careful to observe all the words of this Law and these statutes;

20 So he may not become proud and think himself better than his brothers, and turn away to the right hand or the left from this Law. Then he and his descendants will rule a long time in the midst of the kingdom.

CHAP. 18

▲ he priests; who are Levites—truly the whole tribe of Levi—are to have no part nor inheritance with Israyl. They shall live on the offerings made to Yahweh by fire, for that is their portion.

2 They shall have no inheritance among their brothers: Yahweh is their inheritance, just as He said to them.

3 This shall be the priest's share from the people who kill a bull or a sheep slaughtered for ordinary consumption: The shoulder, the cheeks, and the inner parts.

4 You are to give them the firstfruits of your grain, new wine, oil, and the first fleece from the shearing of your sheep;

5 For Yahweh your Father has chosen him out of all your tribes to stand to minister in the Name of Yahweh; he and his sons forever.

6 If a Levite comes from any of your cities where he had been living among Israyl, and comes with all earnestness of mind to the place Yahweh chooses;

7 Then he may serve in the Name of Yahweh his Father, just like all his fellow brothers, the Levites, who serve in front of Yahweh.

8 He is to share equally in their benefits, even if he has received money from the sale of family possessions.

9 When you come into the land Yahweh your Father is giving you, do not learn to follow the abominable ways of those nations.

10 Let there not be found among you one who sacrifices his son or his daughter in the fire, who practices divination or sorcery, interprets omens, engages in witchcraft,

11 Casts spells, or who consults familiar spirits, or a wizard, or a necromancer

12 Anyone who practices these is abominable to Yahweh, and because of these abominable practices, Yahweh your Father is driving out the nations in front of you.

13 You must be blameless in front of Yahweh your Father.

14 These nations, which you are driving out, now listen to those who practice sorcery or divination. But as for you, Yahweh your Father has definitely not appointed such things to you.

15 Yahweh your Father will raise up for you a Prophet, like me, from the midst of your own brothers. Him you must listen to.

16 For this is what you asked of Yahweh at Horeb, on the day you gathered together, saying: Let us not hear the voice of Yahweh our Father, nor see this great fire anymore, or we will die.

17 Then Yahweh said to me; What they have spoken is the truth.

18 I will raise up for them a Prophet like you from among their brothers, and I will put My words in His mouth, and He will tell them everything I command Him.

19 Whoever will not listen to My words, which He speaks in My Name, I will judge him for it.

20 But a prophet who presumes to speak a word in My Name, which I have not commanded him to say, or who speaks in the name of any god, that prophet must be put to death.

21 And you may say to yourself: How can we know when a message has not been spoken by Yahweh?

22 If what a prophet proclaims in the Name of Yahweh, does not come to pass, or does not come true: that is a message Yahweh has not spoken. That prophet has spoken presumptuously. Do not follow him at all.

The Prophet is bound by the Torah, The Law; and the Prophet and Priest worked side by side. As guardians of the Law of Yahweh, they both cherished common ideals. The prophets never preached the abrogation of (the 'changing', or the 'doing away with') The Law, and the righteous priests never held that one could shelter himself from the Judgment of Yahweh against his moral wickedness and unlawful conduct, behind sacrifices.

CHAP. 19

When Yahweh your Father has destroyed the nations whose land Yahweh your Father is giving you, and you drive them out, and live in their cities and in their houses.

2 You must set apart three cities, centrally located, for yourself in the land Yahweh your Father is giving you to possess.

3 Build roads to them, and divide the land into three parts, which Yahweh your Father is giving you as an inheritance, so that anyone who kills a man may flee there.

4 These are the deciding factors for the man who may live after he flees there: He will be one who kills his neighbor unintentionally, without premeditated malice.

5 For instance: when a man goes to the woods with his brother to cut timber, and as he swings his ax to fell a tree, the head may fly off, hitting his brother and killing him. That man may flee to one of these cities, and live.

6 Otherwise, if the distance is too far, the blood-avenger might pursue him in a rage, overtake him, and kill him, even though he does not deserve to die; since he had not hated his brother in time past.

7 That is why I command you to set aside for yourselves three cities.

8 If Yahweh your Father enlarges your territory, as He promised on oath to your fathers, and gives you the whole territory He promised them;

9 Because you shall keep all these commandments, to do them, which I command you this day, to love Yahweh your Father, and to walk always in His ways, then you must add three more cities for yourself, beside these three.

10 Or innocent blood may be shed in the midst of your land which Yahweh your Father is giving you as an inheritance, and you will be guilty of shedding blood.

11 However, if someone hates his brother, and lies in wait for him, then attacks and kills him, and then flees to one of these cities,

12 The elders of the city he came from shall send for him, bring him back from the city of refuge, and hand him over to the blood-avenger to die.

13 You must not show pity to him. You must purge from Israyl the guilt of shedding innocent blood, so that it may go well with you.

14 You must not remove your brother's landmark, which your predecessors have set in your inheritance, which you will inherit in the land Yahweh your Father is giving you.

15 One witness is not enough to convict a man accused of any crime or offense he may have committed. Only by the mouth of two or three witnesses may the matter be established.

16 If a false witness rises against any man to accuse him of any wrongdoing,

17 Then both men involved in the controversy must stand in front of Yahweh; in front of the priests and the judges who officiate at that time.

18 The judges must make a thorough investigation, and if the witness proves to be a false witness, giving false testimony against his brother:

19 Then do to him as he intended to do to his brother. In this way you must purge the evil from among you.

20 Then the rest of the people will hear of this and be afraid, and never again will such an evil thing be done among you.

21 You must show no pity: life for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot.

CHAP. 20

When you go out to battle against your enemies, and see horses, chariots, and people more numerous than yourself; do not be afraid, for Yahweh your Father, Who brought you up from the land of Egypt, is with you.

2 When you are about to go into battle, the priest shall come forward, and address the men of war,

3 And he shall say to them; Hear, O Israyl: Today you are going into battle against your enemies. Do not be faint-hearted, do not be afraid, do not tremble nor be terrified because of them;

4 For Yahweh your Father is He Who goes with you to fight for you against your enemies, and gives you victory.

5 Then the officers shall address the men of war, saying: Has anyone built a new house and not dedicated it? Let him go home, or he may die in battle, and someone else may dedicate it.

6 Has anyone planted a vineyard and not begun to enjoy it? Let him go home, or he may die in battle, and someone else enjoy it.

7 Has anyone become betrothed to a woman and not married her? Let him go home, or he may die in battle, and someone else marry her.

8 Then the officers shall add: Is any man afraid or faint-hearted? Let him go home, so that his brothers will not become faint-hearted as well.

9 When the officers have finished speaking to the men of war, they shall then appoint captains over the army to lead the men.

10 When you march up to a city to battle against it, first proclaim an offer of peace to the people of that city.

11 If they accept your offer of peace, and open their gates to you, all the people in it shall be subject to forced labor, and shall work for you.

12 But if the city will not make peace with you, but would engage you in battle, then you shall besiege it.

13 Then, when Yahweh your Father delivers it into your hands, you shall kill every man in it with the edge of the sword.

14 But the women, the children, the livestock, and everything that is in that city, shall be plunder for you, and you shall use it for yourself; and you shall eat the plunder of your enemies, which Yahweh your Father will have given you.

15 In this way you shall treat all the cities that are far distant from you, which are not of the cities of the nations nearby.

16 But, in the cities of the nations which Yahweh your Father is giving you as an inheritance, do not leave alive anything that breathes.

17 You must utterly and completely destroy them; cherem—the Hittite, the Amorite, the Canaanite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Yebusite—just as Yahweh your Father has commanded you:

18 Or they will teach you to follow all their abominations that they have done to their gods, and you will sin against Yahweh your Father.

19 When you besiege a city for a long time while making war against it, you must not destroy its trees by cutting them down. If you can eat of them, do not cut them down to use in the siege, because you can use them for food.

20 Only the trees you know are not fruit trees you may destroy, and cut down to build siegeworks against that city, until that city falls.

CHAP. 21

If anyone is found slain, lying in a field in the land Yahweh your Father is giving you to possess, and it is not known who killed him,

2 Then your elders and your judges shall go out, and measure the distance from the body to the neighboring cities.

3 Then the elders of the city nearest the body shall take a heifer that has never been worked, and which has not pulled with a yoke;

4 And lead her down to a valley that has not been plowed or planted, and where there is a flowing stream. There, in the valley, they are to break the heifer's neck.

5 The priests, the sons of Levi, shall come near, for Yahweh your Father has chosen them to minister, and to pronounce blessings in the Name of Yahweh, and to decide all cases of controversy and assault.

6 Then all the elders of the city nearest the body shall wash their hands over the heifer, whose neck was broken in the valley.

7 And they shall declare: Our hands did not shed this blood, nor did our eyes see it done.

8 Accept this atonement for Your people Israyl, whom You have redeemed, O Yahweh, and do not hold Your people guilty of the blood of an innocent man. And the bloodshed shall be atoned for.

9 In this way you will purge from yourselves the guilt of shedding innocent blood, since you have done that which is right in the sight of Yahweh.

10 When you go to war against your enemies, and Yahweh delivers them into your hands; and you take captives,

11 If you see among the captives a beautiful woman, and are attracted to her, you may take her as your wife.

12 Bring her into your home, and have her shave her head, trim her nails,

13 And put aside the clothes she was wearing when captured. After she has lived in your house, and mourned her father and mother for a full moon, then you may go to her and be her husband, and she shall be your wife.

14 But if you are not pleased with her, let her go wherever she wishes; but you certainly shall not sell her for money, nor treat her like a slave, because you have humbled her.

15 If a man has two wives, one loved more, and the other loved less, and they both bear him sons, but the firstborn is the son of the wife he loves less,

16 When he wills his property to his sons, he must not give the rights of the firstborn to the son of the wife he loves more, in preference to his actual firstborn; the son of the wife he loves less.

17 He must acknowledge the son of his less loved wife as the firstborn, by giving him a double portion of all he has. That son is the first sign of his father's strength. The right of the firstborn belongs to him.

18 If a man has a stubborn and rebellious son who will not obey his father or his mother, and will not listen to them, even after they have disciplined him,

19 Then his father and his mother will take him out to the elders in the gate of his city.

20 And they shall say to the elders of his city: This son of ours is stubborn and rebellious. He will not obey us. He is living riotously, and is a drunkard.

21 Then all the men of his city shall stone him to death with stones. In this way you must purge the evil from among you. All Israel will then hear of it, and be afraid.

22 If a man is proven guilty of a capital offense, and is put to death, and his body is hung on a tree,

23 His body must not remain overnight on the tree. You must surely bury him that day, so that you do not defile the land which Yahweh your Father is giving you as an inheritance. He who is hanged is ● accursed of Yahweh.

● The judges of Israel sentenced according to Yahweh's Law; therefore, according to the Judgments of Yahweh, they pronounced the death penalty against the accused.

CHAP. 22

You shall not see your brother's ox or his sheep straying away, and ignore it. Be sure to take it back to your brother.

2 If your brother does not live near you, or if you do not know who he is, then take it home with you and keep it until he comes looking for it. Then give it back to him.

3 You shall do the same for his donkey, for his garment, or for anything else your brother has lost and you have found. You must not ignore it.

4 You shall not see your brother's donkey or his ox fallen on the road, and ignore it. Be sure to help it get to its feet.

5 A woman must not wear that which pertains to a man, and a man must not put on a woman's garment. All who do so are an abomination to Yahweh your Father.

6 If you come across a bird's nest beside the way, either in a tree or on the ground, and the mother is sitting on the young or on the eggs, do not take the mother with the young.

7 Be sure to let the mother go, then take the young for yourself; that it may go well with you and you may have a long life.

8 When you build a new house, then you must make a parapet for your roof, so you may not bring the guilt of bloodshed upon your house if anyone falls from it.

9 You must not plant two kinds of seed in your vineyard. If you do, not only the crops you plant but also the fruit of the vineyard will be defiled.

10 You must not plow with an ox and a donkey together.

11 You must not wear clothing of wool and linen woven together.

12 You must make tzitzit on the four corners of the tallit you cover yourself with.

13 If any man takes a wife, and after having sexual relations with her, dislikes her;

14 And slanders her, giving her a bad name, by saying: I took this woman, and when I had relations with her, I found she was not a virgin.

15 Then the father and mother of the young woman shall bring proof that she was a virgin to the city elders at the gate.

16 The young woman's father shall say to the elders; I gave my daughter to this man as his wife, but he dislikes her.

17 Now he has charged her with shameful conduct by saying: I found your daughter was not a virgin, but here is the evidence of my daughter's virginity. Then they shall spread the cloth in front of the elders of the city.

18 Then the elders of that city shall take that man and punish him;

19 They shall fine him one hundred shekels of silver, that is, about 2 1/2 pounds, and give it to the father of the young woman, because he has brought a bad name upon a virgin of Israyl. She shall continue to be his wife, and he cannot divorce her as long as he lives.

20 However, if his charge is true, and evidences of her virginity are not found, 21 Then the young woman shall be brought to the door of her father's house, and there the men of her city shall stone her to death. She has done a dishonorable thing in Israyl by being promiscuous while still in her father's house. In this way you must purge the evil from among you.

22 If a man is found lying with a woman married to a husband, then both of them shall be put to death; the man that lay with the woman, and also the woman. In this way you must purge the evil from among you.

23 If a young woman, a virgin who is betrothed to a husband, is found by a man in the city and he has sexual relations with her,

24 Then you must bring them both out to the gate of that city, and you shall stone them to death with stones; the young woman because she did not cry out, and the man because he humbled his brother's wife. In this way you must purge the evil from among you.

25 However, if a man comes up on a betrothed young woman in the countryside, and the man forcefully has sexual relations with her, then only the man who lay with her shall be put to death.

26 You must do nothing to the young woman; she has committed no sin deserving of death. This is the same example as when someone attacks and murders his brother.

27 For the man found the young woman in the countryside; and though the young woman screamed for help, there was no one to aid her.

28 If a man comes upon a young woman, a virgin who is not betrothed, and he takes her and has sexual relations with her—when they are found out;

29 Then the man who had sexual relations with her shall pay the young woman's father fifty shekels of silver, that is, about 1 1/4 pounds, then she shall be his wife because he has humbled her. He shall not be permitted to divorce her as long as he lives.

30 A man is not to marry his father's wife; he must not dishonor his father's bed.

CHAP. 23

No one who has been voluntarily emasculated by crushing or cutting may be counted as belonging to the congregation of Yahweh.

2 One born of a forbidden marriage, nor their descendants, shall not enter the congregation of Yahweh; even to the tenth generation.

3 An Ammonite, or a Moabite, or their descendants, shall not enter the congregation of Yahweh, even to the tenth generation;

4 Because they did not meet you on the road with food and water when you came out of Egypt, and because they hired Balaam the son of Beor from Pethor in Aram Naharaim; North-west Mesopotamia, to pronounce a curse upon you.

5 However, Yahweh your Father would not listen to Balaam, but turned the curse into a blessing for you, because Yahweh your Father loves you.

6 You shall not seek their peace, nor brotherly relations with them, as long as you live.

7 However, you must not abhor an Edomite, for he is your brother. You must not abhor an Egyptian, for you were an alien in his land;

8 The children of the third generation born to them may enter the congregation of Yahweh.

9 When you are encamped against your enemies, keep yourself from every impure thing.

10 If one of your men becomes unclean because of a nocturnal emission, he is to go outside the camp, and stay there;

11 But as evening approaches, he is to wash himself, and at sunset he may return to the camp.

12 Designate a place outside the camp where you may go to relieve yourself.

13 As part of your equipment, have something to dig with, then when you to relieve yourself, first dig a hole, and afterwards cover up your excrement;

14 For Yahweh your Father moves about in the midst of your camp, to protect you and to give your enemies over to you; therefore, your camp must be holy, so He may see no unclean thing among you, and turn away from you.

15 If a slave has escaped from his owner to take refuge with you, do not hand him back over to his owner.

16 He may live among you wherever he chooses; in your cities, or where it seems best to him. You must not oppress him.

17 There shall be no prostitutes of the sons and daughters of Israyl, practicing sodomy and prostitution in the abominable rituals of the pagan temples.

18 You must not bring the hire of a harlot; the earnings of a female prostitute, or the price of a dog; the earnings of a male prostitute, into The House of Yahweh your Father for any vowed offering, for both of these are an abomination to Yahweh your Father.

19 You must not charge interest to your brother—interest on money, food, or anything else that may earn interest.

20 You may charge interest to a foreigner, but to your brother you must not charge interest, so that Yahweh your Father may bless you in all that you set your hand to do, in the land you are entering to possess.

21 If you make a vow to Yahweh, you must not delay to pay it, for Yahweh your Father will certainly demand it of you, and you will be guilty of sin.

22 But if you refrain from even making the vow in the first place, you will not be sinning;

23 Whatever goes out of your mouth, you must be sure to do, because you made your vow freely, of your own free will, to Yahweh your Father with your own mouth.

24 When you enter into your brother's vineyard, you may eat all the grapes you please, but you must not put any in any container.

25 When you enter into your brother's standing grain, you may pick kernels with your hands, but you must not put a sickle to his standing grain.

CHAP. 24

When a man marries a woman who becomes displeasing to him, because he finds some uncleanness in her, and he writes her a certificate of divorce, gives it to her, and sends her from his house—

2 And if, after she leaves his house, she becomes the wife of another man,

3 And then that man also detests her, and writes her a certificate of divorce, gives it to her, and sends her from his house—or that man dies, leaving her a widow;

4 Then her first husband who divorced her must not take her back to be his wife after she has been defiled. That is an abomination in front of Yahweh, and you must not bring sin upon the land which Yahweh your Father is giving you as an inheritance.

5 If a man has become recently married, he must not be sent to war or be charged with any other duty; but he shall be free at home one year, and bring joyfulness to his wife he has married.

6 Do not take an upper millstone or a lower millstone as security for a debt, because that would be taking a man's living as security.

7 If a man is caught kidnapping one of his brothers of the children of Israyl, and treats him as a slave or sells him, the kidnapper must be put to death. In this way you will purge the evil from among you.

8 Be very careful during an outbreak of leprosy or infectious skin disease, that you diligently observe and do exactly as the priests, who are Levites, teach and instruct you. You must follow carefully what I have commanded them;

9 Remember what Yahweh your Father did to Miriam along the way when you came out of Egypt.

10 When you make a loan of any kind to your brother, do not go into his house to get what he is offering as security.

11 You shall stand outside and let the man bring the security out to you.

12 If the man is poor, you must not hold his cloak, security, overnight.

13 You must, in this case, return his cloak to him before the sun goes down, so he may sleep in his own garment. Then he will bless you, and it shall be accounted to you as righteousness in front of Yahweh your Father.

14 Do not take advantage of a hired man who is poor and needy, whether one of your brothers or one of the strangers living in your cities.

15 Pay him his wages each day before sunset, because he is poor and is counting on it. Otherwise, he just might cry out to Yahweh against you, and you will be guilty of sin.

16 The fathers shall not be put to death because of their children, nor shall the children be put to death because of their fathers. A person must be put to death because of his own sin.

17 You must not pervert the justice due the stranger or the fatherless, nor shall you take the cloak of the widow as security.

18 You must remember that you were a slave in Egypt, and Yahweh your Father redeemed you from there. It is because of this that I command you to do this thing.

19 When you are gathering the harvest in your field, and forget to pick up a sheaf, you must not go back to get it; it shall be for the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, so Yahweh your Father may bless you in all the work of your hands.

20 When you beat the olives from your trees, you must not go over the boughs twice; it shall be for the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow.

21 When you harvest the grapes of your vineyard, do not go over the vines again; it shall be for the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow.

22 You must remember you were slaves in the land of Egypt. It is because of this that I command you to do this thing.

CHAP. 25

When men have a dispute between them, they are to come to court so the judges may decide the case; acquitting the innocent and condemning the guilty.

2 If the guilty man deserves to be beaten, the judge shall make him lie down and have him whipped in his presence with the number of lashes his crime deserves,

3 But he must not give him more than forty lashes. If he is whipped more than that, your brother will be degraded in your sight.

4 Do not muzzle an ox while it treads out the grain.

5 If brothers are living together and one of them dies without a son, his widow must not marry outside the family. Her husband's brother must take her and marry her to perform the duty of a brother-in-law to her.

6 The first son she bears shall carry on the name of the dead brother so his name will not be blotted out from Israyl.

7 But if a man does not want to marry his brother's wife, she shall go to the elders at the city gate and say; My husband's brother refuses to carry on his brother's name in Israyl. He will not perform the duty of a brother-in-law to me.

8 Then the elders of his city shall summon him and talk to him. If he stands firm and says; I do not want to marry her;

9 Then his brother's widow shall go up to him in the presence of the elders, take off one of his sandals, spit in his face and say; This is what is done to the man who will not build up his brother's house.

10 Then his name in Israyl shall be called; The house of him who had his sandal removed.

11 If two men are fighting and the wife of one of them comes to rescue her husband from the one attacking him, and she reaches out and seizes him by his genitals, 12 You shall cut off her hand. Show her no pity.

13 Do not have two differing weights in your bag—one light and one heavy.

14 Do not have two differing measures in your house—one small and one large.

15 You must have accurate and honest weights and measures, so your days may be long in the land which Yahweh your Father is giving you.

16 For all who deal dishonestly and behave unrighteously, are an abomination to Yahweh your Father.

17 Remember what the Amalekites did to you on the way as you were coming out of Egypt;

18 Amalek met you on your journey and attacked all the stragglers in the rear rank, when you were tired and weary. Amalek did not revere Yahweh.

19 Therefore, when Yahweh your Father has given you rest from your enemies all around you, in the land Yahweh your Father is giving you to possess as an inheritance, then blot out the ● remembrance; memory, of Amalek from under heaven. Do not forget this!

● The Destruction of Amalek-I Samuyl 15:5-11.

CHAP. 26

When you come into the land Yahweh your Father is giving you as an inheritance, and you have taken possession of it, and are living in it:

2 You must take some of the first of all the fruit of the earth, which you shall bring from the land Yahweh your Father has given you; and you must put it in a basket, and go to the place Yahweh your Father will choose to establish His Name.

3 And say to the one who is priest in those days: I declare unto Yahweh my Father this day, that I have come to the country which Yahweh vowed on oath to our forefathers to give us.

4 Then the priest shall take the basket out of your hand, and set it down in front of the altar of Yahweh your Father;

5 And you shall declare in front of Yahweh your Father, and say: My father was a wandering Aramean, and he went down into Egypt with a few people, and lived there, and became a great nation, powerful and numerous.

6 But the Egyptians mistreated us, afflicted us, and laid hard bondage on us.

7 Then we cried out to Yahweh, the Father of our fathers, and Yahweh heard our voice and looked on our affliction, our labor, and our oppression.

8 So Yahweh brought us up out of Egypt with a mighty hand, and with an outstretched arm; with great terror, and with signs and wonders.

9 He brought us into this place, and gave us this land; a land flowing with milk and honey.

10 And now, behold, I have brought the first-fruits of the land, which You, O Yahweh, have given me. Then you shall set it before Yahweh your Father, and worship before Yahweh your Father;

11 And you shall rejoice in every fine thing Yahweh your Father has given to you and your house, and to the Levite, and to the stranger who is among you.

12 When you have finished setting aside a tenth of all your produce in the third year, the year of the Third Tithe, you shall give it to the Levite, the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, so they may eat in your cities, and be satisfied.

13 Then you shall say in front of Yahweh your Father: I have removed this holy tithe from my house, and also have given it to the Levite, the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, according to all Your commandments which You have commanded me. I have not transgressed Your commandments, nor have I forgotten them.

14 I have not eaten any of it when I was in mourning, nor have I removed any of it while I was unclean, nor have I offered any of it to the dead. I have obeyed Yahweh my Father; I have done everything You have commanded me.

15 Look down from Your holy habitation, from heaven, and bless Your people Israyl and the land You have given us, just as You vowed on oath to our fathers, a land flowing with milk and honey.

16 This day Yahweh your Father commands you to observe and do these statutes and judgments. Therefore, you shall be careful to observe and do them with all your heart, and with all your soul.

17 This day you have declared Yahweh to be your Father, and that you will walk in His ways and keep His statutes, His commandments, and His judgments, and that you will obey Him.

18 And Yahweh has also declared this day that you are His special people, His treasured possession as He has promised, and that you are to keep all His commandments.

19 He has declared that He will set you high above all nations He has made—in praise, in name, and in honor—that you may be a holy people to Yahweh your Father, just as He has promised.

CHAP. 27

Then Mosheh, with the elders of Israyl, commanded the people, saying: Keep all the commandments, Mitzvor; The Law, which I command you this day.

2 And on the day you cross over the Yordan, to the land Yahweh your Father is giving you, you shall set up for yourselves large stones, and coat them with plaster.

3 You shall write on them all the words of this Law, when you have crossed over to enter the land Yahweh your Father is giving you, a land flowing with milk and honey, just as Yahweh, the Father of your fathers, has promised you.

4 And when you have crossed the Yordan, set up these stones on Mount Ebal, as I command you this day, and coat them with plaster.

5 Build the altar of Yahweh your Father with stones, and offer burnt offerings on it to Yahweh your Father.

7 You shall offer peace offerings, and shall eat there, and rejoice in front of Yahweh your Father;

8 And you shall write very clearly all the words of this Law on these stones you have set up.

9 Then Mosheh and the priests, who are Levites, spoke to all Israyl, saying: Be silent, O Israyl, and listen. This day you have become the people of Yahweh your Father.

10 Obey the voice of Yahweh your Father, and observe and do His commandments and His statutes, which I command you this day.

11 And Mosheh commanded the people on the same day, saying;

12 When you have crossed the Yordan, these tribes shall stand on Mount Gerizim to bless the people: Simeon, Levi, Yahdah, Issachar, Yahseph, and Benyamin;

13 And these tribes shall stand on Mount Ebal to pronounce curses: Reuben, Gad, Asher, Zebulun, Dan, and Naphtali;

14 And the Levites shall recite to all the children of Israyl in a loud voice, saying:

15 Cursed is the one who makes any carved image of, or casts with a mold, a god—a thing abominable to Yahweh, the work of the craftsman's hands—and sets it up in secret. Then all the people shall say: So be it.

16 Cursed is the one who treats his father or his mother without honor; treating them with contempt. Then all the people shall say: So be it.

17 Cursed is the one who moves his brother's landmark; his boundary stone. Then all the people shall say: So be it.

18 Cursed is the one who leads the blind astray on the road. Then all the people shall say: So be it.

19 Cursed is the one who perverts the justice due to the stranger, to the fatherless, and to the widow. Then all the people shall say: So be it.

20 Cursed is the one who has sexual relations with his father's wife, for he dishonors his father's bed. Then all the people shall say: So be it.

21 Cursed is the one who has sexual relations with any kind of animal. Then all the people shall say: So be it.

22 Cursed is the one who has sexual relations with his sister, the daughter of his father or the daughter of his mother. Then all the people shall say: So be it.

23 Cursed is the one who has sexual relations with his mother-in-law. Then all the people shall say: So be it.

24 Cursed is the one who kills his brother secretly. Then all the people shall say: So be it.

25 Cursed is the one who takes a bribe to kill an innocent person. Then all the people shall say: So be it.

26 Cursed is the one who does not uphold every word of this Law, by carrying it out. Then all the people shall say: So be it.

CHAP. 28

And it will be, if you will listen diligently to the voice of Yahweh your Father, to observe and do all His commandments which I command you this day, that Yahweh your Father will set you high above all the nations on earth,

2 And all these blessings will come upon you, and accompany you, because you obey

Yahweh your Father:

3 Blessed will you be in the city, and blessed will you be in the country.

4 Blessed will be the fruit of your body, the produce of your ground, and the young of your livestock: the calves of your herds and the lambs of your flocks.

5 Blessed will be your basket and your storehouse.

6 Blessed will you be when you come in, and blessed will you be when you go out.

7 Yahweh will cause your enemies, who rise up against you, to be defeated in front of you; they will come out against you from one direction, but flee from you in seven directions.

8 Yahweh will send a blessing on your barns and storehouses, and in everything you set your hand to do. Yahweh will bless you in the land which Yahweh your Father is giving you.

9 Yahweh will establish you as His holy people unto Himself, as He promised you on oath, if you will keep the commandments of Yahweh your Father, and walk in all His ways.

10 Then all the people on the earth will see that you are called by the Name of Yahweh, and they will fear you.

11 Yahweh will grant you plenteous possessions—in the fruit of your body, in the increase of your livestock, and in the produce of your ground—in the land Yahweh vowed on oath to your forefathers to give you.

12 Yahweh will open the heavens, the storehouse of His bountiful treasure, to send rain upon your land in its season, and to bless all the work of your hands. You will lend to many nations, but you will borrow from none.

13 Yahweh will make you the head, and not the tail. You will be at the top only, and never be at the bottom, if you will pay attention to the commandments of Yahweh your Father, which I command you this day, and are then careful to observe and do them.

14 For if you diligently observe and do all of Yahweh's Law, then you will not turn aside from any of the words which I command you this day, to the right hand nor to the left; nor will you go after any god to serve it.

15 However, if you do not obey Yahweh your Father, and do not carefully follow all His commandments and His statutes, which I command you this day, then all these curses will come upon you, and accompany you:

16 Cursed will you be in the city, and cursed will you be in the country.

17 Cursed will be your basket and your storehouse.

18 Cursed will be the fruit of your body, the produce of your land, the calves of your herds, and the lambs of your flocks.

19 Cursed will you be when you come in, and cursed will you be when you go out.

20 Yahweh will send upon you curses, confusion, and rebuke, in everything you put your hand to do, until you are destroyed and come to sudden ruin, because of the wickedness you have done in forsaking Me.

21 Yahweh will make the plagues cling to you, until He has destroyed you from the land you are entering to possess.

22 Yahweh will strike you with wasting disease, with a fever, with an inflammation, with scorching heat, with the sword, with blasting, and with mildew; they will stay with you, until you perish.

23 And the heaven that is over your heads shall be brass, and the earth under you shall be iron.

24 Yahweh shall make the rain of your land powder and dust: from heaven it shall come down upon you, until you are destroyed.

25 Yahweh will cause you to be defeated before your enemies; you will go out in one direction against them, and flee in seven directions in front of them. You will be an awe-inspiring spectacle to all the kingdoms of the earth.

26 Your carcasses will be food for all the birds of the air, and the beasts of the earth; and there will be no one to frighten them away.

27 Yahweh will afflict you with the disease of Egypt, with tumors, with festering sores, and the itch—from which you cannot be healed.

28 Yahweh will afflict you with madness, spiritual blindness, and confusion of mind.

29 And you shall grope at noonday, reduced to blind helplessness, just as a blind man gropes in darkness. You will not be successful in any of your ways; you will only be oppressed and robbed continually, with no one to rescue you.

30 You will be betrothed to be married to a woman, but another will take her and sleep with her. You will build a house, but you will not live in it. You will plant a vineyard, but you will not gather its grapes.

31 Your ox will be slaughtered in front of your eyes, but you will not eat any of it.

Your donkey will be forcibly taken away from you, and it will not be returned. Your sheep will be given to your enemies, and no one will rescue them.

32 Your sons and daughters will be given to another nation, while you are looking on, and you will be powerless to lift a hand to stop it.

33 A nation whom you have not known will eat the fruit of your land and the produce of your labor, and you will have nothing but crushing oppressing.

34 In this way you will be driven mad, because of the things you have seen.

35 Yahweh will afflict your knees and legs with a severe inflammation which cannot be healed, spreading from the sole of your foot, to the top of your head.

36 Yahweh will bring you, and the king whom you set over you, to a nation which neither you nor your fathers have ever heard of, and there you will worship gods—gods of wood and stone;

37 And you will become a thing of horror, a taunt, and the object of biting remarks, among all nations where Yahweh will drive you.

38 You will sow much seed in the field, but you will harvest little, because the locust will consume it.

39 You will plant vineyards and cultivate them, but you will not drink the wine nor gather the grapes, because the worms shall eat them.

40 You will have olive trees throughout your country, but you will not use the oil, because your olives will drop off.

41 You will beget sons and daughters, but you will not keep them, because they will go into captivity.

42 Swarms of locusts will consume all your trees, and the produce of your land.

43 The stranger who lives among you will rise above you higher and higher, but you will sink lower and lower.

44 He will lend to you, but you will not lend to him. He will be the head, and you will be the tail.

45 Moreover, all these curses will come upon you, and will pursue you, and will overtake you, until you are destroyed—because you simply did not obey the voice of Yahweh your Father, to keep His commandments and His statutes, which He commanded you.

46 And these curses shall be upon you and on your descendants forever, for a sign and for a wonder;

47 Because you did not serve Yahweh your Father joyfully and with gladness of heart, in your time of great abundance;

48 Therefore, you will serve your enemies, whom Yahweh will send against you, in hunger, in thirst, in nakedness, and in dire need of everything; and He will put a yoke of iron on your neck, until He has destroyed you.

49 Yahweh will bring a nation against you from far away, from the end of the earth, like an eagle swooping down, a nation whose language you will not understand,

50 A fierce-looking nation which has no respect for the old, nor pity for the young.

51 They will devour the young of your livestock and the crops of your land, until you are destroyed. They will leave you without grain, without new wine, without oil, and without the calves of your herds or the lambs of your flocks, until you are destroyed.

52 Throughout your land they will lay siege to all your cities, until your high, fortified walls, which you trust in, come falling down. They will besiege you in all your cities throughout all the land Yahweh your Father has given you.

53 You will eat the fruit of your own body, the meat of your sons and of your daughters whom Yahweh your Father has given you, because of the suffering your enemy will inflict upon you during the siege.

54 The man among you who previously was the most soft-hearted and generous, will then have no compassion for his brother, for the wife whom he loves, or for any of his surviving children;

55 And he will not give them any of the meat of the children he is eating. It will be all he has left, because of the suffering your enemy will inflict upon you during the siege of all your cities.

56 The most gentle and delicate woman among you, who would not venture to touch the dirt with the bottom of her foot, since she is so soft and delicate, will then begrudge the husband she loves, and her own son and daughter,

57 The after-birth from her womb and the children she bears. For she intends to eat them secretly during the siege and the distress, which your enemy will inflict upon you in your cities.

58 If you do not carefully observe and do all the words of the Law, that are written in this Book, in order that you may reverence this glorious and reverent Name: YAHWEH YOUR FATHER, 59 Then Yahweh will bring upon you and your descendants fearful plagues, harsh and prolonged disasters, and severe and lingering illnesses.

60 He will also bring back upon you all the diseases of Egypt, which you were afraid of, and they will cling to you;

61 Also every sickness and every disaster, which is not written in this Book of the Law, Yahweh will bring upon you, until you are destroyed.

62 You will then be left but few in number, when you previously were as numerous as the stars in the sky, simply because you would not obey Yahweh your Father.

63 Just as it pleased Yahweh and gave Him joy to make you wealthy and numerous, so it will then please Him to bring you to nothing; financial ruin, and destroy you. Then you will be uprooted from the land which you are going in to possess;

64 And Yahweh will scatter you among all the nations, from one end of the earth to the other. There you will worship gods—gods of wood and stone, which neither you nor your fathers have known.

65 Among those nations you will find no place of repose, nor will the bottom of your foot find a place to rest; but there Yahweh will give you a desperate heart, eyes weary with longing; gradual loss of all hope, and an anxious, tortured, and restless mind.

66 Your life will hang like a weak thread in front of you, and you shall fear, day and night, that every moment may be your last.

67 In the morning you will say; Oh, if it were only evening! And in the evening you will say; Oh, if it were only morning!—because of the terror that will fill your hearts, and because of the sights you will see with your own eyes.

68 Yahweh will bring you back to Egypt by ship, on a journey I said that you should never make again. There you will offer yourselves for sale as male and female slaves to your enemies, but no will will buy you.

CHAP. 29

These are the terms of the covenant Yahweh commanded Mosheh to make with the children of Israyl in the land of Moab, in addition to the covenant He had made with them at Horeb.

2 And Mosheh summoned all Israyl, and said to them: You have seen all that Yahweh did right in front of your eyes in the land of Egypt—to Pharaoh, to all his officials, and to all his land.

3 With your own eyes you have seen the great trials, the signs, and those great wonders—

4 But to this very day Yahweh has not given you a mind of understanding, nor eyes that see, nor ears that hear.

5 I have led you forty years in the wilderness; your clothes have not worn out upon you, and your sandals have not worn out on your feet.

6 You have not eaten bread, nor have you drunk wine or strong drink; in order that you may know that I am Yahweh your Father.

7 When you reached this place, Sihon king of Heshbon and Og king of Bashan came out to fight against us, but we defeated them.

8 We took their land, and gave it as an inheritance to the tribes of Reuben and Gad, and to the half-tribe of Menasheh.

9 Therefore, carefully keep the words of this covenant and perform and do them, so that you may be blessed, and succeed in everything you do.

10 All of you are standing here this day in front of Yahweh your Father—your leaders, your chief men, your elders, all of your officials—every man in Israyl;

11 Along with your wives and children, and every stranger in your camp, from the one who cuts your wood to the one who carries your water.

12 You are standing here in order to enter into a covenant with Yahweh your Father, a covenant Yahweh is making with you this day, and sealing with an oath;

13 To establish and confirm you this day as a people unto Himself, and that He may be your Father, just as He promised you, and as He vowed on oath to your fathers, to Abraham, Isaac, and Yaaqob.

14 I am making this covenant, with its oath, not only with you alone;

15 You who are standing here this day, but also with those who are not here this day.

16 You yourselves know how we lived in the land of Egypt, and how we passed through the countries on the way here.

17 You saw the abomination of gods among them—gods of wood, stone, silver, and gold.

18 I solemnly entreat you to enter into the covenant and oath, for fear that there may be among you a man, woman, clan, or tribe this day whose heart would turn away from Yahweh our Father, to go and worship the gods of those nations; lest there should be among you a root that brings forth gall and wormwood; poison and bitterness: the consequences of practicing godworship.

19 So it may not come to pass, as that one hears the words of this curse, that he would congratulate and delude himself in his heart, and erroneously think: I will be secure, even though I persist in going my own way—so that the watered will be swept away with the dry; that destruction would annihilate the whole congregation, through the sinfulness of individual members here and there.

20 Yahweh will never be willing to spare him, for Yahweh shall break forth in a destructive fire, and His jealousy will burn against that man! All the curses written in this Book will fall upon him, and Yahweh will blot out his name from under heaven.

21 Yahweh will single him out from all the tribes of Israyl for disaster, according to all the curses of the covenant that are written in this Book of the Law.

22 Then, the children who come after you in later generations, and the strangers who come from distant lands, will see the destruction which has fallen upon the land, and the diseases which Yahweh has laid upon it.

23 The whole land will be salt and burning brimstone: sulfur—not planted, not producing, nor does any vegetation grow there. It will be like the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah, of Admah and Zeboiyim, which Yahweh overthrew in His anger and wrath.

24 And all these nations will ask: Why has Yahweh done this to this land? What does the heat of this great anger mean?

25 Then the answer will be: Because they have forsaken the covenant of Yahweh, the Father of their fathers; the covenant which He made with them when He brought them out of Egypt.

26 They went off and served gods—gods they did not know, gods which Yahweh never gave to them—and bowed down in worship to them.

27 Therefore, Yahweh's anger burned against this land, and He brought upon it every curse that is written in this Book.

28 In anger, in wrath, and in great indignation, Yahweh uprooted them from their land and thrust them into another land, as it is this day.

29 The secret things belong to Yahweh our Father, but the things revealed to us; every word that proceeds from Yahweh's mouth, belongs to us and to our children forever, so that we may perform and do all the words of this Law.

CHAP. 30

When all these things come upon you; the blessings and the curses I have set in front of you—wherever Yahweh your Father may disperse you among the nations—then recall these things in your memory;

2 And when you and your children return to Yahweh your Father, and obey Him with all your heart and with all your soul, just as I have commanded you to do this day,

3 Then Yahweh will bring you back from captivity, and have compassion upon you, and gather you again from all the nations where He scattered you.

4 If you are driven out even to the farthest land on earth, from there Yahweh your Father will gather you, and from there He will bring you;

5 Yahweh your Father will bring you to the land that belonged to your fathers, and then you will possess it. He will make you more wealthy and numerous than your fathers.

6 Yahweh your Father will circumcise your hearts, and the hearts of your descendants, so that you may love Him with all your heart and with all your soul, and live.

7 Then Yahweh your Father will put all these curses upon your enemies, and upon those who hated and persecuted you.

8 You will again obey Yahweh, and follow all His commandments which I command you this day.

9 Yahweh your Father will make you bountifully blessed in all the work of your hands, in the fruit of your bodies, in the increase of your livestock, and in the produce of your land. Yahweh will again rejoice over you, and make you wealthy, just as He rejoiced over your fathers;

10 If you obey Yahweh your Father, to keep His commandments and His statutes which are written in this Book of the Law; if you turn to Yahweh your Father with all your heart and with all your soul.

11 For this commandment which I command you this day is not too difficult for you, nor is it beyond your reach.

12 It is not up in heaven, so that you have to ask: Who will ascend up into heaven for us, and bring it to us, so that we may hear it and then do it?

13 Nor is it beyond the sea, so that you have to ask: Who will cross the sea, and bring it to us, so that we may hear it and then do it?

14 The word is very near you: it is in your mouth and in your heart, so you may obey it.

15 See, I have set before you this day life and righteousness, and death and destruction.

16 But I command you this day to love Yahweh your Father, to walk in all His ways, and to keep His commandments, His statutes, and His judgments, so that you may live and multiply, and so Yahweh your Father may bless you in the land which you go in to possess.

17 But if your heart turns away, and you are not obedient, and you are drawn away to bow down and worship gods, and serve them;

18 I declare to you this day that you will surely perish: you will not prolong your days in the land which you cross over the Yordan to possess.

19 I call heaven and earth as witnesses against you this day, that I have set before you life and death, blessings and curses. Because you are free agents to make your own choice between righteousness and evil—therefore choose life, so both you and your children may live;

20 So you may love Yahweh your Father, by listening to Him, and then obeying Him. Hold fast to Him, for He is your life. He will also give you many years in the land He vowed to give to your fathers; to Abraham, Isaac, and Yaaqob.

CHAP. 31

Then Mosheh went and spoke these words to all Israyl;

2 And he said to them: I am one hundred and twenty years old this day. I can no longer go out and come in; attend to public office, for Yahweh has said to me: You must not cross over this Yordan.

3 Yahweh your Father Himself crosses over in front of you. He will destroy these nations from in front of you, and you shall take possession of their land. Yahshua ben Nun will also cross over ahead of you, just as Yahweh has said.

4 And Yahweh will do to them as He did to Sihon and Og; the kings of the Amorites, and to their land, when He destroyed them.

5 Yahweh will deliver them over to you, and you must do to them all that I have commanded you; cherem, utterly destroy them.

6 Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid of them, nor be terrified because of them, for Yahweh your Father goes with you; He will never leave you nor forsake you.

7 Then Mosheh summoned Yahshua, and spoke to him in the sight of all Israyl: Be strong and courageous, for you must go with this people into the land Yahweh has vowed on oath to give to their forefathers; and you must divide it among them for their inheritance.

8 Yahweh Himself goes in front of you, and will be with you. He will never leave you nor forsake you. Do not be afraid, neither be discouraged.

9 So Mosheh wrote down this Law, and gave it to the priests, the sons of Levi, who carried the ark of the covenant of Yahweh, and to all the elders of Israyl.

10 Then Mosheh commanded them, saying: At the end of every seven years, in the set time of the year of release; at the appointed time for canceling debts, at the Feast of Tabernacles;

11 When all Israyl comes to appear in front of Yahweh your Father in the place He shall choose, you must read this Law before all Israyl, in their hearing.

12 Gather the people together—men, women, children, and the strangers within your cities—so they may listen, and so they may learn to give reverence to Yahweh your Father, and to carefully observe and do all the words of this Law.

13 In this same way, their children, who do not know this Law, may listen to it, and learn to revere Yahweh your Father as long as you live in the land which you cross the Yordan to possess.

14 And Yahweh said to Mosheh: Behold, the day of your death approaches. Summon Yahshua, and both of you present yourselves at the Tent of Meeting, where I will appoint him to the office of leader. So Mosheh and Yahshua came, and presented themselves at the Tent of Meeting.

15 Then Yahweh appeared at the Tent in a pillar of cloud, and the cloud stood over the entrance to the Tent.

16 And Yahweh said to Mosheh: Behold, you are going to rest with your fathers, and these people will soon prostitute themselves to the gods of the land which they are entering; they will forsake Me, and break the covenant which I made with them.

17 On that day I will become angry with them, and I will forsake them. I will hide My face from them, and they will be devoured. Many evils and troubles will then befall them, and on that day they will ask: Have not these disasters come upon us because our Father is not with us?

18 And I will surely hide My face in that day, because of all the evil they have done by turning to hinder gods.

19 Now write down for yourselves this song; teach it to the children of Israyl, and have them sing it, in order that it may be a witness for Me against them.

20 For when I have brought them to the land flowing with milk and honey, the land I which vowed on oath to their forefathers, and they have eaten to the full and grown fat, then they will turn to gods and worship them—breaking My covenant and provoking Me.

21 Then, when many disasters and troubles have come upon them, this song will testify against them like a witness; for it will not be forgotten by their descendants. I know what they are disposed to do; their evil passions and tendencies, even before I bring them into the land which I promised them on oath.

22 So Mosheh wrote down this song that day, and taught it to the children of Israyl.

23 Then Yahweh appointed Yahshua ben Nun to the office of leader, and said; Be strong and courageous, for you shall bring the children of Israyl into the land I vowed on oath to them, and I Myself will be with you.

24 When Mosheh had completed writing the words of this Law in a Book, from beginning to end;

25 He gave command to the Levites who bore the ark of the covenant of Yahweh, saying;

26 Take this Book of the Law, and put it beside the ark of the covenant of Yahweh your Father, so it may be there as a witness against you;

27 For I know how rebellious and stiff-necked you are. If you have been rebellious against Yahweh this day, while I am yet alive with you, then how much more will you rebel after my death?

28 Gather in front of me all the elders of your tribes, and your officers, so I can speak these words in their hearing, and call heaven and earth to witness against them.

29 For I know that after my death you will become utterly corrupt, and you will turn from the way I have commanded you. Evil will befall you in the latter days, because you will do evil in the sight of Yahweh, and provoke Him to anger because of what your hands have made.

30 Then Mosheh recited the words of this song in the hearing of all the congregation of Israyl, from beginning to end:

CHAP. 32

Listen, O heavens, and I will speak. Hear, O earth, the words of my mouth.

2 Let my teaching fall like rain. Let my words descend like dew. Let them fall like showers on the new grass; like abundant rain on plants.

3 For I will proclaim Yahweh's great Name! Praise the greatness of Yahweh!

4 He is The Rock. His works are perfect; Yahweh's ways are justice indeed! He is the Father of truth, and does no wrong. Upright and Just is He.

5 Corruptly they behave toward Him; to their shame they are no longer His children, but a warped and crooked generation.

6 Do you repay Yahweh this way, O foolish and unwise people? Is He not the Father of you? Is not He the Creator of you, Who made and formed you?

7 Remember all the days of old; think of the generations long past. Ask your father and he will tell you; ask your elders, and they will explain:

8 When Yahweh gave the nations their inheritance, when He divided all mankind, He set boundaries for the people according to the number of the sons of Israyl.

9 Yahweh's Portion is His people, Yaaqob is His allotted inheritance.

10 He found him in a desert land; in a waste and howling wilderness. Yahweh led him and instructed him; He guarded him as the apple of His eye,

11 As the eagle stirs up her nest, as she flutters over her young, spreading her wings to catch them, taking her young and holding them up;

12 So Yahweh Alone did lead him, and no god at all was with him.

13 Yahweh made Yaaqob ride on the high places of the earth, so he might eat the increase of the fields; and suck honey from the rock, and suck oil from the flinty rock;

14 With butter and milk from herd and flock, fattened lambs, and Bashan rams, the fattest goats and the finest kernels of wheat; and you drank the pure blood of the grape.

15 But Yeshurun grew fat and kicked; you are waxed fat and grown thick, with this thickness you are covered. He then forsook great Yahweh. He lightly esteemed The Rock his Savior.

16 They provoked Yahweh to jealousy with their gods; they provoked Him to anger with this abomination.

17 They sacrificed to demons, which are not of Yahweh. to gods they did not know; to gods newly come up, to gods your fathers did not worship.

18 You are unmindful of, and you forgot, The Rock that begot you; our Father Who formed you.

19 When Yahweh saw them, He abhorred them, because His sons and daughters provoked Him.

20 And He said; I will hide My face from them; I will see what their end shall be, for they are a perverse generation; children in whom is no faith.

21 They provoked Me to jealousy by that which has no power; they provoked Me to anger with their worthless gods. I will make them jealous by those who are not a people; I will provoke them to anger by a people that has no understanding.

22 My anger has kindled a fire; it will burn to the grave below. It will consume all the earth with all its harvests, and set afire the foundations of the mountains; governments of this world.

23 I will heap destruction upon them; I will spend My arrows against them.

24 They shall then be burnt with hunger, and devoured with burning heat; consuming pestilence and deadly plague. I will send against them the teeth of the wild animals, and the poison of the serpents of the dust.

25 The sword without, and the terror within, shall destroy the young man and the virgin; the suckling, with the man who has grey hair.

26 I said that I would scatter them, and make their remembrance cease from among men,

27 But I dreaded the taunts of the enemy; because the adversary would misunderstand, and say: Our hand has triumphed, and Yahweh has not done a!l this!

28 They are a nation without sense; they have no understanding.

29 Oh, that this nation were wise! Oh, that they would understand this! Oh, that they could discern what their latter end will be!

30 How can one man chase one thousand, unless their Rock had sold them? And two put ten thousand to flight, unless Yahweh had delivered them up?

31 For their rock is not as our Rock! Our enemies have even conceded this!

32 For their vines are vines of Sodom and from the fields of Gomorrah. Their grapes are the grapes of gall; poison of godworship, their clusters are filled with bitterness; bitterness of idolatry: godworship.

33 Their wine is the dragon's poison, and the cruel venom of asps.

34 Is not this laid in the storehouse with Me, sealed up among My treasures?

35 Vengeance and recompense is Mine! Their foot shall slip in due time. Their day of disaster is near: The Day shall be at hand, and their doom rushes upon them.

36 For Yahweh will judge His people, and have compassion upon His servants; when He sees their power is gone, and no one is left, bond or free.

37 Then He will ask: Where are your gods, your rock in whom you trusted?

38 Where are your gods, who ate of your sacrifices, and drank the wine of your drink offerings? Let your gods rise up and help you! Let them be your protection!

39 See that I, ONLY I, AM HE, and there is NO GOD WITH ME! Me, I kill, and I make alive! I wound, and I heal! Neither is there any that can deliver out of My hand!

40 I lift My hand to heaven, and declare: As surely as I live forever,

41 When I sharpen My flashing sword; when My hand takes hold of judgment; I will take vengeance upon My foes! I will reward those who hate Me!

42 I will make My arrows drunk with blood, and My sword will devour flesh; of the slain and of the captives, with the beginning of revenge upon the enemy.

43 Rejoice, O nations, with His people. Rejoice, O heavens, with Him, and let all His malakim worship Him! He is the Avenger-of-Blood for His servants. Yahweh will judge and execute vengeance on His enemies, and make atonement for His land and His people.

44 So Mosheh came with Yahshua ben Nun, and recited all the words of this song in the hearing of the people.

45 And When Mosheh finished speaking all these words to all Israyl,

46 He said to them: Take to heart all the words I have testified among you this day, so that you may command your children to carefully observe and do all the words of this Law.

47 These are not just idle words for you—these words mean life to you; and by them you shall prolong your days in the land, which you cross the Yarden to possess.

48 And Yahweh spoke to Mosheh that very same day, saying:

49 Go up into the Abarim Range, to Mount Nebo in Moab, across from Yericho, to view Canaan, the land which I am giving to the children of Israyl as their own possession.

50 There, on the mountain which you will have climbed, you will die and be gathered to your people, just as your brother Aaron died on Mount Hor, and was gathered to his people.

51 You will die on this side of the Yarden because both of you broke faith with Me, trespassing against Me in the presence of the children of Israyl, at the waters of Meribah Kadesh in the Wilderness of Zin, because you did not hallow Me, and uphold My holiness in the midst of the children of Israyl.

52 Therefore, you will see the land only from a distance, but you will not enter the land which I am giving to the children of Israyl.

CHAP. 33

And this is the blessing that Mosheh, the man of Yahweh, pronounced upon the children of Israyl before his death,

2 And he said: Yahweh came from Sinai, and dawned over them from Seir; He shone forth from Mount Paran, and He came with ten thousands of holy ones. From His right hand came a fiery Law for them.

3 Surely it is You who love the people; all the holy ones are in Your hand. At Your feet they all bow down, and from You they receive instruction:

4 By the Law that Mosheh gave us; the possession of the congregation of Yaaqob.

5 He was king over Yeshurun, when the leaders of the people were gathered, all the tribes of Israyl together.

6 Let Reuben live, and not die; but let his men be few.

7 And this Mosheh said about Yahdah: Hear, Oh Yahweh, the cry of Yahdah; bring him to his people. With his own hands he defends his cause, but may You help against his enemies.

8 And about Levi he said: Your Thummin and Urim belong to the tribe You most honored. You tested him at Massah; You contended with him at the waters of Meribah.

9 He said of his father and mother; I have no regard for them. He did not acknowledge his brothers, nor recognize his own children, but he watched over Your word, and guarded Your covenant.

10 He teaches Your judgments to Yaaqob, and Your Law to Israyl. He offers incense in front of You, and whole burnt offerings on Your altar.

11 Bless his skills; the efficient performance of his duties. O Yahweh, and be pleased with the work of his hands. Strike down the strength of those who rise up against him; opposed to his priestly prerogatives, strike his enemies, until they rise up no more.

12 About Benjamin, he said: The beloved of Yahweh shall live in safety in Him, for He shields him all the day long. The one Yahweh loves, rests between His shoulders.

13 About Yahseph, Mosheh said: May Yahweh bless his land, with the precious dew from heaven above, and with the deep waters lying beneath;

14 With the best the sun brings forth, and the finest the moon can yield;

15 With the choicest gifts of the ancient mountians, and the fruitfulness of the everlasting hills;

16 With the best gifts of the earth and its fullness, and the honor of Him Who lived in the burning bush. May these rest on the head of Yahseph, on the crown of the head of the one set apart; consecrated to a specific task, from his brothers.

17 In majesty he is like the firstborn bull; his horns are like the horns of the wild ox. With them, he will gore the nations, even those at the ends of the earth. They are the ten thousands of Ephraim, and they are the thousands of Menasheh.

18 And of Zebulun, Mosheh said: Rejoice, Zebulun, in your going out; and you, Issachar, in your tents.

19 They will call the people to the mountain, and there offer sacrifices of righteousness; they will feast on the abundance of the seas, on the treasures hidden in the sand.

20 And of Gad, he said: Blessed is he who enlarges Gad; Gad lives there like a lion, tearing at the arm, and the crown of the head.

21 He chose the best land for himself; the leader's portion was kept for him. When the heads of the people were gathered, he carried out Yahweh's righteous will, and His judgments concerning Israyl.

22 About Dan, he said: Dan is a lion's whelp, he shall spring from Bashan.

23 And of Naphtali, he said: Naphtali is satisfied with honor, and full of the blessing of Yahweh; he will inherit southward to the lake.

24 And of Asher, Mosheh said: Most blessed of sons is Asher; let him be honored by his brothers, and let him dip his feet in oil.

25 The latches of your gates will be iron and bronze, and your strength shall be as your days.

26 There is no One like the Father of Yeshurun, Who rides the heavens to help you, and on the clouds in His majesty.

27 The Everliving Father is your refuge, and underneath are the everlasting arms. He will thrust out the enemy from in front of you, and will say: Destroy!

28 Then Israyl will live in safety alone; Yaaqob's spring is secure in a land of grain and new wine, where the heavens drop dew.

29 Blessed are you, O Israyl! Who is like you, a people saved by Yahweh? He is your Shield of Help, and your Majestic Sword. Your enemies will cringe in front of you, and you will trample down their high places.

CHAP. 34

Then Mosheh went up from the plains of Moab, climbing Mount Nebo to the top of Pisgah, across from Jericho. From there, Yahweh showed him all the land—from Gilead to Dan:

2 All of Naphtali, the territory of Ephraim and Menasheh, all the land of Yahdah as far as the Western Sea; the Mediterranean.

3 The Negev, and the whole region from the plain of the Valley of Jericho, the city of palm trees, as far as Zoar.

4 Then Yahweh said to him: This is the land which I promised on oath to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Yaaqob, when I said: I will give it to your descendants. I have caused your eye to behold this land, but you will not cross over there.

5 So Mosheh, the servant of Yahweh, died there in the land of Moab, just as Yahweh had said.

6 And He buried him in the land of Moab, in the valley opposite Beth Peor, but no one knows where his grave is to this day.

7 Mosheh was one hundred and twenty years old when he died. His eyes were not dim, nor had his natural force and vigor abated.

8 And the children of Israyl wept, and mourned for Mosheh in the plains of Moab for thirty days, until the time of weeping and mourning was over.

9 Now Yahshua ben Nun was filled with the Spirit of wisdom, for Mosheh had laid his hands upon him, endowing him with a portion of his spirit and appointing him in his office. So the children of Israyl listened to him, and did as Yahweh had commanded Mosheh.

10 Since then, there has not arisen in Israyl a prophet like Mosheh, whom Yahweh knew face to face, 11 Who did all those miraculous signs and wonders Yahweh sent him to do in Egypt—to Pharaoh, to all his officials, and to his whole land.

12 No one has since shown the mighty power, or has performed the miraculous signs and wonders that Yahweh sent him to perform in the sight of all Israyl.

YAHSHUA

YAHSHUA BEN NUN Yahshua Son Of Nun

After the death of Mosheh the servant of Yahweh, Yahweh spoke to •Yahshua ben Nun, Mosheh's assistant, saying:

2 Mosheh My servant is dead; proceed now to cross the Yordan at once—you and all of these people—to the land I am giving them, the children of Israyl.

3 Every place you set the bottom of your foot, I will give you just as I promised to Mosheh.

4 From the wilderness, and from Lebanon to the great river, the Euphrates River—all the Hittite country—and to the Great Sea on the west; the Mediterranean, shall be your territory.

5 No man will be able to stand his ground in front of you all the days of your life. Just as I was with Mosheh, so I will be with you. I will never leave you nor forsake you.

6 Be strong and courageous, for you will lead these people and enable this people to inherit the land that I promised on oath to their forefathers to give them.

7 Only be very strong and courageous. Be careful to obey and to observe and do all the law which Mosheh My servant gave you. Do not turn from it to the right hand or to the left, in order that you may succeed wherever you go.

8 This Book of the Law must never be missing from your mouth, and you must meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful to observe and do all that is written in it. For then your way will be blessed, and then you will be greatly successful.

9 Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous! Do not be frightened or become discouraged, for Yahweh your Father is with you wherever you go.

10 Then Yahshua ordered the officers of the people, saying:

11 Go throughout the camp and give this order to the people: Prepare supplies for yourselves, for within three days you will cross this Yordan to go in and take possession of the land Yahweh your Father is giving you.

12 Then to the tribes of Reuben and Gad, and to the half-tribe of Menasheh, Yahshua said:

13 Remember the command that Mosheh the servant of Yahweh gave you; Yahweh your ● Erroneously translated, JOSHUA or JOSHUA SON OF NUN in most modern translations. Throughout this Book, reference to YAHSHUA or YAHSHUA BEN NUN will refer to Mosheh's assistant and lieutenant who led the children of Israyl across the Yordan River to possess the Promised Land.

Father is now giving you rest, and is granting you this land on the east side of the Yordan.

14 Your wives, your children, and your livestock will remain in the land Mosheh gave you on the east side of the Yordan, but all your armed fighting men must cross over ahead of your brothers. You are to help your brothers.

15 Until Yahweh has also given your brothers rest, as He has given you, and they also take possession of the land Yahweh your Father is giving them. Then you may return to your own land possession on the east side of the Yordan, and enjoy it.

16 Then they answered Yahshua, and said; Whatever you have commanded us we will do, and wherever you send us we will go.

17 Just as we fully obeyed Mosheh in all things, so we will fully obey you. Only may Yahweh your Father be with you, as He was with Mosheh.

18 Whoever rebels, or disputes against your word, or who does not obey all that you command, will be put to death. Only be strong and courageous.

CHAP. 2

Then Yahshua ben Nun quietly and secretly sent two spies from Shittim, meaning Acacia Grove, saying; Go and have a look at the land—and Yericho. So they set out, and the two men came to Yericho and entered the house of a prostitute named Rachab, and lodged there.

2 Then, this was told to the king of Yericho: Men have come here tonight from the children of Israyl to spy on and explore the land.

3 So the king of Yericho sent this message to Rachab: Bring out the men who have come to you and have entered your house, because they have come to search out all the country.

4 Then the woman took the two men and hid them, but she told the king's messengers; Yes, the men came to me, but I did not know where they came from.

5 Then at dusk, as the gate was about to be closed, the men went out. But I don't know where they went. Pursue them quickly! You may overtake them!

6 (But she had shown them to the roof and hidden them under the stalks of flax she had laid out on her roof.)

7 So the men chased after them on the road that leads to the fords of the Yordan. As soon as the pursuers had gone out, the gate was shut.

8 But before the spies lay down for the night, she came up to them on the roof.

9 And said to the men: I know that Yahweh has given you this land. The dread of you has fallen upon us, so that all who live in this country are growing faint because of you.

10 We have heard how Yahweh dried up the water of the Red Sea for you when you came out of Egypt, and what He did to the two kings of the Amorites on the other side of the Yordan, Sihon and Og, whom you utterly destroyed; cherem.

11 As soon as we heard, our hearts melted. Everyone's courage failed because of you, for Yahweh your Father. He is the Mighty One in the heaven above, and in the earth beneath.

12 Vow an oath to me with the Name of Yahweh, that you will show mercy to my father's house because I have shown mercy to you. Then give me a true sign of this.

13 Spare the lives of my father's house—my father and mother, my brothers and sisters, and all who belong to them—that you will save us from death.

14 Then the men answered her: Our lives in exchange for the lives of you and your father's house. If you do not betray us and our commission, then, when Yahweh gives us the land, we will treat you mercifully and faithfully.

15 Then she let them down by a rope through the window, for her house was between the double walls, and she was living in the wall-system.

16 She had said to them: Head for the hills, so the pursuers will not find you. Hide there for three days, until the pursuers have returned. After that, you can be on your way.

17 The men had said to her: This oath you made us vow will not be binding on us, and we will be guiltless;

18 Unless, when we enter the land, you have tied this scarlet cord, as a sign, in the window through which you have lowered us, and then also gathered your father and mother, your brothers and sisters, and all your father's household into your own home.

19 If anyone goes outside the doors of your house into the street, his blood will be on his own head; then we will not be guilty of breaking this vow. As for anyone who is with you in the house, his blood will be on our own heads if a hand is laid upon him.

20 But, if you betray us, or tell anyone of our commission, then we will be released from the oath you made us vow.

21 Then she said: Whatever you say is the way it will be. She then sent them on their way, and they left. Afterward, she tied the scarlet cord in that window.

22 When they left, they went into the hills and stayed there three days, until the pursuers returned. They searched all along the way, but did not find them.

23 Then the two men started back. They came down from the hills, crossed over the river, and returned to Yahshua ben Nun. They reported to him all that had befallen them.

24 They said to Yahshua; Yahweh surely has given the whole land into our hands. All the inhabitants there are fainting in fear because of us.

CHAP. 3

Yahshua rose early in the morning and set out from Shittim; Acacia Grove, and came to the east side of the Yordan. He and all the children of Israyl encamped there before they crossed over.

2 After three days the officers moved throughout the camp.

3 And gave orders to the people, saying: When you see the ark of the covenant of Yahweh your Father, and the priests, the Levites, carrying it, then you shall set out from your position and follow.

4 Be very sure there is a distance of about two thousand cubits; approximately 1000 yards or 3000 feet, between you and the ark the priests will be carrying. Do not go near it! Only follow it so you may know the route you are to take, for you have not been this way before.

5 Then Yahshua told the people: Sanctify and consecrate yourselves, and be ritually ready for tomorrow, for Yahweh will perform wonders in your midst.

6 Then Yahshua spoke to the priests, and said: Take up the ark of the covenant, and cross over in front of the people. So they took up the ark of the covenant and went ahead of the people.

7 Yahweh said to Yahshua: This day I will begin to magnify you in the eyes of all the children of Israyl, so they may know that I am with you, just as I was with Mosheh.

8 You shall give orders to the priests who carry the ark, and say: When you come to the edge of the waters of the Yordan, go in and stand still in the river.

9 Then Yahshua said to the children of Israyl: Come here, and hear the words of Yahweh your Father.

10 And Yahshua said: By this you will know that the living Father is among you: Without fail He will drive out before you the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Hivites, the Perizzites, the Girgashites, the Amorites, and the Yebusites.

11 Behold! The ark of the covenant of the Creator of all the earth is crossing over in front of you into the Yarden.

12 Choose now twelve men from the tribes of Israyl, one man from each tribe.

13 As soon as the priests who carry the ark of Yahweh, Creator of all the earth, set foot in the waters of the Yarden, the water flowing downstream will be cut off and stand up in a heap.

14 And so it was, when the people broke camp to cross the Yarden, the priests carrying the ark of the covenant went ahead in front of them.

15 When those carrying the ark came to the Yarden, and the feet of the priests who carried the ark set foot in the edge of the water (for the Yarden overflows all its banks during the whole time of harvest in the springtime);

16 The water from upstream stopped flowing. It piled up in a heap a great distance away, at a city called Adam which is beside Zaretan, while the water flowing down to the Sea of the Arabah, the Salt Sea; the Dead Sea, was entirely shut off. So the people crossed over opposite Yericho.

17 The priests who carried the ark of the covenant of Yahweh stood firmly on dry ground in the middle of the Yarden; and all the children of Israyl crossed on dry ground, until the entire nation had crossed the Yarden.

CHAP. 4

When the whole nation had finished crossing the Yarden, Yahweh then said to Yahshua;

2 Choose twelve men from the people, one from each tribe.

3 And command them, saying; Take twelve stones from the middle of the Yarden, from the place where the priests stood firmly, and carry them over with you, and put them down at the place you will encamp tonight.

4 Then Yahshua summoned together the twelve men he had appointed from the children of Israyl, one from each tribe;

5 And said to them; Move out in front of the ark of Yahweh your Father, to the middle of the Yarden. Each of you lift one stone to his shoulder, according to the number of the tribes of the children of Israyl.

6 So this may serve as a sign among you. When your children ask you in the future; What do these stones mean?

7 Then you shall explain to your children that the waters of the Yarden were cut off in front of the ark of the covenant of Yahweh when it crossed over the Yarden. In this way, these stones will be an everlasting memorial remembrance to the children of Israyl.

8 And the children of Israyl did exactly as Yahweh commanded Yahshua. They lifted twelve stones from the middle of the Yarden, as Yahweh had instructed Yahshua, according to the number of the tribes of the children of Israyl, and carried them over with them to the place where they encamped; there they laid them down.

9 Yahshua ben Nun had set up twelve other stones in the middle of the Yarden, where the feet of the priests who carried the ark of the covenant of Yahweh had stood. They are there to this very day.

10 So the priests who carried the ark continued standing in the middle of the Yarden until everything Yahweh had commanded Yahshua was done by the people, and the people hurried and crossed over.

11 When all the people had completely crossed over, then the ark of Yahweh and the priests carrying it crossed over in the presence of the people.

12 The men of Reuben, the men of Gad, and the men of the half-tribe of Menasheh crossed over armed for battle in front of the children of Israyl, just as Mosheh had instructed them.

13 About forty thousand armed for war crossed over in front of Yahweh to the plains of Yericho, for the battle.

14 On that day, Yahweh magnified Yahshua in the sight of all Israyl. Then they respected him, just as they had respected Mosheh, all the days of his life.

15 Yahweh spoke to Yahshua, saying;

16 Command the priest carrying the ark of the Testimony to come up from the Yarden.

17 Therefore, Yahshua commanded the priests, saying; Come up from the Yarden!

18 And the priest came up out of the river carrying the ark of the covenant of Yahweh. Just as the soles of their feet touched dry land, the waters of the Yarden returned to their place and flowed over all its banks as before.

19 The people came up out of the Yarden on the Tenth Day of the First Moon, and encamped in Gilgal; meaning, Circle, or Roll, on the eastern border of Yericho.

20 Those twelve stones, which they had taken from the Yarden, Yahshua set up in Gilgal.

21 Yahshua said to the children of Israyl; In the future, when your children ask their fathers; What do these stones mean?

22 Then you shall teach your children; Israyl crossed over this Yarden on dry ground;

23 For Yahweh your Father dried up the waters of the Yarden in front of you until you had crossed over, just as Yahweh your Father did to the Red Sea, when He dried it up in front of us until we had crossed over.

24 He did this so that all the peoples of the earth might know that the hand of Yahweh is Powerful, and so that you might revere Yahweh your Father forever.

There have been three days of preparation for crossing the Yarden (1:1-3:4). There will follow three more days of preparation before the sacrifice of the passover lamb on the Fourteenth Day of the First Moon on the fourth day after crossing the Yarden (5:10-12).

CHAP. 5

When all the kings of the Amorites, who were on the west side of the Yordan, and all the kings of the Canaanites, along the seacoast, heard that Yahweh had dried up the waters of the Yordan from in front of the children of Israyl, until we had crossed over: their hearts melted and there was no longer any courage in them to face the children of Israyl.

2 At that time Yahweh said to Yahshua: Make flint knives for yourself, and circumcise the sons of Israyl the second time.

3 So Yahshua made flint knives for himself, and circumcised the sons of Israyl at Gibeah Haaraloth, meaning, Hill of the Foreskins.

4 This is the reason Yahshua circumcised them: All the males who came out of Egypt; the fighting men, had died in the wilderness along the route since leaving Egypt.

5 All the males who came out had been circumcised, but all the males who were born in the wilderness along the route as they came out, had not been circumcised.

6 The children of Israyl had walked forty years in the wilderness, until all those men of war who had come out of Egypt were dead, for they had not obeyed Yahweh. For Yahweh had vowed to them that they would not see the land He had promised to their forefathers to give us, a land flowing with milk and honey.

7 But their sons Yahweh raised up in their place. These were the ones Yahshua circumcised. They were still uncircumcised, because they had not been circumcised along the way.

8 When they had finished circumcising all the nation, they stayed in the camp until they were healed.

9 Then Yahweh said to Yahshua; This day I have rolled away the reproach of Egypt from you. So the place has been called Gilgal; Circle or Roll, to this day.

10 So the children of Israyl encamped in Gilgal, and ● sacrificed the Passover on the Fourteenth Day of the First Moon ● at evening, on the plains of Yericho.

11 And they did eat of the ● offering of the land on the ● morrow after the the Passover lamb was sacrificed—unleavened bread and parched grain on the very same day.

12 The manna ceased after that. When they ate from the land's produce, there was no more manna for the children of Israyl. They ate from the crops of the land of Canaan that year.

● Erroneously translated KEPT in most modern translations. ● Between around 3:00 in the afternoon and sunset. ● Erroneously translated 'OLD GRAIN' in most translations. The Hebrew word is ABUR and properly means: PRODUCE or OFFERING of the land.

● The FIRST MEAL of the Feast of Unleavened Bread is eaten right after sunset of the Fourteenth Day—which begins the Fifteenth Day of that Moon. The children of Israyl brought the WAVE SHEAF OFFERING to the priest right AT SUNSET ON...AND THE BEGINNING OF the Fifteenth Day (Leviticus 23:9-14). After they brought this offering, they could lawfully eat unleavened bread, which is definitely a commanded ordinance for keeping the Passover—and they most certainly DID EAT UNLEAVENED BREAD at that First Passover Meal in the Promised Land.

13 When Yahshua was near Yericho, he looked up and saw a man standing in front of him with a drawn sword in his hand. Yahshua walked toward him and said to him; Do you belong to us or to our enemies?

14 He said to him; Neither one! As commander of Yahweh's army, I have now arrived! Then Yahshua fell face downward to the earth in homage, and asked him; What has your servant been commanded?

15 The commander of Yahweh's army said to Yahshua; Take the sandals from your feet, for the place where you stand is holy. And Yahshua did so.

CHAP. 6

Yericho was shut up securely because of the children of Israyl. No one went out and no one came in.

2 Yahweh said to Yahshua: Behold! I have given Yericho into your hand, along with its king and its fighting men.

3 You are to march around the city, all the fighting men going around the city once. You shall do this for six days.

4 Have seven priests each carry a ram's horn shofar in front of the ark. On the seventh day, march around the city seven times, with the priests blowing; teki'ah, extended, unbroken notes, on the shofarot.

5 When the priests sound a prolonged blast; mashak, on the rams' horns, and you hear the shofarot, all the people are to give a tremendous shout; then the wall of the city will collapse on the spot. All the people are then to go up, every man straight ahead.

6 So Yahshua ben Nun called the priests, and said to them; Take up the ark of the covenant, and let seven priests carry seven shofarot; rams' horns, in front of the ark of Yahweh.

7 Then he said to them: Command the people—Move out. March around the city, and let him who is armed advance in front of the ark of Yahweh.

8 When Yahshua had spoken, the seven priests, carrying the seven shofarot in front of Yahweh, advanced and blew the shofarot, then the ark of the covenant of Yahweh followed them.

9 The armed men went ahead of the priests who blew the shofarot, and the rear guard followed the ark. All this time the shofarot were sounding the teki'ah, long, extended notes.

10 Now Yahshua had commanded the people, and said: You are not to shout nor let your voice be heard. Not a word is to come from your mouth, until the day I command you; Shout! Then you all shall shout.

11 So he had the ark of Yahweh carried around the city, circling it one time. Then the people returned to camp and spent the night there.

12 So Yahshua rose early the next morning, and the priests lifted the ark of Yahweh.

13 Then seven priests carrying seven shofarot; rams' horns advanced in front of the ark of Yahweh while they continually blew the teki'ah, long, sustained notes. The armed men went in front of them, and the rear guard came after the ark of Yahweh, while the shofarot continued sounding.

14 The second day they marched around the city one time, and then returned to the camp. They did this six days in a row.

15 But on the seventh day they rose at day-break, and marched around the city seven times in the same manner, except on that day they circled the city seven times.

16 The seventh time around, when the priests sounded the shofarot, Yahshua commanded the people: Shout! Yahweh has given you the city!

17 The city and every living thing in it shall be devoted to Yahweh for destruction; cherem. Only Rachab the prostitute and all who are with her in her house shall live, because she hid the spies we sent, and did not betray them.

18 But you, by all means keep away from the devoted things, or you, also, will become devoted to destruction for taking them. If you take any devoted thing, you will also make the camp of Israyl liable to destruction, and bring trouble upon it.

19 But all the silver and gold, and articles of bronze and iron, are consecrated to Yahweh. They must come into the treasury of Yahweh.

20 So the people shouted when the shofarot sounded. When the people heard the sound of the shofarot, the people shouted with a tremendous shout, and the wall collapsed. Then the people went up into the city, every man straight in front of him, and they took the city.

21 They devoted the city to Yahweh; cherem, and destroyed every living thing in it with the edge of the sword—men, women, the young, the old, and all cattle, sheep, and donkeys.

22 But Yahshua had said to the two men who had explored the land; Go into the prostitute's house, and bring out the woman and all that she has, as you vowed an oath you would do.

23 Then the young men who had been spies went in and brought out Rachab, her father, mother, brothers, sisters, and all that she had. They brought out all her relatives and left them outside the camp of Israyl.

24 Then they burned the city and everything in it with fire. Only the silver and gold, and articles of bronze and iron were put into the treasury of The House of Yahweh.

25 Yahshua spared Rachab the prostitute, her father's household, and all the she had. She lives in Israyl to this day, because she hid the messengers whom Yahshua sent to explore Yericho, and did not betray them.

26 At that time Yahshua pronounced this solemn vow: Cursed will be the man in front of Yahweh who undertakes to rebuild the city of Yericho. With the life of his firstborn he shall lay its foundation, and with the life of his youngest he shall set up its gates.

27 So Yahweh was with Yahshua, and his fame spread throughout all the country.

CHAP. 7

But the children of Israyl committed a trespass in the devoted things. Achan son of Carmi, the son of Zimri, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Yahdah, took some of them. Then Yahweh's anger burned against all Israyl.

2 Yahshua sent some men to Ai, meaning, The Ruin, which is beside Beth Aven, meaning, House of Iniquity, on the east side of Bethel, meaning, House of God, and commanded them: Go up, and spy out the region. So the men went up and spied out Ai.

3 When they returned to Yahshua, they said; Do not sent out all the people; for about two or three thousand men can go up and defeat Ai. Do not weary all the people, for only a few men are there.

4 So, only about three thousand went up, but they were soundly defeated by the men of Ai.

5 The men of Ai chased them from in front of the gate, as far as Shebarim; the Quarries, killing thirty-six men on the slopes. At this, the hearts of the people melted and turned to water.

6 Then Yahshua tore his clothes, and fell face downward to the earth in front of the ark of Yahweh, remaining there until evening with dust on his head. The elders of Israyl did the same.

7 And Yahshua said; Alas! Father Yahweh, why did You bring this people over the Yordan at all? To give us into the hand of the Amorites? To destroy us? Oh, if we had only been satisfied to have lived on the other side of the Yordan!

8 O Yahweh, what can I say, now that Israyl has been routed by its enemies?

9 The Canaanites and the other people of the country will hear about this; then they will surround us and blot out our names from the earth. What will You do about Your Own great Name?

10 Then Yahweh said to Yahshua: Get up! Why are you lying on your face?

11 Israyl has sinned! They have transgressed the covenant I commanded them to keep. They have taken some of the devoted things. They have stolen; they have covered up the theft; they have put them with their own possessions.

12 This is why the children of Israyl are unable to stand before their enemies. They turn back in the face of their enemies because they themselves have become devoted; cherem, I will not be with you anymore unless you destroy whatever among you is devoted to destruction.

13 Get up and make the people ritually ready, telling them; Sanctify and consecrate yourselves for tomorrow; for this is what Yahweh, the Father of Israyl, says: That which is devoted is among you, O Israyl. You cannot stand against your enemies until you remove the things which are devoted from your midst.

14 In the morning you shall be summoned by tribes. The tribe which Yahweh designates shall then approach by clans. The clan which Yahweh designates shall then approach family by family. The family which Yahweh designates shall then come forward man by man.

15 The man who is caught with the devoted things shall be destroyed by fire, along with all that belongs to him. He has transgressed the covenant of Yahweh, and has committed an outrage in Israyl.

16 So Yahshua rose early the next morning and summoned Israyl by tribes. The tribe of Yahdah was designated for further investigation.

17 Then the clans of Yahdah came forward, and the clan of the Zerahites was designated. He had the clan of the Zerahites come forward by families, and the family of Zimri was designated.

18 Yahshua had the family of Zimri come forward, man by man, and Achan son of Carmi, the son of Zimri, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Yahdah, was designated.

19 Then Yahshua said to Achan; My son, glorify Yahweh, Father of Israyl, and give praise to Him. Make confession to Him, and tell me now what you have done. Do not hide it from me.

20 And Achan answered Yahshua, and said; Truly, I have sinned against Yahweh, the Father of Israyl, and this is what I have done:

21 When I saw in the plunder a beautiful robe from Shinar; Babylonia, two hundred shekels, that is, probably about 5 pounds, of silver, and a wedge of gold weighing fifty shekels, that is, probably about 1 1/4 pounds, I coveted them, so I took them. They are now hidden in the ground inside my tent, with the silver on the bottom.

22 So Yahshua sent messengers, and they ran to the tent. There they were, hidden in his tent, with the silver under it.

23 They took those devoted things from inside the tent, brought them to Yahshua and the children of Israyl, and spread them out in front of Yahweh.

24 Then Yahshua, and all Israyl with him, took Achan the son of Zerah, the silver, the robe, the wedge of gold, his wife, his sons, his daughters, his oxen, his donkeys, his sheep, his tent—everything that he had—and brought them to the Valley of Achor; Valley of Devastation.

25 Yahshua said: Why have you devastated us? Yahweh will devastate you this very day! Then all Israyl stoned him with stones, and after they had stoned the rest, they burned them.

26 Over Achan they heaped up a large pile of stones, which are still there to this day. In this way Yahweh relented from the fierceness of His anger. The name of that place has been called the Valley of Achor; Valley of Devastation, to this day.

CHAP. 8

Then Yahweh said to Yahshua: Do not be afraid. Do not be discouraged. Take all the men of war with you and go back to Ai. See! I have delivered into your hands the king of Ai, his people, his city, and his land.

2 You shall do to Ai and its king just as you did to Yericho and its king. Except this time you may carry off their plunder and livestock for yourselves. Set an ambush behind the city.

3 So, Yahshua and all the fighting men rose up to go to Ai. Yahshua chose thirty thousand of his best fighting men and sent them out at night.

4 He gave them these orders: You are to set an ambush behind the city. Do not go very far from it, but all of you be on the alert and ready.

5 I and all the people with me will approach the city. When they come out to fight against us, as they did the last time, we shall all flee from them.

6 They will pursue us until we have drawn them away from the city, for they will think to themselves; They are running away from us this time, just like they did before. When we flee from in front of them;

7 Then you shall rise from the ambush and seize the city, for Yahweh your Father will deliver it into your hand.

8 When you have seized the city, you are to set it on fire. According to the commandment of Yahweh you shall act. You have your orders.

9 Then Yahshua sent them out. They went to the place of ambush and waited between Bethel and Ai, on the west side of Ai, but Yahshua spent that night among the people.

10 Yahshua rose up early in the morning and mustered the men. He and the elders of Israyl went in front of the men toward Ai.

11 All the fighting men with him marched up until they arrived opposite the city. They set up camp north of Ai, with the valley between them and the city.

12 Yahshua had taken about five thousand men and set them in ambush between Bethel and Ai, to the west.

13 They stationed the fighting men with the main camp toward the north of the city, and the ambush to the west of it. Yahshua went out that night into the valley.

14 When the king of Ai saw this, he and all the men of the city hastily made preparations and went out to face Israyl in battle. He and all his people were at the assigned place facing the Arabah, but he did not know that an ambush had been set against him behind the city.

15 Yahshua and all Israyl let themselves be defeated in front of them, and they fled toward the wilderness.

16 All the men of Ai were called to pursue them. They pursued Yahshua and were drawn away from the city.

17 There was not a man remaining in Ai or Bethel who did not go out after Israyl. They left the city wide open while they chased Israyl.

18 Then Yahweh said to Yahshua; Point the sword in your hand toward Ai, for I am giving it into your power. So Yahshua pointed the sword in his hand toward the city.

19 As soon as Yahshua pointed his sword, the men from the ambush rose quickly from their position and rushed forward. They entered the city and seized it, and hurriedly set the city on fire.

20 When the men of Ai looked behind them, they saw their city going up in smoke. They were unable to flee either backward or forward when Israyl's fighting men, who had been fleeing into the wilderness, turned back upon them.

21 When Yahshua and all Israyl saw the ambush had taken the city, and that the city was going up in smoke, they turned back and struck down the men of Ai.

22 The men of the ambush also came out of the city against them, so they were caught in the middle, with the fighting men of Israyl surrounding them. Israyl struck them down. They let none of them survive or escape.

23 But they took the king of Ai alive, and brought him to Yahshua.

24 When Israyl had finished killing all the men of Ai in the fields and in the wilderness, where they had chased them, then all the fighting men of Israyl returned to Ai and killed those who were in it.

25 All the people of Ai who were killed that day, both men and women, numbered twelve thousand people.

26 For Yahshua did not draw back the hand that held out his sword until he had destroyed; cherem. all who lived in Ai.

27 But Israyl did carry off for themselves the livestock and the plunder of this city, just as Yahweh had instructed Yahshua.

28 So Yahshua burned Ai and made it a permanent heap of ruins, a desolation to this day.

29 And the king of Ai he hanged on a tree until evening. As soon as the sun went down, Yahshua commanded them to take his corpse down from the tree, throw it at the entrance of the gate to the city, and raise over it a great pile of stones, which remains to this day.

30 Then Yahshua built an altar to Yahweh, the Father of Israyl, on Mount Ebal, 31 Just as Mosheh the servant of Yahweh had commanded the children of Israyl, and as it is written in the Book of the Law of Mosheh—an altar of uncut stones, on which no iron tool had been used. On it they offered to Yahweh burnt offerings and sacrificed peace offerings.

32 And there, in the presence of the children of Israyl, he wrote on the stones a copy of the law which Mosheh had written for Israyl.

33 Then all Israyl—the stranger as well as he who was born among them, their elders, officers, and judges, were standing on both sides of the ark of the covenant of Yahweh, facing the Levite priests who carried it. Half of the people stood in front of Mount Gerizim, and the other half were in front of Mount Ebal, just as Mosheh the servant of Yahweh had formerly commanded them when he gave instructions to bless the people of Israyl.

34 Afterward, Yahshua read all the words of the law—the blessings and the curses—just as they are written in the Book of the Law.

35 There was not a word of all that Mosheh had commanded, that Yahshua did not read to the whole congregation of Israyl, including the women and children and the strangers who lived among them.

CHAP. 9

When all the kings on this side of the Yordan heard of these things; those in the hills, in the lowland, in all the coasts by the Great Sea; the Mediterranean, toward Lebanon—the Hittite, the Amorite, the Canaanite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Yebusite—

2 They gathered together in one accord to fight against Yahshua and Israyl.

3 However, when the inhabitants of Gibeon heard what Yahshua had done to Yericho and Ai,

4 They resorted to being crafty and deceitful; they went and pretended to be a delegation. Their donkeys they had loaded with worn-out sacks, and with old wineskins which were torn and mended.

5 They were wearing old clothing and their sandals were old and patched. The bread in their provisions was dry and moldy.

6 Then they went to Yahshua where he was encamped at Gilgal, and said to him and to the men of Israyl: We have come from a far country, so make a treaty with us.

7 The men of Israyl then said to the Hivites: But, it may also be that you live near us. How, then, can we make a treaty with you?

8 They said to Yahshua: We will be your servants. Then Yahshua said to them: Who are you? Where do you come from?

9 They answered him: Your servants have come from a very far country because of the fame of Yahweh your Father. For we have heard reports of Him—all that He did in Egypt.

10 And all that He did to the two kings of the Amorites beyond the Yordan—to Sihon king of Heshbon, and Og king of Bashan, who reigned in Ashtaroth.

11 Therefore, our elders and all the inhabitants of our country said to us: Take provisions with you for the journey and go meet them. Say to them: We are your servants. Now make a treaty with us.

12 This bread of ours was warm when we packed it at home on the day we set out to come to you. But look now, it is dry and moldy.

13 And these wineskins that we filled were new, but now see how cracked they are. And our clothes and sandals have become worn out by the very long journey.

14 Then the men of Israyl took some of their provisions, but the decision of Yahweh they did not ask.

15 Then Yahshua made a treaty of peace with them to guarantee their lives, and the leaders of the congregation vowed it by an oath.

16 Then, at the end of three days after they had made the treaty with them, they found out they were their neighbors who lived near them.

17 So the children of Israyl set out and on the third day came to their cities: Gibeon, Kephirah, Beeroth, and Kiryath Yearim.

18 But the children of Israyl did not attack them, because the leaders of the congregation had vowed an oath to them by Yahweh, the Father of Israyl. Then all the congregation murmured against the elders.

19 Then all the leaders said to all the congregation: We have vowed an oath to them by Yahweh, the Father of Israyl, and now we may not touch them.

20 But this we will do to them: We will let them live, so the wrath will not be upon us because we broke the oath we vowed to them.

21 They continued: Let them live, but let them be woodcutters and water carriers for the entire congregation, as the elders had promised them.

22 Then Yahshua summoned the Gibeonites, and said to them: Why have you deceived us by saying: We are very far from you, when in fact you live near us?

23 You are now under a curse. You will never be freed from being slaves, serving as woodcutters and water carriers for The House of Yahweh, my Father.

24 They answered Yahshua: It was emphatically made known to us, your servants, that Yahweh your Father commanded His servant Mosheh to give you all the land, and to completely destroy all the inhabitants from the land in front of you. We feared greatly for our lives, because of you, and so we did this thing.

25 Well, then, here we are in your power. Do with us as it seems proper and right for you to do.

26 So Yahshua did: he delivered them from the hands of the children of Israyl. They did not kill them.

27 That day Yahshua made them woodcutters and water carriers for the congregation, and for the altar of Yahweh, in the place which He would choose, and so they have remained even to this day.

CHAP. 10

When Adoni-Zedek king of Yerusaleem heard how Yahshua had seized Ai and had utterly destroyed it: cherem—doing to Ai and its king as he had done to Yericho and its king—and that the people of Gibeon had made a treaty of peace with Israyl and were living near them:

2 They became very much afraid, because Gibeon was an important city, like one of the royal cities. It was larger than Ai, and all its men were fighters.

3 So, Adoni-Zedek king of Yerusaleem sent to Hoham king of Hebron, Piram king of Yarmuth, Yaphia king of Lachish and Debir king of Eglon, and said to them:

4 Come up and help me attack Gibeon, because it has made peace with Yahshua and the children of Israyl.

5 Therefore, these five western kings—the king of Yerusaleem, the king of Hebron, the king of Yarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon, joined forces. They moved up with all their armies and took up positions against Gibeon and attacked it.

6 Then men of Gibeon sent to Yahshua encamped at Gilgal, saying: Do not forsake your servants. Come up to us quickly and save us! Help us, because these western kings from the hill country have joined forces against us.

7 So Yahshua went up from Gilgal, he and all the men of war, including his best fighting men.

8 Yahweh said to Yahshua: Do not be afraid of them. I have given them into your power, and not a man of them will stand against you.

9 And after having marched all night from Gilgal, Yahshua took them by surprise.

10 So Yahweh threw them into confusion in front of Israyl, who defeated them in a great slaughter at Gibeon. Israyl chased them along the road that goes to Beth Horon, and struck them down as far as Azekah and Makkedah.

11 As they fled in front of Israyl on the road down from Beth Horon to Azekah, Yahweh hurled down large hailstones from heaven upon them, and they died. More died from the hailstones than those whom the children of Israyl killed with the sword.

12 On the day Yahweh delivered up the Amorites in front of the children of Israyl, Yahshua said to Yahweh in the presence of Israyl: O sun, stand still over Gibeon, O moon, over the Valley of Aijalon.

13 So the sun stood still, and the moon stopped, until the people had revenge upon their enemies. Is this not written in the Book of Yasher? So the sun stood still in the middle of the sky, and delayed going down about a full day.

14 There has never been a day like that, before or after it; a day when Yahweh listened to the voice of a man, for Yahweh fought for Israyl.

15 Then Yahshua returned with all Israyl to the camp at Gilgal.

16 The five allied kings had fled and hidden themselves in a cave at Makkedah.

17 This fact was told to Yahshua: The five kings have been found hidden in the cave at Makkedah.

18 So Yahshua instructed them: Roll large stones against the mouth of the cave, and set men by it to guard them.

19 But do not stop! Pursue your enemies and attack their rear. Do not allow them to enter their cities, for Yahweh your Father has delivered them into your hand.

20 So Yahshua and the children of Israyl almost slaughtered them completely to a man, but a few escaped and entered their fortified cities.

21 Then all the people returned in peace to Yahshua at Makkedah. No one uttered a word against the children of Israyl.

22 Then Yahshua said: Open the mouth of the cave and bring out those five kings to me.

23 So they brought the five kings out of the cave—the king of Yerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Yarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon.

24 When they had brought these kings to Yahshua, he summoned all the men of Israyl and said to the captains of the men of war who went with him: Come here and put your feet on the necks of these kings. So they came forward and placed their feet on their necks.

25 Then Yahshua said to them: Do not be afraid. Do not be discouraged. Be strong and courageous, for this is what Yahweh will do to all your enemies against whom you fight.

26 Then afterward Yahshua struck and killed them, and hanged them on five trees, where they remained until evening.

27 At sunset Yahshua gave the order, and they took them down from the trees and threw them into the cave where they had been hiding. They laid large stones against the mouth of the cave, which remain until this very day.

28 On that day Yahshua took Makkedah. He put the city and its king to the sword and utterly destroyed; cherem, all the people who were in it. He let none remain. He did to the king of Makkedah as he had done to the king of Yericho.

29 Then Yahshua, and all Israyl with him, moved on from Makkedah to Libnah, and fought against it.

30 Yahweh also delivered it and its king into the hand of Israyl. He struck it and all the people in it with the edge of the sword. He let none remain alive in it, but did to its king as he had done to the king of Yericho.

31 Then Yahshua moved on from Libnah, and all Israyl with him, to Lachish. They encamped and fought against it.

32 Yahweh delivered Lachish into the hand of Israyl, who took it on the second day, and struck it and all the people in it with the edge of the sword; cherem. As he had done to Libnah, he did also to Lachish.

33 Meanwhile, Horam king of Gezer had come up to help Lachish, but Yahshua defeated him and his army, until there were no survivors left.

34 Then Yahshua, and all Israyl with him, moved on from Lachish to Eglon. They encamped and fought against it.

35 They took the city on that day and put it to the sword, and utterly destroyed; cherem, everyone in it, just as they had done to Lachish.

36 Then Yahshua, and all Israyl with him, went up from Eglon to Hebron and fought against it.

37 They took the city and put it to the sword, together with its king, its villages, and everyone in it. They left no survivors. Just as they did to Eglon, they utterly destroyed; cherem, it and everyone in it.

38 Then Yahshua, and all Israyl with him, turned around and fought against Debir.

39 They took the city, its king, and its villages, and put them to the sword. Everyone in it they utterly destroyed; cherem. They left no survivors. They did to Debir and its king as they had done to Libnah and its king, and to Hebron.

40 So Yahshua conquered the whole region, including the hill country, the Negev, the western foothills, and the mountain slopes, together with all their kings. He left no survivors.

He utterly destroyed everything that breathed; cherem, just as Yahweh, the Father of Israyl, had commanded.

41 Yahshua conquered them from Kadesh Barnea to Gaza, and from the whole region of Goshen to Gibeon.

42 All these kings and their lands Yahshua conquered in one set of military campaigns, because Yahweh, the Father of Israyl, fought for Israyl.

43 Then Yahshua returned, with all Israyl with him, to the camp at Gilgal.

CHAP. 11

When Yabin king of Hazor heard of this, he sent word to Yobab king of Madon, to the king of Shimron, to the king of Acshaph,

2 And to the kings from the northern highlands, in the Arabah south of Kinnereth, in the western foothills, and in Naphath Dor, to the west;

3 To the Canaanites on the east, and to the Amorites on the west: the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Yebusites in the highlands, and the Hivites below Hermon in the land of Mizpah.

4 They came forth with all their armies accompanying them—a great force, as numerous as sand is upon the seashore, with a multitude of horses and chariots.

5 All these kings joined forces and encamped together by the Waters of Merom, to fight against Israyl.

6 But Yahweh said to Yahshua: Do not be afraid because of them. By this time tomorrow I will hand them, all of them, to Israyl, slain. Their horses you are to hamstring, and their chariots you are to burn in the fire.

7 So Yahshua, with all the men of war with him, came against them by surprise at the Waters of Merom, and attacked them.

8 Yahweh gave them into the hand of Israyl. They defeated them and chased them all the way to Greater Sidon, to Misrephoth Maim, and to the Valley of Mizpah on the east, until they left none of them alive.

9 Then Yahshua did to them as Yahweh had told him: he hamstrung their horses and burned their chariots in the fire.

10 At that time Yahshua turned to take Hazor and its king, because Hazor was formerly the head of all those kingdoms.

11 Everyone in it they put to the sword, utterly destroying them; cherem. Not anything that breathed was left alive, and Hazor itself they burned.

12 All those royal cities and all their kings Yahshua captured and put to the sword. He devoted them and utterly destroyed them; cherem, just as Mosheh the servant of Yahweh had commanded.

13 But all the cities built on a mound; tell: a heap of successive city ruins, Israyl burned none of them, except Hazor only Yahshua burned.

14 All the plunder of these cities built on tells including the cattle, the children of Israyl plundered for themselves. But all the human beings they put to the sword until they had utterly destroyed them; cherem. They left no survivors.

15 Just as Yahweh commanded his servant Mosheh, so Mosheh commanded Yahshua, and Yahshua did as he was commanded. He left nothing undone of all that Yahweh commanded Mosheh.

16 Yahshua took all this land: the hill country, all the Negev, the whole region of Goshen, the western foothills, the Arabah, and the mountains of Israyl with their foothills—

17 From Mount Halak, which rises toward Seir, to Baal Gad in the Valley of Lebanon below Mount Hermon. He captured all their kings, and struck them down and killed them.

18 Many days; an unspecified time period, Yahshua made war with all those kings.

19 There was not a city that made a treaty of peace with the children of Israyl, except for the Hivites who inhabited Gibeon. All the others they took in battle.

20 For it was Yahweh Himself Who hardened their hearts so they would come against Israyl in battle—making of them devoted things without mercy being shown to them—so that He might utterly destroy them; cherem, just as Yahweh had commanded Mosheh.

21 At that time Yahshua went and destroyed the Anakim from the hill country: from Hebron, Debir, and Anab, from all the hill country of Yahdah, and from all the hill country of Israyl. Yahshua utterly destroyed them and their cities; cherem.

22 None of the people of Anak were left in the land of the children of Israyl. They remained only in Gaza, Gath, and in Ashdod.

23 So Yahshua took the entire land, just as Yahweh had said to Mosheh. Then Yahshua gave it over to Israyl as their inherited possession, divided and allotted by tribes. Then the land was at rest from war.

CHAP. 12

These are the kings of the land whom the children of Israyl defeated, and whose land they seized—on the east side of the Yordan, from the River Arnon to Mount Hermon, including all the eastern side of the Arabah.

2 Sihon king of the Amorites, reigned in Heshbon. He ruled from Aroer on the rim of the Arnon River, from the middle of the river—to the Yabbok River, which is the border of the Ammonites. This included half of Gilead.

3 Sihon also ruled over the eastern Arabah from the Sea of Kinnereth; the Sea of Galilee, to the Sea of the Arabah (the Salt Sea); the Dead Sea, to Beth Yeshimoth, and then southward below the slopes of Pisgah.

4 The territory of Og king of Bashan, one of the last of the Rephaites, who reigned in Ashtaroth and Edrei.

5 Extended from Mount Hermon, Salecah, all of Bashan to the border of the people of Geshur and Maacah, and half of Gilead to the border of Sihon king of Heshbon.

6 Mosheh the servant of Yahweh and the children of Israyl conquered them. And Mosheh the servant of Yahweh gave their lands to the tribes of Reuben and Gad, and to the half-tribe of Menasheh, to be their possession on the east side of the Yordan.

7 Then these are the kings of the land which Yahshua and the children of Israyl conquered on this side, the western side, of the Yordan, from Baal Gad in the Valley of Lebanon, to Mount Halak, which rises toward Seir. Their lands Yahshua gave as an inheritance to the tribes of Israyl, according to their tribal allotments and divisions—

8 The hill country, the western foothills, the Arabah, the mountain slopes, the wilderness, and the Negev—the lands of the Hittites, the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Yebusites—

9 And these are the conquered kings from these territories: The king of Yericho, one; the king of Ai, which is near Bethel, one;

10 The king of Jerusalem, one; the king of Hebron, one;

11 The king of Yarmuth, one; the king of Lachish, one;

12 The king of Eglon, one; the king of Gezer, one;

13 The king of Debir, one; the king of Geder, one;

14 The king of Hormah, one; the king of Arad, one;

15 The king of Libnah, one; the king of Adullam, one;

16 The king of Makkedah, one; the king of Bethel, one;

17 The king of Tappuah, one; the king of Hopher, one;

18 The king of Aphek, one; the king of Lasharon, one;

19 The king of Madon, one; the king of Hazor, one;

20 The king of Shimron Meron, one; the king of Achshaph, one;

21 The king of Taanach, one; the king of Megiddo, one;

22 The king of Kedesh, one; the king of Yokneam in Carmel, one;

23 The king of Dor, in Naphoth Dor, one;

the king of the goyim in Gilgal, one;

24 The king of Tirzah, one. All these kings numbered thirty-one.

CHAP. 13

When Yahshua was of a ripe old age, well advanced in years, Yahweh said to him; You are very advanced in age, and there are still very large areas of land to be taken over.

2 This is the land that yet remains: all the territory of the Philistines and Geshurites—

3 From the River Shihor on the east of Egypt to the territory of Ekron on the north, all of it considered as Canaanite. (There were five Philistine rulers in Gaza, Ashdod, Ashkelon, Gath, and Ekron.) Also the Avvites;

4 And from the south, all the land of the Canaanites, from Arah of the Sidonians as far as Aphek, to the border of the Amorites;

5 The land of the Gebalites, and all of Lebanon to the east, from Baal Gad below Mount Hermon to the entrance to Hamath.

6 All the inhabitants of the hill country, from the Lebanon to Misrephoth Maim, and all the Sidonians—I, Myself, will drive out from in front of the children of Israyl. Be sure to allot this land to Israyl for an inheritance, as I have commanded you;

7 Dividing it as an inheritance among the nine tribes and to the half-tribe of Menasheh.

8 The other half-tribe of Menasheh, and the tribes of Reuben and Gad had received the inheritance that Mosheh had given them on the east side of the Yordan, as he, the servant of Yahweh, had given them.

9 The holdings they received extended from Aroer on the rim of the Arnon River, and from the city in the midst of the ravine, and included the whole plain of Medeba as far as Dibon:

10 And all the cities of Sihon, the Amorite king who ruled in Heshbon, out to the border of the Ammonites.

11 It also included Gilead, the territory of the people of Geshur and Maacah, all of Mount Hermon and all of Bashan as far as Salecah—

12 The whole kingdom of Og in Bashan, who had reigned in Ashtaroth and Edrei, and had been one of the last surviving Rephaites. Mosheh had defeated them and driven them out.

13 But the children of Israyl did not drive out the people of Geshur and Maacah, so they continue to live among the children of Israyl to this day.

14 But to the tribe of Levi Mosheh assigned no inheritance, because the offerings made by fire to Yahweh, the Father of Israyl, are their inheritance, just as Yahweh said to them.

15 This is what Mosheh had given to the tribe of Reuben, clan by clan:

16 The territory from Aroer on the rim of the Arnon River, and from the city in the middle of the ravine, and the whole plain past Medeba.

17 To Heshbon and all its cities on the plain, including Dibon, Bamoth Baal, Beth Baal Meon.

18 Yatzah, Kedemoth, Mephaath,

19 Kiryathaim, Sibmah, Zereth Shahar on the hill in the valley.

20 Beth Peor, the slopes of Pisgah, and Beth Yeshimoth.

21 These included all the cities on the plain and the entire realm of Sihon king of the Amorites, who ruled at Heshbon. Mosheh had defeated him and the Midianite chiefs: Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur, and Reba—princes allied with Sihon—who lived in that territory.

22 In addition to those killed in battle, the children of Israyl had put to death Balaam son of Beor, who practiced sooth-saying and divination.

23 The boundary of the tribe of Reuben was the bank of the Yordan. These cities and their towns were the inheritance of the tribe of Reuben, clan by clan.

24 This is what Mosheh had given to the tribe of Gad, clan by clan:

25 The territory of Yazer, all the cities of Gilead and half the country of the Ammonites as far as Aroer, near Rabbah;

26 And from Heshbon to Ramath Mizpah and Betonim, and from Mahanaim to the border of Debir;

27 And in the valley, Beth Haram, Beth Nimrah, Succoth, and Zaphon with the remainder of the realm of Sihon king of Heshbon (the east side of the Yordan, the territory up to the end of the Sea of Kinnereth; the Sea of Galilee.)

28 These cities and their towns were the inheritance of the tribe of Gad, clan by clan.

29 This is what Mosheh had given to the half-tribe of Menasheh; to half the family of the descendants of Menasheh, clan by clan:

30 The territory extending from Mahanaim and including all of Bashan, the entire realm of Og king of Bashan—all the towns of Yair in Bashan, sixty cities,

31 Half of Gilead; and Ashtaroth, and Edrei (the royal cities that previously belonged to Og in Bashan). This was for the descendants of Makir son of Menasheh—for half of the sons of Makir, clan by clan.

32 This is the inheritance Mosheh had given when he was in the plains of Moab across the Yordan east of Yericho.

33 But to the tribe of Levi, Mosheh had given no inheritance, because Yahweh, the Father of Israyl, is their inheritance, just as He promised them.

CHAP. 14

These are the areas the children of Israyl received as an inheritance in the land of Canaan, which Eleazar the priest, Yahshua ben Nun, and the heads of the tribal clans of Israyl allotted to them.

2 Their inheritances were assigned by lot to the nine tribes and to the half-tribe, just as Yahweh had commanded through Mosheh.

3 For Mosheh had given the two tribes and the half-tribe their inheritance on the east side of the Yordan, but to the Levites he had given no inheritance among them.

4 Now the sons of Yahseph had become two tribes—Menasheh and Ephraim. The Levites received no share of the land, except cities to live in, with their common-lands for their livestock and property.

5 Just as Yahweh had commanded Mosheh, so the children of Israyl divided the land.

6 Now the men of Yahdah came to Yahshua in Gilgal. And Caleb ben Yephunneh the Kenizzite, said to him; You know what Yahweh said to Mosheh the man of Yahweh at Kadesh Barnea about you and me.

7 I was forty years old when Mosheh the servant of Yahweh sent me from Kadesh Barnea to search out and explore the land. I brought him back a report of exactly what I thought.

8 But my brothers, who went with me, made the hearts of the people melt with fear, undermining the morale of the people. I, however, followed Yahweh my Father wholeheartedly.

9 So Mosheh vowed an oath to me that day, saying: The land on which your feet have walked will be your inheritance and that of your children forever, because you have followed Yahweh my Father wholeheartedly.

10 And now, just as Yahweh has promised, He has kept me alive for forty-five years since the time He said this to Mosheh, while Israyl moved about in the wilderness. So here, this day, I am eighty-five years old.

11 I am still as strong today as the day Mosheh sent me out. I have just as much strength to go to battle now, as I had then.

12 Now, give me this hill country that Yahweh promised me that day. You heard then that the Anakim were there, and that their cities were large and fortified. If Yahweh will help me, I shall be able to drive them out, just as Yahweh said.

13 Then, Yahshua blessed Caleb ben Yephunneh and gave him Hebron as his inheritance.

14 Hebron became the inheritance of Caleb ben Yephunneh the Kenizzite to this day, because he wholeheartedly followed Yahweh the Father of Israyl.

15 The name of Hebron used to be called Kiryath Arba, named for Arba the greatest man among the Anakim. Then the land had rest from war.

CHAP. 15

The allotment for the tribe of Yahdah, clan by clan, extended down to the border of Edom, to the Wilderness of Zin in the extreme south.

2 Their southern boundary started from the bay at the south end of the Salt Sea; the Dead Sea.

3 Crossed south of the Ascent of Akrabbim; Scorpion Pass, continued on to Zin and went over to the south of Kadesh Barnea. Then it ran past Hezron up to Addar and curved around to Karka.

4 It then passed along to Azmon and joined the Wadi of Egypt, ending at the sea. This shall be their southern boundary.

5 The eastern boundary is the Salt Sea; the Dead Sea, as far as the mouth of the Yordan. The northern boundary started from the bay of the sea, at the mouth of the Yordan,

6 Went up to Beth Hoglah and continued north of Beth Arabah to the Stone of Bohan, son of Reuben.

7 The boundary then went up to Debir from the Valley of Achor and turned north to Gilgal, which faces the Pass of Adummin south of the gorge. It continued along to the Waters of En Shemesh and came out at En Rogel.

8 Then it ran up the Valley of Ben Hinnom along the southern slope of the Yebusite city of Jerusalem. From there it climbed to the top of the hill west of the Hinnom Valley, at the northern end of the Valley of Rephaim.

9 From the hilltop the boundary headed toward the spring of the Waters of Nephtoah, came out at the cities of Mount Ephron, and went down toward Baalah (Kiryath Yearim).

10 Then it curved westward from Baalah to Mount Seir, ran along the northern slope of the Mount Yearim (that is, Kesalon), continued down to Beth Shemesh and crossed to Timnah.

11 It went to the northern slope of Ekron, turned toward Shikkeron, passed along to Mount Baalah, and reached Yabneel. The boundary ended at the sea.

12 The western boundary is the coastline of the Great Sea; the Mediterranean. These are the boundaries around the people of Yahdah according to their clans.

13 To Caleb ben Yephunneh he gave a possession in the midst of the tribe of Yahdah, according to the word of Yahweh to Yahshua. Yahshua gave him Kiryath-Arba, that is, Hebron. (Arba was the forefather of Anak.)

14 Caleb ben Yephunneh drove out from there the three sons of Anak—Sheshai, Ahiman, and Talmi (descendants of Anak).

15 From there he went up against the inhabitants of Debir. Debir used to be called Kiryath-Sepher.

16 Caleb said; Whoever attacks Kiryath-Sepher and captures it, to him I will give my daughter Achsah for a wife.

17 Othniel son of Kenaz, Caleb's brother, captured it, so Caleb gave his daughter Achsah to him in marriage.

18 When she arrived, he urged her to ask her father for a field. When she got off the donkey, Caleb asked her; What can I do for you?

19 She replied; Give me a special blessing. Since you have given me land in the Negev, please give me also springs of water. So Caleb gave her the upper and lower springs.

20 This is the inheritance of the tribe of Yahdah, clan by clan:

21 The southern limit of the cities of the tribe of Yahdah in the Negev, toward the boundary of Edom were: Kabzeel, Eder, Yagur,

22 Kinah, Dimonah, Adadah,

23 Kedesh, Hazor, Ithnan,

24 Ziph, Telem, Bealoth,

25 Hazor Hadattah, Kiryath Hezron (that is, Hazor),

26 Amam, Shema, Moladah,

27 Hazar Gaddah, Heshmon, Beth Pelet,

28 Hazar Shual, Beersheba, Bizyothyah; Dispersed by Yahweh,

29 Baalah, Iyim, Ezem,

30 Eltolad, Kesil, Hormah,

31 Ziklag, Madmannah, Sansannah,

32 Lebaoth, Shilhim, Ain, and Rimmon—a total of twenty-nine cities and their villages.

33 In the western foothills; in the Shephelah—Eshtaol, Zorah, Ashnah,

34 Zanoah, En Gannim, Tappuah, Enam,

35 Yarmuth, Adullam, Socoh, Azekah,

36 Shaaraim, Adithaim, and Gederah, and Gederothaim—fourteen cities and their villages.

37 Zenan, Hadashah, Migdal Gad,

38 Dilean, Mizpah, Yoktheel,

39 Lachish, Bozkath, Eglon,

40 Cabbon, Lahmam, Kithlish,

41 Gederoth, Beth Dagon, Naamah, and Makkedah—sixteen cities and their villages.

42 Libnah, Ether, Ashan,

43 Yiphtah, Ashnah, Nezip,

44 Keilah, Achzib, and Mareshah—nine cities and their villages.

45 Ekron, with its surrounding settlements and villages;

46 West of Ekron, all that were in the vicinity of Ashdod, together with their villages;

47 Ashdod, its surrounding towns and villages; and Gaza, its towns and villages, as far as the Wadi of Egypt and the coastline of the Great Sea; the Mediterranean.

48 In the hill country—Shamir, Yattir, So-choh,

49 Dannah, Kiryath Sannah (that is, Debir).

50 Anab, Eshtemoh, Anim,

51 Goshen, Holon, and Giloh—eleven cities and their villages.

52 Arab, Dumah, Eshean,

53 Yanum, Beth Tappuah, Aphekah,

54 Humtah, Kiryath Arba (that is, Hebron), and Zior—nine cities and their villages.

55 Maon, Carmel, Ziph, Yuttah,

56 Yezreel, Yokdeam, Zanoah,

57 Kain, Gibeah, and Timnah—ten cities and their villages.

58 Halhul, Beth Zur, Gedor,

59 Maarath, Beth Anoth, and Eltekon—six cities and their villages.

60 Kiryath Baal (that is, Kiryath Yearim) and Rabbah—two cities and their villages.

61 In the Wilderness—Beth Arabah, Mid-din, Secacah,

62 Nibshan, the City of Salt, and En Gedi—six cities and their villages.

63 Yahdah could not drive out the Yebusites who were living in Jerusalem. To this day the Yebusites live with the people of Yahdah in Jerusalem.

CHAP. 16

The allotment for the children of Yahseph began at the Yordan by Yericho, east of the waters of Yericho, and went up from there through the wilderness into the hill country of Bethel.

2 It went on from Bethel (that is, Luz), crossed over to the border of the Arkites in Ataroth,

3 Descended westward to the border of the Yaphletites as far as the region of Lower Beth Horon and on to Gezer, ending at the sea.

4 So Menasheh and Ephraim, the sons of Yahseph, received their inheritance.

5 This was the territory of Ephraim, clan by clan: The boundary of their inheritance went from Ataroth Addar in the east to Upper Beth Horon,

6 And continued to the sea. From Michmethath on the north it curved eastward to Taanath Shiloh, passing by it to Yanoah on the east.

7 Then it went down from Yanoah to Ataroth and Naarah, touched Yericho and came out at the Yordan.

8 From Tappuah the border went west to the Kanah Ravine and ended at the sea. This was the inheritance of the tribe of Ephraim, clan by clan.

9 It also included all the towns and their villages that were set aside and separated for the Ephraimites within the inheritance of the Menasaites.

10 They did not drive out the Canaanites living in Gezer. To this day the Canaanites live among the people of Ephraim, but are required to be forced laborers.

CHAP. 17

This was the allotment for the tribe of Menasheh, since he was the firstborn of Yahseph. This went to Makir, the firstborn of Menasheh. Makir was the ancestor of the Gileadites, who had received Gilead and Bashan because the Makirites were great men of war.

2 And there was an allotment for the remainder of the children of Menasheh, according to their clans—the clans of Abiezer, Helek, Asriel, Shechem, Hopher, and Shemida. These are the other male descendants of Menasheh son of Yahseph by their clans.

3 Now Zelophehad son of Hopher, the son of Gilead, the son of Makir, the son of Menasheh, had no sons but only daughters, whose names were Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.

4 They went to Eleazar the Priest, Yahshua ben Nun, and the leaders of the congregation, and said; Yahweh commanded Mosheh to give us an inheritance among our brothers. So Yahshua gave them an inheritance when he gave the brothers of their father their inheritance, according to Yahweh's command.

5 Menasheh's allotted firstborn share consisted of ten tracts of land in addition to Gilead and Bashan east of the Yordan.

6 Because the daughters of the tribe of Menasheh received an inheritance among the sons. The land of Gilead belonged to the remainder of the descendants of Menasheh.

7 The territory of Menasheh extended from Asher to Michmethath, east of Shechem. The boundary ran southward from there to include the people living at En Tappuah.

8 (Menasheh had the land of Tappuah, but Tappuah itself, on the boundary of Menasheh, belonged to the Ephraimites.)

9 Then the boundary continued south to the Kanah Ravine. There were cities belonging to Ephraim lying among the cities of Menasheh, but the boundary of Menasheh was the northern side of the ravine and ended at the sea.

10 On the south the land belonged to Ephraim, and on the north it belonged to Menasheh. The territory of Menasheh reached the sea and bordered Asher on the north, and Issachar on the east.

11 Within Issachar and Asher, Menasheh also had Beth Shan, Ibleam, and the people of Dor, Endor, Taanach, and Megiddo, together with their surrounding towns (the third in the list is Naphoth Dor).

12 Yet the children of Menasheh could not drive out the inhabitants of those cities, for the Canaanites were determined to live in that region.

13 However, when the children of Israyl grew stronger, they put the Canaanites to forced labor, but did not utterly drive them out.

14 Then the children of Yahseph said to Yahshua: Why have you given us only one allotment and one portion for an inheritance? We are a numerous people and Yahweh has abundantly blessed us.

15 So Yahshua answered them: Since you are so numerous, and since the hill country of Ephraim is too small for you, then go up into the forest and clear land for yourselves there in the land of the Perizzites and Rephaites.

16 But the children of Yahseph said; The hill country is not enough for us, and all the Canaanites who live in the plain have iron chariots—both those in Beth Shan and its towns and those in the Valley of Yezreel.

17 Then Yahshua spoke to the house of Yahseph—to Ephraim and to Menasheh—You are numerous and have great power. You will not have only one allotment.

18 You will have the forested hill country, as well. Clear it, and its farthest limits will be yours, for you shall drive out the Canaanites, even though they have iron chariots and are strong.

CHAP. 18

Then the whole congregation of the children of Israyl gathered together at Shiloh, and set up the Tent of Meeting there. The country had been subdued in front of them.

2 But there were still seven tribes among the children of Israyl who had not yet received their inheritance.

3 So Yahshua said to the children of Israyl; How long will you wait before you begin to take possession of the land that Yahweh, the Father of your fathers, has given you?

4 Choose for yourselves three men from each tribe. I will send them out to make a survey of the land and to write a description of it, according to the inheritance of each. Then they will return and report to me.

5 They shall divide it among themselves into seven parts. Yahdah will remain at its territory in the south, and the house of Yahseph will remain at their territory in the north.

6 After you have written the descriptions of the seven parts of the land, bring them here to me so I may cast lots for you in the presence of Yahweh our Father.

7 The Levites will not receive a portion among you, because the priestly service of Yahweh is their inheritance. Gad, Reuben, and the half-tribe of Menasheh have already received their inheritance on the eastern side of the Yordan. Mosheh the servant of Yahweh gave it to them.

8 The men set forth, and Yahshua charged those who were going out to record the land: Go, walk through the land and survey it, write a description of it, then bring it back to me so I may cast lots for you here in Shiloh, in the Presence of Yahweh.

9 So the men left and went through the land. They wrote its description on a scroll, city by city, in seven parts, and returned to Yahshua in the camp at Shiloh.

10 Yahshua then cast lots for them in Shiloh in the presence of Yahweh, and there he distributed and parceled out the land to the children of Israyl, according to their tribal divisions.

11 The lot fell on the tribe of Benyamin, clan by clan, FIRST. The territory of their lot came out between the tribes of Yahdah and Yahseph:

12 On their northern side, Benyamin's boundary began at the Yordan, passed the northern slope of Yericho, and went on into the hill country, coming out at the wilderness of Beth Aven.

13 From there it crossed to the south slope of Luz (that is, Bethel) and went down to Aaroth Adar on the hill south of Lower Beth Horon.

14 From the hill facing Beth Horon on the south, the boundary turned south along the western side and came out at Kiryath Baal (that is, Kiryath Yearim), a city of the people of Yahdah. This was their western side.

15 Their southern side began at the outskirts of Kiryath Yearim on the west, and the boundary came out at the spring of the Waters of Nephtoah.

16 The boundary went down to the foot of the hill facing the Valley of Ben Hinnom, north of the Valley of Rephaim. It continued down the Hinnom Valley along the southern slope of the Yebusite city, and on to En Rogel.

17 It then curved north, went to En Shemesh, continued to Geliloth, which faces the Pass of Adummin, and ran down to the Stone of Bohan son of Reuben.

18 It continued to the northern slope of Beth Arabah, and on down into the Arabah.

19 It then went to the northern slope of Beth Hoglah and came out at the northern bay of the Salt Sea; the Dead Sea, at the mouth of the Yordan in the south. This was their southern boundary.

20 The Yordan formed the boundary on their eastern side. These were the boundaries that marked out the inheritance of the clans of Benyamin on all sides.

21 The tribe of Benyamin, clan by clan, had the following cities: Yericho, Beth Hoglah, Emek Keziz.

22 Beth Arabah, Zemaraim, Bethel.

23 Avvim, Parah, Ophrah.

24 Kephrah Ammoni, Ophni, and Geba—twelve cities and their villages.

25 Gibeon, Ramah, Beeroth.

26 Mizpah, Kephirah, Mozah.

27 Rekem, Irpeel, Taralah.

28 Zelah, Haeleph, the Yebusite city (that is, Jerusalem), Gibeah, and Kiryath—fourteen cities and their villages. This was the inheritance of the tribe of Benjamin, according to their clans.

CHAP. 19

The lot fell on the tribe of Simeon, SECOND, clan by clan. The territory of their lot came out within the territory of the tribe of Yahdah.

2 They had within their inheritance Beer-sheba (or Sheba), Moladah.

3 Hazar Shual, Balah, Ezem.

4 Eltolad, Bethul, Hormah.

5 Ziklag, Beth Marcaboth, Hazar Susah.

6 Beth Lebaoth and Sharuhem—thirteen cities and their villages:

7 Ain, Rimmon, Ether, and Ashan—four cities and their villages—

8 And all the villages around these towns as far as Baalath Beer (Ramah in the Negev). This was the inheritance of the tribe of Simeon, clan by clan.

9 The inheritance of the tribe of Simeon was taken from the share of Yahdah, because Yahdah's portion was more than they needed. So the tribe of Simeon received their inheritance within the territory of Yahdah.

10 The lot fell on the tribe of Zebulun, THIRD, clan by clan. The territory of their lot came out within these boundaries, as far as Sarid:

11 Going west, it ran to Maralah, came to Dabbesheth, and extended to the ravine that is east of Yokneam.

12 It turned eastward toward the sunrise from Sarid, to the territory of Kisloth Tabor, and went on to Daberath and on up to Yaphia.

13 Then it continued eastward to Gath Hopher and Eth Kazin; it came out at Rimmon then turned toward Neah.

14 At Neah, the boundary went around on the north to Hannathon and ended at the Valley of Yiphthah El.

15 There were twelve cities and their villages within their inheritance, and included: Kattath, Nahalal, Shimron, Idalah, and Bethlehem.

16 These cities and their villages were the inheritance of the tribe of Zebulun, according to their clans.

17 The lot fell on the tribe of Issachar, FOURTH, clan by clan.

18 The territory of their lot came out, and included the cities of: Yezreel, Kesulloth, Shunem,

19 Hapharaim, Shion, Anaharath,

20 Rabbith, Kishion, Ebez.

21 Remeth, En Gannim, En Haddah, and Beth Pазzez.

22 Their boundary touched Tabor, Shahazumah, and Beth Shemesh, and ended at the Yarden. There were sixteen cities and their villages.

23 These cities and their villages were in the inheritance of the tribe of Issachar, according to their clans.

24 The lot fell on the tribe of Asher, FIFTH, clan by clan.

25 The territory of their lot came out, and included the cities of: Helkath, Hali, Beten, Achshaph.

26 Allammelech, Amad, and Mishal. On the west their boundary touched Carmel and Shihor Libnath.

27 It then turned eastward toward Beth Dagon, to meet Zebulun and the Valley of Yiphthah El to the north. The border then went north to Beth Emek and Neiel, passing Cabul on the left.

28 It then went to Hebron, Rehob, Hammon, and Kanah, as far as Greater Sidon.

29 The border then returned to Ramah, then out as far as the fortified city of Tyre. The border then returned to Hosah and came out at the sea in the region of Aczib.

30 Ummah, Aphek, and Rehob. There were twenty-two cities and their villages.

31 These cities and their villages were the inheritance of the tribe of Asher, according to their clans.

32 The lot fell on the tribe of Naphtali, SIXTH, clan by clan.

33 The boundary of the territory of their lot went from Heleph and the sacred tree in Zaannanim, by way of Adami Nekeb and Yabneel, then to Lakkum, ending at the Yarden.

34 The boundary ran west through Aznoth Tabor and came out at Hukkok, meeting Zebulun along the south, Asher along the west, and Yahdah on the east, at the Yarden.

35 The fortified cities were Ziddim, Zer, Hammath, Rakkath, Kinnereth.

36 Adamah, Ramah, Hazor.

37 Kedesh, Edrei, En Hazor.

38 Iron, Migdal El, Horem, Beth Anath, and Beth Shemesh. There were nineteen cities and their villages.

39 These cities and their villages were the inheritance of the tribe of Naphtali, according to their clans.

40 The lot fell on the tribe of Dan, clan by clan, SEVENTH.

41 The territory of their lot included the cities of: Zorah, Eshtaol, Ir Shemesh.

42 Shaalabbin, Aiyalon, Yethlah.

43 Elon, Timnah, Ekron,
 44 Eltekeh, Gibbethon, Baalath,
 45 Yahd, Bene Berak, Gath Rimmon,
 46 Me Yarkon and Rakkon, with the area facing Yaffo.

47 (But the boundary of the tribe of Dan went even beyond these, because the clan of Dan had difficulty taking possession of their territory, so they went up against Leshem and captured it. They struck it with the edge of the sword, took possession of it, and lived in it. They renamed Leshem, Dan, after the name of Dan, their forefather.)

48 These cities with their villages were the inheritance of the tribe of Dan, according to their clans.

49 When they had finished dividing the land into its allotted portions, the children of Israyl then gave Yahshua ben Nun an inheritance in their midst.

50 Just as Yahweh had commanded, they gave him the city he had asked for—Timnath Serah, in the hill country of Ephraim. He rebuilt the city and settled there.

51 These were the inherited territories which Eleazar the priest, Yahshua ben Nun, and the heads of the tribal clans of Israyl assigned by the casting of lots at Shiloh, in the presence of Yahweh at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting. With that, they completed the apportionment of the land.

CHAP. 20

Then Yahweh spoke to Yahshua, saying:

2 Speak to the children of Israyl, and tell them: Designate your cities of refuge, just as I instructed you through Mosheh:

3 In order that any person who kills another person accidentally and unintentionally may flee there, and find protection and asylum from the blood-avenger.

4 When he escapes to one of these cities, he is to stand in the entrance of the city gate and present his case in front of the elders of that city. Then, they are to admit him into their city and give him a place to live with them.

5 Should the blood-avenger pursue him, they must not surrender the one accused, because he killed his brother unintentionally and without premeditated malice.

6 He is to reside in that city until he has stood fair trial in front of the congregation, and then until the death of the high priest who is officiating at that time. Then he may go back to his own home in the city from which he fled.

7 So, they selected Kedesh in Galilee, in the hill country of Naphtali; Shechem, in the hill country of Ephraim; and Kiryath Arba (that is, Hebron), in the hill country of Yahdah. These were the cities of refuge on the west side of the Yardan.

8 On the east side of the Yardan across from Yericho, they selected Bezer, in the wilderness on the plain, in the tribe of Reuben; Ramoth, in Gilead, in the tribe of Gad; and Golan, in Bashan, in the tribe of Menasheh.

9 These were the cities selected for all the children of Israyl, and for any stranger who lived among them, so that anyone who killed a person accidentally and without premeditation might flee there, and not die by the hand of the blood-avenger, before standing trial in front of the congregation.

CHAP. 21

Now the heads of the Levites approached Eleazar the priest, Yahshua ben Nun, and the heads of the other tribes of Israyl.

2 They said to them at Shiloh in the land of Canaan: Yahweh commanded through Mosheh that you give us cities to live in, with access to their common-lands for our livestock.

3 So, just as Yahweh had commanded, the children of Israyl gave the Levites the following cities and common-lands out of their own inheritances:

4 Here is how the lot came out for the descendants of Kohath, clan by clan. For those Levites who comprised the sons of Aaron, the priests, they were given by lot out of the tribes of Yahdah, Simeon, and Benyamin, thirteen cities.

5 The rest of the sons of Kohath were allotted ten cities from the clans of the tribes of Ephraim, Dan, and the half-tribe of Menasheh.

6 The descendants of Gershon were allotted thirteen cities from the clans of the tribes of Issachar, Asher, Naphtali, and the half-tribe of Menasheh in Bashan.

7 The descendants of Merari, clan by clan, received twelve cities from the tribes of Reuben, Gad, and Zebulun.

8 In this way the children of Israyl allotted to the tribe of Levi these cities and their common-lands, just as Yahweh had commanded through Mosheh.

9 From the tribe of the children of Yahdah, and from the tribe of the children of Simeon, they allotted the following cities by name:

10 (Now these cities were assigned to the descendants of Aaron, to the Kohathite clans of the Levites, because the first lot fell to them.)

11 They gave them Kiryath Arba (that is, Hebron), with its common-lands, in the hill country of Yahdah. (Arba was the forefather of Anak.)

12 But the fields and villages around that city they had given to Caleb ben Yephunneh as his possession.

13 So to the descendants of Aaron the priest they gave Hebron (this was a refuge city for one who had been accused of murder), Libnah,

 14 Yattir, Eshtemoa,
 15 Holon, Debir,
 16 Ain, Yuttah, and Beth Shemesh, together with their common-lands—nine cities from these two tribes.
 17 And from the tribe of Benjamin they gave the Levites: Gibeon, Geba, 18 Anathoth, and Almon, together with their common-lands—four cities.
 19 All the cities for the priests, the descendants of Aaron; children of Kohath, were thirteen, together with their common-lands.
 20 The remainder of the children of Kohath, from the clans of the Levites, were allotted cities from the tribe of Ephraim.
 21 They gave them Shechem, with its common-lands, in the mountains of Ephraim (this was also a city of refuge for one who was accused of murder), and Gezer.
 22 Kibzaim, and Beth Horon, together with their common-lands—four cities.
 23 And from the tribe of Dan, the remainder of the Kohathite clans received Eltekeh, Gibbethon, 24 Aiyalon, and Gath Rimmon, together with their common-lands—four cities.
 25 From the half-tribe of Menasheh, they received: Taanach and Gath Rimmon, together with their common-lands—two cities.
 26 These ten cities, along with their common-lands, were given to the remainder of the Kohathite clans.
 27 The Levite clans from the sons of Gershon were given out of the other half-tribe of Menasheh: Golan in Bashan (this was also a city of refuge for one who was accused of murder), and Be Eshtarah, along with their common-lands—two cities.
 28 From the tribe of Issachar they received: Kishion, Daberath,
 29 Yarmuth, and En Gannim, together with their common-lands—four cities.
 30 From the tribe of Asher the Gershonite clans received: Mishal, Abdon.
 31 Helkath, and Rehob, together with their common-lands—four cities.
 32 From the tribe of Naphtali they received: Kedesh in Galilee (this was also a city of refuge for one who was accused of murder), Hammoth Dor, and Kartan, together with common-lands—three cities.
 33 All the cities of the Gershonite clans were thirteen, along with their common-lands.
 34 The clans of Merari, the remaining clans of the Levites, were given: from the tribe of Zebulun; Yokneam, Kartah,
 35 Dimnah, and Nahalal, together with their common-lands—four cities;
 36 From the tribe of Reuben; Bezer, Yatzah, 37 Kedemoth, and Mephaath, together with their common-lands—four cities.

38 From the tribe of Gad; Ramoth in Gilead (this was also a city of refuge for one who was accused of murder), Mahanaim.

39 Heshbon, and Yazer, together with their common-lands—four cities in all.

40 All the cities allotted to the clans of the sons of Merari, who were the remaining Levite clans, were twelve.

41 All the cities of the Levites in the territory held by the children of Israyl, were forty-eight cities, each with their common-lands.

42 Every one of these cities had its common-land surrounding it. This was true for all these cities.

43 In this way, Yahweh gave Israyl all the land He had vowed by an oath to give to their forefathers, and they took possession of it, and they lived in it.

44 Yahweh gave them rest on every side, just as He had vowed by an oath to their forefathers. Not one of their enemies could stand against them; Yahweh delivered all their enemies into their hand.

45 Not one of Yahweh's honorable promises to the house of Israyl failed. Every promise came to pass.

CHAP. 22

Then Yahshua summoned the tribes of Reuben, Gad, and the half-tribe of Menasheh.

2 And said to them: You have done all that Mosheh the servant of Yahweh commanded you to do, and you have obeyed me in everything I commanded you to do.

3 You have not left your brothers for a long time, up to this very day—you have not deserted your brothers, but you have kept the charge of the commandment of Yahweh your Father.

4 And now, Yahweh your Father has given rest to your brothers, just as He has promised them. Therefore, return to your homes in the land that Mosheh the servant of Yahweh gave to you on the other side of the Yarden.

5 But be very careful and diligent to keep the commandment and the Law which Mosheh, the servant of Yahweh gave you: to love Yahweh your Father, to walk in all His ways, to keep His commandments, to hold fast to Him, and to serve Him with all your heart and with all your soul.

6 Then Yahshua blessed them, and released them from their military duty, and they went to their homes.

7 (To the half-tribe of Menasheh, Mosheh had given land in Bashan, and to the other half-tribe of Menasheh, Yahshua gave land on this side, the west side of the Yarden with the majority of their brothers.) Truly, when Yahshua released them and sent them away to their homes, he blessed them.

8 By saying: Return to your homes with your great wealth—with large herds of livestock, with silver, gold, bronze, and iron, and a great quantity of clothing. Divide the plunder of your enemies with your brothers.

9 So the fighting men of the tribes of Reuben, Gad, and the half-tribe of Menasheh departed from the children of Israyl at Shiloh, in the land of Canaan, to go to the country of Gilead, the land of their possession which they had acquired in accordance with the command of Yahweh through Mosheh.

10 When they came to the borders of the Yarden in the land of Canaan, the children of Reuben, Gad, and the half-tribe of Menasheh built an altar there by the Yarden—a very great, imposing altar.

11 When the children of Israyl heard that they had built the altar on the frontier of Canaan, at the border of the Yarden, on the side occupied by the children of Israyl:

12 The whole congregation of Israyl gathered at Shiloh to go to war against them.

13 Then the children sent Phinehas the son of Eleazar, the priest, to the land of Gilead to the tribes of Reuben, Gad, and the half-tribe of Menasheh.

14 With Phinehas they sent ten chiefs, each one a chief of an ancestral house representing all the tribes of Israyl. Each was head of the house of their fathers. They were from the divisions of the clans of Israyl.

15 When they went to Gilead—to Reuben, Gad, and the half-tribe of Menasheh—they said to them:

16 This is what the entire congregation of Yahweh says: What does this treachery mean which you have committed against the Father of Israyl, by turning away from Yahweh at this time, by building for yourselves an altar in rebellion against Him now?

17 Was the crime of Peor too small a thing for us, from which we have yet to cleanse ourselves of that sin to this very day, even though a plague fell on the congregation of Yahweh!

18 But now this! You are turning away from Yahweh! If you rebel against Yahweh today, then tomorrow He will be angry with the whole congregation of Israyl.

19 If the land you have seized and taken possession of is unclean, then get yourselves over to the land that Yahweh has seized, where Yahweh's Tent is standing, and take possession among us. However, just do not rebel against Yahweh, nor rebel against us, by building an altar for yourselves, other than and apart from the altar of Yahweh our Father.

20 Did not Achan the son of Zerah commit a violation regarding the devoted: cherem, things? And there was wrath upon the entire congregation, although he was only one man! He was not the only one to perish for his iniquity!

21 Then the children of Reuben, Gad, and the half-tribe of Menasheh responded, and said to the heads of the clans of Israyl:

22 The Mighty One, Yahweh. He is the Father! The Mighty One, Yahweh. He is the Father! He knows, and let Israyl itself know—if this has been in rebellion or disobedience to Yahweh, do not spare us this day!

23 If we have built for ourselves an altar in order to turn from following Yahweh, or if to offer upon it burnt offerings, grain offerings, or peace offerings—may Yahweh Himself call us to account.

24 We have done this thing for fear that some day your descendants might say to our descendants: What do you have to do with Yahweh, the Father of Israyl?

25 Because Yahweh has made the Yarden a boundary between us and you. The children of Reuben and Gad have no part with Yahweh. In that case, your descendants would make our descendants cease from reverencing Yahweh in the way He has given command.

26 For this cause, we said: Let us act now and build an altar, but not an altar for burnt offerings or sacrifices.

27 Instead, it is a witness between us and you, and between our descendants after us, that we may perform the worship of Yahweh, in His presence at His sanctuary, with our burnt offerings, sacrifices, and peace offerings. And so your children will not be able to say to our children sometime in the future: You have no share in Yahweh.

28 Therefore we said: If they ever say this to us, or to our descendants, we will answer: Look at the replica of Yahweh's altar which our fathers made. It is not for burnt offerings, nor for sacrifices. It is for a witness between us and you.

29 Far be it from us that we should rebel against Yahweh, and turn from following Yahweh this day by building an altar for burnt offerings, grain offerings, and sacrifices, other than and apart from the altar of Yahweh our Father that stands in front of His Tent!

30 When Phinehas, the priest, and the leaders of the congregation, the heads of the clans of the children of Israyl, heard what Reuben, Gad, and Menasheh had to say, they were pleased.

31 Then Phinehas son of Eleazar, the priest, said to Reuben, Gad, and Menasheh: Today we know that Yahweh is in our midst, because you have not committed this treachery and treason against Yahweh in this matter. And you have rescued the children of Israyl from the hand of Yahweh.

32 Then Phinehas son of Eleazar, the priest, and the leaders returned to the land of Canaan from meeting with the children of Reuben, the children of Gad, and the children of the half-tribe of Menasheh. They brought back their words to the children of Israyl:

33 They were glad to hear this report, and they praised Yahweh. They spoke no more about going to war against them to devastate the country where the tribes of Reuben, Gad, and the half-tribe of Menasheh lived.

34 And the children of Reuben, the children of Gad, and the half-tribe of Menasheh gave this name to the altar: There is a witness between us that Yahweh is truly our Father.

CHAP. 23

A long time after Yahweh had given rest to Israyl from all their enemies around them, and Yahshua ben Nun had reached a ripe old age.

2 Yahshua summoned all Israyl—that is, their elders, their chiefs, the judges, and their officials—and said to them: I am old and well advanced in age.

3 You have seen all that Yahweh your Father has done to all these nations on our behalf, for Yahweh is truly our Father. He is the One Who fights for us!

4 Remember how I have divided to you by the casting of lots these nations that remain, to be an inheritance for your tribes, from the Yordan, with all the nations I have wiped out, as far as the Great Sea; the Mediterranean, in the west.

5 Yahweh your Father Himself will drive them out of your way. He will push them out from in front of you, and you will take possession of their land, just as Yahweh your Father has promised you.

6 Therefore, be very strong to carefully obey and do all that is written in the Book of the Law of Mosheh, without turning aside either to the right or to the left:

7 By not mingling with these nations that are left with you; by not pronouncing the names of their gods, nor causing anyone to administer a vow in their names. You must not serve them, and you must not bow down to them.

8 You are to hold fast to Yahweh your Father, just as you have until now.

9 Yahweh has driven out before you great and powerful nations. As for you, no one has stood against you, down to this very day.

10 One man of you chases a thousand, because it is Yahweh Who fights for you, just as He promised.

11 So, be very careful, for your own sakes, to love Yahweh your Father by obeying Him completely.

12 For if in fact you turn away and unite yourselves to the survivors of these nations that are left among you, and if you intermarry with and associate with them,

13 Then you may be absolutely sure that Yahweh your Father will no longer drive out these nations from in front of you on your behalf. Instead, they will become snares and traps for you, whips on your back, and thorns in your eyes, until you perish from this rich land, which Yahweh your Father has given you.

14 Now, I am about to go the way of all earthly things. And you know with all your heart; the seat of your intelligence, and with your very being, that not one thing has failed of all the honorable things Yahweh our Father promised concerning you. All has come true for us. Not one word has failed.

15 But just as surely as everything honorable, which Yahweh your Father has promised, has come true for us, so Yahweh will likewise bring upon you every evil thing, until He has destroyed you from this rich land that Yahweh has given you.

16 When you have transgressed the covenant of Yahweh your Father, which He has commanded you, and you have gone and served gods, and bowed down to them, then the anger of Yahweh will burn against you, and you will quickly perish from the rich land He has given you.

CHAP. 24

Then Yahshua gathered all the tribes of Israyl to Shechem. He summoned the elders, leaders, judges, and officials of Israyl, and they presented themselves in front of Yahweh.

2 Then Yahshua said to all the people: This is what Yahweh, the Father of Israyl, says: Long ago your forefathers, including Terah the father of Abraham and Nahor, lived beyond the River; The Euphrates, and they worshiped gods.

3 But I took your ancestor Abraham from the far side of the River; Euphrates. I made him travel through the whole land of Canaan. I gave him many descendants, and gave him Isaac.

4 To Isaac I gave Yaaqob and Esau. To Esau I gave the mountains of Seir to possess, but Yaaqob and his sons went down to Egypt. There they became a great nation, strong and numerous, and the Egyptians afflicted them.

5 Then I sent Mosheh and Aaron, and I afflicted the Egyptians with the signs that I performed in it, and after that I brought you out.

6 When I brought your fathers out of Egypt, you came to the sea, and the Egyptians pursued you with chariots and horsemen as far as the Red Sea.

7 But they cried to Yahweh, and He put darkness between you and the Egyptians: He brought the sea over them and covered them. You saw with your own eyes what I did in Egypt.

then you lived in the wilderness for a long time.

8 I brought you to the land of the Amorites, who lived on the other side of the Yordan, and they fought with you. I put them in your power, and you took possession of their land. I destroyed them from in front of you on your behalf.

9 When Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, prepared to fight against Israyl, he sent for Balaam son of Beor to put a curse on you.

10 But I was not willing to listen to Balaam, so he blessed you over and over. I rescued you from his power.

11 Then you crossed the Yordan and came to Yericho. The men of Yericho fought against you, as did also the Amorites, Perizzites, Canaanites, Hittites, Girgashites, Hivites, and Yebusites; but I gave them into your power.

12 I sent the hornet ahead of you, which drove out in front of you the two Amorite kings; and it was not by your own sword nor by your own bow, that did this.

13 So, I gave you a land for which you had not labored, and cities which you did not build, but on which you live. You eat from vineyards and olive groves that you did not plant.

14 Now, therefore, reverence Yahweh and serve Him in complete honesty and in truth—and put away the gods your fathers served on the other side of the Euphrates River, and also in Egypt—and serve Yahweh!

15 But if it seems evil to you to serve Yahweh, then choose for yourselves this day whom you will serve—whether the gods your fathers served on the other side of the River; Euphrates, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you now live; but as for ME AND MY HOUSE:

WE WILL SERVE YAHWEH!

16 When the people answered, and said; Far be it from us to forsake Yahweh, to serve hinder gods!

17 It was Yahweh our Father, Himself, Who brought us and our forefathers up out of Egypt, from the house of bondage. Who performed those great signs in our sight. He protected us on our entire journey, and among among all the nations through which we traveled.

18 And Yahweh drove out from in front of us all the nations, including the Amorites, who lived in the land. We, too, will serve Yahweh, because he is our Father.

19 Yahshua said to the people: You are not able to serve Yahweh. For He is a holy Father! He is a jealous Father. He will not forgive your rebellion and your sins.

20 If you forsake Yahweh, and serve gods, He will turn around and do you harm. He will bring disaster upon you, and make an end of you, after He has done you well.

21 But the people said to Yahshua; Never! It is Yahweh we will serve!

22 Yahshua then said to the people: You are witnesses against yourselves, that you have chosen to serve Yahweh—that is, to serve Him! They said; We are witnesses.

23 Yahshua ben Nun said; Now then, throw away the gods that are among you, and incline your heart toward Yahweh, the Father of Israyl.

24 And the people said to Yahshua; Yahweh our Father will we serve, and His voice will we obey.

25 So Yahshua made a covenant with the people that day, and made for them a statute and an ordinance; establishing for them a legal precedent, in Shechem.

26 Then Yahshua wrote these words in the Book of the Law of Yahweh. And he took a large stone, and set it up there under the oak that was by the sanctuary of Yahweh.

27 And Yahshua said to all the people: Behold, this stone will be a witness against us. It has heard all the word Yahweh has said to us this day. It will be a witness against you, if you deny and deceive Yahweh and are untrue to Him.

28 Then Yahshua dismissed the people, and sent them to their own inheritance.

29 After these things, Yahshua ben Nun, the servant of Yahweh, died at the age of one hundred and ten.

30 And they buried him in the land of his inheritance, at Timnath Serah in the hill country of Ephraim, north of Mount Gaash. They laid with him there, in the tomb where they buried him, the flint knives with which he had circumcised the sons of Israyl at Gilgal, when he brought them out of Egypt, as Yahweh commanded them. They are there to this very day.

31 Israyl served Yahweh throughout the lifetime of Yahshua, and of the elders who outlived him and who had experienced everything Yahweh had done for Israyl.

32 Yahseph's bones, which the children of Israyl had brought up from Egypt, were buried at Shechem in the plot of ground which Yaaqob had bought from the sons of Hamor, the father of Shechem, for one hundred pieces of silver, and which had become an inheritance of the children of Yahseph.

33 And Eleazar son of Aaron died and was buried at Gibeah, which had been allotted to his son, Phinehas, in the hill country of Ephraim. At that time the children of Israyl had the ark of Yahweh traveling in their midst; and Phinehas was priest in the place of Eleazar his father, until he died and was buried in Gibeah. Then the children of Israyl went away, each to the sanctuary in his own city! The children of Israyl worshiped Astarte (Ashtaroth, Easter) and the gods of the nations surrounding them! So Yahweh delivered them into the power of Eglon, king of Moab, who oppressed them for eighteen years.

JUDGES

SHOFETIM The Judges

After the death of Yahshua ben Nun, the children of Israyl had asked Yahweh: Who will be first to go up and fight for us against the Canaanites?

2 Yahweh had answered; Yahdah is to go; I have given the land into their hands.

3 Then Yahdah said to Simeon, his brother: Come up with me to my allotted territory so we may fight against the Canaanites; and then I will likewise go with you to your allotted territory. So the Simeonites went with them.

4 Then Yahdah went up, and Yahweh delivered the Canaanites and the Perizzites into their hand; and they killed ten thousand men at Bezek.

5 It was there they found Adoni-Bezek: My Lord Bezek, and fought against him; soundly defeating the Canaanites and the Perizzites.

6 Then Adoni-Bezek fled, but they pursued him and caught him, and cut off his thumbs and big toes.

7 Then Adoni-Bezek said: Seventy kings with their thumbs and big toes cut off have picked up crumbs from under my table. Just as I have done, so I have also been repaid by Yahweh. They brought him to Yerusalem, and he died there.

8 The men of Yahdah attacked Yerusalem also, and took it. They put the city to the sword and set it on fire.

9 Afterward, Yahdah went down to fight against the Canaanites who lived in the hill country, the Negev, and the western foothills.

10 Then Yahdah went against the Canaanites who lived in Hebron. (Now the name of Hebron formerly was Kiryath Arba.) They defeated Sheshai, Ahimah, and Talmai.

11 From there they went against the inhabitants of Debir. (The name of Debir formerly was Kiryath Sepher.)

12 Then Caleb ben Yephunneh said: Whoever attacks Kiryath Sepher and captures it, to him I will give my daughter Achsah in marriage.

13 Othniel son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother, took it. So he gave him his daughter Achsah in marriage.

14 One day when she came to Othniel, he urged her to ask her father for a field. When she got off her donkey, Caleb asked her: What can I do for you?

15 She replied: Give me a special blessing. Since you have given me land in the Negev, give me also springs of water. So Caleb gave her the upper and lower springs.

16 Now the children of the Kenite, Mosheh's father-in-law, went up from the city of palms: Yericho, with the children of Yahdah into the Wilderness of Yahdah, in the Negev near Arad; and they went and lived among the Amalekites.

17 Then the men of Yahdah went with their brothers, the Simeonites, and attacked the Canaanites living in Sephath, and they utterly destroyed: cherem the city. The city came to be known as Hormah; meaning, Destruction.

18 The men of Yahdah also captured Gaza with its territory, Ashkelon with its territory, Ekron with its territory, and Ashdod with its territory.

19 Yahweh was truly with Yahdah. They took possession of the hill country, but they were unable to drive the people from the plains, because they had iron chariots.

20 Just as Mosheh had promised, Hebron was given to Caleb, who took possession of the three cities, and drove out from it the three sons of Anak.

21 But the Benyaminites did not drive out the Yebusites living in Yerusalem. To this day the Yebusites live there with the Benyaminites.

22 Likewise, the house of Yahseph had moved against Bethel; and Yahweh was with them.

23 When they sent men to spy out Bethel (formerly called Luz; Deception).

24 When the spies saw a man coming out of the city, they said to him: Show us the entrance to the city, and we will show you mercy.

25 So he showed them the entrance to the city, and they put the city to the sword, but spared the man and his whole family.

26 Then the man went to the land of the Hittites, built a city, and called its name Luz; Deception, which is its name to this day.

27 Menasheh did not drive out the people of Beth Shean, Taanach, Dor, Ibleam, or Megid-do, along with their surrounding villages, because the Canaanites were determined to live in that land.

28 When Israyl became strong, they subjected them to forced labor, but they did not completely drive them out.

29 As for Ephraim, they did not drive out the Canaanites who were living in Gezer, but the Canaanites continued to live there among them.

30 Neither did Zebulun drive out the Canaanites living in Kitron or Nahalol; rather, the Canaanites lived in their midst and were subjected to forced labor.

31 Nor did Asher drive out those living in Acco, Sidon, Ahlab, Aczib, Helbah, Aphek, or Rehob.

32 Because of this, the people of Asher lived among the Canaanite inhabitants of the land.

33 Nor did Naphtali drive out the inhabitants of Beth Shemesh or Beth Anath; but they lived among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land. Those living in Beth Shemeh and Beth Anath, however, became forced laborers for them.

34 The Amorites forced the children of Dan into the hill country, not allowing them to come down into the plain.

35 And the Amorites were also determined to live in Mount Heres, Aiyalon, and Shaalbim, but when the power of the house of Yahseph became stronger, they were pressed into forced labor.

36 Now the boundary of the Amorites was from the ascent of Akrabbim: Scorpion Pass, to Sela and beyond.

CHAP 2

Then the malak of Yahweh went up from Gilgal to Bochim, and said: Mighty Yahweh led you out of Egypt and brought you to the land He promised to your forefathers; and He said: I will never break My covenant with you.

2 And you must make no covenant-treaties with the inhabitants of this land, and you must tear down their altars. But you have disobeyed My voice! How could you have done this?

3 Because you have done this, I said: I will not drive them out from in front of you. They will be thorns in your sides! Their gods will be a trap for you!

4 When the malak of Yahweh had spoken these things to all the children of Israyl, the people wept aloud.

5 Then they called that place Bokim: Weeping. There they offered sacrifices to Yahweh.

6 After Yahshua had dismissed the people of Israyl, they went to take possession of the land.

7 So the people served Yahweh all the days of Yahshua ben Nun, and all the days of the elders who outlived Yahshua, who had seen all the great works Yahweh had done for Israyl.

8 Yahshua ben Nun, the servant of Yahweh, died at the age of one hundred and ten.

9 They buried him in the land of his inheritance, at Timnath Serah in the hill country of Ephraim, north of Mount Gaash.

10 After that whole generation had been gathered to their fathers: completely dying out, another generation grew up who did not know Yahweh, nor the work which He had done for Israyl.

11 Then the children of Israyl did evil in the eyes of Yahweh, and served the Baals. The children of Israyl committed treason against Yahweh, deserting in order to serve lords, gods and goddesses.

12 They forsook Yahweh, the Mighty One of their fathers, Who had brought them out of the land of Egypt; and they followed and worshiped various gods of the peoples around them. By their worshiping and serving gods, they provoked Yahweh to anger.

13 They provoked Yahweh to anger because they forsook him and worshiped Baal; The Lord, and the Ashtoreth; the goddess; Astarte or Easter.

14 Then the anger of Yahweh burned hot against Israyl. So He delivered them into the hands of raiders who plundered them. He sold them into the hands of their enemies all around them, so they could no longer withstand their enemies.

15 Wherever they went out to fight, the hand of Yahweh was against them to defeat them, exactly as Yahweh had said, exactly as He had assured them on oath. They were besieged!

16 Then, Yahweh raised up judges, who saved them out of the hands of their plunderers.

17 Still, they would not listen to their judges; truly, they prostituted themselves to hinder gods and bowed themselves and worshiped in front of them! Unlike their fathers, they quickly turned from the way their fathers walked; the way of obedience to the commandments of Yahweh.

18 Whenever Yahweh raised up a judge for them, He was with the judge, and saved them out of the hands of their enemies all the days of the judge; for Yahweh had compassion on them as they groaned under those who oppressed and afflicted them.

19 But when the judge died, they turned to their former evil behavior, and behaved more corruptly than their fathers, following the gods—serving and worshiping them. They did not give up their own doings, nor cease from their stubborn ways.

20 Then the anger of Yahweh burned hot against Israyl; and He said: Because this nation has transgressed My covenant, which I first enacted for their forefathers, and has not listened to My voice:

21 I, also, will no longer drive out from in front of them the nations Yahshua left when he died.

22 I will use those nations to test Israyl, to see whether they will keep the ways of Yahweh, to walk in them as their fathers observed and did them, or not.

23 Therefore, Yahweh allowed those nations to remain without driving them out immediately; nor did He deliver them into the hand of Yahshua.

CHAP. 3

These are the communities Yahweh let remain, in order to test the children of Israyl who had not experienced any of the wars in Canaan.

2 (He did this to teach warfare to the descendants of the children of Israyl who had no previous experience in battle.)

3 These were: the five rulers of the Philistines, all the Canaanites, the Sidonians, and the Hivites living in the Lebanon mountains from Mount Baal Hermon to the entrance of Hamath.

4 They were left in order to test the children of Israyl; to see whether they would obey the commandments of Yahweh, which He had commanded their fathers, by the hand of Mosheh.

5 So, the children of Israyl lived among the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites, and the Yebusites.

6 And they took their daughters in marriage and gave their own daughters to their sons, and they worshiped and served their gods.

7 In this way the children of Israyl did evil in the sight of Yahweh. They forgot Yahweh their Father, and served baalim; the lords and gods, and ashtaroth; the goddesses.

8 Therefore, the anger of Yahweh burned hot against Israyl, and He sold them into the hand of Cushan-Rishathaim, King of Aram Naharaim; Northwest Mesopotamia. The children of Israyl served Cushan-Rishathaim for eight years.

9 But the children of Israyl cried out to Yahweh, and Yahweh raised up a deliverer for the children of Israyl, who saved them: Othniel son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother.

10 The Spirit of Yahweh came upon him, and he judged Israyl. He went forth to war, and Yahweh delivered Cushan-Rishathaim, king of Aram, into the hands of Othniel, who overpowered him.

11 Then the land had peace for forty years, until Othniel son of Kenaz died.

12 Then the children of Israyl again did evil in the sight of Yahweh. Because they did this evil, Yahweh gave Eglon king of Moab power over Israyl.

13 Eglon enlisted, as allies, the Ammonites and the Amalekites. They went out and defeated Israyl, and took possession of the city of palms; Yericho.

14 The children of Israyl were subject to Eglon king of Moab for eighteen years.

15 Then again, the children of Israyl cried out to Yahweh, and He gave them a deliverer—Ehud, the son of Gera, a Benjaminite, a left-handed man. The children of Israyl sent him with tribute to Eglon, king of Moab.

16 Now Ehud had made a double-edged sword about a cubit long; probably about 1 1/2 feet, which he strapped to his right thigh under his clothing.

17 So he presented the tribute to Eglon, king of Moab; and Eglon was an exceptionally fat man.

18 When he had finished presenting the tribute, he escorted the men who had carried it.

19 However, at the images near Gilgal he himself turned back, and said: I have a secret message for you, O king. Then Eglon said to his attendants: Depart! And all those who were attending him went out.

20 Then Ehud approached him (now Eglon was sitting upstairs in his cool private chamber). Then Ehud said: I have a message from Yahweh for you. When he got up from his seat, Eglon was close at hand.

21 As he rose up, Ehud reached with his left hand, drew the sword from his right thigh, and plunged it into his belly.

22 Even the handle sank in after the blade. Ehud did not pull the sword out, and the fat closed in over it.

23 Then, Ehud went out through the porch, and shut the doors of the upper room behind him, and locked them.

24 After he had gone, the servants came and found the doors of the upper room locked. They said: He must be relieving himself in the inner room of the house.

25 So they waited until they were embarrassed, and still Eglon had not opened the doors of the upper room. Then they took a key and unlocked the doors, and found their ruler dead on the floor.

26 Ehud escaped while they delayed. He passed by the images and escaped to Seirah.

27 When he arrived there, he blew a trumpet in the hill country of Ephraim, and the children of Israyl went down with him from the hills, and he led them.

28 Then he said to them; Follow me, for Yahweh has delivered your enemies, the Moabites, into your hand. So they followed him down; and after taking possession of the fords of the Yarden that led to Moab, they allowed no one to cross over.

29 At that time they killed about ten thousand men of Moab, all vigorous and strong; not a man escaped.

30 That day Moab was made subject to Israyl, and the land had peace for eighty years.

31 And after Ehud came Shamgar, the son of Anath, who killed six hundred men of the Philistines with an ox goad; and he also saved Israyl.

CHAP. 4

After Ehud died, the children of Israyl once again did evil in the eyes of Yahweh;

2 So Yahweh then sold them into the power of Yabin, a king of Canaan who reigned in Hazor. The commander of his army was Sisera, who lived in Harosheth Hagoyim.

3 And the children of Israyl cried out to Yahweh for help, because he had nine hundred iron chariots, and had cruelly oppressed the children of Israyl for twenty years.

4 Now Deborah, a prophetess, the wife of Lappidoth, was judging Israyl at that time;

5 She would preside under the palm tree of Deborah, between Ramah and Bethel in the Ephraimite hill country, and the children of Israyl came to her to have their disputes decided.

6 And she sent, and summoned Barak the son of Abinoah; her husband, from Kedesh in Naphtali, and said to him; Yahweh, the Father of Israyl, commands you: Go, take with you ten thousand men of Naphtali and Zebulun, and lead the way to Mount Tabor.

7 I will bring Sisera, the commander of Yabin's army, against you, along with his chariots and his multitudes, at the River Kishon; and I will deliver him into your hands.

8 However, Barak, her husband, said to her; If you will go with me, then I will go. But if you will not go with me, then I will not go.

9 So she said; I will surely go with you, but there will be no glory for you in the journey you are taking, because Yahweh will sell Sisera into the hand of a woman. So Deborah went with Barak to Kedesh;

10 Then Barak summoned Zebulun and Naphtali to Kedesh. Ten thousand men followed him, and Deborah also went with him.

11 Now Heber the Kenite, of the children of Hobab, the relation-by-law of Mosheh, had separated himself from the other Kenites, and had pitched his tent near the great tree in Zaanannim, near Kedesh.

12 And it was reported to Sisera that Barak the son of Abinoam had gone up to Mount Tabor.

13 So Sisera gathered all his chariots—nine hundred chariots of iron, and all the people with him, from Harosheth Hagoyim to the Kishon River.

14 Then Deborah said to Barak; Go! For this is the day Yahweh has delivered Sisera into your hands. Has not Yahweh gone out in front of you? So Barak descended from Mount Tabor, with ten thousand men following him.

15 At Barak's advance, Yahweh confounded Sisera; defeating all his chariots and all his army with the edge of the sword. So Sisera abandoned his chariot, and fled on foot.

16 But Barak pursued the chariots and army as far as Harosheth Hagoyim. All the army of Sisera fell by the edge of the sword; not a man was left.

17 However, Sisera fled on foot to the tent of Yael, the wife of Heber the Kenite, because there were friendly relations between Yabin, king of Hazor, and the clan of Heber, the Kenite.

18 Yael went out to meet Sisera, and said to him; Come, my ruler, come right in. Do not be afraid. And when he had come into her tent, she covered him with a blanket.

19 Then he said to her; Give me a little water to drink, for I am thirsty. So she opened a skin of milk, gave him a drink, and covered him up.

20 And he said to her; Stand in the doorway of your tent, and if any man comes and asks you: Is there any man here? tell him: No.

21 But Yael, Heber's wife, picked up a tent peg and a hammer and went quietly to him while he lay fast asleep, exhausted. Then she drove the tent peg through his temple into the ground, and he died.

22 And then, as Barak pursued Sisera, Yael came out to meet him, and said to him; Come, I will show you the man whom you seek. And when he went into her tent, there lay Sisera, with the tent peg through his temple—dead.

23 So, on that day Yahweh subdued Yabin, king of Canaan, in the presence of the children of Israyl.

24 And the hand of the children of Israyl grew stronger and stronger against Yabin king of Canaan, until they had destroyed Yabin king of Canaan.

In Judges 4:4 Deborah is called the wife of Lappidoth, which means, Flasher. The name, Lappidoth does not appear again in this story and is possibly Deborah's husband's nickname. Tradition knew him chiefly as Barak, meaning, Lightning. The force of this opening play upon the name of a great military leader, will only emerge from a careful scrutiny of the story's characterization of Barak, who is away on a campaign as the story begins, whom Deborah has to send for. Note the dramatic reversal at the point where Yahweh 'confounded' Sisera, that is, became too much for his military brain. Sisera was a Sea Peoples' deserter outdistancing his own defeated forces in retreat. Barak gave chase, but Yael was a covenant loyalist, which explains why she is 'most blessed' in Judges 5:24. Deborah also proclaimed more than she knew at the beginning of the story, when she told Barak that Sisera would be delivered into the hand of a woman.

CHAP. 5

Then Deborah and Barak the son of Abinoam sang on that day, saying:

2 When the leaders in Israyl take the lead, when the people willingly offer themselves; blessed be Yahweh!

3 Hear, O king! Give ear, O princes! I, yes I, will sing to Yahweh; I will sing to Yahweh Father of Israyl.

4 O Yahweh, when You went out from Seir, when You marched from the land of Edom, the earth shook, the heavens poured, the clouds poured down water.

5 The mountains quaked in front of Yahweh, the One of Sinai; in front of Yahweh, Father of Israyl!

6 In the days of Yael; the highways were deserted, and the travelers walked along the byways.

7 The warriors grew plump; in Israyl they grew plump, until you, Deborah, rose up; rose up a mother in Israyl.

8 They chose new gods; then they fought in the gates. Not a shield or a spear was seen among forty thousand in Israyl.

9 My heart was with the leaders of Israyl who offered themselves willingly with the people. Blessed be Yahweh!

10 O riders of white she-donkeys, O you who sit on the judgment seat, O you who walk along the road:

11 Listen to the sound of singers between watering places. They recite the righteous acts of Yahweh; the righteous acts of His warriors in Israyl. Then the people of Yahweh went down to the city gate.

12 Awake! Awake, Deborah! Awake! Awake! Sing a song! Rise up, Barak! Take your prisoners, O son of Abinoam!

13 Then the survivors came down to the nobles; the people of Yahweh came to me with the mighty.

14 Some came from Ephraim, whose roots were in Amalek; Benjamin was with the people who followed you. From Makir captains came down, from Zebulun: those who carry a commander's scepter.

15 Issachar's captains were with Deborah, Issachar was Barak's support; dispatched to the plain, under his command; among the divisions of Reuben there was great searching of heart.

16 Why did you stay among the campfires listening to the whistling for the flocks? In the districts of Reuben there was much searching of heart.

17 Gilead stayed beyond the Yordan. Why did Dan remain on ships? Asher remained at the seashore, and stayed on his coves.

18 The people of Zebulun risked their very lives; their lives to the point of death. Naphtali also, on the heights of the battlefield.

19 The kings came and fought; the kings of Canaan fought at Taanach by the waters of Megiddo. They carried off no silver, no plunder.

20 From the heavens fought the stars; from their courses they fought against Sisera!

21 The torrent of Kishon swept them away; that ancient torrent, the torrent of Kishon. March on, my soul; be strong!

22 Then the horses' hooves pounded. Galloping, galloping of his steeds.

23 O Curse Meroz, said the malak of Yahweh. Curse its people bitterly, because they did not come to help Yahweh; to help Yahweh against the mighty.

24 Most blessed among women is Yael, the wife of Heber the Kenite; among women in tents she is most blessed!

25 Water he asked for, and she gave him milk; in a bowl fit for nobles, she brought him curdled milk.

26 She stretched her hand to the tent peg, her right hand to the workmen's hammer; she pounded Sisera, she broke his head, she split and struck through his temple.

27 At her feet he sank, he fell, he lay still; at her feet he sank, he fell; where he sank, there he fell—dead.

28 The mother of Sisera peered through the window, and cried out through the lattice; Why is his chariot so long in coming? Why is the clatter of his chariots delayed?

29 The wisest of her ladies answer her. Yes, she answers herself:

30 Are they not finding and dividing the plunder: a girl or two for each man, colorful garments as spoil for Sisera; colorful garments embroidered, highly embroidered garments for the neck of the spoiler—all these as plunder.

31 In this way may all Your enemies perish, O Yahweh! But may they who love You be like the sun when it comes out in full strength! Then the land had peace for forty years.

CHAP. 6

Again the children of Israyl did evil in the eyes of Yahweh. So Yahweh gave them into the hands of the Midianites for seven years.

2 Because the power of Midian was so oppressive, the children of Israyl made dens, caves, and strongholds in the mountains for themselves.

3 Whenever Israyl had planted, those of the Midianites, Amalekites, and the people of the East would invade the country;

4 They would encamp against them and destroy the land's produce all they way to Gaza. They would leave no means of livelihood; neither sheep, ox, nor donkey.

5 They would come up with their livestock and their tents; as numerous as locusts. They and their camels were without number; and they entered the land to destroy it.

6 So Israyl became utterly destitute because of Midian, and the children of Israyl cried out to Yahweh.

7 On one occasion the children of Israyl cried out to Yahweh because of Midian,

8 Then Yahweh sent a prophet to the children of Israyl, who said to them; Here is what Yahweh, Father of Israyl, has said: I brought up from Egypt, and brought you out of the house of bondage;

9 I delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and from the power of all who oppressed you. I drove them out in front of you for your sake, and I gave you their land.

10 I also said to you: I am Yahweh your Father, do not revere the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you live. But you have not obeyed My voice!

11 The malak of Yahweh came and sat down under the oak in Ophrah, which belonged to Yahash the Abiezrite, where his son Gideon was threshing wheat in a winepress, to hide it from the Midianites.

12 And the malak of Yahweh appeared to him, and said; Yahweh is with you, leader in Israyl!

13 Then Gideon said to him; O my ruler, if Yahweh is with us, why then has all this come upon us? And where are all His miracles our fathers told us about, saying: Did not Yahweh bring us up out of Egypt? But now, Yahweh has forsaken us, and has delivered us into the power of the Midianites.

14 Then Yahweh turned to him, and said; Go in the strength you have, and save Israyl out of Midian's hand. Have I not sent you?

15 But Gideon said to Him; O my Mighty One, how can I save Israyl? Behold, my clan is the weakest one in Menasheh, and I am the most insignificant in my own family.

16 Then Yahweh said to him: Because Yahweh is with you, you shall defeat the Midianites as if they were but one man!

17 Then he said to Him; If I have found honor in Your sight, give me a sign that it is really You talking to me.

18 Do not go away from here, I ask you, until I come to You and bring my gift and set it in front of You. And He said; I will wait until you come back.

19 And Gideon went in and prepared a young goat, and unleavened bread from an ephah of flour. The meat he put in a basket, and the broth he put in a pot. He brought them out and offered them to Him under the oak.

20 The malak of Yahweh said to him; Take the meat and the unleavened bread and lay them on this rock, then pour out the broth. And Gideon did so.

21 The malak of Yahweh extended the tip of the staff that was in his hand and touched the meat and the unleavened cakes; and then fire flared up from the rock, and consumed the meat and the unleavened bread. And the malak of Yahweh disappeared from his sight.

22 Now when Gideon realized that it was the malak of Yahweh, he said; Oh no! O Mighty Yahweh! For now I have seen the malak of Yahweh face to face!

23 But Yahweh said to him; Shalom! Do not be afraid, you will not die.

24 Gideon built an altar there for Yahweh, and called it: Yahweh Shalom; Yahweh is Peace. To this day it stands in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.

25 That same night Yahweh said to him; Take your father's young bull, the second one, seven years old, and tear down your father's altar to ● Baal, and chop down the Asherah pole along side of it.

26 Then build an altar to Yahweh your Father on top of this stronghold, with stones in the proper arrangement. You will take the number two bull, and present it as a burnt offering, using the wood from the Asherah pole, which you will chop down.

27 So Gideon took ten men from among his servants, and did just as Yahweh had said to him. But he was too afraid of his father's household and the men of his city to do this by day, so he did it by night.

28 When the men of the city rose early that next morning, they found Baal's altar had been torn down, and the Asherah pole alongside it chopped down, and the number two bull was being consumed on the altar which had been built.

29 They asked one another: Who has done this thing? When they made inquiry and investigated, they were told; Gideon the son of Yahash has done this thing.

30 Then the men of the city said to Yahash, Gideon's father; Bring out your son. He must die, because he has broken down Baal's altar, and cut down the Asherah pole beside it.

31 But Yahash replied to the angry crowd, who stood against him; Would you prosecute for Baal? Are you going to save him? Whoever prosecutes for him, let him be put to death by morning! For if he is a god, let him plead his own case for himself; because he tore down his altar!

32 So that day they called Gideon: Yerubbaal, saying; Let Baal Sue Him, for he tore down his altar!

33 Then all the Midianites, Amalekites, and the people of the East gathered together, crossed over, and encamped in the Valley of Yezreel.

34 Then Yahweh's Spirit came upon Gideon, and he blew a trumpet, summoning the Abiezrites to follow him.

35 Then he sent messengers throughout Menasheh, who also gathered behind him. He also sent messengers to Asher, Zebulun, and Naphtali. Then they went up to meet him.

36 Gideon said to Yahweh; If You will save Israyl by my hand, as You have promised—

37 Look, I have put a fleece of wool on the threshing floor. If there is dew on the fleece only, while all the ground is dry, then I will know that You will save Israyl by my hand, just as You have said.

38 And it was so. When he rose early the next morning and squeezed the fleece together, he collected enough dew from the fleece to fill a bowl with water.

39 Then Gideon said to Yahweh; Do not be angry with me, but let me speak just one more time. I will test just once more with the fleece. Please let the fleece alone be dry, while the dew comes over all the ground.

40 And Yahweh did so that night. It was dry on the fleece only, but there was dew on all the ground.

CHAP. 7

Then Yerubbaal; Let Baal Sue. (really Gideon) and all the people with him rose early and encamped by Harod's spring. The camp of Midian was in the valley, north of them near the hill of Moreh.

2 Yahweh said to Gideon; The people that are with you are too many for Me to surrender Midian to their power, or Israyl may become proud against Me, and say; Our own hands have saved us.

3 Now, announce in the hearing of the people, and say; Whoever is trembling with fear, let him turn back and leave Mount Gilead. So 22,000 men left, while 10,000 remained.

4 Then Yahweh said to Gideon; The people are still too many. Make them go down to the water, and I will test them there for you. If I say; This one shall go with you, he shall go with you; but if I say; This one shall not go with you, then he shall not go.

5 So he brought the people to the water. Then Yahweh said to Gideon; Everyone who laps with his tongue, the way a dog laps, cupping his hand and bringing it to his mouth, set apart by themselves. Everyone who goes down on his knees to drink water, set apart by themselves.

6 The total of those who lapped like a dog, putting their hand to their mouth, was only three hundred men. All the rest of the men got down on their knees to drink water.

7 Then Yahweh said to Gideon; With the three hundred men who lapped I will save you, and deliver the Midianites into your hand. Let all the other men go, each to his own place.

8 So Gideon sent the rest of the sons of Israyl to their own places, but kept the three hundred, who took over the provisions and trumpets of the others. Now the camp of Midian lay below him in the valley.

9 During that night Yahweh said to Gideon; Get up, go down into the camp, for I have delivered it into your hand.

10 However, if you are afraid to go down, then go down with your servant Purah to their camp. You will then hear what they are saying.

11 After that, you will be much bolder and you will go down into the camp. So he and his servant Purah went down to the outpost of the armed men who were in that camp.

12 The Midianites, Amalekites, and all the people of the East had settled into the valley, as numerous as locusts. Their camels could no more be counted than the sands on the seashore.

13 When Gideon arrived, a man was just then describing a dream to his friend. He said; I had a dream. To my surprise, a moldy loaf of barley bread came tumbling into Midian's camp. It struck the tent with such force that the tent overturned and collapsed.

14 His friend replied; This can be nothing other than the sword of Gideon son of Yahash, the Israylite. Yahweh has given the Midianites and the whole camp into his hands.

15 When Gideon heard the telling of the dream and its interpretation, he worshiped Yahweh. He returned to the camp of Israyl, and said; Up! For Yahweh has surrendered the Midianite forces into your hands!

16 He divided the three hundred men into three companies, and he gave each man a trumpet and an empty jar, with torches inside the jars.

17 He said to them; Keep your eye upon me and follow my lead. When I get to the edge of the camp, do exactly as I do.

18 When I and all who are with me blow our trumpets, then you blow the trumpets too, all around the entire camp, and shout; For Yahweh and for Gideon!

19 Gideon and the hundred men with him reached the edge of the camp at the beginning of the middle watch, just after they had changed the guard. They blew their trumpets and broke the jars that were in their hands.

20 Then the three companies blew the trumpets and shattered the jars. They held the torches in their left hands and their trumpets in their right hands, so they could blow them, and shouted; A sword for Yahweh and for Gideon!

21 While each man stood in his position around the camp, all the Midianites ran away, crying out as they fled.

22 When the three hundred blew the trumpets, Yahweh caused the men throughout the camp to turn on each other with their swords. The army fled to Beth Shittah toward Zererah, as far as the boundary of Abel Meholah near Tabbath.

23 Then the men of Israyl from Naphtali, Asher, and all of Menasheh gathered together and chased the Midianites.

24 Then Gideon sent messengers throughout the hill country of Ephraim, saying: Come down against the Midianites and capture the watering places from them as far as Beth Barah and the Yordan. Then all the men of Ephraim gathered together and seized the watering places as far as Beth Barah and the Yordan.

25 They also captured two of the Midianite leaders, Oreb and Zeeb. They killed Oreb at the rock of Oreb, and Zeeb at the winepress of Zeeb. They chased the Midianites and brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon, who was by the Yordan.

CHAP. 8

Now the men of Ephraim asked Gideon: What is this you have done to us, by not calling us when you went out to fight Midian? They criticized him sharply.

2 But he answered them; What, now, have I done, as compared with you? Is not the gleanings of Ephraim's grapes better than the full vintage harvest of Abiezer?

3 Yahweh gave Oreb and Zeeb, the Midianite princes, into your power. What was I able to do compared to you? When he had said this, their resentment against him subsided.

4 Gideon and his three hundred men, exhausted yet still giving chase, came to the Yordan and crossed it.

5 Then he said to the men of Succoth: Please give loaves of bread to the men who follow me, for they are exhausted, and we are still pursuing Zebah and Zalmunna, kings of Midian.

6 But the officials of Succoth said: Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in your hands, that we should give bread to your army?

7 So Gideon said: Because of this, when Yahweh has delivered Zebah and Zalmunna into my power, then I will tear your flesh with the thorns of the wilderness and with briers!

8 Then he went up from there to Penuel and spoke to them in the same way, and the men of Penuel answered him in the same way the men of Succoth had answered him.

9 So he also spoke to the men of Penuel, and said: When I come back in peace, I will tear down this tower!

10 Now Zebah and Zalmunna were in Karkor with a force of about 15,000 men, all that were left of the armies of the people of the East, because 120,000 swordsmen had fallen.

11 Gideon went up by the road of the nomads east of Nobah and Yogbehah, and attacked the unsuspecting army.

12 Zebah and Zalmunna fled, but Gideon chased after them and captured the two Midianite kings, Zebah and Zalmunna, and defeated their whole army.

13 Then Gideon, the son of Yahash, returned from the battle with Zebah and Zalmunna by the way of Heres Pass.

14 He captured a young man belonging to the men of Succoth, and questioned him. He listed for him the leaders of Succoth and its elders: seventy-seven men.

15 Then he went to the men of Succoth and said: Here they are—Zebah and Zalmunna—about whom you ridiculed me, saying: Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in your power, that we should give bread to your weary men?

16 Then he took the city's elders and the wilderness-thorns and briers, and he taught those men a lesson by flailing the men of Succoth!

17 Then he tore down the tower of Penuel and killed the men of the city.

18 Then he asked Zebah and Zalmunna: What kind of men did you kill at Tabor? They answered him: Men like you, each one with the bearing of a prince.

19 Gideon replied: Those were my brothers, the sons of my own mother. As surely as Yahweh lives, if you had spared their lives, I would not be killing you.

20 Then he said to Yether his firstborn: Rise up and kill them! But the boy would not draw his sword, because he was afraid, being still a youth.

21 But Zebah and Zalmunna said: You take a stand and kill us, for a man is measured by his strength! So Gideon stepped forward and killed them, and took the crescent ornaments from the necks of their camels.

22 The children of Israyl said to Gideon: Reign over us—you, and your son, and your grandson—for you have saved and delivered us from the hand of Midian.

23 But Gideon said to them: I will not reign over you. My son will not reign over you. Yahweh shall reign over you!

24 Then Gideon said to them: Let me make a request of you. Give me, each of you, the earrings you took as plunder. (They had gold earrings in their plunder, because they were Ishmaelites whom they defeated.)

25 So they answered: We will gladly give them. Then they spread out a garment, and each man threw into it the earrings from his plunder.

26 The weight of the gold earrings he requested was one thousand, seven hundred gold shekels; about 43 pounds, not including the crescents, pendants, and purple garments which were on the Midianite kings, and not including the crescent ornaments on their camels' necks.

27 Then Gideon made it into an ephod, which he placed in Ophrah, his city. All Israyl prostituted themselves there! It became a snare to Gideon and his house!

28 Midian was subdued in front of the children of Israyl, and they no longer raised their heads. During Gideon's lifetime, the land had peace for forty years.

29 Then Yerubbaal (Gideon), the son of Yahash, went back home to live.

30 He had seventy sons, of his own offspring, for he had many wives.

31 His concubine, who lived in Shechem, also bore him a son, whom he named Abimelech; meaning, My Father is King.

32 Gideon son of Yahash died at a great old age and was buried in the tomb of Yahash his father, in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.

33 No sooner had Gideon died, than the children of Israyl again prostituted themselves with the Baals, and made Baal-Berith, meaning Lord of the Covenant, their god.

34 The children of Israyl did not remember Yahweh their Father, Who saved them from the power of their enemies all around them.

35 Nor did they deal faithfully to the house of Yerubbaal (Gideon) for the things he had done for them.

CHAP. 9

Abimelech the son of Yerubbaal went to Shechem, to his mother's brothers; his uncles, and to all his mother's clan, saying:

2 Ask all the citizens of Shechem: Which is better for you: For all seventy of the sons of Yerubbaal to reign over you, or for only one to reign over you? Remember, I am your own flesh and blood.

3 So his mother's relatives reported the whole proposal, on his behalf, in the hearing of all the rulers of Shechem. They were inclined to follow Abimelech, because they said: He is our brother.

4 They gave him seventy silver shekels; about 1 3/4 pounds, from the temple of Baal-Berith, which Abimelech used to hire worthless and reckless men, who became his followers.

5 He went to his father's house in Ophrah, and on one stone murdered his seventy brothers, the sons of Yerubbaal. But Yahtham, the youngest son of Yerubbaal, was left alive because he hid himself.

6 Then all the men of Shechem gathered together, all of Beth Millo, and they crowned Abimelech king beside the great tree at the pillar in Shechem.

7 When Yahtham was told about this, he climbed up on the top of Mount Gerizim, and shouted to them: Listen to me, you men of Shechem! And let Yahweh listen to you!

8 The trees set out determined to anoint over them a king. They said to the olive tree: Reign over us!

9 But the olive tree said to them: Should I cease making my oil, with which they honor Yahweh and men, to go and sway over trees?

10 Then the trees said to the fig tree: You come and reign over us!

11 But the fig tree said to them: Should I cease bearing fruit, so delicious and sweet, to go and sway over trees?

12 Then the trees said to the vine: You come and reign over us!

13 But the vine said to them: Should I cease bringing forth new wine, which cheers both Yahweh and men, to go and sway over trees?

14 Then all the trees said to the bramble: You come and reign over us!

15 The bramble said to the trees: If you really want to anoint me king over you, come and take refuge in my shade; but if not, then let fire come out of the bramble and consume the cedars of Lebanon!

16 Therefore, if you have acted honorably and truthfully in making Abimelech king, and if you have dealt fairly with Yerubbaal and his house, and if you have treated him as he deserves—

17 (For my father fought for you, risked his life, and saved you out of the hand of the Midianites;

18 But you have risen up this day against my father's house, and killed his seventy sons on one stone. You have made Abimelech, the son of his maidservant, king over the men of Shechem, because he is your brother)—

19 If, then, you have acted honorably and truthfully toward Yerubbaal and his family today; may Abimelech be your joy, and may you be his, as well.

20 But if you have not; may fire come out from Abimelech, and consume you, O men of Shechem and Beth Millo; and may fire come out from you, O men of Shechem and Beth Millo, and consume Abimelech!

21 Then Yahtham fled. He ran away to Beer, and settled there because of his brother, Abimelech.

22 After Abimelech had reigned over Israyl for three years.

23 Yahweh sent an evil spirit between Abimelech and the men of Shechem, and the men of Shechem acted treacherously against Abimelech.

24 Yahweh brought this to pass in order for the crime done to the seventy sons of Yerubbaal to be settled, and for their blood to be avenged upon Abimelech their brother, who killed them; and on the men of Shechem, who had helped him murder his brothers.

25 In opposition to him, these men of Shechem set men on the hilltops to ambush and rob all who passed by, and this was told to Abimelech.

26 Gaal son of Ebed moved with his brothers into Shechem, and its men put their confidence in him.

27 So they went out into the fields, and gathered the grapes from their vineyards and trod them, and made merry. Then they went into the house of their god, and ate and drank, and cursed Abimelech.

28 Then Gaal, the son of Ebed, said: Who is Abimelech, and who is Shechem, that we should be subject to him? Is he not Yerubbaal's sons? Is not Zebul his officer? Serve the men of Hamor, Shechem's father, but why should we serve Abimelech?

29 If only I were leading this people! Then I would remove Abimelech! I would challenge Abimelech, and say: Build up your army and come out!

30 When Zebul, the commander of the city, heard the words of Gaal the son of Ebed, his anger was aroused.

31 So he sent messengers to Abimelech, secretly, to tell him: Gaal son of Ebed and his brothers have come to Shechem and are stirring up the city against you.

32 Therefore, get up by night, you and your forces with you, and wait in ambush in the plain.

33 Then in the morning, when the sun comes up, you shall charge into the city. And then, when he and his force are coming out toward you, you may do to him whatever the opportunity offers.

34 So Abimelech and all his force with him set out by night, and took up concealed positions near Shechem, dividing into four companies.

35 Now, Gaal son of Ebed had gone out and was standing at the entrance to the city gates, just as Abimelech and his men came out from their hiding place.

36 When Gaal saw them, he said to Zebul: Look! People are coming down from the tops of the mountains! But Zebul said to him: You are just seeing shadows from the mountain! You don't see any men!

37 But Gaal spoke up again, and said: Look! A force is coming down from center of the land, and a company is coming from the direction of the soothsayer's tree!

38 Then Zebul said to him: Where is that bold mouth of yours, now? You said: Who is Abimelech that we should serve him? Is not this the force you despised? Go out now, if you will, and fight with them.

39 So Gaal went out with the people watching, leading the men of Shechem, and fought with Abimelech.

40 Abimelech chased him, and many fell wounded in the flight—all the way to the entrance to the gate.

41 Then Abimelech stayed at Arumah, and Zebul drove out Gaal and his brothers, so they could not live in Shechem.

42 The next day the people of Shechem went out to the fields, and this was reported to Abimelech.

43 So he took his men, divided them into three companies, and set an ambush in the fields. When he saw the people coming out of the city, he rose up against them and attacked them.

44 Abimelech and the companies with him rushed forward to a position at the entrance to the city gate. Then two companies rushed upon those in the fields and cut them down.

45 All that day Abimelech fought against the city. He took the city and killed the people in it, then he demolished the city and sowed it with salt.

46 When all this was heard by the men of the tower of Shechem, they entered the stronghold of the temple of the god, El Berith.

47 When Abimelech heard they had gathered there,

48 He and all his men went up Mount Zalmon. He took an ax, cut off a bough of a tree, and laid it on his shoulder. Then he said to the men with him: Hurry and do exactly as I have done.

49 So all the men cut boughs and followed Abimelech. They piled them against the stronghold, and set it on fire over the people inside. All the people in the tower of Shechem, about a thousand men and women, died there.

50 Then Abimelech went to Thebez, besieged it, and captured it.

51 But there was a strong tower in the city, to which all the men and women—all the people of the city—fled. They locked themselves in and climbed up to the top of the tower.

52 So Abimelech came as far as the tower and fought against it. As he approached the entrance to the tower to set it on fire:

53 A woman dropped an upper millstone on his head and crushed his skull.

54 Then he called quickly to his armor-bearer, and said to him: Draw out your sword and kill me, or men will say of me: A woman killed him. So the young man thrust him through, and he died.

55 When the men of Israyl saw that Abimelech was dead, they went home, each man to his own place.

56 In this way Yahweh repaid the wickedness that Abimelech had done to his father by murdering his seventy brothers.

57 And all the evil committed by the men of Shechem Yahweh returned to their own heads. On them came the curse of Yahtham the son of Yerubbaal.

CHAP. 10

After Abimelech there arose Tola the son of Puah, the son of Dodo, a man of Issachar to save Israyl. He lived in Shamir in the hill country of Ephraim.

2 He judged Israyl twenty-three years, then he died and was buried in Shamir.

3 After him arose Yair of Gilead. He judged Israyl twenty-two years.

4 He had thirty sons, who rode thirty donkeys. They also had thirty cities, which are called: Havoth Yair; cities of Yair. to this day, they are in the land of Gilead.

5 And Yair died and was buried in Camon.

6 Then the children of Israyl again did evil in the eyes of Yahweh. They served the Baals, The Lords, and the Ashtoreths, Astarte and Easter, and the gods of Aram, the gods of Sidon, the gods of Moab, the gods of the Ammonites, and the gods of the Philistines; they forsook Yahweh and did not serve Him.

7 So the anger of Yahweh burned hot against Israyl, and He sold them into the power of the Philistines, and into the power of the people of Ammon.

8 From that year they shattered and crushed them. For eighteen years they oppressed all the children of Israyl on the east side of the Yordan, in Gilead, the land of the Amorites.

9 The Ammonites also crossed the Yordan to fight against Yahdah, Benyamin, and the tribe of Ephraim. Israyl was severely distressed.

10 Then the children of Israyl cried out to Yahweh, saying: We have sinned against You! We have forsaken our Father in order to serve Baalim! Lords, Gods, and Goddesses!

11 Then Yahweh said to the children of Israyl: Did I not save you from the Egyptians, the Amorites, the Ammonites, and the Philistines?

12 When the Sidonians, the Amalekites, and the Midianites oppressed you, did I not deliver you when you cried out to Me?

13 Yet you forsake Me to serve gods! Therefore, I will save you no more!

14 Go! Cry out to the gods you have chosen! Let them save you in your time of trouble!

15 But the children of Israyl said to Yahweh: We have sinned! Do with us whatever seems best to You; only save us this day, we pray.

16 Then they got rid of the gods among them, and served Yahweh. Then He could no longer endure the misery of Israyl.

17 Then the Ammonites gathered together and encamped in Gilead. The children gathered together and encamped in Mizpah.

18 The leaders of the people of Gilead said to each other: Who is the man who will start the fighting with the Ammonites? He shall be head of all the inhabitants of Gilead!

CHAP. 11

Yephthah the Gileadite was a mighty man of valor, but he was the son of a prostitute; Gilead begot Yephthah.

2 Gilead's wife had bore him sons, and when his wife's sons grew up, they drove Yephthah out, and said to him: You have no inheritance in our father's house, because you are the son of another woman.

3 Then Yephthah fled from his brothers and lived in the land of Tob, where a group of worthless men gathered around him, and followed him.

4 Some time later, when the Ammonites made war on Israyl:

5 The elders of Gilead went to get Yephthah from the land of Tob.

6 Then they said to Yephthah: Come and be our commander, so we may fight against the people of Ammon.

7 But Yephthah said to the elders of Gilead: Did you not hate me, and drive me from my father's house? Why do you come to me now, when you are in trouble?

8 The elders of Gilead said to him: That is why we have turned to you now, so you may go with us and fight against the people of Ammon. You will then be the head over all the inhabitants of Gilead.

9 So Yephthah said to the elders of Gilead: If you take me back to fight the Ammonites, and Yahweh delivers them to me, then I will be your head.

10 The elders of Gilead said to Yephthah: Yahweh will be witness between us. We will surely do as you say.

11 So Yephthah went along with the elders of Gilead, and the people made him head and commander over them, and Yephthah recited all his words in front of Yahweh in Mizpah.

12 Yephthah sent messengers to the king of the Ammonites, saying: What do you have against me, that you have invaded my land to fight against me?

13 The king of the people of Ammon answered the messengers of Yephthah: Because Israyl took away my land when they came out of Egypt—from the Arnon as far as the Yabbok, to the Yordan. Return my lands now peaceably, and I will go. So the messengers returned to Yephthah.

14 But Yephthah again sent messengers to the king of the people of Ammon.

15 And said to him: This is what Yephthah says: Israyl did not take away the land of Moab, nor the land of the people of Ammon;

16 For when Israyl came from Egypt, they walked through the wilderness as far as the Red Sea, and came to Kadesh.

17 Then Israyl sent messengers to the king of Edom, saying: Please let me pass through your land. But the king of Edom would not listen. In the same manner they sent to the king of Moab, but he too was unwilling to let them cross. So Israyl remained in Kadesh.

18 They traveled through the wilderness and circled around the land of Edom and the land of Moab; they came to the east of the land of Moab and set up camp on the other side of the Arnon. They did not enter the territory of Moab, for the Arnon was the Moabite border.

19 Then Israyl sent messengers to Sihon king of the Amorites, king of Heshbon; and Israyl said to him: Let us pass through your land to our place.

20 But Sihon did not trust Israyl to cross through his territory. So Sihon gathered all his people together, encamped in Yatzah, and fought against Israyl.

21 Then Yahweh Father of Israyl delivered Sihon and all his people into the power of Israyl, and they defeated them. In this way Israyl gained possession of all the land of the Amorites, who lived in that country.

22 They took possession of all the territory of the Amorites, from the Arnon to the Yabbok, and from the wilderness to the Yordan.

23 So now, Yahweh Father of Israyl has driven out the Amorites from in front of His people Israyl. Will you dispossess them?

24 Is it not right that whatever your god Chemosh gives you, that you should possess it? Therefore, whatever Yahweh our Father gives to us, that is what we will possess.

25 Now, are you any better than Balak son of Zippor, the Moabite king? Did he ever quarrel with Israyl? Did he ever fight against them?

26 For three hundred years Israyl occupied Heshbon, Aroer, the surrounding villages and all the cities along the Arnon. Why did you not retake them during that time?

27 Therefore, I have not wronged you, but you are doing me wrong by waging war against me. Let Yahweh, The Judge, decide the dispute this day between the children of Israyl and the children of Ammon.

28 However, the king of the people of Ammon did not listen to the words which Yephthah sent him.

29 Then the Spirit of Yahweh came upon Yephthah. He crossed Gilead and Menasheh, passed through Mizpah of Gilead, and from there he advanced against the Ammonites.

30 And Yephthah made a vow to Yahweh: If you give the Ammonites into my power, 31 Then whatever comes out of the door of my house to meet me when I return in triumph from the Ammonites will be Yahweh's, and I will sacrifice it as a burnt offering.

32 So Yephthah advanced toward the people of Ammon to battle, and Yahweh delivered them into his hands.

33 He defeated them from Aroer as far as Minnith—twenty cities—and as far as Abel Keramim: Plain of Vineyards, with a very great slaughter. In this way the people of Ammon were subdued in front of the children of Israyl.

34 When Yephthah returned to his home in Mizpah, who should come out to meet him but his daughter, coming out with timbrels and dancing. She was an only child. Other than her, he had no son or daughter.

35 When he saw her, he tore his clothes, and cried: Oh! My daughter! You have made me miserable! You are among those who trouble me! For I have given my word to Yahweh, and I cannot go back on my vow.

36 She said to him: My father, you have made a vow to Yahweh. Do to me as you have spoken, because Yahweh has avenged you upon your enemies, the people of Ammon.

37 Then she said to her father: Let this be done for me: let me alone for two moons, so I may go and wander on the hills and bewail my virginity, I and my friends.

38 So he said: Go. Then he sent her away for two moons; and she went with her friends, and bewailed her virginity on the hills.

39 At the end of two moons, she returned to her father. He did to her as he had vowed. And she was a virgin. And it became a custom in Israyl.

40 For the daughters of Israyl to go out four days each year to mourn for the daughter of Yephthah.

CHAP. 12

Then the men of Ephraim gathered together, crossed over toward Zaphon, and said to Yephthah: Why did you advance to fight the Ammonites without summoning us to go with you? We will burn down your house on top of you!

2 Yephthah said to them: My people and I were first using diplomacy with the people of Ammon, but the Ammonites answered me with oppression. I summoned you, but you did not rescue me from their power.

3 When I saw that you would not help me, I took my life in my hands and advanced against the Ammonites. Yahweh delivered them into my hands. Now why have you come up to me today? To fight against me?

4 So Yephthah gathered all the men of Gilead and fought against Ephraim. And the men of Gilead defeated Ephraim, because they said; You Gileadites are renegades from Ephraim and Menasheh.

5 The Gileadites captured the fords of the Yordan leading to Ephraim, and whenever a survivor of Ephraim said; Let me cross over, the men of Gilead asked him; Are you an Ephraimite? If he answered; No.

6 Then they would say; All right, then say; Shibboleth! If he said; Sibboleth instead, because he could not pronounce that word correctly, they seized him and killed him at the fords of the Yordan. 42,000 Ephraimites were killed at that time.

7 Yephthah judged Israyl six years. Then Yephthah the Gileadite died and was buried in his own city, in Gilead.

8 After him, Ibzan of Bethlehem judged Israyl.

9 He had thirty sons. Thirty daughters he sent away, and thirty daughters-in-law he brought in from the outside for his sons. He judged Israyl seven years.

10 Then Ibzan died and was buried at Bethlehem.

11 After him, Elon the Zebulunite judged Israyl. He judged Israyl ten years.

12 And Elon the Zebulunite died and was buried at Aiyalon, in the country of Zebulun.

13 After him, Abdon the son of Hillel the Pirathonite judged Israyl.

14 He had forty sons and thirty grandsons, who rode on seventy young donkeys. He judged Israyl eight years.

15 Then Abdon the son of Hillel the Pirathonite died and was buried in Pirathon in the land of Ephraim, in the mountains of the Amalekites.

CHAP. 13

Again the children of Israyl did evil in the eyes of Yahweh, so Yahweh delivered them into the hands of the Philistines for forty years.

2 A certain man of Zorah, named Manoah, from the clan of the Danites, had a wife who was barren, and he had no children.

3 The malak of Yahweh appeared to the woman, and said to her; truly now, you are barren and have borne no children, but you will conceive and bear a son.

4 Now therefore, be careful now and drink no wine or strong drink, and eat nothing unclean.

5 For you shall conceive and bear a son. And no razor shall come upon his head, for the child shall be a Nazirite to Yahweh from the womb; and he shall begin to deliver Israyl out of the hands of the Philistines.

6 Then the woman went to her husband and told him; A man of Yahweh came to me, and his appearance was just like that of Yahweh's malak—very awesome! I did not ask where he came from, and he did not tell me his name.

7 But he did say to me; Behold, you shall conceive and bear a son. Now drink no wine or strong drink, nor eat anything unclean, because the child shall be a Nazirite to Yahweh, from the womb to the day of his death.

8 Then Manoah prayed to Yahweh, and said; O Yahweh, please let the man of Yahweh, whom You sent, come to us again and teach us what we shall do for this child who will be born.

9 Yahweh listened to Manoah, and the malak of Yahweh came to the woman again as she was sitting in the field; but Manoah, her husband, was not with her.

10 Then the woman ran in haste and told her husband, and said to him; Look, the man has just now appeared to me, who came to me the other day.

11 So Manoah rose up and followed his wife. When he came to the man, he said to him; Are you the man who spoke to this woman? And he answered; I am.

12 Then Manoah said; Now let your words come true! What will be the judgment of the boy and his work?

13 Then the malak of Yahweh said to Manoah; Of all that I told to the woman, let her be mindful.

14 She must not eat anything that comes from the vine, nor may she drink wine or strong drink, nor eat anything unclean. All that I commanded her, let her observe to do it.

15 Then Manoah said to the malak of Yahweh; Please let us detain you, and we will prepare a young goat for you.

16 Then the malak of Yahweh said to Manoah; Though you detain me, I will not eat your food. But if you offer a burnt offering, then you must offer it to Yahweh (For Manoah did not know he was the malak of Yahweh.)

17 Then Manoah said to the malak of Yahweh; What is your name, so when your words come true, then we may honor you?

18 But the malak of Yahweh said to him; Why do you ask my name? It is wonderful.

19 So Manoah took the young goat with the grain offering, and offered in upon the rock to Yahweh. And he did a wondrous thing while Manoah and his wife looked on:

20 As the flames went up toward heaven from the altar, the malak of Yahweh ascended in the flame of the altar. When Manoah and his wife saw this, they fell face downward to the ground.

21 When the malak of Yahweh appeared no more to Manoah and his wife, then Manoah knew that he was the malak of Yahweh.

22 Then Manoah said to his wife; We shall surely die, because we have seen Yahweh!

23 But his wife said to him; If Yahweh had wanted to kill us, He would not have accepted our burnt offering and our grain offering, nor would He have shown us all these things, nor just now announced to us such a thing as this.

24 So the woman bore a son and called his name Samson; Shimshon; Like The Sun: Powerful, and the child grew, and Yahweh blessed him.

25 And the Spirit of Yahweh began to move upon him, while he was at Mahaneh Dan, between Zorah and Eshtaol.

CHAP. 14

Samson went down to Timnah, where he saw a woman in Timnah, of the daughters of the Philistines.

2 When he returned, he said to his father and mother; I have seen a Philistine woman in Timnah. Get her for me as my wife.

3 Then his father and mother said to him; Is there no woman among the daughters of your brothers, or among all my people, that you must go and get a wife from those uncircumcised Philistines? But Samson said to his father; Get her for me, for she is the right one in my eyes!

4 Now, his father and mother did not realize that this originated with Yahweh: that He was looking for some occasion to move against the Philistines; for the Philistines had power over Israyl at that time.

5 So Samson went down to Timnah with his father and mother. And he turned aside and came to the vineyards of Timnah, where suddenly a young lion came roaring to attack him;

6 But the Spirit of Yahweh came mightily upon him, and he tore it open—like tearing a kid!—barehanded. But he did not tell his father or his mother what he had done.

7 Then he went down and talked with the woman; in Samson's eyes, she was the right one.

8 After some time, when he returned to get her, he turned aside to look at the lion's carcass. And behold, a swarm of bees and honey were in the carcass of the lion.

9 He took some of it in his hands, and went along, eating. When he came to his father and mother, he gave some to them, and they also ate. But he did not tell them he had taken the honey out of the carcass of the lion.

10 So his father went down to the woman. And Samson gave a feast there, as was customary for bridegrooms to do.

11 Because they were afraid of him, they arranged for thirty friends to be with him.

12 Then Samson said to them; Let me pose a riddle to you. If you can correctly explain it to me within the seven days of this feast, then I will give you thirty linen garments and thirty changes of clothing.

13 But, if you cannot explain it to me, then you shall give me thirty linen garments and thirty changes of clothing. Then they said to him; Pose your riddle, so we may hear it.

14 So he said to them: Out of the eater came something to eat, and out of the strong came something sweet. But they could not explain the riddle, even three days later.

15 So, on the fourth day, they said to Samson's bride; Either wheedle your husband to let us know the riddle, or else we will burn you and your father's house with fire. Have you invited us just to take what is ours?

16 Then Samson's bride shed tears in front of him and said; You only hate me! You do not love me! You have posed a riddle to the sons of my people, but you have not explained it to me. But he said to her; Look, I have not explained it to my own father or mother, so why should I explain it to you?

17 So she cried on his shoulder for the seven days they feasted. Then, on the seventh day, he told her because she had nagged him. Then she explained the riddle to the sons of her people.

18 So on the seventh day before the sun went down, the men of the city said to him: What is sweeter than honey? And what is stronger than a lion? Then Samson said to them: If you had not plowed with my heifer, then you would not have solved my riddle!

19 Then the Spirit of Yahweh came upon him mightily, and he went down to Ashkelon and killed thirty of their men, took their apparel, and gave the changes of clothing to those who had explained the riddle. But his anger was burning within him, and he went back to his father's house.

20 Then Samson's wife was given to his friend, the one who had been his best man.

CHAP. 15

After some time, during the time of the wheat harvest, Samson visited his bride, bringing a kid of the goats, and he said; Allow me go in to my bride; into the bridal chamber. But her father would not permit him to enter.

2 Her father said; I was so sure you hated her, that I gave her to your best man. But is not her younger sister better than she? Take her instead.

3 Then Samson said to them; This time I will be blameless in regard to the Philistines, when I do them injury!

4 So he went out and caught three hundred foxes, and tied them tail to tail in pairs. He then fastened a torch to every pair of tails;

5 Then he lit the torches, and let the foxes loose in the standing grain of the Philistines. He burned up the shocks and standing grain, together with the vineyards and olive groves.

CHAP. 16

6 Then the Philistines asked; Who has done this? They were told; Samson, the son-in-law of the Timnite, because he has taken his wife and given her to his best man. So the Philistines came up and burned her and her father with fire.

7 Then Samson said to them; Since you would do a thing like this, I will not stop until I get my revenge on you, then after that I will stop.

8 So he attacked them hip and thigh with a great slaughter. Then he went down and lived in the cleft of the rock of Etam.

9 The Philistines went up and camped in Yahdah, spreading out near Lehi.

10 The men of Yahdah asked; Why have you come to fight us? So they answered; We have come to arrest Samson, to do to him just as he has done to us.

11 Then three thousand men of Yahdah went down to the cleft of the rock of Etam, and said to Samson; Do you not know that the Philistines rule over us? What is this you have done to us? Then he said to them; What they did to me balances what I did to them.

12 Then they said to him; We have come down to arrest you, so we may deliver you into the hand of the Philistines. Then Samson said to them; Vow to me that you personally will not try to harm me.

13 So they said to him; No. We will tie you securely and surrender you to them. We will not kill you. So they tied him with a pair of new ropes and brought him up from the rock.

14 When he came to Lehi, the Philistines came shouting to meet him. Then Yahweh's Spirit empowered him! The ropes on his arms became like flax that is set on fire, and the bonds disintegrated from his hands!

15 He found a fresh jawbone of a donkey, reached out his hand and took it, and killed a thousand men with it.

16 Then Samson said; With the jawbone of a donkey, I have made a heap or two. With the jawbone of a donkey, I have killed a thousand men.

17 When he had finished speaking, he threw the jawbone from his hand, then he called that place Ramath Lehi, meaning, Jawbone Hill.

18 Because he was very thirsty, he cried out to Yahweh; You have given this great deliverance by the hand of Your servant. And now, shall I die of thirst and fall into the hands of the uncircumcised?

19 So Yahweh opened up the hollow place in Lehi, and water came out of it. When Samson drank, his strength returned and he revived. So the spring was called En Hakkore, meaning, Callers Spring, and it is still there in Lehi.

20 Samson judged Israyl twenty years in the days of the Philistines.

Samson went to Gaza and saw a prostitute there, and went in to spend the night with her.

2 When the Gazites were told; Samson has come here! They gathered around and waited in hiding for him all night in the city gate. They kept quiet all night, thinking; When daylight comes, we will kill him!

3 But Samson lay there only until the middle of the night. Then he got up and took hold of the doors of the city gate, together with the two posts, and tore them loose, bar and all. He lifted them to his shoulders and carried them to the top of the hill that faces Hebron.

4 Some time later, he fell in love with a woman from the Valley of Sorek, whose name was Delilah.

5 The rulers of the Philistines came to her, and said to her; Entice him to find out how his strength became great, and how we can overcome him and tie him up to torture him. Then everyone of us will give you eleven hundred shekels, about 28 pounds, of silver.

6 So Delilah said to Samson; Please tell me the secret of your great strength and how you might be tied up, so that one could torment you?

7 Samson said to her; If they were to tie me up with seven pieces of fresh gut which had not been dried, then I would become weak and be like any other human being.

8 So the rulers of the Philistines brought her seven pieces of fresh gut, not yet dried, and she tied him with them.

9 Now there were men lying in wait, staying with her in the room. Then she said to him; The Philistines are on you, Samson! But he snapped the cords the way a strand of tow snaps when it touches fire. So the secret of his strength was not known.

10 Then Delilah said to Samson; You have made a fool of me; you lied to me. Come now, tell me how you can be tied.

11 He said; If anyone ties me securely with new ropes that have never been used for work, then I would become weak and be like any other human being.

12 So Delilah took new ropes and tied him with them. Then, with the men hidden in the room, she called to him; Samson, the Philistines are on you! But he broke them off his arms like a thread.

13 Then Delilah said to Samson; Until now, you have been making a fool of me and lying to me. Tell me how you can be tied. Then he said to her; If you weave the seven braids of my head into the web of the loom, then I would become weak and be like any other human being. So, when she had put him to sleep, Delilah took the woven braids of his head and wove them with the web.

14 And tightened it with the pin. Again she called to him: Samson, the Philistines are on you! He awoke from his sleep and pulled up the pin and the web from the loom.

15 Then she said to him: How can you say: I love you, when you do not trust me? This is the third time you have made a fool of me and you have not told me the secret of your great strength.

16 And so, when she had nagged him with her words day after day, and pressured him, until he was tired to death:

17 Then he told her everything. He said to her: No razor has ever come upon my head, for I have been a Nazirite to Yahweh from my mother's womb. If I were to be shaved, my strength would leave me. I would become weak and be like every human being.

18 When Delilah saw he had told her his big secret, she sent at once and summoned the rulers of the Philistines, saying: Come up once more, for he has told me the whole truth. So the rulers of the Philistines came up to her and brought the money in their hands.

19 Then she lulled him to sleep with his head in her lap and called a man to shave off the seven braids of his hair. She began to torment him, and his strength left him.

20 Then she said: The Philistines are on you, Samson! He awoke from his sleep and thought: I will go out as before and shake myself free. But he did not know that Yahweh had left him.

21 Then the Philistines seized him, gouged out his eyes, and took him to Gaza. They bound him with bronze shackles, and he became a grinder in the prison.

22 But the hair on his head began to grow again after it had been shaved.

23 The rulers of the Philistines gathered together to offer a great sacrifice to their god, Dagon, and to rejoice. They said: Our god has delivered into our hands Samson our enemy!

24 When the people saw him, they praised their god, saying: Our god has given to us our enemy, our land's destroyer. And the one who multiplied our dead.

25 While they were making merry, they said: Bring out Samson to entertain us! So they called Samson out of the prison, and he performed for them. When they stood him among the pillars, 26 Samson said to the servant who held his hand: Put me where I can feel the pillars that support the temple, so that I may lean against them.

27 Now the temple was full of men and women, and all the rulers of the Philistines were there. (On the roof there were about three thousand men and women looking on while Samson entertained.)

28 Then Samson cried out to Yahweh, saying: Sovereign Yahweh! Remember me. I pray! Strengthen me. I pray! Just this once. O Yahweh, and let me with one blow get revenge on the Philistines for my two eyes.

29 Then Samson took hold of the two middle pillars, which supported the temple, and leaned forward against them, one at his right hand, and the other at his left.

30 Then Samson said: Let me die with the Philistines!—and pushed with all his might. Then the temple collapsed on the rulers and the people inside it. Those whom he killed at his death were more than he had killed in his lifetime.

31 Then his brothers and all his father's household came down and claimed him. They brought him up and buried him between Zorah and Eshtaol in the tomb of his father Manoah. He had judged Israyl twenty years.

CHAP. 17

There was a man from the Ephraimite hill country whose name was Micahyah, meaning, Who is Like Yahweh? or Yahweh the Incomparable!

2 And he said to his mother: The eleven hundred shekels, about 28 pounds, of silver that were taken from you, and about which I heard you utter a curse—I have that silver with me: I took it. Then his mother said: May you be blessed by Yahweh, my son!

3 When he had returned the eleven hundred shekels of silver to his mother, his mother said: I had wholly consecrated the money to Yahweh from my own hand my son, to make a molten image and a carved image. Now, I will give it back to you.

4 But he returned the silver to his mother, and she took two hundred shekels, about 5 pounds, of silver and gave them to a silversmith, who made them into the image and the idol. And they were put in Micahyah's house.

5 Now this man Micahyah had a shrine, and he made an ephod and some idols and installed one of his sons as his priest.

6 In those days there was no king in Israyl. Everyone did what was right in his own eyes.

7 There was a young man from Bethlehem in Yahdah (from the clan of Yahdah). He was a Levite and was staying there.

8 The man departed from the city of Bethlehem in Yahdah to travel wherever he could find a place. Then he came to the Ephraimite hill country, to the house of Micahyah, in the course of his travel.

9 Micahyah said to him: Where do you come from? Then he answered him: I am a Levite from Bethlehem in Yahdah. I am looking for a place to stay.

10 Micahyah said to him: Live with me. Be father and priest to me, and I will give you ten shekels of silver, about 4 ounces, a year, your clothing, and your food.

11 So the Levite agreed to live with the man, and the young man became like one of his sons to him.

12 So Micahyah installed the Levite, and the young man became his priest, and lived in the house of Micahyah.

13 Then Micahyah said to himself: Now I know that Yahweh will do great things for me, since I have a Levite for a priest!

CHAP. 18

In those days there was no king in Israyl, and also in those days the tribe of Dan was seeking a place of their own where they might settle, because they had not yet come into an inheritance among the tribes of Israyl.

2 So the children of Dan sent five men of valor from their territory in Zorah and Eshtaol, to spy out and explore the land. They said to them: Go, explore the land. So they came to the Ephraimite hill country near the house of Micahyah, and camped there.

3 When they were near the house of Micahyah, they recognized the accent of the young Levite. So they turned in there, and said to him: Who brought you here? What are you doing in this place? What business do you have here?

4 He said to them: This is what Micahyah did for me: He has hired me and I have become his priest.

5 So they said to him: Inquire of Yahweh for us, so we may know if the journey we are making will be successful.

6 So the priest said to them: Go in peace. Yahweh has approved the journey you are making.

7 So the five men left and came to Laish. They saw the people there living in safety, in the manner of the Sidonians, peaceful and complacent. There were no rulers perverting the territory or using coercive power. They lived far from Sidon, however, and had no treaties with the Arameans.

8 So the spies returned to their brothers at Zorah and Eshtaol. Their brothers asked them: What did you find?

9 They said to them: Let us move against them! We have seen that it is truly a fine, rich land. Are you going to do nothing? Do not hesitate to go, so we may enter the land and possess it.

10 When you go, you will come to a complacent people living on a spacious land. For Yahweh has given it into our hands, and it is a place where nothing upon earth is lacking.

11 Six hundred fully armed men of the tribe of Dan then set out from Zorah and Eshtaol.

12 They went up and encamped in Kiryath Yearim in Yahdah. (That is why they call that place Mahaneh Dan; The Camp of Dan, to this very day. It is west of Kiryath Yearim.)

13 From there they passed through the Ephraimite hill country and came near the house of Micahyah.

14 Then the five men who had previously gone to explore the country of Laish said to their brothers: Do you know there is an ephod, other household gods, a carved image and a cast idol in these houses? Now, what do you think we should do?

15 So, they turned in there and came to the house of the young Levite man, at the house of Micahyah, and greeted him.

16 The six hundred fully armed men of the tribe of Dan stationed themselves by the entrance to the gate.

17 Then the five men who had previously explored the land entered there and took the ephod, the other household gods, the carved image and the cast idol. The priest stood at the entrance of the gate with the six hundred fully armed men.

18 When these men went into Micahyah's house and took the ephod, the other household gods, the carved image, and the cast idol, the priest said to them: What are you doing?

19 They said to him: Be quiet! Do not say one word! Come with us, and be a father and a priest to us. Which is better: for you to be a priest to the household of one man, or for you to be a priest to a tribe and a clan in Israyl?

20 And the priest was pleased. Then he took the ephod, the other household gods, the carved image, and the cast idol, and took his place among those people.

21 Then they turned away and left, putting the little ones, the livestock, and the possessions in front of them.

22 When they had gone some distance from Micahyah's house, the men who lived near Micahyah were called together and overtook the men of Dan.

23 They shouted to the Danites, who turned around, and said to Micahyah: What is the matter with you, that you have called out your men to fight?

24 So he said: My god, which I made, you have taken! And the priest! And you have gone away, now what more do I have left? So how can you say to me: What is the matter?

25 Then the men of Dan said to him: Do not shout at us, or some angry men just might attack you. Then you would lose your life, with the lives of your household, as well!

26 The Danites went on their way, and Micahyah, seeing they were stronger than he, turned and went back to his house.

27 So they took those things Micahyah had made, and the priest who had belonged to him, and set out to Laish, to a people peaceful and complacent. They struck them with the edge of the sword, and burned the city with fire.

28 There was no deliverer, because it was far from Sidon, and they had no treaties with the Arameans. The city was in a valley near Beth Rehob. So they rebuilt the city and settled there.

29 They called the name of the city Dan, after the name of Dan their ancestor, who was born to Israyl. However, the name of the city formerly was Laish.

30 There, the children of Dan set up for themselves the gods. (Yahnathan son of Gershon son of Mosheh, and his descendants, were the priests of the tribe of Dan down to the day of the land's captivity: around 721 b.c.e..)

31 They set up for themselves the god which belonged to Micahyah, who had made it, throughout the period that The House of Yahweh was at Shiloh.

Judges Chapter 18 deals with the acquisition of the GOD which later adorned the Danite Sanctuary in Northern Israyl. Of highest priority to both Micahyah and the narrator, is the molten figure contributed by his mother. It is ironic, in the case of Micahyah, that YAHWEH had assumed the role of JUDGE, while DAN, whose name means JUDGMENT, went on to commit ATROCITY.

CHAP. 19

In those days, when there was no king in Israyl, there was a Levite living in the remote hill country of Ephraim. He took a concubine, a woman from Bethlehem in Yahdah.

2 But his concubine became angry with him and ran away to her father's house at Bethlehem in Yahdah, and was there four whole moons.

3 Then her husband went to her to persuade her to return. He had with him his servant and two donkeys. She took him into her father's house, and when her father saw him, he gladly welcomed him.

4 Then his father-in-law, the young woman's father, detained him; and he stayed with him there three days. So they ate, and drank, and slept there.

5 On the fourth day they got up early, and he prepared to leave, but the girl's father said to his son-in-law: Refresh yourself with something to eat, and then you may go.

6 So they sat down, and the two of them ate and drank together. Afterward, the girl's father said: Stay tonight, and enjoy yourself.

7 But when the man got up to go, his father-in-law persuaded him, so he stayed there that night also.

8 On the morning of the fifth day, when he rose up to leave, the girl's father said: Refresh yourself. Wait until afternoon. And the two of them feasted and drank.

9 Then when the man, with his concubine and servant, got up to leave, his father-in-law, the girl's father said: Now look, the day is getting along toward evening, so stay here for the night. Since the day is gone, spend the night here and enjoy yourself. Early tomorrow morning you can get up and be on your way home.

10 The man, however, was unwilling to spend another night, so he got ready, left out, and headed toward Yebus (that is, Yerusalem), with his two saddled donkeys and his concubine.

11 They were near Yebus, and the day was far spent. The servant said to his owner: Let us turn in to this city of the Yebusites and spend the night in it.

12 But his owner said to him: We will not go into this foreign city whose people are not the children of Israyl. We will go on to Gibeah.

13 He said to his servant: Come on, let us move on to one of these places: either to Gibeah or to Ramah.

14 So they moved on. They went their way, and the sun went down on them as they neared Gibeah in Benyamin.

15 They turned in there to spend the night in Gibeah. They went and sat in the city square, but no one took them into his home for the night.

16 But there was an old man coming in from his work in the field at evening, who was from the hill country of Ephraim. He was residing in Gibeah, but the men of the place were Benyaminites.

17 When he looked up, he saw the travelers in the open square of the city, and the old man said to them: Where are you going? Where do you come from?

18 So he answered him: We are coming from Bethlehem in Yahdah, going toward the remote hill country of Ephraim, because I live there. I went to Bethlehem in Yahdah, and am now going to The House of Yahweh. But there is no one who will take me into his house this night.

19 We have both straw and fodder for our donkeys, and bread and wine for myself, my maidservant, and the young man. We do not need anything.

20 Then the old man said: Shalom unto you. However, let all your needs be my responsibility. Only do not spend the night in the open square.

21 So he brought them into his house, and gave feed to their donkeys. They washed their feet, and they ate and drank.

22 As they were enjoying themselves, some of the wicked, perverted men of the city surrounded the house and beat on the door. They spoke to the homeowner, the old man, saying: Bring out the man who went into your house, so we may sexually assault him.

23 But the man, the owner of the house, went out to them and said to them; No, my friends, do not be so vile. This man is my guest. Do not commit this outrage.

24 Look, here is my virgin daughter and his concubine. I will bring them out to you now, and you can use them and do to them whatever you want. But to this man, do not do such a vile thing!

25 But those men would not listen to him. So the man seized his concubine and forced her out to them, and they sexually assaulted her. They abused her all night until the morning. Then, when the day began to break, they let her go.

26 The woman came as the morning approached, and fell at the door of the man's house where her husband was, until it was light.

27 When her husband arose in the morning, and opened the door of the house and went out to go his way, there was his concubine, fallen at the door of the house with her hands on the threshold.

28 Then he said to her; Get up and let us be on our way. But she did not answer, for she was dead. So the man lifted her onto the donkey and set out to go to his place.

29 When he entered his house he took a knife, firmly held onto his concubine, and systematically dismembered her, cutting her into twelve pieces. He then sent her throughout all the territory of Israyl.

30 And the men whom he sent, he told to say; No such deed has been done, or seen, from the day that the children of Israyl came from the land of Egypt, until this day. Think about this. Consider this. Tell us what to do!

CHAP. 20

Then all the children of Israyl came forth, from Dan to Beersheba, as well as from the land of Gilead, and gathered together as one man in front of Yahweh at Mizpah.

2 The leaders of all the people of the tribes of Israyl took their places in the congregation of the people of Yahweh, 400,000 sword-bearing foot soldiers.

3 (The Benyaminites heard that the children of Israyl had gone up to Mizpah.) Then the children of Israyl said; Proclaim this! How did this vile thing come to pass?

4 So the Levite, the husband of the woman who was murdered, answered and said; My concubine and I went into Gibeah, which belongs to Benjamin, to spend the night.

5 Then the men of Gibeah rose against me, and surrounded the house at night, intending to kill me, but they raped my concubine and she died.

6 Then I took my concubine, cut her into pieces, and sent her throughout all the territory of the inheritance of Israyl, for they have committed a deliberate and senseless outrage in Israyl.

7 Now, all you Israylites; Speak up and give your verdict!

8 Then all the people rose up as one man, saying; We will none of us go home. Not one of us will turn back to his own house.

9 This is what we will do to Gibeah: We will go against it as the lots direct.

10 We will take ten men out of every hundred throughout all the tribes of Israyl—a hundred out of every thousand, a thousand out of every ten thousand—to get provisions for the army. Then, when the army arrives at Gibeah in Benyamin, it can give them what they deserve for all this vileness committed in Israyl!

11 So all the men of Israyl were gathered against the city, united together as one man.

12 Then the tribes of Israyl sent men all throughout the tribe of Benyamin, saying; What about this vile crime that was committed in your midst?

13 Now therefore, surrender those wicked and perverted men who are in Gibeah, so we may put them to death and remove this evil from Israyl! But the children of Benyamin would not listen to their brothers, the children of Israyl.

14 Instead, the children of Benyamin gathered together from their cities to Gibeah, to go to war against the children of Israyl.

15 On that day the Benyaminites gathered out of their cities 26,000 sword-bearing foot soldiers from their cities, in addition to 700 chosen men from those living in Gibeah.

16 Among all these soldiers there were seven hundred chosen left-handed men, each of whom could sling a stone at the width of a hair, and not miss.

17 Israyl, apart from Benyamin, gathered together 400,000 sword-bearing foot soldiers, all of them fighting men.

18 And the children of Israyl arose and went up to The House of Yahweh to inquire of Him. They asked; Which of us shall go up first to fight against the children of Benyamin? And Yahweh said; Yahdah shall go up first.

19 So the children of Israyl rose in the morning and encamped against Gibeah.

20 And the men of Israyl went out to battle against Benyamin, and the men of Israyl took up battle positions against them at Gibeah.

21 Then the children of Benyamin came out of Gibeah, and cut down 22,000 Israylites on the battlefield that day.

22 But the men of Israyl encouraged one another, and again took up their positions where they had stationed themselves on the first day.

23 Then the children of Israyl went up and wept in front of Yahweh until evening, and inquired of Yahweh, asking: Shall we again go to battle against our brothers, the Benjaminites? And Yahweh answered: Go up against them.

24 So the children of Israyl advanced toward the children of Benjamin on the second day.

25 And Benjamin came out against them from Gibeah the second day, and cut down 18,000 more of the sword-bearing foot soldiers of Israyl.

26 Then all the children of Israyl—all the people, went up to The House of Yahweh, and wept. They sat there in front of Yahweh and fasted that day until evening. They offered burnt offerings and peace offerings in front of Yahweh:

27 And the children of Israyl inquired of Yahweh. (There is where the ark of Yahweh's covenant was at that time.

28 Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, officiated there in those days.) They asked: Shall we yet again go out to battle against our brothers, the Benjaminites, or shall we cease? And Yahweh said: Go up, for tomorrow I will deliver them into your hands.

29 Then the children of Israyl set an ambush around Gibeah.

30 They went up against the Benjaminites on the third day and took up positions against Gibeah, just as they had done before.

31 The Benjaminites came out to fight them and were drawn away from the city. They began inflicting casualties on the children of Israyl, just as they had done before, so about thirty men fell in the open field and on the roads (the one leading to Bethel, and the other to Gibeah.)

32 While the Benjaminites were thinking to themselves: We are defeating them, just as we have done before, the Israylites were thinking to themselves: Let us get out of here and draw them away from the city to the roads.

33 All the men of Israyl moved from their places and took up positions at Baal Tamar, and the Israylite ambush charged out of its position west of Gibeah.

34 Then, ten thousand select men of Israyl made a frontal attack on Gibeah. The fighting was so fierce, the Benjaminites did not realize that disaster was overtaking them.

35 Yahweh defeated Benjamin in front of Israyl. The children of Israyl felled that day 25,100 sword-bearing men of Benjamin.

36 So the Benjaminites saw they were defeated. The men of Israyl had given ground to Benjamin, and retreated, because they relied on the ambush they had set near Gibeah.

37 The men who had been in the ambush quickly rushed into Gibeah. The men in the ambush spread out and put the entire city to the sword.

38 The prearranged signal between the men of Israyl and the men in ambush was that they would send up a great cloud of smoke from the city.

39 Whereupon the men of Israyl would turn in the battle. Now the Benjaminites had begun to inflict casualties on the men of Israyl (about thirty to this point), and had been thinking to themselves: We are defeating them, just as we have done before!

40 Then the signal began to go up from the city—a column of smoke. When the Benjaminites looked behind them, there was the whole city in flames, billowing up into the sky.

41 When the men of Israyl turned back on them, the men of Benjamin were dismayed, for they realized disaster had come upon them.

42 So they turned, and ran from the Israylites in the direction of the wilderness; but they could not escape the battle. The men of Israyl came out of the cities, and cut them down.

43 They surrounded the Benjaminites. They pursued them vigorously and completely defeated them in the vicinity of Gibeah, on the eastern side.

44 And 18,000 men of Benjamin fell, all of them valiant fighters.

45 As they turned and ran toward the wilderness to the rock of Rimmon, they cut down 5,000 of them on the main roads. They kept pressing after the Benjaminites as far as Gidom, and killed 2,000 more.

46 The total of Benjaminites who fell in battle that day was 25,000 sword-bearing fighters.

47 But 600 turned and escaped into the wilderness to the rock of Rimmon, where they stayed four moons.

48 So the men of Israyl returned to the Benjaminites and put each city that was implicated to the sword—men, animals, and all that was found—and the city itself was destroyed by fire.

CHAP. 21

The men of Israyl had vowed an oath at Mizpah, and said: No man among us will give his daughter in marriage to Benjamin.

2 The people went to The House of Yahweh where they sat in front of Yahweh until evening. They raised their voices and wept with great lamentation.

3 They cried out: O Yahweh, Father of Israyl, why has this come to pass in Israyl? Why should one tribe be missing from Israyl this day?

4 And so, the next day the people rose early and built an altar there, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings.

5 Then the children of Israyl asked: Who is there among all the tribes of Israyl who did not come up with the congregation to gather in front of Yahweh? For they had taken a great vow concerning anyone who failed to gather in front of Yahweh at Mizpah, saying: He shall surely be put to death.

6 Then the Israylites felt sorry for Benjamin, their brothers. They said: This day one tribe is cut off from Israyl.

7 What shall we do for wives for those who are left? We have made a vow with Yahweh not to give them any of our daughters as wives.

8 Then they asked: Which one of the tribes of Israyl did not go up to Yahweh at Mizpah? In fact, no one had come to the camp from Yabesh Gilead to the gathering.

9 When the people were counted, they discovered truly not one inhabitant from Yabesh Gilead was there.

10 So the congregation sent out 12,000 of their best fighting men, and gave them instructions, saying: Go and strike the inhabitants of Yabesh Gilead with the sword, including the women and children.

11 But this you shall do: Every man, young and old, and every woman who has had intercourse with a man you shall kill, but the virgins you shall keep alive. And so they did.

12 So they found among the inhabitants of Yabesh Gilead four hundred young virgins who had never had intercourse with any man. And they brought them to the camp at Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan.

13 Then the whole congregation sent an offer of peace to the sons of Benjamin, who were still at the rock of Rimmon.

14 So the Benyaminites returned at that time, and were given the virgins of Yabesh Gilead who had been spared. But there were not enough for all of them.

15 The people felt sorry for Benjamin, because Yahweh had made a gap in the tribes of Israyl.

16 Then the elders of the congregation said: How shall we provide wives for those who remain, since the women of Benjamin have been destroyed?

17 And they said: The survivors of Benjamin must have heirs, so that a tribe of Israyl will not be wiped out.

18 But, we cannot give them wives from our daughters, because the children of Israyl have vowed an oath, saying: Cursed be the one who gives a wife to Benjamin.

19 Then they said: But look, there is the annual festival of Yahweh at Shiloh, which is north of Bethel, east of the main road that goes up from Bethel to Shechem, and south of Lebonah.

20 So they instructed the Benyaminites, saying: Go, lie in wait in the vineyards;

21 Then watch! When the girls of Shiloh come out to join in the dancing, then rush from the vineyards, and each of you seize a wife for himself from the girls of Shiloh; then proceed to the land of Benjamin.

22 And when their fathers or brothers come to us to complain, we will then say to them: Do a kind deed for us by helping them, for we did not get wives for them by going to war, and you are innocent of your vowed oath, since you did not actually give your daughters to them.

23 So the sons of Benjamin did just that. While the girls were dancing, each man caught one and carried her off to be his wife. Then they returned to their inheritance and rebuilt the cities, and lived in them.

24 From there, the children of Israyl went their separate ways, each going home to their tribes and clans, each to his own inheritance.

25 In those days there was no king in Israyl. Every man did what was right in his own eyes; just as he saw it.

RIYYAH

Friend of Yahweh

Once, in the days when the judges judged, there came a famine over the land, and a man from Bethlehem in Yahdah, together with his wife and two sons, went to stay for a while in the land of Moab.

2 The name of the man was Elimelech, the name of his wife was Naomi (Pleasant One), and the names of his two sons were Mahlon and Chilyon. They were Ephrathites from Bethlehem in Yahdah. They went to the country of Moab; and there they remained.

3 Then Elimelech, the husband of Naomi, died; and she was left with her two sons.

4 And they took wives of the Moabite women: the name of the first was Orpah, and the name of the other Riyyah. And they lived there about ten years.

5 Then both Mahlon and Chilyon also died; then the woman Naomi was bereft of her two sons, and her husband.

6 She arose then, with her daughters-in-law, to leave the country of Moab, for she had heard in the country of Moab that Yahweh had seen to the needs of His people, and had given them food.

7 So she set out from the place she had been living, and her two daughters-in-law set out with her; and they took the road to return to the land of Yahdah.

8 Then Naomi said to her two daughters-in-law; Go, each of you return to your mother's house. May Yahweh deal kindly with you, just as you have done for the dead, and for me.

9 May Yahweh grant that each of you find security, each in the house of her husband. Then she kissed them, and they raised their voices and wept.

10 But they said to her; Surely we will go back with you to your people!

11 But Naomi said; Turn back, my daughters. Why come with me? Am I going to have any more sons, so they could become your husbands?

12 Turn back, my daughters, return. I am too old to have a husband. Even if I thought there was still hope for me—even if I had a husband this night, and then gave birth to sons.

13 Would you wait for them until they were grown? Would you remain unmarried, not becoming anyone's wife, for them? No, my daughters. It is more bitter for me than for you. Truly, the hand of Yahweh has come out against me.

14 Again they raised their voices and wept; and Orpah kissed her mother-in-law farewell, but Riyyah clung to her.

15 She said; Look, your sister has returned to her people and to her god. Go back with her.

16 But Riyyah said: Do not urge me to leave you, to turn back from following you. For wherever you go, I will go; and where you lodge, I will lodge. Your people will become my people; your Mighty One is now my Father.

17 Where you die, I will die, and there will I be buried. In this way may Yahweh do to me, and in this way may He add, if anything but death will separate Me from you.

18 When she saw that she was determined to go with her, she stopped speaking to her.

19 And the two of them went along until they came to Bethlehem. When they arrived in Bethlehem, all the city was excited because of them, and the women said; Is it you, Naomi?

20 She said to them: Do not call me Naomi (Pleasant One); call me Mara (Bitter One), for the Almighty has dealt very bitterly with me.

21 I was full when I went away, but Yahweh has brought me home again empty. Why do you call me Naomi, for Yahweh has testified against me, and the Almighty has sentenced me with evil.

22 So Naomi returned from Moab, accompanied by Riyyah the Moabite, her daughter-in-law, arriving in Bethlehem at the beginning of barley harvest.

CHAP. 2

Now Naomi had a blood relative through her husband, a man of substance, from the same clan as Elimelech, and his name was Boaz (In Him Is Strength).

2 Riyyah the Moabite said to Naomi; Let me go to the field, and glean heads of grain behind someone in whose eyes I find honor. And Naomi said to her; Go ahead, my daughter.

3 So she set out, and came and gleaned in the field after the harvesters. As it turned out, she found herself working in a field belonging to Boaz, who was from the clan of Elimelech.

4 Then Boaz came from Bethlehem, and he said to the harvesters; Yahweh be with you! And they answered him; Yahweh bless you!

5 Then Boaz said to his servant who was in charge of the harvesters; Whose young woman is that?

6 The servant in charge of the harvesters answered, and said; She is the young Moabite woman who came back with Naomi from the country of Moab.

7 She asked; May I glean, and gather after the harvesters among the sheaves? She went into the field and has worked steadily from morning until now, except for a short rest in the shelter.

8 Then Boaz said to Riyyah; My daughter, hear me well. Do not go to glean in another field, and also do not leave this one. Attach yourself to, and stay close by, my young servant girls.

9 Keep your eyes on the field they are harvesting, and go along after the girls. I have commanded the young men not to reprimand you. When you are thirsty, go to the vessels and drink what the young men have drawn.

10 She fell on her face, bowing downward to the earth, and said to him; Why have I found honor in your eyes so that you take special notice of me, since I am a foreigner?

11 Then Boaz answered her, and said; It has been fully reported to me, all that you have done for your mother-in-law, after the death of your husband, and how you have left your father and mother and the land of your birth, and have come to a people whom you previously did not know.

12 May Yahweh grant that your actions be fully rewarded, and may your payment be given to you by Yahweh, the Father of Israyl, under Whose wings you have come for refuge.

13 Then she said; May I continue to find honor in your eyes, my ruler; for you have comforted me, and because you have spoken kindly to your maidservant, though I am not even as worthy as one of your maidservants.

14 At mealtime Boaz said to her; Come here, and eat of the bread, and dip your morsel in the sour wine. So she sat beside the harvesters, and he gave her some parched grain, and she ate, and was satisfied, and had some left over.

15 When she rose to up glean, Boaz commanded his young people, saying; Let her glean even among the sheaves, and do not rebuke nor reprimand her.

16 And even pull out some stalks for her from the bundles, and leave them for her to pick up; and do not stop her.

17 So she gleaned in the field until evening, and when she had threshed the barley she had gleaned, it came to about an ephah, probably about 1/2 bushel.

18 She lifted it up and went into the city, and her mother-in-law saw what she had gleaned. Then she brought out and gave to her what she had left over, after she had eaten enough.

19 Her mother-in-law asked her; Where did you glean today? Where did you work? May the one who gave honor to you be blessed. So she told her mother-in-law with whom she had worked, and said; The man's name, with whom I worked today, is Boaz.

20 Then Naomi said to her daughter-in-law; Blessed be he by Yahweh, Who has not forsaken His Kindness; His Chesed, to the living and the dead! Then Naomi said to her; The man is closely related to us, and is one of our group of redeemers!

21 Then Riyyah the Moabite said; He also said to me; Stay with my young people, until they have finished all my harvesting.

22 Then Naomi said to Riyyah her daughter-in-law; It is better, my daughter, that you go out with his young servant girls, then they will not be rough with you in another field.

23 So Riyyah stayed close to the servant girls of Boaz, to glean until the barley and wheat harvests were finished. Then she stayed at home with her mother-in-law.

CHAP. 3

Then Naomi, her mother-in-law, said to Riyyah; My daughter, should I not try to find security for you, where it may be well with you?

2 Now Boaz, with whose servant girls you have been, is he not one of our group of redeemers? This night, he will be winnowing barley on the threshing floor near the gate.

3 Therefore, bathe and anoint yourself, put on your garment and go down to the threshing floor. Do not make yourself known to the man until he has finished eating and drinking.

4 When he lies down, you shall take note of the place where he lies; then go and uncover his legs, and lie down. And he will tell you what you are to do.

5 And she said to her; All that you say, I will do.

6 So she went down to the threshing floor and did everything her mother-in-law told her to do.

7 After Boaz had eaten and drunk, and his heart was merry, he went to lie down at the far end of the grainheap; and she came quietly, uncovered his legs, and lay down.

8 Around midnight, something startled him, and he turned and found a woman lying next to him!

9 He asked; Who are you? She answered him; I am Riyyah, your maidservant. Spread your wing over your maid-servant, for you are a redeemer.

10 Then he said; Blessed are you of Yahweh, my daughter! For you have shown more kindness; chesed, at the end than at the beginning, in not going after the younger men, be they poor or rich.

11 And now, my daughter, do not fear. I will do for you all that you request; for all the people of my city know you are a worthy woman.

12 Now, it is true that I am of your group of redeemers; but there is a redeemer nearer than I.

13 Stay here this night, and in the morning if he wants to redeem, that is fine; let him redeem. But if he is not willing to do the redeemer's part, then as surely as Yahweh lives, I will redeem you. Lie here until morning.

14 So she lay down next to him until the morning, and she arose before one could recognize another. Then he said; Let it not be known that a woman came to the threshing floor.

15 Then he said; Hold out the shawl which is around you; get a firm hold on it. So she held it firmly, and he measured out six measures of barley, and laid it on her. Then she went into the city.

16 She went to her mother-in-law, who said; How did it go, my daughter? So she told her all that the man had done for her.

17 Then she said; These six measures he gave me, for he said; You shall not go empty to your mother-in-law.

18 Then she said; Wait quietly, my daughter, until you know how the matter will turn out. For the man will not rest until he has brought the matter to conclusion this day.

CHAP. 4

Now Boaz had gone up to the gate and taken a seat there. Just then the redeemer, about whom Boaz had spoken, came by. So Boaz said; Come aside, sit down here, friend. So he came aside and sat down.

2 He then took ten men of the elders of the city, and said; Sit here, and they sat down.

3 Now he spoke to the redeemer: Naomi, who has come back from Moab, is selling the piece of land that belonged to our brother, Elimelech.

4 And I thought to inform you, saying; Buy this, in the presence of those sitting here and in the presence of the elders of my people. If you are willing to redeem it, then redeem; but if you are not willing to redeem it, then tell me so I may know; for there is no one else to redeem except you, and then me, after you. And he said; I will redeem.

5 Then Boaz said; On the day you buy the field from Naomi, you must also buy Riyyah the Moabite, the wife of the dead, to raise up the name of the dead on his inheritance.

6 Then the nearest redeemer said; I cannot redeem for myself, or I may endanger my own inheritance. You redeem my right of redemption, because I cannot redeem.

7 (Now this was the custom in former times in Israyl concerning redemption and exchange transactions, confirming any such matter: a man would take off his sandal, and give it to the other. This was the method of ratifying legal transactions in Israyl.)

8 So the redeemer said to Boaz; You buy. And he took off his sandal.

9 Then Boaz said to the elders and to all the people; You are witnesses this day that I have bought all that was Elimelech's, and all that was Chilyon's and Mahlon's, from the hand of Naomi.

10 I have also bought Riyyah the Moabite, Mahlon's widow, as my wife, in order to establish the name of the dead on his inheritance, so the name of the dead may not be cut off from among his brothers, or from the gates of his city. You are witnesses this day.

11 And all the people who were in the gate, and the elders, said; We are witnesses! May Yahweh make the woman who is coming to your house like Rachel and Leah, the two who built the house of Israyl. May you show fertility in Ephrathah, and bestow a name in Bethlehem.

12 May your house be like the house of Perez, whom Tamar bore to Yahdah, because of the offspring which Yahweh will give you from this young woman.

13 And so, Boaz took Riyyah, and she became his wife, and he went in to her, and Yahweh made her conceive, and she bore a son.

14 Then the women said to Naomi; Blessed be Yahweh, Who has not let there cease to be a redeemer for you. May Yahweh be celebrated in Israyl!

15 And may he be to you a restorer of life, and one to sustains your old age; for your daughter-in-law, who loves you, who is better to you than seven sons, has borne him.

16 Then Naomi took the child and laid him on her bosom, and became a guardian to him.

17 And the neighborhood women rejoiced over him, and said: A son is born to Naomi! And they called his name, Obed (Serving). He is the father of Yishai, the father of David.

18 Now these are the begettings of Perez: Perez begot Hezron;

19 Hezron begot Ram, and Ram begot Amminadab;

20 Amminadab begot Nahshon, and Nahshon begot Salmon;

21 Salmon begot Boaz, and Boaz begot Obed;

22 Obed begot Yishai, and Yishai begot David.

I SAMUYL

SHEMUYL Heard Of Yahweh

There was a certain man from Ramathaim, Zophim, from the hill country of Ephraim, whose name was Elkanah son of Yeroham, the son of Elihu, the son of Tohu, the son of Zuph, an Ephraimite.

2 He had two wives: the name of one was Hannah, and the name of the other Peninnah. Peninnah had children, but Hannah had no children.

3 This man went up from his city year after year to worship, and to sacrifice to Yahweh Almighty at Shiloh. The two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, the priests of Yahweh, were there.

4 Whenever the day came for Elkanah to make a sacrifice, he would give portions of the meat to Peninnah his wife and to their sons and daughters.

5 But to Hannah he would give a double portion, because he loved Hannah, although Yahweh had closed her womb.

6 Her rival also provoked her severely, because her womb was closed, making her miserable.

7 It was this way, year after year. When she went up to The House of Yahweh, she provoked her, making her weep and not eat.

8 Then Elkanah her husband would say to her: Hannah, why do you weep? Why do you not eat? Why are you downhearted? Am I not better to you than ten sons?

9 Once when they had finished eating and drinking at Shiloh, Hannah rose up. Now Eli the priest was sitting on the seat by the doorpost of the tabernacle of Yahweh.

10 At that point she was in bitterness of soul, and wept in anguish. She prayed to Yahweh.

11 And made a vow, and said: O Yahweh Almighty, if You will truly look upon the affliction of your maidservant and remember me, and not forget your maidservant, but will give your maidservant a son, then I will give him to Yahweh all the days of his life, and no razor shall come upon his head.

12 As she kept on praying to Yahweh, Eli watched her mouth.

13 Hannah was praying with her heart; the seat of her intelligence, and her lips were moving, but her voice was not heard. So Eli thought she was drunk.

14 So Eli said to her: How long will you remain drunk? Put the wine away from you!

15 But Hannah answered, and said: No, my ruler, I am a woman who is deeply troubled. I have drunk neither wine nor strong drink, but I have poured out my soul before Yahweh.

16 Do not think that your maidservant is a daughter of Belial, for because of my anguish and grief I have continued my prayers.

17 Then Eli answered, and said: Go in peace. May Yahweh, the Father of Israyl, grant you that which you have asked of Him.

18 And she said: May your maidservant find honor in your sight. So the woman went her way and ate something, and her face was no longer downcast.

19 They rose early the next morning and worshiped in front of Yahweh, and then returned to their home at Ramah. Elkanah knew Hannah his wife, and Yahweh remembered her.

20 So, after Hannah conceived, she bore a son during Yahweh's Sacred Year; tekufah, and called his name Samuyl, for she said: Because I asked Yahweh for him.

21 When Elkanah went up with all his family to offering to Yahweh the yearly sacrifice, and his vows, 22 Hannah did not go up with him, for she said to her husband: After the boy is weaned, I will take him to present him in front of Yahweh, and he will live there always.

23 And Elkanah her husband said to her: Do what seems best to you; wait until you have weaned him. Only let your word be established with Yahweh. So the woman stayed home and nursed her son until she had weaned him.

24 After she had weaned him, she took him up with her, with a three year old bull, one ephah of flour, and a skin of wine, and brought him to The House of Yahweh at Shiloh. And the child was young.

25 Then they slaughtered the bull, and brought the child to Eli.

26 And she said: As surely as you live, my ruler, I am the woman who stood here beside you praying to Yahweh.

27 I prayed for this child, and Yahweh has granted me what I asked of him.

28 So now, I am giving him to Yahweh. For as long as he lives he shall be given to Yahweh. So they worshiped Yahweh there.

CHAP. 2

Then Hannah prayed, and said: My heart rejoices in Yahweh; my horn of strength is exalted in Yahweh. I laugh at my enemies, because I rejoice in Your salvation.

2 There is no One holy like Yahweh; there is none besides You; there is no Rock like our Father.

3 Do not keep speaking so proudly nor let your mouth speak such arrogance, for Yahweh is a Father Who knows, and by Him actions are weighed.

4 The bows of the warriors are broken, but those who stumbled are girded with strength.

5 Those who were full have hired themselves out for food, but those who were hungry have ceased to hunger. She who was barren has borne seven children, but she who has had many sons, has become feeble.

6 Yahweh kills and makes alive; He brings down to the grave and raises up.

7 Yahweh makes poor and makes rich; He brings low and lifts up.

8 He raises the poor from the dust and lifts the beggar from the ash heap, to seat them among princes and make them inherit a throne of glory. For the foundations of the earth are Yahweh's; and upon them He has set the world.

9 He will guard the feet of His saints, but the wicked shall be silent in darkness. For it is not by strength that man shall prevail.

10 Those who oppose Yahweh will be shattered. He will thunder against them from heaven; Yahweh will judge the ends of the earth; He will give strength to His king, and exalt the horn of His Anointed.

11 Then Elkanah returned to his home at Ramah, but the child ministered to Yahweh under Eli the priest.

12 Now, the sons of Eli were sons of Belial; they did not know Yahweh.

13 It was the practice of the priests with the people that when any man offered a sacrifice, and while the meat was boiling, the priest's servant would come with a three-pronged fork in his hand;

14 Then he would thrust it into the pan, kettle, caldron, or pot, and the priest would take for himself whatever the fork brought up. This was how they treated all the Israylites who came to Shiloh.

15 But even before the fat was burned, the servant of the priest would come and say to the man who was sacrificing: Give the priest some meat to roast; he will not take boiled meat from you, but raw.

16 And if the man said to him: Let the fat be first burned up, and then take whatever you want, the servant would then answer: No, but you must give it to me now, but if not, I will take it by force.

17 So the sin of the young men was very great in front of Yahweh, for men came to treat Yahweh's offering with contempt.

18 But Samuyl ministered in front of Yahweh—a child wearing a linen ephod.

19 His mother would make him a little robe, and bring it to him year after year when she came up with her husband to offer the yearly sacrifice.

20 Then Eli would bless Elkanah and his wife, and say: May Yahweh give you descendants from this woman to take the place of the gift that was given to Yahweh. Then they would return to their own home.

21 And Yahweh was merciful to Hannah; she conceived and gave birth to three sons and two daughters. Meanwhile, the child Samuyl grew up in the Presence of Yahweh.

22 Now Eli, who was very old, heard about everything his sons were doing to all Israyl, and how they slept with the women who served at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

23 So he said to them: Why do you do such things? I hear from all the people about your evil dealings.

24 No, my sons! Because it is not a righteous report that I hear, and you make the people of Yahweh transgress.

25 If one man sins against another, Yahweh will judge him. But if a man sins against Yahweh, who will intercede for him? His sons, however, did not listen to their father's rebuke, because it was Yahweh's will to kill them.

26 And the child Samuyl grew in stature, and in honor with Yahweh and with men.

27 Now a man of Yahweh came to Eli, and said to him: This is what Yahweh says: Did I not clearly reveal Myself to the house of your father when they were in Egypt under Pharaoh?

28 Did I not choose him out of all the tribes of Israyl to be My priest, to offer upon My altar, to burn incense, and to wear the ephod in front of Me. Did I not give to the house of your father all the offerings of the children of Israyl made by fire?

29 Why do you scorn My sacrifice and My offering I have prescribed for My habitation? Why do you honor your sons more than Me, by fattening yourselves on the choice parts of every offering made by My people Israyl?

30 Therefore Yahweh, the Father of Israyl, says: I promised that your house and your father's house would minister in front of Me forever. But now, Yahweh declares: May it be far from Me! Those who honor Me will I honor, but those who despise Me will I despise.

31 Behold, the time is coming when I will cut short your strength, and the strength of your father's house, so that there will not be an old man in your family line.

32 You will see distress in My dwelling, Although righteousness will be done to Israyl.

in your family line there will never be an old man.

33 Every one of you that I do not cut off from My altar will be spared only to blind your eyes with tears, and to grieve your mind, and all your descendants of your house will die in the prime of their life.

34 And what comes upon your two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, will be a sign to you: in one day they shall die, both of them.

35 Then I will raise up for Myself a faithful priest who will do according to what is in My heart and in My mind. I will firmly establish his house, and he will minister in front of My anointed one forever.

36 Everyone who is left in your family line will come and bow down to him for a piece of silver and a crust of bread, and beg; Appoint me to some priestly office, so that I may have some food to eat.

CHAP. 3

The boy Samuyl ministered to Yahweh under Eli. The word of Yahweh was rare in those days; there were not many visions.

2 One night when Eli, whose eyes were becoming so weak that he could barely see, was lying down in his place,

3 The lamp of Yahweh had not yet gone out, and Samuyl was lying down in the tabernacle of Yahweh, where the ark of Yahweh was.

4 Then Yahweh called Samuyl, and he answered: Here I am!

5 So he ran to Eli, and said: Here I am, for you called me. Then he said: I did not call you. Go lie down again. And he went and lay down.

6 Again Yahweh called: Samuyl! So Samuyl got up and went to Eli, and said: Here I am, for you called me. But Eli said: I did not call you, my son, go back and lie down.

7 (Now Samuyl did not yet know Yahweh, nor was the word of Yahweh yet revealed to him.)

8 Then Yahweh called Samuyl again the third time, and Samuyl got up and went to Eli, and said: Here I am, for you did call me. Then Eli perceived that Yahweh was calling the boy.

9 So Eli told Samuyl: Go and lie down, and if He calls you, say: Speak, Yahweh, for Your servant hears. So Samuyl went and lay down in his place.

10 Then Yahweh came and stood there, calling as before: Samuyl! Samuyl! Then Samuyl said: Speak, for Your servant hears.

11 Then Yahweh said to Samuyl: Behold, I am about to do something in Israyl that will make the ears of everyone who hears of it tingle.

12 At that time, I will carry out against Eli everything I spoke against his house, from beginning to end.

13 For I have told him that I will judge his house forever for the iniquity he knew about: his sons blasphemed Yahweh, and he did not stop them.

14 Therefore, I have vowed to the house of Eli that the sin of Eli's house shall not be atoned for by sacrifice or offering forever.

15 So Samuyl lay down until morning, then he opened the doors of The House of Yahweh, but he was afraid to tell Eli the vision.

16 Then Eli summoned Samuyl: Samuyl, my son! And he answered: Here I am.

17 Then he asked: What was it He said to you? Do not hide it from me. In the same way may Yahweh deal with you, and may He add to it, if you hide from me anything He told you.

18 Then Samuyl told him everything. He hid nothing from him. So Eli said: He is Yahweh. May He do that which is right in His eyes.

19 So Samuyl grew, and Yahweh was with him, and let none of his words, which he proclaimed, fail.

20 Then all Israyl, from Dan to Beersheba, knew that Samuyl was established as a prophet of Yahweh.

21 Yahweh continued to appear at Shiloh, for Yahweh revealed Himself to Samuyl in Shiloh by the word of Yahweh.

CHAP. 4

Then the word of Samuyl went forth to all Israyl. Now the children of Israyl went out to fight against the Philistines, and encamped beside Ebenezer. The Philistines encamped in Aphek.

2 Then the Philistines positioned their forces to meet Israyl, and as the battle spread, Israyl was defeated by the Philistines, who killed about 4,000 of them in the field.

3 When the men returned to camp, the elders of Israyl asked: Why has Yahweh defeated us this day in front of the Philistines? Let us bring the ark of the covenant of Yahweh from Shiloh to us here, so when it comes among us it may save us from our enemies.

4 So the people sent men to Shiloh, and they brought back the ark of the covenant of Yahweh Almighty, Who lives between the cherubim. And the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were there with the ark of the covenant of Yahweh.

5 When the ark of the covenant of Yahweh came into the camp, all Israyl raised such a great shout that the ground shook.

6 When the Philistines heard the noise of the shout, they asked: What does this shouting in the camp of the Hebrews mean? When they learned that the ark of Yahweh had come into the camp,

7 Then the Philistines were afraid, and they said: A god has come into the camp! Woe to us, we are in trouble! Such a thing has never come to pass before!

8 Woe to us, we are in trouble! Who will save us from the hand of these mighty gods? These are the gods who struck the Egyptians with all the plagues in the wilderness!

9 Be strong, Philistines! Be men, or you will be servants to the Hebrews, just as they have been to you. Behave yourselves like men, and fight!

10 So the Philistines fought, and Israyl was defeated, and every man fled to his tent. There was a very great slaughter; Israyl lost 30,000 foot soldiers.

11 The ark of Yahweh was captured, and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were killed.

12 That day a Benyaminite ran from the battlefield, and came to Shiloh with his clothes torn and dirt on his head.

13 When he arrived, Eli was sitting there on his chair by the side of the road, watching, because his heart feared for the ark of Yahweh. When the man entered the city and told what had come to pass, all the city cried out.

14 When Eli heard the noise of the outcry, he asked; What is the meaning of this uproar? Then the man came hastily and told Eli.

15 Eli was ninety-eight years old, and his eyes were so dim he could barely see.

17 Then the man said to Eli; I have come from the battle. I fled this day from the line of battle. Then he said; What has come to pass, my son?*

17 So the messenger answered, and said; Israyl has fled from in front of the Philistines, and there has been a great slaughter among our army. Your two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, are dead, and the ark of Yahweh has been captured.

18 When he mentioned the ark of Yahweh, Eli fell backward off his chair by the side of the gate. His neck was broken and he died, because he was an old man, and heavy. He had judged Israyl forty years.

19 His daughter-in-law, the wife of Phinehas, was with child and near the time of delivery. When she heard the news that the ark of Yahweh had been captured, and that her father-in-law and her husband were dead, she went into labor and gave birth. But she went into shock.

20 And as she was dying, the women attending her said; Do not despair; you have given birth to a son. But she did not respond, nor did she regard her son.

21 She named the boy Ichabod (No Glory), saying; The glory has departed from Israyl, because the ark of Yahweh had been captured, and because of her father-in-law and her husband.

22 Then she said; The glory has departed from Israyl, for the ark of Yahweh has been captured.

CHAP. 5

Then the Philistines took the ark of Yahweh and brought it from Ebenezer to Ashdod.

2 When the Philistines took the ark of Yahweh, they brought it into the temple of their god, Dagon, and set it right beside Dagon, the god of the Philistines.

3 When the people of Ashdod rose early the next morning, there was the image of Dagon, fallen on its face to the ground in front of the ark of Yahweh. So they took the image of Dagon and set it back in its place.

4 When they rose early the next morning, there was the image of Dagon, fallen on its face to the ground in front of the ark of Yahweh, but this time its head and both its hands were broken on, and were lying on the threshold; only its body remained intact.

5 That is why, to this day, neither the priests of Dagon nor any others who enter Dagon's temple at Ashdod step on the threshold.

6 Yahweh's hand was heavy upon the people of Ashdod and its territory; He ravaged them and struck them with ● buboes in the groin.

7 When the men of Ashdod saw what was befalling them, they said; The ark of the god of Israyl must not remain with us, for His hand is harsh toward us, and to our god, Dagon.

8 So they called together all the rulers of the Philistines, and asked them; What shall we do with the ark of the god of Israyl? They answered; Have the ark of the god of Israyl moved to Gath. So they moved the ark of the Father of Israyl.

9 But after they had moved it, Yahweh's hand was against that city with a great destruction, and He struck the people of the city, both young and old, with buboes in the groin.

10 So, they then sent the ark of Yahweh to Ekron. As the ark of Yahweh came to Ekron, the people of that city cried out, saying; They have brought the ark of the god of Israyl to us, to kill us and our people!

11 So they called together all the rulers of the Philistines, and said; Send the ark of the god of Israyl away! Let it go back to its own place, or it will kill us and our people! For there was a deadly destruction throughout all the city, and the hand of Yahweh was very heavy there.

12 Those who did not die were afflicted with buboes in the groin, and the cry of the city went up to heaven.

CHAP. 6

The ark of Yahweh was in the country of the Philistines for seven moons.

2 Then the Philistines summoned the priest and the diviners, saying; What are we to do with the ark of Yahweh? Tell us how we should send it back to its place.

3 They answered: If you return the ark of the god of Israyl, do not send it away empty; but by all means return it to Him with a trespass offering. Then you will be healed, and it will be known to you why His hand is not removed from you.

4 Then they said: What is the trespass offering we should return to Him? They answered: Five golden buboes and five golden rats—the number of the Philistine rulers, because the same Bubonic Plague that was on all of you, was on your rulers.

5 So you shall make images of your buboes, and images of your rats that ravage the land, and pay honor to Israyl's god. It may be that He will lift His hand from you, from your gods, and from your land.

6 Why, then, do you harden your hearts in the same way the Egyptians and Pharaoh hardened their hearts? When He treated them harshly, did they not send the Israylites out, so they might go on their way?

7 Now then, get a new cart ready, take two milk cows which have never been yoked, and hitch the cows to the cart, but take their calves away and pen them up.

8 Take the ark of Yahweh and set it on the cart, and put the articles of gold you are returning to Him as your trespass offering in a chest by its side. Then send it on its way.

9 But keep watch on it: if it goes up the road to its own territory, toward Beth Shemesh, then He has done us this great evil. But if it does not go in that direction, then we shall know that it is not His hand that struck us; it just came upon us and befell us.

10 Then the men did just that. They took two milk cows and hitched them to the cart, and penned up their calves at home.

11 They set the ark of Yahweh on the cart, and also the chest containing the gold rats and images of their buboes.

12 Then, the cows headed straight for the road to Beth Shemesh, keeping on the road, and lowing all the way. They did not turn to the right hand or to the left, and the rulers of the Philistines followed after them as far as the border of Beth Shemesh.

13 Now the people of Beth Shemesh were harvesting their wheat in the valley, and when they looked up and saw the ark, they rejoiced to see it.

14 The cart came to the field of Yahshua of Beth Shemesh, and there it stopped by a large stone. So they split the wood of the cart, and offered the cows as a burnt offering to Yahweh.

15 The Levites took down the ark of Yahweh, and the chest that was with it which contained the articles of gold, and put them on the large stone. Then the men of Beth Shemesh offered burnt offerings and made sacrifices to Yahweh the same day.

16 The five rulers of the Philistines saw all this, and then returned to Ekron that same day.

17 These are the number of the gold buboes the Philistines returned as a trespass offering to Yahweh: one for Ashdod, one for Gaza, one for Ashkelon, one for Gath, and one for Ekron.

18 The gold rats represented the number of all the cities of the five rulers of the Philistines—the fortified cities with their country villages. The large rock, on which they set the ark of Yahweh, is a witness to this day in the field of Yahshua of Beth Shemesh.

19 But Yahweh struck the men of Beth Shemesh, because they looked into the ark of Yahweh. He put seventy of them to death, because they had looked into the ark of Yahweh. The people mourned because of the heavy blow Yahweh had dealt them.

20 Then the men of Beth Shemesh asked: Who is able to stand in front of this Holy Father Yahweh? To whom will it go up from here?

21 So they sent messengers to the inhabitants of Kiryath Yearim, saying: The Philistines have brought back the ark of Yahweh. Come down, and take it back with you.

CHAP. 7

Then the men of Kiryath Yearim came and took the ark of Yahweh, and brought it into the house of Abinadab on the hill, and consecrated Eleazar his son to keep the ark of Yahweh.

2 So the ark remained in Kiryath Yearim a long time: it was there twenty years, and all the house of Israyl mourned after Yahweh.

3 Then Samuyl spoke to all the house of Israyl, saying: If you are returning to Yahweh with all your hearts, then rid yourselves of the gods and Ashtaroth; goddesses, among you. Commit yourselves to Yahweh, preparing your hearts: the seat of your intelligence, and worship and serve Him only. Then He will deliver you out of the hands of the Philistines.

4 So the children of Israyl put away the Baals; Lords and Gods, and the Ashtaroth; the goddesses, Astarte and Easter, and worshiped and served Yahweh only.

5 Then Samuyl said: Gather all Israyl to Mizpah, and I will pray to Yahweh on your behalf.

6 So they gathered together at Mizpah, they drew water and poured it out in front of Yahweh. On that day they fasted, and there they confessed: We have sinned against Yahweh. And Samuyl was judge of Israyl at Mizpah.

7 When the Philistines heard that the children of Israyl had gathered together at Mizpah; the rulers of the Philistines went up to attack them. When the Israylites heard of this, they were afraid because of the Philistines.

8 They said to Samuyl: Do not cease crying out to Yahweh on our behalf, so He may save us from the hand of the Philistines.

9 Samuyl took a suckling lamb and offered it as a whole burnt offering to Yahweh. Then Samuyl cried out to Yahweh on Israyl's behalf, and Yahweh answered him.

10 As Samuyl was offering the burnt offering, the Philistines drew near to begin battle against Israyl. But Yahweh thundered with such a loud thunder against the Philistines that day, and threw them into such confusion, they were soundly defeated before Israyl.

11 The men of Israyl rushed out of Mizpah and pursued the Philistines, cutting them down as far as the point below Beth Car.

12 Then Samuyl took a stone and set it up between Mizpah and Shen. He called its name, Ebenezer: Stone of Help, saying: So far Yahweh has helped us.

13 In this way the Philistines were subdued, and no longer invaded the territory of Israyl. Also, the hand of Yahweh was against the Philistines during the lifetime of Samuyl.

14 The cities which the Philistines had captured were restored to Israyl, from Ekron to Gath; Israyl recovered its territory from the power of the Philistines. There was also peace between Israyl and the westerners.

15 Samuyl judged Israyl all the days of his life.

16 From year to year he went on a circuit to Bethel, Gilgal, and Mizpah, judging Israyl in all those places.

17 But he always returned to Ramah, where his home was. There he also judged Israyl, and there he built an altar to Yahweh.

CHAP. 8

When Samuyl became old, he made his sons judges over Israyl.

2 The name of his firstborn was Yahyl; Yahweh is Strength, and the name of his second was Abiyah; My Father is Yahweh. They judged in Beersheba;

3 But his sons did not walk in his ways. They sought dishonest gain, took bribes, and perverted justice.

4 Then all the elders of Israyl gathered together and approached Samuyl when he was at Ramah,

5 Saying to him: You are old, and your sons do not walk in your ways. Appoint us a king to judge us, just like all the other nations.

6 But these things displeased Samuyl, especially when they said: Give us a king to judge us. Then Samuyl prayed to Yahweh.

7 Yahweh answered Samuyl, and said: Listen to all the words the people speak to you, for they have not rejected you; they have rejected Me, that I should not reign over them.

8 Just as they have done to Me from the day I brought them out of Egypt, to this very day, they are now doing to you—they are forsaking Me in order to serve god(s)!

9 So, listen to them. However, solemnly forewarn them and let them know how the king who will reign over them will behave toward them.

10 Samuyl spoke all the words of Yahweh to the people who had asked him for a king.

11 Samuyl said: This is how the king you desire to reign over you will behave: He will take your sons and appoint some of them to serve with his chariots—some will drive his chariot horses, and others will run in front of his chariots.

12 He will appoint captains for his army—captains over thousands and captains over hundreds. Your sons will plow his ground, others will bring in his harvest, and others will manufacture weapons of war and equipment for his chariots.

13 He will take your daughters and appoint them to be his perfumers, cooks, and bakers.

14 He will seize your best fields, vineyards, and olive groves, and give them to his officials.

15 He will demand a tenth of your grain and your vintage, and he will give it to his officers and attendants.

16 He will take your menservants, your maidservants, your finest young men, and your donkeys, and will put them to his own use.

17 He will demand a tenth of your sheep, and you, yourselves, will become his servants.

18 You will cry out in that day because of the king you wanted for yourselves, but in that day Yahweh will not listen to you.

19 However, the people refused to listen to Samuyl's warning, and answered: No, we want a king to reign over us.

20 We want to be just like all the other nations. We want a king to judge us and lead us in our battles.

21 Samuyl listened to all the words of the people, then he repeated them in the hearing of Yahweh.

22 So Yahweh instructed Samuyl: Listen to their demands, and appoint them a king. Then Samuyl said to the men of Israyl: Every man return to his city.

CHAP 9

There was a man of Benjamin whose name was Kish the son of Abiel, the son of Zeror, the son of Bechorath, the sons of Aphiah, a Benyaminite.

2 He had a son whose name was Shaul. He was impressive and handsome—without equal among the children of Israyl, and he was a head taller than any of the people.

3 Now the donkeys belonging to Shaul's father, Kish, were lost. So Kish said to his son, Shaul: Take one of the servants with you and go look for the donkeys.

4 So he walked through the hill country of Ephraim and through the area around Shalisha, but they could not find them. They went on into the district of Shaalim, but they were not to be found. Then he went through the territory of the Benyaminites, but they still could not find them.

5 When they reached the area of Zuph, Shaul said to his servant with him: Come on, let us turn back, or my father will stop worrying about the donkeys and start worrying about us.

6 But his servant replied to him: Wait, in this city is a highly respected man of Yahweh. All he proclaims assuredly comes to pass. So let us go there and it may be that he can show us how we are to proceed.

7 Then Shaul said to his servant: Look, if we do go, what are we to take the man? The food in our sacks is gone, and we have no gift to take the man of Yahweh. What do we have?

8 Then the servant answered Shaul again, and said: Look, I have one-fourth of a shekel; about 1/10th ounce, of silver. I will give that to the man of Yahweh, to tell us how to proceed.

9 (Formerly in Israyl, when a man went to inquire of Yahweh, he would say: Come, let us go to the seer, because he who is now called a prophet was formerly called a seer.)

10 Then Shaul answered his servant: Well said! Let us be going. So they set out to the city where the man of Yahweh was.

11 As they were going up the hill to the city, they met some young women going out to draw water, and said to them; Is the seer here?

12 They answered them, saying; Yes, he is ahead of you. Hurry now; just today he came to our city, because there is a sacrifice of the people on the high place.

13 As soon as you enter the city, you will surely find him before he goes up to the high place to eat. The people will not eat until he comes, because he must bless the sacrifice. After that, those who are invited will eat. Go on, for about this time you will find him.

14 So they went on toward the city. As they were entering the city, there was Samuyl, coming out toward them on the way up to the high place.

15 Now Yahweh had spoken in Samuyl's hearing the day before Shaul came, saying:

16 Tomorrow, about this same time, I will send you a man from the land of Benjamin. You shall anoint him leader over My people Israyl, so he may save My people from the power of the Philistines. I have looked upon My people, because their cry has come to Me.

17 When Samuyl saw Shaul, Yahweh said to him: There he is, the man whom I spoke to you. This one shall reign over My people.

18 Then Shaul approached Samuyl in the gate, and said; Tell me, where is the house of the seer?

19 Samuyl answered Shaul, and said; I am the seer. Go up ahead of me to the high place, because you shall eat with me today. Tomorrow I will let you go and tell you what is on your mind.

20 As for your donkeys that were lost three days ago, do not be worried about them, because they have been found. But to whom is all the hopes of Israyl turned, if not on you and on all your father's house?

21 Then Shaul answered, and said; I am a Benyaminite, from the smallest tribe in Israyl, and my clan is the least of all the clans of the tribe of Benjamin. Why then, do you speak to me like this?

22 Then Samuyl brought Shaul and his servant into the hall, and had them sit in the place of honor, at the head of those who were invited—about thirty persons in number.

23 Samuyl said to the cook: Bring out the portion I gave you, saying to you: Set it apart.

24 So the cook brought the thigh with its upper part, and set it in front of Shaul. Then Samuyl said: Here is what has been kept for you. Eat, because it was set apart for you for this occasion, which is the reason for inviting the people. So Shaul ate with Samuyl that day.

25 After they had come down from the high place and entered the city, Samuyl then spoke with Shaul on the roof of his house.

26 They rose early, about daybreak, then Samuyl called to Shaul on the roof; Get ready, and I will send you on your way. When Shaul got ready, he and Samuyl went outside together.

27 As they were going down to the edge of the city, Samuyl said to Shaul: Tell your servant to go on ahead of us, but you stay here awhile, so I may announce to you a message from Yahweh. So the servant went on.

CHAP. 10

Then Samuyl took a flask of oil and poured it on Shaul's head and kissed him, saying; Is this not because Yahweh has anointed you leader over His inheritance?

2 When you leave me today, you will find two men by Rachel's tomb in the territory of Benjamin, at Zelzah; they will say to you: The donkeys you are looking for have been found. Now your father has stopped worrying about the donkeys and has started worrying about you. He is asking: What shall I do about my son?

3 Then you will go on from there until you reach the great tree of Tabor. Three men going up to Yahweh at The House of Yahweh will meet you, one carrying three young goats, another carrying three loaves of bread, and another carrying a skin of wine.

4 They will greet you and give you two loaves of the bread, which you shall accept from their hands.

5 After that, you shall come to Gibeah of Yahweh where there is a Philistine garrison. When you approach the city, you will meet a group of prophets coming down from the high place with lyres, tambourines, flutes, and harps being played in front of them; and they will be prophesying.

6 Then the Spirit of Yahweh will come upon you; you will prophesy with them, and you will be turned into another man.

7 Once these signs are fulfilled before you, do whatever the occasion demands; for Yahweh is with you.

8 You shall go down ahead of me to Gilgal; and surely I will come to you there to offer burnt offerings and peace offerings. You must wait seven days, until I come to you, and show you what you must do.

9 As Shaul turned to leave Samuyl, Yahweh gave him another heart, and all those signs were fulfilled that day.

10 When they arrived at Gibeah, a procession of prophets met him; the Spirit of Yahweh came upon him, and he joined in their prophesying.

11 When all those who formerly knew him, saw he prophesied among the prophets, the people asked one another; What has come over the son of Kish? Is Shaul also among the prophets?

12 Then a man from there responded, asking; But who is their father? Unlike Shaul's father, their fathers have no status. So this became a proverb: Is Shaul also among the prophets?

13 When he had finished prophesying, he went to the high place.

14 Then Shaul's uncle asked him and his servant; Where did you go? And he answered; To look for the donkeys. When we saw they were no where to be found, then we went to Samuyl.

15 Then Shaul's uncle said; Tell me what Samuyl has said to you.

16 Then Shaul told his uncle; He plainly told us the donkeys had been found. However, about the matter of the kingdom, he told him nothing of what Samuyl had said.

17 Then Samuyl summoned the people together to Yahweh at Mizpah,

18 And said to the children of Israyl; This is what Yahweh, the Father of Israyl, says: I brought Israyl out of Egypt, and delivered you from the power of the Egyptians, and from the power of all kingdoms, and from those who oppressed you.

19 But as of this day you have rejected your Father Who, Himself, saves you from all your adversities and your tribulations; and you have said to Him: Instead, appoint a king over us! Now, because of this, present yourselves in front of Yahweh, by your tribes, and by your clans.

20 After all the tribes of Israyl had made their commanded appearance, the tribe of Benyamin was chosen.

21 After all the clans of Benyamin had made their commanded appearance, the clan of Matri was chosen. And Shaul the son of Kish was chosen from the clan of Matri. But when they went to look for him, he was not to be found.

22 Because of this, they inquired further of Yahweh, asking; Has the man come here yet? And Yahweh answered; Yes, he has hidden himself among the equipment.

23 So they ran and brought him out; and when he stood among the people, he was a head taller than any of the other people there.

24 Then Samuyl said to all the people; Do you see him whom Yahweh has chosen? There is no one else like him among all the people! Then all the people shouted, and said; Long live the king!

25 Samuyl explained to the people the regulations and behavior of kingship, and wrote them in a book, and deposited it in front of Yahweh. Then Samuyl dismissed all the people, sending every man to his own home.

26 Shaul also went to his home in Gibeah, accompanied by valiant men whose hearts Yahweh had touched.

27 But some rebels said; How can this man save any one? They despised him, and brought him no gifts. But he held his peace.

CHAP. 11

Nahash the Ammonite went up and besieged Yabesh Gilead. Then all the men of Yabesh said to Nahash; Make a treaty with us, and we will subject ourselves to you.

2 Nahash the Ammonite answered them; On this condition I will make a treaty with you— I will gouge out all your right eyes in order to bring dishonor upon Israyl.

3 Then the elders of Yabesh said to him; Allow us seven days so we may send messengers to all the territory of Israyl. Then, if there is no one to save us, we will submit to your condition.

4 The messengers came to Gibeah, where Shaul lived, and announced these terms to the people. Then all the people raised up their voices and wept.

5 Just then Shaul was returning from the fields, behind his oxen, and he asked; What is the matter with all the people? Why are all the people weeping? So they told him the report from the men of Yabesh.

6 Then the Spirit of Yahweh came upon Shaul when he heard this news, and his anger burned.

7 He took a pair of oxen, cut them into pieces, and sent the pieces by messengers throughout Israyl, declaring: Whoever does not go out with Shaul and Samuyl to battle, this also shall be done to his oxen. And the terror and dread of Yahweh came over the people, and they turned out as one man, with one accord.

8 When Shaul numbered them in Bezek, the children of Israyl numbered 300,000 and the men of Yahdah numbered 30,000.

9 They said to the messengers who came: Say this to the men of Yabesh Gilead: By the time the sun is high tomorrow you shall have help. Then the messengers reported this to the men of Yabesh, and they rejoiced.

10 However, the men of Yabesh said to the Ammonites with subterfuge: Tomorrow we will submit to you, and you may do with us whatever seems right to you.

11 The next day Shaul separated his men into three divisions, and they charged into the Ammonites' camp during the morning watch, killing them until the heat of the day. Those who survived were scattered, so that no two of them were left together.

12 Then the people said to Samuyl: Who was it that said: Shall Shaul reign over us? Bring those men to us, so we may put them to death!

13 But Shaul said: No man shall be put to death this day, for this is the day Yahweh has brought salvation in Israyl.

14 Then Samuyl said to the people: Come, let us go to Gilgal and reaffirm the kingdom.

15 So all the people went to Gilgal, and there they confirmed Shaul as king in front of Yahweh. There they offered sacrifices of peace offerings in front of Yahweh, and there Shaul and all the men of Israyl greatly rejoiced.

CHAP. 12

Samuyl said to all Israyl: I have listened to everything you said to me, and I have appointed a king over you.

2 Now here is your king, leading in front of you: I, myself, am old and grayheaded, and see, my sons are with you. I have been your leader and your judge from my youth, to this very day.

3 Here I stand. Testify against me in front of Yahweh and before His anointed: Whose ox have I taken? Whose donkey have I taken? Who is it that I have defrauded? Who is it that I have oppressed? From whose hand have I received a bribe to blind my eyes? I will restore it to you!

4 They answered: You have not defrauded us, nor oppressed us. You have not taken anything from any man's hand.

5 Then he said to them; Yahweh is witness against you, and His anointed is also witness this day, that you have found nothing in my hand; nothing against me. And they answered: He is witness.

6 Then Samuyl said to the people: It is Yahweh Who appointed Mosheh and Aaron, and Who brought your fathers from the land of Egypt.

7 Now then, stand at attention, so I may bring evidence to you, before Yahweh, concerning all the righteous acts of Yahweh, which He did for you and for your fathers:

8 When Yaaqob had gone into Egypt, and your fathers cried out to Yahweh, then Yahweh appointed and sent Mosheh and Aaron, who brought your fathers out of Egypt, and settled them in this place.

9 But when they forgot Yahweh their Father, He sold them into the hand of Sisera, commander of the army of Hazor, into the hand of the Philistines, and into the hand of the king of Moab; and they fought against Israyl.

10 Then they cried out to Yahweh, and said: We have sinned, because we have forsaken Yahweh and served the Baals; lords and gods, and Ashtaroth; the goddesses! But now, save us from the power of our enemies, and we will worship and serve You.

11 And Yahweh appointed and sent Yerubbaal, Barak, Yephthah, and Samuyl, and He delivered you from the power of your enemies on every side; and you lived in safety.

12 But when you saw Nahash king of the Ammonites was moving against you, you then said to me: No! We want a king to reign over us, when all along Yahweh your Father was your King!

13 Now, here is the king you have chosen, the one you wanted. Take note that Yahweh has set a king over you.

14 Now, if you give reverence to Yahweh, and worship and serve Him, and obey His voice, and do not rebel against the commandment of Yahweh, then both you and the king who reigns over you will continue to follow Yahweh your Father—fine and well!

15 However, if you do not obey the voice of Yahweh, but rebel against the commandment of Yahweh, then the hand of Yahweh will be against you, just as it was against your fathers.

16 Now then, stand at attention and see this great thing Yahweh is about to do in front of your eyes!

17 Is this day not during wheat harvest? I will call upon Yahweh to send thunder and rain, so you may understand and see what an evil thing you did in the eyes of Yahweh when you asked for a king!

18 So Samuyl called upon Yahweh, and Yahweh sent thunder and rain that day; and all the people greatly revered and stood in awe of Yahweh and Samuyl.

19 Then all the people entreated Samuyl, and said: Pray for your servants to Yahweh your Father, so we may not die; for we have added to all our sins the evil of asking for a king.

20 Then Samuyl said to the people: Do not be afraid. You have done all this evil; yet do not turn away from following Yahweh, but serve Yahweh with all your heart; the seat of your intelligence.

21 Do not turn away after worthless gods! They can do you no righteousness, nor can they save you, because they are useless!

22 Yahweh will not forsake His people, for the sake of His Great Name, because it has pleased Yahweh to make you His own.

23 As for me, far be it from me that I should sin against Yahweh by failing to pray for you. But I will teach you the proper and the right way.

24 Only revere Yahweh, and serve Him in truth with all your heart; the seat of your intelligence, and think about the great things He has done for you.

25 But if you persist in doing evil, both you and your king shall be swept away.

CHAP. 13

Shual was king for one year; and when he had reigned two years over Israyl.

2 Shaul chose for himself three thousand men of Israyl. Two thousand were with Shaul in Michmash and in the hill country of Bethel, and a thousand were with Yahnathan (Yahweh Has Given) at Gibeah, a city in the tribe of Benyamin. The rest of the men he sent back to their homes.

3 Yahnathan attacked the Philistine outpost in Geba, and the Philistines heard about it. Then Shaul had the trumpet blown throughout the land, and said: Let the Hebrews hear!

4 Then all Israyl heard the report that Shaul had attacked a garrison of the Philistines, and that Israyl had become abominable to the Philistines. The people, also, were summoned to join Shaul at Gilgal.

5 Then the Philistines gathered together to fight with Israyl, with three thousand chariots, six thousand charioteers, and foot-soldiers as numerous as sand on the seashore. They came up and encamped in Michmash, to the east of Beth Aven.

6 When the men of Israyl saw their endangered situation, and that their army was in distress, the people hid in caves, in thickets, among the rocks, and in pits and cisterns.

7 And Hebrews crossed over the Yordan to the land of Gad and Gilead. Shaul remained at Gilgal, and all the men with him followed him trembling.

8 Then he waited seven days, the time set by Samuyl. But Samuyl did not come to Gilgal; and the people were deserting him.

9 So Shaul said: Bring out the burnt offering and the peace offerings. Then he offered the burnt offering, himself.

10 Just as soon as he had finished offering the burnt offering, Samuyl arrived. And Shaul went out to meet him, so he might greet him.

11 Then Samuyl said: What have you done? And Shaul said: When I saw that the people were deserting me, and that you did not come within the time you set, and that the Philistines gathered together at Michmash, 12 Then I said to myself: The Philistines will fall on me at Gilgal, and I have yet to make supplication to Yahweh. So I felt compelled, and offered the burnt offering.

13 Then Samuyl said to Shaul: You have behaved foolishly. You have not kept the commandment of Yahweh your Father, which He commanded you. If you had, Yahweh would have established your kingdom over Israyl forever.

14 But now, your kingdom shall not endure. Yahweh will yet seek for Himself a man after His own heart, and Yahweh will appoint him to be leader over His people, because you have not obeyed what Yahweh commanded you.

15 Then Samuyl departed Gilgal, going toward Gibeah of Benyamin. Shaul numbered the people with him: about six hundred men.

16 Shaul, Yahnathan his son, and the people present with them remained in Gibeah of Benyamin, while the Philistines encamped in Michmash.

17 Then raiding parties came out of the Philistines' camp in three groups. One raiding party turned toward Ophrah in the vicinity of Shual.

18 Another went toward Beth Horon, and the third went toward the border overlooking the Valley of Zeboiyim facing the wilderness.

19 There was not a blacksmith to be found throughout all the land of Israyl, because the Philistines had said: If the Hebrews have blacksmiths, they will make swords and spears.

20 All the Israylites would go to the Philistines to have their plowshares, mattocks, axes, or sickles sharpened.

21 The price was a pim: 2/3 of a shekel, about 1/4 ounce of silver, for sharpening plowshares and mattocks, and one-third of a shekel; about 1/8 ounce of silver, for sharpening forks and axes, and for repointing goads.

22 So on the day of battle, there was neither sword nor spear to be found in the hand of any of the men with Shaul and Yahnathan. Only Shaul and Yahnathan his son had them.

23 And a garrison of the Philistines went out to the pass at Michmash.

CHAP. 14

One day Yahnathan ben Shaul said to the young man who carried his armor; Come, let us go over to the Philistines' garrison on the other side. But he did not tell his father.

2 Shaul was staying at the outskirts of Gibeah, under a pomegranate tree in Migron. There were about six hundred men with him.

3 Among whom was Ahiah the son of Ahitub, Ichabod's brother, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eli, Yahweh's priest in Shiloh who wore an ephod. However, no one knew that Yahnathan had gone.

4 On each side of the pass that Yahnathan intended to cross to reach the Philistine garrison was a cliff; one was called Bozez, and the other was called Seneh.

5 One cliff faced northward opposite Michmash, and the other southward opposite Gibeah.

6 Yahnathan said to the young man who carried his armor; Come, let us go over to the garrison of these uncircumcised men. It may be that Yahweh will work on our behalf. Nothing can stop Yahweh from saving, whether by many or by few.

7 So his armorbearer said to him; Do all that you have in mind. Go then, here I am with you, heart and soul.

8 Then Yahnathan said; Come, then, let us cross over to these men, and we will let them see us.

9 If they shall speak to us in this way; Wait until we come to you, then we will stay where we are and not go up to them.

10 But if they shall speak to us in this way; Come up to us, then we will go up, because Yahweh has delivered them into our hands, and this will be the sign to us.

11 So both of them showed themselves to the garrison of the Philistines, and the Philistines said; Look, the Hebrews are crawling out of the holes where they have hidden themselves.

12 Then the men of the garrison called out to Yahnathan and his armorbearer, and said; Come up to us, and we will show you a thing or two! So Yahnathan said to his armorbearer; Come up after me, for Yahweh has delivered them into the power of Israyl.

13 Yahnathan climbed up on his hands and knees with his armorbearer right behind him. The Philistines fell in front of Yahnathan, and his armorbearer followed and killed behind him.

14 In that first attack Yahnathan and his armorbearer killed some twenty men in an area the size of half the area plowed by a yoke of oxen in a day.

15 Then alarm struck the whole army—those in the camp and in the field, and those in the garrisons and in the raiding parties—and the ground shook; and it became a terror from Yahweh.

16 Shaul's watchmen in Gibeah of Benjamin looked, and there was the army melting away, running here and there in all directions.

17 Then Shaul said to the men with him; Call the roll and see who has left us. When they had called the roll, Yahnathan and his armorbearer were not found.

18 Then Shaul said to Ahiah; Bring the ark of Yahweh (at that time the ark of Yahweh was with the children of Israyl).

19 Then, while Shaul spoke to the priest, the noise in the camp of the Philistines continued to increase. So Shaul said to the priest; Withdraw your hand.

20 Then Shaul and all the people with him gathered together and went to the battle. They found the Philistines in complete confusion, striking each other with their swords.

21 The Hebrews who had previously been with the Philistines, who had gone up with them to their camp, came over to the Israylites who were with Shaul and Yahnathan.

22 In the same manner, all the men of Israyl who had hidden out in the hill country of Ephraim joined the battle in hot pursuit when they heard the Philistines were on the run.

23 So Yahweh saved Israyl that day, and the battle moved on beyond Beth Aven.

24 And the men of Israyl were in distress that day, because Shaul had placed the people under an oath, saying; Cursed is the man who eats food before evening comes, before I have taken vengeance upon my enemies. So none of the men had so much as tasted food.

25 Now all the people of the land came to a forest; and there was honey on the ground.

26 When the people had come into the woods, there was the honey, dripping; but no one put his hand to his mouth, because the people feared the oath.

27 But Yahnathan had not heard his father place the people under this oath, so he reached out the end of the staff that was in his hand, dipped it into the honeycomb, then brought his hand to his mouth. Then his strength was renewed.

28 Then one of the men told him; Your father placed the army under a strict oath, saying; Cursed be any man who eats food today! That is why all the men are faint.

29 But Yahnathan said; My father has made trouble for the land. See now, how my strength has renewed because I tasted a little of this honey.

30 How much better it would have been if the men had eaten freely of the plunder they took from their enemies. For now would there not have been a much greater slaughter among the Philistines?

31 After they had driven back the Philistines that day from Michmash to Aiyalon, the people were very faint.

32 The people pounced on the plunder and took sheep, oxen, and calves—butchering them on the ground and eating them with the life-blood.

33 Then they told this to Shaul, and said; Look, the people are sinning against Yahweh by eating with the lifeblood. Then he said; You have broken faith. Roll a large stone over here at once.

34 Then he said; Go out among the men and tell them; Each of you bring me your cattle and sheep, and kill them here, then eat them. Do not sin against Yahweh by eating with the blood! So every one of the people brought his ox that night and slaughtered it there.

35 Then Shaul built an altar to Yahweh. This was the first altar that he had built to Yahweh.

36 Then Shaul said; Let us go after the Philistines by night, and plunder them until light breaks, and let us not leave one of them alive. And they said; Do whatever seems right to you. Then the priest said; Let us draw near to Yahweh.

37 So Shaul inquired of Yahweh; Shall I go after the Philistines? Will You deliver them into the power of Israyl? But He did not answer him that day.

38 Therefore Shaul said; Come here, all you who are leaders of the army, and let us find out what sin has been committed this day.

39 As surely as Yahweh, Who saves Israyl, lives, though it be on account of Yahnathan my son, he shall surely die. But not a man among all the people answered him a word.

40 Then he said to all Israyl; You stand over there; and I and my son Yahnathan will stand over here. And the men said to Shaul; Do what seems right to you.

41 Then Shaul prayed to Yahweh, the Father of Israyl; Give me the right answer. Then Yahnathan and Shaul were taken in the lot, and the men were cleared.

42 Then Shaul said; Cast lots between me and my son Yahnathan. Then Yahnathan was taken.

43 Then Shaul said to Yahnathan; Tell me what you have done. So Yahnathan told him; I only tasted a little honey with the end of the staff in my hand. And now must I die?

44 Shaul said; In this way may Yahweh do to me, and in this way may He add, if you do not die, Yahnathan.

45 But the men said to Shaul; Should Yahnathan die, who has brought about this great salvation in Israyl? Never! As surely as Yahweh lives, not a hair of his head will fall to the ground, for he has worked with Yahweh this day. So the people rescued Yahnathan, and he did not die.

46 Then Shaul returned from pursuing the Philistines, and the Philistines went to their own land.

47 So Shaul established his rule over Israyl, and fought against all their enemies on every side; against Moab, Ammon, Edom, the kings of Zobah, and against the Philistines. Wherever he turned, he was victorious against them.

48 Then he gathered an army and attacked the Amalekites, and saved Israyl from the power of those who plundered them.

49 Now the sons of Shaul were Yahnathan, Yishwi, and Malchishua. The names of his two daughters were Merab; the firstborn, and Michal; the younger.

50 The name of Shaul's wife was Ahinoam the daughter of Ahimaaz. The name of the commander of his army was Abner, the son of Ner, Shaul's uncle.

51 Kish was the father of Shaul, and Ner the father of Abner was the son of Abiel.

52 There was bitter warfare with the Philistines all the days of Shaul, and whenever Shaul saw a mighty or brave man, he took him into his service.

CHAP. 15

Samuyl said to Shaul; Yahweh sent me to anoint you king over His people Israyl; so listen now to these words from Yahweh.

2 This is what Yahweh Almighty says; I will punish what Amalek did to Israyl when they ambushed them as they came up from Egypt.

3 Now go, attack the Amalekites and utterly destroy; cherem, all that they have. Do not spare them. Kill both man and woman, infant and nursing child, ox, sheep, camel, and donkey!

4 So Shaul gathered the people together and numbered them at Telaim—200,000 foot soldiers, and 10,000 men of Yahdah.

5 Then Shaul went to the city of Amalek, and set an ambush for it in the valley.

6 Then Shaul said to the Kenites who lived there; Go away, get out from among the Amalekites, or I will destroy you along with them; because you showed kindness; chesed, to all the children of Israyl when they came out of Egypt. So the Kenites moved away from the Amalekites.

7 Then Shaul attacked the Amalekites all the way from Havilah to Shur, which is east of Egypt.

8 He took Agag king of the Amalekites alive, but utterly destroyed; cherem, all the other people with the sword.

9 But Shaul and his men spared Agag, along with the best of the sheep, the oxen, the fatlings, the lambs—everything that was of superior quality they were unwilling to utterly destroy; cherem. However, everything despised and weak, that they utterly destroyed; cherem.

10 Then the word of Yahweh came to Samuyl, saying:

11 I am deeply grieved that I have made Shaul king, for he has turned away from following Me, and has not performed My commandments. This also grieved Samuyl, and he cried out to Yahweh all night.

12 When Samuyl rose early the next morning to meet with Shaul, it was told Samuyl, saying: Shaul went to Carmel. There he has set up a monument in his own honor, and he has turned and gone on down to Gilgal.

13 Then Samuyl went to Shaul, and Shaul said to him: Blessed are you of Yahweh! I have performed the commandment of Yahweh.

14 But Samuyl said: What, then, is this bleating of sheep in my ears, and the lowing of the oxen which I hear?

15 And Shaul said: They have brought them from the Amalekites, because the people spared the best of the sheep and the oxen, to sacrifice to Yahweh your Father. The rest we have utterly destroyed; cherem.

16 Then Samuyl said to Shaul: Cease speaking! Then I will tell you what Yahweh said to me last night. And he said to him: Speak on.

17 So Samuyl said: When you were small in your own eyes, were you not the head of the tribes in Israyl? Did not Yahweh anoint you king over all Israyl?

18 Now Yahweh set you on a mission, and said: Go, and utterly destroy; cherem, those sinners, the Amalekites and fight against them until they are consumed.

19 Why, then, did you not obey the voice of Yahweh? Why did you pounce upon the plunder, and do evil in the sight of Yahweh?

20 Then Shaul said to Samuyl: But I have obeyed the voice of Yahweh. I went on the mission which Yahweh sent me on, and I brought back Agag king of Amalek. I have utterly destroyed; cherem, the Amalekites.

21 But the people took the plunder, sheep and oxen, and the best of the things which should have been utterly destroyed; cherem, to sacrifice to Yahweh your Father in Gilgal.

22 Then Samuyl said: Has Yahweh as great a delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices, as in obeying the voice of Yahweh? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, and to listen than the fat of rams.

23 Because rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft, and stubbornness is the same as iniquity and godworship; because you have rejected the word of Yahweh, He, also, has rejected you from being king.

24 Then Shaul said to Samuyl: I have sinned, because I have transgressed the commandment of Yahweh and your words; because I was more afraid of the people and I gave in to them.

25 Now, please pardon my sin, and return with me, so I may worship Yahweh.

26 But Samuyl said to Shaul: I will not return with you, because you have rejected the word of Yahweh, and Yahweh has rejected you from being king over Israyl.

27 As Samuyl turned around to go away, Shaul caught the edge of his robe, and tore it.

28 Samuyl said to him: Yahweh has torn the kingdom of Israyl from you this day and has given it to one of your brothers: to one who is better than you.

29 He Who is the Strength of Israyl does not lie, nor will He change His mind. For He is not a man, that He should change His mind.

30 Then Shaul said: I have sinned. But honor me in front of the elders of my people, and in front of Israyl: come back with me, so I may worship Yahweh your Father.

31 So Samuyl went back with Shaul, and Shaul worshiped Yahweh.

32 Then Samuyl said: Bring Agag king of the Amalekites out to me. Agag came out to him trembling, yet thinking: Surely the bitterness of death is past.

33 But Samuyl said: Just as your sword has made women childless, so shall your mother be childless among women! Then Samuyl hacked Agag to pieces before Yahweh in Gilgal.

34 Then Samuyl left for Ramah, but Shaul went up to his home in Gibeah of Shaul.

35 Samuyl went to see Shaul no more until the day of his death. Nevertheless, Samuyl mourned for Shaul, but Yahweh regretted that He had made Shaul king over Israyl.

CHAP. 16

Then Yahweh said to Samuyl: How long will you mourn for Shaul, seeing that I have rejected him from being king over Israyl? Fill your horn with oil and be on your way. I am sending you to Yishai of Bethlehem, because I have chosen for Myself a king from among his sons.

2 But Samuyl said: How can I go? If Shaul hears of it, he will kill me. Then Yahweh said: Take a heifer with you, and say: I have come to sacrifice to Yahweh.

3 Then invite Yishai to the sacrifice, and I will show you what you are to do; you are to anoint for Me the one I name to you.

4 So Samuyl did what Yahweh said, and went to Bethlehem. The elders of the city trembled when they met him, and said: Do you come in peace?

5 And he said: Shalom! I have come to sacrifice to Yahweh. Sanctify and consecrate yourselves, and come with me to the sacrifice. Then he sanctified and consecrated Yishai and his sons, and invited them to the sacrifice.

6 When they came, he looked at Eliab and thought: Surely Yahweh's anointed stands in front of Him.

7 But Yahweh said to Samuyl. Do not look at his appearance or at his height, because I have refused him. Yahweh does not see things as a man sees them: for man looks at the outward appearance, but Yahweh looks at the heart: the seat of intelligence.

8 Yishai summoned Abinadab and had him come forward, but Samuyl said: Yahweh has not chosen this one.

9 Then Yishai made Shammah come forward, but Samuyl said: Yahweh has not chosen this one.

10 In this same way Yishai made seven of his sons come forward to stand in front of Samuyl, but Samuyl said to Yishai: Yahweh has not chosen these.

11 Then Samuyl said to Yishai: Are these all the sons you have? And he said: The youngest remains, but he is tending the sheep. Samuyl said to Yishai: Send for him and bring him forward, because we will not gather around to eat of Yahweh's sacrifice until he comes here. So Yishai sent for David and brought him in to eat of Yahweh's sacrifice. He was ruddy, with a fine appearance, and handsome features.

12 Then Yahweh said: Rise and anoint him. He is the one.

13 So Samuyl took the horn of oil and anointed him in the presence of his brothers, and from that day forward the Spirit of Yahweh came upon David. Then Samuyl arose and left for Ramah.

14 But the Spirit of Yahweh had departed from Shaul, and an evil spirit from Yahweh tormented him.

15 Shaul's attendants said to him: An evil spirit truly is distressing you.

16 Let our ruler give the command to his attendants, who are in front of you, to find a man who skillfully plays on the harp. Then, his hand will play it when the evil spirit depresses you, and you will feel better.

17 So Shaul commanded his attendants: Find a man who can play well, and bring him to me.

18 Then one of the attendants responded, and said: I have seen a son of Yishai of Bethlehem playing skillfully. He is a brave man and a warrior. He speaks well and is a handsome person. And Yahweh is with him.

19 Then Shaul sent messengers to Yishai, and said: Send me your son David, who is with the sheep.

20 So Yishai took a donkey loaded with bread, a skin of wine, and a young goat, and sent them, along with his son David, to Shaul.

21 So David came to Shaul and attended him, and Shaul liked him very much, and he became his armorbearer.

22 Then Shaul sent word to Yishai, saying: Allow David to remain in my service, for he has found honor in my sight.

23 So, whenever the evil spirit came upon Shaul, David would take his harp and skillfully play it. Then Shaul would be relieved; he would feel better, and the evil spirit would leave him.

CHAP. 17

The Philistines gathered their armies together to battle at Socoh in Yahdah. They encamped at Ephes Dammin, between Socoh and Azekah.

2 Shaul and the men of Israyl gathered together, and they encamped in the Valley of Elah, and drew up their battle line to meet the Philistines.

3 The Philistines occupied a hill on one side, and Israyl occupied a hill on the other side, and a valley lay between them.

4 And a man from Gath came out from the camp of the Philistines, named Goliath, whose height was six cubits and a span: probably about 9 ft and 9 inches tall.

5 He wore a bronze helmet on the head, and wore a bronze coat of mail weighing five thousand shekels: probably about 125 pounds.

6 He wore bronze greaves: armor on his legs below his knees, and had a bronze javelin slung between his shoulders.

7 The staff of his spear looked like a weaver's beam, and its iron spearhead weighed six hundred shekels: about 15 pounds, and his shield bearer walked ahead of him.

8 Goliath came out and stood, and cried out to the armies of Israyl, saying: Why should you even come out to line up for battle? Am I not a Philistine? Are you not the servants of Shaul? Choose a man for yourselves and send him out to me.

9 If he is able to fight and kill me, we will become your subjects; but if I fight against him and kill him, then you will become our subjects and serve us.

10 Then the Philistine said: I challenge and defy the armies of Israyl this day. Give me a man, so we may fight each other!

11 When Shaul and all Israyl heard the Philistine's words: they were dismayed and terrified.

12 Now David was the son of Yishai, the Ephrathite from Bethlehem in Yahdah, who had eight sons. The man was well advanced in age, even during the days of Shaul.

13 The three oldest sons of Yishai had gone to follow Shaul to the battle. The names of those three sons were Eliab; his firstborn, Abinadab; his secondborn, and the thirdborn was Sham-mah.

14 David was his youngest. And the three eldest followed Shaul.

15 David went back and forth from Shaul to tend his father's sheep at Bethlehem.

16 And the Philistine came out and threw out his challenge forty days, morning and evening.

17 Then Yishai said to his son David: Take an ephah; about 1/2 bushel, of this dried grain and ten loaves of bread, and hurry to your brothers at the camp.

18 And carry these ten cheeses to the captain of their thousand, see about your brothers' welfare, then bring the news of them back to me.

19 Shaul, and they, and all the men of Israyl are in the Valley of Elah, fighting with the Philistines.

20 So David rose early in the morning, left the sheep with a keeper, loaded the supplies, and set out, just as Yishai has instructed him. He arrived at the camp just as the army was going out to the battle, shouting their war cry.

21 Israyl and the Philistines were drawing up their lines facing each other.

22 David left his supplies with the supply keeper, ran to the battle lines, and greeted his brothers.

23 As he was talking with them, there came the Philistine man from Gath, Goliath by name, coming out from the Philistines' army. He shouted the challenge in the same manner, and David heard it.

24 When all the men of Israyl saw the man, they fled from him and were terribly afraid.

25 Now the men of Israyl had been saying: Do you see how this man keeps coming out? He comes out to challenge and defy Israyl. The king will give great riches to the man who kills him, he will give him his daughter in marriage, and the house of his father will be exempt from taxes in Israyl.

26 Then David asked the man standing next to him: What shall be done for the man who kills this Philistine and takes away the shame and dishonor from Israyl? Just who is this uncircumcised Philistine, that he should challenge and defy the armies of the living Father?

27 The people answered him, and repeated what they had been saying: This is what will be done for the man who kills him.

28 Eliab, his oldest brother, heard when he had spoken to the men; and Eliab's anger burned against David. Then he asked him: Why did you come down here? Who have you left those few sheep in the wilderness with? You proud and conceited of heart! You came here only to watch the battle!

29 David said: What have I done now? What have I done to cause this?

30 Then he turned away from him toward another and said the same thing; and these men answered him just as the first ones did.

31 What David said was heard and reported to Shaul, and Shaul sent for him.

32 David said to Shaul; Let no one become discouraged because of this Philistine. I, your servant, will go and fight him.

33 Shaul said to David; You are not able to fight against this Philistine. You are only a boy, and he has been a man of war from his youth.

34 But David said to Shaul: Your servant has been keeping his father's sheep. When a lion or a bear would come and carry off a sheep from the flock, 35 Then I would go after it, strike it, and rescue the sheep from its mouth. If it turned upon me, I would catch it by its hair, strike it and kill it.

36 Your servant has killed both lion and bear; and this uncircumcised Philistine will be just like one of them, seeing he has challenged and defied the armies of the living Father.

37 David added: Yahweh, Who delivered me from the paw of the lion and from the paw of the bear, He will save me from the hand of this Philistine. Then Shaul said to David: Go, and may Yahweh be with you!

38 Shaul dressed David for battle; he put a tunic on him, then a helmet of bronze on his head, then fastened a coat of armor on him.

39 David fastened his own sword over the tunic and tried walking around, because he was not used to them. David said to Shaul; I cannot walk out in these, because I am not used to them. So David removed them.

40 Then he took his staff in his hand; and chose five smooth stones from the brook, putting them in the shepherd's pouch he carried and, with his sling in his hand, approached the Philistine.

41 So the Philistine came out, with the man who carried his shield walking in front of him, and he began to close in on David.

42 When the Philistine looked David over, he despised him. He only saw a ruddy, handsome youth.

43 The Philistine said to David: Am I a dog, that you come against me with sticks? And the Philistine cursed David with the names of his gods.

44 Then the Philistine said to David: Come here, and I will give your flesh to the birds of the air and the beasts of the field!

45 Then David said to the Philistine; You come against me with a sword, with a spear, and with a sheild. But I come against you with the Name of Yahweh Almighty, the Strength of the armies of Israyl, Whom you have challenged and defied!

46 This day Yahweh will deliver you into my hand, and I will strike you and take your head from you! This day I will give the carcasses of the camp of the Philistines to the birds of the air and the beasts of the earth, so that all the earth may know there is a Mighty Father in Israyl!

47 All those gathered here will know that Yahweh does not save with sword and spear; for the battle is Yahweh's, and He will give you into our hands!

48 As the Philistine moved closer to attack him, David hurriedly ran toward the army to meet the Philistine.

49 Then David put his hand in his bag and took out a stone; he slung and struck the Philistine on his forehead. The stone sank into his forehead, and he fell on his face to the earth.

50 So David triumphed over the Philistine with a sling and a stone, and struck the Philistine and killed him. But no sword was in David's hand.

51 So David ran and stood over the Philistine, took his sword and drew it from its sheath and killed him, and cut off his head with it. When the Philistines saw their man dead, they fled.

52 The men of Israyl and Yahdah rose up and shouted, then pursued the Philistines as far as the entrance to the valley, and to the gates of Ekron. Their dead were scattered along the Shaaraim road to Gath and Ekron.

53 Then the children of Israyl returned from pursuing the Philistines, and they plundered their tents.

54 David took the head of the Philistine and brought it to Jerusalem, but he placed his armor in his tent.

55 When Shaul saw David going out against the Philistine, he asked Abner, the commander of the army; Abner, whose son is this boy? And Abner said; As you live, O king, I do not know.

56 Then the king said; Make inquiry about whose son he is.

57 Then, as David returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, Abner took him and brought him before Shaul, with the head of the Philistine in his hand.

58 Then Shaul said to him; Whose son are you, young man? And David answered; I am the son of your servant Yishai, the Bethlehemite.

Yahnathan was knit to David in one spirit, and Yahnathan loved him as he loved himself.

2 Shaul took him that day, and would not allow him to go home to his father's house anymore.

3 Then Yahnathan made a covenant with David, because he loved him as he loved himself.

4 Yahnathan took off the robe he was wearing and gave it to David, along with his armor, even to his sword, his bow, and his belt.

5 David went out wherever Shaul sent him, and David performed wisely. So Shaul set him over the men of war, and he was accepted by all the people, and by Shaul's officials.

6 When the men were returning home after David had killed the Philistine, the women came out from all the cities of Israyl to meet King Shaul with singing and dancing, with joyful songs and with tambourines and lutes.

7 So the women sang as they danced, and said; Shaul has slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands.

8 Then Shaul was angry; the saying displeased him. He said; They have credited David with ten thousands, and to me they have only credited thousands. What more can he have but the kingdom?

9 So Shaul kept his eye on David from that day forward.

10 The very next day the evil spirit came heavily upon Shaul, and he prophesied inside his house. David played music just as at the other times, but a spear was in Shaul's hand.

11 Shaul hurled the spear, because he said to himself; I will pin David to the wall. But David escaped him twice.

12 Now Shaul was afraid of David, because Yahweh was with him, and He had left Shaul.

13 So he sent David away from his presence, and made him a captain over a thousand; and he led them out and he brought them in in front of the people.

14 David conducted himself wisely in all his ways, and Yahweh was with him.

15 When Shaul saw how very wise he was, he was afraid of him.

16 But all Israyl and Yahdah loved David, because he led them out and brought them in, in front of them.

17 Then Shaul said to David; Here is my older daughter Merab; I will give her to you in marriage; only serve me bravely and fight the battles of Yahweh. For Shaul had said to himself; I will not let my hand be against him, I will let the hands of the Philistines be against him!

18 David said to Shaul; Who am I, and what is my family or my father's clan in Israyl, that I should become the son-in-law of the king?

19 However, when the time came for Merab, Shaul's daughter, to be given to David, she was

CHAP. 18

When he had finished speaking with Shaul, given to Adriel the Meholathite in marriage.

20 Now Michal, Shaul's daughter loved David. When they told this to Shaul, the thing pleased him.

21 Shaul said; I will give her to him, so she may be a trap for him, and so the Philistines may be against him. So Shaul said to David a second time; Now you may become my son-in-law.

22 Then Shaul ordered his attendants; Speak to David privately, and say; The king is pleased with you, and all his attendants like you. Now, become the king's son-in-law.

23 So Shaul's attendants repeated these words to David, but David said; Does it seem to you a small matter to be a king's son-in-law, I am a poor man and little known.

24 Then Shaul's attendants informed Shaul, saying; In this manner David responded.

25 Then Shaul said; This is what you shall say to David; The king does not require any dowry but one hundred foreskins of the Philistines, to take vengeance on the king's enemies. For Shaul thought this would make David fall by the hand of the Philistines.

26 When his attendants told David these words, he was pleased to become the king's son-in-law. So before the allotted time had expired;

27 David and his men went out and killed two hundred Philistine men. David brought their foreskins, and they gave them in full count to the king, so he might become the king's son-in-law. Then Shaul gave him Michal his daughter in marriage.

28 When Shaul saw and knew that Yahweh was with David, and that Michal, Shaul's daughter, loved him.

29 Then Shaul was even more afraid of David. Shaul became David's enemy the remainder of his days.

30 The Philistine commanders went out to war, and whenever they went out, David met with more success, so that his name became highly esteemed.

CHAP. 19

Shaul told Yahnathan his son and all his attendants to kill David, but Yahnathan was deeply fond of David.

2 Yahnathan warned David, saying; My father Shaul is looking for an opportunity to kill you. Be on your guard until morning, and stay in a secret place and hide.

3 I will go out and stand with my father in the field where you are. I will speak to him about you, and I will tell you what I find out.

4 Then Yahnathan spoke well of David to Shaul his father, and said to him; Let not the king sin against his servant David, because he has not sinned against you, and because his works have greatly benefited you.

5 He took his life in his hand and killed the Philistine, and Yahweh brought about a great salvation for all Israyl. You saw this and rejoiced. Why, then, will you sin against innocent blood, to kill David without a cause?

6 So Shaul listened to Yahnathan, and Shaul vowed; As surely as Yahweh lives, he shall not be killed.

7 Then Yahnathan summoned David, and Yahnathan brought David to Shaul, and David was in Shaul's presence as before.

8 Once more war broke out, and David went out and fought against the Philistines. He struck them with such force, they fled from him.

9 But an evil spirit from Yahweh came upon Shaul as he was sitting in his house with his spear in his hand. And David's hand was playing the music.

10 Shaul tried to pin him to the wall with his spear, but David escaped him as Shaul drove the spear into the wall. David fled and escaped that night.

11 Shaul sent messengers to David's house to watch it and to kill him in the morning. But Michal, David's wife, told him, and said; If you do not save your life this night, tomorrow you will be killed.

12 So Michal let David down through a window, and he went, and fled, and escaped.

13 Then Michal took an idol and laid it in the bed. She covered it with a garment and put some goats' hair at the head.

14 When Shaul sent messengers to seize David, she said; He is sick.

15 Then Shaul sent the messengers back to David, and said; Bring him up to me in the bed so I may kill him.

16 When the messengers came in, there was the idol in the bed, and at the head was some goats' hair.

17 Shaul said to Michal; Why have you deceived me like this and sent my enemy away so that he escaped? Michal answered Shaul; He said to me; Let me go! Why should I kill you?

18 So David fled and escaped, and went to Samuyl at Ramah, and told him all that Shaul had done to him. Then he and Samuyl went and stayed in Naioth.

19 This was told to Shaul; Take notice that David is at Naioth in Ramah.

20 Then Shaul sent messengers to seize David. But when they saw the group of prophets prophesying, and Samuyl standing as leader over them, the Spirit of Yahweh came over the messengers of Shaul, and they prophesied also.

21 When this was told to Shaul, he sent other messengers, and they prophesied in the same manner. Then Shaul sent messengers the third time, and they also prophesied.

22 Finally, he, himself, left for Ramah and came to the great well at Sechu. There he asked: Where are Samuyl and David? He was told: Truly, they are at Naioth in Ramah.

23 So he set out from there, going to Naioth in Ramah. Then the Spirit of Yahweh came upon him also, and he went on and prophesied until he came to Naioth in Ramah.

24 He stripped off his robes and also prophesied in Samuyl's presence. He lay naked all that day and night. Because of this, they say: Is Shaul also among the prophets?

CHAP. 20

Then David fled from Naioth in Ramah, and went to Yahnathan, and asked him: What have I done? What is my iniquity? What is my sin before your father, that he seeks to kill me?

2 Yahnathan said to him: Never! You are not going to die! Truly, my father will do nothing, neither great nor small, without first telling me. Why should my father keep this thing from me? This is not true!

3 But David took an oath, and said: Your father is very aware that I have found honor in your eyes, and he has said: Do not let Yahnathan know of this, or he will be sorrowful. But in truth, as surely as Yahweh lives, and as surely as you live, there is but a step between me and death.

4 Then Yahnathan said to David: Whatever you want, I will do it for you.

5 David said to Yahnathan: Truly, tomorrow is the New Moon, and I am supposed to sit with the king to dine. But let me go, so I may hide in the field until the third day at evening.

6 If your father misses me at all, then say to him: David earnestly asked my permission to hurry to Bethlehem his city, because an annual sacrifice is being made there for his whole clan.

7 If he responds: Very well, then your servant will be safe. But if he becomes angry, then you can be sure that he is determined to harm me.

8 As for you, deal kindly with your servant, for you have brought your servant into a covenant with you in front of Yahweh. But if there is iniquity in me, kill me yourself. Why hand me over to your father?

9 Yahnathan said: Far be that from you. If I knew evil was determined by my father against you, then would I not tell you?

10 Then David said to Yahnathan: Who will tell me if your father answers you harshly?

11 Yahnathan said to David: Come, let us go out into the field. So both of them went out together into the field.

12 Then Yahnathan said to David: Yahweh, the Father of Israyl, is my witness. I will surely sound out my father by this time the day after tomorrow. If it is well with you, will I not send word to you and tell you?

13 But if my father is inclined to harm you, may Yahweh do to me, and in this way may He add to Yahnathan, if I do not let you know, and send you away safely. May Yahweh be with you as He has been with my father.

14 But show me the kindness: chesed, of Yahweh while I still live, so that I may not die:

15 And do not ever cut off your kindness: chesed, from my father's house—not even when Yahweh has cut off every one of David's enemies from the earth.

16 So Yahnathan made a covenant with the house of David, saying: May Yahweh call the enemies of David to account.

17 Yahnathan had David reaffirm his vow, because he loved him, even as he loved his own self.

18 Then Yahnathan said to David: Tomorrow is the New Moon, and you will be missed, because your seat will be empty.

19 And when you have stayed there three days, go down quickly and come to the place where you hid on the day this trouble began; remain by the stone Ezel.

20 I will shoot three arrows to the side of it, as though I were shooting at a target.

21 There I will send a boy, saying: Go, find the arrows. If I say to him: Look, the arrows are on this side of you, bring them here—then come, because as surely as Yahweh lives, there is safety for you and no harm.

22 But if I say to the boy: Look, the arrows are beyond you, then you must leave, because Yahweh has sent you away.

23 And as for the matter you and I have discussed—remember, Yahweh is witness between you and me forever.

24 So David hid in the field. And when the New Moon had come, the king sat down to eat the feast.

25 The king sat on his customary seat by the wall. Yahnathan arose, and Abner sat by Shaul's side, but David's place was empty.

26 Shaul said nothing that day, for he thought: Something must have come upon David to make him ceremonially unclean—surely he is unclean.

27 But the next day, the second day of the moon, David's place was empty again. Then Shaul said to Yahnathan his son: Why has the son of Yishai not eaten, either yesterday or today?

28 Yahnathan answered Shaul: David earnestly asked permission from me to go to Bethlehem.

29 He said: Let me go, because our clan has a sacrifice in the city, and my brother has commanded me to be there. And now, if I have found honor in your eyes, allow me to be absent to see my brothers. This is why he has not come to the king's table.

30 Then Shaul's anger burned against Yahnathan, and he said to him; You son of perversion and rebellion! Do you think I do not know you have sided with the son of Yishai, to your own shame and to the shame of the mother who bore you?

31 As long as that son of Yishai lives on earth, neither you nor your kingdom will be established. Now send for him and bring him to me, because he shall surely die.

32 Yahnathan answered Shaul his father, and said; Why should he be put to death? What has he done?

33 But Shaul hurled his spear at him, trying to kill him, so Yahnathan knew then his father was determined to kill David.

34 Yahnathan got up from the table in fierce anger. He ate no food the second day of the moon, because he was grieved that his father was treating David so shamefully.

35 In the morning Yahnathan went out into the field at the time David and he had set, and a little boy was with him.

36 Then he said to the boy; Run and find the arrows I will shoot. As the boy ran, he shot an arrow beyond him.

37 When the boy came to the place Yahnathan had shot the arrow, Yahnathan called out to him, saying; Is not the arrow beyond you?

38 Then Yahnathan called out to the boy; Quickly go! Hurry! Do not delay! so the boy gathered up the arrows and brought them back to Yahnathan.

39 But the boy knew nothing of what had taken place. Only Yahnathan and David knew of its significance.

40 Then Yahnathan gave his weapons to the boy, and instructed him; Go, carry these to the city.

41 As soon as the boy left, David rose up from his hiding place toward the south, fell down in front of Yahnathan, and bowed three times with his face to the ground. Then they kissed each other and wept together, but David wept the most.

42 Then Yahnathan said to David; Go in peace, for we have vowed an oath with the Name of Yahweh, saying; Yahweh is between you and me, and between your descendants and my descendants, forever. So he rose up and left, and Yahnathan went back to the city.

CHAP. 21

David went to Nob, to Ahimelech the priest.

Ahimelech was fearful when he met David, and said to him; Why are you alone? Why is no one with you?

2 David said to Ahimelech the priest; The king has ordered me on business, and has said to me; Do not allow anyone to know of the mission I am sending you on, or what I have commanded you. And I have directed my young men toward a certain place.

3 Now, what do you have on hand? Give me five loaves of bread, or whatever you can find.

4 The priest answered David, and said; I have no common bread here; but there is some holy bread, only providing the young men have kept themselves from women.

5 Then David answered the priest, and said; Truly, women have been kept from us, as of day before yesterday when we set out. The men's bodies are holy, even on missions that are not holy. How much more so this day when it concerns holy things.

6 So the priest gave him the holy bread; because there was no bread there but the old showbread which had been removed from in front of Yahweh and replaced by hot, new, showbread on the day it was taken away.

7 Now a certain man of Shaul's servants was there that day, detained in front of Yahweh. His name was Doeg, an Edomite, the chief of the herdsmen belonging to Shaul.

8 David asked Ahimelech; Is there a spear on hand here, or a sword? I have not brought my sword nor any other weapons with me, because the king's business was urgent.

9 The priest answered; The sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom you killed in the Valley of Elah, is here wrapped in a cloth behind the ephod. If you would accept that, take it. But there is no other weapon than that here. And David said; There is none like it! Give it to me!

10 That day David fled from before Shaul, and went to Achish, the king of Gath.

11 The officials of Achish said to him; Is not David the king of their land? Did they not sing about him in their dances, saying; Shaul has slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands?

12 David took these words to heart, and was very much afraid of Achish, the king of Gath.

13 So he changed his behaviour in front of them; he feigned insanity. He acted like a madman, scratching on the doors of the gate, and letting saliva run down his beard.

14 Then Achish said to his officials; Look, you see the man is insane. Why bring him to me?

15 Do I have a lack of madmen, that you have brought this madman here to carry on in front of my presence? Must this man come into my house?

CHAP. 22

David then left there and escaped to the cave of Adullam. When his brothers and his father's household heard about it, they went down to meet him.

2 All those who were in distress, everyone who was in debt, and everyone who was discontented gathered around him. So he became captain over them. There were about four hundred men with him.

3 Then David left there and went to Mizpah of Moab, and he said to the king of Moab: Allow my father and mother to stay here with you, until I know what Yahweh will do for me.

4 So he left them with the king of Moab, and they stayed with him all the time that David was in the stronghold.

5 Then the prophet Gad said to David: Do not stay in the stronghold. Leave here and go to the land of Yahdah. So David left and went into the forest of Hereth.

6 Now Shaul received word that David and his men had been discovered. Shaul was seated in Gibeah under a tamarisk tree in Ramah, with his spear in his hand, and his officials standing around him.

7 Shaul then said to his officials standing around him: Listen, men of Benjamin! Will the son of Yishai give each of you fields and vineyards, or make all of you captains of thousands and captains of hundreds?

8 Is that why you all have conspired against me? No one revealed to me that my son made a covenant with the son of Yishai. Not one of you is sorry for me or tells me that my son has stirred up my servant against me, to lie in wait for me, as he does this day.

9 Then Doeg the Edomite, who was standing with Shaul's officials, answered him, and said: I saw the son of Yishai go to Ahimelech son of Ahitub at Nob.

10 He inquired of Yahweh for him, and he gave him provisions and the sword of Goliath the Philistine.

11 Then the king sent for Ahimelech the priest, the son of Ahitub, along with all his father's house who were priests in Nob. They all came before the king.

12 Shaul said: Listen now, son of Ahitub! And he answered, Here I am, my ruler.

13 Then Shaul asked him: Why have you conspired against me, you and the son of Yishai, by giving him bread and a sword, and inquiring of Yahweh for him, so he could rebel against me, and lie in wait for me, as he does this day?

14 Ahimelech answered the king, and said: Who among all your servants is more faithful than David—who is the king's son-in-law, who goes at your command, and is honorable in your house?

15 Was that day the first time I first began to inquire of Yahweh for him? Of course it was not! Let not the king accuse your servant or any of his father's family, because your servant knew nothing about this, not even little or much.

16 But the king said: You will surely die, Ahimelech, you and all your father's house!

17 Then the king ordered the guards who stood around him: Turn and kill the priests of Yahweh, because their power sides with David, and because they knew when he fled and did not inform me of it! But the king's officials would not lift their hands to strike the priests of Yahweh.

18 Then the king ordered Doeg: You turn and kill the priests! So Doeg the Edomite turned and struck the priests, killing eighty-five men who wore a linen ephod that day.

19 He also put to the sword Nob, the city of the priests. Men and women, children and nursing infants, oxen, donkeys, and sheep were slain with the edge of the sword.

20 But Abiathar, a son of Ahimelech son of Ahitub, escaped and fled to join David.

21 Abiathar told David that Shaul had killed the priests of Yahweh.

22 Then David said to Abiathar, I knew that day, when Doeg the Edomite was there, that he would surely tell Shaul. I am responsible and have caused the deaths of all the people in your father's house.

23 Stay with me; do not be afraid. He who seeks my life, also seeks your life, but with me you will be safe.

CHAP. 23

When David was informed, saying: Look, the Philistines are fighting against Keilah and are robbing the threshing floors.

2 David then inquired of Yahweh, and asked: Shall I go and attack these Philistines? Then Yahweh answered David, and said: Go, attack the Philistines, and save Keilah.

3 But David's men said to him: We are afraid here in Yahdah. How much more, then, if we go to Keilah against the armies of the Philistines?

4 So David inquired of Yahweh once again. Yahweh answered him, and said: Get up, go down to Keilah, because I will deliver the Philistines into your power.

5 Then David and his men went to Keilah, and fought with the Philistines. They inflicted them with heavy losses, and carried off their livestock. So David saved the inhabitants of Keilah.

6 (When Abiathar the son of Ahimelech fled to David at Keilah he brought the ephod down with him.)

7 Shaul was informed that David had gone to Keilah, and he said; Yahweh has delivered him into my power, for he has trapped himself by entering a city that has gates and bars.

8 Then Shaul summoned all the men together for battle, in order to go down to Keilah to besiege David and his men.

9 When David learned that Shaul plotted against him, he said to Abiathar the priest; Bring the ephod.

10 Then David said; O Yahweh, Father of Israyl, Your servant has assuredly heard that Shaul will come to destroy Keilah because of me.

11 Will the men of Keilah hand me into his power? Will Shaul come down, as Your servant has heard? O Yahweh, Father of Israyl, I pray, tell Your servant. And Yahweh answered; He will.

12 Then David asked; Will the men of Keilah hand me and my men into the power of Shaul? And Yahweh answered; They will.

13 So David and his men, about six hundred of them, rose up and left Keilah, and went from place to place. When Shaul was informed that David had escaped from Keilah, he did not go there.

14 David stayed in strongholds in the wilderness, and in the hills of the Wilderness of Ziph. Shaul searched for him every day, but Yahweh did not deliver him into his hands.

15 While David was at Horesh, in the Wilderness of Ziph, he learned that Shaul had come out to seek his life.

16 Then Yahnathan, Shaul's son, went to David at Horesh and helped him find strength in Yahweh.

17 And he said to him; Do not be afraid, because the hands of Shaul my father will not touch you. You will be king over Israyl, and I will be second to you. Even my father Shaul knows that.

18 So the two of them made a covenant in front of Yahweh. David remained in Horesh, and Yahnathan returned to his own house.

19 Then the Ziphites approached Shaul at Gibeah, saying; Is not David hiding among us in the strongholds at Horesh, on the hill of Hakilah, south of Yeshimon?

20 Now, O king, come down whenever you desire to come down, and we will do our part by handing him over to the king.

21 Then Shaul said; Blessed are you by Yahweh, for you have compassion on me.

22 Go, and make further preparation. Find out where David's hideout is, and who has seen him there, because I am informed that he is very crafty.

23 Find out about all the hiding places he uses, and report back to me with definite information. Then I will go with you. If he is in the area, then I will search for him throughout all the clans of Yahdah.

24 So they set out and went to Ziph ahead of Shaul. David and his men were in the Wilderness of Maon, in the Arabah south of Yeshimon.

25 When Shaul and his men began their search, David was informed. He then went down to the rock and stayed in the Wilderness of Maon. When Shaul heard about this, he pursued after David in the Wilderness of Maon.

26 Then Shaul went along on one side of the mountain, while David and his men went on the other side of the mountain. They were hurrying to get away from Shaul, because Shaul and his men were closing in on them to capture them.

27 But about that time a messenger came to Shaul, saying; Hurry and come, because the Philistines have invaded the land!

28 Because of this, Shaul broke off his pursuit of David in order to go against the Philistines. That is why they call this place Sela Hammahlekoth (Rock of Escaping).

29 Then David went up from there and lived in the strongholds at En Gedi.

CHAP. 24

After Shaul returned from chasing the Philistines, he was informed; Take notice that David is in the Wilderness of En Gedi.

2 Then Shaul took three thousand chosen men from all Israyl, and went to find David and his men on the Craggs of the Wild Goats.

3 When he came to the sheep pens along the way, a cave was there; so Shaul went in to relieve himself. (David and his men were staying far back in this cave.)

4 Then David's men reported to him; This is the day Yahweh spoke of, when He said to you; Behold, I will deliver your enemy into your power, to do to him as it seems right to you. But David crept up secretly and cut off a corner of Shaul's robe.

5 But after this David's conscience bothered him because he had cut Shaul's robe.

6 Then he said to his men; Yahweh forbid that I should do such a thing as killing my ruler, Yahweh's anointed, or lift my hand against him; because he is the anointed of Yahweh.

7 With these words David restrained his men and did not allow them to attack Shaul. Shaul then came out from the cave, and went on his way.

8 Then David went out of the cave, and called out to Shaul, saying; My ruler the king! When Shaul looked behind him, David then bowed down with his face to the ground, paying homage to King Shaul.

9 Then David said to Shaul; Why do you listen to men who tell you; Truly David intends to harm you.

10 Look! Your own eyes have seen this day that Yahweh delivered you into my power, and some urged me to kill you. But I spared you, and said; I will not lift my hand against my ruler, because he is Yahweh's anointed.

11 See, my father! Look at the corner of your robe in my hand! Because I only cut off the corner of your robe, but did not kill you, understand and perceive that I am not guilty of wrongdoing nor rebellion, and that I have not sinned against you. Yet you are hunting me down to take my life.

12 May Yahweh judge between you and me, and may Yahweh avenge me on you! But my own hand will not be against you.

13 As the ancient proverb says: From evil-doers come evil deeds. So my own hand will not touch you.

14 Against whom has the king of Israyl come out? Who are you pursuing? A dead dog! A flea?

15 May Yahweh be the judge, and judge between you and me. May He consider my cause and uphold it! May He deliver me out of your hands!

16 When David finished speaking these words to Shaul, Shaul said; Is that your voice, David my son? And he wept aloud.

17 Then he said to David; You are more righteous than I am, because you have repaid me with mercy, when I have repaid you with evil.

18 You have just now told me how you dealt well with me; because when Yahweh delivered me into your power, you did not kill me.

19 When a man finds his enemy, will he allow him to get away safely? May Yahweh reward you well for what you have done for me this day.

20 Now I truly know that you will surely be king, and that the kingdom of Israyl will be established in your hands.

21 Now vow an oath to me by Yahweh that you will not cut off my descendants, nor wipe out my name from my father's family.

22 So David vowed to Shaul. Shaul then went home, but David and his men returned to the stronghold.

CHAP. 25

Now Samuyl died; and all Israyl gathered together and lamented for him, and buried him at his home in Ramah. Then David moved down into the Wilderness of Paran.

2 A certain man in Maon, who had property at Carmel, was very wealthy. He had a thousand goats and three thousand sheep, which he was shearing in Carmel.

3 The name of the man was Nabal, and the name of his wife was Abigail, a woman of intelligence and understanding, and of a beautiful appearance; but the man, a Calebite, was harsh and mean in his dealings.

4 While David was in the wilderness, he heard that Nabal was shearing his sheep.

5 So he sent ten young men, and instructed them; Go up to Carmel, then go to Nabal, and greet him in my name.

6 And this is what you are to say to him: L'Chai (to life)! Shalom to you and shalom to your household! Shalom to all that is yours! Shalom!

7 Now I have heard it is sheep-shearing time. When your shepherds were with us, we did not hurt them, and nothing of theirs was missing the whole time they were at Carmel.

8 Ask your own young men, and they will tell you. Therefore, may my young men find honor in your eyes, because we have come on a feast day. Give whatever you can find to your servants, and to your son David.

9 When David's young men arrived, they gave this message to Nabal in the name of David, and waited for his reply.

10 Then Nabal answered David's messengers, and said: Just who is David, who is this son of Yishai? Many servants are breaking away from their rulers these days.

11 Why should I take my bread and water, and the meat I have slaughtered from my shearers, and give it to some men coming from who knows where?

12 So David's young men turned on their heels and left. They returned and told him every word.

13 Then David ordered his men: Put on your swords! So David and every man girded on his sword. About four hundred men left with David, while two hundred stayed with the supplies.

14 One of the young men reported this to Abigail, Nabal's wife, and said; David sent messengers from the wilderness to greet our ruler, but he insulted them.

15 Yet these men were considerate of us. They did not mistreat nor hurt us, nor did we lose anything as long as we accompanied them out in the fields.

16 They were a fortress to us both by night and by day, all the time we were with them tending the sheep.

17 Now, know of this situation and think about what you will do. Disaster is hanging over our ruler and over all his household, just because he is such a son of Belial that no one can speak to him.

18 Then Abigail hurriedly took two hundred loaves of bread, two skins of wine, five dressed sheep, five seahs; around a bushel, of parched grain, a hundred cakes of raisins and two hundred cakes of pressed figs, and loaded all this onto donkeys.

19 Then she commanded her servants: Go on ahead of me: I will come after you. But she did not inform her husband Nabal.

20 As she came riding her donkey into a mountain ravine, there came David and his men coming down toward her, and she met them.

21 David had been saying: Surely it has been vanity to have protected all that this man had in the wilderness so that nothing of his came missing! He has repaid me evil for righteousness!

22 In this way may Yahweh do to David's enemies, and in this way may He add, if by morning I leave one male alive of all who belongs to him!

23 When Abigail saw David, she quickly dismounted from the donkey, and bowed down with her face to the ground in front of David.

24 She fell at his feet, and said: On me, my ruler, on me only may this iniquity fall. Allow your maidservant to speak in your hearing, and then may you listen to the words of your maidservant.

25 May my ruler not pay any attention to this son of Belial, Nabal. Just as he is named, is just as he is: Nabal (Fool) is his name, and foolishness is with him. But I, your maidservant, did not see the young men whom you sent.

26 Now, my ruler, as surely as Yahweh lives and as surely as you live, since Yahweh has kept you from coming to shed blood and from avenging yourself with your own hands, may your enemies and those who seek to harm you be just as Nabal.

27 And may this gift, which your servant has brought to my ruler, be given to the men who follow you.

28 Forgive this trespass of your maidservant, because Yahweh will certainly build for my ruler a lasting house, because my ruler fights the battles of Yahweh. May no evil be found in you as long as you live.

29 Even though a man may rise up to pursue and kill you, may the life of my ruler be bound up securely in the bundle of the living by Yahweh your Father. May the lives of your enemies be hurled away as from the pocket of a sling.

30 When Yahweh has done for my ruler every honorable thing He promised concerning you, and has appointed you ruler of Israyl,

31 Then my ruler will not have this grief on his conscience, or this burden, of having shed blood without a cause, or having avenged his own self. But when Yahweh has dealt well with my ruler, then may you remember your maidservant.

32 Then David said to Abigail: Blessed be Yahweh, the Father of Israyl, who sent you to meet me this day!

33 Blessed be your wise counsel, and blessed are you, because you have kept me from bloodshed and from avenging myself with my own hands.

34 Truly, as surely as Yahweh Father of Israyl lives, Who has kept me from harming you, if you had not hurried to come and meet me, not one male belonging to Nabal would have been left alive by daybreak.

35 So David accepted from her hand what she had brought to him, and said to her: Go in peace to your house. I have heard your words, and I have granted your request.

36 Then Abigail went to Nabal, but she found him holding a feast in his house, like the feast of a king. Nabal was very merry, because he was very drunk. So she told him nothing, neither little nor much, until morning light.

37 Then in the morning, when the wine had left Nabal, his wife told him all these things. Then his heart failed him, and he became like a stone.

38 Then, about ten days later, Yahweh struck Nabal, and he died.

39 When David heard that Nabal was dead, he said: Blessed be Yahweh Who avenged the cause of contempt against Nabal, and has kept His servant from wrongdoing! Yahweh has returned the wrongdoing of Nabal back upon his own head! Then David sent word to Abigail, asking her to become his wife.

40 When David's messengers arrived at Carmel they spoke to Abigail, and said: David sent us to you, to ask you to become his wife.

41 Then she rose up, bowed her face to the ground, and said: Here is your maidservant, a servant ready to wash the feet of the servants of my ruler.

42 Abigail quickly got on a donkey and, attended by five of her maidens, she followed the messengers of David, and so became his wife.

43 David had also married Ahinoam of Yezreel, so both of them were his wives.

44 But Shaul had given his daughter Michal, David's wife, to Paltiel son of Laish, who was from Gallim.

CHAP. 26

The Ziphites approached Shaul at Gibeah, and said: David is hiding in the hill of Hachilah, opposite Yeshimon.

2 So Shaul went down to the Wilderness of Ziph, having three thousand chosen men of Israyl with him, to search for David in the Wilderness of Ziph.

3 Shaul encamped beside the road on the hill of Hakilah facing Yeshimon, but David stayed in the wilderness. When he saw that Shaul had followed him there,

4 He sent out spies, and learned that Shaul had come to Nacon.

5 Then David set out and came to the place Shaul had encamped. David saw the place where Shaul and Abner son of Ner, the commander of his army, had lain down. Shaul lay down inside the camp, with the army encamped around him.

6 David then asked Ahimelech the Hittite and Abishai son of Zeruyah, brother of Yahab, saying; Who will go down into the camp with me to Shaul? Abishai said; I will go down with you.

7 So David and Abishai went to the army by night, and there Shaul lay, sleeping inside the camp, with his spear stuck in the ground by his head. Abner and the men were lying around him.

8 Abishai said to David; Yahweh has delivered your enemy into your hands this day. Let me strike him once and pin him to the ground. I will not have to strike him a second time!

9 But David said to Abishai; Do not destroy him! Who can lay a hand on Yahweh's anointed, and remain guiltless?

10 David added; As surely as Yahweh lives, Yahweh Himself shall strike him; either his day of death will come, or he will go out to battle and be killed.

11 But Yahweh forbid that I should lay a hand upon Yahweh's anointed. But take the spear and the jug of water by his head, and let us go.

12 So David took the spear and the jug of water by Shaul's head, and they left. No one saw, nor knew about it, nor did anyone awake. They were all asleep, because a deep sleep from Yahweh had fallen upon them.

13 Then David crossed over to the other side, and stood on top of the hill some distance away; there was a wide space between them.

14 David shouted to the men and to Abner the son of Ner, and said; Are you going to answer me, Abner? Then Abner answered, and said; Just who are you who calls to the king?

15 David said to Abner; You are a man, are you not? Who is like you in all Israyl? But why, then, have you not guarded your ruler, the king? One of the people came in to destroy your ruler, the king!

16 Such a thing you have done is not right. As surely as Yahweh lives, you are worthy to die, because you have not guarded your ruler, Yahweh's anointed. Do you see where the king's spear and the jug of water, that was by his head, are right now?

17 Then Shaul recognized David's voice, and said; Is that your voice, David my son? And David answered; It is my voice, my ruler, O king.

18 He continued; Why does my ruler pursue his servant like this? What have I done? What evil is in my hand?

19 Now, let my ruler the king listen to his servant's words. If Yahweh has stirred you against me, then may He accept an offering. If, however, men have done this, may they be cursed in front of Yahweh! They have now driven me from my share in Yahweh's inheritance, and have literally said; Go, serve god(s)!

20 Do not allow my blood to fall to the earth far from the presence of Yahweh's face. The king of Israyl has come out to search for a flea—like one who hunts a partridge in the mountain.

21 Then Shaul said; I have sinned. Come back, David my son. I will harm you no more, because my life was precious in your eyes this day. Truly, I have played the fool and have greatly erred.

22 Then David answered, and said; Here is the king's spear. Let one of the young men come over and take it.

23 May Yahweh repay every man for his righteousness and his faithfulness! This day Yahweh delivered you into my power, but I would not lay a hand on Yahweh's anointed.

24 Truly, as surely as your life was much esteemed in my eyes, may my life be as much esteemed in the eyes of Yahweh, and may He deliver me out of all tribulation.

25 Then Shaul said to David; May you be blessed, my son David! You will do great things, and you will surely triumph. So David went on his way, and Shaul returned to his home.

CHAP. 27

But David thought to himself; One of these days I will be destroyed by the hands of Shaul. There is nothing better for me to do but hurriedly escape to the land of the Philistines. Shaul will then give up searching for me in any part of Israyl, and in this way I will slip out of his hands.

2 Then David left, with the six hundred men with him, and went over to Achish the son of Maach, king of Gath.

3 David stayed with Achish at Gath. Each man had his family with him, and David had his two wives; Ahinoam of Yezreel and Abigail of Carmel, the widow of Nabal.

4 When Shaul was informed that David had fled to Gath; he no longer searched for him.

5 Then David said to Achish; If I have found honor in your eyes, then give me a place in some city in the country, so I may settle there. Why should your servant settle in the royal city with you?

6 So Achish gave him Ziklag that day, and it has belonged to the kings of Yahdah ever since.

7 The time period David stayed in the territory of the Philistines was one full year and four moons.

8 Then David and his men went up and raided the Geshurites, the Girzites, and the Amalekites. (From ancient times these people had lived in the land extending to Shur and Egypt.)

9 Whenever David attacked an area, he left neither man nor woman alive, but took away the sheep, oxen, donkeys, camels, and the clothing, then returned to Achish.

10 Achish would ask him; Where have you made a raid this day? Then David would answer: Against the southern area of Yahdah, or he would answer; Against the southern area of the Yerahmeelites, or he would answer; Against the southern area of the Kenites.

11 David would allow neither man nor woman to remain alive, to report the news to Gath. David said; Or they will inform on us, and say: This is what David did. This was his behaviour all the time he stayed in the territory of the Philistines.

12 So Achish believed what David told him, and thought to himself; He has made his people Israyl to utterly abhor him! He will be my servant forever!

CHAP. 28

During that time the Philistines gathered their armies together for battle to fight against Israyl. Then Achish said to David; Assuredly you understand that you and your men will go out with me to fight.

2 David answered Achish; Surely you know what your servant is able to do. Then Achish said to David; Because of this, I will make you one of my chief bodyguards forever.

3 Now Samuyl had died, and all Israyl had lamented for him, and buried him in Ramah, his own city. And Shaul had expelled the mediums and the spiritists from the land.

4 Then the Philistines gathered together, and came up and encamped at Shunem. So Shaul gathered all Israyl together, and they encamped at Gilboa.

5 When Shaul saw the Philistine army, he was afraid; terror filled his heart; the seat of his intelligence.

6 When Shaul inquired of Yahweh, Yahweh would not answer him, not by dreams, nor by Urim, nor by the prophets.

7 Then Shaul said to his attendants; Find me a woman who is a medium, so I may go to her and inquire of her. His attendants answered him, and said, There is a woman who is a medium at En Dor.

8 So Shaul disguised himself, putting on other clothes, and he went with two other men.

They came to the woman by night. He said to her; Consult a spirit for me, and bring up for me the one I name.

9 Then the woman said to him; You know what Shaul has done, he has expelled the mediums and the spiritists from the land. Why, then, have you set a trap for my life to cause my death?

10 Shaul vowed to her with the Name of Yahweh, saying; As surely as Yahweh lives, no punishment shall fall on you because of this thing.

11 Then the woman asked; Whom shall I bring up for you? Then he answered; Bring up Samuyl for me.

12 When the woman saw Samuyl, she cried out with a loud voice, and the woman spoke to Shaul, saying, Why have you deceived me? Because you are Shaul!

13 The king said to her; Do not be afraid. What did you see? Then the woman said to Shaul; I see a god spirit coming up from the ground.

14 So he asked her; What does it look like? Then she said; An old man is coming up, and he is covered with a robe. Then Shaul, thinking that it was Samuyl, bowed down and paid homage, with his face to the ground.

15 Samuyl's impersonator said to Shaul; Why have you disturbed me by bringing me up? Shaul answered; I am in great distress. The Philistines are fighting against me, and Yahweh has left me, and answers me no longer—not by prophets nor by dreams. That is why I have called you, so you may tell me what to do.

16 Then Samuyl's impersonator asked; Why do you consult me, since Yahweh has turned from you and has become your enemy?

17 Yahweh has done what He predicted by my hand; Yahweh has torn the kingdom from your hands, and he has given it to your brother—to David.

18 Because you did not obey the voice of Yahweh by carrying out His fierce wrath against the Amalekites, Yahweh has done this to you this day.

19 Yahweh will hand over both Israyl and you to the Philistines, and tomorrow you and your sons will be with me. Yahweh will also deliver the army of Israyl into the hands of the Philistines.

20 Immediately Shaul fell full length to the ground, filled with terror because of the words of Samuyl. His strength was gone, because he had eaten no food all day nor all night.

21 When the woman came to, she saw Shaul was severely shaken because of the words of Samuyl, and she said to him; Look, your maid-servant has obeyed your voice. I took my life in my hands, and did what you told me to do.

22 Listen now to the voice of your maidser-vant, and let me set a little food in front of you; then eat it, so you may renew your strength before you go on your way.

23 But he refused, and said; I will not eat. But his attendants, along with the woman, urged him to eat; so he listened to them. Then he rose up from the ground and sat down.

24 The woman had a fatted calf in her pen, so she hurried to kill it. Then she took flour and kneaded it, and baked unleavened bread from it.

25 She brought it to Shaul and his attendants, and they ate. Then they went away that night.

CHAP. 29

The Philistines gathered together all their armies to Aphek, and the Israylites encamped by the spring in Yezreel.

2 And the rulers of the Philistines marched by hundreds and by thousands, and David and his men marched at the rear with Achish.

3 Then the princes of the Philistines said; What are these Hebrews doing with us? Achish said to the princes of the Philistines; This is David, the servant of Shaul king of Israyl, who has been with me, and since the day he defected over to me, I have found no fault in him.

4 But the princes of the Philistines were angry with him; so the princes of the Philistines said to him; Order him to return to the place you have appointed for him. Do not allow him to go with us to battle, or in the battle he may become our adversary. How better to reconcile himself to his ruler, if not with the heads of our own men?

5 Is this not David, of whom they sang in their dances, saying; Shaul has slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands?

6 Then Achish summoned David, and said to him; Just as surely as Yahweh lives, you have been upright, and I would be pleased to have you serve me in my army. I have found no reason to doubt you since the day you came to me. Nonetheless, the rulers do not want you.

7 Return now. Go in peace, so you may not anger the rulers of the Philistines.

8 Then David said to Achish; But what have I done? To this day what have you found in your servant since I have been with you? Why may I not go to fight against the enemies of my ruler the king?

9 But Achish answered, saying to David; I know that you are as right in my sight as a malak of Yahweh. Nonetheless, the princes of the Philistines have said; He shall not go with us to battle.

10 Leave early in the morning with your followers who have come with you. As soon as day breaks, then leave.

11 So David and his men left early the next morning, returning to the land of the Philistines, while the Philistines went on to Yezreel.

CHAP. 30

David and his men reached Ziklag on the third day. The Amalekites had raided the Negv and Ziklag. They had attacked Ziklag and burned it with fire.

2 They had taken the women captive, along with all those who were there, from the smallest to the greatest. They did not kill anyone; they captured them and went on their way.

3 When David and his men arrived at the city, they found it had been burned to the ground, and their wives, sons, and daughters had been taken captive.

4 Then David and the men with him raised up their voices and wept, until they had no more strength to weep.

5 David's two wives, Ahinoam the Yezreelitess, and Abigail the widow of Nabal, had been taken captive along with the others.

6 David was greatly distressed, because the men spoke of stoning him; the spirit of each person was grieved because of their sons and daughters. But David found strength in Yahweh his Father.

7 Then David said to Abiathar the priest, the son of Ahimelech; Bring the ephod to me. Abiathar brought the ephod to David.

8 David then inquired of Yahweh, asking; Shall I pursue this troop? Shall I overtake them? And He answered; Pursue them. You will assuredly overtake them and succeed in rescuing all.

9 David and the six hundred men with him came to the Besor Brook, where there were some who were left behind.

10 David and four hundred men continued the pursuit, but two hundred, who were too weary to cross the Besor Brook, stayed behind.

11 Then they found an Egyptian in a field, and brought him to David. They gave him food and he ate, and they gave him water to drink.

12 They fed him a piece of a cake of figs and two clusters of raisins. When he had eaten, his strength returned to him; because he had eaten no food nor drunk any water for three days and three nights.

13 Then David asked him; To whom do you belong, and where do you come from? He answered, and said; I am an Egyptian, the slave of an Amalekite. My owner abandoned me when I became sick three days ago.

14 We raided the Negev of the Cherethites, and the territory belonging to Yahdah, and the Negev of Caleb. Then we burned Ziklag.

15 David asked him; Can you lead me to this troop? He answered him, and said: Vow to me by god that you will not kill me or hand me over to my ruler, and I will take you to this troop.

16 So he led them down, and there they were; spread over all the land, eating, drinking, and reveling because of the great amount of plunder taken from the land of the Philistines and from the land of Yahdah.

17 David fought them from the going down of the sun until the evening of the next day. None escaped except for four hundred young men who fled on camels.

18 David recovered everything the Amalekites had carried away, and David rescued his two wives.

19 Nothing was missing: young or old, sons or daughters, plunder or anything they had taken from them. David recovered everything.

20 Then David took all the flocks and herds, and his men drove them ahead of the other livestock, and said: This is David's plunder.

21 Then David came to the two hundred men who had been so exhausted they were unable to follow David, and who were left behind at the Besor Brook. They came out to meet David and to meet the people with him. When David and his men approached them, David greeted them.

22 Then all the sons of Belial among those who followed David said: Because they did not go along with us, we will not give them any of the plunder we recovered. However, each man may take his wife and children, and leave.

23 But David intervened, and said: My brothers, you must not do this with what Yahweh has given us. Who has protected us and delivered the troops, who came against us, into our hands.

24 Who will listen to you in this matter? The share of the man who stays by the supplies is the same share as the man who goes to battle; they are to share alike.

25 And from that day to this, David made this a statute and an ordinance for Israyl.

26 When David arrived in Ziklag, he sent some of the plunder to the elders of Yahdah, who were his friends, saying: Here is a present for you from the plunder of the enemies of Yahweh.

27 David sent this to those in Bethel, in Ramoth Negev, in Yattir.

28 In Aroer, in Siphmoth, Eshtemoa,

29 And Rachal; to those in the cities of the Yerahmeelites and the Kenites;

30 To those who were in Hormah, in Bor Ashan, Athach,

31 And Hebron; and to those in all the other places David and his men had customarily roved.

CHAP. 31

So the Philistines went to fight against Israyl; and the men of Israyl fled from in front of the Philistines, and men fell slain upon Mount Gilboa.

2 The Philistines pressed hard after Shaul and his sons, and they killed his sons Yah-nathan, Abinadab, and Malchishua.

3 The fighting became intense around Shaul; and the archers overtook him, and he was critically wounded.

4 Then Shaul said to his armorbearer: Draw your sword and run me through, or these uncircumcised men will come and thrust me through, and they will abuse me. But his armorbearer refused, because he was terrified. So Shaul took his own sword and fell upon it.

5 When his armorbearer saw Shaul was dead, he also fell upon his own sword, and died with him.

6 So Shaul, his three sons, his armorbearer, and all his men died together that same day.

7 When the men of Israyl along the valley, and those across the Yordan, saw that the men of Israyl had fled and that Shaul and his sons were dead, they abandoned the cities and fled; and the Philistines came and settled in them.

8 The next day, when the Philistines came to strip the dead, they found Shaul and his three sons fallen on Mount Gilboa.

9 They cut off Shaul's head and stripped off his armor, and they sent messengers throughout the land of the Philistines, to proclaim this in the temples of their gods, and among the people.

10 They placed his armor in the temple of Ashtaroth (Ishtar-Easter), and they fastened his body to the wall of Beth Shan.

11 When the inhabitants of Yabesh Gilead heard what the Philistines had done to Shaul:

12 All their valiant men traveled all night, and took down the body of Shaul and the bodies of his sons from the wall of Beth Shan, they carried them to Yabesh, and burned them there.

13 Then they took their bones and buried them under a tamarisk tree at Yabesh, then they fasted seven days.

II SAMUYL

SHEMUYL Heard Of Yahweh

After the death of Shaul, David returned from defeating the Amalekites and stayed in Ziklag two days.

2 On the third day, a man arrived from Shaul's camp with his clothes torn and dust upon his head. When he came to David, he fell to the ground, bowing himself.

3 David asked him: Where have you come from? He answered him: I have escaped from the camp of Israyl.

4 Then David asked him: How did the matter end? Tell me. Then he answered; The men fled from the battle. Many of them fell and died, and Shaul and Yahnathan his son are dead also.

5 David asked the young man who gave him the report; How do you know that Shaul and Yahnathan his son are dead?

6 The young man answered; I came to be upon Mount Gilboa, and there was Shaul, leaning on his spear, with the chariots and riders almost upon him.

7 When he turned around and saw me, he called out to me, and I answered; Here I am.

8 Then he asked me; Who are you? So I answered him; I am an Amalekite.

9 Then he said to me; Stand over me and kill me! I am about to die, but my life still remains in me.

10 So I stood over him and killed him, because I knew he could not live after he had fallen. And I took the crown that was on his head and the band on his arm, and have brought them here to my ruler.

11 Then David and all the men who were with him took hold of their clothes and tore them.

12 They mourned, wept, and fasted until evening for Shaul, for Yahnathan his son, for the people of Yahweh, and for the house of Israyl, because they had fallen by the sword.

13 David asked the young man who made the report; Where are you from? And he answered; I am the son of a stranger, an Amalekite.

14 Then David asked him; Why were you not afraid to lift your hand to destroy Yahweh's anointed?

15 Then David called one of his young men, and said; Go, Kill him! And he struck him a deathblow.

16 David said to him; Your blood is on your own head. By your own mouth you have testified against yourself, saying; I have killed Yahweh's anointed.

17 Then David took up this lamentation over Shaul and over Yahnathan his son.

18 And he ordered that the men of Yahdah be taught this Lament of the Bow. (It is written in the Book of Yasher.)

19 Your glory, O Israyl, lies slain on your heights! The mighty have fallen!

20 Tell it not in Gath, proclaim it not in the streets of Ashkelon, or the daughters of the Philistines will rejoice, or the daughters of the uncircumcised will be glad.

21 O mountains of Gilboa, may you have neither dew nor rain, nor fields that yield offerings. For the shield of the mighty was defiled there, the shield of Shaul—no longer rubbed with oil.

22 From the blood of the slain, from the flesh of the mighty, the bow of Yahnathan did not turn back, and the sword of Shaul did not return, unsatisfied.

23 Shaul and Yahnathan; beloved and pleasant while they lived, and in their deaths they were not parted. They were swifter than eagles, they were stronger than lions.

24 O daughters of Israyl, weep for Shaul, who clothed you in scarlet and luxury; who adorned your apparel with ornaments of gold.

25 How the mighty have fallen in the midst of the battle! Yahnathan lies slain on your heights.

26 I grieve for you, my brother Yahnathan; you were very dear to me. Your love to me was wonderful, surpassing the love of women.

27 How the mighty have fallen! The weapons of war have perished!

CHAP 2

After this, David inquired of Yahweh, and asked Him; Shall I go to any of the cities of Yahdah? And Yahweh answered him; Go up. David asked; Where shall I go? And He answered; To Hebron.

2 So David and his two wives, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the widow of Nabal the Carmelite, left there.

3 David also took the men who were with him, every man with his household, and they settled in Hebron and in its cities.

4 Then the men of Yahdah came there and anointed David king over the house of Yahdah. They also informed David, saying: The men of Yabesh Gilead were the ones who buried Shaul.

5 David then sent messengers to the men of Yabesh Gilead, and said to them: Blessed are you by Yahweh, because you have shown this kindness; chesed, to your ruler, to Shaul, and have buried him.

6 And now may Yahweh show you kindness; chesed, and faithfulness, and I will also show you the same honor, because you have done this thing.

7 Now, be strong and valiant, because Shaul your ruler is dead, and the house of Yahdah has anointed me king over them.

8 But Abner the son of Ner, commander of Shaul's army, took Ishbosheth son of Shaul and brought him to Mahanaim.

9 He made him king over Gilead, over the Asherites, over Jezreel, over Ephraim, over Benjamin, and over all Israyl.

10 Ishbosheth, Shaul's son, was forty years old when he began to reign over Israyl, and he reigned two years. Only the house of Yahdah followed David.

11 The length of time David was king in Hebron over the house of Yahdah was seven years and six moons.

12 Abner son of Ner, together with the men of Ishbosheth son of Shaul, left Mahanaim and went to Gibeon.

13 Yahab son of Zeruyah and the men of David went out and met them at the pool of Gibeon. They sat down, one on one side of the pool and the other on the other side of the pool.

14 Then Abner said to Yahab: Let the young men rise up and compete in front of us. And Yahab said: Let them compete.

15 So they stood up and were numbered—twelve for Benjamin and Ishbosheth son of Shaul, and twelve for David.

16 Then each man grabbed his opponent by the head and thrust his sword into his opponent's side, and they both fell down together. That place in Gibeon was called Helkath Hazrim; Field of Swords.

17 There was a very fierce battle that day, and Abner and the men of Israyl were defeated in front of the men of David.

18 The three sons of Zeruyah were there: Yahab, Abishai, and Asahel. Now Asahel was as fleet of foot as a wild gazelle.

19 So Asahel chased Abner, turning neither to the right nor to the left from following after him.

20 Then Abner looked behind him, and asked: Is that you, Asahel? And he answered him: It is.

21 Then Abner said to him: Turn aside to the right or to the left. Take on one of the young men and take his armor for yourself. But Asahel would not cease from pursuing him.

22 So Abner again said to Asahel: Stop pursuing me! Why should I strike you down? How could I look your brother Yahab in the face?

23 But Asahel refused to give up the chase; so Abner thrust him in the stomach with the blunt end of the spear, and the spear came out through his back. He fell down there, and died where he lay. Every man stopped when he came to the place where Asahel had fallen and died.

24 But Yahab and Abishai pursued Abner, and as the sun was setting, they came to the hill of Ammah, near Giah on the way to the Wilderness of Gibeon.

25 Then the men of Benjamin gathered together behind Abner. They formed themselves into a group and took their stand on top of a hill.

26 Then Abner called to Yahab, and said: Shall the sword devour forever? Do you not realize this will end in bitterness? How long before you order your men to stop pursuing their brothers?

27 Yahab answered: As surely as Yahweh lives, if you had only spoken this morning, the men would not have taken up the pursuit of their brothers.

28 So Yahab sounded the trumpet; shofar, and all the men stopped and did not pursue Israyl anymore, nor did they fight anymore.

29 Then Abner and his men marched on all that night through the Arabah. They crossed the Yordan, continued through all Bithron, and came to Mahanaim.

30 Yahab returned from pursuing Abner and gathered his men together. Nineteen of David's men, and Asahel, were missing.

31 But David's men had killed three hundred and sixty of the men of Benjamin, Abner's men.

32 They took Asahel and buried him in his father's tomb at Bethlehem. Then Yahab and his men marched all night and arrived in Hebron at daybreak.

CHAP. 3

There was a long war between the house of Shaul and the house of David. David grew stronger and stronger, while the house of Shaul grew weaker and weaker.

2 Sons were born to David in Hebron: His firstborn was Amnon by Ahinoam the Yezreelitess;

3 His second, Chileab, by Abigail the widow of Nabal the Carmelite; the third, Absalom the son of Maacah daughter of Talmai king of Geshur;

4 The fourth, Adoniyah the son of Haggith; the fifth, Shephatiah the son of Abital;

5 And the sixth Ithream, by David's wife Eglah. These sons were born to David in Hebron.

6 While there was war and strife between the house of Shaul and the house of David, Abner was strengthening his position and power in the house of Shaul.

7 Shaul had a concubine, whose name was Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah, about whom Ishbosheth asked Abner: Why did you go in to my father's concubine?

8 Abner became very angry because of what Ishbosheth had said, and he answered: I am not a dog's head that belongs to Yahdah! This day I am loyal to the house of Shaul your father, to his brothers, and to his friends, by not handing you over to the power of David; yet you accuse me this day of an offense concerning this woman!

9 In this way may Yahweh do to Abner, and in this way may He add, if I do not do for David just as Yahweh has promised to him with an oath—

10 To transfer the kingdom from the house of Shaul and establish David's throne over Israyl and Yahdah from Dan to Beersheba.

11 Ishbosheth did not dare say another word to him, because he was afraid of him.

12 Then Abner sent messengers on his behalf to say to David: Whose land is this? Make an agreement with me, and I will put my power behind you to bring all Israyl to you.

13 And David answered: Fine. I will make an agreement with you, but there is one thing I will require: You will not see my face unless you have Michal, Shaul's daughter, with you when you come to see me.

14 Then David sent messengers to Ishbosheth, Shaul's son, saying: Give me my wife Michal, whom I betrothed to myself for a hundred foreskins of the Philistines.

15 So Ishbosheth gave orders and removed her from her husband, Paltiel the son of Laish.

16 Her husband went with her, weeping behind her all the way to Bahurim. Then Abner commanded him, Go home! So he returned.

17 Abner had communicated with the elders of Israyl, and said: In past times you wanted David to be king over you.

18 So now, do it! Yahweh has spoken of David, saying: By the hands of My servant David, I will save My people Israyl from the power of the Philistines and the power of all their enemies.

19 Abner also spoke personally to the Benyaminites. Then he went to Hebron to tell David everything that Israyl and the whole house of Benyamin wanted to do.

20 When Abner, who had twenty men with him, came to David at Hebron, David prepared a feast for Abner and the men who came with him.

21 Then Abner said to David: Allow me to go at once and gather together all Israyl for my ruler the king, so they may make a covenant with you, and so you may reign over all that your heart desires. So David sent Abner away, and he went in peace.

22 At that very moment David's men and Yahab returned from a raid, and brought with them a great amount of plunder. But Abner was no longer with David in Hebron, because David had sent him away, and he had left in peace.

23 When Yahab and all the troops with him arrived, they told Yahab, saying: Abner the son of Ner came to the king, and the king sent him away, and he has gone in peace.

24 So Yahab went to the king, and said: What have you done? Look, Abner came to you. Why did you allow him to leave? Now he is gone!

25 Surely you understand Abner the son of Ner came to deceive you, to watch your movements, and to know everything you are doing.

26 When Yahab left David's presence, he sent messengers after Abner, who brought him back from the well of Sirah. But David knew nothing of this.

27 When Abner returned to Hebron, Yahab took him aside into the gateway, as though to speak with him privately. There he stabbed him in the stomach, and he died; to avenge the blood of his brother Asahel.

28 Afterward, when David heard about this, he said: I and my kingdom are innocent in front of Yahweh forever concerning the blood of Abner son of Ner.

29 May his blood rest upon the head of Yahab and upon all his father's house! May Yahab's house never be without someone who has a running sore or leprosy, or who leans on a crutch, or who dies by the sword, or who lacks food.

30 (Yahab and Abishai his brother killed Abner, because he had killed their brother Asahel at Gibeon in the battle.)

31 Then David said to Yahab and all the men with him: tear your clothes, put on sackcloth, and walk in mourning in front of Abner. King David himself walked behind the coffin.

32 So they buried Abner in Hebron, and the king wept aloud at the tomb of Abner. All the people wept there also.

33 The king sang this lament over Abner: Should Abner have died as a criminal dies?

34 Your hands were not bound, your feet were not tied. Just as one falls in front of evil men, you fell. Then all the people wept over him again.

35 When all the people came and urged David to eat something while it was yet daylight, David vowed an oath, and said: In this way may Yahweh do to me, and in this way may He add, if I taste food, or anything else, until the sun goes down!

36 All the people took notice and were pleased; truly everything the king did pleased all the people.

37 All the people and all Israyl knew that day that the king had no part in the death of Abner, the son of Ner.

38 Then the king said to his attendants; Do you not know that a prince and a great man has fallen this day in Israyl?

39 I am weak, though I am the anointed king this day; and these sons of Zeruyah are too harsh for me. May Yahweh repay the evildoer according to his evil deeds!

CHAP. 4

When Ishbosheth son of Shaul heard that Abner had died in Hebron, he lost courage, and all Israyl was alarmed.

2 Shaul's son had two men, captains of troops. The name of one was Baanah, and the other was Rechab; they were sons of Rimmon the Beerothite from the tribe of Benyamin. (Beeroth is also part of Benyamin.)

3 Because the Beerothites fled to Gittaim and have been living there until this day.)

4 (Yahnathan, Shaul's son, had a son who was lame in both feet. He was five years old when the news about Shaul and Yahnathan came from Yezreel. His nurse had picked him up and fled, but as she hurried to leave, he fell and became handicapped. His name was Mephibosheth.)

5 Then the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, Rechab and Baanah, started out and arrived there at the heat of the day at the house of Ishbosheth, who was lying on his bed for his noon rest.

6 They went into the inner house, as though to get some wheat, and they stabbed him in the stomach. Then Rechab and Baanah his brother escaped.

7 They went into the house while he was lying on his bed in his bedroom. After they had stabbed and killed him, they cut off his head, and carried it with them, traveling all night by the way of the Arabah.

8 They brought the head of Ishbosheth to David at Hebron, and said to the king; Here is the head of Ishbosheth, the son of Shaul your enemy, who tried to take your life. Yahweh has avenged my ruler the king this day against Shaul and his descendants.

9 David answered Rechab and Baanah his brother, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, and said to them; As surely as Yahweh lives, Who has redeemed my life out of all trouble,

10 When a man informed me: Shaul is dead, thinking he had brought wonderful news to me. I seized him and put him to death in Ziklag. That was the reward he received for his news.

11 How much more—when wicked men have killed a righteous man in his own house, on his own bed—should I not require his blood from your hands and wipe you from the earth?

12 Then David ordered his young men, and they killed them. They cut off their hands and feet, and hanged them by the pool in Hebron. But they took the head of Ishbosheth and buried it in Abner's tomb in Hebron.

CHAP. 5

All the tribes of Israyl came to David in Hebron, and said; Truly, we are your bone and your flesh.

2 Also, in past times, when Shaul was king over us, you were the one who led Israyl's military movements, leading them out and bringing them in. Yahweh has said to you; You will shepherd my people Israyl, and be ruler over Israyl.

3 When all the elders of Israyl came to the king at Hebron. King David made a covenant with them at Hebron in front of Yahweh, and they anointed David king over all Israyl.

4 David was thirty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years.

5 He reigned over Yahdah, from Hebron, seven years and six moons. From Yerusalem, he reigned thirty-three years over all Israyl and Yahdah.

6 The king and his men went to Yerusalem against the Yebusites, who lived there. The Yebusites said to David; You will not come in here; even the blind and the lame can fight you off. They said to themselves; David can not come in here.

7 But David did capture the fortress of Zion (that is, the City of David).

8 David said on that day; Anyone who defeats the Yebusites will have to use the water shaft to reach those 'blind and lame' who are enemies of David. That is why they say: The 'blind and lame' will not enter the house.

9 David resided in the fortress, and called it the City of David. Then David built all around from the Millo and inward.

10 He went on to become powerful and great.

and Yahweh, the Almighty Father, was with him.

11 Hiram king of Tyre had sent messengers to David, along with cedar logs, carpenters, and stonemasons, and they built a residence for David.

12 David knew that Yahweh had established him as king over Israyl, and that Yahweh had exalted His kingdom for His people Israyl's sake.

13 David took more concubines and wives in Yerusalem, after he left Hebron. More sons and daughters were also born to David.

14 These are the names of his sons born to him in Yerusalem: Shammua, Shobab, Nathan, Solomon.

15 Ibhaz, Ylissua, Nepheg, Yaphia,

16 Ylissama, Ylyada, and Yliphélet,

17 When the Philistines heard that David had been anointed king over all Israyl, all the Philistines came up to search for him. David was informed of this, and went down to the stronghold.

18 The Philistines also came, and spread out in the Valley of Rephaim:

19 So David inquired of Yahweh, asking: Shall I go and attack the Philistines? Will You deliver them into my power? Yahweh answered David; Go up, for I will surely hand the Philistines to you.

20 Therefore, David went to Baal Peretzim, and he defeated them there. David said; Just like a breakthrough of water, Yahweh has broken through my enemies in front of me. Because of this, he called the name of that place Baal Peretzim: The Lord is Broken.

21 The Philistines abandoned the images of their gods there, so David and his men carried them off.

22 Again, the Philistines went up and spread out in the Valley of Rephaim;

23 So again David inquired of Yahweh, and He said; You must not go straight in; circle around behind them, and attack them in front of the balsam trees.

24 When you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the balsam trees, advance quickly, because that will mean Yahweh has gone out in front of you to strike the Philistine army.

25 David did just as Yahweh commanded him, and he drove back the Philistines from Geba as far as Gezer.

CHAP. 6

Again David gathered together all the chosen men of Israyl, thirty thousand in all.

2 David and all the men with him set out from Baale of Yahdah (Kiryat Yearim) to bring up from there the ark of Yahweh which is called by the Name, the Name of Yahweh Almighty,

Who is enthroned between the cherubim sitting on top of the ark.

3 They set the ark of Yahweh on a new cart, and brought it out of the house of Abinadab, which was on the hill. Uzzah and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, guided the new cart,

4 And they brought it with the ark of Yahweh from the house of Abinadab, which was on the hill, and Ahio was walking in front of it.

5 David and all the house of Israyl celebrated in front of Yahweh with all kinds of musical instruments made of pine; on harps, stringed instruments, tambourines, sistrums, and on cymbals.

6 When they came to the threshingfloor belonging to Nachon, Uzzah reached out and took hold of the ark of Yahweh, because the oxen stumbled.

7 The anger of Yahweh burned against Uzzah, and Yahweh ● struck him there because of his irreverent act, and he died by the ark of Yahweh.

8 Then David became angry because of Yahweh's outbreak against Uzzah; and he called the name of that place Peretz Uzzah; Outbreak against Uzzah, to this day.

9 David was afraid of Yahweh that day, and he said; How can the ark of Yahweh ever come to me?

10 So, David would not take the ark of Yahweh to be with him in the City of David. Instead, he took it aside to the house of Obed-Edom the Gittite.

11 The ark of Yahweh remained in the house of Obed-Edom the Gittite three moons, and Yahweh blessed Obed-Edom and all his household.

12 Then King David was informed of this, and was told; Yahweh has blessed the house of Obed-Edom and everything that he has, because of the ark of Yahweh. So David went down and brought up the ark of Yahweh with rejoicing, from the house of Obed-Edom to the City of David.

13 When those who were carrying the ark of Yahweh had taken six steps, he sacrificed a bull and a fattened sheep.

14 Then David, who was wearing a linen ephod, danced in front of Yahweh with all his might.

15 David and all the house of Israyl brought up the ark of Yahweh with shouts and with the sound of trumpets; shofarot.

16 As the ark of Yahweh came into the City of David, Michal daughter of Shaul watched through a window. She saw King David leaping and dancing in front of Yahweh, and despised him in her heart.

17 They brought the ark of Yahweh and set it in its place; in the middle of the tent David had set up for it. Then David sacrificed burnt offerings and peace offerings in front of Yahweh.

●Only the Aaronic Priests were to even touch the ark, and then only the Levites from the clan of Kohath were to carry it. Death was the penalty for transgressing this Law. Numbers 4:15, 19-20.

18 When David had finished sacrificing burnt offerings and peace offerings, he blessed the people with the Name of Yahweh Almighty.

19 Then he distributed to each person, among the whole multitude of Israyl—men and women—a loaf of bread, a cake of dates, and a cake of raisins. Then all the people left and went to their homes.

20 When David returned home to bless his household, Michal the daughter of Shaul came out to meet him, and said; How the king of Israyl has distinguished himself this day, uncovering himself in the sight of the maids of his attendants, just as a low man would do.

21 David said to Michal; This was in front of Yahweh, Who chose me, rather than your father or anyone else from all his house, when He appointed me ruler over Yahweh's people, over Israyl—and I will celebrate in front of Yahweh.

22 I will become even more undignified than this, and I will be humble in my own eyes, but as for the maids whom you spoke about, they will hold me in honor.

23 Because of this, Michal the daughter of Shaul had no children to the day of her death.

CHAP. 7

After the king was living in his residence, and Yahweh had given him rest from all his enemies around him.

2 David said to Nathan the prophet; Here am I, living in a house of cedar, but the ark of Yahweh remains inside tent curtains.

3 Then Nathan said to the king; Go and do whatever you have in mind, because Yahweh is with you.

4 That night the word of Yahweh came to Nathan, saying;

5 Go and tell My servant David; This is what Yahweh says: Are you the one to build a house for Me?

6 I have not lived in a house since the time I brought the children of Israyl out of Egypt, to this very day. I have moved about in a tent and in a tabernacle.

7 Wherever I have walked with all the children of Israyl, have I ever said to any of their rulers, whom I commanded to shepherd My people Israyl; Why have you not built Me a house made of cedar?

8 Now then, this is what you shall say to My servant David; This is what Yahweh Almighty says: I took you from the pasture, from following your flock, to be ruler over My people, over Israyl.

9 I have been with you wherever you have gone, and I have cut off all your enemies from in front of you. Now I will make your name great, like the names of the greatest men of the earth.

10 And I will appoint a place for My people Israyl, and I will plant them so they can have a home of their own, and be disturbed no longer. The sons of wickedness will not oppress them anymore, as they did at the beginning.

11 And as they have done since the time I appointed judges over My people Israyl, I will also give you rest from all your enemies. Yahweh also tells you that He will establish a house for you.

12 When your life is over and you sleep with your fathers, I will raise up your seed; offspring, to succeed you, who shall come from your own body, and I will establish his kingdom.

13 He is the one who will begin to build the House for My Name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom forever.

14 I will be his Father, and he will be My son. If he commits iniquity, I will correct him with the rod of men, with floggings inflicted by men.

15 But My love will not be taken away from him, as I took it from Shaul, whom I removed from before you.

16 Your house and your kingdom will endure forever in front of Me. Your throne will be established forever.

17 Nathan reported all the words of this vision to David.

18 Then King David went in and sat in front of Yahweh, and he said; Who am I, O Father Yahweh? What is my house; family, that You have brought me this far?

19 And yet, as though this were not enough in Your sight, O Father Yahweh, You have also spoken about the future of the house of Your servant. Is this the manner in which You deal with man, O Father Yahweh?

20 Now what more can David say to You? Because You, Father Yahweh, know Your servant.

21 For Your word's sake, and according to Your will, You have done this great thing and have made it known to Your servant.

22 How great You are, O Father Yahweh! There is no One like You, and there is no god. There is only You, just as we have heard with our own ears.

23 And who is like Your people Israyl, the one nation on the earth that Yahweh went out to redeem as a people for Himself, to make for Himself a Name—and to perform and do great and awe-inspiring wonders for Your land—in front of Your people whom You redeemed from Egypt, from the nations, and from their gods.

24 You have established Your people Israyl as Your very own people forever; and You, O Yahweh, have become their Father.

25 And now, O Father Yahweh, forever keep the promise You have made concerning Your servant and his house. Establish it forever and do as You have said.

26 May Your Name be magnified forever, and may men say; Yahweh Almighty is the Father over Israyl. And may the house of Your servant David be established in front of You.

27 O Yahweh Almighty, Father of Israyl. You have revealed this to Your servant, saying; I will build you a house. Because of all this, Your servant found it in his mind to pray this prayer to You.

28 Now, O Father Yahweh, You are Father, and Your words are true, and You have given this righteous promise to Your servant.

29 May it please You to bless the house of Your servant, so it may continue forever in front of You; because You, O Father Yahweh, have spoken, and with Your blessing may the house of Your servant be blessed forever.

CHAP. 8

It was after this that David defeated the Philistines and subdued them. David took Metheg Ammah from the power of the Philistines.

2 David then defeated Moab. He forced them to lie down on the ground and measured them off with a length of line. Every two lengths of them were put to death; every third length was allowed to live. So the Moabites became David's subjects, and brought tribute to him.

3 David also defeated Hadadezer the son of Rehob, king of Zobah, when he went to recover his control along the Euphrates River.

4 David captured from him 1,700 of his charioteers, and 20,000 foot soldiers. David also hamstringed all but 100 of the chariot horses.

5 When the Arameans of Damascus came up to help Hadadezer king of Zobah, David killed 22,000 of the Arameans.

6 Then David put garrisons in Aramean Damascus, and the Arameans became David's subjects, and brought tribute to him. Yahweh gave David victory wherever he went.

7 David took the shields of gold belonging to the officers of Hadadezer, and brought them to Yerusalem.

8 From Betah and from Berothai, cities of Hadadezer, King David took a great quantity of bronze.

9 When Toi king of Hamath heard that David had defeated the whole army of Hadadezer,

10 He then sent his son Hadoram to King David to greet him and to congratulate him on his successful battle against Hadadezer, who had been at war with Toi. Hadoram brought articles of silver, gold, and bronze with him.

11 King David dedicated these to Yahweh, as he had done with the silver and gold from all the nations he had subdued:

12 Aram, Moab, the Ammonites, the Philistines, and Amalek. He also dedicated the plunder taken from Hadadezer son of Rehob, king of Zobah.

13 David made himself a name; becoming famous, after he returned from killing 18,000 Arameans in the Valley of Salt.

14 He also stationed garrisons throughout all Edom, and all the Edomites became David's subjects. Yahweh gave David victory wherever he went.

15 David reigned over all Israyl, and David did justice and righteousness for all his people.

16 Yahab the son of Zeruyah was over the army; Yahshaphat the son of Ahilud was recorder;

17 Zadok the son of Ahitub and Ahimelech the son of Abiathar were the priests; Serayah was the scribe;

18 Benayah son of Yahyadah was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and David's sons were princes.

CHAP. 9

David asked; Is there still anyone left from the house of Shaul, so I may show him kindness; chesed, for the sake of Yahnathan?

2 Now, there was a steward from Shaul's household named Ziba who was called to appear in front of David. The king asked him; Are you Ziba? He answered; I am your servant.

3 Then the king asked; Is there anyone still left of the house of Shaul to whom I may show the kindness; chesed, of Yahweh? Ziba answered the king, and said; There is still a son of Yahnathan who is lame in both feet.

4 The king asked him; Where is he? Ziba answered the king; He is in the house of Machir the son of Ammiel, at Lo Debar.

5 Then King David sent for him and brought him out of the house of Machir the son of Ammiel in Lo Debar.

6 When Mephibosheth the son of Yahnathan, the son of Shaul, came in David's presence, he fell on his face and prostrated himself. David said; Mephibosheth! He answered him; I am your servant!

7 David said to him; Do not be afraid, because I will surely show you kindness; chesed, for the sake of your father Yahnathan, and I will restore to you all the land that belonged to Shaul your grandfather; and you shall always eat food at my table.

8 Mephibosheth bowed down, and asked; What is your servant, that you should notice such a dead dog as me?

9 Then the king summoned Ziba, Shaul's steward, and said to him; I have restored to your ruler's grandson all that belonged to Shaul and his house.

10 You and your sons and your servants are to work the land for him. You shall bring in the harvest, so your ruler's grandson may have food to eat, but Mephibosheth your ruler's grandson will eat bread at my table always. (Now Ziba had fifteen sons and twenty servants.)

11 Then Ziba said to the king: All that my king has commanded his servant, that is what your servant will do. So Mephibosheth ate at David's table like one of the king's sons.

12 Mephibosheth had a young son whose name was Michayah, and all the members of the household of Ziba were servants of Mephibosheth.

13 So Mephibosheth lived in Yerusalem, because he ate continually at the king's table. And he was lame in both his feet.

CHAP. 10

After this, the king of the Ammonites died, and Hanun his son succeeded him as king.

2 Then David thought: I will show kindness; chesed, to Hanun the son of Nahash, just as his father showed kindness; chesed, to me. So David sent his messengers to comfort him on the loss of his father. When David's men came to the land of the Ammonites.

3 The princes of Ammon said to Hanun their king: Do you think David is honoring your father by sending men to you to comfort you? Hasn't David sent them to you to explore the city, to search it out, and to overthrow it?

4 Because of this, Hanun seized David's men, shaved off half of their beards, cut off their garments in the middle at the buttocks, and sent them on their way.

5 When David was informed about this, he sent messengers to meet them, because the men were greatly ashamed and humiliated. The king said: Stay at Yericho until your beards have grown out, and then return.

6 When the Ammonites realized they had made themselves repulsive to David, they hired 20,000 Aramean foot soldiers from Beth Rehob and Zobah, as well as the king of Maacah with 1,000 men, and also 12,000 men of the men of Tob.

7 When David was informed of this, he sent Yahab and all his army of fighting men.

8 The Ammonites came out and drew up battle lines at the entrance to their city gate, while the Arameans of Zobah and Rehob, and the men of Tob and Maacah were by themselves in the open fields.

9 Yahab saw there were battle lines in front of him and behind him; so he chose some of the best men of Israyl and sent them to fight against the Arameans.

10 The remainder of the fighting forces he put under the command of Abishai his brother and sent them to fight against the Ammonites.

11 Then Yahab ordered: If the Arameans are too powerful for me, then you are to come to my aid; but if the Ammonites are too powerful for you, then I will come to your aid.

12 Be very courageous, and let us fight bravely for our people and for the cities of our Father. May Yahweh do what seems right to Him.

13 So Yahab and his men advanced to the battle against the Arameans, and they fled before him.

14 When the Ammonites saw the Arameans running away, they also fled from Abishai, and went inside the city. So Yahab returned from fighting the Ammonites and came to Yerusalem.

15 When the Arameans saw they had been soundly defeated in front of Israyl, they regrouped.

16 Hadadezer brought in Arameans from beyond the Euphrates River; they went to Helam, and Shobach the commander of Hadadezer's army led them.

17 When David was informed of this, he gathered all Israyl, crossed the Yarden, and came to Helam. The Arameans formed their battle lines to fight against David.

18 Then the Arameans fled from in front of Israyl; and David killed 700 charioteers and 40,000 horsemen. He also struck down Shobach, the commander of their army, who died there.

19 When all the kings, who served Hadadezer as vassals, realized they were soundly defeated by Israyl, they made peace with Israyl and became subject to them. The Arameans, also, were afraid to help the Ammonites anymore.

CHAP. 11

In the spring of the year, at the time when kings go off to war, David sent Yahab out with the king's attendants, and the whole army of Israyl. They destroyed the people of Ammon and laid seige to Rabbah. But David remained in Yerusalem.

2 One evening David got up from his bed and walked around on the roof of the king's house. From the roof he saw a woman bathing, and the woman was very beautiful.

3 David sent someone to inquire about the woman. They reported: This is Bathsheba, the daughter of Eliam, the wife of Uriyah the Hittite.

4 But David sent messengers to get her. She came to him, and he slept with her, because she had purified herself from her uncleanness; then she returned to her own home.

5 But the woman conceived, and sent word to David, saying: I am with child.

6 Then David sent this message to Yahab: Send Uriyah the Hittite to me. Yahab sent Uriyah to David.

7 When Uriyah came to him, David asked how Yahab was doing, and how the fighting men were, and how the war was progressing.

8 Then David commanded Uriyah: Go to your own home, and wash your feet. So Uriyah left the king's residence, and a gift from the king was sent after him.

9 But Uriyah slept at the entrance to the king's house with all his king's servants, and did not go to his own home.

10 When David was informed: Uriyah did not go to his home, David then spoke with Uriyah: Did you not come from a distance? Why did you not go home?

11 Uriyah answered David: The ark, and Israyl, and Yahdah are living in tents, and my commander Yahab and the men under my commander are encamped in the open fields. Should I, then, go to my own house to eat and drink and to sleep with my wife? As surely as you live, I will not do such a thing.

12 Then Davidsaid to Uriyah: Wait here one more day, then tomorrow I will send you back. So Uriyah remained in Yerusalem that day and the next.

13 When David summoned him, he ate and drank in front of him: and he made him drunk. But at evening he went out to lie on his bed with the servants of his ruler: he did not go to his own home.

14 In the morning David wrote a letter to Yahab and sent it with Uriyah.

15 David wrote in his letter: Position Uriyah in the front line of the fiercest battle. Then withdraw from him, so he may be struck down and die.

16 While Yahab had the city under siege, he assigned Uriyah to a position where he knew the strongest defenders were.

17 When the men of the city came out to fight with Yahab, some of the men in David's army were killed; Uriyah the Hittite died also.

18 Yahab sent David a full account of that battle.

19 Then instructed the messenger, saying: When you have finished giving the account of the battle to the king.

20 The king's anger may flare up, and he may ask you: Why did you approach so close to the city when you fought? Did you not realize they would shoot from the wall?

21 Who killed Abimelech son of Yerubesheth (Yerubbaal-Gideon)? Did not a woman drop an upper millstone on him from the wall, killing him in Thebez? Why did you get near the wall?—if he asks you this, then say to him: Your servant Uriyah the Hittite is dead also.

22 The messenger set out, arrived, then told David all that Yahab had sent him to say.

23 The messenger informed David: The men overpowered us, and came out against us in the field; we then drove them back as far as the entrance to their gate.

24 The archers shot from the wall at your men; and some of the king's men are dead, and your servant Uriyah the Hittite is dead also.

25 Then David said to the messenger: This is what you shall tell Yahab: Do not let this thing upset you, because the sword slays one as well as another. Press your attack against the city, and overthrow it. Tell him this to encourage him.

26 When the wife of Uriyah heard that her husband was dead, she mourned for her husband.

27 After the period of her mourning was over, David sent and had her brought to his house, and she became his wife, and bore him a son. But the thing that David had done displeased Yahweh.

CHAP. 12

Yahweh sent Nathan to David. He came to him, and said: There were two men in one city, one was rich and the other poor.

2 The rich man had a very large number of flocks and herds.

3 But the poor man had nothing except one little ewe lamb he had bought. He nourished it, and it grew up together with him and his children. It ate his own food, drank from his own cup, and slept in his arms. It was like a daughter to him.

4 Now a traveler came to the rich man, but the rich man refused to take from his own flock and from his own herd to prepare for the man who came to him: so he took the poor man's lamb and prepared it for the man who came to him.

5 Then David's anger burned against that man, and he said to Nathan: As surely as Yahweh lives, the man who has done this deserves to die!

6 He must pay for that lamb four times over, because he did such a thing and because he had no pity.

7 Then Nathan said to David: You are the man! This is what Yahweh, the Father of Israyl, says: I anointed you king over Israyl, and I delivered you from the hand of Shaul.

8 I gave your ruler's house to you, and your ruler's wives for yourself. I gave you the house of Israyl and Yahdah. And if that was not enough, I would have given you much more!

9 Why did you despise the commandment of Yahweh, and do evil in His eyes? You struck down Uriyah the Hittite with the sword and took his wife to be your own wife. You killed him with the sword of the Ammonites.

10 Because of this, the sword shall never depart from your house: because you have despised Me, and have taken the wife of Uriyah the Hittite to be your wife.

11 This is what Yahweh says; Behold, I will bring adversity upon you from your own house. I will take your wives before your own eyes and give them to one who is close to you, and he shall lie with your wives in broad daylight.

12 You did this in secret, but I will do this thing in broad daylight in front of all Israyl.

13 Then David said to Nathan; ● I have sinned against Yahweh. Nathan then replied; Yahweh has put away your sin. You will not die.

14 However, because by doing this you have made the enemies of Yahweh show utter contempt, the son born to you will die.

15 After Nathan went to his home, Yahweh struck the child that Uriyah's wife bore to David, and he became ill.

16 David pleaded with Yahweh for the child; David fasted and spent the nights lying on the ground.

17 The elders of his house went to him to get him to rise from the ground, but he would not, nor would he eat for them.

18 On the seventh day the child died. David's servants were afraid to tell him the child was dead. They thought: While the child lived, he would not listen to us when we spoke to him. How can we tell him the child is dead? He may do harm!

19 When David saw his servants whispering, David perceived that the child was dead. David then asked his servants: Is the child dead? They replied: He is dead.

20 So David rose from the ground, washed and anointed himself, and changed his clothes. He went into The House of Yahweh and worshiped. Then he went to his own house, and at his request they served him food, and he ate.

21 His servants asked him; Why have you done this? You fasted and wept for the child while he was yet alive, but when the child dies, you get up and eat food.

22 He answered them: While the child was still alive, I fasted and wept; because I thought: Who may know? Yahweh may be merciful to me and let the child live.

23 But now that he is dead, why should I fast? Can I bring him back again? I may go to him, but he may not return to me.

24 David comforted Bathsheba his wife, and went in to her and lay with her. She bore a son, and he called his name Solomon, and Yahweh loved him.

25 And because Yahweh loved him, He sent word through Nathan the prophet, and he named him Yediyah; Loved By Yahweh, because of Yahweh.

26 Yahab was fighting against Rabbah of the people of Ammon, and took the royal citadel.

27 Yahab sent messengers to David, informing him; I have fought against Rabbah, and I have taken its water supply.

28 Now gather the remainder of the army together and encamp against the city and take it, or I will take the city and it will be called after my name.

29 So David gathered all the army together and went to Rabbah. They fought against it, and captured it.

30 Then he took the crown from the head of Milcom, their god and king, Molech. Its weight was a talent of gold; about 75 pounds, and it was set with precious stones. It was placed on David's head. He also brought plunder from the city in great abundance.

31 He brought out the people in it, and assigned them to labor with saws, with iron picks, and with iron axes. He made them work at brickmaking. He did this to all the cities of the Ammonites. Then David and all the fighting men returned to Yerusalem.

CHAP. 13

After this, Absalom the son of David had a beautiful sister, whose name was Tamar, and Amnon son of David fell in love with her.

2 Amnon became so frustrated over Tamar that he became sick. She was a virgin, and Amnon thought it was impossible to do anything to her.

3 Amnon had a friend whose name was Yahnadab the son of Shimeah, David's brother. Yahnadab was a very crafty man.

4 He asked Amnon; Why do you, the king's son, look thinner day after day? Will you tell me? Amnon told him; I am in love with Tamar, my brother Absalom's sister.

5 Yahnadab said to him; Lie down on your bed, and pretend to be ill. When your father comes to see you, say to him; Allow my sister Tamar to come and give me food. Let her prepare the food in my sight, so I may watch her and then eat it from her hand.

6 So Amnon lay down and pretended to be ill. When the king came to see him, Amnon asked the king; Allow my sister Tamar to come and make some cakes in my sight, so I may eat from her hand.

7 David sent word to Tamar at home, saying; Go to your brother Amnon's house, and prepare food for him.

8 So Tamar went to the house of her brother Amnon; and he was lying down. She took flour and kneaded it, made the bread in his sight, and baked it.

9 Then she took the pan of bread and served him, but he refused to eat. Then Amnon commanded; Send everyone from me. So they all left.

10 Then Amnon said to Tamar; Bring the food into the bedroom, so I may eat from your hand. So Tamar took the bread she had made, and brought it to Amnon her brother in the bedroom.

11 When she brought it to him to eat, he grabbed her and said to her; Come, lie with me in the bed, my sister.

12 But she answered him; No, my brother! Do not force me! Such a thing should not be done in Israyl! Do not do this evil thing!

13 What about me? How could I rid myself of the shame? What about you? You would be considered an evil fool in Israyl. Please speak to the king; because he will not keep me from you.

14 However, he would not listen to her. Being stronger than she, he forced her to lie with him.

15 Then, Amnon hated her intensely. He hated her with more hatred than the love which he had loved her. Amnon said to her; Get up and be gone!

16 She said to him; No! The evil of sending me away is worse than what you have already done to me. But he refused to listen to her.

17 He summoned his personal servant, and said; Put this woman out of here, and bolt the door behind her.

18 She had on a richly ornamented robe, for the king's virgin daughters wore such apparel. His servant put her out, and bolted the door behind her.

19 Then Tamar put ashes on her head, and tore her richly ornamented robe. She put her hands on her head, and went away, weeping bitterly.

20 Absalom her brother, asked her; Has Amnon your brother been with you? Hold your peace now, my sister. He is your brother; do not take this so hard. But Tamar remained desolate in her brother's house.

21 When King David heard all this, he was furious;

22 But Absalom said nothing, neither for him nor against him; but Absalom hated Amnon because of what he had done to his sister.

23 After two full years, Absalom had sheep-shearers in Baal Hazar, near the territory of Ephraim, so Absalom invited all the king's sons there.

24 Absalom went to the king, and said; Your servant has sheepshearers coming. Will the king and his attendants go with your servant?

25 But the king answered Absalom; No, my son, not all of us will go now, or we would be a burden to you. Then he urged David, but David refused to go, but he gave him his blessing.

26 Then Absalom asked; If you can not go, then allow my brother Amnon to go with us. The king asked him; Why should he go with you?

27 But Absalom urged him; so he allowed Amnon and all the king's sons to go with him.

28 Absalom had commanded his men, saying; Watch! When Amnon's heart is merry with wine, and when I say to you; Strike Amnon down! then kill him. Do not be afraid, for I have given the command. Be strong and courageous.

29 So Absalom's men did to Amnon as Absalom had commanded. Then all the king's sons got up, each one mounted his mule, and fled.

30 While they were on their way, this report came to David; Absalom has killed all the king's sons! Not one of them is left!

31 The king got up, tore his clothes, and lay on the ground. All the servants stood by with their clothes torn also.

32 But Yahnadab son of Shimeah, David's brother, said; My ruler should not even think they have killed all the king's sons, because only Amnon is dead. This has been the determined intention of Absalom, ever since the day he forced his sister Tamar.

33 Let not my ruler the king take this so hard, thinking all the king's sons are dead. Only Amnon is dead.

34 Then Absalom fled. And the young man standing watch looked, and saw many people coming on the road west of him, coming down the side of the hill.

35 Yahnadab said to the king; Look! The king's sons are coming. It has come to pass just as your servant said.

36 As soon as he had finished speaking, the king's sons did come in, and they wailed loudly. And the king and all his attendants also wept very bitterly.

37 So Absalom fled, and went to Talmi son of Ammihud, the king of Geshur. But King David mourned for his son every day.

38 After Absalom fled and went to Geshur, he stayed there three years.

39 But the spirit of David the king longed to go to Absalem, for he was comforted concerning Amnon's death.

CHAP. 14

Yahab son of Zeruyah knew that the king's heart longed for Absalom.

2 So Yahab sent to Tekoa and brought from there a wise woman, and said to her; Pretend to be a mourner, and put on mourning clothes. Do not anoint yourself with oil, but act like a woman who has been in mourning for the dead a long time.

3 Then go to the king and speak to him in this way. Yahab put the words in her mouth.

4 When the woman of Tekoa spoke to the king, she fell on her face to the ground to pay him honor, and said: Help, O king!

5 The king asked her: What is troubling you? She answered him: I am indeed a widow, my husband is dead.

6 I, your maidservant, had two sons; and the two fought with each other in the field. There was no one to separate them, so one struck the other and killed him.

7 Now the whole clan has risen up against your maidservant, and they say: Hand over the one who struck down his brother, so we may execute him for the life of his brother, whom he killed; then we will kill the heir as well. They would put out the only burning ember I have left, leaving my husband neither name or descendant on the earth.

8 Then the king said to the woman: Go to your home, and I will give orders on your behalf.

9 The woman of Tekoa said to the king: My ruler, O king, may the blame rest on me and on my father's family, and may the king and his throne be guiltless.

10 The king said: If anyone says anything to you, bring him to me, and he shall not bother you anymore.

11 Then she said: May the king call with the Name of Yahweh your Father, and not permit the blood-avenger to destroy anymore, so my son will not be destroyed. David then said: As surely as Yahweh lives, not one hair of your son's head will fall to the ground.

12 Then the woman asked: May your maidservant say another word to my ruler the king? And he answered: Speak on.

13 The woman then asked: Why then have you schemed such a thing against the people of Yahweh? When the king says this, does he not convict himself, because the king has not brought back his own banished son home again?

14 We will all surely die, becoming like water spilled on the ground, which cannot be recovered. But Yahweh does not take away life; instead, He devises means, so His banished ones are not expelled from Him.

15 Now I have come to say this to my ruler the king, because the people have made me afraid. Your maidservant thought: I will speak to the king. It may be he will do what his maidservant asks.

16 It may be the king will hear and deliver his maidservant from the power of the man who would destroy me and my son both from the inheritance Yahweh gave us.

17 Your maidservant says: May the word of my ruler the king bring me comfort; because as is the malak of Yahweh, so is my ruler the king in discernment of righteousness and evil. May Yahweh your Father be with you.

18 Then the king said to the woman: Do not hide from me the answer to the question I may ask you. The woman said: May my ruler the king speak.

19 Then the king asked: Is the hand of Yahab with you in all this? The woman answered: As surely as you live, my ruler the king, no one can turn to the right hand or to the left from anything my ruler the king has said. Your servant Yahab instructed me, and he put all these words in the mouth of your maidservant.

20 Your servant Yahab did this in order to change the present situation. My ruler has wisdom like that of a malak of Yahweh—he knows everything taking place in the land.

21 The king said to Yahab: Very well, I have granted this thing. Go and bring back the young man Absalom.

22 Then Yahab fell to the ground on his face, and paid homage, and thanked the king. Yahab said: Today your servant knows that he has found honor in your eyes, my ruler the king, because the king has granted the request of his servant.

23 Then Yahab went to Gesher and brought Absalom back to Yerusalem.

24 But the king said: Let him go to his own home, but he may not see my face. So Absalom returned to his own house, but did not see the face of the king.

25 In all Israyl there was not one who was praised as much as Absalom for his handsome appearance. From the bottom of his foot to the top of his head there was no blemish in him.

26 Whenever he cut the hair of his head—he would cut his hair from time to time when it became too heavy for him—he would weigh it, and it weighed two hundred royal standard shekels, about 5 pounds.

27 To Absalom were born three sons, and one daughter whose name was Tamar. She became a beautiful woman.

28 Absalom lived two full years in Yerusalem, but he did not see the king's face.

29 Then Absalom sent for Yahab in order to send him to the king, but he refused to come to him. Even when he summoned him the second time, he refused to come.

30 Then he said to his servants: Look, Yahab's field is next to mine, and he has barley there; go and set it on fire. So Absalom's servants set the field on fire.

31 Then Yahab went to Absalom's house, and he asked him: Why have your servants set my field on fire?

32 Absalom answered Yahab; I sent for you, saying; Come to me, so I may send you to the king, to say: Why have I come from Geshur? It would be better for me if I were still there. Now, I want to see the face of the king, and if there is any guiltiness in me, let him execute me.

33 So Yahab went to the king and told him this. When he had summoned Absalom, he came to the king and bowed himself with his face to the ground in front of the king. The king then kissed Absalom.

CHAP. 15

After this, Absalom provided himself with a chariot and horses and with fifty men to run in front of him.

2 Absalom would rise early and stand by the side of the road leading to the city gate. Whenever anyone who had a lawsuit came to the king for a decision, Absalom would call to him, and ask; What city are you from? He would answer; Your servant is from one of the tribes of Israyl.

3 Then Absalom would say to him; Look, your lawsuit is valid and proper; but there is no representative of the king to hear the matter.

4 Absalom would also say; Oh, if I were only made judge in the land, then anyone who had any suit or cause could come to me and I would give him justice.

5 Also, whenever anyone came to him and bowed down in front of him, Absalom would reach out his hand, embrace him, and kiss him.

6 In this manner Absalom behaved toward all Israyl who came to the king asking for justice. So Absalom stole the hearts of the men of Israyl.

7 At the end of four years, Absalom said to the king; Allow me to go to Hebron to pay a vow which I vowed to Yahweh.

8 Your servant vowed a vow while I lived at Geshur in Aram, saying; If Yahweh will bring me back to Yerusalem, then I will worship Yahweh.

9 The king said to him; Go in peace. So he rose up and went to Hebron.

10 Then Absalom sent secret messengers throughout all the tribes of Israyl, saying; As soon as you hear the sound of the trumpets; shofarot, then say; Absalom reigns in Hebron!

11 Two hundred men from Yerusalem went with Absalom, they were invited, and went along innocently. They knew nothing of the matter.

12 Then Absalom sent for Ahithophel the Gilonite, the counselor of David, from his city of Giloh where he was offering sacrifices. The conspiracy gained strength, because the people following Absalom continued to increase.

13 A messenger came and informed David; The hearts of the men of Israyl are with Absalom.

14 Then David said to all his officials with him at Yerusalem; Come! We must flee, or we may not escape from Absalom. Hurry to leave, or he will move quickly to overtake us, and bring ruin upon us, and put the city to the sword.

15 The king's officials answered the king; We are your servants for whatever my ruler the king commands.

16 The king set out, with his entire household following him; but he left ten women, his concubines, to take care of the house.

17 So the king set out, with all the people following him, and they stopped at a place some distance away.

18 All his men passed in front of him, along with all the Cherethites and all the Pelethites. All six hundred of the Gittites from Gath also passed in front of the king.

19 The king said to Ittai the Gittite; Why should you come with us? Go back and remain with the king, for you are a foreigner and also an exile from your own homeland.

20 You only came yesterday. Should I make you wander up and down with us today, when I do not know where I am going? Go back, and take your own brothers with you. May kindness; chesed, and faithfulness be with you.

21 But Ittai answered the king, and said; As surely as Yahweh lives, and as my ruler the king lives, in whatever place my ruler the king shall be, whether living or dead, there your servant will be also.

22 So David said to Ittai; Go ahead, march on. So Ittai the Gittite marched on with all his men, and the families with him.

23 All the countryside wept aloud as all the people passed by. The king himself also crossed the Brook Kidron, and all the people moved on toward the desert.

24 Zadok was also there, and all the Levites with him were carrying the ark of the covenant of Yahweh. They set down the ark of Yahweh, and Abiathar went up until all the people had finished leaving the city.

25 Then the king said to Zadok; Carry the ark of Yahweh back into the city. If I find honor in the eyes of Yahweh, He will bring me back and let me see it and His habitation again.

26 But if He says; I am not pleased with you, then here I am. May He do to me as seems right to Him.

27 The king also said to Zadok the priest; Are you not a seer? Return to the city in peace with your son Ahimaaz and Yahnathan son of Abiathar. You and Abiathar take your two sons with you.

28 I will wait in the plains of the wilderness until word comes from you informing me.

29 So Zadok and Abiathar took the ark of Yahweh back to Yerusalem, and they remained there.

30 David continued up the Mount of Olives, weeping as he went; and he had his head covered and he was walking barefoot. All the people with him also covered their heads and went up weeping as they walked.

31 Now David had been informed; Ahithophel is among the conspirators with Absalom. So David prayed; O Yahweh, turn the counsel of Ahithophel into foolishness!

32 When David arrived at the summit, he worshiped Yahweh there. Then Hushai the Arkite came to meet him with his robe torn and dust on his head.

33 David said to him; If you go on with me, then you will be a burden to me.

34 However, if you return to the city and will say to Absalom; I will be your servant. O king. I was your father's servant in the past, but now I will be your servant—then you may help me by defeating and frustrating the counsel and advice of Ahithophel.

35 Do you not have Zadok and Abiathar the priests there with you? Whatever you hear from the king's house, tell it to Zadok and Abiathar the priests.

36 Their two sons, Ahimaaz son of Zadok and Yahnathan son of Abiathar, are there with them. By them you shall inform me of everything you hear.

37 So Hushai, the friend of David, arrived in the city, and Absalom entered Yerusalem.

CHAP. 16

When David had gone a little past the summit, there was Ziba, the servant of Mephibosheth, waiting to meet him. He had a string of donkeys loaded with two hundred loaves of bread, one hundred cakes of raisins, one hundred cakes of figs, and a skin of wine.

2 The king asked Ziba; Why have you brought these? Ziba answered him; The donkeys are for the king's household to ride on, the food is for the young men to eat, and the wine is to refresh those who become faint in the wilderness.

3 Then the king asked; Where is your ruler's grandson? Ziba answered the king, and said; He is staying in Yerusalem, because he thinks; This day the house of Israyl will restore the kingdom of my grandfather to me.

4 Then the king said to Ziba; All that belonged to Mephibosheth is now yours. Ziba replied; I humbly bow in front of you. May I find honor in your sight, my ruler. O king!

5 As King David approached Bahurim, a man from the same clan as Shaul's family came out from there, whose name was Shimei, the son of Gera. He cursed continuously as he came out.

6 He threw stones at David and at all the king's officials, even though all the fighting men and the special guard were on his right hand and on his left.

7 Shimei said this to curse him; Get out! Get out! You man of bloodshed! You worthless rogue!

8 Yahweh has repaid you for all the blood you shed in the house of Shaul, in whose place you have reigned. Yahweh has delivered the kingdom into the hands of Absalom your son. You have come to ruin because you are a man of blood!

9 Then Abishai the son of Zeruyah said to the king; Why should this dead dog curse my ruler the king? Allow me to go over and take his head off!

10 But the king said; What do you and I have in common, you sons of Zeruyah? So may he curse, if Yahweh has spoken to him; Curse David! Then who can ask; Why do you do this?

11 David then said to Abishai and all his officials; My son, who is of my own flesh, is trying to take my life. Then how much more this Benyaminite! Leave him alone, and let him curse; for Yahweh has ordered him.

12 It may be that Yahweh will look on my affliction, and repay me with righteousness for the cursing I am receiving this day.

13 So David and his men continued along the road while Shimei went along the hillside opposite him, cursing as he went, throwing stones at him, and kicking dust on him.

14 The king and all the people with him arrived exhausted at the place they were going, but they refreshed themselves there.

15 Meanwhile, Absalom and all the men of Israyl came to Yerusalem, and Ahithophel was with him.

16 When Hushai the Arkite, David's friend, came to Absalom, he said to him; Long live the king! Long live the king!

17 Absalom asked Hushai; Is this your kindness for your friend? Why did you not leave with your friend?

18 Hushai answered Absalom; No, the one chosen by Yahweh, by these people, and by all the men of Israyl—his will I be, and with him will I remain.

19 Furthermore, whom should I serve? Should I not serve in the presence of the son? Just as I have served in your father's presence, so will I be in your presence.

20 Then Absalom said to Ahithophel; Give counsel and advice about what we should do.

21 Ahithophel said to Absalom; Lie with your father's concubines, whom he has left to take care of the house. Then all Israyl will hear that you have made yourself abominable to your father, and the hands of everyone with you will be strengthened.

22 So they pitched a tent for Absalom on top of the house, and Absalom lay with his father's concubines in the sight of all Israyl.

23 Now the counsel and advice of Ahithophel, which he gave in those days, was like that of one who inquires of Yahweh. That was how both David and Absalom regarded the counsel and advice of Ahithophel.

CHAP. 17

Ahithophel gave this advice to Absalom: I would choose twelve thousand men, and send them go out in pursuit of David this very night.

2 I would attack him while he is weary and weak. I would strike him with terror, and then all the people with him would flee. I would strike down only the king.

3 Then I would bring back all the people to you. The death of the one man you seek will mean the peaceful return of all.

4 The counsel and advice pleased Absalom and all the elders of Israyl.

5 Then Absalom said; Now summon Hushai the Archite, and let us hear what he says, as well.

6 When Hushai came to Absalom, Absalom spoke to him, saying; Ahithophel has spoken in this manner. Shall we do as he says? If not, then speak.

7 Hushai said to Absalom: The counsel and advice that Ahithophel has given is not proper at this time.

8 Hushai continued; You know your father and his men; they are fighters, and as fierce as a wild bear robbed of her cubs. Besides, your father is an experienced fighter; he will not spend the night with the people.

9 Surely by now he is hidden in a cave or some other place. When some of the men fall at the first attack, whoever hears about it will say; There has been a slaughter among the fighting men who follow Absalom.

10 Then even the bravest soldier, whose heart is like the heart of a lion, will completely melt. All Israyl knows that your father is a fighter, and that those who are with him are brave men.

11 Therefore, I counsel and advise you to gather all Israyl to you, from Dan to Beersheba, like the sands on the seashore for number, so you may lead them into battle.

12 Then we will attack him wherever he may be found, and we will fall on him as dew falls on the ground. Then of him and all the men with him, there shall not be left so much as one.

13 If he withdraws into a city, then all Israyl will bring ropes to that city, and we will drag it down into the valley, until there is not even a piece of it to be found.

14 Absalom and all the men of Israyl said; The counsel and advice of Hushai the Arkite is better than that of Ahithophel—because Yahweh had purposed to frustrate and defeat the wise counsel and advice of Ahithophel, in order to bring disaster on Absalom.

15 Then Hushai informed Zadok and Abiathar the priests; Such and such Ahithophel advised Absalom and the elders of Israyl, and so and so I have counseled.

16 Now quickly send and inform David, saying; Do not spend this night in the plains of the wilderness, but cross over speedily, or the king and all the people with him will be swallowed up.

17 Yahnathan and Ahimaaz were staying at En Rogel, because they could not risk being seen entering the city. A maidservant was to go and inform them, then they were to go and inform King David.

18 Nevertheless, a lad saw them, and informed Absalom. But the two of them quickly left and went to the house of a man in Bahurim. He had a well in his courtyard, so they climbed down into it.

19 Then his wife took a covering and spread it out over the opening of the well, and scattered grain over it. No one knew anything about it.

20 When Absalom's men came to the woman at the house, they asked; Where are Ahimaaz and Yahnathan? The woman said to them; They have gone over the water brook. When they had searched and could not find them, they returned to Yerusalem.

21 After the search party left, they came up out of the well and went to inform King David. They said to him; Set out and cross the river at once; Ahithophel has advised such and such against you.

22 So David and all the people with him rose up and crossed over the Yordan. By the break of day not one of them was left who had not crossed the Yordan.

23 When Ahithophel saw that his counsel and advice had not been followed, he saddled his donkey and set out for his home in his city. He put his house in order, then he hanged himself. He died and was buried in his father's tomb.

24 David went to Mahanaim, and Absalom crossed the Yordan, he and all the men of Israyl with him.

25 Absalom had made Amasa captain of the army in the place of Yahab. This Amasa was the son of a man whose name was Yithra, an Israylite, who had married Abigail, the daughter of Nahash, sister of Zeruyah, Yahab's mother.

26 Israyl and Absalom encamped in the land of Gilead.

27 When David came to Mahanaim, Shobi son of Nahash from Rabbah of the people of Ammon, Machir son of Ammiel from Lo Debar, and Barzillai the Gileadite from Rogelim, 28 Brought bedding, bowls, and articles of earthen pottery. They also brought wheat, barley, and flour, roasted grain, beans, and lentils.

29 Honey, butter, sheep, and cheese from cow's milk for David and the people with him to eat. Because they said: The people are hungry and tired and thirsty in the wilderness.

CHAP. 18

David numbered the men with him, and appointed captains of thousands and captains of hundreds over them.

2 Then David sent out the men—one third under the command of Yahab, one third under the command of Abishai son of Zeruyah, Yahab's brother, and one third under the command of Ittai the Gittite. The king told the men: I myself will surely march out with you.

3 But the men responded, and said: You must not march with us. If we are forced to flee, they will care nothing about us. Even if half of us die, they will care nothing about us. Are there not ten thousand more just like us? So now, it is better that you support us and give help from the city.

4 The king answered, and said: Whatever seems best to you I will do. So the king stood beside the gate as all the men marched out in units of hundreds and thousands.

5 Now the king had commanded Yahab, Abishai, and Ittai, saying: Be gentle, for my sake, with the young man Absalom. And all the troops heard the king give these orders concerning Absalom to each of the commanders.

6 The army marched out into the field of battle against Israyl, and the battle was in the forest of Ephraim.

7 The army of Israyl was defeated there in front of David's men, and a great slaughter of 20,000 men took place there that day.

8 The battle spread out over the whole countryside, and the forest devoured more lives that day than the sword.

9 Now David's men came upon Absalom as he was riding his mule. The mule ran under the thick branches of a great oak, and Absalom's head got caught in the oak. He was suspended between the skies and the ground, while the mule under him kept on going.

10 When one of the men saw this, he reported to Yahab: I just saw Absalom hanging in an oak tree.

11 Yahab said to the man who reported this to him: What! You saw him? Why did you not strike him down to the ground then? I would have given you ten shekels; about 4 ounces, of silver and one belt of a warrior.

12 But the man replied: Even though a thousand shekels; about 25 pounds, of silver were to be weighed into my hands, I would not lift my hands against the son of the king. Because in our hearing the king commanded you, Abishai, and Ittai, saying: Whoever you may be, protect the young man Absalom.

13 Otherwise, I would have dealt treacherously against my own life—for there is nothing hidden from the king—you would have kept from being involved, and I would have been blamed!

14 Then Yahab said: I will not wait before you like this! So he took three javelins in his hands and thrust them into Absalom's heart while he was still alive in the oak tree.

15 Then ten of Yahab's armor-bearing men surrounded Absalom, and they struck and killed him.

16 Yahab then sounded with the shofar, stopping the people from pursuing after Israyl, because Yahab halted the troops.

17 They took Absalom, threw him into a large pit in the forest, and piled up a great heap of rocks over him. Meanwhile, all the men of Israyl fled to their homes.

18 During his lifetime Absalom had taken a pillar and set it up for himself in the King's Valley. He had thought: I have no son to carry on the remembrance of my name. So, he named the pillar after himself, and to this day it is called Absalom's Monument.

19 Then Ahimaaz son of Zadok said: Let me run and take this news to the king, that Yahweh has delivered him from the hands of his enemies.

20 But Yahab said to him: You must not bear the news this day. You shall bear the news another day, but today you must bear no news, because the king's son is dead.

21 Then, Yahab ordered the Cushite: Go, inform the king what you have seen. So the Cushite bowed himself in front of Yahab and ran.

22 Ahimaaz son of Zadok repeated to Yahab: Whatever may come, let me also run after the Cushite. But Yahab replied: Why will you run, my son, since you will not bring news?

23 He answered: Whatever may come, let me run. So Yahab said to him: Run. Then Ahimaaz ran by way of the plain of the Yarden, and outran the Cushite.

24 Now David was sitting between the two gates. The watchman went up to the roof over the gateway by the wall, raised his eyes and looked, and there was a man, running alone.

25 Then the watchman called out, and reported this to the king. The king said; If he is alone, he must bear glad news. That man came closer and closer.

26 Then the watchman saw another man running, and he called down to the gatekeeper; Look, a man running by himself also! The king said; He must be bearing glad news, as well.

27 The watchman said; I think the running of the first is like the running of Ahimaaz son of Zadok. The king said; He is a fine man, and comes with glad news.

28 Then Ahimaaz called out, and said to the king; All is well! Then he bowed down with his face to the ground in front of the king, and said; Blessed be Yahweh your Father, Who has delivered up the men who lifted their hands against the king!

29 The king asked; Is the young man Absalom safe? Ahimaaz answered; When Yahab sent the king's servant and me, your servant, I saw great confusion, but I do not know what it was.

30 The king said; Stand aside! Wait here! So he stepped aside, and stood.

31 Then the Cushite arrived, and said; My king! Hear the glad news! Yahweh has delivered you today from all who rose up against you!

32 The king asked the Cushite; Is the young man Absalom safe? The Cushite replied; May the enemies of my king, and all who rise up to harm you, be like that young man.

33 The king was shaken. He went up to the room over the gateway and wept. As he went up, he cried; O my son Absalom! My son, my son Absalom! If only I had died in your stead! O Absalom my son, my son!

CHAP. 19

Yahab was informed; The king is weeping and mourning for Absalom.

2 So the victory of that day was turned into mourning for all the army, because the troops heard it said on that day; The king grieves for his son.

3 That day the men stole into the city, just as men steal in who are ashamed when they run from battle.

4 The king covered his face, and cried aloud; O my son Absalom! O Absalom, my son!

5 Then Yahab went into the house to the king, and said; Today you have humiliated all your men who today have saved your life, the lives of your sons and daughters, the lives of your wives, and the lives of your concubines.

6 You love those who hate you, and hate those who love you! You have made it clear this day that your commanders and men mean nothing to you! Indeed, I perceive that you would be pleased if Absalom were alive today, and all of us were dead!

7 Now rise up! Go out, and encourage your men. For I vow by Yahweh, that if you do not go out, not a man will be left with you by nightfall. That will be worse for you than all the evil that has befallen you from your youth until now.

8 Then the king got up and sat in the gate. The men were informed; The king sits in the gate, so they all came in front of him. But every one of Israyl had fled to his own home.

9 All the people were arguing throughout all the tribes of Israyl, saying; The king delivered us from the hands of our enemies, and saved us from the hands of the Philistines; but now he has fled from the land because of Absalom;

10 And Absalom, whom we anointed over us, has died in battle. So why do you say nothing about bringing the king back?

11 Then King David sent to Zadok and Abiathar, the priests, saying; Speak to the elders of Yahdah, asking; Why should you be the last to bring the king back to his house, since what is being argued throughout Israyl has reached the king at his house?

12 You are my brothers. You are my bone and my flesh. Why, then, are you the last to bring back the king?

13 Then say to Amasa; Are you not my bone and my flesh? In this way may Yahweh deal with me, and in this way may He add, if from now on you are not the commander of my army in the place of Yahab.

14 He won over the hearts of all the men of Yahdah, as though they were one man. They sent word to the king; Return, you and all your men.

15 Then the king returned, and came to the Yordan. Yahdah had come to Gilgal to meet the king and escort the king across the Yordan.

16 And Shimei, the son of Gera, the Benyaminite from Bahurim, hurried down with the men of Yahdah to meet King David.

17 A thousand men of Benjamin were with him, along with Ziba, the steward of Shaul's household, and his fifteen sons and twenty servants. They rushed to the Yordan before the king.

18 They crossed at the ford to carry over the king's household, and to do whatever he desired. Shimei son of Gera fell down in front of the king when he had crossed the Yordan.

19 Then he said to the king; May my king not hold me guilty. Do not remember how your servant did wrong on the day my king left Yerusalem. May the king put it out of his thoughts.

20 Because I, your servant, know that I have sinned, but today I have come here as the first of the whole house of Yahseph, to come down and meet my king.

21 But Abishai son of Zeruyah answered, and asked; Should not Shimei be put to death for this, since he cursed Yahweh's anointed?

22 David said; What do you and I have in common, you sons of Zeruyah? This day you have become my adversaries! Should anyone be put to death in Israyl this day? For do I not know that I am king over Israyl this day?

23 Then the king said to Shimei; You shall not die. And the king promised him with a vow.

24 Mephibosheth, the grandson of Shaul, also came down to meet King David. He had not cared for his feet, nor trimmed his mustache, neither washed his clothes, from the day the king left until the day he returned peacefully.

25 When Mephibosheth left Yerusalem to meet the king, the king asked him; Why did you not go with me, Mephibosheth?

26 Mephibosheth answered; O king, my servant betrayed me. Since I, your servant, am lame, I said; I will have my donkey saddled, and will ride on it, so I can go with the king, but this was not done for me.

27 And he has also slandered me, your servant, to the king. The king is like the malak of Yahweh; so do what is right in your eyes.

28 All my grandfather's house were only deserving of death in front of the king, yet you set me, your servant, among those who eat at your own table. So what right do I have to appeal anymore to the king?

29 Then the king said to him; Why speak further? I command you and Ziba to divide the fields.

30 But Mephibosheth said to the king; Rather, let him take it all, since the king has returned peacefully to his own house.

31 Barzillai, the Gileadite also came down from Rogelim to cross the Yordan with the king, and to send him on the way from the Yordan.

32 Barzillai was a very old man, eighty years of age. He had provided the king with supplies during his stay in Mahanaim, for he was a wealthy man.

33 The king said to Barzillai; Cross over with me to Yerusalem, and I will provide for you while you are with me.

34 But Barzillai said to the king; How many more years will I have to live, that I should go with the king to Yerusalem?

35 This day I am eighty years old. Can I tell the difference between the fine and the bad? Can I, your servant, taste what I eat or what I drink? Can I any longer hear the voices of men and women singers? Why should I, your servant, be an added burden to the king?

36 Your servant will cross over the Yordan with the king for part of the way, but why should the king reward me this way?

37 Allow your servant to return, so I may die in my own city, near the graves of my father and mother. But here is your servant Kimham; Long- ing. May he cross over with the king. May you do for him what seems right to you.

38 The king answered; Kimham shall cross over with me, and I will do for him what seems right to you. Now, anything you request of me, I will do it.

39 So all the people crossed the Yordan, and then the king crossed over. Then, the king kissed Barzillai and blessed him, and he returned to his own home.

40 The king crossed on to Gilgal, and Kimham went on with him. All the army of Yahdah had conducted the king over, as well as half the army of Israyl.

41 Then, all the men of Israyl came to the king, and said to him; Why have our brothers, the men of Yahdah, stolen you and brought you, your household, and all David's men across the Yordan?

42 All the men of Yahdah answered the men of Israyl; We did this because the king is near of kin to us. Why, then, are you angry over this matter? Have we eaten any of the king's food? Has he given us any gift?

43 The men of Israyl responded to the men of Yahdah, and said; We have ten shares in the king; therefore, we have a greater right in David than you. Why, then, do you treat us with contempt? Were we not the first to speak of bringing back our king? But the response of the men of Yahdah was harsher than the words of the men of Israyl.

CHAP. 20

There came to be there a man of Belial, a rebel and troublemaker, whose name was Sheba son of Bicri, a Benyaminitie. He sounded with the shofar, and shouted; There is not a share for us in David; not a part for us in the son of Yishai! Each man to his own tent, O Israyl!

2 So every man of Israyl, who had been escorting David, deserted him to follow Sheba son of Bicri. But the men of Yahdah stayed by their king all the way from the Yordan to Yerusalem.

3 David arrived at his house in Yerusalem. Then the king took the ten women, his concubines whom he had left to keep the house, and put them in the house of the guard, and provided for them, but he did not lie with them. They were confined until the day of their death, living in widowhood.

4 Then the king said to Amasa; Gather the men of Yahdah together for me, within three days, and be present here yourself.

5 But when Amasa went to call Yahdah together, he delayed longer than the set time David had appointed.

6 David said to Abishai; Now Sheba son of Bicri will do us more harm than Absalom. Take your ruler's men, and pursue after him, before before he finds fortified cities and escapes us!

7 So Yahab's men, along with all the Cherethites, the Pelethites, and all the mighty warriors—all under command of Abishai, set out from Yerusalem to pursue Sheba son of Bichri.

8 While they were at the great rock in Gibeon, Amasa came to meet them. Yahab was dressed in battle armor, and strapped at his waist was a belt with a dagger in its sheath. As he stepped forward, the dagger fell out of its sheath.

9 Then Yahab said to Amasa: Peace be unto you, my brother. Then Yahab took Amasa by the beard with his right hand, as though to kiss him.

10 But Amasa was not on guard against the dagger in Yahab's hand, and Yahab thrust it into his belly. Amasa's intestines rolled out on the ground, and he was not stabbed twice. In this way Amasa died. Then Yahab and Abishai, his brother, continued the pursuit of Sheba son of Bichri.

11 One of Yahab's men stood by Amasa, and said: He that honors Yahab, and whoever is for David, let him follow Yahab!

12 Amasa was wallowing in blood in the middle of the road, and the man saw that Amasa was stopping all the troops. He dragged Amasa from the road to the field and threw a garment over him, as soon as he realized everyone who came upon him halted.

13 As soon as Amasa was removed from the road, all the men went on after Yahab to pursue Sheba son of Bichri.

14 Sheba crossed through the tribes of Israyl to Abel Beth Maacah, and all of the Berites gathered together and followed after him.

15 Yahab and his troops came and besieged against him in Abel Beth Maacah. They built a siege ramp up to the city, standing against the outer fortified wall; and all the troops with Yahab were battering the wall to bring it down.

16 Then a wise woman called out from the city: Listen to me! Listen to me! Tell Yahab to come here now, so I can speak with him.

17 When he came near her, the woman asked: Are you Yahab? He answered: I am. Then she said to him: Listen to the words of your maidservant. He answered: I am listening.

18 Then she spoke, saying: They used to speak long ago, saying: To receive an answer, ask at Abel; and that would settle a matter.

19 We are peaceful and faithful in Israyl. Yet, you are trying to destroy a mother-city in Israyl. Why would you swallow up an inheritance of Yahweh?

20 Yahab replied, saying: Far be it from me! Yahweh forbid that I should swallow up or destroy!

21 This is not the case! A man from the hill country of Ephraim, Sheba son of Bichri by name, has lifted up his hand against the king—against David. Only hand him to me by himself, and I will withdraw from the city. The woman replied to Yahab: Just watch, his head will be thrown to you over the wall.

22 Then the woman went to all her people with her wise advice and counsel, and they cut off the head of Sheba son of Bichri and threw it to Yahab. Then he sounded with the trumpet: shofar, and withdrew from the city. Each man returned to his own home, and Yahab returned to the king at Yerusalem.

23 Now Yahab commanded the entire army of Israyl; Benayah son of Yahyada was over the Cherethites and Pelethites;

24 Adoram was in charge of forced labor; Yahshaphat son of Ahilud was recorder;

25 Sheva was scribe; Zadok and Abiathar were priests;

26 And also Ira the Yairite was priest to David.

CHAP. 21

There was a famine during the days of David for three years, year after year; so David inquired of Yahweh. Yahweh answered, and said: It is on account of Shaul and the blood upon his house; because he killed the Gibeonites.

2 So the king summoned the Gibeonites and spoke to them. (Now, these Gibeonites were not part of the children of Israyl, but survivors among the Amorites. The children of Israyl had vowed protection to them, but Shaul had sought to completely destroy them in his zeal for the children of Israyl and Yahdah.)

3 David asked the Gibeonites: What shall I do for you? How shall I make amends, and so bless the inheritance of Yahweh?

4 The Gibeonites answered him, and said: Do not give us silver or gold from Shaul or his family, and do not kill any man of Israyl for us. Then David asked: What are you asking that I should do for you?

5 They answered the king, and said: The man who destroyed us, and plotted against us, decimating us so we have no place anywhere in Israyl—

6 Let seven of his male descendants be given to us, and we will hang them in front of Yahweh in Gibeah of Shaul, the chosen of Yahweh. So the king said: I will give them.

7 The king spared Mephibosheth son of Yahnathan, the grandson of Shaul, because of his vow in front of Yahweh between David and Yahnathan son of Shaul:

8 But the king took Armoni and Mephibosheth, the two sons of Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah, whom she bore to Shaul; and the five sons of Merab, the daughter of Shaul, whom she had borne to Adriel son of Barzillai, the Mehola-thite.

9 David gave them into the hands of the Gibeonites, and they hanged them on the hill in front of Yahweh. All seven of them fell together. They were executed during the first days of the harvest, just as the barley harvest was beginning.

10 Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah, took sackcloth, and spread it for herself on the rock. From the beginning of the harvest, until the beginning of the rains pouring on them from heaven, she did not allow the birds of the air to touch them by day, nor the animals of the field by night.

11 When David was informed of what Rizpah daughter of Aiah, the concubine of Shaul, had done;

12 David went, and took the bones of Shaul and his son Yahnathan from the citizens of Yabesh Gilead. (They had secretly taken them from the square at Beth Shan, where the Philistines had hanged them, after they had struck down Shaul on Gilboa.)

13 David brought the bones of Shaul and his son Yahnathan from there, and also gathered the bones of those who had been hanged.

14 They buried the bones of Shaul and Yahnathan his son at Zela in Benyamin, in the tomb of Kish their father. They did everything the king commanded. After that, Yahweh answered the prayers for the land.

15 Again, there was war between the Philistines and Israyl. David and his men with him went down, and fought against the Philistines; and David became exhausted.

16 And Ishbi-Benob, one of the descendants of Rapha, the weight of whose bronze spearhead was three hundred shekels; about 7 1/2 pounds, and who carried a new sword, thought he would kill David.

17 But Abishai son of Zeruyah came to his rescue, and struck and killed the Philistine. Then the men of David vowed to him, saying: Never again will you go out with us to battle, so you may not extinguish the lamp of Israyl.

18 It was after this there was again a battle with the Philistines at Gob. Then Sibbechai the Hushathite killed Saph, one of the descendants of Rapha.

19 At another battle in Gob with the Philistines, Elhanan son of Yair Oregim (Yair the weaver) from Bethlehem, killed Lahmi the brother of Goliath the Gittite, who had a spear with a shaft like a weaver's beam.

20 At another battle in Gath, there was a gigantic man with six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot; twenty-four in number. He also was descended from Rapha.

21 When he taunted and defied Israyl, Yahnathan son of Shammah, the brother of David, killed him.

22 These four were descendants of Rapha in Gath, and they fell by the hands of David, and by the hands of his men.

CHAP. 22

David spoke to Yahweh the words of this song, on the day that Yahweh saved him from the power of all his enemies, and from the power of Shaul.

2 He said: Yahweh is my Rock, my Fortress and my Deliverer;

3 Yahweh is my Rock; in Him will I trust: He is my Shield, and the Horn; strength, of my salvation, my Stronghold, and my Refuge, my Savior; You save me from violent men.

4 I call to Yahweh, Who is worthy to be praised, and I am saved from my enemies.

5 The waves of death compassed me, the floods of Belial; unholy men; destruction, make me afraid.

6 The noose of sheol; the grave, coiled around me; the traps of death confronted me.

7 In my distress I called to Yahweh; I called out to my Father. He heard my voice from His sanctuary, and my cry came to His ears.

8 Then the earth quaked and trembled, the foundations of the heavens shook; they trembled because He was angry.

9 Smoke rose from His nostrils, and consuming fire came from His mouth; coals were kindled by it.

10 He parted the heavens, and came down; and a dark cloud was under His feet.

11 He mounted a cherub and flew; He appeared upon the wings of the wind.

12 He made darkness His canopy around him—the massed rain clouds of the sky.

13 From the brightness of His Presence, bolts of lightning blazed.

14 He thundered from the heavens; the voice of Yahweh Most High resounded.

15 He sent out arrows, and scattered them; with lightning bolts He routed them.

16 The channels of the sea were exposed; the foundations of the world were uncovered—at the rebuke of Yahweh, at the blast of breath from His nostrils.

17 He sent from above. He took me. He drew me out of many waters.

18 He saved me from my powerful enemy, from my foes who hated me; because they were too strong for me.

19 They confronted me in the day of my destruction, but Yahweh was my support.

20 He brought me out into a spacious place; He delivered me, because He delighted in me.

21 Yahweh has dealt with me according to my righteousness; according to the cleanness of my hands, He has rewarded me.

22 Because I have kept the ways of Yahweh; I have not done wickedness, by turning from my Father.

23 Truly, all of His judgments; laws are in front of me; and I have not departed from His statutes.

24 I have been blameless in front of Him, and have kept myself from sin.

25 Yahweh has rewarded me according to my righteousness; according to the cleanness of my hands in His eyes.

26 To the merciful You will show Yourself merciful; to the blameless You show Yourself blameless.

27 To the pure you show Yourself pure, but to the devious You show Yourself shrewd.

28 You will save the humble people; but Your eyes are on the haughty, so You may bring them down.

29 You are my lamp, O Yahweh! Yahweh shall enlighten my darkness.

30 For by You I can run against a troop; by my Father I can leap over a wall.

31 Yahweh, His way is perfect; the word of Yahweh is without flaw. He is a shield to all those who take refuge and trust in Him.

32 For who is the Father besides Yahweh? And who is a rock, except our Father?

33 It is Yahweh Who is my strong refuge, and He makes my way perfect.

34 He makes my feet like the feet of a deer; and on my heights He makes me stand.

35 He trains my hands to make war, so my arms can bend a bow of bronze.

36 You have also given me the shield of Your salvation, and Your gentleness has made me great.

37 You broaden the path beneath me, so my feet do not turn.

38 I pursued my enemies and destroyed them; neither did I turn back until they were destroyed.

39 I destroyed them and I crushed them, so they could rise no more; they fell beneath my feet.

40 You armed me with strength for battle; You subdued under me those who rose against me.

41 You have given me the necks of my enemies, so I destroyed those who hated me.

42 They cried for help—but there was no one to save them. They cried to Yahweh—but He did not answer.

43 I beat them as fine as the dust of the earth; like the mud of the streets I trod and trampled them.

44 You have delivered me from the contentions of my people; You have kept me as the head of the Gentiles. A people I have not known shall serve me.

45 Foreigners submit to me; as soon as they hear; they obey me.

46 The sons of foreigners lose heart; they arm themselves from their strongholds.

47 Yahweh lives! Blessed be my Rock! May Yahweh be exalted. The Rock of my salvation!

48 It is Yahweh Who avenges me; Who subdues the people under me;

49 Who saves me from my enemies. You also lift me above those who rise against me; You have delivered me from the violent man.

50 Therefore, I will praise You, O Yahweh, among the Gentiles; I will sing praises to Your Name!

51 He is the tower of salvation to His king, and shows kindness; chesed to His anointed—to David, and to his descendants forever.

CHAP. 23

These are the last words of David—David son of Yishai, the man exalted above, the anointed of the Father of Yaaqob, the singer of psalms in Israyl—

2 The Spirit of Yahweh spoke through me, and His word was on my tongue.

3 The Father of Israyl spoke, The Rock of Israyl spoke to me, and said: The one who rules over men must rule with righteousness, ruling in the reverence of Yahweh.

4 Then he is like the light of morning at sunrise, as the sun on a morning without clouds, like the brightness after rain that brings the grass from the earth.

5 Truly, is not my house right with Yahweh? Truly, an everlasting covenant He made with me; arranged and secured in every part. Truly, all my salvation and my every desire, will He not truly bring it to pass?

6 But the sons of Belial; rebellion and evil, are all to be cast aside like thorns, which are not gathered with the hand.

7 Whoever touches them uses an iron shaft or a spear; and they are to be burned with fire where they lie.

8 These are the names of the mighty men of David: Yashobam the Hachmonite (Yosheb-Basshebeth; One Who Sits in the Seat) was chief of the captains. He was called Adino the Eznite, because he had killed eight hundred men at one time.

9 Next to him was Eleazar son of Dodai the Ahohite. As one of the three mighty men, he was with David when they defied the Philistines gathered at Pas Dammim for battle, and the men of Israyl had retreated;

10 But he stood and killed the Philistines until his hand cramped and his sword became frozen in his grip. Yahweh brought about a great victory that day, but the troops only returned to plunder the dead.

11 And after Eleazar was Shammah son of Agee the Hararite. The Philistines had gathered together in a band at a place where there was a field full of lentils. There, Israyl's troops fled from the Philistines:

12 But Shammah positioned himself in the middle of the field, defended it, and killed the Philistines. And Yahweh brought about a great victory.

13 Three of the thirty chief men went down at harvest time to David at the cave of Adullam, while a troop of Philistines was encamped in the Valley of Rephaim.

14 At that time David was in the stronghold, and the Philistine garrison was at Bethlehem.

15 And David said with longing: Oh, that someone would give me a drink of water from the well by the gate in Bethlehem!

16 So, the three mighty men broke through the Philistine lines, drew water from the well near the gate in Bethlehem, and carried it back to David. Nevertheless, he would not drink it. Instead, he poured it out to Yahweh.

17 He said: Far be it from me, O Yahweh, that I would do this! Is this not the blood of the men who went in at the risk of their lives? So David would not drink it. These exploits were done by the three mighty men.

18 Abishai, the brother of Yahab, son of Zeruyah was chief of another three. He lifted his spear against three hundred men, and killed them, and won a name among these three.

19 Was he not the most honored of three? Therefore, he became their captain, even though he was not counted among the first three.

20 Benayah was the son of Yahyada, the son of a valiant fighter from Kabzeel, who had done many exploits. He killed two of Moab's best men. He also went down and killed a lion in the middle of a pit on a snowy day.

21 He killed an Egyptian: a huge man. The Egyptian had a spear in his hand, but Benayah went down to him with a club. He wrested the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and killed him with his own spear.

22 Benayah son of Yahyada did these exploits, and won a name among three mighty men.

23 He was more honored than the thirty, but he did not attain to the first three. And David placed him in charge of his bodyguard.

24 Asahel brother of Yahab was one of the thirty: Elhanan son of Dodo from Bethlehem.

25 Shammah the Harodite, Elika the Harodite.

26 Helez the Paltite, Ira son of Ikkesh from Tekoa.

27 Abiezer from Anathoth, Mebunnai the Hushathite.

28 Zalmon the Ahohite, Maharai the Netophathite.

29 Heleb son of Baanah the Netophathite, Ithai son of Ribai from Gibeah of Benyamin.

30 Benayah the Pirathonite, Hiddai from the brooks of Gaash.

31 Abi Albon the Arbathite, Azmaveth the Barhumite.

32 Eliabha the Shaalbonite (of the sons of Yashen), Yahnathan.

33 Shammah the Hararite, Ahiam son of Sharar the Hararite.

34 Eliphelet son of Ahasbai the Maacathite, Eliam son of Ahithophel the Gilonite,

35 Hezro the Carmelite, Paarai the Arbite,

36 Igal son of Nathan from Zobah, son of Haggadi.

37 Zelek the Ammonite, Naharai the Beerothite, the armor-bearer of Yahab son of Zeruyah.

38 Ira the Ithrite, Gareb the Ithrite.

39 And Uriyah the Hittite. There were thirty-seven in all.

CHAP. 24

Again the anger of Yahweh burned against Israyl, and he incited David against them, to say: Go, number Israyl and Yahdah.

2 So the king ordered Yahab, the commander of the army, who was with him: Go throughout the tribes of Israyl, from Dan to Beersheba, and count the fighting men, so I may know exactly how many there are.

3 But Yahab said to the king: May Yahweh your Father multiply the army a hundred times over, and may the eyes of my king see it. But why does my ruler the king desire to do this thing?

4 Nevertheless, the king's word prevailed over Yahab and over the captains of the army. So Yahab and the captain of the army went out from the presence of the king to count the fighting men of Israyl.

5 After crossing the Yordan, they camped near Aroer, south of the city in the ravine, and then went through Gad, and on to Yazer.

6 Then they went to Gilead and to the region of Tahtim Hodshi, and on to Dan Yaan and around to Sidon.

7 Then they they went toward the fortress of Tyre and to all the cities of the Hivites and Canaanites. They finally went on to Beersheba of Yahdah, in the Negev.

8 When they had gone throughout all the land, they returned to Yerusalem at the end of nine moons and twenty days.

9 Then Yahab reported the total number of fighting men to the king. In Israyl there were 800,000 valiant men who handled the sword, and in Yahdah there were 500,000.

10 Then David's conscience condemned him after he had numbered the fighting men, so David confessed to Yahweh: I have sinned greatly in what I have done. Now, O Yahweh, I pray, take away the guilt of your servant, for I have acted foolishly.

11 By the time David arose in the morning, the word of Yahweh had come to the prophet Gad, David's seer, saying:

12 Go and tell David; This is what Yahweh says: I offer you three choices; choose one of these for yourself, so I may carry it out against you.

13 So Gad went to David, and said to him; Shall there come upon you seven years of famine in your land? Shall there be three moons of running from your enemies while they pursue you? Or shall there be three days of plague in your land? Now consider and decide how I should answer the One Who sent me.

14 David said to Gad; I am in great distress. Let us fall into the hands of Yahweh, because His mercy is great; but do not let me fall into the hands of men!

15 So Yahweh sent a plague upon Israyl from morning until the appointed time. From Dan to Beersheba 70,000 men of the people died.

16 When the malak stretched out his hand to destroy Yerusalem, Yahweh relented from the destruction, and said to the malak who was destroying the people; It is enough! Withdraw your hand! The malak of Yahweh was then at the threshing floor of Araunah the Yebusite.

17 When David saw the malak who was destroying the people, he spoke to Yahweh, and said; Surely I am the one who has sinned, and done this evil. But these sheep, what have they done? Let Your hand, I pray, be against me and against my father's house.

18 Gad came to David that day, and said to him; Go up and build an altar to Yahweh on the threshing floor of Araunah the Yebusite.

19 So David went up, just as Yahweh had commanded through Gad.

20 When Araunah looked up and saw the king and his men coming toward him, he went out and bowed in front of the king with his face to the ground.

21 Then Araunah asked; Why has my ruler the king come to his servant? David replied; To buy the threshing floor from you, to build an altar to Yahweh, so the plague on the people may be stopped.

22 Araunah said to David; Let my ruler the king take and offer up whatever seems right to him. Here are oxen for the burnt offerings, and here are threshing sledges and ox yokes for wood.

23 All these, O king, Araunah gives to the king. Then Araunah said to the king; May Yahweh your Father accept you.

24 Then the king said to Araunah; No, but I will surely buy it from you for a price, nor will I sacrifice burnt offerings to Yahweh my Father which cost me nothing. So David bought the threshing floor and the oxen for fifty shekels; about 1 1/4 pounds, of silver.

25 David built an altar there to Yahweh, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. So Yahweh listened to the prayers on behalf of the land, and the plague upon Israyl was stopped.

I KINGS

SEFER MELAKIM Book of Kings

And King David became old, advanced in years. When they covered him with garments, he still could not get warm:

2 So his attendants said to him: Let us look for a young virgin for our ruler the king. Let her attend him and take care of him. She can lie at your side so that our ruler the king may keep warm.

3 So they searched for a lovely young woman throughout all the territory of Israyl, and found Abishag the Shunammite, and brought her to the king.

4 The young woman was very beautiful; and she cared for the king, and waited on him; but the king did not have intimate relations with her.

5 Now Adoniyah, the son of Haggith, elevated his own position, and said: I will be king. Then he readied chariots and charioteers, with fifty men to run in front of him.

6 (Now his father had not interfered with him at any time, by saying: Why have you done this? He was also very handsome, and his mother bore him in succession after Absalom.)

7 Then he consulted with Yahab son of Zeruyah and with Abiathar the priest; and they followed him and gave Adoniyah their support.

8 But Zadok the priest, Benayah son of Yahyadah, Nathan the prophet, Shimei, Rei, and the valiant men serving David did not give Adoniyah their support.

9 Adoniyah sacrificed sheep, oxen, and fattened calves at the Stone of Zoheleth, which was near En Rogel. He also invited all his brothers—the king's sons, and all the men of Yahdah—the king's officials:

10 But he did not invite Nathan the prophet, Benayah, the valiant men, nor Solomon (Yedidiah: Loved By Yahweh) his brother.

11 So Nathan spoke to Bathsheba, the mother of Solomon, asking: Have you not heard that Adoniyah, the son of Haggith, has become king, and David our king knows nothing of it?

12 Now therefore, let me advise and counsel you, so you may save your own life and the life of Solomon your son.

13 Immediately go to King David, and say to him; O my king, Did you not vow to your maidservant, saying: Surely Solomon your son shall be king after me, and he will sit upon my throne? Why, then, has Adoniyah become king?

14 Then, while you are still there speaking with the king, I will come in after you and affirm your words.

15 So Bathsheba went to the king, into his room. (Now, the king was very old, and Abishag the Shunammite was attending the king.)

16 Bathsheba bowed and paid homage to the king. Then the king asked: What is it you want?

17 She said to him: My ruler, you vowed by Yahweh your Father to your maidservant: Surely Solomon your son shall be king after me, and he will sit upon my throne.

18 But now, behold! Adoniyah has become king, and you, my king, know nothing about it.

19 He has sacrificed oxen, fattened calves, and sheep in great numbers, and has invited all the king's sons, Abiathar the priest, and Yahab the commander of your army. But Solomon, your servant, he has not invited.

20 My king, the eyes of all Israyl are upon you, to be informed by you who will sit upon the throne of my king after you.

21 Otherwise, as soon as my king rests with his fathers, then I and my son will be accounted guilty as criminals.

22 While she was still speaking with the king, Nathan the prophet came in.

23 They informed the king, saying: Nathan the prophet has arrived. When he came before the king, he bowed down in front of the king with his face to the ground.

24 Nathan said: My ruler, O king, have you announced: Adoniyah shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne?

25 For he has gone down this day and sacrificed great numbers of oxen, fattened calves, and sheep. He has also invited all the king's sons, the captains of the army, and Abiathar the priest. At this moment they are eating and drinking with him, and are proclaiming: Long Live King Adoniyah!

26 However, he has not invited me, your servant, nor Zadok the priest, nor Benayah son of Yahyada, nor your servant Solomon.

27 Has this thing been done by my ruler, the king, and he has not let his own attendants know who should sit upon the throne of my king after him?

28 Then King David responded, and said: Call in Bathsheba! So she came into the king's presence and stood before the king.

29 Then the king took an oath, and said: As surely as Yahweh lives, Who has redeemed my life out of every trouble;

30 And just as I vowed to you by Yahweh Father of Israyl, saying: Surely Solomon your son shall be king after me, and he shall sit upon my throne in my stead—I will certainly carry this out this day!

31 Then Bathsheba bowed with her face to the ground, and paid homage to the king, and said: May my ruler, King David, live forever!

32 Then King David said: Summon Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, and Benayah son of Yahyada; and they came in before the king.

33 The king also instructed them: Take your ruler's servants with you, and set Solomon my son on my own mule, and take him down to Gihon.

34 There, let Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet anoint him king over Israyl. Blow the shofar; ram's horn, and say: Long live King Solomon!

35 Then, you are to escort him up, and he is to come and sit upon my throne, and be king in my place; because I have appointed him to be ruler over Israyl and Yahdah.

36 Benayah son of Yahyada answered the king, and said: So be it! May Yahweh, the Father of my ruler the king, also say; So be it!

37 Just as Yahweh has been with my ruler the king, may He be with Solomon, and may He make his throne greater than the throne of my ruler, King David.

38 So Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, Benayah the son of Yahyada, the Cherethites, and the Pelethites put Solomon on King David's mule, and took him down to Gihon.

39 Then Zadok the priest took a horn of oil from the tabernacle and anointed Solomon. They blew the shofar, and all the people exclaimed: Long live King Solomon!

40 And all the people went up after him. The people played on flutes and rejoiced with great joy, so that the ground shook with the sound.

41 Adoniyah and all the guests with him heard the sounds just as they finished eating. When Yahab heard the sound of the shofar, he asked: What is the meaning of the sounding in the city?

42 While he was still speaking, Yahnathan son of Abiathar the priest arrived. Adoniyah said to him: Enter, for you are a valiant man, and bring glad tidings.

43 But Yahnathan answered, and said to Adoniyah: No! Our ruler, King David, has made Solomon king.

44 The king has sent with him Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, Benayah son of Yahyada, the Cherethites, and the Pelethites; and they have put him on the king's mule.

45 Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet have anointed him king at Gihon, and they have set out from there rejoicing. The city resounds with their cheering. This is the noise you have heard.

46 Also, Solomon has taken his seat upon the throne of the kingdom.

47 And the king's attendants have gone to extend congratulations to King David, saying: May Yahweh make the name of Solomon better than your name, and may He make his throne greater than your throne; and the king bows in his bed.

48 The king also says this: Praise be to Yahweh, the Father of Israyl, Who has given a successor to my throne this day, and has allowed me to see it.

49 Then, all the guests with Adoniyah were afraid. They rose in alarm, and every man went his own way.

50 Now Adoniyah was afraid of Solomon; so he rose up, went, and took hold of the horns of the altar.

51 Solomon was informed of this, saying: Adoniyah is afraid of King Solomon, because he has taken hold of the horns of the altar, and says: Let King Solomon vow to me this day that he will not put his servant to death with the sword.

52 Then Solomon replied: If he proves himself to be a worthy man, not one hair of his head shall fall to the ground. But, if wickedness is found in him, he shall die.

53 Then King Solomon sent men to bring him down from the altar. Adoniyah came and fell down in front of King Solomon; and Solomon said to him: Go to your own home.

CHAP. 2

The time drew near that David should die, and he gave Solomon his son a charge, saying:

2 I am about to go the way of all the earth; so be strong, and prove yourself to be a man.

3 Also, keep the charge of Yahweh your Father—walk in His ways, keep His statutes, His commandments, His judgments, and His testimonies, just as it is written in the Law Yahweh gave through Mosheh, so you may increase in all that you do, and wherever you may go;

4 And so Yahweh may keep His promise concerning me, saying: If your descendants take heed of, and watch, their way—to walk in front of Me in truth with all their heart and with all their soul, you will never fail to have a man on the throne of Israyl.

5 Moreover, you yourself know what Yahab, the son of Zeruyah, did to me—what he did to the two commanders of the armies of Israyl; to Abner son of Ner and Amasa son of Yether. He killed them, and shed the blood of warfare in times of peace. With that same blood, he stained the belt around his waist and the sandals on his feet.

6 Therefore, deal with him according to your wisdom, but do not allow his gray head to go to his grave in peace!

7 However, show kindness; chesed, to the sons of Barzillai the Gileadite, and let them be among those who eat at your table, because they stood with me when I fled from Absalom your brother.

8 And remember, you have with you Shimei son of Gera, that Benyaminite from Bahurim, who called down bitter curses upon me in the day I went to Mahanaim. When he came down to meet me at the Yordan, I vowed to him by Yahweh; I will not put you to death by the sword.

9 But, do not account him innocent! You are a wise man and know what you are to do to him; bring down his gray head to his grave, but without blood on your own hands.

10 Then David rested with his fathers, and was buried in the City of David.

11 David reigned over Israyl forty years; seven years he reigned in Hebron, and in Yerusalem he reigned thirty-three years.

12 So Solomon sat on the throne of his father David; and his kingdom was firmly established.

13 Now Adoniyah, the son of Haggith, went to Bathsheba, Solomon's mother. She asked him: Do you come in peace? He answered her; I come in peace.

14 Then he said: May I have a word with you? And she replied; You may speak.

15 Then he said: As you know, the kingdom was mine, and all Israyl had expected me to reign over them. However, this changed, and the kingdom has gone to my brother; because it has come to him from Yahweh.

16 Now, I ask one request of you. Do not refuse me. She said to him; You may ask.

17 He continued; Please ask King Solomon—because he will not refuse you—to give me Abishag the Shunammite as my wife.

18 Bathsheba replied; Very well, I will speak to the king on your behalf.

19 So Bathsheba went to King Solomon, to speak to him on behalf of Adoniyah. The king rose up to meet her, bowed down to her, then sat down on his throne. He had a throne brought for the king's mother, and she sat at his right hand.

20 Then she said; I have one request to make of you. Do not refuse me. The king said to her; Ask, my mother, for I will not refuse you.

21 So she said; Let Abishag the Shunammite be given to Adoniyah your brother as a wife.

22 King Solomon answered, and said to his mother; Why do you request Abishag the Shunammite for Adoniyah? Why not request the kingdom for him also! For he is my older brother—for him, and for Abiathar the priest, and for Yahab son of Zeruyah!

23 Then King Solomon vowed by Yahweh, saying; In this way may Yahweh do to me, and in this way may He add, if Adoniyah does not pay with his life for this request!

24 Now, just as surely as Yahweh lives, Who has established me and set me on the throne of David my father, and Who has founded my house, just as He promised—Adoniyah shall be put to death this day!

25 So King Solomon gave the command to Benayah son of Yahyada; and he struck Adoniyah down, and he died.

26 To Abiathar the priest, the king said; Go back to the fields in your city of Anathoth. You are worthy of death, but I will not sentence you to death at this time; because you carried the ark of Yahweh in front of my father David, and because you suffered every time my father suffered.

27 Solomon ● removed Abiathar from the priesthood of Yahweh—and so fulfilled the word of Yahweh which He spoke against the house of Eli at Shiloh.

28 Then this news came to Yahab. (Yahab had conspired with Adoniyah, though he had not conspired with Absalom.) So Yahab retreated to the tabernacle of Yahweh, and took hold of the horns of the altar.

29 King Solomon was informed; Yahab has retreated to the tabernacle of Yahweh. He is there, by the altar. Then Solomon commanded Benayah son of Yahyada, saying; Go, strike him down!

30 So Benayah went to the tabernacle of Yahweh, and said to him; This is what the king says: Come out! Yahab replied; No, I will die here! So Benayah brought word back to the king, and said; This is what Yahab said, and this is how he answered me.

31 Then the king instructed Benayah; Do just as he says! Strike him down and bury him, and so clear me and the house of my father of the guilt of the innocent blood Yahab has shed!

32 May Yahweh return his blood upon his own head! He attacked two men more righteous and better than he, and killed them with the sword: Abner son of Ner, the commander of the army of Israyl, and Amasa son of Yether, the commander of the army of Yahdah—though my father had no knowledge of it.

33 May their blood rest upon the head of Yahab and upon the heads of his descendants forever! But upon David and his descendants, upon his house and his throne—may there be peace from Yahweh forever!

34 So Benayah son of Yahyada went, attacked, and killed Yahab. He was buried in his own tomb in the wilderness.

35 The king placed Benayah son of Yahyada in Yahab's office: as commander over the army. The king placed Zadok the priest in the office of Abiathar.

36 Then the king ordered Shimei to be summoned, and he said to him: Build yourself a house in Jerusalem and live there, but do not leave there to go anywhere else.

37 On the day you set out and cross over the Kidron Valley, know for sure you will certainly die. Your blood shall be upon your own head!

38 Shimei said to the king: Your words are right. Just as my ruler the king has said, is just as your servant will do. So Shimei stayed in Jerusalem a long time.

39 But, at the end of three years two slaves belonging to Shimei ran away to Achish son of Maachah, the king of Gath. Shimei was informed of this, saying: See, your slaves are in Gath.

40 So Shimei rose up, saddled his donkey, and set out to Achish at Gath to look for his slaves. So Shimei left and brought his slaves back from Gath.

41 Solomon was informed that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath and had returned.

42 Then the king ordered Shimei to be summoned, and said to him: Did I not make you vow by Yahweh, and warn you, saying: Know for certain that on the day you set out and go anywhere else, you shall surely die? Then you said to me: Your words are right; I will obey.

43 Why, then, have you not kept your oath to Yahweh, and the command that I gave you?

44 The king also said to Shimei: You know in your heart: the seat of intelligence, all the evil you did to my father David. Now, may Yahweh repay your evil-doing upon your own head!

45 But may King Solomon be blessed, and may the throne of David be established in front of Yahweh forever!

46 So the king gave command to Benayah son of Yahyada, and he went out and struck Shimei down, and he died. Now the kingdom was established in the hands of Solomon.

Normally Solomon would not have succeeded to the throne. The next in line after Abshalom was Adonijah, who, however, acted prematurely in his bid to become king. He had provided himself with the proper accoutrements for a crown prince (I Kings 1:5-8) and had won the support of two of the most powerful officials in his father's kingdom—Yahab, the commander of the army and Abiathar, the priest who had been with the king since his outlaw days. However, Yahweh's plans are not always mankind's plans, so by Solomon's virtually single stroke, all usurpers to his office were removed, rendering his position secure; the kingdom firmly established in his hands.

CHAP. 3

Solomon made a coalition pact with Pharaoh king of Egypt, and married the daughter of Pharaoh. He brought her to the City of David until he had finished building his own house. The House of Yahweh, and the wall all around Yerusalem.

2 However, the people were sacrificing on the high places, because there was no House built for the Name of Yahweh until those days.

3 Solomon showed his love for Yahweh by walking in the statutes of David his father, with the exception that he sacrificed and burned incense on the high places.

4 The king went to Gibeon to sacrifice there, because that was the great high place; and Solomon sacrificed a thousand burnt offerings on the altar there.

5 At Gibeon Yahweh appeared to Solomon in a dream during the night. Yahweh said: Ask for whatever you want Me to give to you.

6 Solomon replied: You have shown great kindness: chesed, to my father David, because he walked in front of You in truth, in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart with You. You have continued this great kindness: chesed, to him, and You have given him a son to sit upon his throne, as it is this day.

7 Now, O Yahweh my Father, You have made Your servant king in the place of my father David, but I am like a little child; not knowing how to discharge my duties.

8 Your servant is here among the people You have chosen; a great people—too numerous to be numbered or counted.

9 So therefore, give Your servant an understanding and discerning heart to judge Your people, so I might distinguish between right and wrong. Because you is able to judge this great people of Yours?

10 This response pleased Yahweh; that Solomon had asked this thing.

11 So Yahweh said to him: Because you have asked for this—and have not asked for long life, nor have asked for riches for yourself, nor have asked for the lives of your enemies—but have requested understanding and discernment to administer justice.

12 I will do as you have requested! Behold, I will give you a wise and discerning heart, so there will not be anyone like you before you, nor shall there be anyone like you after you.

13 Moreover, that which you have not asked for, I will give to you: both wealth and honor, so there will not be your equal among the kings in your lifetime.

14 And, if you walk in My ways, to keep My statutes and My commandments, just as your father David walked, then I will give you a long life.

15 Then Solomon awoke and realized it was a dream; but he returned to Yerusalem and stood in front of the ark of the covenant of Yahweh—there he sacrificed burnt offerings and peace offerings, and gave a feast for all his officials.

16 Now two women, who were prostitutes, came to the king and stood in front of him.

17 One of the women said; O my ruler, this woman and I live in the same house. I gave birth while she was in this house.

18 The third day after I had given birth, this woman also gave birth. We were alone; there was no one in the house but the two of us.

19 This woman's son died during the night, because she lay on him.

20 So she got up in the middle of the night and took my son from my side, while your maidservant slept. She laid him by her side, and she laid her dead child by my side.

21 When I got up in the morning to nurse my son, there he was—dead! But when I had looked at him closely in the morning light, I realized this was not the son whom I had borne.

22 Then the other woman said; No! The living one is my son, and the dead one is your son! But the first woman said; No! The dead one is your son, and the living one is my son! In this way they spoke in front of the king.

23 The king said; One of you says: This is my son, who lives, and it is your son who is dead. The other one says: No! Your son is the dead one, and my son is the living one.

24 Then the king said; Bring me a sword! So a sword was brought before the king.

25 The king gave this command: Divide the living baby in two, and give half to one, and half to the other.

26 Then the woman whose son was living spoke to the king, because she was filled with compassion for her son, and said; O my ruler, give her the living baby! Please do not kill him! But the other woman whose son had died during the night said; Let him be neither mine nor yours—divide him in half!

27 The king responded, and said; Give the first woman the living baby. Do not kill him, because she is his mother.

28 All Israyl then heard the judgment the king had rendered; and they held the king in awe, because they perceived the wisdom of Yahweh was in him to administer justice.

CHAP. 4

So King Solomon reigned over all Israyl.

2 And these were the presiding officials who served under him: Azaryah son of Zadok, the High Priest;

3 Elihoreph and Ahiyah sons of Shisha, the scribes; Yahshapha son of Ahilud, the recorder;

4 Benayah son of Yahyada, the commander in chief over the army; Zadok and Abiathar, the priests;

5 Azaryah son of Nathan, over the officers; Zabud son of Nathan, a priest and personal adviser to the king;

6 Ahishar, in charge of the king's household; and Adoniram son of Abda, in charge of forced labor.

7 Solomon had twelve district governors over all Israyl who provided food supplies for the king and the king's household. Each one had to provide supplies for one moon of the year.

8 These are their names: Ben-Hur in the hill country of Ephraim;

9 Ben-Deker, in Makaz, Shaalbim, Beth Shemesh, and Elon Beth Hanan;

10 Ben-Chesed, in Arubboth (Socoh and all the land of Hephher were his);

11 Ben-Abinadab, in Naphoth Dor: The Heights of Dor, (he was married to Taphath, the daughter of Solomon);

12 Baana son of Ahilud, in Taanach and Megiddo, and in all of Beth Shean next to Zarethan below Yezreel, from Beth Shean to Abel Meholah, across to the other side of Yokneam

13 Ben-Geber, in Ramoth Gilead (the villages of Yair son of Menasheh in Gilead were his, as well as the region of Argob in Bashan with its sixty large walled cities with bronze gate bars);

14 Ahinadab son of Iddo, in Mahanaim;

15 Ahimaaz, in Naphtali (he was married to Basemath, the daughter of Solomon);

16 Baanah son of Hushai, in Asher and in Aloth;

17 Yahshaphat son of Paruah, in Issachar;

18 Shimei son of Elah, in Benyamin;

19 Geber son of Uri, in Gilead (the country of Sihon king of the Amorites, and the country of Og king of Bashan). He was the only governor in that land.

20 Yahdah and Israyl were as numerous as the sand on the seashore for multitude. They ate, they drank, and they were joyous.

21 Solomon reigned over all the kingdoms from the River Euphrates to the land of the Philistines, as far as the border of Egypt. These kingdoms brought tribute and were subject to Solomon all the days of his life.

22 Solomon's provision for one day was thirty cors; probably about 185 bushels, of fine flour, sixty cors; probably about 375 bushels, of meal,

23 Ten stall-raised cattle, twenty pasture-raised cattle, and one hundred sheep, as well as deer, gazelles, roebucks, and choice fowl.

24 He ruled over all the kingdoms west of the River Euphrates, from Tiphisah to Gaza, and he had peace on every border all around him.

25 Yahdah and Israyl lived in safety, each man under his own vine and fig tree, from Dan to as far as Beersheba, during Solomon's lifetime.

26 Solomon had four thousand stalls of chariot horses, and twelve thousand charioteers.

27 The district governors, each man in his assigned moon, supplied food for King Solomon and all who came to King Solomon's table. Each moon there was lack of nothing.

28 They also brought a quota of barley and straw to the proper place, for the chariot horses and the other horses.

29 Yahweh gave Solomon wisdom, exceedingly great insight, and a breadth of understanding as infinite as the sands upon the seashore.

30 The wisdom of Solomon surpassed the wisdom of all the men of the East, and all the wisdom of Egypt.

31 He was wiser than all other men, including Ethan the Ezrahite, and Heman, Calcol, and Darda, the sons of Mahol. And his fame spread to all the surrounding nations.

32 He spoke three thousand proverbs, and his songs numbered a thousand and five.

33 He described the trees, from the cedar tree of Lebanon to the hyssop that grows out of the walls. He also instructed about animals, birds, creeping things, and fish.

34 Men of all nations, who had been sent by all the kings of the earth who had heard of his wisdom, came to listen to the wisdom of Solomon.

CHAP. 5

Hiram king of Tyre sent his ambassadors to Solomon, because he heard they had anointed him king in the place of his father, and Hiram had always been friends with David.

2 Solomon sent this message back to Hiram, and said:

3 You know that my father David could not build a House for the Name of Yahweh his Father because of the wars waged against him from all sides, until Yahweh put his enemies under his feet.

4 But now, Yahweh my Father has given me rest on every side; there is no adversary, nor a disaster.

5 Now, I intend to build a House for the Name of Yahweh my Father, just as Yahweh told my father David, saying: Your son, whom I will set on the throne in your place, will build the House for My Name.

6 Therefore, give command that they cut down cedars for me from Lebanon. My subjects will work with your subjects, and I will pay you wages for your subjects at the price you set. You know there is none among us who has the skill to cut timber like the Sidonians.

7 When Hiram heard the message Solomon sent, he was exceedingly pleased, and said: Praise be to Yahweh this day, because He has given David a wise son to rule over this great people.

8 Then Hiram sent a message to Solomon, and said: I have received your message, and I will perform your request to provide you with cedar and pine logs.

9 My men will haul them down from Lebanon to the sea, and I will float them in rafts by sea to the place you indicate to me. I will discharge them there and you can take them away. You may grant my request by providing food for my household.

10 So Hiram supplied all the cedar and pine logs Solomon wanted.

11 And Solomon provided Hiram with 20,000 cors: probably about 125,000 bushels, of wheat as food for his household, and 20,000 baths: probably about 115,000 gallons, of pressed olive oil. Solomon provided this to Hiram year after year.

12 Yahweh gave Solomon wisdom, just as He had promised him, and there was peace between Hiram and Solomon, and the two of them made a treaty agreement together.

13 King Solomon levied a tax on all Israyl in the form of forced labor; and the labor force consisted of 30,000 men.

14 He sent them off to Lebanon in shifts of 10,000 every moon: they worked one moon in Lebanon and spent two moons at home. Adoniram was in charge of the forced labor.

15 Solomon had 70,000 porters who carried burdens, and 80,000 stonemasons who quarried in the hills.

16 As well as 3,600 foremen who supervised the project and the men who labored in the work.

17 The king commanded them to quarry large blocks of quality, dressed stones in order to set the foundation of the House.

18 Solomon's craftsmen, Hiram's craftsmen, and the craftsmen from Gebal: Byblos, cut and prepared the timber and stones to build The House of Yahweh.

THE HOUSE OF YAHWEH Solomon built is most commonly known as the First Temple. Before its establishment as a SYMBOL of the OFFICIAL STATE RELIGION of the WORSHIP OF YAHWEH, there were smaller, local sanctuaries at various other locations. King David had hoped to build the permanent House for Yahweh's Name (II Samuel Chapter 7), but was not permitted to do so. However, Yahweh did promise him that his own son would build this House, and David did go as far as collecting a considerable amount of building material, artisans, and money for the project (I Chronicles 22:2-16). THE HOUSE OF YAHWEH was constructed on the site where David purchased a threshing floor from Araunah the Jebusite in order to build an altar to Yahweh (II Samuel 24:16-25).

CHAP. 6

In the four hundred and eightieth year after the children of Israyl had come out of the land of Egypt, in the fourth year of Solomon's reign over Israyl, in the moon Ziv; the second moon of the year—he began to build The House of Yahweh.

2 The House that King Solomon built for Yahweh was sixty cubits: about 90 feet, long, twenty cubits: about 30 feet, wide, and thirty cubits: about 45 feet, high.

3 And the porch in front of The House of Yahweh extended the width of the house, that is, twenty cubits: about 30 feet, and projected ten cubits: about 15 feet, from the front of the House.

4 And for the House he made narrow beveled windows for slits of light.

5 Against the walls of the House; against the Holy Place and the Most Holy Place, he built a structure around the building, in which there were side rooms.

6 The first floor was five cubits: about 7 1/2 feet, wide, the second floor was six cubits: about 9 feet, wide, and the third floor was seven cubits: about 10 1/2 feet, wide. He constructed narrow off-set ledges on the outside walls of the House, so no supporting beams would be inserted into the walls of the House.

7 As the House was being constructed, only stone dressed at the quarry was used. No hammer, chisel, or any iron tool was heard at the site of the House while it was under construction.

8 The door to the rooms on the first floor was on the south side of the House. Then, there was a stairway to the second floor, and from there it led to the third floor.

9 So he built the House and completed it, making the roof-works of beams and boards made of cedar.

10 When he finished the side rooms along the House, they were five cubits: about 7 1/2 feet, high, and attached to the House with cedar beams.

11 Then the word of Yahweh came to Solomon, saying:

12 This House you are building—if you walk in My statutes, perform My judgments, and keep all My commandments and obey them, then I will perform My promise through you which I made to David your father;

13 Then I will live among the children of Israyl, and will not forsake My people Israyl.

14 So Solomon built The House of Yahweh and finished it.

15 He lined the inner walls of the House with cedar boards; from its floor to its ceiling he paneled it. He first covered the floor of the House with planks of pine.

16 Then he constructed the twenty-cubit: 30 feet square, room of cedar boards from floor to ceiling at the back of the House, to form within the House an inner sanctuary—the Most Holy Place.

17 The Holy Place, which is the outer sanctuary in front of the Most Holy Place, was forty cubits: about 60 feet, long.

18 The inside of the House was cedar, carved with ornamental peqaim; only used as an architectural term similar to the wild cucumber, and opened flowers. Everything was cedar; no stone was to be seen.

19 He prepared the Most Holy Place inside the House, to set the ark of the covenant of Yahweh there.

20 The Most Holy Place was twenty cubits long; twenty cubits wide, and twenty cubits high; 30 feet square. He overlaid it with pure gold, and he overlaid the altar with cedar.

21 Solomon overlaid the inside of the House with pure gold, and stretched chains of gold across the front of the Most Holy Place, which was overlaid with gold.

22 The entire inside of the House he overlaid with gold, until the interior was finished. He also overlaid with gold the altar that belonged to the Most Holy Place.

23 In the Most Holy Place he made two cherubim of olive wood; each ten cubits: about 15 feet, high.

24 The wing of one cherub was five cubits: about 7 1/2 feet, long, and its other wing was five cubits long. Its wings stretched out ten cubits: about 15 feet, from wing tip to wing tip.

25 The second cherub was also ten cubits; both cherubim were the same size and shape.

26 The height of one cherub was ten cubits, as was the other cherub.

27 Then he set the cherubim inside the inner House; in the Most Holy Place, with their wings spread out. The wing of one cherub touched one wall, while the wing of the other touched the other wall, and their wings were touching wing to wing in the middle of the room.

28 He also overlaid the cherubim with gold.

29 All around the walls of the House, in both the Holy Place and the Most Holy Place, he carved cherubim, palm trees, and opened flowers.

30 He overlaid the floor of the House with gold, in both the Holy Place and Most Holy Place.

31 For the entrance to the Most Holy Place he made doors of olive wood; the lintel and doorposts were one-fifth part of the wall.

32 On the two olive wood doors he carved cherubim, palm trees, and opened flowers and overlaid them with beaten gold hammered evenly over the carvings.

33 And the same he made for the entrance to the Holy Place, but the doorposts of olive wood were one-fourth part of the wall.

34 Its two doors were of pine, each having two panels that turned in sockets: folding doors.

35 Then he carved cherubim, palm trees, and opened flowers on them, and overlaid them with beaten gold hammered evenly over the carvings.

36 And he constructed the inner court with three rows of dressed stone and one row of cedar beams.

37 The foundation of The House of Yahweh was laid in the fourth year, in the moon Ziv.

38 Then in the eleventh year, in the moon Bul, the eighth moon, the House was finished in all its details according to all its specifications. He spent seven years in building it.

CHAP. 7

However, it took Solomon thirteen years to finish the construction of his own house.

2 He built the House of the Forest of Lebanon: his own palace, a hundred cubits; about 150 feet, long, fifty cubits; about 75 feet, wide, and thirty cubits; about 45 feet, high, with four rows of cedar pillars which supported trimmed cedar beams.

3 It was roofed with cedar above the beams that rested on the pillars—forty-five beams, fifteen to a row.

4 The windows were set in rows, in sets of three, facing each other.

5 All the doorways and doorposts had rectangular frames. They were in sets of three in the front part, facing each other.

6 He constructed a colonnade fifty cubits; about 75 feet, long and thirty cubits; about 45 feet, wide. In front of it was a porch, and in front of that were pillars and an overhanging roof.

7 He constructed the hall for the throne, the Hall of Justice, where he would judge. He paneled it with cedar from one floor to the other floor.

8 And the house where he lived, farther back from the building of the hall, was of the same design. Solomon also constructed a house like this hall for Pharaoh's daughter, whom he had married.

9 All these stones were cut to size, and trimmed with saws on their inner and outer faces, and were used from the foundation to the eaves, and from the outside to the great courtyard.

10 The foundations were laid with large stones of fine quality, some measuring ten cubits; about 15 feet, and others measuring eight cubits; about 12 feet.

11 Above the foundation were high-grade stones, cut to size, and cedar beams.

12 The great courtyard was surrounded by a wall of three rows of dressed stones and one row of trimmed cedar beams, as was the inner courtyard of The House of Yahweh with its porch.

13 Now King Solomon sent to Tyre and brought Hiram:

14 Who was the son of a widow from the tribe of Naphatali. His father was a bronze craftsman from the city of Tyre. He was highly skilled and experienced in all kinds of bronze work. He came to King Solomon and did all the work he was assigned.

15 He cast two pillars of bronze, each eighteen cubits; about 27 feet, high and twelve cubits; about 18 feet, around, measured by line.

16 Then he made two capitals: crowns for the pillars, of cast bronze, to set on the tops of the pillars. Each capital was five cubits; about 7 1/2 feet, high.

17 A network of interwoven chains decorated the capitals on the tops of the pillars: seven chains for each capital.

18 So he made the pillars, and two rows of pomegranates encircling each network to decorate the capitals on top. He also did this for the other capital.

19 The capitals on top of the pillars on the porch were in the shape of lilies, four cubits; about 6 feet, high.

20 On the capitals of both pillars, above the bowl-shaped part next to the network, were two hundred pomegranates in rows all around.

21 Then he set up the pillars on the porch of the House. He set up one pillar on the south side and called its name Yachin: He will establish, and he set up the other pillar on the north side and called its name Boaz: In Him is Strength.

22 The capitals on top of the pillars were in the shape of lilies. And so the work on the pillars was finished.

23 Then he made the circular Sea of cast bronze. It was ten cubits; about 15 feet in diameter, from rim to rim and five cubits; about 7 1/2 feet, high. By line, it measured thirty cubits; about 45 feet, in circumference.

24 Below the rim, peqaim: used only as an architectural term of an ornament similar to the wild cucumber, encircled it, ten to a cubit, all the way around the Sea. The peqaim were cast in two rows in one piece with the Sea.

25 The Sea stood on twelve bulls: three facing north, three facing west, three facing south, and three facing east. The Sea set on top of the bulls, and their hindquarters were toward the center.

26 The Sea was a handbreadth thick, and its rim was shaped like the rim of a cup—like a lily blossom. It held two thousand baths; about 11,500 gallons of water.

27 He also made ten movable carts of bronze; each was four cubits; about 6 feet, long, four cubits; about 6 feet, wide, and three cubits; about 4 1/2 feet, high.

28 This is how the carts were designed: They had panels, and the panels were attached between frames.

29 On the panels between the frames were lions, bulls, and cherubim, as well as on the frames themselves. Above and below the lions and bulls were wreaths of hammered work.

30 Each stand had four bronze wheels with bronze axles, and each had a laver resting on four supports, cast with wreaths on each side.

31 On the inside of the cart there was an opening that had a round frame one cubit; about 1 1/2 feet, deep. This opening was round, and with its basework it measured a cubit and one-half; about 2 1/4 feet. Around its opening there were engravings. The panels of these carts were square, not round.

32 The four wheels were under the panels, and the axles of the wheels were attached to the cart. The diameter of each wheel was a cubit and one-half; about 2 1/4 feet.

33 The wheels were made like chariot wheels, and the axles, rims, spokes, and hubs were all of cast bronze.

34 Each cart had four handles, one on each corner, projecting from the cart.

35 At the top of the cart there was a circular band one-half a cubit; about 3/4 foot, deep. The supports and panels were attached to the top of the cart.

36 He engraved cherubim, lions, and palm trees on the surfaces of the supports and on the panels, in every available space, with wreaths all around.

37 This is the way he made the ten carts. They were all cast in the same molds, and were identical in size and shape.

38 Then he made ten lavers of bronze. Each laver contained forty baths; about 230 gallons of water, and each laver measured four cubits; about 6 feet, across. On each of the ten carts a laver was set.

39 He placed five of the carts on the south side of the House and five on the north side of the House. He set the Sea on the south side, at the southeast corner of the House.

40 Hiram also made the lavers, shovels, and sprinkling bowls. So he finished all the work he had been assigned to do for King Solomon on The House of Yahweh—

41 The two pillars; the two bowl-shaped capitals on top of the pillars; the two sets of network ornamenting the two bowl-shaped capitals on top of the pillars;

42 The four hundred pomegranates for the two sets of network (two rows of pomegranates for each network, decorating the bowl-shaped capitals on top of the pillars);

43 The ten carts with their ten lavers;

44 The Sea and the twelve bulls under it;

45 The pots, shovels, and sprinkling bowls.

All these objects Hiram had made for King Solomon for The House of Yahweh were of burnished bronze.

46 The king had them cast in clay molds in the plain of the Yardan between Succoth and Zarethan.

47 Solomon did not weigh these articles. Because there were so many, the weight of the bronze was not determined.

48 And Solomon made all the furnishings that were in The House of Yahweh—the golden altar; the golden table on which the bread of the Presence was laid;

49 The lampstands of pure gold, five on the right side and five on the left side in front of the Most Holy Place; along with the flowers, lamps, and tongs of gold;

50 The pure gold basins, wick trimmers, sprinkling bowls, ladles, and censers; and the gold sockets for the doors of the innermost room—the Most Holy Place, and also for the doors of the main hall of the House—the Holy Place.

51 All the work King Solomon had commissioned for The House of Yahweh was finished, so Solomon brought in the things his father David had dedicated—the silver, gold, and furnishings—and he placed them in the treasuries of The House of Yahweh.

CHAP. 8

Then Solomon summoned the elders of Israyl, all the heads of the tribes, and the chiefs of the families of the children of Israyl, gathering them to him in Yerusaleim so they might bring up the ark of the covenant of Yahweh from Zion, the City of David.

2 All the men of Israyl came together to King Solomon at the time of the Feast of Tabernacles, in the moon Ethanim, the Seventh Moon.

3 When all the elders of Israyl arrived, the priests took up the ark.

4 They brought up the ark of Yahweh, the Tabernacle of Meeting, and all the holy furnishings that were in the tabernacle. The priests and Levites carried them up;

5 And King Solomon and the entire congregation of Israyl that had gathered around him were in front of the ark, sacrificing sheep and cattle in such numbers they could not be counted nor recorded.

6 Then the priests brought in the ark of the covenant of Yahweh to its place: into the inner sanctuary of the House, into the Most Holy Place, under the wings of the cherubim.

7 The cherubim spread their wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubim overshadowed the ark and its poles.

8 These poles were so long that their ends could be seen from the Holy Place, in front of the Most Holy Place; but they could not be seen from outside the Holy Place. They are there to this day.

9 There was nothing in the ark except the two tablets of stone, which Mosheh placed there at Horeb, when Yahweh made a covenant with the children of Israyl after they came out of Egypt.

10 When the priests came out from the Holy Place, the cloud filled The House of Yahweh.

11 The priests could not perform their ministering, because of the cloud, because the glory of Yahweh filled The House of Yahweh.

12 Then Solomon said; Yahweh said He would live in the dark cloud.

13 I have truly built You a magnificent House; a place for You to live in forever.

14 Then the king turned around, and blessed the whole congregation of Israyl, while all the congregation of Israyl was standing there.

15 Then he said: Blessed be Yahweh, the Father of Israyl. Who promised with His own mouth to my father David, and with His own hand has fulfilled it, saying:

16 Since the day I brought My people Israyl out of Egypt, I have chosen no city from any tribe of Israyl to build a House, for My Name to be there; but I have chosen David to rule over My people Israyl.

17 Now, it was in the heart; mind, of My father David, to build a House for the Name of Yahweh, the Father of Israyl;

18 But Yahweh said to my father David; Because it was in your heart to build a House for My Name, you did well that it was in your heart.

19 Nevertheless, you shall not build the House, but your son, who is your own flesh and blood—he shall build the House for My Name; The House of Yahweh.

20 So Yahweh has fulfilled the word He promised: I have succeeded my father David, and now I sit on the throne of Israyl, just as Yahweh promised; and I have built the House for the Name of Yahweh, the Father of Israyl.

21 And there I have made a place for the ark, in which is the covenant of Yahweh, that He made with our fathers when He brought them out of Egypt.

22 Then Solomon stood in front of the altar of Yahweh, in the presence of all the congregation of Israyl, and spread out his hands toward heaven.

23 And said; O Yahweh, Father of Israyl, there is no god equal to You in heaven above or on earth below—like You Who keep Your covenant and mercy with Your servants who walk in front of You with all their hearts.

24 You have kept Your promise to Your servant David my father; You have promised it with Your mouth and fulfilled it with Your hand, as it is this day.

25 Now Yahweh, Father of Israyl, keep what You promised to Your servant David, my father, saying: You shall never fail to have a man to sit before Me on the throne of Israyl, only if your sons take heed to their way, and are careful to walk before Me, as you have walked before Me.

26 And now, O Father of Israyl, may Your word that You promised to Your servant, David my father, come true.

27 But will Yahweh really live on earth? Behold, the heavens, even the highest heaven, cannot contain You. How much less this House I have built!

28 Yet, regard Your servant's prayer and his supplication for mercy, O Yahweh my Father. Listen to the cry and the prayer Your servant is praying in front of You this day:

29 May Your eyes be open toward this House, night and day; toward the place You said: My Name shall be there—so You may hear the prayer that Your servant makes toward this place.

30 Hear the supplication of Your servant, and of Your people Israyl, when they pray toward this place. Hear from heaven, Your dwelling place; and when You hear, forgive.

31 When anyone wrongs his brother, and is required to take an oath; and he comes and vows the oath in front of Your altar at this House, 32 Then hear from heaven, and act. Judge between Your servants—condemn the guilty and bring down upon his own head what he has done, and justify the innocent by giving him according to righteousness.

33 When Your people Israyl are defeated in front of an enemy, because they have sinned against You; but when they turn back to You, and revere and worship You with extended hands, praising Your Name, praying and making supplication to You in this House,

34 Then hear from heaven, and forgive the sin of Your people Israyl, and bring them back to the land which You gave to their fathers.

35 When the heavens are shut up, and there is no rain because they have sinned against You; when they pray toward this place, and revere and worship You with extended hands, praising Your Name; and they turn from their sin, because You have afflicted them,

36 Then hear from heaven, and forgive the sin of Your servants, Your people Israyl. So may You teach them the right way in which they should walk, and send rain on the land that You gave Your people as an inheritance.

37 When there is a famine or a plague in the land, or blight or mildew, locusts or grasshoppers, or when an enemy besieges them in any of their cities, whatever disaster or sickness may come.

38 And when a prayer, or a supplication is made by anyone, or by all Your people Israyl—each one knowing the affliction of his own heart—and spreads out his hands toward this House:

39 Then hear from heaven, Your dwelling place. Forgive, and act, and deal with each one according to his ways, since You know his heart (because You, Alone, know the hearts of all men).

40 So that they may revere You all the days they live in the land You gave to our fathers.

41 Concerning the foreigner who is not of Your people Israyl, but has come from a distant land because of Your Name—

42 (Because they will hear of Your great Name, and of Your mighty hand, and of Your outstretched arm)—when he comes and prays toward this House,

43 Hear from heaven, Your dwelling place, and do all which the foreigner calls to You, so that all peoples of the earth may know Your Name and revere You, just as Your own people Israyl, and may know that this House I have built is called by Your Name.

44 When Your people go to battle against their enemies, wherever You send them, and when they pray to Yahweh toward the city You have chosen, and the House I have built for Your Name, 45 Then hear their prayer and their supplication from heaven, and uphold their cause.

46 When they sin against You—because there is no one who does not sin—and You become angry with them and hand them over to the enemy, who takes them captive to his own land, far or near;

47 And if they change their minds in the land where they were carried captive, and repent, and make supplication to You in the land of those who took them captive, saying: We have sinned, we have done wrong, we have acted wickedly;

48 And if they turn back to You with all their heart and with all their soul in the land of their enemies who led them away captive, and pray to You toward their land You gave to their fathers, toward the city You have chosen, and the House I have built for Your Name;

49 Then from heaven, Your dwelling place, hear their prayer and their supplication, and uphold their cause.

50 And forgive Your people who have sinned against You; forgive all their transgressions they have committed against You; and cause their conquerors who took them captive to show them compassion, so they may have mercy on them—

51 Because they are Your people and Your inheritance, whom You brought out of Egypt, out of the iron furnace.

52 May Your eyes be open to the supplication of Your servant and the supplication of Your people Israyl, and may You listen to them whenever they call to You.

53 Because You singled them out from among all the peoples of the earth to be Your own inheritance, just as you spoke by the hand of Mosheh Your servant, when You brought our fathers out of Egypt, O Mighty Yahweh.

54 When Solomon had finished praying all these prayers and supplications to Yahweh, he rose from in front of the altar of Yahweh, from kneeling on his knees with his hands spread up to heaven.

55 Then he stood and blessed all the congregation of Israyl with a loud voice, saying:

56 Blessed be Yahweh, Who has given rest to His people Israyl, just as He has promised. Not one word has failed of all the righteous promises He promised through His servant Mosheh.

57 May Yahweh our Father be with us, just as He was with our fathers. May He not leave us nor forsake us.

58 May He turn our hearts to Him, to walk in all His ways, and to keep His commandments, His statutes, and His judgments He commanded our fathers.

59 And may these words of mine, which I have prayed before Yahweh, be close to Yahweh our Father day and night, so He may uphold the cause of His servant and the cause of His people Israyl according to each day's needs.

60 So that all the peoples of the earth may know that Yahweh is the Father, and there is none else.

61 Let your heart be perfect with Yahweh our Father, to walk in His statutes, and to keep His commandments, as it is this day.

62 Then the king, and all Israyl with him, offered sacrifices in front of Yahweh.

63 Solomon offered as sacrifices of peace-offerings to Yahweh: 22,000 cattle and 120,000 sheep and goats. So the king and all the children of Israyl • dedicated The House of Yahweh.

64 The same day the king consecrated the middle part of the courtyard in front of The House of Yahweh, and there he offered burnt offerings, grain offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings, because the bronze altar before Yahweh was too small to hold all the burnt offerings, the grain offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings.

65 At that time Solomon kept the Feast, and all Israyl with him; a great congregation with him, people from the entrance of Hamath to the Wadi of Egypt. They celebrated it in front of Yahweh our Father for seven days, and seven days more, fourteen days in all.

66 On the eighth day he sent the people away; and they blessed the king, and went to their own homes joyful and glad of heart for all the righteousness that Yahweh had done for His servant David, and for Israyl His people.

CHAP. 9

When Solomon had finished building The House of Yahweh, and the king's house, and had finished all he had desired to accomplish;

2 Yahweh appeared to Solomon the second time, as He had appeared to him at Gibeon.

3 Yahweh said to him: I have heard the prayer and the supplication that you have made before Me; I have sanctified and consecrated this House you have built to establish My Name there forever; and My eyes and My heart will be there perpetually: at the required seasons; Yahweh's Ordained Weekly Sabbaths and Feast Days.

4 And if you will walk before Me, as David your father walked, in integrity of heart, and in uprightness, to do all that I have commanded you, and if you will keep My statutes and My judgments,

5 Then I will establish the throne of your kingdom over Israyl forever, just as I promised David your father, saying: You shall never fail to have a man on the throne of Israyl.

6 But if you or your sons turn away from following Me, and will not keep My commandments and My statutes which I have set before you, but go off and serve hinder gods and worship them:

7 Then I will cut off Israyl from the land I have given them, and this House, which I have hallowed and sanctified for My Name, I will cast out of My sight. Israyl will then become the subject of short, pointed sayings, and an object of sarcasm and ridicule among all peoples.

8 Though this House is now exalted, all who pass by will be appalled, and will scoff, and say: Why has Yahweh done such a thing to this land and to this House?

9 And they shall answer; Because they forsook Yahweh their Father, Who brought their fathers out of the land of Egypt, and have embraced hinder gods, and have worshiped them, and served them. Because of this, Yahweh brought upon them all this disaster.

10 At the end of twenty years, when Solomon had built the two houses—The House of Yahweh and the king's house—

11 (Hiram the king of Tyre had supplied Solomon with cedar, pine, and gold, as much as he requested.) King Solomon then gave Hiram twenty cities in the Galilee.

12 When Hiram went from Tyre to see the cities Solomon had given him, he was not pleased with them.

13 He asked; What kind of cities are these you have given me, my brother? And he called them Eretz Cabul; Land Fit For Nothing, as they are called to this day.

14 Now Hiram had sent the king one hundred and twenty talents; about 4 1/2 tons, of gold.

15 And this is the reason for the tax levied against Israyl in the form of forced labor—to build The House of Yahweh, his own house, the Millo, the wall around Yerusalem, Hazor, Megiddo, and Gezer.

16 (Pharaoh king of Egypt had captured Gezer and burned it with fire. He killed the Canaanites living in it, and then gave it as a wedding gift to his daughter, Solomon's wife.)

17 So Solomon rebuilt Gezer, and built up Lower Beth Horon.

18 Baalath, and Tamar in the wilderness, within the land of Yahdah.

19 He built his store cities, cities for his chariots, and cities for his cavalry, as well as whatever he wanted to build in Yerusalem, in Lebanon, and throughout all the territory he held power over them.

20 All the people left from the Amorites, Hitrites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Yebusites (these people were not of the children of Israyl)—

21 That is, their descendants remaining in the land, whom the children of Israyl could not utterly destroy; cherem—from these Solomon raised a slave labor force, as it is to this day.

22 But Solomon did not make slaves of any of the children of Israyl. They were his men of war and his government officials, his officers, his captains, and the commanders of his chariots and charioteers.

23 They were also the supervising officials in charge of Solomon's projects: 550 men who supervised the people who did the work.

24 After Pharaoh's daughter came up from the City of David to the palace Solomon had built for her, he then built the Millo.

25 Three times a year Solomon sacrificed burnt offerings and peace offerings on the altar he had built for Yahweh, and he burned incense with them in front of Yahweh—so he fulfilled his obligations to the House.

26 King Solomon also built a fleet of ships at Ezion Geber, near Elath in Edom, on the shore of the Red Sea.

27 Hiram sent his men with the fleet—sailors who knew the sea—to work with the men of Solomon.

28 They went to Ophir, and acquired four hundred and twenty talents; about 16 tons, of gold, which they brought to King Solomon.

Organization, forced labor, and heavy taxation were demanded by Solomon's extensive building projects, including his FORTIFIED CITIES throughout the land: Hazor is in the extreme north; Megiddo is located near the famous pass, between the Carmel range and the hill country of Ephraim; Lower Beth Horon was to the northwest of Yerusalem; Baalath is unknown, but was probably somewhere in the south; Tamar was just south of the Dead Sea; Gezer commanded the road between Yerusalem and the north Philistine country.

CHAP. 10

When the queen of Sheba heard about the fame of Solomon relating to the Name of Yahweh, she came to test him with difficult questions.

2 She arrived in Yerusalem with a very great retinue, and with camels that carried spices, very much gold, and precious stones. When she came to Solomon, she spoke with him about all that was on her mind.

3 But Solomon answered all her questions; there was nothing so difficult for the king that he could not explain it to her.

4 When the queen of Sheba saw all the wisdom of Solomon, and the house he had built,

5 The food on his table, the seating of his officials, the attending servants in their robes, his cupbearers, and the ascent by which he went up to The House of Yahweh, there was no more spirit in her.

6 Then she said to the king: It was a true report I heard in my own land about your words and your wisdom.

7 However, I did not believe these things until I came and saw with my own eyes. Truly, not even half was reported to me; in wisdom and wealth you have far surpassed the report I heard.

8 How joyous are your men, and how joyous are your officials, who stand continually before you and hear your wisdom!

9 Blessed be Yahweh your Father Who delights in you, setting you on the throne of Israyl! Because Yahweh loves Israyl forever, He made you king, in order to do justice and righteousness.

10 Then she gave the king one hundred and twenty talents; about 4 1/2 tons, of gold, great quantities of spices, and precious stones. Never again were so many spices brought in as those the queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon.

11 (Hiram's ships brought gold from Ophir; and from there they brought almugwood and precious stones.

12 The king made steps of the almugwood for The House of Yahweh, for the king's house, and also for harps, and stringed instruments for the musicians. There never again came such almugwood, nor has the like been seen to this day.)

13 And King Solomon gave the queen of Sheba all she desired, whatever she asked, besides what he had given her out of his royal bounty. Then she left and went to her own country, she and her retinue.

14 The weight of gold that Solomon received yearly was 666 talents; about 25 tons.

15 Not including that from the traveling merchants, from the income of traders, from all the kings of Arabia, and from the governors of the land.

16 King Solomon made two hundred large shields of hammered gold; six hundred bekas, about 7 1/2 pounds, of gold went into each shield.

17 He also made three hundred shields of hammered gold; three minas; about 3 3/4 pounds, of gold went into each shield. And the king put them in the House of the Forest of Lebanon.

18 Then the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with pure gold.

19 The throne had six steps, and its back had a rounded top. On both sides of the seat were armrests, with a lion standing beside each armrest.

20 Twelve lions stood on the six steps, one at either end of each step. Nothing like this had ever been made for any other kingdom.

21 All King Solomon's goblets were gold, and all the household articles in the House of the Forest of Lebanon were pure gold. Nothing was made of silver, because silver was considered of little value in the days of Solomon.

22 The king had ships of Tarshish at sea with the ships of Hiram. Once every three years the ships of Tarshish returned bringing gold, silver, ivory, apes, and peacocks.

23 King Solomon surpassed all other kings of the earth in riches and wisdom.

24 And all the earth sought an audience with Solomon to hear the wisdom which Yahweh had placed in his heart; the seat of intelligence.

25 Each man who came presented his gift: articles of silver and gold, clothing, weapons, spices, horses and mules, at this event year after year.

26 Solomon accumulated chariots and charioteers. He had 1,400 chariots and 12,000 charioteers, whom he stationed in the chariot cities and with the king in Yerusalem.

27 The king made silver as ordinary in Yerusalem as stones, and he made cedars as abundant in number as the sycamores in the foothills.

28 Solomon imported horses from Egypt and Keveh. The king's merchants bought them in Keveh for a price.

29 A chariot imported from Egypt cost six hundred shekels; about 15 pounds, of silver, and a horse cost one hundred and fifty shekels; about 3 3/4 pounds, of silver. And in this way, through their hands, they also exported them to the kings of the Hitites and the kings of the Arameans.

CHAP. 11

However, King Solomon loved many other foreign women, besides the daughter of Pharaoh: women from the Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Phoenicians (Sidonians), and Hittites—

2 From the very nations Yahweh had commanded the children of Israyl: You must not marry them, and they must not marry you; because they will turn away your heart after their gods! To these, Solomon clung in love.

3 He had seven hundred royal wives, and three hundred concubines—and it was his wives who turned away his heart.

4 When Solomon became old, his wives turned his heart after hinder gods; and his heart was not perfect with Yahweh his Father, as the heart of his father David, had been—

5 Because Solomon went after Ashtoreth, the goddess of the Phoenicians (Sidonians), and after Milcom (the god Molech), the abomination of the Ammonites.

6 Solomon did evil: following the gods, in the eyes of Yahweh, and did not completely follow Yahweh, as his father David had done.

7 Then Solomon built a ● high place for the god Chemosh, the abomination of Moab, on a hill east of Yerusalem, and also for the god Molech, the abomination of the people of Ammon.

8 He did the same thing for all his foreign wives, who burned incense and sacrificed to their gods.

9 So Yahweh became angry with Solomon, because his heart had turned away from Yahweh, the Father of Israyl, Who had appeared to him twice,

10 And Who had commanded him about this very thing—not to go after the hinder gods—but he did not obey what Yahweh had commanded.

11 Because of this, Yahweh said to Solomon: Since you have done this, and have not kept My covenant and My statutes, which I have commanded you, I will certainly tear the kingdom away from you, and give it to your subject.

12 Nevertheless, I will not do this in your lifetime, for the sake of your father David—I will tear it out of the hands of your son.

13 However, I will not tear away the whole kingdom. I will give one tribe to your son—for the sake of My servant David, and for the sake of Yerusalem, which I have chosen.

14 Now Yahweh raised up an adversary against Solomon: Hadad the Edomite. He was a descendant of the king in Edom;

15 And this was the reason: When David was fighting against Edom, Yahab the commander of the army had gone up to bury the dead, after he had killed every man in Edom.

16 Because for six moons Yahab remained there with all Israyl, until he had killed every man in Edom.

17 Then Hadad, who was only a little child, fled to Egypt, along with certain Edomite officials who served his father.

18 They set out from Midian, and came to Paran. Then they took men with them from Paran, and arrived in Egypt; to Pharaoh king of Egypt, who gave him a house, food, and land.

19 Hadad found great honor in the eyes of Pharaoh, so he gave him the sister of his own wife; the sister of Queen Tahpenes, in marriage.

20 The sister of Tahpenes bore Hadad Genubath his son, whom Tahpenes weaned in Pharaoh's house. Genubath lived in Pharaoh's household among the sons of Pharaoh.

21 Now, while Hadad was in Egypt he heard that David slept with his fathers, and that Yahab the commander of the army was dead. He then said to Pharaoh: Let me leave, so I may return to my own country.

22 Pharaoh asked him: But what have you lacked with me, that suddenly you want to return to your own country? Hadad answered: Nothing, but allow me to return.

23 And Yahweh raised up another adversary against Solomon: Rezon son of Elyada, who had fled from his ruler, Hadadezer king of Zobah.

24 He gathered men around himself, and became captain over a band of rebels. When David destroyed those of Zobah, the rebels went to Damascus, and settled and ruled there.

25 Rezon was an adversary of Israyl all the time Solomon lived, adding to the trouble that Hadad caused. He was hostile toward Israyl, and reigned over the Arameans.

26 Then Solomon's subject, Yeroboam son of Nebat, an Ephraimite from Zeredah, whose mother was a widow named Zeruah, rebelled against the king;

27 And this is his cause of rebellion against the king: Solomon had built up the Millo, and had repaired the damages to the City of David his father.

28 Now the man Yeroboam was a man of virtue, and when Solomon saw how well the young man performed his work, he placed him in charge over all the labor force of the house of Yahseph.

29 And it was about this time that Yeroboam went out of Yerusalem, and met Ahiyah the Shilonite, the prophet, along the way. Ahiyah was wearing a new tallit, and the two were alone in the country;

30 Then Ahiyah took hold of the new tallit he was wearing, and tore it into twelve pieces.

● BAMAH: High Place: an elevated area built for the express purpose of the worship of the GODS AND GODDESSES. The High Place contained an altar for sacrifices, and an ASHERAH POLE: The Sacred Pole, for ascertaining the exact days of the Solstices and Equinoxes, which were the exact days on which the pagan SUN FESTIVALS were held.

31 Then he said to Yeroboam; Take for yourself ten pieces, because this is what Yahweh, the Father of Israyl, says: Behold, I will tear the kingdom out of the hands of Solomon, and will give ten tribes to you.

32 But he shall keep one tribe—for the sake of My servant David, and for the sake of Yerusalem, the city I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israyl.

33 I will do this because they have forsaken Me, and worshiped Ashtoreth the goddess of the Phoenicians (Sidonians), Chemosh the god of the Moabites, and Milcom (Molech) the god of the people of Ammon, and have not walked in My ways, to do that which is right in My eyes, and to keep My statutes and My judgments, as David his father did.

34 However, I will not take the whole kingdom out of his hands, because I have made him king all the days of his life—for the sake of My servant David, whom I chose because he kept My commandments and My statutes.

35 But, I will take the kingdom out of the hands of his son, and give it to you—ten tribes.

36 And to his son I will give one tribe, so My servant David may always have a lamp before Me in Yerusalem, the city I have chosen for Myself, to establish My Name there.

37 And I will take you, and you shall reign over all that your heart desires—you shall be king over Israyl.

38 And it shall be, if you will listen to all that I command you, and will walk in My ways, and do that which is right in My sight, to keep My statutes, and My commandments, just as David My servant did, then I will be with you, and build you an enduring house, as I built for David, and will give Israyl to you.

39 And by this I will chasten the descendants of David, but not forever.

40 Therefore, Solomon tried to kill Yeroboam, but Yeroboam got up, and fled to Egypt, to Shishak king of Egypt; and remained in Egypt until the death of Solomon.

41 Now the rest of the events of Solomon's reign, all that he did, and his wisdom, are they not written in the book of the acts of Solomon?

42 The period that Solomon reigned in Yerusalem over all Israyl was forty years.

43 Then Solomon slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David his father. And Rehoboam his son succeeded him as king.

CHAP. 12

Now Rehoboam went to Shechem, because all Israyl had gone to Shechem to make him king.

2 When Yeroboam son of Nebat, who was still in Egypt, heard of this (he had fled from the presence of King Solomon, and had been living in Egypt), he returned from Egypt;

3 So they sent, and summoned him. Then Yeroboam and all the congregation of Israyl came, and spoke to Rehoboam, saying:

4 Your father made our yoke heavy; but now, lighten the burdensome service and the heavy yoke he placed on us, and we will serve you.

5 He replied to them; Leave for three days, then return to me. So the people left.

6 Then King Rehoboam consulted with the elders who stood before his father Solomon while he still lived, and he asked; How do you advise me to answer this people?

7 And they advised him, saying; If you will be as a servant to this people, and honor them, by answering them with friendly, suitable words, then they will be your servants forever.

8 But he rejected the counsel and advice that the elders had given him, and counsulted the young men, who had grown up with him, and were attending him.

9 He asked them; What counsel do you give? How should we answer this people who have said to me; Lighten the yoke that your father placed upon us?

10 Then the young men who had grown up with him gave this advice, saying; This is how you should respond to this people, who said to you; Your father put a heavy yoke on us, but make our yoke lighter—say to them; My little finger shall be thicker than my father's waist!

11 My father laid a heavy yoke upon you, but I will add to your yoke! My father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scourges!

12 So Yeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam on the third day, just as the king appointed them, saying; Return to me on the third day.

13 Then the king answered the people harshly, and rejected the counsel and advice the elders had given him;

14 He answered them as the young men had counseled and advised him, and said; My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add to your yoke! My father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scourges!

15 So the king did not listen to the people, because this turn of affairs was from Yahweh, so He might perform the word which Yahweh had spoken through Ahiyah the Shilonite to Yeroboam son of Nebat.

16 Now when all Israyl realized the king would not listen to them, the people answered the king, and said; What share do we have in David? We have no inheritance in the son of Yishai! To your tents, O Israyl! Look after your own house, O David! So Israyl went to their own homes.

17 But Rehoboam reigned over the children of Israyl who lived in the cities of Yahdah.

18 Then King Rehoboam sent Adoniram, who was in charge of collecting revenue, but all Israyl stoned him to death with stones. Therefore, King Rehoboam mounted his chariot in haste and fled to Yerusalem.

19 So Israyl has been in rebellion against the house of David to this day.

20 It had been, when all Israyl heard that Yeroboam had returned, they sent after him and summoned him to the congregation, and made him king over all Israyl. Only the tribe of Yahdah followed the house of David.

21 When Rehoboam returned to Yerusalem, he gathered together all the house of Yahdah with the tribe of Benyamin—180,000 fighting men—to fight against the house of Israyl in an effort to regain the kingdom for Rehoboam son of Solomon.

22 But the word of Yahweh came to She-mayah, the man of Yahweh, saying:

23 Speak to Rehoboam son of Solomon, king of Yahdah, to the whole house of Yahdah and Benyamin, and to the rest of the people, and say:

24 This is what Yahweh says: Do not go up nor fight against your brothers, the children of Israyl. Every man return to his own house, for this thing has been done because of Me. So they obeyed the word of Yahweh, and turned back, just as Yahweh had spoken.

25 Then Yeroboam of Israyl built up Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim, and lived there. From there he went out and built up Penuel.

26 Yeroboam thought to himself; Now this kingdom will revert to the house of David—

27 If these people go up to offer sacrifices in The House of Yahweh at Yerusalem. The allegiance of this people will return to their ruler, Rehoboam king of Yahdah; they will kill me and return to Rehoboam king of Yahdah.

28 Because of this, the king accepted counsel and advice, and made two • circular golden altars and said to the people: It is too much for you to go up to Yerusalem. Your gods are here, O Israyl, which brought you up from the land of Egypt!

29 And he set up one high place in Bethel; House of God, and the other he set up in Dan; Judgment.

30 This thing became a sin, because the people went as far as Dan to worship before the one.

31 Yeroboam built The Houses with High Places, and appointed priests from every class of people, who were not of the sons of Levi.

• Each High Place consisted of an altar for sacrifices, a sacred stone pillar; masebah—symbolizing the male GOD, and a straight, perpendicular wooden pole, symbolizing the Goddess Asherah and female fertility. This POLT was sometimes overlaid with gold, and was used to ascertain the Equinoxes and Solstices, to set their pagan feasts by rather than setting the Feasts of Yahweh by the New Moon of Green Ears, as Yahweh had ordained for His people in Deuteronomy 16:1.

32 Yeroboam ordained a feast on the fifteenth day of the eighth moon, like the feast held in Yahdah, and he offered on the altar as he did in Bethel, sacrificing on the circular golden altars he had made. And at Bethel he also installed the priests of the high places, which he had built.

33 So he offered sacrifices on the altar he built in Bethel, on the fifteenth day of the eighth moon—in the moon he had ordained in his own heart. There he ordained a feast for the children of Israyl, and offered sacrifices on the altar and burned incense.

CHAP. 13

Behold, a man of Yahweh came from Yahdah by the word of Yahweh to Bethel, and Yeroboam was standing by the altar to make an offering.

2 He cried out against the altar by the word of Yahweh, and he said: Altar! Altar! This is what Yahweh says: Behold, a son shall be born to the house of David, Yoshiyah by name, and upon you he shall sacrifice the priests of the high places who burn incense on you, and men's bones shall be burned on you!

3 And he gave the sign the same day, saying: This is the sign Yahweh has given—The altar will be split apart, and the ashes on it shall pour out.

4 When King Yeroboam heard the words the man of Yahweh cried out against the altar in Bethel, he stretched out his hand from the altar, and said: Seize him! Then his hand, which he stretched out toward the man, withered, so he was unable to pull it back.

5 Also, the altar split apart, and the ashes poured out from the altar, according to the sign given by the man of Yahweh by the word of Yahweh.

6 Then the king answered, and said to the man of Yahweh: Intercede on my behalf to Yahweh your Father! Pray for me, so my hand may be restored to me! So the man of Yahweh made this request of Yahweh, and the king's hand was restored to him, becoming just as it was before.

7 Then the king said to the man of Yahweh: Come home with me and refresh yourself, and I will give you a gift.

8 But the man of Yahweh said to the king: If you were to give me half of your possessions, I would not go with you, nor would I eat bread nor drink water in this place;

9 Because this was commanded me by the word of Yahweh, saying: You shall not eat bread, nor drink water, nor return by the same way you came.

10 So he left another way, and did not return by the way he came to Bethel.

11 Now an old prophet lived in Bethel, and his sons came, and told him all the things the man of Yahweh had done that day in Bethel. They also told their father the words he had spoken to the king.

12 Their father said to them; Which way did he leave? So his sons showed him the road the man of Yahweh from Yahdah had taken.

13 Then he said to his sons: Saddle the donkey for me. So they saddled the donkey, and he set out upon it.

14 He went after the man of Yahweh, and found him sitting under an oak tree. Then he asked him: Are you the man of Yahweh who came from Yahdah? He replied; I am.

15 Then he said to him: Come home with me, and eat.

16 But he said; I cannot return with you, nor go with you; neither can I eat bread nor drink water with you in this place:

17 Because I have been commanded by the word of Yahweh: You must not eat bread nor drink water there, nor return by going the way you came.

18 But he said to him; I, too, am a prophet, as you are, and a malak spoke to me by the word of Yahweh, saying; Bring him back with you to your house, so he may eat bread and drink water. But he lied to him.

19 So, he went back with him, and ate bread in his house, and drank water.

20 And as they sat at the table, the word of Yahweh came to the prophet who had brought him back,

21 And he cried out to the man of Yahweh who came from Yahdah, and said; This is what Yahweh says: Because you have defied the word of Yahweh, and have disobeyed the command which Yahweh your Father gave you—

22 But you came back, ate bread, and drank water, in the place that He told you not to eat bread nor drink water—your corpse will not be buried in the tomb of your fathers.

23 After he had eaten bread, and after he had drunk, the prophet who had brought him back saddled his donkey for him.

24 As he set out, a lion attacked him on the road, and killed him. His corpse was thrown on the road, and the donkey and the lion also stood by the corpse.

25 Men passed by there, and saw the corpse thrown on the road; and the lion standing by the corpse. They went, and reported this in the city where the old prophet lived.

26 When the prophet, who had brought him back from his way, heard this, he said; That is the man of Yahweh who was disobedient to the word of Yahweh! Yahweh handed him over to the lion, which has mauled and killed him, according to the word of Yahweh, which He spoke against him.

27 Then he spoke to his sons, and said; Saddle the donkey for me. So they saddled it.

28 And he went, and found his corpse thrown on the road, and the donkey and the lion standing by the corpse. The lion had not eaten the corpse, nor mauled the donkey.

29 Then the prophet picked up the corpse of the man of Yahweh, laid it on the donkey, and brought it back. The old prophet came to the city to mourn for him, and to bury him.

30 He laid the corpse in his own tomb, and they mourned over him, and cried out; Oh! my brother!

31 After he had buried him, he spoke to his sons, and said; When I am dead, then bury me in the tomb where the man of Yahweh is buried. Lay my bones next to his bones.

32 Because the prophecy he cried out by the word of Yahweh against the altar in Bethel, and against all the Houses with the High Places in the cities of Samaria, will surely come to pass.

33 Even after this, Yeroboam did not turn from his evil way, but continued to appoint priests from every class of people for the high places. Anyone who wanted to become a priest, he consecrated him, and he became one of the priests of the Houses with the High Places.

34 This was the ● sin of the house of Yeroboam, which led to its extermination and destruction from the face of the earth.

CHAP. 14

At that time, Abiyah; Yahweh is my Father, son of Yeroboam, became sick;

2 So Yeroboam instructed his wife, saying; Rise up, and disguise yourself, so they may not recognize you as the wife of Yeroboam, and go to Shiloh. Truly, Ahiyah; My Redeemer is Yahweh, the prophet is there, who told me I would be king over this people.

3 Take with you ten loaves, some cakes, and a jar of honey, and go to him. He will tell you what will become of the boy.

4 Yeroboam's wife did as he said. She got up, went to Shiloh, and came to the house of Ahiyah. Now Ahiyah could not see, for his eyes were glazed because of his age.

5 But Yahweh had said to Ahiyah; Behold, the wife of Yeroboam is coming to request a word from you about her son, because he is sick. You are to give her such and such an answer, but when she arrives, she will pretend to be someone else.

6 So, when Ahiyah heard the sound of her footsteps as she stepped through the door, he said; Come in, wife of Yeroboam. Why do you make pretense to be another? I am sending you bad news.

7 Go, and tell Yeroboam: This is what Yahweh, the Father of Israyl, says: I raised you up from among the people, and made you ruler over My people Israyl.

8 And tore the kingdom away from the house of David, and gave it to you. But you have not been as My servant David, who kept My commandments, and who followed Me with all his heart; mind and understanding, to do that which was right in My eyes.

9 You have done more evil than all who were before you, because you have gone and made for yourself hinder gods and molded images, to provoke Me to anger, and have thrown Me behind your back!

10 Because of this, behold! I will bring disaster upon the house of Yeroboam! I will cut off from Yeroboam's line every last male in Israyl, slave and free! I will destroy the remnant of the house of Yeroboam, just as one destroys garbage until it is all gone.

11 He who dies of Yeroboam in the city, the dogs shall eat. He who dies in the country, the fowls of the air shall eat. Yahweh has spoken!

12 Now, rise up. Return to your own house. When your feet enter into the city, your son shall die.

13 All Israyl shall mourn for him, and bury him: but he is the only one belonging to Yeroboam who will be buried in his tomb, because in him alone there is found something right toward Yahweh, the Father of Israyl, out of the house of Yeroboam.

14 Yahweh will raise up for Himself a king over Israyl, who will cut off the house of Yeroboam! This is that day! What? Even now!

15 And Yahweh will strike Israyl, so it will be like a reed shaking in the water. He will uproot Israyl from this rich land He gave to their fathers, and will disperse them beyond the River Euphrates, because they have made ● wooden Asherah Poles, and provoked Yahweh to anger!

16 And He will give up Israyl, because of the sins of Yeroboam, which he committed, and has caused Israyl to commit!

17 Then the wife of Yeroboam left, and set out to Tirzah. And as she stepped over the threshold of the house, the boy died.

18 And they buried him, and all Israyl mourned for him, just as the word of Yahweh had spoken through His servant Ahijah the prophet.

19 Now the rest of the events of the reign of Yeroboam, his wars, and how he ruled; behold,

The HIGH PLACE which Yeroboam built, had a WOODEN ASHERAH POLE constructed upon it. This straight, perpendicular wooden pole, symbolizing the Goddess Asherah, was used to exactly ascertain the Equinoxes and Solstices OF THE SUN—which were the exact days for the pagans' feasts. By constructing this pole, overlaying it with gold, and then using it in his worship, Yeroboam effectually served the Gods and Goddesses of SUN WORSHIP, rather than serving Yahweh our Father by completely obeying HIS ORDINANCES for HIS FEASTS. For committing this SIN, the lineage of Yeroboam was completely destroyed from the face of the earth, and eventually the Ten Northern Tribes of Israyl were dispersed throughout the world, completely losing their identity as the Tribes of Israyl.

they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israyl.

20 Yeroboam reigned for twenty-two years, then slept with his fathers. And Nadab his son succeeded him as king.

21 Rehoboam son of Solomon reigned in Yahdah. Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned seventeen years in Yerusalem, the city in which Yahweh had chosen out of all the tribes of Israyl, to establish His Name. His mother's name was Naamah, an Ammonitess.

22 Then Yahdah did evil in the sight of Yahweh; turning to gods, and they provoked Him to jealousy with they sins they committed—above even what their fathers had done:

23 Because they also built for themselves high places, sacred pillars; masseboth, and sacred poles; asherim, on every elevated hill and under every spreading tree.

24 There were even male prostitutes in the land. They performed all the abominable practices of the nations which Yahweh had driven out from before the children of Israyl!

25 Then, in the fifth year of King Rehoboam, Shishak king of Egypt attacked Yerusalem.

26 He carried away the treasures from The House of Yahweh and from the king's house. He carried away everything. He also carried away all the gold shields Solomon had made.

27 Then King Rehoboam made shields of bronze to take their place, and placed them in the hands of the captains of the guards, who guarded the doorway of the king's house.

28 So, whenever the king went into The House of Yahweh, the guards carried them; and then returned them to the chamber of the guard.

29 Now, the rest of the events of the reign of Rehoboam, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Yahdah?

30 And there was continual warfare between Rehoboam and Yeroboam for as long as they lived.

31 And Rehoboam slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the City of David. His mother's name was Naamah, an Ammonitess. Then Abiyah; Yahweh is my Father, his son succeeded him as king.

CHAP. 15

In the eighteenth year of King Yeroboam son of Nebat, Abiyah became king over Yahdah.

2 And he reigned three years in Yerusalem. His mother's name was Maachah, the granddaughter of Abishalom.

3 He walked in all the sins that his father committed before him; servng the gods. His heart was not perfect with Yahweh his Father, as was the heart of his father David.

4 Nevertheless, for David's sake, Yahweh his Father gave him a lamp in Yerusalem, by raising up a son to succeed him, and by establishing Yerusalem—

5 Because David did right in the sight of Yahweh; servng Yahweh only, and had not turned from anything He had commanded him all the days of his life, except in the matter of Uriyah the Hittite.

6 There was warfare between Rehoboam and Yeroboam as long as Abiyah lived.

7 Now the rest of the events of the reign of Abiyah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Yahdah? Now there was warfare between Abiyah and Yeroboam.

8 And Abiyah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the City of David. Then Asa his son succeeded him as king.

9 In the twentieth year of Yeroboam king of Israyl, Asa became king over Yahdah.

10 He reigned forty-one years in Yerusalem. His grandmother's name was Maachah, the granddaughter of Abishalom.

11 Asa did right in the sight of Yahweh; servng Yahweh only; just as his father David did.

12 He expelled the male prostitutes; qedeshim: those practicing sodomy and prostitution in religious rituals, from the land, and removed all the gods his fathers had made.

13 He also removed Maachah his grandmother from being queen mother, because she had made a disgusting Asherah Pole to set the feasts. Asa cut the pole down, and burned it in the Kidron Valley.

14 The high places were not removed, but Asa's heart was perfect with Yahweh all the days of his life.

15 He brought into The House of Yahweh all the things he and his father had dedicated: the silver, gold, and articles.

16 Now there was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israyl as long as they lived.

17 Baasha king of Israyl attacked Yahdah, and built up Ramah, so he might allow none to go out or come in to Asa king of Yahdah.

18 Asa then took all the silver and gold that remained in the treasuries of The House of Yahweh and the treasuries of the king's house, and delivered it into the hands of his officials. Then King Asa sent them to Ben-Hadad son of Tabrimmon, the son of Hezion, the king of Aram, who lived in Damascus, and said:

19 Let there be an alliance between me and you, as there was between my father and your father. Behold, I have sent you a gift of silver and gold. Now, break your treaty with Baasha king of Israyl, so he will withdraw from me.

20 So Ben-Hadad agreed with King Asa, and sent the captains of his armies against the cities of Israyl. He defeated Iyon, Dan, Abel Beth-maacah, and all of Kinneret, along with all the land of Naphtali.

21 When Baasha was informed of this, he stopped building up Ramah, and retreated to Tirzah.

22 Then King Asa decreed an order throughout all Yahdah; none was exempted. They carried away the stones and timber from Ramah, which Baasha had used for building, and King Asa built up Geba of Benyamin and Mizpah with them.

23 The rest of all the events of the reign of Asa, all his power, all that he did, and the cities he fortified, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Yahdah? However, in his old age he became diseased in his feet.

24 So Asa slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the City of David his father. Then Yahshaphat; Yahweh is Judge, succeeded him as king.

25 Now Nadab son of Yeroboam became king over Israyl in the second year of Asa king of Yahdah, and he reigned over Israyl two years.

26 He did evil in the sight of Yahweh; servng the gods, and walked in the way of his father, and in his sin he caused Israyl to commit.

27 Then Baasha son of Ahiyah, of the house of Issachar, schemed against him. Baasha killed him at Gibbethon, a Philistine city, while Nadab and all Israyl were besieging it.

28 Baasha killed Nadab in the third year of Asa king of Yahdah, and succeeded him as king.

29 As soon as he began to reign, he killed the whole house of Yeroboam. He did not leave Yeroboam anyone that breathed, until he had destroyed them all, according to the word of Yahweh spoken through his servant Ahiyah the Shilonite—

30 Because of the sins of Yeroboam, which he had committed and had caused Israyl to commit because of his offense; by provoking Yahweh, the Father of Israyl, to anger.

31 Now the rest of the events of the reign of Nadab, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israyl?

32 And there was warfare between Asa and Baasha king of Israyl for as long as they lived.

33 In the third year of Asa king of Yahdah, Baasha son of Ahiyah became king over all Israyl in Tirzah, and reigned twenty-four years.

34 He did evil in the sight of Yahweh; servng the gods, and walked in the way of Yeroboam, and in his sin, which he had caused Israyl to commit.

THE SIN OF YEROBOAM son of Nebat: Yeroboam built High Places for worship, with a WOODEN ASHERAH POLE constructed on it. This straight, perpendicular wooden pole, symbolizing the Goddess Asherah, was used to ascertain the Equinoxes and Solstices in order to set their feasts. On these HIGH PLACES, Yeroboam served the Gods and Goddesses of SUN WORSHIP, rather than Yahweh our Father. For this SIN HE CAUSED ISRAYL TO COMMIT, the lineage of Yeroboam was completely destroyed from the face of the earth.

CHAP. 16

Then the word of Yahweh came to Yahu; Yahweh is He, son of Hanani, against Baasha, saying:

2 I lifted you out of the dust, and made you ruler over My people, Israyl; but you have walked in the way of Yeroboam, and have caused My people Israyl to commit sin, and to provoke Me to anger by their sins.

3 Behold, I will consume Baasha and his house, and I will make your house like the house of Yeroboam son of Nebat.

4 He who dies of Baasha in the city, the dogs shall eat. He who dies in the country, the fowls of the air shall eat.

5 Now the rest of the events of the reign of Baasha, what he did, and his power, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israyl?

6 So Baasha slept with his fathers, and was buried in Tirzah. Then Elah his son succeeded him as king.

7 Also, the word of Yahweh came against Baasha and his house by the prophet Yahu son of Hanani, because of all the evil that he did in the sight of Yahweh, by provoking Him to anger by the works of his hands, in order to become like the house of Yeroboam; and because he killed him.

8 In the twenty-sixth year of Asa king of Yahdah, Elah son of Baasha became king over Israyl, and he reigned two years in Tirzah.

9 Now Zimri his official, commander of half his chariots, schemed against him as he was in Tirzah, drinking himself drunk in the house of Arza, steward of his house in Tirzah;

10 Zimri came in, attacked and killed him in the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Yahdah, and succeeded him as king.

11 As soon as he was seated on his throne and began his reign, he killed all the household of Baasha; he did not leave him even one male, nor of his kinsmen, nor of his friends.

12 In this way, Zimri consumed all the household of Baasha, according to the word of Yahweh, which He spoke against Baasha by Yahu the prophet—

13 Because of all the sins which Baasha and Elah, his son, committed, and had caused Israyl to commit, by provoking Yahweh, the Father of Israyl, to anger, with their gods.

14 Now the rest of the events of the reign of Elah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israyl?

15 In the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Yahdah, Zimri reigned in Tirzah seven days. The army was encamped against Gibbethon, a city of the Philistines.

16 Now the men encamped there heard this news: Zimri has schemed, and has also killed the king. So all Israyl made Omri, the commander of the army, king over Israyl in the camp that day.

17 Then Omri, and all Israyl with him, set out from Gibbethon to besiege Tirzah.

18 When Zimri realized the city was captured, he went into the citadel of the king's house, and burned the king's house down around him. He died—

19 Because of the sins he had committed, by doing evil in the sight of Yahweh: by walking in the way of Yeroboam, and in his sin which he had committed, and had caused Israyl to commit.

20 Now the rest of the acts of the reign of Zimri, and the treason he committed, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israyl?

21 Then the people of Israyl became split into two separate factions: Half of the people followed Tibni son of Ginath, and wanted to make him king, while half followed Omri.

22 But the people who followed Omri proved stronger than those who followed Tibni son of Ginath. So Tibni died, and Omri reigned.

23 In the thirty-first year of Asa king of Yahdah, Omri became king over Israyl for twelve years. Six years he reigned in Tirzah.

24 He bought the hill of Samaria from Shemer for two talents; about 150 pounds, of silver, and built a city on the hill, calling its name, Samaria; Shomeron, after the name of Shemer, owner of the hill.

25 Omri did evil in the eyes of Yahweh; serv- ing the gods, and even did worse than all who were before him—

26 Because he walked in all the ways of Yeroboam son of Nebat, and in his sin which he had caused Israyl to commit, provoking Yahweh, the Father of Israyl, to anger with their gods.

27 Now the rest of the events of the reign of Omri which he did, and the power that he showed, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israyl?

28 So Omri slept with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria. Then Ahab his son succeeded him as king.

29 In the thirty-eighth year of Asa king of Yahdah, Ahab son of Omri became king over Israyl. Ahab son of Omri reigned over Israyl in Samaria twenty-two years.

30 Now Ahab son of Omri did evil in the sight of Yahweh; serv- ing the gods, more than even all who were before him.

31 Not only was it a trivial thing for him to walk in the sins of Yeroboam son of Nebat, he also married Yezebel; Baalzebel, daughter of Ethbaal, king of the Phoenicians (Sidonians); and he went after Baal; Lord, and worshiped and served him.

32 Then he set up an altar for Baal; Lord, in The House of Baal; The House of The Lord, which he had built in Samaria.

33 And Ahab also made an Asherah Pole. Ahab did more to provoke Yahweh, the Father of Israyl, to anger than all the kings of Israyl who were before him.

34 During his life, Hiel of Bethel rebuilt Yericho. He laid its foundation with the life of Abiram his firstborn, and with the life of his youngest son, Segub, he set up its gates—in accordance with the word of Yahweh which He spoke through ● Yahshua son of Nun.

CHAP. 17

Now Yliyah; My Strength is Yahweh, the Tishbite, of the settlers of Gilead, said to Ahab: as surely as Yahweh, the Father of Israyl, lives, in front of Whom I stand, there shall be no dew nor rain these years, except at my word.

2 Then the word of Yahweh came to him, saying:

3 Leave here and turn eastward. Hide by the Cherith Brook which flows into the Yordan.

4 You shall drink water from the brook, and I have commanded the Arabs to feed you there.

5 So he left and did according to the word of Yahweh—he went and stayed by the Cherith Brook, which is east of the Yordan.

6 The Arabs brought him bread and meat in the morning, and bread and meat in the evening, and he drank from the brook.

7 After a time the brook dried up, because there had been no rain in the land.

8 Then the word of Yahweh came to him, saying:

9 Get up, go to Zarephath in Phoenicia (Sidon) and live there. Behold, I have commanded a widow there to provide for you.

10 So he got up and went to Zarephath. When he came to the gate of the city, there was a widow gathering sticks. He called out to her, and said: Bring me a little water in a cup, so I may drink.

11 As she was going to get it, he called out to her, and said: And bring me a piece of bread in your hands.

12 But she said: As surely as Yahweh your Father lives, I have no bread—only a handful of flour in a jar, and a little oil in a jug. I am gathering a few sticks in order to go in and prepare it for myself and my son, so we may eat it, and die.

13 Yliyah said to her: Do not be afraid. Go, and do as you have said: only make me a small cake from it first and bring it to me. Then afterward prepare for yourself and your son.

14 Because this is what Yahweh, the Father of Israyl, says: The jar of flour shall not be used up, nor shall the jug of oil run dry, until the day

Yahweh sends rain on the earth.

15 So she left and did as Yliyah instructed her; and she, he, and her household ate for a long period of time.

16 The jar of flour was not used up, nor did the jug of oil run dry, according to the word of Yahweh which He spoke by Yliyah.

17 After these things, the son of the woman who owned the house became sick. His sickness continued to grow worse until he stopped breathing.

18 She said to Yliyah: What have you against me, O man of Yahweh? Have you come to me to bring my sins to remembrance, and to kill my son?

19 But he said to her: Give me your son. So he took him out of her arms and carried him to the upper room where he was staying, and laid him on his own bed.

20 Then he cried out to Yahweh, and said: O Yahweh my Father, have You brought sorrow also upon this widow I am staying with, by causing her son to die?

21 And he stretched himself out on the boy three times, and cried out to Yahweh, and said: O Yahweh, I pray, let this boy's life return to him!

22 Then Yahweh heard the cry of Yliyah; and the life of the boy came back to him, and he lived.

23 Then Yliyah took the boy and brought him down from the upper room into the house, and gave him to his mother. Yliyah said: Behold, your son lives!

24 Then the woman said to Yliyah: Now by this I know that you are a man of Yahweh, and that the word of Yahweh from your mouth is the truth.

CHAP. 18

After a long time the word of Yahweh came to Yliyah, in the third year, saying: Go, present yourself to Ahab, and I will send rain on the earth.

2 So Yliyah went to present himself to Ahab. The famine was severe in Samaria:

3 And Ahab had summoned Obadyah; Worshiper of Yahweh, who was in charge of his house. (Now Obadyah revered Yahweh greatly,

4 And while Yezebel; Baalzebel, was killing off the prophets of Yahweh, Obadyah had taken a hundred prophets and hidden them in two caves, fifty in each, and had provided them with food and water.)

5 Ahab had said to Obadyah: Go throughout the land to all the springs of water and to all the brooks. It may be that we will find grass to keep the horses and mules alive, so we might not have to kill any of our animals.

6 So they divided the land they were to search; Ahab went one way by himself, and Obadyah went another way by himself.

7 As Obadyah went on his way, Yliyah met him. He recognized him, and fell on his face, and said: Is that you, my ruler Yliyah?

8 And he answered; I am he. Go, tell your ruler: Yliyah is here.

9 But he replied; What sin have I committed, that you are handing your servant over to Ahab, to put me to death?

10 As surely as Yahweh your Father lives, there is no nation or kingdom where my ruler has not sent someone to search for you. And whenever a nation or kingdom declared you were not there, he made them vow an oath that they told him the truth.

11 And now you say to me; Go, tell your ruler: Yliyah is here!

12 Then, as soon as I leave you, the Spirit of Yahweh will carry you to a place I know nothing of; so when I go and inform Ahab, and he is unable to find you, then he will kill me. But I, your servant, have revered Yahweh since my youth.

13 Was it not reported to my ruler what I did when Yezebel: Baalzebel, was killing the prophets of Yahweh—how I hid one hundred of Yahweh's prophets, fifty to a cave, and provided them with food and water?

14 But now you say; Go tell your ruler: Yliyah is here! And he will kill me!

15 Then Yliyah said; As surely as Yahweh Almighty lives, in front of Whom I stand, I will surely present myself to him this day.

16 So Obadyah went to find Ahab and report to him. Then Ahab went to meet Yliyah.

17 When Ahab saw Yliyah, Ahab said to him; Is that you, O troubler of Israyl?

18 But he answered; I have not troubled Israyl—you and your father's house have troubled Israyl, because you have forsaken the commandments of Yahweh, and you have followed the Baalim; Lords, Gods, and Goddesses.

19 Now, summon and gather all Israyl to me on Mount Carmel, as well as the four hundred and fifty prophets of Baal; Lord, and the four hundred prophets of Asherah; Ishtar, Easter, who eat at the table of Yezebel; Baalzebel.

20 So Ahab sent word to all the children of Israyl, and gathered the prophets together on Mount Carmel.

21 Yliyah addressed all the people, and said; When will you stop being swayed by two separate doctrines? If Yahweh is the Mighty One, then follow Him! But if Baal, then follow him!

22 Then Yliyah said to the people; I alone am left of all the prophets of Yahweh; but the prophets of Baal number four hundred and fifty men.

23 Now, provide two bulls for us, and let them choose one bull for themselves. Let them cut it up, and let them place it on the wood, but set no fire to it. I will prepare the other bull, and place it on the wood, but set no fire to it.

24 Then you call on the name of your god, Baal; Lord, and I will call on the Name of Yahweh. It will be the Mighty One Who answers with fire—He is the Mighty One. All the people responded, and said; What you say is right.

25 Then Yliyah said to the prophets of Baal; Choose one bull first and prepare it for yourselves, since there are so many of you. Call on the name of your god Baal; Lord, but do not set a fire under it.

26 So they took the bull provided for them and prepared it. Then they called on the name of Baal; Lord, from morning until noon. They called out; O Baal; Lord! Hear us! But there was no response; no one answered. And they limped around the altar they had made.

27 At noon Yliyah began mocking them, and said; Cry louder! Since he is a god he must be meditating, or busy, or traveling! It may be he is sleeping, and must be awakened!

28 So they cried louder, and gashed themselves with knives and lances, as was their custom, until their blood flowed.

29 Midday passed, and they continued praying until the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice, but there was no response, no one answered, no one paid attention.

30 Then Yliyah said to all the people; Now come here to me! So all the people came near to him. They came to him, and he repaired the altar of Yahweh, which had been broken down.

31 Yliyah took twelve stones, one for each of the tribes of the sons of Yaaqob, to whom the word of Yahweh had come, saying; Israyl shall be your name.

32 With those stones he built an altar in the Name of Yahweh, and he dug a trench around the altar large enough to hold two seahs; about 13 quarts, of seed.

33 Then he placed the wood in order upon it, then cut the bull in pieces and laid them upon the wood. Then he said; Fill four large jars with water, and pour it on the offering and on the wood!

34 Then he said; Do this again! And they did this a second time. Then he said; Do this the third time! And they did this the third time.

35 The water ran down all around the altar, and filled the trench with water.

36 When he was to offer the sacrifice, Yliyah the prophet stepped forward and prayed; Yahweh, the Father of Abraham, Isaac, and Israyl, let it be known this day that You are the Mighty Father in Israyl, and that I am Your servant, and that I have done all these things at Your word.

37 Hear me, O Yahweh, hear me! So this people may know that You are Yahweh Almighty, and that You will turn their hearts; minds and understanding, back again.

38 Then the fire of Yahweh fell and burned up the sacrifice, the wood, the stones, and the soil, and it licked up the water that was in the trench.

39 When all the people saw this, they fell on their faces, and cried out; Yahweh, He is the Mighty One! Yahweh, He is the Father!

40 Then Ylijah commanded them; Seize the prophets of Baal; Lord! Do not let one of them escape! They seized them, and Ylijah had them brought down to the Kishon Brook, and executed them there.

41 Ylijah then said to Ahab; Go, eat and drink, because there is the sound of abundance of rain.

42 So Ahab went off to eat and drink, while Ylijah went off to the top of Carmel. There he bowed down on the ground, and put his face between his knees.

43 He told his servant; Go, look toward the sea. And he went up and looked, but he reported; There is nothing. Seven times Ylijah said; Go again.

44 On the seventh time, his servant reported; Behold, a cloud as small as a man's hand is rising out of the sea. Then Ylijah said; Leave and inform Ahab; Hitch your chariot and go down before the rain stops you.

45 In the meanwhile, the sky became black with clouds, the wind rose, there came a heavy rain, and Ahab rode away and arrived in Yezreel.

46 Then the power of Yahweh came upon Ylijah, and he tucked in his cloak at his loins and ran ahead of Ahab to the entrance of Yezreel.

CHAP 19

Ahab informed Yezebel; Baalzebel, of everything Ylijah had done, and how he had executed all the prophets with the sword.

2 Yezebel; Baalzebel, then sent a messenger to Ylijah, and said; In this way may the gods do to me, and in this way may they add, if I do not make your life like that of one of them by this time tomorrow!

3 Ylijah saw this, and got up and ran for his life. He went to Beersheba of Yahdah, and left his servant there.

4 But he went on a day's journey into the wilderness. He came and sat down under a broom tree, and prayed that he might die, saying; I have had enough! Now, Yahweh, take my life, for I am no better than my fathers.

5 Then he lay down and fell asleep under the tree. Suddenly a malak touched him, and said to him; Rise up and eat!

6 He looked, and there by his head was a cake baked over hot coals, and a jar of water. So he ate and drank, and lay down again.

7 The malak of Yahweh came to him the second time, and touched him, and said; Rise up and eat, because the journey is too much for you.

8 So he got up, and ate and drank—and on the strength of that food he traveled forty days and forty nights as far as Horeb, the mountain of Yahweh.

9 He went into a cave, and spent the night in that place. Then behold, the word of Yahweh came to him, and He said to him; What are you doing here, Ylijah?

10 He answered; I have been very zealous for Yahweh Father Almighty, because the children of Israyl have forsaken Your covenant, torn down Your altars, and killed Your prophets with the sword. I am the only one left, and now they are trying to kill me.

11 He instructed Ylijah; Go out, and stand on the mountain in front of Yahweh. Then behold, Yahweh passed by, and a great and mighty wind tore the mountains apart and shattered the rocks before Yahweh, but Yahweh was not in the wind. After the wind, there was an earthquake, but Yahweh was not in the earthquake.

12 After the earthquake came a fire, but Yahweh was not in the fire. After the fire came a still small voice.

13 And when Ylijah heard that, he wrapped his face in his tallit, and went out and stood at the entrance to the cave. Then the voice said to him; What are you doing here, Ylijah?

14 He answered; I have been very zealous for Yahweh Father Almighty, because the children of Israyl have forsaken Your covenant, torn down Your altars, and killed Your prophets with the sword. I am the only one left, and now they are trying to kill me.

15 Then Yahweh said to him; Go back the way you came to the Wilderness of Damascus. When you arrive there, anoint Hazael king over Aram.

16 Then anoint Yahu; Yahweh is He, son of Nimshi king over Israyl, and Ylisha; Our Father is Salvation, son of Shaphat of Abel Meholah to succeed you as prophet.

17 And it will be that those who escape from the sword of Hazael, Yahu will kill; and those who escape from the sword of Yahu, Ylisha will kill.

18 Yet, I have remaining in Israyl seven thousand—all whose knees have not bowed down to Baal; Lord, and all whose mouths have not kissed him.

19 So Ylijah left there, and found Ylisha son of Shaphat plowing. Twelve yoke of oxen were plowing in front of him, and he was with the twelfth pair. Yliyah went by him and threw his tallit around him.

20 Then he left the oxen and ran after Yliyah, and said: Allow me to kiss my father and my mother, and I will follow you. And he said to him: Go! Go back, for you know what I have done to you.

21 So Ylisha left him, and went back. He took his yoke of oxen and slaughtered them. With the ox equipment he cooked the meat and gave to the people, and they ate. Then he got up and followed Yliyah, and served him.

CHAP. 20

Now Ben-Hadad king of Aram gathered all his army together, and with him were thirty-two kings who had horses and chariots. He went up, besieged Samaria, and attacked it.

2 He dispatched messengers into the city to Ahab king of Israyl, and said to him: This is what Ben-Hadad says:

3 Your silver and your gold is mine. Your most beautiful wives and children are mine.

4 Then the king of Israyl answered, responding: My ruler, O king, it is just as you say—I and all that I have are yours.

5 Then the messengers returned, and said: This is what Ben-Hadad says: Yes, I sent to you, and said: You shall hand over to me your silver and your gold, your wives, and your children:

6 B, : I will send my officials to you tomorrow about this time, who will search your house and the houses of your officials. Then it will be—whatever you value most, they will seize it and carry it away.

7 Then the king of Israyl summoned all the elders of the land, and said: Now, behold the trouble this man is looking for, because when he demar,ded my silver and gold, and my wives and my children, I did not refuse him!

8 Then all the elders and all the people said to him: Do not listen to him, nor agree to his demands.

9 Because of this, he said to the messengers of Ben-Hadad: Tell my ruler the king: All that you demanded the first time, I will do, but this thing I cannot do. So the messengers left, and took this word back to Ben-Hadad.

10 Then Ben-Hadad sent this message back to him, and said: In this way may the gods do to me, and in this way may they add, if enough dust remains in Samaria to give each of my men a handful!

11 The king of Israyl responded, and said: Tell him: The one who first puts his armor on should not boast like the one who takes it off.

12 Ben-Hadad heard this message as he and the kings were drinking in their succoth; temporary dwellings. He then ordered his men: Get ready to fight! So they got ready to attack the city.

13 And behold, there came a prophet to Ahab king of Israyl, who said: This is what Yahweh says: Have you seen all this vast multitude? Behold, I will hand them over to you this day, and you shall know that I am Yahweh!

14 Ahab asked: Who will do this? He replied: This is what Yahweh says: By the young commanders of the provinces. Then he asked: Who will start the battle. He answered: You will.

15 So he summoned the young commanders of the provinces, and they numbered 232 men. After them he gathered together all the people—all the sons of Israyl—7,000.

16 They set out at noon, while Ben-Hadad and the thirty-two kings united with him were getting drunk in their succoth; temporary dwellings.

17 The young commanders of the provinces set out first. Now Ben-Hadad had dispatched a scouting patrol, and they reported to him, saying: Forces are advancing out of Samaria!

18 He ordered: If they have come out for peace, take them alive! If they have come out for battle, take them alive!

19 These young commanders of the provinces set out from the city with the army following them.

20 Each one killed his own man; so the Arameans fled, and Israyl pursued them. But Ben-Hadad king of Aram escaped on a horse with some of his horsemen.

21 Then, the king of Israyl set out and attacked the horses and chariots, and inflicted heavy losses on the Arameans.

22 Then the prophet came to the king of Israyl, and said to him: Go, and strengthen your position. Mark, and see what must be done, for in the spring of the year the king of Aram will come up, and attack you.

23 Then the officials of the king of Aram counseled and advised him: Their gods are gods of the hills. Because of this, they were stronger than we were. However, if we attack them on the plain, we will surely be stronger than they.

24 So do this: Dismiss the kings from the commands they hold, and replace them with captains.

25 Then gather together an army like the army you have lost—horse for horse and chariot for chariot. Then we will fight against them on the plain. Surely we will be stronger than they. So he listened to their counsel and advice, and did as they said.

26 Then, in the spring of the year, Ben-Hadad gathered the Arameans and set out to Aphek to fight against Israyl.

27 The sons of Israyl were gathered together.

given provisions, and sent out to meet them. The sons of Israyl camped opposite them, like two small flocks of goats, while the Arameans covered the countryside.

28 Then the man of Yahweh came and spoke to the king of Israyl, and said: This is what Yahweh says: Because the Arameans have thought Yahweh is a god of the hills and not a god of the plains, I will hand this vast multitude into your hands, and you will know that I am Yahweh!

29 They camped opposite each other for seven days, then on the seventh day the battle began. The sons of Israyl killed 100,000 Aramean foot soldiers in one day.

30 The remainder fled into the city of Aphek, where a wall fell down on 27,000 of them. And Ben-Hadad fled, and went into an inner chamber in the city.

31 His officials said to him: We have heard the kings of the house of Israyl are merciful kings. Now, let us dress ourselves in sackcloth and wrap ropes around our heads, and go out to the king of Israyl. It may be that he will spare your life.

32 So his officials dressed themselves in sackcloth, wrapped ropes around their heads, and went out to the king of Israyl. They said: Ben-Hadad, your servant, says this: Allow me to live! Ahab gave this reply: Does he remain alive? He is my brother!

33 They were watching for a sign from him. They picked up on his words, and said: Ben-Hadad is your brother! So Ahab said: Go, and bring him. Then Ben-Hadad came out to him; and Ahab had him come up into his chariot with him.

34 Then Ben-Hadad said to Ahab: The cities my father seized from your father I will return, and you may set up marketplaces for yourselves in Damascus, just as my father set them up in Samaria. Then Ahab said: With a treaty, I will allow you to go. So he made a treaty with him, and allowed him to go.

35 Now one of the sons of the prophets said to his brother: By the word of Yahweh, strike me! But the man refused to strike him.

36 Then he said to him: Because you have not obeyed the voice of Yahweh, as soon as you leave me, a lion will surely kill you. Then, as soon as he left him, a lion came upon him, and killed him.

37 The prophet sought another man, and said: Strike me! So the man struck him, and inflicted a wound on him.

38 Then the prophet, who disguised himself with a bandage over his eyes, left and waited for the king by the road.

39 As the king passed by, he called out to him, and said: Your servant was in the middle of the battle, and a man brought a captive over to me, and said: Guard this man. If he comes up missing under any circumstances, you shall pay your life for his life, or you shall pay a talent; about 75 pounds, of silver.

40 Now while your servant was occupied here and there, he escaped! The king of Israyl replied to him: That is your judgment. You have pronounced your own sentence.

41 Then the prophet quickly removed the bandage over his eyes, and the king of Israyl recognized him as one of the prophets.

42 The prophet said to him: This is what Yahweh says: Because you allowed a man to go who was appointed to utter destruction; cherem, your life shall be for his life, and your people for his people!

43 So the king of Israyl went on to his house sullen and angry, and arrived in Samaria.

CHAP. 21

After this, Naboth the Yezreelite had a vineyard in Yezreel, next to the residence of Ahab king of Samaria.

2 Ahab spoke to Naboth, and said: Give me your vineyard, so I may have it for a vegetable garden, because it is next to my house. I will exchange a better vineyard for it, or if it seems better to you, I will give you its value in money.

3 But Naboth said to Ahab: Yahweh forbid that I should give you the inheritance of my fathers!

4 So, Ahab went into his house sullen and angry, because of the response of Naboth the Yezreelite: because he had said: I will not give you the inheritance of my fathers. Then he lay down on his bed, turned his face away, and would eat no food.

5 Yezebel: Baalzebel, his wife came to him, and asked him: Why is this sullen spirit in you? Why will you not eat?

6 He answered her, and said: I spoke to Naboth the Yezreelite, and said to him: Let me have your vineyard for money, or if it seems better to you, I will give you a better vineyard for it. But he answered me, and said: I will not give you my vineyard.

7 Then Yezebel: Baalzebel, his wife said to him: You should act like the king of Israyl! Get up and eat, and let your heart be cheerful. I will give you the vineyard of Naboth the Yezreelite.

8 So she wrote letters in the name of Ahab, and sealed them with his seal. She sent the letters to the elders and nobles who lived in the city with Naboth.

9 She wrote in the letters, and said: Proclaim a fast, and position Naboth in ambush out in front of the people.

10 Then position two men, sons of Belial; evil, in opposition to him, and they shall testify against him, saying: You have cursed god and the king! Then take him out, and stone him until he is dead.

11 So the men of his city, the elders and nobles who lived in his city, did as Yezebel; Baalzebel, directed, just as it was written in the letters she had sent to them.

12 They proclaimed a fast; they positioned Naboth in ambush;

13 Two sons of Belial came in opposition to him, and brought testimony against him before the people, saying: Naboth has cursed god and the king! They took him outside the city, and they stoned him to death.

14 Then, they sent word to Yezebel; Baalzebel, and said: Naboth has been stoned, and he is dead.

15 As soon as Yezebel; Baalzebel, heard that Naboth had been stoned to death, Yezebel; Baalzebel, said to Ahab; Get up and take for yourself the vineyard Naboth the Yezreelite refused to give you for money. Naboth no longer lives; he is dead!

16 As soon as Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, Ahab got up and went down to take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Yezreelite.

17 Then the word of Yahweh came to Yliyah the Tishbite, saying:

18 Get up! Go down to meet Ahab, the king of Israyl who lives in Samaria. He will be there, in the vineyard of Naboth, where he has gone down to take possession of it.

19 You are to speak to him, and say: This is what Yahweh says: Have you not murdered a man, and now seize his property? Then you shall speak to him, and say: This is what Yahweh says: In the place the dogs licked the blood of Naboth, the dogs will lick up your blood also!

20 Then Ahab said to Yliyah; Have you come to me, O my enemy? He answered; I have come to you, because you have sold yourself to do evil in the eyes of Yahweh!

21 Behold, I will bring disaster upon you. I will remove your descendants—I will cut off from Ahab every last male in Israyl, slave and free!

22 I will make your house like the house of Yeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha son of Ahiyah, because you have provoked Me to anger; erving the gods, and have caused Israyl to commit sin.

23 And to Yezebel; Baalzebel, Yahweh speaks, and He says: The dogs shall eat Yezebel; Baalzebel, on the plot of ground in Yezreel.

24 He who dies of Ahab in the city, the dogs shall eat. He who dies in the country, the fowls of the air shall eat.

25 (There was never a man like Ahab, who sold himself to commit evil in the eyes of Yahweh, because of the influence of Yezebel; Baalzebel, his wife.

26 And he behaved very abominably by following gods, just as all the Amorites; Westerners, had done, whom Yahweh had driven out from in front of the children of Israyl.)

27 When Ahab heard those words, he tore his clothes, dressed himself in sackcloth, and fasted. He lay around in sackcloth, and went about as though in mourning.

28 Then the word of Yahweh came to Yliyah the Tishbite, saying:

29 Have you seen how Ahab has humbled himself in front of Me? Because he has humbled himself in front of Me, I will not bring the disaster in his lifetime. During the life of his son, I will bring the disaster upon his house.

CHAP. 22

Three years went by without war between Aram and Israyl.

2 Then in the third year Yahshaphat; Yahweh is Judge, king of Yahdah went down to see the king of Israyl.

3 The king of Israyl had said to his officials: You know that Ramoth in Gilead is ours, but we are doing nothing to take it out of the hands of the king of Aram.

4 So he presented this question to Yahshaphat: Will you go with me to fight against Ramoth Gilead? Yahshaphat responded: I am as you are. My people are as your people. My horses are as your horses.

5 Then Yahshaphat said to the king of Israyl: But inquire this day for the counsel and advice of Yahweh.

6 So the king of Israyl assembled together the prophets—about four hundred men, and asked them: Shall I go to war against Ramoth Gilead, or shall I refrain? They all answered him: Go up! Adonai; My Lord, will deliver it into the hands of the king!

7 But Yahshaphat asked: Is there no longer a prophet of Yahweh here, so we may inquire of Him?

8 So the king of Israyl said to Yahshaphat: There remains one man by whom we may inquire of Yahweh, but I hate him because he never prophesies anything fit about me, only evil always—Micahyah; Who is like Yahweh?, son of Imlah! Then Yahshaphat said: The king should not say such things!

9 Then the king of Israyl summoned an official, and said: Bring Micahyah son of Imlah at once!

10 The king of Israyl and Yahshaphat king of Yahdah had dressed themselves in their robes and were sitting on their thrones at the threshing floor by the entrance of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets prophesied in front of them.

11 Zedekyah: Yahweh is Righteousness, son of Chenaanah had made himself horns of iron, and he said: This is what Yahweh says: With these you shall gore the Arameans until they are destroyed.

12 All the rest of the prophets prophesied the same thing, saying: Go up to Gilead, and conquer! Yahweh will deliver it into the hands of the king!

13 Then the messenger who was sent to summon Micahyah spoke to him, and said: Take heed! With one accord the mouths of the prophets speak success for the king. Now, may your words be as their words, and may you speak success with them!

14 But Micahyah said: As surely as Yahweh lives, I can speak only as Yahweh tells me.

15 When he came to the king, the king asked him: Micahyah, shall we fight against Ramoth Gilead, or shall we refrain? And he answered him: Go and succeed! Yahweh will deliver it into the hands of the king!

16 But the king said to him: How many times must I make you vow that you will tell me nothing but the truth in the Name of Yahweh?

17 So he answered: I saw all Israyl scattered upon the hills, like sheep without a shepherd, and Yahweh said: These have no leader. Let each one of these return to his home in peace.

18 The king of Israyl then said to Yahshaphat: Did I not tell you he would prophesy nothing fit about me, but only evil?

19 Micahyah continued: Therefore, hear the word of Yahweh! I saw Yahweh sitting on His throne, and all the host of heaven standing around Him, on His right hand and on His left.

20 Then Yahweh said: What will entice Ahab to go up, so he may fall at Ramoth Gilead? One gave this suggestion, and another suggested that.

21 Then a spirit came forward and stood in front of Yahweh, and said: I will lure him!

22 So Yahweh asked him: How will you do this? He replied: I will go out and I will be a lying spirit in the mouths of all his prophets. And He said: You will entice him, and you will succeed in luring him. Go and do it!

23 Behold! Yahweh has put a lying spirit in the mouths of all these prophets of yours! Yahweh has spoken disaster against you!

24 Then Zedekyah son of Chenaanah went up to him, struck Micahyah on the cheek, and asked: What kind of Spirit from Yahweh is now speaking through you?

25 Micahyah answered him: Truly, you will see on the day you go in to an inner room to hide.

26 Then the king of Israyl ordered: Seize Micahyah, and take him back to Amon, the ruler of the city, and to Yahash, the king's son!

27 Inform them; This is what the king says: Put this one in the house of the guard, and give him meager food and scarcity of water, until the day I return in peace!

28 Micahyah replied: If you ever return in peace, then Yahweh has not spoken through me. Then he said: Heed my words, all you people!

29 So the king of Israyl and Yahshaphat, the king of Yahdah, went up to Ramoth Gilead.

30 The king of Israyl said to Yahshaphat: I will disguise myself and go into battle, but you dress yourself in your robes. So the king of Israyl disguised himself and went into battle.

31 Now the king of Aram had given orders to the thirty-two captains of his chariots, saying: Fight with no one, small or great, except the king of Israyl—only.

32 Then, when the captains of the chariots saw Yahshaphat, they thought: Surely this is the king of Israyl! So they turned against him to attack him, but Yahshaphat cried out.

33 When the captain of the chariots realized he was not the king of Israyl, they turned away from their pursuit.

34 But someone drew his bow at random, and an arrow struck the king of Israyl between the sections of his armor. He ordered the driver of his chariot: Turn around! Carry me out of the fighting, because I am wounded!

35 The battle raged throughout the day, while the king was propped up in his chariot, facing the Arameans. The blood poured from his wound onto the floor of the chariot, and that evening he died.

36 Then, as the sun was going down, a cry spread throughout the army, saying: Every man to his own city! Every man to his own country!

37 So the king died, and was carried to Samaria. They buried the king in Samaria.

38 They washed his chariot in the pool of Samaria—the dogs licked up his blood while the prostitutes bathed, just as the word of Yahweh had spoken.

39 Now, the rest of the events of the reign of Ahab, and all that he did, the ivory house he built and all the cities he built up, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israyl?

40 So Ahab slept with his fathers, and Ahazyah: Achatzyah: Yahweh has Seized, succeeded him as king.

41 Yahshaphat son of Asa became king over Yahdah in the fourth year of Ahab king of Israyl.

42 Yahshaphat was thirty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty-five years in Yerusalem. His mother's name was Azubah daughter of Shilhi.

43 He walked in all the ways of Asa his father. He did not turn aside from them, and he did right in the eyes of Yahweh; servng Yahweh. However, the high places were not removed, because the people were still offering sacrifices and burning incense upon the high places.

44 And Yahshaphat was at peace with the king of Israyl.

45 Now the rest of the events of the reign of Yahshaphat, the power he showed, and how he waged war, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Yahdah?

46 The rest of the male prostitutes; qedeshim: those practicing sodomy and prostitution in religious rituals, who remained during the days of Asa, he banished from the land.

47 There was then no king in Edom. A deputy ruled at that time.

48 Yahshaphat built ships of Tarshish to sail to Ophir for gold; but they never sailed—the ships were wrecked at Ezion Geber.

49 It was then Ahazyah son of Ahab said to Yahshaphat; Let my men sail with your men in the ships, but Yahshaphat would not allow it.

50 Yahshaphat slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the City of David his father. Then Yahram; Yahweh is Exalted, succeeded him as king.

51 Ahazyah son of Ahab became king over Israyl in the seventeenth year of Yahshaphat king of Yahdah, and reigned two years over Israyl.

52 He did evil in the eyes of Yahweh; servng the gods, and walked in the way of his father, in the way of his mother, and in the way of Yeroboam son of Nebat, who caused Israyl to commit sin—

53 Because Ahazyah served Baal; Lord, and worshiped him. He provoked Yahweh, the Father of Israyl, to anger in every way his father had done.

II KINGS

SEFER MELAKIM Book of Kings

Moab rebelled against Israyl after the death of Ahab.

2 Now Ahazyah had fallen through the lattice of his upper room in Samaria, and was injured. So he sent messengers, and said to them: Go, and inquire of Baal-Zebub; Lord of the Fly, the god of Ekron, to see if I will recover from this injury.

3 But the malak of Yahweh said to Yliyah the Tishbite: Get up, and go to meet the messengers of the king of Samaria, and say to them: Is it because there is no Father in Israyl that you are going to inquire of Baal-Zebub; Lord of the Fly, the god of Ekron?

4 Therefore, this is what Yahweh says: You shall not leave the bed you are lying upon! You shall surely die! Then Yliyah left.

5 When the messengers returned to the king, he asked them: Why have you come back?

6 They said to him: A man came up to meet us, and said to us: Go, return to the king who sent you, and say to him: This is what Yahweh says: Is it because there is no Father in Israyl that you are sending to inquire of Baal-Zebub; Lord of the Fly, the god of Ekron? Therefore, you shall not leave the bed you are lying upon, you shall surely die.

7 Then he asked them: What kind of man came up to you and told you these things?

8 They answered him: He was a man wearing the tallit of a prophet, with a leather belt around his waist. Then he said: It is Yliyah the Tishbite!

9 He then dispatched a captain of fifty with his men to get him. He went up to him, and there he was, sitting on the top of a hill. The captain ordered him: Man of Yahweh, the king commands—Come down!

10 Yliyah replied, and said to the captain of fifty: If I am a man of Yahweh, then may fire come down from heaven and consume you and your fifty men. And fire came down from heaven, and consumed the captain and his fifty.

11 Then the king dispatched another captain of fifty with his men to get him. The captain ordered him: Man of Yahweh, the king commands—Come down!

12 So Yliyah replied, and said to the captain of fifty: If I am a man of Yahweh, then may fire come down from heaven and consume you and your fifty men. And the fire of Yahweh came down from heaven, and consumed the second captain and his fifty.

13 Again, the king dispatched a third captain of fifty with his fifty men. And the third captain of fifty went up, and came, and fell on his knees in front of Yliyah. He entreated him, and said to him: Man of Yahweh, let my life and the lives of these fifty of your servants be esteemed in your sight.

14 Behold, fire from heaven fell and consumed two captains of fifty with their fifties. But may my life now be esteemed in your sight.

15 Then the malak of Yahweh said to Yliyah: Go down with him. Do not be afraid of him. So he got up, and went down to the king with him.

16 He said to the king: This is what Yahweh says: Because you have sent messengers to inquire of Baal-Zebub; Lord of the Fly, the god of Ekron, is it because there is no Father in Israyl to inquire of His word? Therefore, you shall not leave the bed you lie upon, but you shall surely die.

17 So Ahazyah died according to the word of Yahweh which Yliyah had spoken. Because he had no son, Yahram succeeded him as king over Israyl, in the second year of Yahram son of Yahshaphat king of Yahdah.

18 Now the rest of the events of the reign of Ahazyah, and what he did, are they not written in the chronicles of the kings of Israyl?

CHAP. 2

When Yahweh was about to mount Yliyah on the whirlwind in the air, Yliyah and Ylisha set out from Gilgal.

2 Yliyah had said to Ylisha: Stay here now, for Yahweh has sent me to Bethel. But Ylisha had said: As surely as Yahweh lives, and as surely as you live, I will not leave you. So they went down to Bethel.

3 The sons of the prophets who were at Bethel came out to meet Ylisha, and asked him: Do you know Yahweh is going to take your leader from you this day? Ylisha replied, Yes. I know, but do not speak of this.

4 Then Ylijah said to him; Ylisha, stay here now, because Yahweh has sent me to Yericho. But Ylisha said; As surely as Yahweh lives; and as surely as you live, I will not leave you. So they went down to Yericho.

5 And the sons of the prophets who were at Yericho came out to meet Ylisha, and asked him: Do you know Yahweh is going to take your leader from you this day? Ylisha replied; Yes, I know, but do not speak of this.

6 Ylijah then said to Ylisha: Stay here now, because Yahweh has sent me to the Yordan. But Ylisha said; As surely as Yahweh lives, and as surely as you live, I will not leave you. So the two of them walked on.

7 Fifty men of the sons of the prophets came and stood at a distance watching them, while the two of them stood by the Yordan.

8 Then Ylijah removed his tallit, rolled it up, and struck the water with it. The water then separated to the right and to the left, and the two of them crossed over the Yordan on dry ground.

9 When they had crossed over, Ylijah said to Ylisha; Ask me! What shall I do for you before I am taken from you. Ylisha replied; Let me receive a double portion of your spirit.

10 He replied; You have made a difficult request, but if you see me taken from you, you will receive this thing—but if not, then you will not.

11 As they continued walking along and talking, a chariot of fire and horses of fire suddenly came between the two of them, and Ylijah mounted on the whirlwind in the air.

12 Ylisha saw this, and cried out: My father! My father! The chariots and horsemen of Israyl!—then he saw him no more. So he took hold of his own tallit he was wearing, and tore it into two pieces.

13 He picked up the tallit that fell off Ylijah, and he went back and stood on the bank of the Yordan.

14 Then he took the tallit that had fallen off Ylijah, struck the water with it, and asked; Where is Yahweh, the Father of Israyl? When he struck the water, the water separated to the right and to the left, and Ylisha crossed over on dry ground.

15 The sons of the prophets from Yericho were watching him, and they said; The spirit of Ylijah rests upon Ylisha. Then they went out to meet him, and they bowed to the ground in front of him.

16 Then they said to him; Look! We, your servants, have fifty capable men. Let them go and search for your leader. It may be the Spirit of Yahweh has lifted him up and set him down on some mountain or in some valley. But Ylisha said; Do not send them.

17 But they urged him until he was embarrassed, so he said; Send them! They dispatched fifty men who searched for three days, but did not find him.

18 When they returned to him, for he stayed in Yericho, he said to them; Did I not tell you: Do not go?

19 Then the men of the city said to Ylisha; Behold, the building site of this city is pleasant, just as my ruler sees—but the water is bad, and the ground is unproductive.

20 He said; Bring me a new bowl, and put salt in it. So they brought it to him.

21 Then he went to the source of the water supply, threw the salt there, and said; This is what Yahweh says: I have healed this water. Never again shall it cause death, nor the land to be unproductive.

22 The water remains wholesome to this day, according to the word Ylisha had spoken.

23 From Yericho Ylisha went to Bethel. As he was walking along the road, some youths came out of the city and ridiculed him. They said; Go on up, you baldhead! Go on up, you baldhead!

24 So he turned around, looked at them, and pronounced a curse on them in the Name of Yahweh. Then two female bears came out of the woods and mauled forty-two of the youths.

25 Then from Bethel he went to Mount Carmel, and from there he returned to Samaria.

CHAP. 3

Yahram son of Ahab became king over Israyl at Samaria in the eighteenth year of Yahshaphat king of Yahdah, and he reigned twelve years.

2 He did evil in the eyes of Yahweh; erving the gods, but not as his father and mother had done. He got rid of the sacred pillar; massebah, of Baal his father had made.

3 Nevertheless, he continued in the sins which Yeroboam son of Nebat caused Israyl to commit—he did not turn away from them.

4 Now Mesha king of Moab reigned in a sheep-raising land, and he had to provide the king of Israyl with 100,000 lambs and with the wool of 100,000 rams.

5 However when Ahab died, the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israyl.

6 Then King Yahram set out from Samaria and gathered all Israyl together.

7 He also sent a message to Yahshaphat king of Yahdah, and said; The king of Moab has rebelled against me. Will you go with me to fight against Moab? He replied; I will go with you. I am as you are. My people are as your people. My horses are as your horses.

8 Then Yahshaphat asked; By what route shall we go up? He answered; By the way of the Wilderness of Edom.

9 So the king of Israyl set out, and the king of Yahdah and the king of Edom accompanied him. They marched on the roundabout route seven days, then the army had no more water for themselves or for the animals with them.

10 Then the king of Israyl said; What! Yahweh has called these three kings together just to deliver us into the hands of Moab!

11 But Yahshaphat asked; Is there no prophet of Yahweh here, so we may inquire of Yahweh by him? Then one of the officials of the king of Israyl answered, and said; Ylisha son of Shaphat is here, who used to pour water on the hands of Ylijah; he used to be his personal attendant.

12 Yahshaphat said; The word of Yahweh is with him. So the king of Israyl, and Yahshaphat, and the king of Edom went down to him.

13 Then Ylisha said to the king of Israyl; What do I have in common with you? Go to the prophets of your father and the prophets of your mother! But the king of Israyl said to him; No! For it was Yahweh Who called us three kings together to deliver us into the hands of Moab!

14 Ylisha replied; Just as surely as Yahweh Almighty lives, before Whom I serve, if it were not for the presence of Yahshaphat king of Yahdah, whom I respect, I would not look at you, nor even notice you!

15 But now, bring to me one who plays the harp! While the harpist was playing, the hand of Yahweh came upon Ylisha.

16 And he said; This is what Yahweh says: Make this valley full of ditches.

17 Because this is what Yahweh says: You shall not see wind, nor shall you see rain, yet this valley shall be filled with water—then you, your cattle, and your other animals may drink.

18 This is an easy thing in the eyes of Yahweh. He will also deliver the Moabites into your hands.

19 You shall overthrow every fortified city, and every major city. You shall cut down every large tree, stop up every spring of water, every productive field you will mar with stones.

20 The next morning, at the time of the offering of the sacrifice, water suddenly flowed from the direction of Edom, and the land was filled with water.

21 Now all the Moabites heard that the kings were coming up to fight against them, so every man who was able to bear arms, young and old, positioned themselves on their border.

22 When they got up early in the morning, the sun was shining on the water. To the Moabites on the other side, the water looked as red as blood.

23 They said; That is blood! The kings have surely fought and killed each other! Moab, to the plunder!

24 When the Moabites came to the camp of Israyl, Israyl rose up and fought the Moabites, and Moab fled from in front of them. Israyl entered their land, and slaughtered the Moabites.

25 Then they destroyed the cities, and each man threw a stone on every productive piece of land until it was filled. They stopped up all the springs of water and cut down every large tree. Only Kir Haresheth remained with its stones in place, but slingers surrounded and attacked it as well.

26 When the king of Moab realized the battle was going against him, he took with him seven hundred swordsmen to break through to the king of Edom, but they failed.

27 Then he took his firstborn son, who would have succeeded him as king, and offered him as a sacrifice on top of the city wall in full view of all the people. The shock and disgust traumatized Israyl. They withdrew from that place and returned to their own land.

CHAP. 4

The wife of one of the sons of the prophets cried out to Ylisha, and said; Your servant, my husband, is dead, and you know that your servant revered Yahweh. But now his creditor is coming to take my two sons to be his slaves!

2 Ylisha asked her; What can I do for you? Tell me, what do you have in your house? She answered; Your maidservant has nothing in the house except a small jar of oil.

3 Then he said; Go, ask all in your area—all your neighbors, for empty jars. Do not gather just a few.

4 Then go in and shut the door behind you and your sons. Pour it into all those jars, and set the full ones aside.

5 So she went from him, and afterward shut the door behind her and her sons. They brought the jars to her, and she poured it out.

6 When all the jars were full, she said to her son; Bring me another jar. But he said to her; There is not another jar. Then the oil ceased.

7 She came out and informed the man of Yahweh. He instructed her; Go, sell the oil and pay your debts. You and your sons may live on the rest.

8 One day Ylisha went to Shunem, and there was a noble and kind woman who detained him to stay for a meal. So, as often as he passed through, he stopped there to eat some food.

9 She said to her husband; I know this is a holy man of Yahweh who often stops here.

10 May we make a small upper room on the wall, and may we put a bed for him there, and a table, a chair, and a lampstand? Then it will be, whenever he comes to us he may stay here.

11 One day when Ylisha came, he went up to his room and lay down there.

12 Then he said to his attendant Gehazi: Summon this Shunammite woman. When he had called her, she stood before him.

13 Ylisha instructed him: Tell her; Behold, you have been concerned for us, and you have cared for us. What is it that I can do for you? Do you want me to speak to the king on your behalf, or to the commander of the army? But she answered: Among my own people I have a home.

14 So Ylisha asked; What can then be done for her? Gehazi replied; Well, she has no son, and her husband is old.

15 Then he said; Summon her. When he had called her, she stood in the doorway.

16 Then he said; At the season during the time of spring, you will hold a son. But she said; No, my ruler, O man of Yahweh! Do not deceive your maidservant!

17 But the woman conceived, and bore a son at the season during the time of spring, just as Ylisha had told her.

18 The child grew. Then one day he went out to his father among the reapers.

19 And he said to his father; My head! My head! He said to a servant; Carry him to his mother.

20 When he had taken him and carried him to his mother, he sat on her lap until noon, and then he died.

21 Then she went up, laid him on the bed of the man of Yahweh, closed the door on him, and went out.

22 She called her husband, and asked; May you send me one of the young men and one of the donkeys, so I may run to the man of Yahweh, and then return?

23 But he asked; Why are you going to him this day? It is neither the New Moon, nor the Sabbath? She replied; It is for my welfare.

24 She sat on the saddle on the donkey, and instructed her servant; Lead on! Do not slow down for me unless I tell you.

25 So she set out and came to the man of Yahweh at Mount Carmel. When the man of Yahweh saw her at a distance, he said to Gehazi his attendant; Look, the Shunammite woman!

26 Run to meet her, and ask her; Is it well with you? Is it well with your husband? Is it well with your child? She answered him; Shalom!

27 When she reached the man of Yahweh on the hill, she caught him by the feet, and Gehazi came up as if to push her away. But the man of Yahweh said; Leave her alone. She is deeply distressed, and Yahweh has hidden it from me and has not told me.

28 Then she said; Did I ask for a son of my ruler? Did I not tell you: Do not deceive me?

29 Then he said to Gehazi; Tuck your cloak at your waist, take my staff in your hand, and run! If you meet anyone, do not salute him, and if anyone salutes you, do not return his greeting! Then you are to lay my staff on the face of the boy.

30 Then the mother of the child said; As surely as Yahweh lives, and as surely as you live, I will not leave you. So he got up and followed her.

31 Gehazi went on ahead of them, and laid the staff on the face of the boy, but there was neither sound nor response. Therefore, Gehazi went back to meet him, and informed him, saying; The boy has not awakened.

32 When Ylisha came into the house, there was the boy, lying dead on Ylisha's bed.

33 He went in, closed the door on the two of them, and prayed to Yahweh.

34 Then he got up and lay upon the boy. He placed his mouth on his mouth, his eyes to his eyes, his hands to his hands, and stretched out upon him—and the body of the boy grew warm.

35 Then he got up and walked in the room—once to this side, and once to the other side, then he stretched out upon the boy once again. The boy sneezed seven times and then opened his eyes.

36 He called Gehazi, and said to him; Summon this Shunammite woman. So he called her. When she came, he said to her; Take your son.

37 Then she came in, fell at his feet, and bowed to the ground. Then she took her son and went out.

38 Ylisha returned to Gilgal, and there was a famine in the land. Now the sons of the prophets were meeting with him, and he said to his servant; Put on a large pot and cook a stew for the sons of the prophets.

39 So one went out into the field to gather herbs, and he found a wild vine in the field. He gathered some of its fruit and filled the fold of his cloak. When he returned, he cut them up into the pot of stew, though they did not know what they were.

40 The stew was served out for the men to eat, but as they began to eat, they cried out and said; O man of Yahweh, there is death in the pot! And they could not eat it.

41 He said; Bring some flour. He put it into the pot, and said; Serve it to the people so they may eat. And there was nothing harmful in the pot.

42 Then a man came from Baal Shalisha, and brought the man of Yahweh twenty loaves of bread of the firstfruits, along with new grains of barley in a bag, Ylisha said; Give to the people so they may eat!

43 Then his servant said; What? How can this be set before a hundred men? But Ylisha answered; Give this to the people so they may eat. For this is what Yahweh says; They will eat, and have some left over.

44 So he set it in front of them; and they ate and had some left over, according to the word of Yahweh.

CHAP. 5

Now Naaman, commander of the army of the king of Aram, was a great and honorable man in the eyes of his king, because through him Yahweh had given victory to Aram. He was a man of valor, but he also was a leper.

2 Now the Arameans had gone out and had taken captive a young girl from Israyl, and she served Naaman's wife.

3 She said to her whom she served: If only my ruler would see the prophet who is in Samaria! He would heal him of his leprosy!

4 Then Naaman went in and informed his king, saying: Such and such said the girl who came from the land of Israyl.

5 So the king of Aram said: Leave now! I will send a letter to the king of Israyl. So he left and took with him ten talents; about 750 pounds, of silver, six thousand shekels; about 150 pounds, of gold, and ten sets of clothing.

6 He delivered the letter to the king of Israyl, which said: Receive this letter! Behold, I send to you my servant Naaman, so you may heal him of his leprosy.

7 As soon as the king of Israyl read the letter, he tore his clothes, and said: Am I a god to kill and to bring to life, that he sends this one to me to heal him of his leprosy? Truly, see how he is trying to start a quarrel with me!

8 When Ylisha, the man of Yahweh, heard that the king of Israyl had torn his clothes, he sent this message to the king, and said: Why have you torn your clothes? Let him come to me, so he may know there is a prophet in Israyl!

9 So Naaman went with his horses and chariots, and he stopped at the door of the house of Ylisha.

10 Ylisha sent a messenger out to him, to say: Go and wash in the Yordan seven times. Then your flesh will be restored to health, and you will be clean.

11 But Naaman became furious, and left, saying: I thought he would surely come out and stand in front of me, to call with the Name of Yahweh his god, wave his hand over the leprous spot, and heal me!

12 Are not the Abanah and Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israyl? Could I not wash in them and be clean? So he turned and left in a rage.

13 Then his attendants went to him and spoke to him, and said: My father, if the prophet had told you to do some majestic thing, would you not have done it? How much more, then, when he tells you to just wash and be cleansed?

14 So he went down and plunged himself seven times in the Yordan, as he was instructed by the man of Yahweh, and his flesh was restored like the flesh of a little child, and he was clean.

15 Then Naaman and all his attendants went back to the man of Yahweh. He came and stood in front of him, and said: Truly, now I know that there is no god in all the earth, except in Israyl! Accept now a gift from your servant.

16 But Ylisha said: As surely as Yahweh lives, before Whom I serve, I will accept nothing. Even though Naaman urged him to take it, he refused.

17 So Naaman said: Then allow me, your servant, to be given as much red soil as a pair of mules can carry, for your servant will never again make burnt offerings and sacrifices to any other god but Yahweh.

18 Yet in one thing may Yahweh pardon your servant—when my king goes into the house of Rimmon to worship there, and he leans on my hand, and I bow down in the house of Rimmon—when I bow down in the house of Rimmon, may Yahweh pardon your servant in this thing.

19 Then he said to him: Go in peace! So he left, and traveled away from the land.

20 But Gehazi, the attendant of Ylisha, the man of Yahweh, said: Behold, my ruler was too easy on Naaman this Aramean, by not receiving from his hands the gifts he brought. But as surely as Yahweh lives, I will run after him and get something from him!

21 So Gehazi pursued Naaman. When Naaman saw him running behind him, he got down from his chariot to meet him, and asked: Is all well?

22 He replied: All is well! My ruler has sent me, saying: Truly, just now two young men of the sons of the prophets have come to me from the hill country of Ephraim. May you give them a talent; about 75 pounds, of silver and two sets of clothing.

23 But Naaman said: Take two talents! So he urged Gehazi to accept them, and tied up the two talents of silver in two bags, along with two sets of clothing. He handed them to two of his servants, and they carried them ahead of him.

24 When he came to the ophel; elevated stronghold, he took this from their hands, and stored it in the house. Then he released the men, and they left.

25 Now he went in and stood before his ruler, and Ylisha asked him: Where have you been, Gehazi? He answered: Your servant did not go anywhere.

26 Then he said to him: Was not my heart: understanding, with you when the man turned back from his chariot to meet you? Is this the time to accept money, or to receive clothing; olive groves, vineyards, sheep and oxen, or male and female servants?

27 Therefore the leprosy of Naaman will cling to you and to your descendants forever! When Gehazi went out from his presence he was leprous, as white as snow.

CHAP 6

The sons of the prophets said to Ylisha; Look, the place where we live with you is too small for us.

2 Allow us to go to the Yordan, and let each of us get a pole, and let us build a place there for us to live. So he said; Go.

3 Then one asked; Will you come with your servants? He answered; I will go.

4 So he went with them. And when they came to the Yordan, they cut down trees.

5 But as one was felling a tree, the iron ax head fell into the water. He cried out; Oh, my ruler, it was borrowed!

6 Then the man of Yahweh asked; Where did it fall? And he pointed out the place it fell. So Ylisha cut off a stick, and threw it there, and caused the iron to float.

7 Then he said; Lift it out. So the man reached out his hand and took it.

8 Now the king of Aram was at war with Israyl. He counseled with his officials, and declared; My camp will be in such and such a place.

9 So the man of Yahweh sent word to the king of Israyl, and said; Take heed that you do not pass that place, because the Arameans are going down there.

10 Then the king of Israyl scouted the place the man of Yahweh told him of. So the man of Yahweh had warned him, and he was on his guard there. Time and again Ylisha did this for the king.

11 The king of Aram was enraged over this thing. So he summoned his officers, and said to them; Tell me, which one of us is on the side of the king of Israyl?

12 One of his officers said; None of us, my ruler, O king! But Ylisha, the prophet in Israyl, tells the king of Israyl the words you speak in your bedroom.

13 He ordered; Go, find out where he is, so I can send men to capture him! He was informed, saying; He is in Dothan.

14 So he dispatched a strong force of horses and chariots there. They set out by night and surrounded the city.

15 So when the servant of the man of Yahweh got up early and went out, there was an army, surrounding the city with horses and chariots. The servant asked; Oh, my ruler, what shall we do?

16 He answered; Do not fear, because those who are with us, are more than those who are with them.

17 So Ylisha prayed, and said; Yahweh, I pray, open his eyes so he may see. Then Yahweh opened the eyes of the young man, and he saw the hills were full of horses and chariots of fire—all around Ylisha!

18 When the Arameans advanced toward him, Ylisha prayed to Yahweh, and said; I pray, strike this people with blindness. And He struck them with blindness, just as Ylisha had prayed.

19 Then Ylisha said to them; This is not the road, and this is not the city. Follow me, and I will lead you to the man you are looking for. And he led them to Samaria.

20 When they had entered Samaria, Ylisha prayed; Yahweh, open the eyes of these men, so they may see. And Yahweh opened their eyes, and they saw they were inside Samaria!

21 When the king of Israyl saw them, he said to Ylisha; My father, shall I kill them? Shall I kill them?

22 He answered, and said to him; You shall not kill them! Would you kill those you had taken captive with your own sword and bow? Set food and water in front of them, so they may eat and drink, and return to their king.

23 Then a great feast was prepared for them, and after they finished eating and drinking, he sent them away, and they returned to their king. So the bands of Arameans raided no more in the land of Israyl.

24 After that, Ben-Hadad king of Aram gathered all his forces, and went up and besieged Samaria.

25 There was a great famine in Samaria, and they besieged it until a donkey's head sold for eighty shekels; about 2 pounds, of silver, and one-fourth of a cab; about 1/2 pint, of dove's dung sold for five shekels; about 2 ounces, of silver.

26 As the king of Israyl was passing by on the wall, a woman cried out to him, and said; Help me, my ruler, O king!

27 And he answered her; If Yahweh does not help you, where can I find help for you? From the threshing floor, or from the winepress?

28 Then the king said; What is the matter? And she answered; This woman said to me; Give your son, so we may eat him this day, then we will eat my son tomorrow.

29 So we boiled my son, and ate him. Then I said to her on the next day; Give your son, so we may eat him, but she has hidden her son.

30 When the king heard the words of the woman, he tore his clothes. As he walked along the wall, the people looked, and there underneath, he wore sackcloth on his body.

31 Then he said; In this way may god deal with me, and in this way may he add, if the head of Ylisha son of Shaphat remains on him this day!

32 Ylisha was sitting in his house, and the elders were sitting with him. Now the king sent a man ahead of him, but before the messenger arrived, he said to the elders; Do you see this murderer is sending someone to cut off my head? Behold, when the messenger comes, shut the door and hold it shut against him. Is not the sound of his ruler's footsteps behind him?

33 While he yet spoke with them, there was the messenger, coming down to him, because the king had said; Surely this curse is from Yahweh, so why should I wait for Yahweh any longer?

CHAP. 7

Ylisha said; Hear the word of Yahweh. This is what Yahweh says: Tommorrow about this same time, a seah; about 7 quarts, of flour shall be sold for a shekel; about 2/5 ounce of silver, and two seahs of barley for a shekel, at the gate of Samaria.

2 But the officer, upon whose hand the king leaned, answered the man of Yahweh, and said; Look, even if Yahweh would make windows in heaven, could this thing be? Ylisha answered him, and said; You will see this with your own eyes, but you will not eat any of it!

3 Now there were four leprous men at the entrance of the gate, and they said to one another; Why do we sit here waiting to die?

4 If we say: We will enter the city—the famine is in the city, and we will die there. Then if we sit here, we will die also. So, come and let us surrender to the army of the Arameans. If they let us live, then we will live; if they kill us, we will only be dead.

5 So they got up, between the two evenings, to go to the camp of the Arameans. When they came to the outskirts of the Aramean camp, not a man was there—

6 For Yahweh had caused the army of the Arameans to hear the noise of chariots, and the noise of horses, as coming from a great army. They had said to one another; Behold! The king of Israyl has hired the kings of the Hittites and the kings of the Egyptians to come and attack us!

7 Because of this, they got up and fled between the two evenings, and left the camp just as it was—their tents, their horses, and their donkeys—because they had fled for their lives.

8 When these lepers came to the outskirts of the camp, they went into one tent, and ate and drank. They carried from it silver, gold, and clothing, and went and hid them. Then they came back, and entered another tent, and took things from it, and hid them also.

9 Then they said to one another; We are not doing what is right. This day is a day of glad news, and we remain silent. If we wait until morning light, then some punishment will befall us. Now come, let us go and inform the king's household.

10 So they went, and called out to the gatekeepers of the city, and informed them, saying; We went to the camp of the Arameans, and not a man was there—not a sound of anyone, only horses and donkeys tied, and the tents left just as they were.

11 So the gatekeepers shouted the news, and it was reported to the king's household inside.

12 Then the king got up in the night, and said to his officials; Allow me to tell you what the Syrians have done to us. They know we are hungry, and so they have just gone out of the camp to hide themselves in the countryside, saying; When they come out of the city, we will capture them alive, and take the city!

13 But one of his officials answered, and said; Let several men take five of the remaining horses left in the city. Behold, they are just like all of Israyl who are left here—yes, they will only be like all Israyl who will be consumed! So let us send them, to find out what has come to pass.

14 So, they chose two chariots with their horses, and the king sent them in the direction of the army of Aram, and said; Go! Find out what has come to pass!

15 So they followed them as far as the Yardan, and they saw the whole road full of clothing and weapons, which the Arameans had thrown away in their haste. So the messengers returned and informed the king.

16 Then the people went out and plundered the tents of the Arameans. So a seah; about 7 quarts, of flour was sold for a shekel; about 2/5 ounce of silver, and two seahs of barley sold for a shekel, just as the word of Yahweh had spoken.

17 Now the king had placed the officer, upon whose arm he leaned, in charge of the gate, and the people trampled him in the gateway. So he died, just as the man of Yahweh had said when the king came down to his house.

18 It came to pass, just as the man of Yahweh had said to the king; About this time tomorrow, a seah of flour shall sell for a shekel and two seahs of barley shall sell for a shekel in the gate of Samaria.

19 Then that officer had answered the man of Yahweh, and had said; Behold, if Yahweh would make windows in heaven, could such a thing be? And he had answered him; You will see it with your own eyes, but you will not eat any of it!

20 And it came to pass against him, because the people trampled him in the gate, and he died.

CHAP. 8

Ylisha spoke to the woman whose son had been restored to life, and said to her: Go away, you and your household. Stay wherever you can stay; for Yahweh has decreed a famine, and it will remain in the land for seven years.

2 So the woman rose up and did as the man of Yahweh told her, and she and her household left. They stayed in the land of the Philistines for seven years.

3 Then, at the end of seven years, the woman returned from the land of the Philistines. So she went to the king to petition him for the return of her house and her land.

4 The king was speaking with Gehazi, the attendant of the man of Yahweh, and said: Tell me all the wonderful things Ylisha has done.

5 Now just as he was telling the king how the dead had been restored to life through him—there was the woman who had come to the king to petition him for the return of her house and land. Gehazi said: My ruler, O king, this is the woman! It is her son who was restored to life!

6 When the king asked the woman about it, she told him. Then the king appointed a certain official to her, saying: Restore all that was hers, including all the income from the field from the day she left the land until now.

7 Ylisha went to Damascus, and Ben-Hadad king of Aram was sick. Ben-Hadad was informed of this, saying: The man of Yahweh has arrived here.

8 Then the king said to Hazael: Take a gift in your hand, and go to meet the man of Yahweh. Inquire of Yahweh through him, asking: Shall I recover from this disease?

9 So Hazael went to meet him and took a gift of every bountiful thing of Damascus—forty camel loads. He came and stood in front of him, and said: Your son Ben-Hadad king of Aram has sent me to you, asking: Shall I recover from this disease?

10 Ylisha said to him: Go, and tell him: You shall surely recover. But Yahweh has revealed to me that he will certainly die.

11 Then the face of Ylisha set in a fixed gaze until Hazael felt embarrassed, then the man of Yahweh began to weep.

12 Hazael asked: Why is my ruler weeping? He replied: Because I know the hurt and damage you will do to the children of Israyl—their fortified cities you will set on fire, their young men you will murder with the sword, their children you will hurl forcibly to the ground, and their pregnant women you will rip open.

13 Hazael said: What is your servant, but a mere dog! How would he be able to do this great thing? Ylisha replied: Yahweh has shown me you as king over Aram.

14 Then he left Ylisha, and returned to his king, who asked him: What did Ylisha say to you? He answered: He told me that you would surely recover.

15 But the next day Hazael took a thick cloth, soaked it in water, and held it over Ben-Hadad's face until he suffocated to death. Then Hazael succeeded him as king.

16 In the fifth year of Yahram son of Ahab king of Israyl, Yahram son of Yahshaphat began to reign as king of Yahdah.

17 He was thirty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned eight years in Yerusalem.

18 He walked in the way of the kings of Israyl, just as the house of Ahab had done—because the daughter of Ahab, Athalyah, was his wife—he did evil in the eyes of Yahweh: serv-ing the gods.

19 Yet Yahweh would not destroy Yahdah for the sake of his servant David—He had promised to give a lamp to him and his sons forever.

20 During his reign Edom rebelled against the power of Yahdah, and made a king over themselves.

21 So Yahram went to Zair, he and all his chariots. The Edomites surrounded him, and attacked him and all the captains of his chariots. However, he got up and broke through by night, and his people fled to their homes.

22 So Edom has been in rebellion against the power of Yahdah to this day. Libnah rebelled at that same time.

23 Now the rest of the events of the reign of Yahram of Yahdah and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Yahdah?

24 So Yahram slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the City of David. Then Ahazyah: Achatzyah, Yahweh has Seized, succeeded him as king.

25 In the twelfth year of Yahram son of Ahab king of Israyl, Ahazyah son of Yahram began to reign as king of Yahdah.

26 Ahazyah was twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned one year in Yerusalem. His mother's name was Athalyah: Yahweh Will Draw Together, the granddaughter of Omri king of Israyl.

27 He walked in the way of the house of Ahab, and did evil in the eyes of Yahweh: serv-ing the gods, just as the house of Ahab had done—because he was related through marriage to the house of Ahab.

28 Now Ahazyah went with Yahram of Israyl, the son of Ahab, to war against Hazael king of Aram at Ramoth Gilead; and Yahram was wounded by the Arameans.

29 Then King Yahram returned to Yezreel to recuperate from the wounds the Arameans had inflicted upon him at Ramoth Gilead, when he fought against Hazael king of Aram. So Ahaz-yah son of Yahram, the king of Yahdah, went to visit Yahram the son of Ahab, the king of Israyl, in Yezreel, because he had been wounded.

CHAP. 9

Ylisha the prophet summoned one of the sons of the prophets, and said to him; Tuck in your garments at your waist, take this flask of oil in your hands, and go to Ramoth Gilead.

2 When you arrive there, seek out Yahu; Yahweh is He, son of Yahshaphat, the son of Nimshi. Go to him, get him away from his associates, and take him into a private room.

3 Then take the flask of oil, pour it on his head, and say; This is what Yahweh says: I have anointed you king over Israyl! Then open the door and run—do not wait around.

4 So the young man, the attendant of the prophet, set out to Ramoth Gilead.

5 When he arrived, he found the captains of the army sitting together. He said to him; I have a message for you, O commander. Yahu asked him; For which of us? He replied; For you, commander.

6 So he got up and went into the house. Then he poured the oil on his head, and said to him; This is what Yahweh, the Father of Israyl, says: I have anointed you king over the people of Yahweh, over Israyl!

7 You shall destroy the house of Ahab which now rules, and I will avenge the blood of My servants the prophets, and the blood of all the servants of Yahweh, shed by the hand of Yezebel; Baalzebel;

8 The whole house of Ahab shall die—I will cut off from Ahab all the males in Israyl, slave or free;

9 I will make the house of Ahab like the house of Yeroboam son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha son of Ahiyah.

10 The dogs shall eat Yezebel; Baalzebel, on the plot of ground at Yezreel, and no one will bury her. Then he opened the door, and ran.

11 When Yahu returned to the captains of the king, his associates, one of them asked; Is all well? Why did this madman come to you? He said to them; You know the man, and the sorts of things he utters.

12 But they said; That is not true! Tell us now! So he said; This is what he told me; This is what Yahweh says: I have anointed you king over Israyl.

13 Then each man hurried, took his garment, and spread it under him on the top of the steps. Then they blew the shofar, and proclaimed; Yahu is king!

14 Then Yahu son of Yahshaphat, the son of Nimshi, plotted against Yahram. (Now Yahram and all Israyl had been defending Ramoth

Gilead against Hazael king of Aram,

15 But King Yahram had to return to Yezreel to recuperate from the wounds the Arameans had inflicted upon him when he fought with Hazael king of Aram.) Yahu said; If this thing is your will and desire, then do not allow anyone to escape from the city, to tell the news in Yezreel.

16 Then Yahu rode in a chariot to Yezreel, because Yahram was recuperating there, and Ahazyah king of Yahdah had come down to visit him.

17 The watchman stood on the tower in Yezreel, and when he saw Yahu's party approaching, he called out; I see a company of men! Yahram ordered; Get a horseman, and send him out to meet them. Let him say; Do you come in peace?

18 So the horseman went out to meet him, and said; This is what the king says: Do you come in peace? Yahu answered him; What does peace have to do with you? Turn, and follow behind me! Then the watchman reported, and said; The messenger went to them, but he is not returning.

19 Then he sent a second horseman out to say; This is what the king says: Do you come in peace? And Yahu answered; What does peace have to do with you? Turn, and follow behind me!

20 The watchman reported, and said; He went up to them, but he is not returning either, and the driving is like that of Yahu son of Nimshi, because he drives like a madman.

21 Then Yahram ordered; Bring my chariot! When his chariot was ready, Yahram king of Israyl and Ahazyah king of Yahdah both went out—each in their own chariots. They went out to meet Yahu, and they met him at the plot of ground belonging to Naboth the Yezreelite.

22 When Yahram saw Yahu, he asked him; Do you come in peace, Yahu? He answered; What peace is there, as long as the god-worshipping of your mother, and her witchcrafts, prevail?

23 Then Yahram turned around, and fled, calling out to Ahazyah; Treachery, Ahazyah!

24 Then Yahu drew back his bow with all his strength, and shot Yahram between his shoulders. The arrow entered his heart, and he slumped down in his chariot.

25 Then Yahu ordered Bidkar, his captain, saying; Pick him up, and throw him onto this plot of ground belonging to Naboth the Yezreelite—for remember when you and I were riding together in chariots behind Ahab his father—when ● Yahweh brought this utterance of doom upon him, saying;

26 Surely yesterday I saw the blood of Na-

both and the blood of his sons, Yahweh says; and I will surely make you pay for it on this plot of ground, says Yahweh. Now, pick him up and throw him on that plot, according to the word of Yahweh!

27 When Ahazyah king of Yahdah realized what was taking place, he fled on the road by the garden house. Yahu pursued after him, and cried out; Kill him also! They wounded him in his chariot on the ascent to Gur, near Ibleam, but he escaped to Megiddo, where he died.

28 His officials carried him in a chariot to Jerusalem, and buried him in his tomb with his fathers in the City of David.

29 In the eleventh year of the reign of Yahrām son of Ahab, Ahazyah had become king over Yahdah.

30 Then Yahu went toward Yezreel. When Yezebel; Baalzebel, was informed, she put paint on her eyes and fixed her hair, then she watched through a window.

31 Just as Yahu entered through the gate, she cried out; Did ● Zimri before you, who murdered his king, ever have peace?

32 And Yahu looked up at the window, and shouted; Who is on my side? Who? And two or three eunuchs looked down at him.

33 He commanded them; Throw her down! So they threw her down, and some of her blood spattered on the wall and on the horses, as he trampled on her.

34 Then he went in, and ate and drank. Afterward, he said; Now go, and take care of that woman whom curses were called down upon. Bury her, because she was a king's daughter.

35 So they went out to bury her, but they found nothing but her skull, her feet, and the palms of her hands.

36 They returned and informed Yahu of this. He said; This is also the word of Yahweh which He spoke by His servant Ylijah the Tishbite, saying: ● On the plot of ground at Yezreel dogs, shall eat the flesh of Yezebel; Baalzebel.

37 And the body of Yezebel; Baalzebel, shall be like garbage on the ground in the plot at Yezreel, so no one will be able to say: Here lies Yezebel; Baalzebel.

CHAP. 10

There were seventy sons of the house of Ahab in Samaria. So Yahu wrote letters and dispatched them to Samaria, to the rulers of Yezreel, to the elders, and to all the guardians who raised the sons of Ahab, saying;

2 As soon as you receive this letter—since the king's sons are with you, and you have chariots, horses, fortified cities, and weapons—

3 Choose the best qualified and most worthy of the king's sons, set him on his father's throne, then prepare to fight for your king's house!

4 But they were greatly terrified, and said; Behold, if two kings could not stand against him, how can we stand?

5 So the administrator of the house, the governor of the city, with its elders, and all those who were guardians to the sons, sent a message to Yahu, and said; We are your servants. We will do as you tell us, but we will not make anyone king. Do that which is right in your sight.

6 So he wrote a second letter to them, saying; If you are for me, and if you will obey my voice—then take the heads off the men who are the sons of the king, and come to me in Yezreel by this time tomorrow! Now the sons of the king's house, seventy persons, were with the leading men of the city, who were raising them.

7 As soon as the letter came to them, they took the king's sons, and slaughtered seventy persons. They put their heads in baskets, and sent them to Yahu at Yezreel.

8 Then a messenger came, and informed him, saying; They have brought the heads of the king's sons. So he said; Lay them in two piles at the entrance of the city gate until morning.

9 Then the next morning, he went out and spoke to all the people, and said; You are innocent! Behold, I plotted against my ruler, and I killed him, but who has killed all of these?

10 Know now that nothing of the word of Yahweh that He spoke ● against the house of Ahab shall fail. Yahweh has done what He promised through his servant Ylijah.

11 So Yahu killed everyone in Yezreel who remained of the house of Ahab, including all his chief men, his close associates, and his priests, until none of them remained.

12 Then Yahu set out, and went to Samaria. On the way, at Beth Eked; The Shearing House, of the Shepherds, 13 He met some relatives of Ahazyah king of Yahdah, and asked; Who are you? They answered; We are brothers of Ahazyah. We have come down to greet the sons of the king, and the sons of the queen mother.

14 He ordered; Take them alive! So they took them alive, then killed them at the well of Beth Eked—forty-two men. He left no survivors.

15 When he left there, he met Yahnadab; Offer Willingly to Yahweh, son of Rechab, who came out to meet him. He greeted him and asked him; Are you of the same mind with me, that I am with you? Yahnadab replied; I am. Yahu answered; If it is, then give me your hand. So he gave him his hand, and Yahu helped him up into his chariot.

16 Yahu said; Come with me, and behold my zeal for Yahweh! So he had him ride along in his chariot.

17 When he arrived in Samaria, he slaughtered all who remained of the house of Ahab in Samaria. He destroyed them, according to the word of Yahweh which He spoke to Yliyah.

18 Then Yahu gathered all the people together, and said to them; Ahab served Baal a little! Yahu will serve him much!

19 Now, summon to me all the prophets of Baal—all his preachers and all his priests! Make sure no one is missing, for I have a great sacrifice for Baal! Anyone who is missing shall not live! However, Yahu acted with deception in order to destroy those who ministered to Baal.

20 Yahu ordered; Proclaim a solemn assembly for Baal! So they proclaimed it.

21 Then Yahu sent messengers throughout all Israyl, and all the ministers of Baal came. There was not a man who did not come. So they came into the House of Baal, and the House of Baal was filled from one end to the other.

22 Then he ordered the one in charge of the wardrobe; Bring out the robes for all who minister to Baal! So he brought the robes out for them.

23 Then Yahu and Yahnadab son of Rechab went into the House of Baal, and said to the ministers of Baal; Search to see that no servants of Yahweh are here with you, but only ministers of Baal!

24 So they went in to offer sacrifices and burnt offerings. Now Yahu had positioned eighty men outside, and had given these orders; If any one of you allows any to escape of the men I am placing in your hands, it will be your life for his life.

25 Just as soon as he had finished offering the burnt offering, Yahu commanded the captains and the guard; Go in! Kill them! Let no one escape! So they killed them with the edge of the sword. The captains and guards threw out the bodies, then they went into the inner shrine of the House of Baal.

26 They carried the sacred stone; massebah, out of the House of Baal and burned it.

27 They destroyed that sacred stone; massebah, representing Baal, and tore down the House of Baal, and people have used it as a latrine to this day.

28 So Yahu destroyed Baal from Israyl.

29 However, Yahu did not turn from the sins Yeroboam son of Nebat caused Israyl to commit—● from the circular golden altars at Bethel and Dan.

30 Yahweh said to Yahu; Because you have done well by doing the right thing in My eyes, and have accomplished against the house of Ahab all I had in My mind to do, you will sit on the throne of Israyl to the fourth generation.

31 Yet Yahu was not careful to walk in the Law of Yahweh, the Father of Israyl, with all his heart, because he did not forsake the sins

● Yeroboam son of Nebat had caused Israyl to commit.

32 In those days Yahweh began to shorten the border of Israyl. Hazael conquered the children of Israyl throughout all their territory;

33 From the Yordan to the east—in all the land of Gilead (the inheritance of Gad, Reuben, and Menasheh) from Aroer by the River Arnon, including Gilead and Bashan.

34 Now the rest of the events of the reign of Yahu, all that he did, and all his power, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israyl?

35 So Yahu slept with his fathers, and they buried him in Samaria. Then Yahahaz; Yah-achatz; Seized by Yahweh, his son succeeded him as king.

36 The time that Yahu reigned over Israyl in Samaria was twenty-eight years.

CHAP 11

When ●Athalyah, the mother of Ahazyah saw that her son was dead, she rose up to destroy all the royal heirs, including her own grandsons.

2 But Yahsheba, the daughter of King Yahram, sister to Ahazyah, an aunt to the royal heirs, rescued Yahash; Fire of Yahweh, from among the king's sons who were being murdered. She kept him with his nurse in a bedroom, hidden from Athalyah, so he was not killed.

3 He was hidden with her in The House of Yahweh for six years, while Athalyah reigned over the land.

4 In the seventh year Yahyada sent for the captains of hundreds, the Cherethites, and the guard, and had them brought to him at The House of Yahweh. He made a covenant pact with them and put them under a vow at The House of Yahweh. Then he presented the king's son.

5 He gave them instructions, saying; This is what you are to do; Of those of you who come on duty on the Sabbath—one third of you keep watch over the king's house.

6 One-third guard the Gate of Sur, and one-third position yourselves at the gate behind the guard, who rotate guarding the king's house.

7 You who are in the other two companies that normally go off Sabbath duty are to guard The House of Yahweh for the king.

8 Position yourselves around the king, each man with his weapon in his hand. Whoever advances on you, let him be put to death. You are to be with the king as he goes out and as he comes in.

9 So the captains of hundreds did all that Yahyada the priest commanded. Each of them took his men—those who were going on duty on the Sabbath, and those who were going off duty on the Sabbath—and came to Yahyada the priest.

10 The priest gave the captains of hundreds the spears and shields of King David that were in The House of Yahweh.

11 Then the guards, each with his weapon in his hand, positioned themselves all around the king, along the north and south, and between the altar and The House of Yahweh.

12 Yahyada brought out the king's son, placed the crown upon his head, gave him the ● Book of the Covenant, and proclaimed him king. They anointed him, and the people clapped their hands, and shouted; Long live the King!

13 When Athalyah heard the noise made by the guards and the people, she came to the people at The House of Yahweh.

14 When she looked, she saw the king, standing by a column according to the custom. The officers and those who blew the trumpets; chatsotserot, were by the king, and all the people of the land were rejoicing and sounding the trumpets; chatsotserot. Then Athalyah tore her clothes and cried out; Treason! Treason!

15 Yahyada the priest ordered the captains of hundreds, the officers of the army, and said to them; Take her outside under guard! Put to death anyone who follows her! (For the priest had said; Do not let her be killed at The House of Yahweh.)

16 They seized her as she reached the place where the horses enter the house of the king, and there she was killed.

17 Then Yahyada made a covenant between Yahweh, the king, and the people, that they would be Yahweh's people; as well as a covenant between the king and the people.

18 All the people of the land went to the House of Baal, and tore it down. They broke its altars and its idols; representative figures of the god, in pieces, and killed Mattan priest of Baal in front of the altars. Then Yahyada the priest posted guards at The House of Yahweh.

19 Then he took the captains of hundreds, the Cherethites, the guards, and all the people of the land—together they all brought the king down from The House of Yahweh, entering by the gates of the guards, into the king's house. There he sat on the throne of the kings.

20 All the people of the land rejoiced, but the people of the city were quiet, for Athalyah had been slain with the sword near the king's house.

21 Yahash was seven years old when he became king.

CHAP. 12

In the seventh year of Yahu, Yahash became king, and he reigned forty years in Yerusalem.

His mother's name was Zibiah of Beersheba.

2 Yahash did right in the eyes of Yahweh all the time Yahyada the priest guided him.

3 But the high places were not removed—the people continued to sacrifice and burn incense on the high places.

4 Yahash said to the priests; All the money from the dedicated gifts that are brought into The House of Yahweh—the money collected in the census, the money received from personal valuations, and the money for the voluntary free-will offerings—bring to The House of Yahweh.

5 Let the priests receive this from the treasury, and let them repair the damages to The House of Yahweh, wherever any damages may be found.

6 By the twenty-third year of King Yahash, the priests still had not repaired the damages to The House of Yahweh.

7 So King Yahash summoned Yahyada the High Priest, and the ordinary priests, and asked them; Why have you not repaired the damages to The House of Yahweh? Now, do not accept any more money from your people, but give it to repair the damages to The House of Yahweh.

8 Then the ordinary priests agreed not to receive any more money, and also that they would not repair the damages to The House of Yahweh themselves!

9 So Yahyada, the High Priest, took a chest, carved a hole in its lid, and set it beside the altar, on the right side just as one comes into The House of Yahweh. The priests who guarded the entrance put all the money into the chest that was brought into The House of Yahweh.

10 Whenever they saw there was a large amount of money in the chest, the king's scribe and the High Priest came, put it into bags, and counted the money that was found in The House of Yahweh.

11 Then they gave the money, which had been counted, into the hands of the supervisors appointed over those who did the work on The House of Yahweh. They paid it out to the carpenters and builders who worked on The House of Yahweh;

12 To masons and stonecutters, to purchase timber and dressed stone, to repair the damage to The House of Yahweh, and for all that was paid out to repair The House of Yahweh.

13 The money brought into The House of Yahweh was not spent for making silver basins, wick trimmers, sprinkling bowls, trumpets, or any other articles of gold or silver for The House of Yahweh.

14 It was only given to the workmen who used it to repair The House of Yahweh.

15 Also, they did not require an accounting from the men to whom they gave the money to pay the workers, because they acted with complete honesty.

16 The money from the trespass offerings and the money from the sin offerings was not brought into The House of Yahweh—it belonged to the priests.

17 Hazael king of Aram went up and attacked Gath, and captured it. So Hazael was then determined to attack Yerusalem.

18 But Yahash king of Yahdah took all the sacred things that his fathers, Yahshaphat, Yahram, and Ahazyah, kings of Yahdah, had dedicated—along with his own sacred things, all the gold found in the treasuries of The House of Yahweh and in the king's house, and sent them to Hazael king of Aram; and he then withdrew from Yerusalem.

19 Now the rest of the events of the reign of Yahash, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Yahdah?

20 Those among his officials rose up and plotted a conspiracy. They murdered Yahash in the Beth Millo, on the road going down to Silla. Yahzachar son of Shimeath and Yahzabad son of Shomer, his officials, struck him. He died, and was buried with his fathers in the City of David; and Amazyah; Amazyah: Yahweh Will Establish, his son, succeeded him as king.

CHAP. 13

In the twenty-third year of Yahash son of Ahazyah, the king of Yahdah, Yahahaz son of Yahu became king over Israyl in Samaria, and reigned for seventeen years.

2 He did evil in the eyes of Yahweh; erving the gods, and followed the sins which Yeroboam son of Nebat caused Israyl to commit. He did not turn away from them.

3 So the anger of Yahweh burned against Israyl, and He delivered them into the hand of Hazael king of Aram, and into the hand of Ben-Hadad son of Hazael, all during their lifetimes.

4 But Yahahaz implored Yahweh, and Yahweh listened to him—because He saw the oppression of Israyl, for the king of Aram oppressed them;

5 So Yahweh gave Israyl a savior, and they broke loose from the hands of the Arameans. The children of Israyl then lived in their homes as they did once before.

6 Nevertheless, they did not turn away from the sins which the house of Yeroboam caused Israyl to commit. They continued to walk in them, and the Asherah Pole; The Sacred Pole, continued to stand in Samaria.

7 But Yahweh left nothing of the army of Israyl, except fifty horsemen, ten chariots, and ten thousand foot soldiers, because the king of Aram destroyed them and made them like the dust at threshing time.

8 Now the rest of the events of the reign of Yahahaz, all that he did, and his power, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israyl?

9 So Yahahaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him in Samaria. Then Yahash his son succeeded him as king.

10 In the thirty-seventh year of Yahash king of Yahdah, Yahash son of Yahahaz became king over Israyl in Samaria, and he reigned sixteen years.

11 He did evil in the eyes of Yahweh; erving the gods. He did not turn away from any of the sins which Yeroboam son of Nebat caused Israyl to commit; he continued to walk in them.

12 Now the rest of the events of the reign of Yahash, all that he did, and his power with which he fought against Amazyah king of Yahdah, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israyl?

13 So Yahash slept with his fathers, and Yeroboam sat on his throne. Yahash was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israyl.

14 Now Ylisha had become sick with the illness from which he would die. So Yahash king of Israyl came down to him, and wept over him, and said: O my father, my father, the chariots of Israyl and their horsemen!

15 Ylisha said to him: Take a bow and some arrows. So he took a bow and some arrows.

16 Then he said to the king of Israyl: Place your hands on the bow. So he put his hands on the bow, and Ylisha placed his own hands on the king's hands.

17 Then he said: Open the east window. So he opened it. Then Ylisha said: Shoot. So he shot. Then Ylisha proclaimed: This is the arrow of Yahweh's salvation! The arrow of salvation from Aram! Now you might completely destroy Aram at Aphek!

18 Then he said: Take the arrows. So he took them. Then he said to the king of Israyl: Strike the ground with them. So he struck three times, and then stopped.

19 The man of Yahweh became angry with him, and said: You should have struck five or six times! Then you would have struck Aram until you had completely destroyed him! But now, you will only defeat him three times!

20 So Ylisha died, and they buried him. Then the Moabite raiders invaded the land in the spring of the year.

21 And as they were burying a man, suddenly they saw the raiders—so they threw the man's body into Ylisha's tomb. When the body touched the bones of Ylisha, the man revived and stood on his feet.

22 Hazael king of Aram oppressed Israyl during the reign of Yahahaz.

23 But Yahweh was merciful to them, had compassion on them, and showed concern for them, because of His covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Yaaqob, and would not yet destroy them, nor cast them out of His presence.

24 Now Hazael king of Aram died, and Ben-Hadad his son succeeded him as king.

25 Then Yahash son of Yahahaz recaptured from Ben-Hadad son of Hazael the cities he had taken in battle from his father Yahahaz. Three times Yahash defeated him, and recaptured the cities of Israyl.

CHAP. 14

In the second year of Yahash son of Yahahaz, the king of Israyl, Amazyah son of Yahash became king of Yahdah.

2 He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Yerusalem. His mother's name was Yahaddan of Yerusalem.

3 He did right in the eyes of Yahweh; servng Yahweh, yet not like his father David had done. He followed the example of his father Yahash, doing everything he had done;

4 So the high places were not taken away. The people continued to sacrifice and burn incense on the high places.

5 Then, just as soon as the kingdom was established in his hands, he executed the officials who had murdered his father the king.

6 But the sons of the murderers he did not execute, according to that which is written in the Book of the Law given through Mosheh, where Yahweh commanded, saying: ● The fathers shall not be put to death for the children, nor shall the children be put to death for the fathers. A person shall be put to death for his own sin.

7 He killed ten thousand Edomites in the Valley of Salt, and captured Sela in battle, calling it Yoktheel, as it is to this day.

8 Then Amazyah sent messengers to Yahash son of Yahahaz, the son of Yahu, the king of Yahdah, with this challenge to combat, saying: Come, meet me face to face!

9 Then Yahash king of Israyl sent this message back to Amazyah king of Yahdah, and said: The thistle in Lebanon sent word to the cedar in Lebanon, and said: Give your daughter to my son in marriage. But a wild beast came along and trampled the thistle.

10 You have truly defeated Edom, and your heart is lifted up with pride. Glory in your success, but stay at home! Why should you meddle in trouble that will cause your downfall—yours, and Yahdah with you!

11 But Amazyah would not listen. So Yahash king of Israyl went up. He and Amazyah king of Yahdah faced each other at Beth Shemesh in Yahdah.

12 Yahdah was defeated by Israyl, and every man fled to his own home.

13 Yahash king of Israyl captured Amazyah king of Yahdah, the son of Yahash, the son of Ahazyah, at Beth Shemesh. Then he went to Yerusalem, and broke down the wall of Yerusalem from the Gate of Ephraim to the Corner Gate—a section four hundred cubits long; about six hundred feet.

14 He took all the gold and silver, and the articles found in The House of Yahweh, and in the treasuries of the king's house, along with captives, and returned to Samaria.

15 Now the rest of the events of the reign of Yahash, which he performed, his power, and how he fought with Amazyah king of Yahdah, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israyl?

16 So Yahash slept with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israyl. Then Yeroboam his son succeeded him as king.

17 Amazyah son of Yahash, the king of Yahdah, lived fifteen years after the death of Yahash son of Yahahaz, the king of Israyl.

18 Now the rest of the events of the reign of Amazyah, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Yahdah?

20 They plotted a conspiracy against him in Yerusalem, so he escaped to Lachish. But they dispatched men after him to Lachish, and killed him there.

20 Then they carried him back on a horse, and buried him with his fathers in the City of David.

21 And all the people of Yahdah took Azaryah; Yahweh Will Protect, who was sixteen years old, and made him king in the place of his father Amazyah.

22 He rebuilt Elath and restored it to Yahdah after Amazyah rested with his fathers.

23 In the fifteenth year of Amazyah son of Yahash, the king of Yahdah, Yeroboam son of Yahash became king over Israyl in Samaria, and he reigned forty-one years.

24 He did evil in the eyes of Yahweh; servng the gods. He did not turn from all the sins which Yeroboam son of Nebat caused Israyl to commit.

25 He restored the territory of Israyl—from the entrance of Hamath to the Sea of the Arabah; the Salt Sea—according to the word of Yahweh, the Father of Israyl, spoken through His servant Yahnah son of Amittai, the prophet from Gath Hepher:

26 Because Yahweh saw the bitter suffering of Israyl and, whether they were slaves or free, there was no one to help them.

27 Since Yahweh had not said He would blot out the name of Israyl from under heaven, He saved them by the hand of Yeroboam son of Yahash.

28 Now the rest of the events of the reign of Yeroboam, and all that he did, his power, how he made war, and how he recaptured for Israyl what had belonged to Yahdah from Damascus and Hamath, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israyl?

29 So Yeroboam slept with his fathers, the kings of Israyl. Then Zecharyah: Yahweh Has Remembered, his son succeeded him as king.

CHAP. 15

In the twenty-seventh year of Yeroboam king of Israyl, Azaryah son of Amazyah became king over Yahdah.

2 He was sixteen years old when he became king, and he reigned fifty-two years in Yerusalem. His mother's name was Yecholyah of Yerusalem.

3 He did right in the eyes of Yahweh; servng Yahweh, in all the ways his father Amazyah had done.

4 Except the high places were not removed. The people continued to sacrifice and burn incense on the high places.

5 Then Yahweh struck the king—he was a leper until the day he died, and he lived in a house where he was relieved of responsibility. So Yahtham; Yahweh is Perfect, the king's son, had charge in the king's house, and judged the people of the land.

6 Now the rest of the events of the reign of Azaryah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Yahdah?

7 So Azaryah slept with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in the City of David. Yahtham his son then succeeded him as king.

8 In the thirty-eighth year of Azaryah king of Yahdah, Zecharyah son of Yeroboam reigned over Israyl in Samaria for six moons.

9 He did evil in the eyes of Yahweh; servng the gods, just as his fathers had done. He did not turn from the sins which Yeroboam son of Nebat caused Israyl to commit.

10 Then Shallum son of Yabesh plotted against him. He attacked and killed him in front of the people, and succeeded him as king.

11 Now the rest of the events of the reign of Zecharyah—truly, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israyl.

12 This ● fulfilled the word of Yahweh which He spoke to Yahu, saying: Your sons shall sit on the throne of Israyl to the fourth generation. And so it came to pass.

13 Shallum son of Yabesh became the king in the thirty-ninth year of Azaryah king of Yahdah, and he reigned one moon in Samaria.

14 Menahem, the son of Gadi, set out from Tirzah to Samaria. He attacked Shallum son of Yabesh in Samaria and killed him, then he succeeded him as king.

15 Now the rest of the events of Shallum, and the conspiracy he led, truly they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israyl.

16 Starting out from Tirzah, Menahem attacked Tiphseh, and all who were in its territory. When they refused to open their gates to him, he attacked it; and all the women there who were pregnant, he ripped open.

17 In the thirty-ninth year of Azaryah king of Yahdah, Menahem son of Gadi became king over Israyl, and he reigned ten years in Samaria.

18 He did evil in the eyes of Yahweh; servng the gods. During his lifetime he did not turn from the sins which Yeroboam son of Nebat caused Israyl to commit.

19 Then Pul; Tiglath-Pileser, king of Assyria came against the land. Menahem gave him a thousand talents; about 37 tons, of silver to gain his support, so his hold on the kingdom might be strengthened.

20 Menahem extorted the money from Israyl. Every wealthy man had to give fifty shekels; about 1 1/4 pounds, of silver, which was given to the king of Assyria. So the king of Assyria withdrew, and did not stay there in the land.

21 Now the rest of the events of the reign of Menahem, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israyl?

22 So Menahem slept with his fathers. Then Pekahyah; Pekachyah: Yahweh has Observed, his son succeeded him as king.

23 In the fiftieth year of Azaryah king of Yahdah, Pekahyah son of Menahem became king over Israyl in Samaria, and he reigned two years.

24 He did evil in the eyes of Yahweh; servng the gods. He did not turn from the sins which Yeroboam son of Nebat caused Israyl to commit.

25 Then Pekah son of Remalyah, one of his officers, plotted against him. He and fifty men of Gilead killed Pekahyah, along with Argob and Arieah, in Samaria, in the stronghold of the king's house. He killed him, and succeeded him as king.

26 Now the rest of the events of the reign of Pekahyah, and all that he did, truly they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israyl.

27 In the fifty-second year of Azaryah king of Yahdah, Pekah, the son of Remalyah, became king over Israyl in Samaria, and he reigned twenty years.

28 He did evil in the eyes of Yahweh; servng the gods. He did not turn from the sins which Yeroboam son of Nebat caused Israyl to commit.

29 During the reign of Pekah king of Israyl, Tiglath-Pileser, the king of Assyria, attacked and captured Iyon, Abel Beth Maacah, Yanoah, Kedesh, Hazor, Gilead, and the Galilee—all the land of Naphtali—then took the inhabitants captive to Assyria.

30 Hoshea son of Elah led an uprising against Pekah son of Remalyah. He attacked and killed him, and succeeded him as king in the twentieth year of Yahtham son of Azaryah of Yahdah.

31 Now the rest of the events of the reign of Pekah, and all that he did, truly they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israyl.

32 In the second year of Pekah son of Remalyah, the king of Israyl, Yatham son of Azaryah began to reign as king of Yahdah.

33 Yahtham was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned sixteen years in Yerusalem. His mother's name was Yerushah daughter of Zadok.

34 He did right in the eyes of Yahweh; erving Yahweh. But he followed the example of Azaryah his father.

35 So the high places were not removed. The people continued to sacrifice and burn incense on the high places. Yahtham rebuilt the Upper Gate of The House of Yahweh.

36 Now the rest of the events of the reign of Yahtham, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Yahdah?

37 In those days Yahweh began to send Rezin, the king of Aram, and Pekah, the son of Remalyah, the king of Israyl, against Yahdah.

38 So Yahtham slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the City of David his father. Then Ahaz; Achaz, his son succeeded him as king.

CHAP. 16

In the seventeenth year of Pekah son of Remalyah, Ahaz son of Yahtham began to reign as king of Yahdah.

2 Ahaz was twenty years old when he became king, and he reigned sixteen years in Yerusalem. He did not do right in the eyes of Yahweh his Father, as his father David had done.

3 But he walked in the ways of the kings of Israyl; erving the gods. He even caused his son to pass through the fire; sacrificing him to Baal, following the abominable and disgusting ways of the nations whom Yahweh had thrust out from in front of the children of Israyl.

4 He sacrificed and burned incense at the high places, on the hills, and under every spreading tree.

5 Then Rezin king of Aram and Pekah son of Remalyah, the king of Israyl, came up to fight against Yerusalem. They besieged Ahaz, but they could not crush him.

6 But at that time Rezin king of Aram recaptured Elath for Aram, and drove the people of Yahdah from Elath. Edomites then moved into Elath, and have lived there to this day.

7 Ahaz dispatched messengers to Tiglath-Pileser, the king of Assyria, and said; I am your servant and your son. Come, and save me from the hands of the king of Aram and from the hands of the king of Israyl, who are fighting against me.

8 Ahaz had taken the silver and gold that was found in The House of Yahweh, and in the treasuries of the king's house, and sent it as a gift to the king of Assyria.

9 The king of Assyria granted his petition—the king of Assyria attacked Damascus, captured it, carried the inhabitants captive to Kir, and put Rezin to death.

10 Then King Ahaz went to Damascus to meet with Tiglath-Pileser, the king of Assyria. King Ahaz saw an altar at Damascus, and dispatched its design and dimensions to Uriyah the High Priest.

11 Then Uriyah the High Priest constructed an altar in accordance with the design and dimensions he had received from King Ahaz at Damascus. Uriyah the High Priest finished it before King Ahaz returned from Damascus.

12 When the king returned from Damascus, he saw the altar. ● The king went up to the altar and presented offerings on it.

13 He offered his burnt offerings and his grain offerings. He poured out his drink offerings and sprinkled the blood of his peace offerings—on this altar.

14 The bronze altar that had always stood in front of Yahweh, he brought from the front of The House of Yahweh, where it had been positioned between the new altar and The House of Yahweh, and put it on the north side of the new altar. The new altar was now placed in a position of prominence in front of The House of Yahweh.

15 Then King Ahaz commanded Uriyah the High Priest, and said; On this great new altar offer the morning burnt offering, the evening grain offering, the king's burnt offering and his grain offering, and the burnt offering for all the people of the land, and their grain offering and their drink offering. Sprinkle all the blood of the burnt offerings and sacrifices on this new altar. However, I will use the bronze altar of Yahweh to inquire of Him.

16 Uriyah the High Priest did just as King Ahaz commanded.

17 King Ahaz cut off the side panels and

● By SACRIFICING on this altar, Ahaz worshiped the GODS ASSOCIATED WITH IT, becoming ever more UNFAITHFUL TO YAHWEH as the curses came upon him. II Chronicles 28:21-25.

removed the lavers from the movable carts. He moved the Sea from the bronze bulls that supported it, and set it on a base of stone.

18 He took away the Sabbath Covered Walk that had been built in The House of Yahweh, and removed the king's entryway outside of The House of Yahweh, because of the attitude and sentiment of the king of Assyria.

19 Now the rest of the events of the reign of Ahaz, and what he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Yahdah?

20 So Ahaz slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the City of David. Then Hezekyah; Chizkiyah: Yahweh Will Prevail, his son succeeded him as king.

CHAP. 17

In the twelfth year of Ahaz king of Yahdah, Hoshea son of Elah became king of Israyl in Samaria, and he reigned nine years.

2 He did evil in the eyes of Yahweh; servng the gods, but not like the kings of Israyl who were before him.

3 Shalmaneser king of Assyria came up against Hoshea, who had been subjected under him, and had paid him tribute money.

4 But, the king of Assyria proved Hosea to be a traitor—for he had dispatched messengers to So, the king of Egypt, and had not delivered his tribute to the king of Assyria, as he had previously done year after year. Because of this, the king of Assyria seized him, and bound him in prison.

5 Then the king of Assyria invaded all the land, advanced upon Samaria, and besieged it for three years.

6 In the ninth year of Hoshea, the king of Assyria captured Samaria, and carried the inhabitants of Israyl away to Assyria. The king of Assyria settled them in Halah, by the Habor River in Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes.

7 All these things came to pass because the children of Israyl had sinned against Yahweh their Father—Who had brought them up out of the land of Egypt, from under the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt—by worshiping and serving hinder gods.

8 They had walked in the statutes of the heathen which Yahweh had driven out from in front of the children of Israyl, and in the ways of the kings of Israyl, making them commit sin—

9 For the children of Israyl did deceitful and treacherous things against Yahweh their Father that were not right—they built ● high places in all their cities, from the watchtower to the fortified city.

10 They set up sacred pillars; masseboth, representing the god, Baal, and wooden sacred poles;

Asherim, representing the goddess, Asherah-Ishtar-Ester, on every high hill and under every spreading tree.

11 At each of their high places they burned incense, just as the nations had done, whom Yahweh had driven out from in front of the children of Israyl. There, they performed great evil, provoking Yahweh to anger—

12 For they served and worshiped the gods! They did this even though Yahweh had commanded them; You shall not do this thing.

13 Yet, Yahweh testified and warned Israyl and Yahdah through all of His prophets, and by every seer, saying; Turn from your evil ways! Keep My commandments and My statutes, according to the Law that I commanded your fathers to obey, and which I sent to you by My servants the prophets.

14 However, they would not listen. They became as stiff-necked and stubborn as their fathers—who did not believe in Yahweh their Father.

15 They rejected His statutes and His covenant that He had made with their fathers. They rejected His testimonies which He had sent to warn them. Instead, they followed the gods, and became godworshippers! They followed the ways of the nations all around them, whom Yahweh had commanded them; Do not do as they do!

16 They forsook all the commandments of Yahweh their Father, and they made for themselves two projecting circular altars. They made an Asherah Pole; The Sacred Pole for setting their feasts by the sun, and bowed down to all the host of heaven, and they worshiped Baal; Lord.

17 They caused their sons and daughters to pass through the fire, sacrificing them to the gods. They practiced witchcraft; divination and soothsaying; sorcery. They sold themselves to practice evil in the eyes of Yahweh, provoking Him to anger.

18 Because of these sins, Yahweh's wrath burned against Israyl, and He removed them from His sight. There remained the tribe of Yahdah, only.

19 But even Yahdah did not keep the commandments of Yahweh their Father. They walked in the statutes of Israyl, which had been introduced to them.

20 Yahweh rejected all the descendants of Israyl. He plagued them and delivered them into the hands of plunderers, until He had driven them from His sight.

21 He tore Israyl from the house of David; and Israyl had made Yeroboam son of Nebat their king; then Yeroboam drove Israyl from following Yahweh, and caused them to commit a great sin.

22 Then the children of Israyl walked in all the sins which Yeroboam caused them to commit, and they did not turn from them.

23 So Yahweh removed Israyl from His sight, just as He promised by all His servants the prophets. Israyl was carried away from their own land to Assyria, just as it is to this day.

24 Then the king of Assyria brought inhabitants from Babylon, Cuthah, Avva, Hamath, and Sepharvaim, and settled them in the cities of Samaria—in the place of the children of Israyl. They took over Samaria, and settled in its cities.

25 At the time they first settled there, they were not taught the reverence of Yahweh. So Yahweh sent lions among them, which killed them.

26 They reported this to the king of Assyria, and said: These people you resettled in the cities of Samaria do not know the requirements of the god of this land. He has sent lions among them and they are killing them, because they do not know the requirements of the god of this land.

27 The king of Assyria gave this order, and said: Send back one of the priests whom you took from there. Let him go and live there, and let him teach them the requirements of the god of the land.

28 Then one of the priests who had been carried captive from Samaria came and lived in Bethel. He then taught them how they might hold Yahweh in reverence.

29 But instead, each nation there continued to make images of their own gods in every city they settled. They set them up in the Houses with the High Places, which Samaria had built.

30 The men from Babylon made Succoth Benoth, the men from Cuthah made Nergal, the men from Hamath made Ashima.

31 The Avvites made Nibhaz and Tartak, and the Sepharvites burned their children in the fire as sacrifices to Adrammelech and Anammelech, their gods.

32 So they were taught how they might serve Yahweh, but instead they appointed priests of the high places from every class of people. They officiated for them in the Houses with the High Places.

33 They were taught how they might worship Yahweh, but instead they worshiped their own gods—according to the customs of the nations from which they had been brought.

34 To this day, they continue to practice their former pagan customs. They do not revere Yahweh, nor do they follow the statutes, ordinances, laws, and commandments which Yahweh had commanded the children of Yaacob, whom He named Israyl—

35 With whom Yahweh had made a covenant and commanded them, saying: You shall not revere hinder gods, nor bow down to them, nor serve them, nor sacrifice to them;

36 But Yahweh, Who brought you up out of Egypt with great power and an outstretched arm, Him you shall revere, Him you shall worship, and to Him you shall offer sacrifices.

37 The statutes, the ordinances, the laws, and the commandments He wrote for you, you shall be careful to observe and do forever. Do not revere hinder gods.

38 The covenant I have made with you, you shall not forget, nor shall you revere hinder gods.

39 Yahweh your Father you shall revere, and He will save you from the hands of all your enemies.

40 However, they did not obey—they continued to practice their former customs.

41 So these nations were taught the reverence of Yahweh, but instead they worshiped and served their gods. Their children and their children's children have continued the practices of their fathers, even to this day.

CHAP. 18

In the third year of Hoshea son of Elah, the king of Israyl, Hezekyah son of Ahaz began to reign as king of Yahdah.

2 He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Yerusalem. His mother's name was Abiyah, the daughter of Zecharyah.

3 He did right in the eyes of Yahweh; erving Yahweh, according to all that his father David had done.

4 He even removed the high places, broke the sacred pillars; masseboth, representing the god Baal; Lord, and cut down the wooden Asherah Poles; The Sacred Poles, representing the goddess Asherah-Ishtar-Easter. He broke into pieces the ● bronze snake Mosheh had made, for up to that time the children of Israyl had been burning incense to it. (He had called it Nehustan; Bronze-Snake-Unclean Thing.)

5 Hezekyah trusted in Yahweh, the Father of Israyl. There was no one like him among all the kings of Yahdah, either before him, nor after him.

6 He held fast to Yahweh, and did not turn from following Him. He kept His commandments, which Yahweh had commanded through Mosheh.

7 Yahweh was with him, so he succeeded wherever he went. He also rebelled against the king of Assyria, and did not serve him.

8 He brought the Philistines into subjection, from watchtower to fortified city, as far as Gaza and its territory.

9 In the fourth year of the reign of King Hezekyah of Yahdah, which was the seventh year of the reign of Hoshea son of Elah, the king of Israyl, Shalmaneser king of Assyria came up against Samaria, and besieged it.

10 At the end of three years they captured it. In the sixth year of Hezekyah, and the ninth year of Hoshea king of Israyl—Samaria was captured.

11 The king of Assyria carried Israyl away captive to Assyria, and settled them in Halah, in Gozan by the Habor River, and in the cities of the Medes;

12 Because they did not obey Yahweh their Father. They transgressed His covenant and all that Mosheh, the servant of Yahweh, had commanded. They neither listened to them, nor did they perform and do them.

13 In the fourteenth year of King Hezekyah, Sennacherib king of Assyria came up against all the fortified cities of Yahdah, and captured them.

14 Then Hezekyah king of Yahdah sent a message to the king of Assyria at Lachish, and said; I have done wrong. Withdraw from me, and I will pay whatever you will exact. So the king of Assyria assessed Hezekyah king of Yahdah three hundred talents; about 11 tons, of silver and thirty talents; about 1 ton, of gold.

15 So Hezekyah gave him all the silver that was found in The House of Yahweh and in the treasuries of the king's house.

16 It was at that time that Hezekyah stripped the gold from the doors and the doorposts of The House of Yahweh, which he had placed there, and gave it to the king of Assyria.

17 Then the king of Assyria dispatched the Tartan; Supreme Commander, the Rabсарis; Chief Officer, and the Rabshakeh; Field Commander, from Lachish toward Yerusalem with a great army. They set out and arrived in Yerusalem, halting at the aqueduct of the Upper Pool, on the road to the Fuller's Field.

18 They summoned the king, but Elyakim son of Hilkiyah, the administrator of the king's house, Shebna the scribe, and Yahach son of Asaph, the recorder, came out to them.

19 Then the Rabshakeh; Field Commander, said to them; Tell this to Hezekyah; This is what the great king, the king of Assyria, says: What refuge are you trusting in?

20 You say you have counsel and strength for war, but those are only empty words! In whom do you trust, that you rebel against me?

21 Behold, if you are depending on Egypt, that broken reed of a staff which pierces any man's hands who leans upon him, you will only be wounded by him! Such is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all those who take refuge in him!

22 If you should say to me: We trust in Yahweh our Father—is He not the One whose high places and altars Hezekyah has removed, and has said to Yahdah and Yerusalem: You must worship before this altar in Yerusalem?

23 Now, make a pact with my ruler, the king of Assyria, and I will give you two thousand horses, if you are able to put riders on them.

24 How, then, will you be able to repel one officer of the least of my ruler's officials, even though you trust in Egypt for chariots and charioteers?

25 Also, have I come to attack and destroy this place without word from Yahweh? Yahweh said to me: Go up, attack this land and destroy it.

26 Then Elyakim son of Hilkiyah, Shebna, and Yahach answered the Rabshakeh, and said; Speak to your servants in the Aramaic language, for we understand it, but do not speak to us in Hebrew in the hearing of the people on the wall.

27 But the Rabshakeh said to them; Has my ruler sent me to say these things only to your ruler, and not to those men who sit on the wall—who, like you, will have to eat their own waste and drink their own urine with you?

28 Then the Rabshakeh stood and called out with a loud voice in Hebrew, saying; Hear the word of the great king, the king of Assyria!

29 This is what the king says: Do not allow Hezekyah to deceive you! He can not save you from my hands!

30 Do not let Hezekyah make you trust in Yahweh, saying; Yahweh will surely save us—this city will not be given into the hands of the king of Assyria.

31 Do not listen to Hezekyah, for this is what the king of Assyria says: Make peace with me and come out to me! Then every one of you may eat from his own vine and fig tree, and every one of you may drink the waters from his own cistern—

32 Until the day I come and carry you to a land like your own—a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of olive groves and honey. Choose life, and not death! But do not listen to Hezekyah, for he will deceive you, and say: Yahweh will save us!

33 Has the god of any nation ever saved his land from the hands of the king of Assyria?

34 Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivvah? Have they saved Samaria from my hands?

35 Who, of all the gods of the lands, has been able to save his land from me? How, then, can Yahweh save Yerusalem from my hands?

36 But the people remained quiet and answered him not a word, because the king had issued this order: Do not answer him.

37 Then Elyakim son of Hilkiyah, who was administrator of the king's house, Shebna the scribe, and Yahach son of Asaph, the recorder, returned to Hezekyah with their clothes torn, and reported to him the words of the Rabshakeh; Field Commander.

CHAP. 19

When King Hezekyah heard their report, he tore his clothes, dressed himself in sackcloth, and went into The House of Yahweh.

2 Then he sent Elyakim, the administrator of the king's house, Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, all dressed in sackcloth, to Isayah son of Amoz, the prophet.

3 They said to him; This is what Hezekyah says: This day is a day of trouble, rebuke, and blasphemy, such as when children come to the point of birth, but there is no strength to bring them forth.

4 It may be that Yahweh your Father will hear all the words of the Rabshakeh, whom his ruler, the king of Assyria, has sent to defy the Living Father, and that He may rebuke the words Yahweh your Father has heard. Therefore, pray for the remnant that remains.

5 So the officials of King Hezekyah went to Isayah with this message.

6 And Isayah said to them; This is what you shall say to your ruler; This is what Yahweh says: Do not be afraid of the words you have heard, the words which the servant of the king of Assyria used to blaspheme Me.

7 Behold, I am putting a spirit within him, so when he hears a report, he will return to his own land. Then I will cause him to be cut down with a sword in his own land.

8 So the Rabshakeh returned and found the king of Assyria at war against Libnah, for he heard that he had left Lachish.

9 Now Sennacherib received a report that Tirhakah, the Cushite king from the upper Nile region of Egypt, was coming up to fight against him. So he again dispatched messengers to Hezekyah, and said;

10 Say to Hezekyah king of Yahdah: Do not let the god you trust in deceive you, saying; Yerusalem shall not be given into the hands of the king of Assyria.

11 Behold, you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, destroying them completely! So will you be saved?

12 Did the gods of the nations that were destroyed by my forefathers save them—the gods of Gozan, Haran, Rezep, and the people of Eden in Tel Assar?

13 Where is the king of Hamath, the king of Arpad, the king of the city of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivvah?

14 Hezekyah received this letter from the hands of the messengers, and read it. Then Hezekyah went up to The House of Yahweh, and spread it in front of Yahweh.

15 Hezekyah prayed before Yahweh, and said: O Yahweh Father of Israyl, Who dwells between the cherubim, You are the Mighty One, You alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth. You have made the heavens and the earth.

16 Incline Your ear, O Yahweh, and hear. Open Your eyes, O Yahweh, and see. Listen to the words which Sennacherib has sent to defy the Living Father.

17 It is true, Yahweh, that the kings of Assyria have laid waste the nations and their lands,

18 And have thrown their gods into the fire and destroyed them, because there was nothing Mighty in them—they are only wood and stone, the work of a man's hands.

19 Therefore, O Yahweh our Father, I pray, save us from his hands, so all the kingdoms of the earth may know that You, alone, O Yahweh, are the Mighty Father.

20 Then Isayah son of Amoz sent this message to Hezekyah, and said; This is what Yahweh, the Father of Israyl, says: I have heard your prayer concerning Sennacherib king of Assyria.

21 This is the word Yahweh has spoken concerning him: The Virgin Daughter of Zion despises you and ridicules you! The Daughter of Yerusalem shakes her head as you flee!

22 Whom have you defied and blasphemed? Against Whom have you raised your voice, and lifted your eyes in pride? Against the Holy One of Israyl!

23 Through your messengers you have defied Yahweh, and said: With my multitude of chariots I have ascended the heights of the mountains, the utmost heights of Lebanon. I have cut down its tallest cedars, the choicest of its pines. I have reached the outermost parts, the finest of its forests.

24 I have dug wells in foreign lands, and drunk the water there. With the soles of my feet I have dried up all the streams of Egypt.

25 Have you not heard that long ago I ordained this? From ancient times, that I formed this? Now I have brought it to pass—that you should be for the crushing of fortified cities into piles of stone and rubble!

26 Therefore, their people were drained of power, they were dismayed and confounded. They were like plants in the field, like tender green shoots, like grass sprouting on the house-tops—scorched before it grows up.

27 But I know where you stay, and when you come and go, and how you rage against Me!

28 Because you rage against Me, and your insolence has reached My ears, I will put My hook in your nose and My bit in your mouth, and I will make you return the same way you came.

29 This will be the sign for you, O Hezekyah: This year you will eat what grows by itself, then the second year what springs from that. But in the third year sow and reap, plant vineyards and eat their fruit.

30 And the remnant who have escaped of the house of Yahdah shall again take root downward, and bear fruit upward.

31 For out of Yerusalem shall go a remnant, and those who escape from Mount Zion. The zeal of Yahweh Almighty shall do this.

32 Therefore, this is what Yahweh says concerning the king of Assyria: He will not enter this city, nor will he shoot an arrow here. He will not come in front of it with a shield, nor build a siege ramp against it.

33 By the way that he came, he will return. He will not enter this city, says Yahweh.

34 For I will defend this city, to save it for My own sake and for the sake of David My servant.

35 On that night the malak of Yahweh went out into the camp of the Assyrians and killed 185,000 men. When they arose early in the morning, there were all the corpses!

36 So Sennacherib king of Assyria left that place. He set out and returned to Nineveh, where he remained.

37 One day, as he was worshiping in the house of his god Nisroch, his sons Adrammelech and Sharezer struck him down with the sword. They escaped into the land of Ararat, and Esarhaddon, his son, succeeded him as king.

CHAP. 20

In those days Hezekyah became sick and lay near death. Isayah son of Amoz, the prophet, went to him, and said to him: This is what Yahweh says: Set your house in order. You shall die, and not live.

2 Then he turned his face to the wall, and prayed to Yahweh, saying:

3 O Yahweh, I pray, remember how I have walked in front of You in truth with a perfect heart, and have done right in Your eyes. Then Hezekyah wept bitterly.

4 Then, before Isayah could go through the middle court, the word of Yahweh came to him, and said:

5 Go back. Tell Hezekyah, the ruler of My people: This is what Yahweh, the Father of David your father, says: I have heard your prayer, I have seen your tears, and I will surely heal you. On the third day you shall go up to The House of Yahweh.

6 I will add to your life fifteen years. I will save you and this city from the hands of the king of Assyria, and I will defend this city for My own sake, and for the sake of My servant David.

7 Then Isayah said: Prepare a poultice of figs. So they prepared it and laid it on the boil, and he recovered.

8 Hezekyah asked Isayah: What is the sign that Yahweh will heal me, and that I will go up to The House of Yahweh on the third day?

9 Isayah answered: This is the sign to you from Yahweh, that Yahweh will perform the thing He has promised: Choose—shall the shadow go forward ten steps, or shall it go back ten steps?

10 Hezekyah answered: It is a simple matter for the shadow to go forward ten steps, so let the shadow go backward ten steps.

11 Then Isayah the prophet cried out to Yahweh, and He brought the shadow ten steps backward, from the place it had gone forward on the steps of Ahaz.

12 At that time Merodach-Baladan king of Babylon, the son of Baladan, sent letters and a gift to Hezekyah, because he heard that Hezekyah had been sick.

13 Hezekyah gave them an audience, and then he showed them all that was in his treasury and storehouses—the silver and gold, the spices and oil, and all his weapons—all that was found in his treasury and storehouses. There was nothing in his house or his kingdom that Hezekyah did not show to them.

14 Then Isayah the prophet went to King Hezekyah, and asked him: What did these men say, and where have they come from? Hezekyah answered: They came from a distant land, from Babylon.

15 Then Isayah asked: What have they seen in your house? Hezekyah answered: They have seen all that is in my house. There is nothing among my treasures that I have not shown them.

16 Then Isayah said to Hezekyah: Hear the word of Yahweh!

17 Behold, the time is coming when all that is in your house, and all that your fathers have stored up until this very day, shall be carried to Babylon. Nothing will be left, says Yahweh.

18 And they shall carry away some of your own sons, your flesh and blood descended from you, and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.

19 Hezekyah said to Isayah: The word of Yahweh you have spoken is right! Because he thought to himself: Will there not at least be peace and safety in my lifetime?

20 Now the rest of the events of the reign of Hezekyah, all his power, and how he constructed a pool and a tunnel, bringing water into the city, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Yahdah?

21 So Hezekyah slept with his fathers. Then Menasheh, his son, succeeded him as king.

As king, Hezekyah's first act was to purge, repair, and reopen The House of Yahweh, which had been neglected and polluted during the idolatrous reign of his weak father, Ahaz. He rooted out the Canaanite fertility cults, and other pagan contaminations—not sparing the High Places where the sacred pillars of Baal and the sacred poles of Asherah stood. He destroyed the bronze snake which had become an idolatrous object (Numbers 21:9). His reformation was followed by the Passover sacrifice and the Feast of Unleavened Bread (II Chronicles 30), to which all of Yahdah and the remnant of the Ten Tribes were summoned.

CHAP. 21

Menasheh: Making to Forget, was twelve years old when he became king, and he reigned fifty-five years in Yerusalem. His mother's name was Hephzebah.

2 He did evil in the eyes of Yahweh; servng the gods, following the disgusting and abominable practices of all the nations whom Yahweh had driven out from in front of the children of Israyl.

3 He turned, and he rebuilt the high places his father Hezekyah had destroyed. He set up altars for Baal, and constructed a wooden Asherah Pole; The Sacred Pole, as Ahab king of Israyl, his grandfather, had done, and he worshiped all the hosts of heaven; astrology: sun, moon, and stars, and served them.

4 He also built altars in the House of Yahweh, of which Yahweh had said: In Yerusalem I will establish My Name.

5 He built altars to all the hosts of heaven in both courts of The House of Yahweh.

6 He also made his son pass through the fire; sacrificing him in the fire, practiced soothsaying; sorcery, used witchcraft; divination, and consulted the spiritists and mediums. He did great evil in the eyes of Yahweh, provoking Him to anger.

7 He even constructed and set up an Asherah Pole; The Sacred Pole to ascertain the pagan feasts, in The House of Yahweh—the House of which Yahweh had said to David and to Solomon his son; In this House and in Yerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israyl, I will establish My Name forever.

8 And I will not again make the feet of the children of Israyl wander from the land which I gave to their fathers—only if they are careful to do that which I have commanded them, and will keep all the Law that I gave them through the hand of My servant Moshéh.

9 But the people would not listen to the warning, and Menasheh led them astray. He seduced them into doing more evil than the nations whom Yahweh had destroyed from in front of the children of Israyl.

10 So Yahweh spoke by His servants the prophets, and said;

11 Menasheh king of Yahdah has committed these abominations, has behaved more wickedly than all the Amorites; Westerners, who were before him, and has also caused Yahdah to sin with the images of his gods.

12 Therefore, this is what Yahweh, the Father of Israyl, says: Behold, I am going to bring such disaster upon Yerusalem and Yahdah, that whoever hears about it, both ears will tingle!

13 I will stretch over Yerusalem the measuring line of Samaria, and the plummet of the house of Ahab. I will wipe Yerusalem as one wipes a dish, wiping it, and then turning it upside down.

14 I will forsake the remnant of My inheritance, and I will hand them over into the hands of their enemies. They will be looted and plundered by all their enemies—

15 Because they have done evil in My eyes, and have provoked Me to anger, from the day their fathers come out of Egypt, to this very day.

16 Moreover, Menasheh also shed so much innocent blood that he filled Yerusalem from one end to the other—over and above the sin that he had caused Yahdah to commit; by doing evil in the eyes of Yahweh; servng the gods.

17 Now the rest of the events of the reign of Menasheh, all that he did, and the sin that he committed, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Yahdah?

18 So Menasheh slept with his fathers, and was buried in the garden of his own house, in the garden of Uzza. Then Amon, his son, succeeded him as king.

19 Amon was twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned two years in Yerusalem. His mother's name was Meshullemeth, the daughter of Haruz of Yotbah.

20 He did evil in the eyes of Yahweh, just as his father Menasheh had done.

21 He walked in all the ways his father had walked, and he served all the gods his father had served, and worshiped them.

22 He forsook Yahweh, the Father of his fathers, and did not walk in the way of Yahweh.

23 Then Amon's officials schemed and plotted against him, and killed the king in his own house.

24 However, the people of the land killed all who had plotted against King Amon. Then the people of the land made Yoshiyah; Foundation of Yahweh, his son, king in his place.

25 Now the rest of the events of the reign of Amon, and what he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Yahdah?

26 He was buried in his tomb in the garden of Uzza. Then Yoshiyah, his son, succeeded him as king.

CHAP. 22

Yoshiyah: Foundation of Yahweh, was eight years old when he became king, and he reigned thirty-one years in Yerusalem. His mother's name was Yedidah, the daughter of Adayah of Bozkath.

2 He did right in the eyes of Yahweh; servng Yahweh, and walked in all the ways of his father David. He did not turn away to the right nor to the left.

3 In the eighteenth year of King Yoshiyah, he sent Shaphan the scribe, who was the son of Azalyah, the son of Meshullam to The House of Yahweh, and said;

4 Go up to Hilkiyah, the High Priest, and have him count the money which has been brought into The House of Yahweh, which the doorkeepers have collected from the people.

5 Have them deliver it to the men appointed to oversee the work on The House of Yahweh. Commission the overseers to pay the workers who repair The House of Yahweh—

6 The carpenters, builders, and stonemasons—and to purchase timber and dressed stone to repair The House of Yahweh.

7 However, they need not account for the money entrusted to them, because they are acting faithfully.

8 Hilkiyah the High Priest said to Shaphan the scribe: I have found The Book of the Law in The House of Yahweh. So Hilkiyah gave the book to Shaphan, and he read it.

9 Shaphan the scribe returned to the king, and reported to him, saying: Your servants have counted the money found in The House of Yahweh, and they have given it to the overseers and workers at The House of Yahweh.

10 Then Shaphan the scribe informed the king, and said: Hilkiyah, the High Priest, has given me a book. And Shaphan read it to the king.

11 As soon as the king heard the words of The Book of the Law, he tore his clothes.

12 Then the king gave a command to Hilkiyah, the High Priest, to Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, to Achbor, the son of Micahyah, to Shaphan the scribe, and to Asayah, an official of the king, and said;

13 Go, inquire of Yahweh for me, for the people, and for all Yahdah, about the words of this book that has been found. Great is Yahweh's anger that burns against us, because our fathers have not obeyed the words of this book—to do according to all that is written concerning us.

14 So Hilkiyah the High Priest, Ahikam, Achbor, Shaphan, and Asayah went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum, the son of Tikvah, the son of Harhas, keeper of the wardrobe. She lived in Yerusalem, in the Second Quarter. There they spoke with her.

15 She said to them: Tell the man who sent you to me;

16 This is what Yahweh, the Father of Israyl, says: Behold, I will bring disaster on this place and on its people—according to all that is written in The Book of The Law that the king of Yahdah has read—

17 Because they have forsaken Me and burned incense to hinder gods, and provoked Me to anger by all the images of their gods that their hands have made; My anger will burn against this place, and it will not be quenched.

18 But to the king of Yahdah, who sent you to inquire of Yahweh, speak to him, and say: This is what Yahweh, the Father of Israyl, says concerning the words you have heard:

19 Because your heart; mind, was submissive, and you humbled yourself in front of Yahweh—when you heard what I had spoken against this place; Yahdah, and against its people, that they would become a desolation and a curse—and you tore your clothes and wept in front of Me, I also have heard you, says Yahweh.

20 Therefore, I will gather you to your fathers, and you will be buried in peace. Your eyes will not see all the disaster that I am going to bring upon this place. So they took this word back to the king.

CHAP. 23

Then the king dispatched messengers to gather all the elders of Yahdah and Yerusalem to him.

2 Then the king went up to The House of Yahweh, along with all the men of Yahdah, and all the people of Yerusalem—the priests, the prophets, and all the people, both great and small. He read in their hearing all the words of The Book of the Covenant; The Book of the Law, which had been found in The House of Yahweh.

3 Then the king stood by a column and renewed the covenant in front of Yahweh—to follow Yahweh, to keep His commandments, His testimonies, and His statutes, with all their hearts and being: to perform the words of this covenant which is written in this book. Then all the people vowed to keep the covenant.

4 Then the king commanded Hilkiyah, the High Priest, the priests of the second rank; the ordinary priests, and the doorkeepers, to bring out of The House of Yahweh all the articles that were made for Baal, for ● Asherah, and for all the host of heaven. He burned them outside Yerusalem in the fields of the Kidron Valley, and took their ashes to Bethel.

5 He expelled the pagan priests ordained by the kings of Yahdah to burn incense on the high places of the cities of Yahdah, and on those around Yerusalem—those pagan priests who burned incense to Baal, to the sun, to the moon, to the constellations of all the hosts of heaven.

6 He took the Asherah Pole; The Sacred Pole, out of The House of Yahweh, brought it to ● ASHERAH, translated GROPE in the King James Version. Asherah is word #842 in Strong's Hebrew Dictionary, meaning Asherah (or Astarte), a Phoenician Goddess. The IMAGE that represented her in pagan worship was a straight, perpendicular, wooden pole—word #833 in Strong's Hebrew Dictionary. This ASHERAH POLE; THE SACRED POLE, was used to exactly ascertain the Solstices and Equinoxes, in order to set the PAGAN FEASTS.

the Kidron Valley outside Jerusalem, burned it in the Kidron Valley, and ground that abominable wooden representation of the goddess, into ashes, then threw the ashes over the graves of the common people.

7 He tore down the houses of the qedeshim; men practicing sodomy and prostitution in religious rituals, that were in The House of Yahweh—where the women wove the houses for Asherah.

8 Yoshiyah brought all the priests from the cities of Yahdah, and defiled and desecrated the high places where the priests had burned incense, from Geba to Beersheba. He broke down the high places at the gates—at the entrance to the Gate of Yahshua, the governor of the city, which is on the left of the city gate.

9 Although the priests of the high places did not approach the altar of Yahweh in Jerusalem, they did eat unleavened bread among their fellow priests.

10 He defiled and desecrated Tophet, which is in the Valley of Ben-Hinnom, so no man might make his son or his daughter pass through the fire; sacrifice his son or his daughter, to Molech.

11 Then he removed from the entrance to The House of Yahweh the horses that the kings of Yahdah had dedicated to the sun. They were in the court near the room of an official named Nathan-Melech. Yoshiyah then burned the chariots of the sun with fire.

12 The altars on the roof of the upper room of Ahaz, which the kings of Yahdah had set up, and the altars that Menasheh built in the two courts of The House of Yahweh, the king tore down, removed the debris, and threw it into the Kidron Valley.

13 Then the king defiled and desecrated the high places east of Jerusalem, on the south of the Mount of Corruption, which Solomon king of Israyl had built for Ashtoreth; Asherah-Ish-tar-Easter, the abomination of the Phoenicians (Sidonians), for Chemosh, the abomination of the Moabites, and for Milcom; Molech, the abomination of the people of Ammon.

14 He broke the sacred pillars; masseboth, representing Baal; the Lord, and cut down the Asherah Poles; The Sacred Poles, and covered the sites with human bones.

15 Even the altar at Bethel, the high place built by Yeroboam son of Nebat, who had caused Israyl to commit sin—even that altar and that high place he destroyed. He burned the high place and ground it to dust, and burned the Asherah Pole also.

16 When Yoshiyah turned around, he saw the tombs that were on the hillside. He ordered the bones brought out of the tombs, and burned them on the altar, and defiled and desecrated it according to the ● word of Yahweh spoken by the man of Yahweh, who prophesied of these things.

17 Then Yoshiyah asked: What tombstone is that I see? The men of the city told him: It is the tomb of the man of Yahweh who came from Yahdah, and prophesied of these very things you have done against the altar of Bethel.

18 Then he said: Leave him alone, do not disturb his bones. ● So they left his bones alone, along with the bones of the prophet who was from Samaria.

19 Then Yoshiyah took away all the Houses with the High Places that were in the cities of Samaria, which the kings of Israyl had made to provoke Yahweh to anger. Just as he had done at Bethel, he removed and defiled them.

20 Yoshiyah killed all the priests of the high places on the altars, and burned human bones on them. Then he returned to Jerusalem.

21 The king gave this command to all the people, saying: ● Keep the Passover to Yahweh your Father, just as it is written in this Book of the Covenant; The Book of the Law.

22 Surely such a Passover had never been held since the days of the judges who judged Israyl, nor in all the days of the kings of Israyl and the kings of Yahdah.

23 In the eighteenth year of King Yoshiyah, this Passover was observed in front of Yahweh in Jerusalem.

24 Yoshiyah also put away those who consulted mediums and spiritists, the household images of the gods, and all the abominations that were seen in the land of Yahdah, and in Jerusalem, so he might perform and do the words of the Law which were written in The Book of The Law that Hilkiyah the priest found in The House of Yahweh.

25 Before Yoshiyah there was no king like him—who turned to Yahweh with all his mind, with all his being, and with all his might, according to all the Law given through Mosheh—and after him there was no king like him.

26 Nevertheless, Yahweh did not turn from the fierceness of His great wrath, which burned against Yahdah because of all that Menasheh had done to provoke Him to anger.

27 So Yahweh had said; I will also remove Yahdah from My sight, just as I have removed Israyl, and I will cast off this city Jerusalem which I have chosen, and the House, about which I said: My Name shall be there.

28 Now the rest of the events of the reign of Yoshiyah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Yahdah?

29 In his days Pharaoh Necho, the king of Egypt, went to the Euphrates River to help the king of Assyria. King Yoshiyah went against him, but Pharaoh Necho killed him at Megiddo when he challenged him.

30 His officials carried his body in a chariot to Yerusalem, and buried him in his own tomb. Then the people of the land took Yahahaz, the son of Yoshiyah, and anointed him king in his father's place.

31 Yahahaz: Seized by Yahweh, was twenty-three years old when he became king, and he reigned three moons in Yerusalem. His mother's name was Hamutal, the daughter of Yerem-yah of Libnah.

32 He did evil in the eyes of Yahweh; erving the gods, according to all that his fathers had done.

33 Pharaoh Necho placed him in prison at Riblah in the land of Hamath, so he could not reign in Yerusalem; and he assessed Yahdah with a tribute of one hundred talents; about 7,500 pounds, of silver, and one talent; about 75 pounds, of gold.

34 Then Pharaoh Necho made Elyakim, the son of Yoshiyah, king in the place of his father Yoshiyah, and changed his name to Yahyakim; Established by Yahweh. But Pharaoh carried Yahahaz back to Egypt, where he died.

35 Yahyakim delivered the silver and gold to Pharaoh, but he taxed the land in order to pay the tribute he demanded. He exacted the silver and gold from the people of the land, from every one according to his assessment, to give it to Pharaoh Necho.

36 Yahyakim was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned eleven years in Yerusalem. His mother's name was Zebudah, the daughter of Pedayah of Rumah.

37 He did evil in the eyes of Yahweh; erving the gods, according to all that his fathers had done.

CHAP. 24

In his reign Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up, and Yahyakim was under his subjection for three years. Then he turned and rebelled against him.

2 Yahweh sent against him Chaldean raiders, Aramean raiders, Moabite raiders, and Ammonite raiders. Yahweh sent them against Yahdah to destroy it, according to the word of Yahweh which He had spoken by His servants the prophets.

3 Truly at the commandment of Yahweh this came upon Yahdah, in order to remove them from His sight—because of the sins of Menasheh, and all that he had done,

4 And because of the innocent blood that he had shed, because he had filled Yerusalem with innocent blood, for which Yahweh was not willing to forgive.

5 Now the rest of the events of the reign of Yahyakim, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Yahdah?

6 So Yahyakim slept with his fathers. Then Yahyakim; Ordained of Yahweh; succeeded him as king.

7 The king of Egypt did not come out of his country anymore, because the king of Babylon had captured all that had belonged to the king of Egypt—from the Wadi of Egypt to the Euphrates River.

8 Yahyakim was eighteen years old when he became king, and he reigned in Yerusalem three moons. His mother's name was Nehush-ta, the daughter of Elnathan of Yerusalem.

9 He did evil in the eyes of Yahweh, according to all that his father had done.

10 At that time the officers of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up against Yerusalem, and laid siege to the city.

11 Then Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon himself came up to the city while his officers were besieging it.

12 Yahyakim king of Yahdah, his mother, his attendants, his nobles, and his officers surrendered to the king of Babylon. The king of Babylon, in the eighth year of his reign, took him prisoner.

13 He carried away from there all the treasures of The House of Yahweh and the treasures of the king's house. The articles of gold which Solomon, the king of Israyl, had made for The House of Yahweh he cut into pieces, just as Yahweh had said.

14 He also carried all Yerusalem into captivity—all the captains and the fighting men, all the craftsmen and artisans—10,000 captives. The only ones remaining were the poorest sort of the people of the land.

15 Nebuchadnezzar carried Yahyakim captive to Babylon. He also carried from Yerusalem to Babylon the king's mother, his wives, his officials, and the leading men of the land.

16 All the fighting men: 7,000, and craftsmen and artisans: 1,000, all who were able and fit for war, these the king of Babylon brought captive to Babylon.

17 Then the king of Babylon appointed Mat-tanyah; Reward of Yahweh, the uncle of Yahyakim, king in his place, and changed his name to Zedekyah; Righteousness of Yahweh.

18 Zedekyah was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned eleven years in Yerusalem. His mother's name was Hamutal, the daughter of Yerem-yah of Libnah.

19 He did evil in the eyes of Yahweh, according to all that Yahyakim had done.

20 Because of the anger of Yahweh, this came upon Yerusalem and Yahdah—He finally drove them out of His presence. Then Zedekyah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

CHAP. 25

So in the ninth year of his reign, in the Tenth Moon, on the tenth day of the moon, Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, and all his army came against Jerusalem. They encamped outside the city, and built siege works all around it.

2 The city was besieged until the eleventh year of King Zedekyah.

3 By the ninth day of the Fourth Moon, the famine had become so severe in the city that there was no food for the people of the land.

4 Then the city wall was broken through, and the whole army fled at night through the gate between the two walls near the king's garden, though the Chaldeans were still encamped all around the city. They fled toward the Arabah.

5 But the Chaldean army pursued the king. They closed in on him in the plains of Yericho, and all his troops were separated from him and scattered.

6 So he was captured. They brought him up to the king of Babylon at Riblah, where they pronounced sentence upon him.

7 They killed the sons of Zedekyah in front of his eyes, then they gouged out the eyes of Zedekyah. They bound him with bronze shackles, and took him to Babylon.

8 In the Fifth Moon, on the seventh day of the moon, which was the nineteenth year of King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon, Nebuzaradan, captain of the king's guard, an official of the king of Babylon, arrived in Jerusalem.

9 He burned The House of Yahweh, the king's house, and all the houses of Jerusalem. Every important structure he burned with fire.

10 All the army of the Chaldeans accompanying the captain of the royal guard, broke down the walls around Jerusalem.

11 Nebuzaradan, the captain of the royal guard, then carried away captive the rest of the people who remained in the city—the remainder of the people and the defectors who had deserted to the king of Babylon.

12 But the captain left behind some of the poorest sort of people of the land to work the vineyards and fields.

13 The bronze pillars in The House of Yahweh, the carts, and the bronze Sea that were in The House of Yahweh, the Chaldeans broke in pieces, and carried the bronze to Babylon.

14 They carried off the pots, shovels, wick trimmers, ladles, and all the bronze articles used by the priests in the service at The House of Yahweh.

15 The censers and sprinkling bowls—all that were made of gold or silver—the captain of the royal guard carried away.

16 The two pillars, the Sea, and the carts, which Solomon had made for The House of Yahweh, the bronze of all these articles was more than could be weighed.

17 The height of one pillar was eighteen cubits; about 27 feet high, and the capital on it was of bronze. The height of the capital was three cubits; about 4 1/2 feet high, and was ornamented with a network and pomegranates of bronze all around. The other pillar, with its network, was the same.

18 The captain of the royal guard took Serayah, the High Priest, Zephanyah, the second priest, and the three doorkeepers as prisoners.

19 Of those still found in the city, he took the officer in charge of the fighting men and five of the king's close associates, his advisers. He also took the chief scribe of the army who was in charge of calling up the men of the people of the land, and sixty of his men who were found in the city.

20 So Nebuzaradan, captain of the royal guard, seized these and brought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah.

21 Then the king of Babylon executed them in Riblah, in the land of Hamath. So Yahdah was carried away captive from his own land.

22 Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon appointed Gedalyah; Yahweh is Magnificent, son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, to be governor over the people whom Nebuchadnezzar allowed to remain in the land of Yahdah.

23 When the captains of the army and their men heard that the king of Babylon had appointed Gedalyah as governor, they and their men came to Gedalyah at Mizpah—Ishmael son of Nethanyah, Yahchanan and Yahnathn the sons of Kareah, Serayah son of Tanhumeth the Netophathite, and Yaazanyah, the son of a Maachathite.

24 Gedalyah vowed an oath to reassure them and their men, saying; Do not be afraid of the Chaldean officials. Live in the land, submit to the king of Babylon, and it will be well with you.

25 In the Seventh Moon Ismael, the son of Nethanyah, the son of Elishama, of the royal line, came with ten men and attacked and killed Gedalyah, along with the men of Yahdah, and the Chaldeans who were with him at Mizpah.

26 Then all the people, from the least to the greatest, together with the army officers, fled into Egypt because of their fear of the Chaldeans.

27 In the thirty-seventh year of the captivity of Yahyakin king of Yahdah, in the Twelfth Moon, on the twenty-seventh day of the moon, Evil-Merodach; Man of Marduk, king of Babylon, in the same year he began to reign, released Yahyakin of Yahdah from prison.

28 He spoke kindly to him, and gave him a seat of honor more prominent than those of the other kings who were with him in Babylon.

29 Yahyakin changed out of the clothes that he wore in prison, and ate food regularly at the king's table all the rest of his life.

30 He received a regular ration of food from the king, day by day, for as long as he lived.

I CHRONICLES

DIBRE HAYYAMIM Records of the Times

Adam, Seth, Enosh.
2 Qenan, Mahalalyl, Yared.
3 Enoch, Methuselah, Lamech, Noah.
4 The sons of Noah were Shem, Ham, Yapheth.
5 The descendants of Yapheth were: Gomer, Magog, Madai, Yavan, Tubal, Meshech, and Tiras.
6 The descendants of Gomer were: Ashkenaz, Riphath, and Togarmah.
7 The descendants of Yavan: Elishah, Tarshish, the Kittim, and the Rodanim.
8 The sons of Ham: Cush, Mitzraim; Egypt, Put, and Canaan.
9 The descendants of Cush: Seba, Havilah, Sabta, Raamah, and Sabteca. The descendants of Raamah: Sheba and Dedan.
10 Cush was the ancestor of Nimrod, who grew to greatly oppose Yahweh in the earth.
11 Mitzraim was the ancestor of the Ludites, Anamites, Lehabites, Naphtuhites.
12 Pathrusites, Casluhites, and the Caphtorites (from whom the Philistines descended).
13 Canaan was the father of Sidon: Phoenicians, his firstborn, and Heth; the Hittites.
14 The Yebusites, the Amorites, and the Girgashites.
15 The Hivites, the Arkites, the Sinites.
16 The Arvadites, the Zemarites, and the Hamathites—all the descendants of Canaan.
17 The sons of Shem were Elam, Asshur, Arphaxad, Lud, Aram, Uz, Hul, Gether, and Meshech.
18 Arphaxad begot Shelah, and Shelah begot Eber.
19 To Eber were born two sons: the name of one was Peleg, because during his life the earth was divided into geographic designations; and his brother's name was Yoktan.
20 Yoktan begot Almodad, Sheleph, Hazarmaveth, Yerah,
21 Hadoram, Uzal, Diklah,
22 Ebal, Abimael, Sheba,
23 Ophir, Havilah, and Yobab—all these were the sons of Yoktan.
24 This is the descent from Shem: Arphaxad, Shelah,
25 Eber, Peleg, Reu,
26 Serug, Nahor, Terah,
27 And Abram, that is, Abraham.

28 The sons of Abraham were: Isaac and Ishmayl.

29 Nebayoth was the firstborn of Ishmayl, then to Ishmayl were born Kedar, Adbeel, Mibsam,

30 Mishma, Dumah, Massa, Hadad, Tema,

31 Yetur, Naphish, and Kedemah. These were the sons of Ishmayl.

32 The sons born to Keturah, the concubine of Abraham, were Zimran, Yokshan, Medan, Midian, Ishbak, and Shuah. The descendants of Yokshan were: Sheba and Dedan.

33 The descendants of Midian were: Ephah, Epher, Henoah, Abida, and Eldaah. All these were descended from Keturah.

34 Abraham begot Isaac from Sarah. The sons of Isaac from Rebecca were Esau and Israyl.

35 The sons of Esau were: Eliphaz, Reuel, Yeush, Yalam, and Korah.

36 The descendants of Eliphaz were: Teman, Omar, Zephi, Gatam, and Kenaz—and by Timna was Amalek.

37 The descendants of Reuel were Nahath, Zerah, Shammah, and Mizzah.

38 The descendants of Seir were Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah, Dishon, Ezer, and Dishan.

39 The descendants of Lotan were: Hori and Homam. Timna was the sister of Lotan.

40 The descendants of Shobal: Alian, Manahath, Ebal, Shephi and Onam. The descendants of Zibeon were: Aiah and Anah.

41 The descendant of Anah was: Dishon. The descendants of Dishon were: Hamran, Eshban, Ithran, and Cheran.

42 The sons of Ezer: Bilhan, Zaavan, and Yakan. The descendants of Dishan: Uz and Aran.

43 These were the kings who reigned in Edom before any king of Israyl reigned: Bela son of Beor, and the name of his city was Dinhabah.

44 When Bela died, Yobab son of Zerah of Bozrah succeeded him as king.

45 When Yobab died, Husham of the land of the Temanites succeeded him as king.

46 When Husham died, Hadad son of Bedad, who attacked Midian in the field of Moab, succeeded him as king. The name of his city was Avith.

47 When Hadad died, Samlah of Masrekah succeeded him as king.

48 When Samlah died, Shaul of Rehoboth-by-the-River succeeded him as king.

49 When Shaul died, Baal-Hanan, the son of Achbor, succeeded him as king.

50 When Baal-Hanan died, Hadad succeeded him as king. The name of his city was Pai, and his wife's name was Mehetabel, the daughter of Matred, the daughter of Me-Zahab.

51 King Hadad died, then the chiefs of Edom reigned, who were: Chief Timnah, Chief Aliah, Chief Yetheth.

52 Chief Aholibamah, Chief Elah, Chief Pinon,

53 Chief Kenaz, Chief Teman, Chief Mibzar,

54 Chief Magdiel, and Chief Iram—these were the chiefs of Edom.

CHAP 2

These were the sons of Israyl: Reuben, Simeon, Levi, Yahdah, Issachar, Zebulun,

2 Dan, Yahseph, Benyamin, Naphtali, Gad, and Asher.

3 The sons of Yahdah were Er, Onan, and Shelah—three born to him by the daughter of Shua, a Canaanitess. Er, the firstborn of Yahdah, was so evil in the eyes of Yahweh. He killed him.

4 Then Tamar, his daughter-in-law, bore him Perez and Zerah. So all the sons of Yahdah were five.

5 The sons of Perez were Hezron and Hamul.

6 The sons of Zerah were Zimri, Ethan, Heman, Calcol, and Dara—five of them in all.

7 A descendant of Carmi was Achar (Achan), the troubler of Israyl, who violated the ban on taking any of the things appointed to utter destruction: cherem.

8 The son of Ethan was Azaryah.

9 The sons born to Hezron were Yerahmeel, Ram, and Chelubai.

10 Ram begot Amminadab, and Amminadab begot Nahshon, a leader of the children of Yahdah.

11 Nahshon begot Salmon, and Salmon begot Boaz.

12 Boaz begot Obed, and Obed begot Yishai.

13 Yishai begot: Eliab his firstborn, Abinadab his second, and Shammah his third,

14 Nathanel his fourth, Raddai his fifth,

15 Ozem his sixth, and David his seventh.

16 Their sisters were Zeruyah and Abigail. The sons of Zeruyah were Abishai, Yahab, and Asahel—three, commanders of David's army.

17 Abigail bore Amasa; who was appointed commander, but was killed by Yahab. The father of Amasa was Yether the Ishmaylite.

18 Caleb the son of Hezron begot children by Azubah, his wife, and by Yerioth. These were her sons: Yesher, Shobab, and Ardon.

19 When Azubah died, Caleb married Ephrathah, who bore him Hur.

20 Hur begot Uri, and Uri begot Bezaleel, who was the skilled craftsman and artisan who made the things for the service in the Tent of Meeting.

21 Afterward, Hezron married the daughter of Machir, the father of Gilead, when he was sixty years old, and she bore him Segub.

22 Segub begot Yair, who had twenty-three cities in the land of Gilead.

23 (But Geshur and Aram captured Havvoth Yair, as well as Kenath with its surrounding settlements—sixty villages.) All these were descendants of Machir, the father of Gilead.

24 After Hezron died in Caleb Ephrathah, Hezron's wife, Abiyah, bore him Ashhur, the father of Tekoa.

25 The descendants of Yerahmeel, the firstborn of Hezron, were Ram his firstborn, then Bunah, Oren, Ozem, and Ahiyah.

26 Yerahmeel had another wife, whose name was Atarah. She was the mother of Onam.

27 The sons of Ram, the firstborn of Yerahmeel, were Maaz, Yamin, and Eker.

28 The sons of Onam were: Shammai and Yada. The sons of Shammai were: Nadab and Abishur.

29 The name of the wife of Abishur was Abihail, who bore him Ahban and Molid.

30 The sons of Nadab were: Seled and Appayim, but Seled died without children.

31 The son of Appayim was Ishi. The son of Ishi was Sheshan, and the son of Sheshan was Ahlai.

32 The sons of Yada, the brother of Shammai, were: Yether and Yahnathan, but Yether died, leaving no sons.

33 The sons of Yahnathan were: Peleth and Zaza—these were the descendants of Yerahmeel.

34 Now Sheshan had no sons, he had only daughters. Sheshan had an Egyptian servant, whose name was Yarha.

35 So Sheshan gave his daughter in marriage to his servant Yarha, and she bore him Attai.

36 Attai begot Nathan, and Nathan begot Zabad.

37 Zabad begot Ephlal, and Ephlal begot Obed.

38 Obed begot Yahu, and Yahu begot Azaryah.

39 Azaryah begot Helez, and Helez begot Eleasah.

40 Eleasah begot Sismai, and Sismai begot Shallum.

41 Shallum begot Yekamyah, and Yekamyah begot Elishama.

42 The descendants of Caleb, the brother of Yerahmeel were Mesha his firstborn, who was the father of Ziph, and his son Mareshah, who was the father of Hebron.

43 The sons of Hebron were Korah, Tap-puah, Rekem, and Shema.

44 Shema begot Raham, the father of Yor-koam, and Rekem begot Shammai.

45 Shammai begot Maon, and Maon begot Beth Zur.

46 Caleb's concubine, Ephah, was the moth-er of Haran, Moza, and Gazez. Haran begot Gazez.

47 The sons of Yachdai were Regem, Yah-tham, Gesham, Pelet, Ephah, and Shaaph.

48 Caleb's concubine, Maachah, bore She-ber and Tirhanah.

49 She also bore Shaaph, the father of Mad-mannah, and Sheva, the father of Machbenah and Gibea. The daughter of Caleb was Achsah.

50 These were the sons of Caleb, the sons of Hur, the firstborn of Ephrathah: Shobal, the father of Kiryath Yearim:

51 Salma (Salmon), the father of Bethlehem, and Hareph, the father of Beth Gader.

52 The descendants of Shobal, the father of Kiryath Yearim were: Haroeh, half the Mana-hethites.

53 And the clans of Kiryath Yearim—Ith-rites, the Puthites, the Shumathites, and the Mishraites. From these came the Zorathites, and the Eshtaolites.

54 The descendants of Salmon were Bethle-hem, the Netophathites, Ataroth Beth Yahab, half the Manahethites, and the Zorites.

55 And the clans of scribes: soferim who lived at Yabez were the Tirathites, the Shimeathites, and the Suchathites. These were the Kenites descended from Hemath, the father of the house of Rechab.

CHAP. 3

These were the names of the sons of David who were born to him in Hebron: His firstborn was Amnon, by Ahinoam the Yezreelitess. His second, Daniyl (Chileab) by Abigail the Carmelitess.

2 His third, Absalom by Maachah, the daughter of Talmai, the king of Geshur. His fourth, Adoniyah by Haggith.

3 His fifth, Shephatyah by Abital. His sixth, Ithream, by his wife Eglah.

4 Six sons were born to him in Hebron. He reigned there seven years and six moons, and in Yerusalem he reigned thirty-three years.

5 These sons were born to him in Yerusalem: Shammua, Shobab, Nathan, and Solomon—four by Bathshua (Bathsheba), the daughter of Ammiel (Eliam).

The phrase, FATHER OF, corresponding to PLACE NAMES, can refer to the clans and the region they first settled.

6 Also there were Ibhar, Ylishama (Ylishua), Yliphelet.

7 Nogah, Nepheg, Yaphia.

8 Ylishama, Ylyada, and Yliphelet—nine of them.

9 These were all the sons of David, besides the sons of his concubines, and Tamar their sister.

10 Solomon's son was Rehoboam; Recha-bam: A People Has Enlarged. Abiyah was his son, Asa was his son, Yahshaphat was his son.

11 Yahram was his son, Ahazyah was his son, Yahash was his son.

12 Amazyah was his son, Azaryah was his son, Yahtham was his son.

13 Ahaz was his son, Hezekyah was his son, Menasheh was his son.

14 Amon was his son, and Yoshiyah was his son.

15 The sons of Yoshiyah were Yahchanan (Yahahaz) his firstborn, Yahyakim his second, Zedekyah his third, and Shallum his fourth.

16 The successors of Yahyakim were Yekon-yah (Yahyakin) his son, and Zedekyah, the brother of Yahyakin.

17 The sons of Yekonyah (Yahyakin) while he was in captivity were: Assir, Shealtiel his son.

18 Malchiram, Pedayah, Shenazar, Yekam-yah, Hoshama, and Nedabayah.

19 The sons of Pedayah were Zerubbabel and Shimei. The sons of Zerubbabel were Meshullam and Hananyah. Shelomith was their sister.

20 Also Hashubah, Ohel, Berechyah, Ha-sadyah, and Yushab-Chesed, five in all.

21 The sons of Hananyah were Pelatyah and Yeshayah, and the sons of Rephayah, of Arnan, of Obadyah, and of Shechanyah.

22 The son of Shechanyah was Shemayah. The sons of Shemayah were Hattush, Igeal, Bariach, Nearyah, and Shaphat—six in all.

23 The sons of Nearyah were Al-Yahenai, Hezekyah, and Azrikam—three in all.

24 The sons of Al-Yahnenai were Hodayah, Eliashib, Pelayah, Akkub, Yahchanan, Dela-yah, and Anani—seven in all.

CHAP. 4

The sons of Yahdah were Perez, Hezron, Carmi, Hur, and Shobal.

2 Shobal begot Reayah. Reayah begot Ya-chath, Yachath begot Ahumai and Lahad. These were the clans of the Zorathites.

3 These were the sons of Hareph, the father of Etam: Yezreel, Ishma, and Idbash. Their sister was Ha-Tzelelponi.

4 Penuel was the father of Gedor, and Ezer the father of Hushah. These were the descend-ants of Hur, the firstborn son of Ephrathah, and the father of Bethlehem.

5 Ashhur the father of Tekoa had two wives—Helah and Naarah.

6 Naarah bore him Ahuzam, Hopher, Temeni, and Haahashtari. These were the sons of Naarah.

7 The sons of Helah were Zereth, Zohar, Ethnan,

8 And Koz (who was the father of Anub, Ha-Tzobebah, and the clans of Aharhel son of Harum).

9 Yabez was more worthy of honor than his brothers, but his mother called his name Yabez: He Will Cause Pain, saying: Because I bore him in pain.

10 Yabez called on the Father of Israyl, saying: Oh, that You would truly bless me, and enlarge my territory, that Your hand would be with me, and that You would keep me from evil, so I might not be hurt. So Yahweh granted him his request.

11 Chelub the brother of Shuhah begot Mehir, who was the father of Eshton.

12 Eshton begot Beth-Rapha, Paseah, and Tehinnah, the father of Ir-Nahash. These were the men of Rechah.

13 The sons of Kenaz were Othniel and Serayah. The sons of Othniel were Hathath.

14 And Meonothai (who begot Ophrah), Serayah begot Yahab the father of Ge-Charashim; Valley of Craftsmen, for they were craftsmen.

15 The sons of Caleb son of Yephunneh were Iru, Elah, and Naam. The son of Elah was Kenaz.

16 The sons of Yehallelel were Ziph, Ziphaha, Tiria, and Asareel.

17 The sons of Ezrahyah were Yether, Mered, Ephher, and Yalon. The wife of Mered bore Miriam, Shammai, and Ishbah, the father of Eshtemoa.

18 (His wife, a Yahdiah, bore Yered the father of Gedor, Heber the father of Socoh, and Yekuthiel the father of Zanoah.) These were the children of Pharaoh's daughter Bithyah, whom Mered married.

19 The sons of the wife of Hadiyah, the sister of Naham, were the fathers of Keilah the Garmite and of Eshtemoa the Maachathite.

20 The sons of Shimon were Amnon, Rinnah, Ben-Hanan, and Tilon. The sons of Ishi were Zoheth and Ben-Zoheth.

21 The sons of Shelah, the son of Yahdah, were Er father of Lecah, Laadah father of Mareshah, and the clans of the linen workers at Beth Ashbea.

22 And Yahkim, the men of Chozeba, Yahash, and Saraph, who married Moabites and returned to Bethlehem. (These records are ancient.)

23 They were the potters who lived at Netaim and Gederah; they stayed there in the service of the king.

24 The descendants of Simeon were Nemuel, Yamin, Yarib (Yakin), Zerah, and Shaul.

25 Shallum was the son of Shaul. Shallum begot Mibsam. Mibsam begot Mishma.

26 Hamuel was the son of Mishma. Hamuel begot Zacchur. Zacchur begot Shimei.

27 Shimei had sixteen sons and six daughters, but his brothers did not have many children. Therefore, their entire clan did not become as numerous as the people of Yahdah.

28 They lived at Beersheba, Moladah, Hazar Shual,

29 Bilhah, Ezem, Tolad,

30 Bethuel, Hormah, Ziklag,

31 Beth Marcaboth, Hazar Susim, Beth Birei, and at Shaaraim. These were their cities until the reign of David.

32 Their surrounding villages were Etam, Ain, Rimmon, Tochen, and Ashan—five villages—

33 And all the surrounding villages around the cities as far as Baalath Beer. This is where they lived, and they maintained genealogical records.

34 Meshobab, Yamlech, and Yoshayah the son of Amazyah;

35 Yahyl, and Yahu son of Yoshiyah, the son of Serayah, the son of Asiel;

36 Al-Yahenai, Yaakobah, Yeshochayah, Asayah, Adiel, Yesimiel, and Benayah;

37 Ziza, the son of Shiphi, the son of Allon, the son of Yedayah, the son of Shimri, the son of Shemayah—

38 These men, listed by name, were chiefs of their clans, and their fathers' houses increased greatly.

39 So they went as far as the entrance of Gedor, to the east side of the valley, in search of pasture for their flocks.

40 They found rich, luxuriant pasture, and the land was spacious, quiet and peaceful. The descendants of Ham formerly lived there.

41 These men, listed by name, came during the reign of Hezekyah king of Yahdah, and attacked the Hamites in their tents and dwellings found there, and utterly destroyed; cherem them, as it is to this day. They settled in their place, because there was pasture for their flocks.

42 Five hundred of these Simeonites invaded the hill country of Seir. They were led by Peлатыah, Nearyah, Rephayah, and Uzziel, the sons of Ishi.

43 They destroyed the remnant of the Amalekites who escaped, and they have lived there to this day.

CHAP. 5

The sons of Reuben, the firstborn of Israyl were (he was the firstborn, but when he defiled his father's bed, his right of birth as the firstborn was given to the sons of Yahseph, the son of Israyl; therefore, the genealogy does not list him in accordance with his birthright.

2 Yet Yahdah prevailed over his brothers, and from him came a ruler, but the rights of the firstborn belong to Yahseph)—

3 The sons of Reuben, the firstborn of Israyl, were Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi.

4 The sons of Yahyl were Shemayah. Shemayah begot Gog. Gog begot Shimei.

5 Shimei begot Micahyah. Micahyah begot Reayah. Reayah begot Baal.

6 Baal begot Beerah, whom Tilgath Pilneser, the king of Assyria, carried into captivity. Beerah was a leader of the Reubenites.

7 Their brothers and relatives, by clans, listed according to their genealogical records, were: Yeiel the chief, Zecharyah.

8 Bela son of Azaz, the son of Shema, the son of Yahyl, who lived in the area from Aroer to Nebo and Baal Meon.

9 To the east they settled as far as the desert that extends to the Euphrates River, because their livestock had multiplied in the land of Gilead.

10 During the reign of Shaul they waged war against the Hagarites, who fell by their hands. So they lived in their tents throughout the entire region east of Gilead.

11 The children of Gad lived next to them, in the land of Bashan, as far as Salcah:

12 Yahyl was the chief, Shapham next, then Yaanai and Shaphat, in Bashan.

13 Their brothers and relatives, by houses (families) were: Michael, Meshullam, Sheba, Yorai, Yachan, Zia, and Heber—seven in all.

14 These were the sons of Abihail the son of Huri, the son of Yaroach, the son of Gilead, the son of Michael, the son of Yeshishai, the son of Yachdo, the son of Buz.

15 Ahi, the son of Abdiel, the son of Guni, was chief of their father's house (family).

16 The Gadites lived in Gilead, in Bashan, and in its villages, and in all the common-lands of Sharon within their territory.

17 All these were registered by genealogies during the reign of Yahtham king of Yahdah, and during the reign of Yeroboam king of Israyl.

18 The sons of Reuben, Gad, and the half-tribe of Menasheh had 44,760 able-bodied men, capable of bearing shield and sword and shooting the bow, who were trained for battle.

19 They waged war with the Hagarites, Yetur, Naphish, and Nodab.

20 They were helped in fighting them, for they cried out to Yahweh during the battle. He delivered them, and all who were with them, into their hands. He listened to their prayer, for they put their trust in Him.

21 Then they took possession of all their livestock—50,000 camels, 250,000 sheep, and

2,000 donkeys—as well as 100,000 men taken captive:

22 But many others fell slain, because the battle was Yahweh's. So they lived in their place until the captivity.

23 The children of the half-tribe of Menasheh lived in the land from Bashan to Baal Hermon, (that is, to Senir and Mount Hermon), and were a numerous people.

24 These were the heads of their houses (families): Epher, Ishi, Eliel, Azriel, Yeremyah, Hodayah, and Yachdiel. They were courageous, valiant men, famous, and heads of their fathers' houses.

25 But they were unfaithful to the Father of their fathers, and prostituted themselves to the gods of the peoples of the land, whom Yahweh had destroyed from in front of them.

26 So the Father of Israyl stirred up the spirit of Pul, the king of Assyria, (that is, Tilgath-Pilneser, the king of Assyria). He carried the tribes of Reuben, Gad, and the half-tribe of Menasheh into captivity. He took them to Halah, Habor, Hara, and to the river of Gozan, where they are to this day.

CHAP. 6

The sons of Levi were Gershom, Kohath, and Merari.

2 The sons of Kohath were Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel.

3 The children of Amram were Aaron, Moses, and Miriam. The sons of Aaron were Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

4 Eleazar begot Phinehas. Phinehas begot Abishua.

5 Abishua begot Bukki. Bukki begot Uzzi.

6 Uzzi begot Zerahyah. Zerahyah begot Merayoth.

7 Merayoth begot Amaryah. Amaryah begot Ahitub.

8 Ahitub begot Zadok. Zadok begot Ahimaaz.

9 Ahimaaz begot Azaryah. Azaryah begot Yahchanan.

10 Yahchanan begot Azaryah (this was he who ministered as priest in The House of Yahweh in Yerusalem).

11 Azaryah begot Amaryah. Amaryah begot Ahitub.

12 Ahitub begot Zadok. Zadok begot Shallum.

13 Shallum begot Hilkiyah. Hilkiyah begot Azaryah.

14 Azaryah begot Serayah. Serayah begot Yahzadak.

15 Yahzadak went into captivity when Yahweh sent Yahdah and Yerusalem into captivity by the hands of Nebuchadnezzar.

16 The sons of Levi were Gershom, Kohath, and Merari.

17 These are the names of the sons of Gershon: Libni and Shimei.

18 The sons of Kohath were Amram, Ishar, Hebron, and Uzziel.

19 The sons of Merari were Mahli and Mushi. These are the clans of the Levites, listed according to their fathers:

20 From Gershon—were Libni his son, who begot Yachath, who begot Zimmah, 21 Who begot Yahach, who begot Iddo, who begot Zerach, who begot Yeatherai.

22 From Kohath—were Amminadab his son, who begot Korah, who begot Assir,

23 Who begot Elkanah, who begot Ebyasaph, who begot Assir,

24 Who begot Tahath, who begot Uriel, who begot Uzzyah, who begot Shaul.

25 The descendants of Elkanah, were Amasai, Ahimoth,

26 Elkanah his son, Zophai his son, Nahath his son,

27 Eliab his son, Yeroham his son, Elkanah his son.

28 From Samuyl, prophet of Yahweh, were Yahyl his firstborn, and Abiyah his second son.

29 From Merari—were Mahli his son, who begot Libni, who begot Shimei, who begot Uz-zah, 30 Who begot Shimea, who begot Chagyah, who begot Asayah.

31 These are the men David appointed over the music service in The House of Yahweh, after the ark came to rest there.

32 They ministered with music in front of the Tent of Meeting, until Solomon had built The House of Yahweh in Yerusalem. They served in their offices according to the regulations laid down for them.

33 These are the persons who served, together with their sons: From the Kohathites—Heman, the cantor; a singer, the son of Yahyl, the son of Samuyl.

34 The son of Elkanah, the son of Yeroham, the son of Eliel, the son of Toah,

35 The son of Zuph, the son of Elkanah, the son of Mahath, the son of Amasai, 36 The son of Elkanah, the son of Yahyl, the son of Azaryah, the son of Zephanyah.

37 The son of Tahath, the son of Assir, the son of Ebyasaph, the son of Korah, 38 The son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, the son of Israyl.

39 His brother was Asaph, who stood at his right side. Asaph was the son of Berechyah, the son of Shimea.

40 The son of Michael, the son of Baaseyah, the son of Malchiyah,

41 The son of Ethni, the son of Zerach, the son of Adayah,

42 The son of Ethan, the son of Zimmah, the son of Shimei,

43 The son of Yachath, the son of Gershon, the son of Levi.

44 The sons of Merari, their brother, who stood on the left side, were, Ethan son of Kishi, the son of Abdi, the son of Malluch,

45 The son of Hashabiyah, the son of Amazyah, the son of Hilkiyah,

46 The son of Amzi, the son of Bani, the son of Shamer,

47 The son of Mahli, the son of Mushi, the son of Merari, the son of Levi.

48 Their brother Levites were appointed to all the other duties of the tabernacle of The House of Yahweh.

49 But Aaron and his descendants were the ones who presented offerings on the altar of burnt offering, and on the altar of incense, and who were responsible for all the duties affecting the Most Holy Place, making atonement for Israyl in accordance with all that Mosheh, the servant of Yahweh, had commanded.

50 These are the sons of Aaron: Eleazar his son, Phinehas his son, Abishua his son, 51 Bukki his son, Uzzi his son, Zerayah his son.

52 Merayoth his son, Amaryah his son, Ahitub his son,

53 Zadok his son, and Ahimaaz his son.

54 These were the locations of their settlements, allotted as their territory. To the sons of Aaron, from the clans of the Kohathites (the first lot came out for them)—

55 They were given Hebron in Yahdah with its surrounding common-lands.

56 But the fields of that city and its villages they gave to Caleb, the son of Yephunneh.

57 To the sons of Aaron they also gave these cities of refuge: Hebron, Libnah with its common-lands, Yattir, Eshtemoa with its common-lands, 58 Hilen with its common-lands, Debir with its common-lands.

59 Ashan with its common-lands, and Beth Shemesh with its common-lands.

60 Also, from the tribe of Benyamin they were given Geba with its common-lands, Ale-meth with its common-lands, and Anathoth with its common-lands. All these cities, distributed among the clans of Kohath, were thirteen in all.

61 To the rest of the sons of Kohath, they gave ten cities by lot from the clans of the half-tribe of Menasheh.

62 The descendants of Gershon, clan by clan, were allotted thirteen cities from the tribes of Issachar, Asher, Naphtali, and from the half-tribe of Menasheh in Bashan.

63 The descendants of Merari, clan by clan, were allotted twelve cities from the tribes of Reuben, Gad, and Zebulun.

64 So the children of Israyl gave these cities, with their common-lands, to the Levites.

65 They also gave to them, by lot, from the tribes of Yahdah, Simeon, and Benjamin, these cities called by name.

66 Some of the clans of Kohath were given, as their territory, cities from the tribe of Ephraim.

67 In the hill country of Ephraim they were allotted Shechem with its common-lands, as a city of refuge, and also Gezer with its common-lands.

68 Yokmeam with its common-lands, Beth Horon with its common-lands.

69 Aiyalon with its common-lands, and Gath Rimmon with its common-lands.

70 From the half-tribe of Menasheh, they were allotted: Aner with its common-lands, and Bileam with its common-lands, for the rest of the clans of Kohath.

71 From the clan of the half-tribe of Menasheh, the sons of Gershom were given Golan in Bashan with its common-lands, and Ashtaroth with its common-lands.

72 From the tribe of Issachar, Gershom was given Kedesh with its common-lands, Daberath with its common-lands.

73 Ramoth with its common-lands, and Anem with its common-lands.

74 From the tribe of Asher, Gershom was given Mashal with its common-lands, Abdon with its common-lands.

75 Hukok with its common-lands, and Rehob with its common-lands.

76 From the tribe of Naphtali, Gershom was given Kedesh in Galilee with its common-lands, Hammon with its common-lands, and Kiryathaim with its common-lands.

77 From the tribe of Zebulun, the remainder of the children of Merari were given Rimmon with its common-lands, and Tabor with its common-lands.

78 From the tribe of Reuben, across the Yordan east of Yericho, they were given Bezer in the wilderness with its common-lands, Yatzah with its common-lands.

79 Kedemoth with its common-lands, and Mephaath with its common-lands.

80 From the tribe of Gad, they received Ramoth in Gilead with its common-lands, Mahanaim with its common-lands.

81 Heshbon with its common-lands, and Yazer with its common-lands.

CHAP. 7

The sons of Issachar were Tola, Puah, Yashub, and Shimron—four in all.

2 The sons of Tola were Uzzi, Rephayah,

Yeriel, Yachmai, Yibsam, and Shemuel—the heads of their fathers' houses. The sons of Tola were courageous, valiant men in their begettings. They numbered 22,600 during the reign of David.

3 The son of Uzzi was Izrachyah. The sons of Izrachyah were Michael, Obadyah, Yahyl, and Ishiyah. All five of them were chiefs.

4 The begettings of their houses numbered 36,000 men ready for battle, for they had many wives and sons.

5 Their brothers, the fighting men belonging to all the clans of Issachar, numbered 87,000 men, as listed in their genealogies.

6 The sons of Benjamin were Bela, Becher, and Yediael—three in all.

7 The sons of Bela were Ezbon, Uzzi, Uzziel, Yerimoth, and Iri—five in all. They were chiefs of their fathers' houses, and their genealogical record listed them as 22,034 fighting men.

8 The sons of Becher were Zemirah, Yahash, Eliezer, Aï-Yahenai, Omri, Yerimoth, Abiyah, Anathoth, and Alameth. All these were the sons of Becher.

9 Their recorded genealogy according to the begettings of the chiefs of their fathers' houses, listed their fighting men as 20,200.

10 The son of Yediael was Bilhan, and the sons of Bilhan were Yeush, Benjamin, Ehud, Chenaanah, Zethan, Tarshish, and Ahishahar.

11 All these sons of Yediael were chiefs of their fathers' houses. There were 17,200 fighting men ready to go out to battle.

12 The Shuppites and Huppites were the descendants of Ir, and the Hushites were the descendants of Aher.

13 The sons of Naphtali were Yachziel, Guni, Yezer, and Shallum, the sons of Bilhah.

14 The descendants of Menasheh: his Aramean concubine bore him Machir, the father of Gilead, the father of Ashriel.

15 Machir took a wife from among the Huppites and Shuppites; their sister's name was Maachah. Another son was named Zelophehad, but Zelophehad begot only daughters.

16 (Maachah, the wife of Machir, bore a son, and she called his name Peresh. The name of his brother was Sheresh, and his sons were Ulam and Rakem.)

17 The son of Ulam was Bedan.) These were the descendants of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Menasheh.

18 His sister Hammoleketh bore Ishod,

Abiezer, and Mahalah.

19 The sons of Shemida were Ahiran, Shechem, Likhi, and Aniam.

20 The sons of Ephraim were Shuthelah, Bered his son, Tahath his son, Eladah his son, Tahath his son, 21 Zabab his son, and Shuthelah his son. The men of Gath who were born in that land killed Ezer and Elead, his sons, because they came down to seize their livestock.

22 Then Ephraim, their father, mourned a long time, and his brothers (relatives) came to comfort him.

23 When he lay with his wife, she conceived and bore a son, so he called his name Beriah, because tragedy had come upon his house.

24 His daughter was Sheerah, who built Lower and Upper Beth Horon and Uzzan Sheerah.

25 Repah was his son, Resheph his son, Telah his son, Tahan his son, 26 Laadan his son, Ammihud his son, Eli-shama his son.

27 Nun his son, and Yahshua his son.

28 Their land possession and settlements included Bethel and its surrounding villages. Naaran to the east, to the west Gezer and its surrounding villages, Shechem and its surrounding villages, all the way to Gaza and its surrounding villages.

29 Along the borders of the children of Menasheh were Beth Shean and its surrounding villages, Taanach and its surrounding villages, Megiddo and its surrounding villages, and Dor with its surrounding villages. In these lived the children of Yahseph, the son of Israyl.

30 The sons of Asher were Yimna, Yishwa, Yishwi, and Beriah. Their sister was Serah.

31 The sons of Beriah were Heber and Malchiel, who was the father of Birzavith.

32 Heber begot Yaphlet, Shomer, and Hotham, and their sister Shua.

33 The sons of Yaphlet were Pasach, Bimhal, and Ashvath. These were the children of Yaphlet.

34 The sons of Shomer were Ahi, Rohgah, Yechubbah, and Aram.

35 The sons of his brother Helem were Zophah, Imna, Shelesh, and Amal.

36 The sons of Zophah were Suah, Harnepher, Shual, Beri, Imrah.

37 Bezer, Hod, Shamma, Shilshah, Yithran, and Beera.

38 The sons of Yether were Yephunneh, Pispah, and Ara.

39 The sons of Ulla were Arah, Haniel, and Ritzya.

40 All these were the children of Asher, heads of their fathers' houses, courageous and valiant men, and outstanding leaders. The number of men ready for battle, as listed in their genealogy, was 26,000.

CHAP. 8

Benjamin begot Bela his firstborn, Ashbel his second, Aharah (Ahiram) his third,

2 Nohah his fourth, and Rapha his fifth.

3 The sons of Bela were Addar (Ard), Gera, Abihud,

4 Abishua, Naaman, Achoach,

5 Gerah, Shephuphan, and Huram.

6 These are the sons of Ehud—these were the heads of their fathers' houses (families) of those living in Geba, when they were forced to move to Manahath:

7 Naaman, Ahiyah, and Gera. Heglam, who forced them to move, was the father of Uzza and Ahihud.

8 Shaharaim begot sons in Moab after he had sent away his wives Hushim and Baara.

9 By Hodesh, his wife, he begot Yobab, Zibia, Meshah, Malcham,

10 Yeutz, Shachia, and Mirmah. These were his sons, heads of their fathers' houses (families).

11 By Hushim he begot Abitub and Elpaal.

12 The sons of Elpaal were Eber, Misham, and Shamed, who built Ono and Lod, with its surrounding villages.

13 Beriah and Shema were heads of their fathers' houses of those living in Aiyalon. They drove out the inhabitants of Gath.

14 Ahio, Shashak, Yeremoth,

15 Zebadyah, Arad, Ader,

16 Michael, Ispah, and Yahcah were the sons of Beriah.

17 Zebadyah, Meshullam, Heziki, Heber,

18 Ishmerai, Yezliah, and Yobab were the sons of Elpaal.

19 Yakim, Zichri, Zabdi,

20 Al-Yahnai, Zilthai, Eliel,

21 Adayah, Berayah, and Shimrath were the sons of Shimhi.

22 Ishpan, Heber, Eliel,

23 Abdon, Zichri, Hanan,

24 Hananyah, Elam, Antothiyah,

25 Yiphdeyah, and Penuel were the sons of Shashak.

26 Shamsherai, Sheharyah, Athalyah,

27 Yareshyah, Yliyiah, and Zichri were the sons of Yeroham.

28 These were the heads of their fathers' houses (families) by their begettings, chief men who lived in Yerusalem.

29 The father of Gibeon lived in Gibeon, and his wife's name was Maacah.

30 His firstborn son was Abdon, then Zur, Kish, Baal, Nadab, 31 Gedor, Ahio, Zacher.

32 And Mikloth, who begot Shimeah. They lived side by side with their relatives and brothers in Yerusalem.

33 Ner begot Kish, Kish begot Shaul, and Shaul begot Yahnathan. Malchishua, Abinadab (Yishui), and Esh-Baal (Ishbosheth).

34 The son of Yahnathan was Merib-Baal (Mephibosheth), and Merib-Baal (Mephibosheth) begot Micahyah.

35 The sons of Micahyah were Pithon, Melech, Tarea, and Ahaz.

36 Ahaz begot Yahadah. Yahadah begot Alemeth, Azmaveth, and Zimri. Zimri begot Moza.

37 Moza begot Binea; Rephayah was his son. Eleasah was his son, and Azel was his son.

38 Azel had six sons whose names were: Azrikam, Bocheru, Ishmael, Shearyah, Obadyah, and Hanan. All these were the sons of Azel.

39 The sons of Eshkek, his brother, were Ulam his firstborn, Yeush his second, and Eliphelet his third.

40 The sons of Ulam were courageous fighters who could handle the bow. They had many sons and grandsons—one hundred fifty in all. These were all sons of Benjamin.

CHAP. 9

All Israyl was listed in the genealogical records in the book of the kings of Israyl. But the people of Yahdah were taken captive to Babylon because of their transgressions.

2 Now the first to resettle on their own possessions in their own cities were the Israylites, Priests, Levites, and Nethinim.

3 In Yerusalem lived the children of Yahdah, the children of Benjamin, and the children of Ephraim and Menasheh. They were—

4 Uthai son of Ammihud, the son of Omri, the son of Imri, the son of Bani, of the descendants of Perez, the son of Yahdah.

5 Of the Shilonites: Asayah the firstborn and his sons.

6 Of the Zerahites: Yeuel. The people of Yahdah numbered 690.

7 Of the Benyaminites: Sallu son of Meshullam, the son of Hodayah, the son of Hasenuah.

8 Yibneyah, the son of Yeroham. Elah the son of Uzzi, the son of Michri. Meshullam the son of Shephatyah, the son of Reuel, the son of Yibniyah;

9 The people of Benjamin, as listed in their genealogy, numbered 956. The following men were chiefs of a father's house in their fathers' houses: families—

10 Of the priests were: Yedayah, Yahyarib, Yachin;

11 And Azaryah son of Hilkiyah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Merayoth, the son of Ahitub, the official in charge of The House of Yahweh.

12 Also Adayah son of Yeroham, the son of Pashur, the son of Malchiyah, as well as Maasai son of Adiel, the son of Yachzerah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Meshillemith, the son of Immer.

13 The priests and their brothers, who were heads of their fathers' houses, numbered 1,760. They were capable men, responsible for ministering in The House of Yahweh.

14 Of the Levites were: Shemayah son of Hasshub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabyah, of the sons of Merari;

15 And Bakbakkar, Heresh, Galal, and Matanyahu son of Micahyah, the son of Zichri, the son of Asaph;

16 As well as Obadyah son of Shemayah, the son of Galal, the son of Yeduthun, and Berechyah son of Asa, the son of Elkanah, who lived in the villages of the Netophathites.

17 The gatekeepers were: Shallum, Akkub, Tal-mon, and Ahiman; and their brother Shallum was the chief.

18 Who, until now, was the gatekeeper of the king's gate to the east. These were the gatekeepers belonging to the camp of the Levites—

19 Shallum son of Kore, the son of Ebyasaph, the son of Korah, and his fellow gatekeepers from his father's house, the Korahites, were in charge of guarding the thresholds of the whole tabernacle area, just as their fathers had been responsible for guarding the entrance to the dwelling of Yahweh.

20 Phinehas son of Eleazar had been the official over them in earlier times, and Yahweh was with him.

21 Zecharyah son of Meshelemyah was the gatekeeper at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting, the tabernacle of the congregation.

22 All those chosen to be gatekeepers at the thresholds numbered 212. They were recorded by their genealogy, in their villages. David and Samuyl the seer had appointed them to their assigned positions.

23 So they and their descendants were in charge of guarding the gates of The House of Yahweh—the house of the tabernacle, by wards:

24 The gatekeepers were assigned to the four sides—the east, west, north, and south.

25 Their brothers in their villages had to come up from time to time, for seven days.

26 In this appointed office there were four chief gatekeepers, who were Levites. They had responsibility over the rooms and the treasuries of The House of Yahweh.

27 They would spend the night stationed around The House of Yahweh, because they had to guard it. They also had charge of the key for opening it each morning.

28 Some of them were in charge of the articles used in the service. According to their count they brought them out, and according to their count they took them in.

29 Others were assigned to take care of the furnishings and all the other articles of the sanctuary, as well as the flour, wine, oil, incense, and spices.

30 Other priests mixed the spices.

31 Mattithyah, a Levite, the firstborn of Shallum the Korahite, had the appointed office over the things that were baked in pans.

32 Some of the Kohathites were in charge of preparing for every Sabbath the showbread set out on the table.

33 Those who were musicians, heads of Levite families, stayed in rooms at The House of Yahweh, and were exempt from other duties, for they were employed in that work day and night.

34 All these were heads of the Levitical houses, as listed in their genealogy, and they lived in Yerusalem.

35 Yehiel, the father of Gibeon, lived in Gibeon. His wife's name was Maacah.

36 His firstborn son was Abdon, then Zur, Kish, Baal, Ner, Nadab.

37 Gedor, Ahio, Zecharyah (Zecher), and Mikloth.

38 Mikloth begot Shimeam. They also lived side by side with their relatives in Yerusalem, their brothers.

39 Ner begot Kish, Kish begot Shaul, and Shaul begot Yahnathan. Malchishua, Abinadab, and Esh-Baal (Ishbosheth).

40 The son of Yahnathan was Merib-Baal (Mephibosheth), and Merib-Baal (Mephibosheth) begot Micahyah.

41 The sons of Micahyah were Pithon, Melech, Tarea, and Ahaz.

42 Ahaz begot Yarah (Yahaddah), and Yarah (Yahaddah) begot Alemeth, Azmaveth, and Zimri. Zimri begot Moza.

43 Moza begot Binea, and Binea begot Re-phayah (Raphah). Eleasah was his son, and Azel was his son.

44 Azel had six sons, and these were their names: Azrikam, Bocheru, Ishmael, Shearyah, Obadyah, and Hanan. These were the sons of Azel.

CHAP. 10

Now the Philistines fought against Israyl, and the men of Israyl fled from in front of the Philistines, and many fell slain on Mount Gilboa.

2 Then the Philistines pressed hard after Shaul and his sons, and they killed his sons Yahnathan, Abinadab, and Malchishua.

3 The battle became fierce around Shaul.

The archers hit him, and he was wounded.

4 Then Shaul ordered his armorbearer: Draw your sword, and thrust me through with it, or these uncircumcised men will come and abuse me. But his armorbearer would not do it, because he was terrified. So Shaul took a sword, and fell on it.

5 When his armorbearer saw that Shaul was dead, then he also fell on his sword, and died.

6 Shaul, his three sons, and all his house died together.

7 When all the people of Israyl, who were in the valley, saw that the army had fled, and that Shaul and his sons had died, they abandoned their cities and fled. Then the Philistines came and settled in them.

8 The next day, when the Philistines came to strip the dead, they found Shaul and his sons fallen on Mount Gilboa.

9 They stripped him, and took his head and his armor, and sent messengers throughout the land of the Philistines to announce the news among their gods and their people.

10 They put his armor in the temple of their gods, and fastened his head in the temple of Dagon; their Fish God.

11 But when all Yabesh Gilead heard all that the Philistines had done to Shaul.

12 All the courageous men went and took the bodies of Shaul and his sons, and brought them to Yabesh. Then they buried their bones under the great tree in Yabesh, and they fasted seven days.

13 Shaul died for the transgressions he committed against Yahweh: because he did not keep the word of Yahweh, and also because he consulted a medium for guidance—

14 And did not inquire of Yahweh. Because of these things, He killed him, and turned the kingdom over to David, the son of Yishai.

CHAP. 11

Then all Israyl came together to David at Hebron, and said: We are your bone and your flesh.

2 In times past, when Shaul was king, you were the one who led Israyl out and brought them in. Yahweh your Father said to you: You will shepherd My people Israyl, and you will become ruler over My people Israyl.

3 So all the elders of Israyl came to the king at Hebron, and David made a pact with them at Hebron in front of Yahweh. Then they anointed David king over Israyl, according to the word of Yahweh by Samuyl.

4 Then David and all Israyl went to Yerusalem, which is Yebus, where the Yebusites, the inhabitants of that land, lived.

5 They said to David: You shall not come in here. Nevertheless, David captured the stronghold of Zion (that is, the City of David).

6 David had said; Whoever attacks the Jebusites first shall be supreme commander. So Yahab, the son of Zeruyah, went up first and became the commander of David's army.

7 David lived in the stronghold, so they called it the City of David.

8 He built the city around it, from the Millo to the surrounding wall, while Yahab restored the rest of the city.

9 David grew more and more powerful, because Yahweh Almighty was with him.

10 Now these were the chiefs of David's valiant men, whom David had. They, together with all Israyl, gave him strong support to extend his kingdom over the whole land, just as Yahweh had promised.

11 This is the number of the valiant men of David: Yashobam son of a Hachmonite, the chief of the captains. He raised his spear against three hundred men, and killed them in one encounter.

12 After him was Eleazar son of Dodai, the Ahohite, who was one of the three mighty men.

13 He was with David at Pasdammim. There the Philistines gathered for battle and, at a place where there was a field full of barley, the men of Israyl fled from the Philistines.

14 But they positioned themselves in the middle of the field, defended it, and killed the Philistines. Yahweh saved them by a great deliverance.

15 Three of the thirty chief men came down to the rock at the cave of Adullam, while the army of the Philistines encamped in the Valley of Rephaim.

16 David was in the stronghold, and the garrison of the Philistines was stationed in Bethlehem.

17 David said with longing: Oh, that someone would give me a drink of water from the well by the gate at Bethlehem!

18 So the three broke through the Philistine lines, drew water from the well by the gate at Bethlehem, then brought it to David. Nevertheless, David would not drink it. He poured it out to Yahweh.

19 And said: Far be it from me, O Yahweh, that I should do this! Shall I drink the blood of these men who have gone at the risk of their lives? At the risk of their lives they brought it! Therefore, he would not drink it. These things were done by the three mighty men.

20 Now Abishai, the brother of Yahab was chief of another Three. He had lifted up his spear against three hundred men and killed them, and so won a name among these Three.

21 Of these Three, he was more esteemed than the other two men. Therefore, he became their captain. However, he was not counted among the first Three.

22 Benayah was the son of Yahyada, the son of a courageous man from Kabzeel, who had performed many exploits. He had killed two of Moab's best men. He also had gone down into a pit on a snowy day and killed a lion.

23 He killed an Egyptian, a man who was five cubits; about 7 1/2 feet, tall. The Egyptian carried a spear that looked like a weaver's beam. He went down to him with a staff, wrested the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and killed him with his own spear.

24 Such were the exploits of Benayah son of Yahyada. He was as famous as the three valiant men.

25 He was held in greater esteem than any of the Thirty, but he was not included among the Three. David appointed this man, Benayah, to be in charge of his bodyguard.

26 The valiant warriors were Asahel, the brother of Yahab, Elhanan son of Dodo from Bethlehem.

27 Shammoth the Harorite, Helez the Pelonite.

28 Ira son of Ikkesh from Tekoa, Abiezer from Anathoth.

29 Sibbechai the Hushathite, Ilai the Ahohite.

30 Maharai the Netophathite, Heled son of Baanah, the Netophathite.

31 Ithai son of Ribai, from Gibeah of Benjamin, Benayah the Pirathonite.

32 Hurai from the Brooks of Gaash, Abiel the Arbathite.

33 Azmaveth the Baharumite, Eliahba the Shaalbonite.

34 The sons of Hashem the Gizonite, Yahnathan son of Shageh, the Hararite.

35 Ahiham son of Sacar, the Hararite, Eliphaz son of Ur.

36 Hopher the Mecherathite, Ahiyah the Pelonite.

37 Hezro the Carmelite, Naarai son of Ezbai.

38 Yahyl, the brother of Nathan, Mibhar son of Hagri.

39 Zelek the Ammonite, Naharai the Beerothite, the armorbearer of Yahab son of Zeruyah.

40 Ira the Ithrite, Gareb the Ithrite.

41 Uriyah the Hittite, Zabad son of Ahlai.

42 Adina son of Shiza, the Reubenite (a chief of the Reubenites) and thirty with him.

43 Hana son of Maachah, Yahshaphat the Mithnite.

44 Uzzyah the Ashterathite, Shama and Yeiel, the sons of Hotham the Aroerite.

45 Yediael son of Shimri, and Yahcha his brother, the Tizites.

46 Eliel the Mahavite, Yeribai and Yoshayah the sons of Elnaam, Ithmah the Moabite, 47 Eliel, Obed, and Yasiel the Mesobaite.

CHAP. 12

These were the men who came to David at Ziklag while he was still a fugitive from Shaul, the son of Kish. They were among the warriors who helped him in battle.

2 They were armed with bows, and were able to shoot arrows or sling stones with either their right or their left hands—they were Shaul's kinsmen, from the tribe of Benjamin:

3 The first was Abiezer, then Yahash, the sons of Shemaah the Gibeathite, Yeziel and Pelet, the sons of Azmaveth, Berachah, and Yahu the Anathothite.

4 Ishmayah the Gibeonite, a valiant man among the Thirty, and who was a leader of the Thirty, Yeremyah, Yachaziel, Yahchanan, and Yahzabad the Gederathite.

5 Eluzai, Yerimoth, Melekyah, Shemaryah, and Shephatyah the Haruphite,

6 Elkanah, Yishiyah, Azareel, Yahezer, and Yashobeam—the Korahites,

7 And Yoelah and Zebadyah, the sons of Yeroham of Gedor.

8 Some Gadites came over to David at the stronghold in the wilderness. They were courageous men of valor, trained for battle, who could handle shield and spear. Their faces were the faces of lions, and they were as swift as the gazelles in the hills.

9 Ezer was the first, Obadyah the second, Eliab the third,

10 Mishmannah the fourth, Yeremyah the fifth,

11 Attai the sixth, Eliel the seventh,

12 Yahchanan the eighth, Elzabad the ninth,

13 Yeremyah the tenth, and Machbanai the eleventh.

14 These men, the men from the tribe of Gad, were captains of the army. The least of them was equal to a hundred, and the greatest to a thousand.

15 These are the ones who crossed the Yarden in the First Moon, when it overflows all its banks, and put to flight, to the east and to the west, all those who lived in the valleys.

16 Then others of the children of Benjamin and Yahdah came to David at the stronghold.

17 David went out in front of them, and said to them: If you come in peace to help me, my heart will be one with yours. But, if you come to betray me to my enemies, when there is no blood on my hands, then may Yahweh, the Father of our fathers, see this, and may He judge!

18 Then the Spirit came upon Amasai, chief of the Thirty, and he said: We are yours, O

David! We are with you, O son of Yishai! Shalom! Shalom to you! Shalom to those who help you, for your Father helps you! So David received them, and made them captains of his bands.

19 Some men of the tribe of Menasheh defected to David when he was going with the Philistines to fight against Shaul. (They did not assist them in this battle, for the rulers of the Philistines counseled among themselves, then sent him away, saying: He may defect to his ruler Shaul, and take our heads with him.)

20 When David went to Ziklag, these were the men of Menasheh who came over to him: Adnah, Yahzabad, Yediael, Michael, Yahzabad, Elihu, and Zillethai, captains of thousands from the tribe of Menasheh.

21 They helped David against raiding bands, for they were all courageous warriors, and captains in his army.

22 Day after day men came to join David, until he had a great army, like the army of Yahweh.

23 These were the numbers of the men armed for battle, who joined David at Hebron, to turn the kingdom of Shaul over to him, according to the word of Yahweh:

24 From the sons of Yahdah bearing shield and spear, 6,800 men armed for battle.

25 From the sons of Simeon, courageous warriors ready for battle, 7,100 men.

26 From the sons of Levi, 4,600 men;

27 Which included Yahyada, the leader of the house of Aaron, with 3,700 men;

28 And Zadok, a courageous young warrior, with 22 captains from his priestly family.

29 From the sons of Benjamin, kinsmen of Shaul, 3,000 men. (Up until that time most of them had remained loyal to the house of Shaul.)

30 From the sons of Ephraim of the tribe of Yahseph, 20,800 courageous warriors, famous throughout their father's clan.

31 From the sons of the half-tribe of Menasheh of the tribe of Yahseph, 18,000 men, designated by name, to come and make David king.

32 From the sons of Issachar, who had understanding of troublous times, and knew what Israyl should do—200 chiefs, with all their brothers under their command.

33 From the sons of Zebulun, 50,000 warriors, experienced with every type of weapon, to help David with one accord.

34 From the sons of Naphtali, 1,000 captains with 37,000 men bearing shield and spear.

35 From the sons of Dan, 28,600 men ready for battle.

36 From the sons of Asher, experienced warriors ready for battle, 40,000 men.

37 From the sons of Reuben, Gad, and the half-tribe of Menasheh of the tribe of Yahseph from the land on the east side of the Yordan, 120,000 men ready for battle, armed with every kind of weapon.

38 All these fighting men served in the ranks with all their heart: resolve. They came to Hebron to make David king over all Israyl. All the rest of Israyl also had one mind to make David king.

39 The men spent three days there with David, eating and drinking, for their families had provided for them.

40 Also, their brothers from as far away as Issachar, Zebulun, and Naphtali, came bringing food on donkeys, camels, mules, and oxen. There were provisions of flour, cakes of figs, cakes of raisins, wine, oil, oxen, and sheep in abundance, and there was joy in Israyl.

CHAP. 13

David counseled with all of his officials, his captains of thousands, and his captains of hundreds.

2 Then David said to all the congregation of Israyl: If it seems right to you, and if it is the will of Yahweh our Father, let us send messages to our brothers everywhere throughout the land of Israyl, and also to the priests and Levites who live in their cities and common-lands, so they may gather together with us.

3 Let us bring the ark of our Father back to us, for we have not inquired at it since the reign of Shaul.

4 All the congregation agreed to do this, for the thing was right in the eyes of all the people.

5 So David gathered all Israyl together, from Shihor of Egypt to as far as the entrance of Hamath, in order to bring the ark of Yahweh from Kiryath Yearim.

6 David and all Israyl went up to Baalah of Yahdah: Baale of Yahdah, (Kiryath Yearim), to bring out of there the ark of Yahweh, the Father Who dwells between the cherubim—the ark which is called with His Name.

7 They carried the ark of Yahweh on a new cart out of the house of Abinadab, and Uzza and Ahio drove the cart.

8 David and all the children of Israyl were celebrating and rejoicing in front of Yahweh with all their might, with songs, and with music from harps, zithers, cymbals, and trumpets: chatsotserot.

9 When they came to the threshing floor of Chidon (Nachon), Uzza reached out to hold the ark steady, because the oxen stumbled.

10 But the anger of Yahweh burned against Uzza, ● and He struck him because he put his hand on the ark, and he died there in front of

● Only the Aaronic Priests were to even touch the ark, and then only the Levites from the clan of Kohath were to carry it. Death was the penalty for transgressing this Law: Numbers 4:15-19-20.

Yahweh.

11 But David became angry because of Yahweh's outbreak against Uzza. That place is called Peretz Uzza; Outbreak against Uzza, to this day.

12 David was afraid of Yahweh that day, saying: How can I bring the ark of Yahweh to me?

13 So David would not move the ark with him into the City of David. He carried it aside into the house of Obed-Edom, the Gittite.

14 The ark of Yahweh remained with the Levitical family of Obed-Edom in his house for three moons. And Yahweh blessed the house of Obed-Edom, and all that he had.

CHAP. 14

Hiram, the king of Tyre, dispatched messengers to David, along with cedar logs, stonemasons, and carpenters, to build him a house.

2 David understood that Yahweh had established him as king over Israyl, and his kingdom was highly exalted for the sake of His people Israyl.

3 Then David took more wives in Yerusalem, and David begot more sons and daughters.

4 These are the names of his sons born in Yerusalem: Shammua, Shobab, Nathan, Solomon.

5 Ibharr, Ylishua (Ylishama), Ylpelet (Yliphélet).

6 Nogah, Nepheg, Yaphia,

7 Ylishama, Ylyada, and Yliphélet.

8 When the Philistines heard that David had been anointed king over all Israyl, all the forces of the Philistines set out to search for David. David was informed of this, and set out against them.

9 The Philistines went and made a raid on the Valley of Rephaim.

10 So David inquired of Yahweh, asking: Shall I go up against the Philistines? Will You deliver them into my hands? Yahweh answered, and said to him: Go up, for I will deliver them into your hands.

11 So they went up to Baal Peretzim. David defeated them there, and said: Just like a breakthrough of water, Yahweh has broken through my enemies in front of me. Because of this, he called the name of that place Baal Peretzim: The Lord is Broken.

12 When they abandoned their gods there, David gave the order, and they were burned with fire.

13 Once again the Philistines made a raid on the valley.

14 So again David inquired of Yahweh, and Yahweh said to him: You must not go straight in; circle around them, and attack them in front of the balsam trees.

15 When you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the balsam trees, advance into battle, for Yahweh has marched out in front of you to strike the camp of the Philistines.

16 So David did as Yahweh commanded him, and he drove back the Philistines from Geba as far as Gezer.

17 Then the fame and renown of David went out into all lands, and Yahweh made all nations fear him.

CHAP. 15

David built houses for himself in the City of David, then he prepared a place for the ark of Yahweh, pitching a tent for it.

2 Then David ordered: No one but the Levites may carry the ark of Yahweh, for Yahweh has chosen them to carry the ark of Yahweh, and to minister in front of Him forever.

3 So David gathered all Israyl together at Yerusalem to bring up the ark of Yahweh to the place he had prepared for it.

4 David summoned the sons of Aaron, the Levites, and all the other Levites:

5 From the sons of Kohath, Uriel the head, and 120 of his brothers.

6 From the sons of Merari, Asayah the head, and 220 of his brothers.

7 From the sons of Gershon, Yahyl the head, and 130 of his brothers.

8 From the sons of Elizaphan, Shemayah the head, and 200 of his brothers.

9 From the sons of Hebron, Eliel the head, and 80 of his brothers.

10 From the sons of Uzziel, Amminadab the head, and 112 of his brothers.

11 Then David summoned Zadok and Abiathar the Aaronic priests, and for the Levites, the heads in their clans: Uriel, Asayah, Yahyl, Shemayah, Eliel, and Amminadab.

12 He said to them: You are the Levitical heads of your fathers' houses. Sanctify and consecrate yourselves, you and all your brothers, so you may bring up the ark of Yahweh, the Father of Israyl, to the place I have prepared for it.

13 Because you, the • Levites, did not bring it up the first time, Yahweh our Father broke out against us, because we did not inquire of Him about the proper way to carry it.

14 So the priests and the Levites sanctified and consecrated themselves in order to bring up the ark of Yahweh, the Father of Israyl.

15 The sons of the Levites, of the clan of Kohath, carried the ark of Yahweh with the carrying poles on their shoulders, just as Mosheh had instructed according to the word of Yahweh.

16 Then David spoke with the heads of the Levites, requesting them to appoint their brothers as singers—accompanied by stringed musical instruments: harps and zithers, and with cymbals—to lift up their voices in joyful acclaim.

17 So the Levites appointed Heman son of Yahyl; Asaph son of Berechyah; and from Merari: Ethan son of Kushayah, along with their sons and brothers.

18 And with them their brothers who were second in rank: Zecharyah, Ben, Yaaziel, Shemiramoth, Yehiel, Unni, Eliab, Benayah, Maaseyah, Mattithyah, Elipheleh, Mikneyah, Obed-Edom, and Yeiel the gatekeepers.

19 The chiefs of the Levitical singers were Heman, Asaph, and Ethan, and they were to sound the cymbals of bronze.

20 Zecharyah, Aziel, Shemiramoth, Yehiel, Unni, Eliab, Maaseyah, and Benayah, had harps to play according to Alamoth.

21 Mattithyah, Elipheleh, Mikneyah, Obed-Edom, Yeiel, and Azazyah, had zithers to lead according to Sheminit.

22 Chenanyah, the Levite head of music, was responsible as music director, because he was skillful in music.

23 Berechyah and Elkanah were to be doorkeepers for the ark.

24 Shebanyah, Yahshaphat, Nethaneel, Amasai, Zecharyah, Benayah, and Eliezer, the priests, were to blow the trumpets: charsotserot, before the ark of Yahweh. Obed-Edom and Yechiyah were also doorkeepers for the ark.

25 So David, the elders of Israyl, and the captains of thousands went to bring up the ark of the covenant of Yahweh from the house of Obed-Edom the Levite, with joy.

26 Yahweh had helped the Levites who carried the ark of the covenant of Yahweh, so they offered seven bulls and seven rams.

27 David was clothed with a robe of fine linen, just as all the Levites who carried the ark, the singers, and Chenanyah the music director of the singers. David also wore a linen ephod.

28 In this way, all Israyl brought up the ark of the covenant of Yahweh, and the shouts of joy accompanied the sounds of the rams' horns: shofarot, the trumpets; charsotserot, the cymbals, and the music of the harps and zithers.

29 As the ark of the covenant of Yahweh was entering the City of David, Michal daughter of Shaul was looking through a window. She saw King David dancing and playing music, and despised him in her heart.

CHAP. 16

They brought the ark of Yahweh and set it within the tabernacle that David had erected for it. Then they sacrificed burnt offerings and peace offerings in front of Yahweh.

2 When David finished sacrificing the burnt offerings and the peace offerings, he blessed the people with the Name of Yahweh.

3 Then he distributed to everyone of Israyl—both men and women—a loaf of bread, a cake of dates, and a cake of raisins.

4 He appointed some of the Levites to minister in front of the ark of Yahweh, to bring to remembrance, to thank, and to praise Yahweh, the Father of Israyl. These were appointed:

5 Asaph was in charge, then under him were: Zecharyah, Yeiel, Shemiramoth, Yehiel, Matithyah, Eliab, Benayah, and Obed-Edom—who played the harps and zithers, while Asaph sounded the cymbal.

6 The priests: Benayah and Yachaziel, regularly blew the trumpets; chatsotserot, in front of the ark of the covenant of Yahweh.

7 On that day, at the beginning of the singing of thanks to Yahweh, David committed to Asaph and his brothers this psalm of thanksgiving:

8 Give thanks to Yahweh, call with His Name! Make His works known to the peoples.

9 Sing to Him, sing praise to Him! Speak of all His wondrous works!

10 Glory in His Holy Name! Let the hearts of those who seek Yahweh rejoice!

11 Seek Yahweh and His strength, seek His face always!

12 Remember His marvelous works, which He has done—His signs, and the judgments, which He has given—

13 O seed of Israyl His servant, O children of Yaaqob: His chosen ones!

14 He is Yahweh our Father! In all the earth are His judgments.

15 He remembers His covenant forever; the word He commanded for a thousand generations—

16 Which He made with Abraham, and His oath He vowed to Isaac:

17 He confirmed it to Yaaqob as a statute, to Israyl as an everlasting covenant.

18 Saying: To you I am giving the land of Canaan as the allotment of your inheritance.

19 When you were but few in number, few indeed, and strangers in it.

20 When they wandered from one nation to another, and from one kingdom to another people.

21 He permitted no man to oppress them. Yes, He rebuked kings for their sakes.

22 Saying: Do not touch My anointed ones! Do My prophets no harm!

23 Sing to Yahweh, all the earth! Proclaim His salvation day to day!

24 Broadcast His glory among the nations! His works among all peoples!

25 For Yahweh is great, and greatly to be praised! He is to be revered above all gods!

26 All the gods of the peoples are things fit for nothing! Vanity! But Yahweh made the heavens.

27 Ornammentation (Holy Garments) is before Him; praise and rejoicing in His dwelling.

28 Give to Yahweh, O families of the people, give to Yahweh glory and strength!

29 Give to Yahweh the glory belonging to His Name! Bring an offering, and come in front of Him! Worship Yahweh in His garments of holiness!

30 Tremble in front of Him, all the earth! The world is firmly established, not to be moved.

31 Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad! Let them say among the nations: Yahweh is King!

32 Let the sea roar, with all that is in it! Let the fields rejoice, and everything in them!

33 Then the trees of the forests shall rejoice in front of Yahweh, for He is coming to judge the earth!

34 Give thanks to Yahweh, for He is kind! His love endures forever!

35 Cry out: Save us, O Yahweh our Savior! Gather us together, and deliver us from the Gentiles, so we may give thanks to Your Holy Name, so we may glory in Your praise!

36 Blessed be Yahweh, the Father of Israyl, from everlasting to everlasting! Then all the people said: So be it! and HalleluYahweh!

37 So he left Asaph and his brothers there in front of the ark of the covenant of Yahweh, to minister before the ark there continually, according to the daily requirements.

38 He also left Obed-Edom and his sixty-eight brothers to minister with them, Obed-Edom son of Yeduthun, and also Hosah, were gatekeepers.

39 But Zadok the priest, and his brothers, the priests, were commissioned to remain before the tabernacle of Yahweh at the high place at Gibeon.

40 To offer burnt offerings to Yahweh on the altar of burnt offering regularly, morning and evening, and to do according to all that is written in the Law of Yahweh, which He commanded Israyl.

41 With them were Heman, Yeduthun, and the rest of those chosen and designated by name to give thanks to Yahweh, for His love endures forever.

42 Heman and Yeduthun were responsible for the sounding of the trumpets; chatsotserot; and cymbals, and for the playing of the other instruments for the songs of Yahweh. The sons of Yeduthun were gatekeepers.

43 Then all the people left, each to his own house. And David returned to bless his house.

Zadok and Abiathar were the two chief priests whom David consulted (I Chronicles 15:11). Abiathar first served in Jerusalem, but because of political implications, Abiathar was thrust from his office, (I Kings 2:27) then Zadok filled the position as High Priest (I Kings 2:35).

CHAP. 17

After David was living in his residence, David said to Nathan the prophet; Here am I, living in a house of cedar, but the ark of Yahweh remains inside tent curtains.

2 Then Nathan said to David; Go and do whatever you have in mind, because Yahweh is with you.

3 But that night the word of Yahweh came to Nathan, saying;

4 Go and tell My servant David; This is what Yahweh says: You shall not build Me a House to live in.

5 I have not lived in a house since the time that I brought Israyl up, to this very day. I have gone from tent to tent in a tabernacle.

6 Wherever I moved about with all Israyl, did I ever speak a word to any of the judges of Israyl, whom I commanded to shepherd My people, saying to them; Why have you not built Me a house of cedar?

7 Now this is what you shall say to My servant David; This is what Yahweh Almighty says: I took you from the pasture, from following your flock, to be ruler over My people Israyl.

8 I have been with you wherever you have gone, and have cut off all your enemies from in front of you, and have made you a name like the greatest men in the earth.

9 I will provide a place for My people Israyl, and I will plant them so they can have a home of their own, and be disturbed no longer. The sons of wickedness will not oppress them anymore, as they did at the beginning.

10 From the time that I commanded righteous judges to be over My people Israyl; and I will also subdue all your enemies. Furthermore, I tell you that Yahweh will build you a house.

11 When your life is over, when you must go the way of your fathers, I will establish your seed after you, from one of your own sons; and I will establish his kingdom.

12 He will build Me a House, and I will establish his throne forever.

13 I will be his Father, and he shall be My son. I will not take My love away from him, as I took it from him who was before you.

14 I will set him over My House and My kingdom forever; and his throne shall be established forever.

15 All these words, and all this vision Nathan reported to David.

16 Then King David went in and sat in front of Yahweh, and he said; Who am I, O Yahweh Father? What is my house; family, that You have brought me this far?

17 And yet, though this were not enough in Your sight, O Yahweh, You have also spoken about the future of the house of Your servant, and have esteemed me as having the rank of the highly exalted man, O Yahweh, my Father.

18 What more can David say to You for honoring Your servant?

19 O Yahweh, for the sake of Your servant, and according to Your will, You have done these great things, and have made known all of these great promises.

20 O Yahweh, there is no One like You, and there is no god who is like You, as we have heard with our own ears.

21 And who is like Your people Israyl, the one nation on the earth whose Father went out to redeem as a people for Himself? You made a Name for Yourself, by performing great and awesome wonders, when You drove out nations from in front of Your people, whom You redeemed from Egypt.

22 You made Your people Israyl Your very own forever, and You, O Yahweh, have become their Father.

23 Now, O Yahweh, may the word You have promised concerning Your servant and his house be established forever, and may You do as You have promised.

24 May it be established, so Your Name may be magnified forever! Then men will say; Yahweh Almighty, the Father over Israyl, is Israyl's Father! May the house of Your servant David be established in front of You.

25 For You, O my Father, have revealed to Your servant that You will build a house for him. Because of all this, Your servant found it in his mind to pray this prayer to You.

26 Now, Yahweh, You are my Father, and You have given this righteous promise to Your servant.

27 May You be pleased to bless the house of Your servant, so it may continue in front of You forever. You, O Father Yahweh, have spoken a blessing, and may the house of Your servant be blessed forever.

CHAP. 18

It was after this that David attacked the Philistines, subdued them, and captured Gath and its surrounding settlements from the hands of the Philistines.

2 Then he conquered Moab. The Moabites became David's subjects, and brought tribute to him.

3 David also defeated Hadadezer king of Zobah, which lies in the direction of Hamath, when he went to establish his rulership along the Euphrates River.

4 David captured 1,000 of his chariots, 7,000 charioteers, and 20,000 foot soldiers. David also hamstringed all the chariot horses, except for sparing enough for 100 chariots.

5 When the Arameans of Damascus came to the aid of Hadadezer king of Zobah, David killed 22,000 of the Arameans.

6 Then David placed garrisons in Aramean Damascus. The Arameans became David's subjects, and brought tribute to him. Yahweh gave victory to David wherever he went.

7 David took the gold shields carried by the officials of Hadadezer, and brought them to Jerusalem.

8 From Tibhath and from Chun, cities that belonged to Hadadezer, David took a great amount of bronze, which Solomon used to make the bronze Sea, the pillars, and the articles of bronze.

9 When Tou, the king of Hamath, was informed that David had defeated the entire army of Hadadezer king of Zobah.

10 He dispatched his son Hadoram to King David to greet him and to congratulate him on his successful battle against Hadadezer, who had been at war with Tou. Hadoram brought all kinds of articles of gold, silver, and bronze.

11 King David dedicated these to Yahweh, along with the silver and gold he had taken from all the nations—from Edom, and Moab, and from the people of Ammon, the Philistines, and Amalek.

12 Abishai son of Zeruyah struck down 18,000 Edomites in the Valley of Salt.

13 He placed garrisons in Edom, and all the Edomites became David's subjects. And Yahweh gave David victory wherever he went.

14 David reigned over all Israyl, doing justice and righteousness for all his people.

15 Yahab son of Zeruyah was commander of the army; Yahshaphat son of Ahilud was recorder;

16 Zadok son of Ahitub and Abimelech (Ahimelech) son of Abiathar were the priests; Shavsha (Seruyah) was the scribe;

17 Benayah son of Yahyada was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and David's sons were high officials at the kings' side.

CHAP. 19

After this, Nahash king of the people of Ammon had died, and his son had succeeded him as king.

2 Because of this, David said: I will show kindness; chesed, to Hanun son of Nahash, because his father showed kindness; chesed, to me. David sent messengers to comfort him on the loss of his father. The officials of David went to Hanun in the land of the people of Ammon in order to comfort him.

3 But the princes of the people of Ammon said to Hanun: Do you think David is honoring your father because he sends comforters to you? Has not David sent them to you to explore the land, to search it out, and to overthrow it?

4 So Hanun seized David's officials, shaved them, cut off their garments in the middle at the buttocks, and sent them on their way.

5 David was informed about the men, so he sent messengers to them, because the men were greatly ashamed and humiliated. The king said: Wait at Yericho until your beards have grown, then return.

6 When the people of Ammon realized they had made themselves repulsive to David, Hanun and the people of Ammon sent a thousand talents of silver; about 37 tons, to hire chariots and charioteers from Aram Naharaim; North-west Mesopotamia, Aram Maacah, and Zobah.

7 They hired for themselves 32,000 chariots, together with the king of Maacah and his people. They came and camped near Medeba, while the people of Ammon were being assembled from their cities to go to battle.

8 When David was informed, he dispatched Yahab and his whole army of warriors.

9 The Ammonites came out and drew up battle lines at the entrance to their city gate, while the kings they hired were positioned in the open fields.

10 When Yahab realized there were battle lines in front of him and behind him, he chose some of the best men of Israyl and sent them to fight against the Arameans.

11 The remainder of the men he placed under the command of Abishai his brother, who positioned themselves against the people of Ammon.

12 He commanded: If the Arameans are too powerful for me, then you come to my aid, but if the people of Ammon are too powerful for you, then I will come to your aid.

13 Be very courageous, and let us be strong for our people and for the cities of our Father! May Yahweh do what is right in His eyes!

14 So Yahab and the men with him advanced for the battle against the Arameans, and they fled from in front of him.

15 When the people of Ammon realized the Arameans were running away, they also fled from Abishai his brother, and ran into the city. So Yahab returned to Jerusalem.

16 When the Arameans realized they had been defeated by Israyl, they dispatched messengers in order to bring in the Arameans from beyond the Euphrates River. Shophach, the commander of the army of Hadadezer, led them.

17 When David was informed of this, he gathered all Israyl, crossed the Yordan, advanced toward them and prepared for battle against them. David formed his lines to meet the Arameans, and they fought the battle.

18 The Arameans fled from in front of Israyl. David killed 7,000 charioteers and 40,000 foot soldiers. He also killed Shophach, the commander of their army.

19 When the officials of Hadadezer realized they were defeated by Israyl, they made peace with David and became his subjects. The Arameans were no longer willing to help the people of Ammon.

CHAP. 20

At the return of the year: in the springtime, at the time kings go off to war, Yahab led out the armed forces, devastated the land of the Ammonites, then came and besieged Rabbah, while David remained in Yerusalem. Yahab defeated Rabbah and overthrew it.

2 Then David took the crown of their king—Milcom, Molech, from its head, and discovered its weight to be a talent; about 75 pounds, of gold, and it was set with precious stones—and it was set on David's head. He also brought away from the city a very great amount of plunder.

3 He brought out the people who were in it, and consigned them to work with saws, iron picks, and with axes. David did this to all the Ammonite cities. Then David and all his men returned to Yerusalem.

4 In time, war broke out with the Philistines at Gezer. At that time Sibbechai the Hushathite killed Sippai, one of the sons of the giant. And they were humbled.

5 Again there was war with the Philistines, and Elhanan son of Yair the weaver; Yair Ore-gim, killed Lahmi the brother of Goliath the Gittite, who had a spear with a shaft like a weaver's beam.

6 Again there was war at Gath, where there was a gigantic man with twenty-four fingers and toes; six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot. He also was descended from the giant.

7 When he taunted and defied Israyl, Yah-nathan son of Shammah, David's brother, killed him.

8 These were descended from the giant in Gath, and they fell by the hands of David and by the hands of his men.

CHAP. 21

Satan stood up against Israyl, and incited David to number Israyl.

2 So David ordered Yahab and the leaders of the people: Go, number Israyl from Dan to Beersheba, and bring their count to me so I may know it.

3 But Yahab answered: May Yahweh make His people a hundred times more than they are. But, my ruler the king, they are all your servants. Why, then, does my ruler want to do this thing? Why should he bring guilt upon Israyl?

4 Nevertheless, the king's word overruled the word of Yahab. So Yahab left and went throughout all Israyl, finally returning to Yerusalem.

5 Yahab reported the total number of the people to David. All Israyl had 1,100,000 men capable of drawing the sword, including Yahdah who had 470,000 men.

6 But he did not include Levi and Benjamin in the census, because the king's command was repulsive to him.

7 Yahweh was displeased by this thing, so He punished Israyl.

8 Then David said to Yahweh: I have sinned greatly, because I have done this thing. But now, I pray, forgive the transgression of Your servant, for I have behaved very foolishly.

9 Yahweh spoke to Gad, the seer of David, saying:

10 Go and tell David, saying: This is what Yahweh says: I offer you three alternatives. Choose one of them for yourself, so I may do it to you.

11 So Gad came to David, and said to him: This is what Yahweh says: Choose for yourself,

12 Either three years of famine, three moons to be defeated by your enemies, with their swords overtaking you, or else for three days with the sword of Yahweh: the plague in the land, with the malak of Yahweh destroying throughout all the territory of Israyl. Decide now what answer I should take back to Him Who sent me.

13 David said to Gad: I am in great distress. Let me fall into the hands of Yahweh, for His mercies are very great, but do not let me fall into the hands of men.

14 So Yahweh sent a plague upon Israyl, and 70,000 men of Israyl died.

15 Yahweh sent a malak to Yerusalem to destroy it, but as He was destroying, Yahweh looked upon it and relented of the severity of His punishment, and had mercy. He said to the malak who was destroying: It is enough! Withdraw your hand! And the malak of Yahweh was at the threshing floor of ●Ornan the Yebusite.

16 David raised his eyes and saw the malak of Yahweh standing between earth and heaven, having a sword in his hand stretched out over Yerusalem. Then David and the elders, clothed in sackcloth, fell downward on their faces.

17 David said to Yahweh: Was it not I who ordered the army to be numbered? I am the one who has sinned, and committed this wrong. But these sheep, what have they done? Let Your hand, I pray, O Yahweh my Father, be against me and my father's house, but do not let this plague remain on Your people.

18 Then the malak of Yahweh commanded Gad to say to David, that David should go and build an altar to Yahweh on the threshing floor of Ornan the Yebusite.

19 So David went up in accordance with the word of Gad, for he had spoken in the Name of Yahweh.

20 Now ● Ornan turned and saw the malak. His four sons with him hid themselves, but Ornan continued threshing wheat.

21 Then David approached, and when Ornan looked and realized it was David, he went out from the threshing floor, and bowed to David with his face to the earth.

22 David said to Ornan: Let me have the site of your threshing floor, so I may build an altar on it to Yahweh. Give it to me at the full price, so the plague on the people will be stopped.

23 Ornan said to David; Take it, and may my ruler, the king, do what seems right in his eyes. Behold, I will give the oxen for burnt offerings, the threshing sledges for wood, and the wheat for the grain offering. I will give everything.

24 But King David said to Ornan; No, but I will buy it for the full price. I will not accept what is yours for Yahweh, nor offer burnt offerings which costs me nothing.

25 So David paid Ornan six hundred shekels; about 15 pounds, of gold by weight for the site.

26 David built an altar there to Yahweh, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. He called upon Yahweh, and Yahweh answered him with fire from heaven upon the altar of burnt offering.

27 Then Yahweh gave command to the malak, and he returned the sword to its sheath.

28 At that time, when David saw that Yahweh answered him on the threshing floor of Ornan the Yebusite, he offered sacrifice there.

29 Now the tabernacle which Mosheh had made in the wilderness, together with the altar of burnt offering, were at the high place at Gibeon at that time;

30 But David could not go before it to inquire of Yahweh, because he was terrified of the sword of the malak of Yahweh.

CHAP. 22

David said then; This the place for The House of Yahweh our Father, and this is the place for the altar of burnt offering for Israyl!

2 So David ordered all the aliens living in the land to come together, and he made them stonemasons to cut dressed stones for building The House of Yahweh.

3 He provided a large amount of iron to make nails for the doors of the gates and for the fittings, and bronze in such abundance that it was beyond weighing.

4 He also provided more cedar logs than could be counted, for the Phoenicians (Sidonians) and Tyrians brought large amounts of cedar wood to David.

5 David said; My son Solomon is young and inexperienced, and the House to be built for Yahweh must be exceedingly magnificent, famous, and splendid throughout all lands. I will now make preparation for it. So David made lavish preparations before his death.

6 Then David summoned Solomon his son, and commanded him to build a House for Yahweh, the Father of Israyl.

7 David said to Solomon; My son, it was in my mind to build a House for the Name of Yahweh my Father.

8 But the word of Yahweh came to me, saying; You have shed much blood, and have waged many wars. You shall not build a House for My Name, because you have shed much blood on the earth in My sight.

9 But behold, a son shall be born to you who will be a man of peace, and I will give him rest from all his enemies on every side. His name will be Solomon; Peaceful, for I will grant peace and rest to Israyl during his reign.

10 He will build a House for My Name, he will be My son, and I will be his Father. I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Israyl forever.

11 Now, my son, may Yahweh be with you. And may you succeed, and build The House of Yahweh your Father, just as He has said to you.

12 And may Yahweh grant you wisdom and understanding when He gives you command over Israyl, so that you may keep the Law of Yahweh your Father.

13 Then you will succeed, if you are careful to obey the statutes and the judgments which Yahweh commanded Mosheh for Israyl. Be strong and very courageous. Do not be afraid, nor be discouraged.

14 Behold, I have taken many pains, and I have prepared for The House of Yahweh 100,000 talents of gold; about 3,750 tons, 1,000,000 talents of silver; about 37,500 tons, and bronze and iron beyond weighing, for it is so much. I have also provided timber and stone, but you may add to those.

15 You have many workmen: stonemasons, stonemasons, carpenters, and all manner of craftsmen for every type of work—

16 In gold, silver, bronze, and iron—craftsmen beyond number. So begin the work, and may Yahweh be with you!

17 Then David ordered all the leaders of Israyl to help Solomon his son, and said;

18 Is not Yahweh your Father with you? Has He not given you peace on every side? He has given the inhabitants of the land into my hands, and the land is subdued in front of Yahweh, and in front of His people.

19 Therefore, set your mind and begin to seek Yahweh your Father. Rise up and build the sanctuary of Yahweh our Father, so the ark of the covenant of Yahweh, and the holy vessels of Yahweh, may be brought into the House that is to be built for the Name of Yahweh.

CHAP. 23

When David was old and full of years, he made his son Solomon king over Israyl.

2 He also gathered together all the leaders of Israyl, with the priests and the Levites.

3 The Levites thirty years old or older were counted, and the number of the males was 38,000.

4 Of this number, 24,000 were to supervise the work of The House of Yahweh, 6,000 were officials and judges;

5 There were 4,000 gatekeepers, and 4,000 praised Yahweh with the musical instruments which David made for giving praise.

6 David divided the Levites into divisions corresponding to the sons of Levi, who were: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

7 Belonging to the sons of Gershon were: Laadan and Shimei.

8 The sons of Laadan were: Yehiel, the first, then Zetham and Yahyl—three in all.

9 The sons of Shimei were: Shelomith, Haziel, and Haran—three in all. These were the heads of the father's house of Laadan.

10 The sons of Shimei were: Yachath, Zina, Yeush, and Beriah. These four were sons of Shimei.

11 Yachath was the first and Zina was the second, but Yeush and Beriah did not have many sons, so they were counted as one father's house in these divisions.

12 Belonging to the sons of Kohath were: Amram, Ishar, Hebron, and Uzziel—four in all.

13 The sons of Amram were: Aaron and Mosheh. Aaron was set apart, he and his descendants forever, to consecrate the most holy things, to offer sacrifices in front of Yahweh, to minister in front of Him, and to pronounce blessings with His Name forever.

14 The sons of Mosheh, the man of Yahweh, were counted as part of the tribe of Levi.

15 The sons of Mosheh were: Gershom and Yliezer.

16 Of the sons of Gershom, Shubuel was the first.

17 Of the sons of Yliezer, Rechabyah was the first. Now Yliezer had no other sons, but the sons of Rechabyah were very numerous.

18 Of the sons of Izhar, Shelomith was the first.

19 Of the sons of Hebron, Yeriyah was the first.

Amaryah was the second, Yachaziel was the third, and Yekameam the fourth.

20 Of the sons of Uzziel, Micahyah was the first, and Yeshiyah was the second.

21 Belonging to the sons of Merari were: Mahli and Mushi. The sons of Mahli were: Eleazar and Kish, 22 But Eleazar died, and had no sons. He had only daughters, so their cousins, the sons of Kish, married them.

23 The sons of Mushi were: Mahli, Eder, and Yeremoth—three in all.

24 These were the descendants of Levi by their fathers' houses; families—who were the heads of their fathers' houses as they were counted individually by the registry of their names, who did the work for the service of The House of Yahweh, from the age of twenty years and older,

25 For David had said; Since Yahweh, the Father of Israyl, has given rest to His people, and has taken up residence in Yerusalem, 26 The Levites shall no longer carry the tabernacle, nor any of the articles for its service.

27 So by the last words of David, the Levites were numbered from twenty years old and above.

28 Their responsibility was to help the sons of Aaron in the service of The House of Yahweh: in the courts, and in the rooms, in the purifying all holy things, and the work of the service of The House of Yahweh.

29 They were in charge of the showbread set out on the table, the flour for the grain offerings, the unleavened wafers, the baking and the mixing, and all measurements of quantity and size.

30 They were also to stand every morning to thank and praise Yahweh, and to do the same in the evening,

31 As well as to stand at every presentation of a burnt offering to Yahweh on the Sabbaths, and on the New Moons, and at the appointed set Feasts. They were to minister in front of Yahweh regularly, in the proper number, and in the manner prescribed for them.

30 So the Levites discharged their duties for the Tent of Meeting, for the Holy Place, and—under the direction of their brothers, the descendants of Aaron—for the service of The House of Yahweh.

CHAP. 24

These were the divisions of the sons of Aaron. The sons of Aaron were Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

2 But Nadab and Abihu died before their father, and had no children, so Eleazar and Ithamar ministered as priests.

3 With the help of Zadok, a son of Eleazar, and Ahimelech, a son of Ithamar, David sepaarated them into divisions for their appointed order of serving.

4 Now there were found to be more leaders in Eleazar than leaders in Ithamar, so they divided Eleazar into 16 heads of their fathers' houses, and Ithamar into 8 heads of their fathers' houses.

5 They divided impartially by lots, both alike, for there were officials of the sanctuary and officials of The House of Yahweh, from the sons of Eleazar as well as from the sons of Ithamar.

6 The scribe, Shemayah son of Nethaneel, a Levite, wrote them down in the presence of the king and of the officials, who were: Zadok the priest, Ahimelech son of Abiathar the priest, and the heads of the fathers' houses of the priests and Levites—one father's house taken from Eleazar and one from Ithamar.

7 The 1st lot fell to Yahyarib, the 2nd to Yedayah.

8 The 3rd to Harim, the 4th to Seorim,

9 The 5th to Malchiyah, the 6th to Miyamin,

10 The 7th to Hakkoz, the 8th to Abiyah,

11 The 9th to Yahshua, the 10th to Shecanyah:

12 The 11th to Eliashib, the 12th to Yakim,

13 The 13th to Huppah, the 14th to Yeshebeah.

14 The 15th to Bilgah, the 16th to Immer,

15 The 17th to Hezir, the 18th to Apses,

16 The 19th to Peithayyah, the 20th to Yehzekel.

17 The 21st to Yachin, the 22nd to Gamul,

18 The 23rd to Delayah, the 24th to Maazyah.

19 This was their appointed order of serving when they entered The House of Yahweh, according to the prescribed ordinances by the hand of Aaron their father, just as Yahweh, the Father of Israyl, commanded him.

20 The remainder of the sons of Levi were: from the sons of Amram was Shubael, then from the sons of Shubael was Yechdeyeh.

21 Descended from Rechabyah, from his sons, Isshiyah was the first.

22 From the Izharites were: Shelomoth, then from the sons of Shelomoth was Yachath.

23 The sons of Hebron were: Yeriyah the first, Amaryah the second, Yachaziel the third, and Yekameam the fourth.

24 The sons of Uzziel were: Micahyah, then from the sons of Micahyah was Shamir.

25 The brother of Micahyah was Isshiyah, then from the sons of Isshiyah was Zecharyah.

26 The sons of Merari were: Mahli and Mushi, then from the sons of Yaazyiyah was Beno.

27 The sons of Merari from Yaazyiyah were: Beno, Shoham, Zaccur, and Ibrì.

28 The son of Mahli was Eleazar, who had no sons.

29 From Kish: the son of Kish was Yerachmeel.

30 Also the sons of Mushi were: Mahli, Eder, and Yerimoth. These also were the Levites, according to their fathers' houses: families.

31 They also cast lots, just as their brothers, the descendants of Aaron did—in the presence of King David, of Zadok, of Ahimelech, and of the heads of the fathers' houses of the priests and of the Levites. The families of the oldest brothers were treated the same as those of the youngest brothers.

CHAP. 25

David, together with the captains of the army, set apart some of the sons of Asaph, Heman, and Yeduthun for the ministry of singing inspiringly, accompanied by harps, zithers, and cymbals. The list of the musicians according to this service were:

2 From the sons of Asaph were: Zaccur, Yahseph, Nethanyah, and Asarelah. The sons of Asaph, who were under the direction of Asaph, sang inspiringly under the supervision of the king.

3 Of Yeduthun were the sons of Yeduthun, who were: Gedalyah, Zeri, Yeshayah, Shimei, Hashabyah, and Mattithyah—six in all, who were under the supervision of their father Yeduthun, who sang inspiringly using the zither in connection with the giving of thanks and praise to Yahweh.

4 Of Heman were the sons of Heman, who were: Bukkyah, Mattanyah, Uzziel, Shebuel, Yerimoth, Hananyah, Hanani, Elyathah, Giddalti, Romamti-Ezer, Yoshbekashah, Mallothi, Hothir, and Machatzyoth.

5 All these were the sons of Heman, the seer to the king. His sons were given to him to exalt his horn, according to the word of Yahweh—for Yahweh gave Heman fourteen sons and three daughters.

6 All these were under the supervision of their father for the singing in The House of Yahweh, accompanied with cymbals, harps, and zithers—for the service of The House of Yahweh. Asaph, Yeduthun, and Heman were under the direction and authority of the king.

7 The number of them, along with their brothers who were instructed and skilled in the songs of Yahweh, were 288.

8 They cast lots to perform this service, from the least to the greatest, from the pupil to the teacher.

9 The 1st lot, which fell to Asaph, came out for Yahseph, his sons and brothers—twelve singers. The 2nd lot came out for Gedalyah, his sons and brothers—twelve singers.

10 The 3rd lot came out for Zaccur, his sons and brothers—twelve singers.

11 The 4th lot came out for Yizri (Zeri), his sons and brothers—twelve singers.

12 The 5th lot came out for Nethanyah, his sons and brothers—twelve singers.

13 The 6th lot came out for Bukkyah, his sons and brothers—twelve singers.

14 The 7th lot came out for Yesharelah (Asarelah), his sons and brothers—twelve singers.

15 The 8th lot came out for Yeshayah, his sons and brothers—twelve singers.

16 The 9th lot came out for Mattanyah, his sons and brothers—twelve singers.

17 The 10th lot came out for Shimei, his sons and brothers—twelve singers.

18 The 11th lot came out for Azarel (Uzziel), his sons and brothers—twelve singers.

19 The 12th lot came out for Hashabayah, his sons and brothers—twelve singers.

20 The 13th lot came out for Shubael (Shebuel), his sons and brothers—twelve singers.

21 The 14th lot came out for Mattithyah, his sons and brothers—twelve singers.

22 The 15th lot came out for Yeremoth (Yerimoth), his sons and brothers—twelve singers.

23 The 16th lot came out for Hananyah, his sons and brothers—twelve singers.

24 The 17th lot came out for Yoshbekashah, his sons and brothers—twelve singers.

25 The 18th lot came out for Hanani, his sons and brothers—twelve singers.

26 The 19th lot came out for Mallothi, his sons and brothers—twelve singers.

27 The 20th lot came out for Elyathah, his sons and brothers—twelve singers.

28 The 21st lot came out for Hothir, his sons and brothers—twelve singers.

29 The 22nd lot came out for Giddalti, his sons and brothers—twelve singers.

30 The 23rd lot came out for Machatzyoth, his sons and brothers—twelve singers.

31 The 24th lot came out for Romamti-Ezer, his sons and brothers—twelve singers.

CHAP. 26

These were the divisions of the gatekeepers from the line of Korah: Meshelemyah son of Kore, of the sons of Asaph.

2 The sons of Meshelemyah were Zecharyah his firstborn, Yediael his second, Zebadyah his third, Yathniel his fourth.

3 Elam his fifth, Yahchanan his sixth, and Al-Yahenai his seventh.

4 Obed-Edom also had sons, who were: Shemayah his firstborn, Yahzabad his second, Yahach his third, Sacar his fourth, Nethanel his fifth.

5 Ammiel his sixth, Issachar his seventh, and Peulthai his eighth, for Yahweh blessed him greatly.

6 To Shemayah son of Obed-Edom were born sons who were heads of their fathers' houses, for they were men of great ability.

7 These sons of Shemayah were: Othni, Rephael, Obed, Elzabad, Elihu, and Semachyah. Elihu and Semachyah were men of outstanding ability.

8 All these were the sons of Obed-Edom, who, with their sons and their brothers, were men of standing and capable of carrying out their responsibilities—62 gatekeepers from Obed-Edom.

9 Meshelemyah had sons and brothers—18 capable men.

10 Hosah, from the line of Merari, had sons who were: Shimri his first (he was not his firstborn, but his father made him the first).

11 Hilkiyah his second, Tebalyah his third, and Zecharyah his fourth. All the sons and brothers of Hosah were 13.

12 These divisions of the gatekeepers, allotted through their head men, had responsibilities, just as their brothers, for ministering in The House of Yahweh.

13 They cast lots for each gate, the least as well as the greatest, according to their father's house.

14 The lot for the EAST GATE fell out to Shelemyah. When they cast lots for his son Zecharyah, a wise counselor, his lot fell out for the NORTH GATE.

15 Obed-Edom was allotted the SOUTH GATE, and the lot for his sons came out for the TWO STOREHOUSES.

16 To Shupim and Hosah the lots fell out for the WEST GATE, with the SHALLECH-ETH GATE on the upper road. A guard was positioned alongside a guard—

17 For each watch—6 a day guarded the EAST, 4 a day guarded the NORTH, 4 a day guarded the SOUTH, and the STOREHOUSES were guarded 2 for each—4.

18 For the WEST, there were 2 at the court and 4 at the road each day.

19 These were the divisions of the gatekeepers among the sons of Korah and among the sons of Merari.

20 The Levites, brothers in Yahweh, were over the Treasuries of The House of Yahweh and over the Treasury for the Consecrated Gifts.

21 The sons of Laadan—who were the descendants of Gershon—were heads of their fathers' houses of Laadan the Gershonite, and were Yechielites.

22 This line of the Yechielites—Zetham and Yahyl, his brother—were responsible for the Treasuries of The House of Yahweh.

23 Over the treasury assignments pertaining to the Amramites, Isharites, Hebronites, and Uzzielites—

24 Shebuel son of Gershom, the son of Mosheh, was Overseer of the Treasuries.

25 And his brothers of the line of Yliezer were Rechabiah his son, Yeshayah his son, Yahram his son, Zichri his son, and Shelomith his son.

26 This Shelomith and his brothers had charge of the consecrated treasures which David the King, the heads of the fathers' houses, the captains of thousands, the captains of hundreds, and the commanders of the army, had dedicated;

27 The plunder acquired in war they had dedicated to the service of The House of Yahweh.

28 All that Samuyl the seer, Shaul son of Kish, Abner son of Ner, and Yahab son of Zeruyah had dedicated, as well as all the other dedicated things, was the responsibility of Shelomith and his brothers.

29 From the Izharites—Chenanyah and his sons performed duties outside of Yerusalem as officials and judges over Israyl.

30 From the Hebronites—Hashabiyah and his brothers, 1,700 capable men, were in charge of the administration of Israyl in the land west of the Yordan pertaining to all the business of Yahweh, and in the service of the king.

31 Among the Hebronites, Yeriyaah was the head according to his genealogy of the fathers. In the fortieth year of the reign of David there were sought and found Hebronite men of outstanding ability at Yazer in Gilead.

32 The brothers of Yeriyaah there numbered 2,700 capable men, heads of their fathers' houses, whom King David placed in charge of the tribes of Reuben, Gad, and the half-tribe of Menasheh, in matters pertaining to Yahweh, and in the affairs of the king.

CHAP. 27

All the sons of Israyl listed according to the heads of their fathers' houses, all the captains of thousands, the captains of hundreds, and all their officers, served the king in matters concerning the military divisions. Each division, consisting of 24,000 men, came on duty in relays moon by moon throughout the year.

2 In charge of the Division of the First Moon was Yashobeam son of Zabdiel; in his Division were 24,000 men;

3 He was from the line of Perez of Yahdah, and the commander of all the captains of the army in the First Moon.

4 In charge of the Division of the Second Moon was Dodai the Ahothite, and Mikloth also was a leader; in his Division were 24,000 men.

5 Over the Division of the Third Moon was Benayah son of Yahyada the High Priest, and in his Division were 24,000 men.

6 This Benayah was a mighty man among the Thirty, and was over the Thirty. In charge of this Division was Ammizabab his son.

7 In charge of the Division of the Fourth Moon was Asahel, the brother of Yahab, and after him Zebadyah his son became in charge; in his Division were 24,000 men.

8 In charge of the Division of the Fifth Moon was Shamhuth the Izrahite, and in his Division were 24,000 men.

9 In charge of the Division of the Sixth Moon was Ira, the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite, and in his Division were 24,000 men.

10 In charge of the Division of the Seventh Moon was Helez the Pelonite, from the tribe of Ephraim; in his Division were 24,000 men.

11 In charge of the Division of the Eighth Moon was Sibbechai the Hushathite of the Zerahites; in his Division were 24,000 men.

12 In charge of the Division of the Ninth Moon was Abiezer the Anathothite from the tribe of Benjamin; in his Division were 24,000 men.

13 In charge of the Division of the Tenth Moon was Maharai the Netophathite of the Zarhites; in his Division were 24,000 men.

14 In charge of the Division of the Eleventh Moon was Benayah the Pirathonite from the tribe of Ephraim; in his Division were 24,000 men.

15 In charge of the Division of the Twelfth Moon was Heldai the Netophathite, of the line of Othniel; in his Division were 24,000 men.

16 The Tribal Chiefs over the tribes of Israyl were: Eliezer son of Zichri over the tribe of Reuben; Shephatiah son of Maachah over the tribe of Simeon;

17 Hashabiyah son of Kemuel was over the tribe of Levi, but over the Aaronites was Zadok;

18 Elihu, one of the brothers of David, was over the tribe of Yahdah; Omri son of Michael was over the tribe of Issachar;

19 Ishmayah son of Obadyah was over the tribe of Zebulun; Yerimoth son of Azriel was over the tribe of Naphtali;

20 Hoshea son of Azazyah was over the tribe of Ephraim from the tribe of Yahseph; Yahyl son of Pedayah was over the half-tribe of Menasheh from the tribe of Yahseph;

21 Iddo son of Zecharyah was over the half-tribe of Menasheh from the tribe of Yahseph in Gilead; Yaasiel son of Abner was over the tribe of Benjamin;

22 And Azazel son of Yeroham was over the tribe of Dan. These were the Tribal Chiefs over the tribes of Israyl.

23 However, David did not count those twenty years old and under because Yahweh had promised to make Israyl as numerous as the stars in the heavens.

24 Yahab son of Zeruyah began a census, but he did not finish, ● because wrath came upon Israyl because of this census; nor was the number recorded in the account of the chronicles of King David.

25 Azmaveth son of Adiel was in charge of the treasury of the king; Yahnathan son of Uzzyah was in charge of the storehouses in the country, in the cities, in the villages, and in the fortresses;

26 Ezri son of Chelub was in charge of those who worked in the fields, tilling the soil;

27 Shimei the Ramathite was in charge of vineyard cultivation, but Zabdi the Shiphmite was in charge of the fruit it produced, for the supply of wine;

28 Baal-Hanan the Gederite was in charge of the olive and sycamore trees in the Shephe-lah; Yahash was in charge of the supply of oil.

29 Shitrai the Sharonite was in charge of the herds grazing in Sharon; Shaphat son of Adlai was in charge of the herds grazing in the valleys;

30 Obil the Ishmaylite was in charge of the camels; Yechdeyiah the Meronothite was in charge of the donkeys;

31 Yaziz the Hagerite was in charge of the flocks—all these were the officials in charge of the property of King David.

32 Yahnathan, an uncle of David who was a counselor, a wise man, and a scribe, and Yehiel son of Hachmoni, were in charge of supervising the king's sons.

33 Ahithophel was the counselor and adviser to the king; and Hushai the Archite was the friend to the king.

34 After Ahithophel, Yahyada son of Benayah was the king's counselor and adviser, then Abiathar held that position. The commanding general of the king's army was Yahab.

CHAP. 28

David summoned to Yerusalem all the leaders in the land of Israyl—the chiefs of all the tribes, the commanders of the king's army divisions, the captains over thousands, the captains over hundreds, the officials in charge of the property and livestock belonging to the king and his sons, with all the officials from his court, the mighty men, and every man of standing.

2 Then King David rose to his feet, and said; Hear me, my brothers and my people. It was in my mind to build a House of rest for the ark of the covenant of Yahweh, and for the footstool of our Father. I had made preparations to build it,

3 But Yahweh said to me: You shall not build a House for My Name, because you have waged wars, and have shed blood.

4 However, Yahweh, the Father of Israyl, chose me over all those in the house of my father to be king over Israyl forever, because He has chosen Yahdah to be the ruler. Then, from the house of Yahdah, the house of my father, it pleased Him to make me king over all Israyl from among the sons of my father.

5 From all my sons—for Yahweh has given me many sons—He has chosen my son Solomon to sit on the throne of Yahweh over the kingdom of Israyl.

6 He said to me: It is your son Solomon who will build My House and My courts, because I have chosen him as My son, and I will be his Father.

7 I will establish his kingdom forever, only if he will never turn from observing and doing My commandments and My judgments, as it is this day.

8 Now, in the sight of all Israyl, the congregation of Yahweh, and in the hearing of our Father, keep and seek out all the commandments of Yahweh your Father, so you may possess this rich land, and leave it as an inheritance for your children after you forever.

9 And you, Solomon my son, know the Father of your father, and serve Him with a perfect heart and a willing mind, for Yahweh searches all hearts, and understands all the imaginations coming from the mind. If you seek Him, He will be found by you; but if you forsake Him, He will cast you off forever.

10 Behold now, Yahweh has chosen you to build a House for the sanctuary—be determined, and do it!

11 Then David gave Solomon his son the plans for the porch of The House of Yahweh, its buildings, its storehouses, its upper chambers, its inner rooms, and the place of the mercy seat;

12 All the plans the Spirit had put in his mind for the courts of The House of Yahweh, for all the surrounding rooms, for the Treasury of The House of Yahweh and for the Treasury for the dedicated gifts;

13 All the plans for the division of the priests and the Levites, for all the work of the service of The House of Yahweh, and for all the articles used in the service of The House of Yahweh.

14 He designated the weight of all the articles made of gold used in every kind of service. He also designated the weight of all the articles made of silver used in every kind of service—

15 The weight for the gold lampstands, and the weight of each of its lamps, the weight for the silver lampstands, and the weight of each of its lamps, according to the use of each lamp—stand.

16 He designated the weight of gold for each table for the showbread, as well as the weight of silver in each of the silver tables;

17 The weight of pure gold for the forks, sprinkling bowls, and pitchers, and the weight of pure gold in each of the gold dishes, as well as the weight of silver in each of the dishes of silver;

18 The weight of the refined gold for the altar of incense and for the chariot of cherubim with outstretched wings covering the ark of the covenant of Yahweh.

19 David said: All this is written because Yahweh made me understand all the details of this plan, for His hand was upon me.

20 Then David said to Solomon; Be determined and courageous, and do this! Do not be afraid, nor become discouraged, for Yahweh the Father, my Father, will be with you. He will not leave you nor forsake you, until you have finished all the work for the service of The House of Yahweh.

21 The divisions of the priests and Levites in service at The House of Yahweh, and every willing craftsman, as well as all the leaders and all the people completely at your command—will help you in all the work.

CHAP. 29

King David then said to all the congregation; My son Solomon, whom alone Yahweh has chosen, is still young and inexperienced, and the work is tremendous, for The House of Yahweh is not for man, but for Yahweh the Father.

2 For the House of my Father, I have prepared with all my being: gold for the things made of gold, silver for the things made of silver, bronze for the things made of bronze, iron for the things made of iron, wood for the things made of wood, as well as carnelian for the settings, mosaic pebbles, all kinds of precious stones, and alabaster marble.

3 Also, because of my abiding devotion to the House of my Father, I give for the House of my Father—over and above all that I have prepared for this holy House—my own personal property of gold and silver:

4 From the gold of Ophir, 3,000 talents; about 110 tons, and refined silver to overlay the walls of the houses, 7,000 talents; about 260 tons;

5 The gold for the things of gold, and the silver for the things of silver, for all the work done by the hands of skilled craftsmen. Who, then, is willing to consecrate himself to Yahweh this day?

6 Then the heads of the fathers' houses, the chiefs of the tribes of Israyl, the captains of thousands, the captains of hundreds, with all the officials in charge of the king's work, willingly offered.

7 They gave for the work of The House of Yahweh—5,000 talents; about 190 tons, and 10,000 darics; about 185 pounds, of gold; 10,000 talents; about 375 tons, of silver; 18,000 talents; about 675 tons, of bronze; and 100,000 talents; about 3,750 tons, of iron.

8 Whoever possessed precious stones donated them to the treasury of The House of Yahweh, into the hands of Yehiel the Gershonite.

9 Then the people rejoiced because of their voluntary offerings, for they had presented their freewill offerings wholeheartedly to Yahweh, and King David rejoiced greatly, as well.

10 So David blessed Yahweh in front of all the congregation, and David said; Blessed are You, O Yahweh, Father of Israyl our father, from everlasting to everlasting!

11 Yours, O Yahweh, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the pre-eminence, and the majesty! For all that is in heaven and in earth is Yours, for Yours is the kingdom, O Yahweh, and You are exalted as Head Over All!

12 Riches and honor come from You, for You reign over all! In Your hand is power and strength, and it is in Your power to magnify and strengthen all!

13 Now, our Father, we give You thanks, and we praise Your glorious Name!

14 But who am I, and who are my people, that we are able to offer as willingly as this? All things come from you, and it is of Your own things that we have given to You.

15 For we are strangers and pilgrims in front of You, just as our fathers were. Our life on earth is like a shadow, without hope.

16 O Yahweh our Father, all this abundance that we have prepared in order to build You a House for Your Holy Name comes from Your own hands, and is all Your own.

17 I know also, my Father, that You test the hearts, and You have pleasure in uprightness. In the uprightness of my heart I have willingly offered all these things. And now, with joy I have seen Your people who are present here, offer willingly to You.

18 O Yahweh, Father of Abraham, Isaac, and Israyl, our fathers, keep this desire in the hearts of Your people forever, keep their hearts fixed upon You.

19 And give my son Solomon a perfect heart to keep Your commandments, and Your testimonies, and Your statutes, to observe and do all these things, and to build this House, for which I have made provision.

20 Then David said to all the congregation; Now, praise Yahweh, your Father! So all the congregation praised Yahweh, the Father of their fathers, then lowered their heads, and bowed down in front of Yahweh and the king.

21 The next day they offered sacrifices to Yahweh and presented burnt offerings to Him: 1,000 bulls, 1,000 rams, and 1,000 male lambs, together with their drink offerings and other offerings in great abundance for all Israyl.

22 They ate and drank in front of Yahweh with great gladness on that day, and they made Solomon son of David king for the second time, and anointed him in front of Yahweh to be the King, and for Zadok to be the High Priest.

23 Then Solomon sat on the throne of Yahweh, succeeding his father David as king. He was successful, and all Israyl obeyed him.

24 All the officials, all the mighty men, and also all the sons of King David, submitted themselves to King Solomon.

25 So Yahweh greatly exalted Solomon in the eyes of all Israyl, and bestowed upon him so much royal dignity, such as no king over Israyl before him had ever possessed.

26 David son of Yishai ruled over all Israyl.

27 The period he reigned over Israyl was forty years—seven years in Hebron and thirty-three years in Yerusalem.

28 He died in a full old age, having had a long life, riches, and honor; and Solomon his son succeeded him as king.

29 Now the events of the reign of King David, his first through his last, truly are written in the book of Samuyl the seer, in the book of Nathan the prophet, and in the book of Gad the seer.

30 Showing the events of his reign, of his power, of his life, of his kingdom, and of all the kingdoms of the lands.

II CHRONICLES

DIBRE HAYYAMIM Records of the Times

Solomon son of David was established in his kingdom, and Yahweh his Father was with him, and greatly exalted him.

2 So Solomon spoke to all Israyl, to the captains of thousands, captains of hundreds, to the judges, and to every leader in all Israyl who were the heads of their fathers' houses,

3 Then Solomon, and all the congregation with him, went to the high place at Gibeon, for the Tent of Meeting of the congregation of Yahweh was there, which Mosheh, the servant of Yahweh, had made in the wilderness.

4 (But David had brought up the ark of Yahweh from Kiryath Yearim to the place David had prepared for it, for he had pitched a tent for it at Yerusalem.)

5 Now the bronze altar that Bezaleel son of Uri, the son of Hur, had made, was put there in front of the tabernacle of Yahweh, where Solomon and the congregation sought Him.

6 Solomon went there to the bronze altar in front of Yahweh, which was at the Tent of Meeting, and sacrificed a thousand burnt offerings on it.

7 That night Yahweh appeared to Solomon, and said to him; Ask! What shall I give to you?

8 And Solomon said to Yahweh; You have shown great kindness; chesed to my father David, and have made me king in his place.

9 Now, O Yahweh my Father, let Your promise to David my father be established, for You have made me king over a people who are like the dust of the earth for number.

10 Grant me wisdom and knowledge, so that I may know how to lead this people, for who is able to judge this great people of Yours?

11 So Yahweh said to Solomon; Because this was in your heart; mind, and you have not asked for riches, wealth, honor, or for the life of your enemies, nor have you asked for long life—but have asked for wisdom and knowledge, so you may judge My people over whom I have made you king—

12 Wisdom and knowledge have been granted to you, and I will give you riches, wealth, and honor, such as no king before you ever had, and no king after you ever will have.

13 So Solomon went away from the high place at Gibeon, from before the Tent of Meeting, and came to Yerusalem and reigned over Israyl.

14 Solomon accumulated chariots and charioteers; he had 1,400 chariots and 12,000 charioteers; horsemen, whom he stationed in the chariot cities and with the king in Yerusalem.

15 The king made silver and gold as common in Yerusalem as stones, and cedar as common as sycamores in the Shepelah; foothills.

16 Solomon imported horses from Egypt and Keveh; Cilicia: Linen Yarn. The king's merchants bought them in Keveh for a price:

17 A horse sold for 150 shekels, about 3 3/4 pounds, of silver. They also acquired and imported from Egypt a chariot for 600 shekels; about 15 pounds, of silver, as well as horses. Through their hands they exported them to all the kings of the Hittites and the kings of the Arameans.

CHAP. 2

Then Solomon gave the order to build a House for the Name of Yahweh, and a royal house for himself.

2 Solomon allotted 70,000 men to carry burdens, 80,000 to quarry stone in the hills, and 3,600 to supervise their work.

3 Then Solomon sent a message to Hiram king of Tyre, and said; Just as you have done for David my father, and have sent him cedars to build himself a house to live in, so do for me.

4 Behold, I am going to build a House for the Name of Yahweh my Father, dedicating it to Him, so perfumed incense may be burned in front of Him, for the continual showbread to be set out before Him, for the morning and evening Tamid; the continual burnt sacrifices, the sacrifices on the Sabbaths, on the New Moons, and on the set, ordained Feasts of Yahweh our Father, as prescribed forever to Israyl.

5 And the House which I am going to build will be great, for our Father is greater than all the gods.

6 But who is capable of building Him a House, since heaven and the highest heaven can not contain Him? Who am I, that I should build a House for Him, except to burn incense in front of Him?

7 So send to me now a man trained to work in gold, silver, bronze, iron, purple, crimson, and violet materials, and who knows how to engrave. He will work with the craftsmen with me in Yahdah and Yerusalem, whom David my father provided.

8 Send me cedar, pine, and algum logs from Lebanon, for I know that your subjects are experienced in timber cutting; and my subjects will assist your subjects,

9 To prepare timber in abundance for me, because the House I am about to build is to be great and magnificent.

10 I will provide your subjects, those who cut timber, with: 20,000 kors of wheat flour; about 125,000 bushels, 20,000 kors of barley, 20,000 baths of wine; about 115,000 gallons, and 20,000 baths of pressed oil.

11 Then Hiram king of Tyre answered in writing, and sent the message to Solomon, which said; Because Yahweh loves His people, He has made you king over them!

12 Hiram also said; Praise be to Yahweh, the Father of Israyl, Who made heaven and earth, for He has given King David a wise son, endowed with insight and understanding, who will build a House for Yahweh, and a royal house for himself!

13 Now I have sent to you a skilled man, a leading craftsman, whose name is Huram.

14 He is the son of a woman of the daughters of Dan, but his father is a man of Tyre. He is trained to work in gold, silver, bronze, iron, stone, wood, purple, blue, fine linen, and crimson, and to make any engraving, or to accomplish any design which may be given to him, along with your craftsmen and with the craftsmen of my friend, David your father.

15 About the wheat, barley, oil, and the wine my ruler has spoken about, let him send this to his servants,

16 And we will cut timber from Lebanon, as much as you need. We will transport it by sea in rafts to your port in Yaffo, then you can carry it up to Yerusalem.

17 Then Solomon took a census of all the foreigners living in the land of Israyl, similar to the census which David his father had taken, and there were found to be 153,600.

18 He assigned 70,000 of them to carry burdens, 80,000 of them to cut stones in the hills, and assigned 3,600 supervisors to see that the people worked.

CHAP. 3

Solomon began to build The House of Yahweh at Yerusalem on Mount Moriah: Seen of Yahweh, where Yahweh appeared to David his father, at the threshing floor of Ornan (Araunah) the Yebusite.

2 He began to build on the second day of the Second Moon, in the fourth year of his reign.

3 The foundation which Solomon laid for building The House of Yahweh was sixty cubits long (according to the older measure) and twenty cubits wide; about 90 feet long and 30 feet wide.

4 The porch in front of the House was as wide across as the width of the House: twenty cubits wide; about 30 feet wide, and • twenty cubits high. He overlaid the inside with pure gold.

5 The Holy Place he paneled with pine, engraved it with palm trees and chainwork, then overlaid it with fine gold.

6 He decorated the House beautifully, with precious stones and gold from Parvaim.

7 He carved cherubim on the walls, then overlaid the beams, doorposts, walls, and doors, with gold.

8 He built the Most Holy Place twenty cubits wide and twenty cubits long; about 30 feet square. He overlaid the Most Holy Place with six hundred talents of fine gold; about 23 tons.

9 The weight of the nails was fifty shekels of gold; about 1 1/4 pounds. He also overlaid the upper area with gold.

10 In the Most Holy Place he made two cherubim, of sculptured work, and overlaid them with gold.

11 The wingspan of the cherubim were twenty cubits in length. One wing of the first cherub was five cubits; about 7 1/2 feet long, and touched the wall of this room, while its other wing, also five cubits long, touched the wing of the other cherub.

12 Similarly, one wing of the second cherub touched the other wall of this room, while the other wing, also five cubits long, touched the wing of the first cherub.

13 The wingspan of both of these cherubim had a spread of twenty cubits. They stood on their feet with their faces inward.

14 Then he constructed the Veil of blue, purple, and crimson, and fine linen, and wove cherubim into it.

15 He made two pillars • thirty-five cubits high; about 52 feet, for the front of the House. The capitals on top of them were five cubits.

16 He made chain designs like a necklace, and placed them at the top of the pillars. He also made a hundred pomegranates, which he put on the chain designs.

17 He set up the pillars in front of the House, one on the right side, and the other on the left side, and called the name of one on the right Yachin; He (Yahweh) will Establish, and the name of the one on the left Boaz; In Him (Yahweh) is Strength.

• II Chronicles 3:4—Most other translations have One Hundred Twenty Cubits, which would make the HEIGHT of Solomon's Temple equivalent to about the HEIGHT of 180 Feet. However, the Syriac, the Arabic and the Septuagint in the Codex Alexandrinus state this to be TWENTY cubits, approximately 30 Feet High.

• II Chronicles 3:15—Here, the two pillars are stated as being THIRTY FIVE cubits high. EACH; about 52 Feet High. However, I Kings 7:15 and II Kings 25:17 state that the height of EACH of these pillars was EIGHTEEN cubits; about 27 Feet High.

CHAP. 4

He made a bronze altar twenty cubits long, twenty cubits wide, and ten cubits high; about 30 feet long, 30 feet wide, and 15 feet high.

2 He made the cast-metal Sea which was circular in shape, ten cubits; about 15 feet, from one brim to the other. Its height was five cubits; about 7 1/2 feet high, and a line thirty cubits long; about 45 feet, measured its circumference.

3 Below its rim figures of bulls encircled it, ten to a cubit; about one every 1 1/2 feet. The bulls were cast in two rows, in one piece with the Sea.

4 It was set on twelve oxen: three facing toward the north, three facing toward the west, three facing toward the south, and three facing toward the east. The Sea was set upon them, and their hindquarters were toward the center.

5 The Sea was a handbreadth thick, and its brim was shaped like a cup or a lily blossom. It held 3,000 baths; about 17,500 gallons of water.

6 He then made ten lavers for washing, and placed five on the south side and five on the north side. These lavers, set on moveable carts, were used to rinse the articles for the burnt offering, but the Sea was for the priests to wash in.

7 He made ten lampstands of gold, according to the pattern, and set them in the Holy Place, five on the right side and five on the left.

8 He also made ten tables and placed them in the Holy Place, five on the right side and five on the left; and he also made one hundred bowls of gold.

9 He made the court of the priests, and the great court, together with doors for the court; then he overlaid these doors with bronze.

10 He placed the Sea on the south side, at the southeast corner.

11 Hiram made the pots; the ash containers, shovels, and sprinkling bowls. So Hiram finished doing the work that he was appointed to do for King Solomon on The House of Yahweh:

12 The two pillars and the bowl-shaped capitals on top of the two pillars; the two networks covering the two bowl-shaped capitals on top of the pillars;

13 Four hundred pomegranates for the two networks (two rows of pomegranates for each network, decorating the bowl-shaped capitals on top of the pillars);

14 He also made movable carts for the lavers on the carts for rinsing the burnt sacrifices.

15 One Sea and the twelve oxen under it;

16 The pots for ashes, the shovels, the meat forks, and all the other related articles, which Hiram made of burnished bronze for King Solomon for The House of Yahweh.

17 The king had them cast in clay molds in the plain of the Yarden between Succoth and Zeredah.

18 Solomon had all these articles made in such great quantities, that the weight of the bronze was not determined.

19 So Solomon had all the furnishings made for the Holy Place of The House of Yahweh: the altar of gold, the table on which the showbread was set;

20 The lampstands with their lamps of pure gold, to burn in the prescribed manner in front of the inner sanctuary; in the Holy Place;

21 Along with its gold floral work, lamps, and trimmers—all of purest gold;

22 The pure gold wick-trimmers, sprinkling bowls, ladles, and censers; and the gold doors of The House of Yahweh—the inner doors leading into the Most Holy Place, and the doors in the Holy Place leading outside.

CHAP. 5

So all the work Solomon had appointed for The House of Yahweh was finished. Then Solomon brought in all the things that his father David had dedicated: the silver, the gold, and all the furnishings; and he placed them in the treasuries of The House of Yahweh.

2 Solomon summoned the elders of Israyl, all the heads of the tribes, and the chief fathers of the children of Israyl to Yerusalem, so they might bring the ark of the covenant of Yahweh from the City of David, which is Zion.

3 All the men of Israyl came together with the king at the Feast of Tabernacles in the Seventh Moon.

4 So all the elders of Israyl came, and the Levites lifted up the ark;

5 Then they brought up the ark, the Tent of Meeting, and all the holy furnishings that were in the tabernacle. The priests and the Levites brought them up;

6 And King Solomon, with the entire congregation of Israyl which had gathered around him, were in front of the ark sacrificing so many sheep and cattle that they could not be counted, nor numbered.

7 The priests then brought the ark of the covenant of Yahweh to its place in the inner sanctuary of The House of Yahweh: into the Most Holy Place, and set it beneath the wings of the cherubim.

8 The cherubim spread their wings over the place the ark was set, and the cherubim overshadowed the ark and its carrying poles.

9 But the poles were so long they extended from the ark, and could be seen from in front of the inner sanctuary; from the Holy Place, but they could not be seen outside the Holy Place. And they are there to this day.

10 There was nothing in the ark but the two tablets which Mosheh placed there at Horeb, when Yahweh made a covenant with the children of Israyl when they came out of Egypt.

11 Then the priests came out of the Most Holy Place. (All the priests who were present had sanctified themselves, and had not adhered to their divisions at that time.)

12 The Levitical singers, Asaph, Heman, and Yeduthun, along with their sons and their brothers, stood on the east side of the altar, dressed in fine linen, playing cymbals, harps, and zithers. They were accompanied by 120 priests sounding trumpets; chatsoiserot.

13 The trumpeters and singers joined together, as with one voice, to give praise and thanks to Yahweh. Accompanied by trumpets; chatsoiserot, cymbals, harps, and zithers, they raised their voices in praise to Yahweh, and sang: He is righteous! His love and mercy endures forever! Then The House of Yahweh filled with a cloud.

14 And the priests could not continue ministering because of the cloud, for the glory of Yahweh filled The House of Yahweh.

CHAP. 6

Then Solomon said; Yahweh said He would dwell in the dark cloud.

2 But I have built You an exalted House, and a place for You to live in forever!

3 Then the king turned around and blessed the whole congregation of Israyl, while all the congregation of Israyl stood.

4 He said; Blessed be Yahweh, the Father of Israyl, Who has performed with His hands what He promised with His mouth to my father David, saying;

5 Since the day that I brought My people out of the land of Egypt, I have chosen no city from any tribe of Israyl to build a House, so My Name might be there, nor did I choose any man to be a ruler over My people Israyl.

6 But now I have chosen Yerusalem, so My Name may be there, and I have chosen David to be over My people Israyl.

7 Now it was in the heart; mind, of my father David to build a House for the Name of Yahweh, the Father of Israyl.

8 But Yahweh said to my father David; Because it was in your heart to build a House for My Name, you did well to have this in your heart.

9 Nevertheless, you shall not build the House, but your son, your own flesh and blood, he shall build the House for My Name.

10 So Yahweh has kept the word He promised, and I have filled the position of my father David. I sit on the throne of Israyl, just as Yahweh promised, and I have built the House for the Name of Yahweh, the Father of Israyl.

11 And there I have placed the ark, in which is the covenant of Yahweh that He made with the children of Israyl.

12 Then Solomon stood in front of the altar of Yahweh in the presence of all the congregation of Israyl, and spread out his hands.

13 (Now Solomon had made a bronze platform five cubits long, five cubits wide, and three cubits high; about 7 1/2 feet long and wide, and about 4 1/2 feet high, and had it placed in the middle of the court. He stood on it, knelt down on his knees in front of all the congregation of Israyl, spread out his hands toward heaven.)

14 And said; O Yahweh, Father of Israyl, there is no god in heaven or in earth who, like You, keeps Your covenant and love for Your servants who walk in front of You, and who seek You with all their hearts; minds.

15 You have kept what You promised Your servant David my father; You have both spoken with Your mouth and performed it with Your hands, as it is this day.

16 Therefore, O Yahweh, Father of Israyl, now keep what You promised Your servant David, my father, saying; You shall not fail to have a man in My sight to sit upon the throne of Israyl—only if your sons take heed to their way, to walk in My Law, just as you have walked in front of Me.

17 Now, O Yahweh, Father of Israyl, let Your word come true, which You have promised to Your servant David.

18 But will Yahweh really live on earth with men? The heavens, even the highest heavens, cannot contain You! How much less this House I have built!

19 Yet, attend to the prayer of Your servant, and his supplication. O Yahweh my Father, and listen to the cry and to the prayer Your servant is praying in front of You.

20 May Your eyes be open toward this House day and night, seeing this place which You said You would place Your Name. May You hear the prayer which Your servant prays toward this place.

21 And may You hear the supplications of Your servant, and of Your people Israyl when they pray toward this place. Hear from Your dwelling place, in heaven, and when You hear, forgive.

22 If anyone wrongs his brother, and is required to vow an oath, and he comes and vows the oath in front of Your altar at this House.

23 Then hear from heaven, and act. Judge between Your servants, repaying the guilty by bringing down on his own head what he has done, and declaring the innocent not guilty, by establishing his innocence and righteousness.

24 Or if Your people Israyl are defeated in front of an enemy, because they have sinned against You, but they return and confess Your Name, and they pray and make supplication in front of You in this House,

25 Then hear from heaven and forgive the sin of Your people Israyl, and bring them back to the land which You gave to them and to their fathers.

26 When the heavens are shut up, and there is no rain because Your people have sinned against You, when they pray toward this place and ● confess Your Name, and turn from their sin, because You have afflicted them;

27 Then hear in heaven, and forgive the sin of Your servants, Your people Israyl, so You may teach them the right way in which to walk, and send rain on the land that You gave to Your people for an inheritance.

28 When there is famine in the land, or plague, or blight, or mildew, locusts or grasshoppers, or when an enemy besieges them in any of their cities, whatever disaster or disease may come;

29 Then whatever prayer, or whatever supplication is made by anyone, or by all Your people Israyl—each one aware of his own afflictions and pain, and spreads out his hands toward this House—

30 Then hear from heaven, Your dwelling place, and forgive, and deal with each one according to all he does, since You know his heart (for You alone know the hearts of men),

31 So they will revere You, and walk in Your ways all the time they live in the land which You gave to our fathers.

32 Concerning a foreigner, who is not of Your people Israyl, but who comes from a far country for the sake of Your great Name, and Your mighty hand, and Your outstretched arm—when they come and pray in this House,

33 Then hear from heaven, Your dwelling place, and do whatever the foreigner asks of You, so that all the peoples of the earth may know Your Name and revere You, just as Your own people Israyl do, and that they may know that this House I have built is called with Your Name.

34 When Your people go to battle against their enemies, wherever You send them; and when they pray to You toward this city that You have chosen, and toward this House I have built for Your Name,

35 Then hear from heaven their prayer and supplication, and uphold their cause.

36 When they sin against You (for there is no one who does not sin), and You become angry with them, and hand them over to the enemy, and they take them captive to a land far or near,

37 Yet if they have a change of heart; mind, in the land where they are held captive, and repent, and plead with You in the land of their captivity, and say; We have sinned, we have done wrong! We have acted wickedly!

38 And when they return to You with all their heart and with all their being in the land where they have been carried captive, and they pray toward their land that You gave to their fathers, toward this city which You have chosen, and toward this House which I have built for Your Name;

39 Then hear their prayer and their supplication from heaven, Your dwelling place, and uphold their cause, and forgive Your people who have sinned against You.

40 Now, my Father, I pray, may Your eyes be open, and may Your ears hear the prayers offered in this place.

41 Now go up, O Yahweh Father, to Your resting place, You and the ark of Your strength! Let Your priests, O Yahweh Father, be clothed with salvation, and let Your saints; chassidim: religiously upright, rejoice in righteousness!

42 O Yahweh Father, do not turn away Your face from Your ● anointed one. Remember the love; chesed, of Your servant David.

CHAP. 7

When Solomon finished praying, fire descended from heaven and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices, and the glory of Yahweh filled The House of Yahweh.

2 The priests could not enter The House of Yahweh, because the glory of Yahweh had filled Yahweh's House.

3 When all the children of Israyl saw the descent of the fire, and the glory of Yahweh on the House, they bowed down with their faces to the ground on the pavement, and worshiped and praised Yahweh, and said; He is righteous! His love endures forever!

4 Then the king and all the people offered a sacrifice in front of Yahweh.

5 King Solomon offered a sacrifice of 22,000 bulls and 120,000 sheep when the king and all the people dedicated The House of Yahweh.

6 The priests served in their positions, as did the Levites, with the instruments of the music of Yahweh, which King David had made for praising Yahweh, and which were used when he gave thanks, saying; His love endures forever. The priests, on the opposite side across from the Levites, blew trumpets; chatsotserot, while all Israyl stood at attention.

7 Solomon also dedicated the middle section of the court that was in front of The House of Yahweh, for he offered burnt offerings and the fat of the peace offerings there (the bronze altar which Solomon had made could not hold all the burnt offerings, the grain offerings, and the fat.

8 After that, Solomon kept the Feast of Tabernacles for seven days, and all Israyl with him—

●Yadah: word #3034 in Strong's Hebrew Dictionary. Confession of Yahweh's Name means to acknowledge, revere, and worship Him, remembering and using His Name, and holding up one's hands to Him in confession, thanksgiving, and praise who had come from the entrance of Hamath to the Wadi of Egypt—a very large congregation.

9 Then on the eighth day they held a holy convocation; The Last Great Day, for they had already observed the dedication of the altar for seven days, and then the Feast of Tabernacles for seven days.

10 On the twenty-third day of the Seventh Moon he dismissed the people, and they went to their homes joyful and glad of heart, because of all the righteousness that Yahweh had done for David, for Solomon, and for His people Israyl.

11 Solomon finished The House of Yahweh and the king's house. When Solomon successfully accomplished all that was in his mind to do, with reference to The House of Yahweh and his own house;

12 Then Yahweh appeared to Solomon that night, and said to him: I have heard your prayer, and I have chosen this place for Myself as a House for sacrifices.

13 When I shut up heaven and there is no rain, or I command the locusts to devour the land, or I send plague and disease among My people—

14 If My people, who are called with My Name, will humble themselves, and pray, and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and I will forgive their sins, and heal their land.

15 Now My eyes will be open, and My ear will hear the prayers from this place.

16 For now I have chosen and sanctified this House, so My Name may be there forever; and My eyes and My heart will be there perpetually: at the time of Yahweh's ordained Weekly Sabbaths and Feast Days.

17 And if you will walk before Me, just as your father David walked, and do according to all that I have commanded you, and if you keep My statutes and My judgments,

18 Then I will establish the throne of your kingdom, just as I covenanted with David your father, saying: You shall never fail to have a man as ruler in Israyl;

19 However, if you turn away and forsake My statutes and My commandments which I have set before you, and you go and serve the hinder gods, and worship them,

20 Then I will uproot Israyl from My land, which I have given them, and I will reject this House that I have consecrated for My Name, and I will make it the subject of short, pointed sayings, and the object of sarcasm and ridicule among all peoples;

21 And this House, which is so exalted—everyone who then passes by it will be appalled, and ask: Why has Yahweh done so to this land and to this House?

22 And they will answer them; Because they abandoned and forsook Yahweh, the Father of their fathers, Who brought them out of the land of Egypt, and they joined themselves to the hinder gods, and worshiped them and served them—because of all this, He has brought all this evil upon them.

CHAP. 8

At the end of twenty years, during which Solomon had built The House of Yahweh and his own house,

2 And had rebuilt the cities Hiram had given to him, and had settled the children of Israyl into them—

3 Solomon went to Hamath Zobah and seized it.

4 He also fortified Tadmor in the wilderness, as well as all the store cities he built in Hamath.

5 He built up Upper Beth Horon and Lower Beth Horon into fortified cities with walls, gates, and bars;

6 Also fortifying Baalath and all the store cities that Solomon had, as well as all the chariot cities and cities for his teams of horses, and all he desired to build in Yerusalem, in Lebanon, and throughout all the territories and kingdoms he ruled.

7 All the people remaining of the Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Yebusites, who did not belong to Israyl—

8 (That is, those of their descendants remaining in the land after them, and whom the children of Israyl had not utterly destroyed; cherem), from these Solomon raised a slave labor force, as it is to this day;

9 But Solomon did not make the children of Israyl into slaves for his work. Some were his fighting men: the captains of his officers, and the captains of his chariots and cavalry.

10 These were the chiefs of King Solomon's garrisons—250 officials supervising the men.

11 Then Solomon brought up the daughter of Pharaoh from the City of David, to the house he had built for her, because he said: My wife must not live in the house of David, the king of Israyl, because the place which the ark of Yahweh has come is sacred and holy.

12 Solomon also offered burnt offerings to Yahweh on the altar of Yahweh, which he had built in front of the porch, 13 According to the daily requirement for offerings commanded by Mosheh for the Sabbaths, for the New Moons, and for the three appointed yearly Feasts—the Feast of Unleavened Bread, the Feast of Weeks, and the Feast of Tabernacles.

14 Following the outlined plan of David his father, he appointed the divisions of priests for their service, the Levites to their duties (to remember, thank, and praise Yahweh, and to assist the priests), in conformity with the daily requirements, and the gatekeepers to their posts by their divisions, just as David, the man of Yahweh, had given command.

15 Nor did they deviate from the king's commands concerning the priests or the Levites in any matter, including the treasuries.

16 All Solomon's work was carried out—the day the foundation of The House of Yahweh was laid until it was finished. So the House of Yahweh was completed.

17 Then Solomon went to Ezion-Geber and to Elath, on the seacoast in the land of Edom.

18 Hiram sent him ships commanded by his own subjects, men who knew the sea. They accompanied Solomon's men to Ophir, and acquired 450 talents; about 17 tons, of gold, which they brought to King Solomon.

CHAP. 9

When the queen of Sheba heard about the renown of Solomon, she came to Yerusalem, with a very large company of attendants and camels, carrying spices; perfume, and large quantities of precious stones and gold. She came to test Solomon; and when he came to Solomon, she spoke to him about all that was on her mind.

2 But Solomon answered all her questions. There was nothing too difficult for him to explain to her.

3 When the queen of Sheba saw the wisdom of Solomon, his house he had built,

4 The food on his table, the seating of his officials, his attending servants in their robes, his cupbearers and their robes, and his entryway by which he went up to The House of Yahweh, there was no more spirit in her.

5 She said to the king: It was a true report I heard in my own land about your words and your wisdom.

6 However I did not believe this report until I came and saw with my own eyes, and truly, not even half of the greatness of your wisdom was reported to me. You have far surpassed the report that I heard.

7 How joyous are your men, and how joyous are these your officials, who stand continually before you and hear your wisdom!

8 Blessed be Yahweh your Father Who delights in you, setting you on His throne as king for Yahweh your Father! Because your Father loves Israyl and His desire is to establish them forever. He made you king over them, in order to do justice and righteousness.

9 Then she gave the king 120 talents of gold; about 4 1/2 tons, spices; perfume, and precious stones in great abundance. There never again were so many spices brought in as those the queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon.

10 The subjects of Hiram and the subjects of Solomon, who brought gold from Ophir, also brought algum wood and precious stones.

11 The king used the algum wood for steps of The House of Yahweh and for the house of the king, and for zithers and harps for the singers. The like of algum wood had never been seen before in the land of Yahdah.

12 And King Solomon gave the queen of Sheba all she desired, whatever she asked, besides what he had given her out of his royal bounty. So she turned and went to her own country; she and all her company.

13 The weight of gold that yearly came to Solomon was 666 talents; about 25 tons.

14 Not including what the traveling merchants and traders brought. Also, all the kings of Arabia and the governors of the land brought gold and silver to Solomon.

15 King Solomon made two hundred large shields of hammered gold, and 600 bekas; about 7 1/2 pounds, of gold went into each shield.

16 He also made three hundred shields of hammered gold, which had 300 bekas; about 3 3/4 pounds, of gold in each shield. The king put these in the House of the Forest of Lebanon.

17 The king also made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with pure gold.

18 The throne had six steps, and a footstool of gold was attached to the throne. There were armrests on both sides of the seat, and two lions stood beside each armrest.

19 Twelve lions stood there on the six steps, one at either end of each step. Nothing like this had been made for any other kingdom.

20 All King Solomon's goblets were of gold, and all the articles of the House of the Forest of Lebanon were of pure gold. Not one was made of silver, because silver was considered of little value in the days of Solomon.

21 The king's ships went to Tarshish with the subjects of Hiram. Once every three years the ships of Tarshish arrived, bringing gold, silver, ivory, apes, and peacocks.

22 So King Solomon surpassed all the kings of the earth in riches and wisdom.

23 And all the kings of the earth sought an audience with Solomon to hear the wisdom which Yahweh had placed in his heart; mind.

24 Each man who came presented his gift: articles of silver and gold, clothing, armor, spices; oil of myrrh, horses, and mules, at this event year after year.

25 Solomon had 4,000 stalls for horses and chariots, and 12,000 charioteers; horsemen, whom he stationed in the chariot cities and with the king at Yerusalem.

26 He was the ruler over all the kings from the River Euphrates to the land of the Philistines, as far as the border of Egypt.

27 The king made silver as common in Yerusalem as stones, and he made cedar trees as abundant as the sycamores in the Shephelah; foothills.

28 They brought Solomon horses from Egypt and from all other lands.

29 Now the rest of the events of the reign of Solomon, his first and his last, are they not written in the book of Nathan the prophet, in the prophecy of Ahiyah the Shilonite, and in the visions of Iddo the seer concerning Yeroboam son of Nebat?

30 Solomon reigned in Yerusalem over all Israyl for forty years,

31 Then Solomon slept with his fathers, and was buried in the City of David his father. And Rehoboam his son succeeded him as king.

CHAP. 10

Then Rehoboam; Rechabam: A People has Enlarged, went to Shechem, for all Israyl had come to Shechem to make him king.

2 When Yeroboam; Yarobam: A People will Contend, son of Nebat heard that Solomon the king was dead, (he was in Egypt, where he had fled from the presence of Solomon the king), Yeroboam then returned from Egypt.

3 So they sent messengers to summon him. When Yeroboam and all Israyl arrived, they said to Rehoboam;

4 Your father made our yoke heavy; but now lighten the burdensome service of your father and the heavy yoke he placed on us, and we will serve you.

5 Rehoboam said to them; Come back to me after three days. So the people left.

6 Then King Rehoboam consulted the elders who officiated with his father Solomon while he still lived, and asked them: How do you advise me to answer these people?

7 They advised him, saying; If you will be kind to this people, befriend them, and speak as a servant to them, they will remain your servants forever.

8 But he rejected the counsel and advice the elders had given him, and then consulted the younger men who grew up with him, and who were now his counselors.

9 He asked them: What advice do you give? How should we answer this people who have spoken to me, and said; Lighten the yoke your father placed on us?

10 Then the young men who had grown up with him gave this advice, saying; This is how you should speak to the people who have spoken to you, and said; You father made our yoke heavy, so make it lighter on us—this is what you should say to them: My little finger is thicker than my father's waist!

11 Now my father put a heavy yoke on you, but I will add to your yoke! My father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scourges!

12 So Yeroboam and all the people returned to Rehoboam on the third day, just as the king had appointed them, saying; Come back to me the third day.

13 Then King Rehoboam answered them harshly, for he had rejected the counsel and advice of the elders.

14 Answering them as the young men had counseled and advised him, saying; My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add to it! My father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scourges!

15 The king refused to listen to the people, for this turn of affairs came from Yahweh, in order to perform the word which He had spoken through Ahiyah the Shilonite to Yeroboam, the son of Nebat.

16 When all Israyl realized the king would not listen to them, the people answered the king, and said; What share do we have in David? We have no inheritance in the son of Yishai! To your tents, O Israyl! Look after your own house, O David! So Israyl went to their own homes.

17 But Rehoboam reigned over the children of Israyl who lived in the cities of Yahdah.

18 Then King Rehoboam dispatched Hadoram, who was in charge of collecting revenue, but the children of Israyl stoned him to death with stones, and King Rehoboam quickly mounted his chariot, and fled to Yerusalem.

19 So Israyl has been in rebellion against the house of David to this day.

CHAP. 11

When Rehoboam returned to Yerusalem, he gathered together from the house of Yahdah and Benyamin 180,000 fighting men, in order to go to war against Israyl, so he might regain a united kingdom to Rehoboam.

2 But the word of Yahweh came to Shemayah, the man of Yahweh, saying;

3 Speak to Rehoboam son of Solomon, the king of Yahdah, and to all Israyl in Yahdah and Benyamin, and say;

4 This is what Yahweh says: Do not go up nor fight against your brothers, the children of Israyl. Let every man return to his own house, for this thing that has come to pass is from Me. So they obeyed the word of Yahweh, and withdrew from their attack on Yeroboam.

5 Rehoboam lived in Yerusalem, but built up cities for the defense of Yahdah.

6 He built up Bethlehem, Etam, Tekoa.

7 Beth Zur, Sochoh, Adullam.

8 Gath, Mareshah, Ziph.

9 Adoraim, Lachish, Azekah.

10 Zorah, Aiyalon, and Hebron—all these cities of Yahdah and Benjamin he built up and fortified.

11 He also fortified the strongholds, and placed officers in them, with supplies of food, oil, and wine.

12 He put shields and spears in all the cities, and built up their defenses. In this way, Yahdah and Benjamin were retained by him.

13 The priests and Levites from all over Israyl, from all its borders, came over to Rehoboam.

14 The Levites abandoned their commonlands and property and immigrated to Yahdah and Yerusalem, because Yeroboam and his sons had rejected them from executing the priest's office to Yahweh;

15 Instead, he ordained priests of his own for the Houses with the High Places, for the devils, and for the circular altars he had made.

16 Those of all the tribes of Israyl who had set their minds on seeking Yahweh, the Father of Israyl, followed them to Yerusalem to ● keep the Feasts of Yahweh their Father.

17 They strengthened the king of Yahdah, and supported Rehoboam son of Solomon for three years, for they walked in the way of David and ● Solomon for three years.

18 Then Rehoboam married Mahalath, the daughter of Yerimoth son of David, and of Abihail, the daughter of Eliab son of Yishai.

19 She bore him these sons: Yeush, Sharmayah, and Zaham.

20 Then after her, he married Maacah the granddaughter of Absalom, and she bore him Abiyah, Attai, Ziza, and Shelomith.

21 Rehoboam loved Maacah the granddaughter of Absalom more than all his other wives and concubines, and he had eighteen wives and sixty concubines. From these wives he begot twenty-eight sons and sixty daughters.

22 Then Rehoboam named Abiyah, the son of Maacah, to be his successor, and therefore the firstborn among his brothers, in order to make him king.

23 He acted wisely by dispersing some of his sons throughout the territory of Yahdah and Benjamin, to every fortified city, where he provided for them in abundance, and sought for them a multitude of wives.

CHAP. 12

When Rehoboam established the kingdom, and when he had become strong, he and all Israyl; Yahdah and Benjamin, forsook the Law of Yahweh.

● ZABACH: Banquet or Feast: Yearly Sacrificial Meal. The Hebrew and Chaldean Lexicon to the Old Testament, 1867, pps. 383-384, by Julius Fürst, Bernhard-Tauchnitz, Leipzig, Germany, Williams & Norgate, London.
● The Way of Yahweh Solomon followed before he turned away from Yahweh, and began to use The Sacred Pole in setting his feasts.

2 Then because they sinned, transgressing against Yahweh, in the fifth year of King Rehoboam, Shishak king of Egypt attacked Yerusalem.

3 With 12,000 chariots, 60,000 charioteers and horsemen, and innumerable men accompanying him out of Egypt: Lubim; Libyans, Sukkiim; Foreign Mercenaries, and Cushim; Ethiopians.

4 He captured the fortified cities of Yahdah, and marched toward Yerusalem.

5 Then the prophet Shemayah came to Rehoboam and the leaders of Yahdah, who had converged to Yerusalem because of Shishak, and said to them: This is what Yahweh says: You have forsaken Me, so I have forsaken you to the hands of Shishak.

6 But the leaders of Israyl and the king humbled themselves, and they said: Yahweh is righteous.

7 When Yahweh saw that they humbled themselves, the word of Yahweh came to Shemayah, saying: They have humbled themselves, so I will not destroy them. I will grant them some deliverance, and My wrath shall not be poured out on Yerusalem by the hands of Shishak.

8 However, they will be under his subjection, so they may learn the difference between serving Me and serving the kings who rule these nations.

9 So Shishak king of Egypt attacked Yerusalem, and he carried away the treasures of The House of Yahweh and the treasures of the king's house. He left nothing. He also carried away the gold shields Solomon had made.

10 King Rehoboam made bronze shields to replace them, and committed them to the hands of the captain whose responsibility it was to guard the entrance to the king's house.

11 Whenever the king went to The House of Yahweh, the guards went with him carrying the shields, and afterward they would return them to the guardroom.

12 When he humbled himself, the wrath of Yahweh turned from him, so as not to destroy him completely, and some things went well in Yahdah.

13 So King Rehoboam grew strong in Yerusalem, and continued to reign. Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned seventeen years in Yerusalem, the city Yahweh had chosen out of all the tribes of Israyl, to establish His Name there. His mother's name was Naamah, an Ammonitess.

14 But he did evil; breaking Yahweh's Law because he did not prepare his heart; set his mind, to seek the will of Yahweh.

15 The events of the reign of Rehoboam, his first through his last, are they not written in the book of Shemayah the prophet, and of Iddo the seer which deals with the official genealogy?

There was continual conflict and war between Rehoboam of Yahdah and Yeroboam of Israyl throughout this period.

16 So Rehoboam slept with his fathers, and was buried in the City of David. Then Abiyah his son succeeded him as king.

CHAP. 13

In the eighteenth year of the reign of King Yeroboam, Abiyah became king over Yahdah.

2 He reigned three years in Yerusalem, and his mother's name was Maacah; Maacahyah, Struck by Yahweh, the daughter of Uriel of Gibeah. War broke out between Abiyah and Yeroboam.

3 And Abiyah went into battle with a force of 400,000 capable fighting men, and Yeroboam positioned himself against him with 800,000 capable fighting men.

4 Then Abiyah stood on Mount Zemaraim, which is in the hill country of Ephraim, and shouted; Hear me, Yeroboam and all Israyl!

5 Do you not know that Yahweh, the Father of Israyl, has given the kingship over Israyl to David and his descendants by a covenant of salt?

6 Yet Yeroboam son of Nebat, only an official of Solomon son of David, rose up and rebelled against his ruler!

7 Then worthless men, sons of Belial, gathered around him to oppose Rehoboam son of Solomon, when Rehoboam was young and inexperienced and not strong enough to resist them.

8 And now you propose to resist the kingdom of Yahweh, which is in the hands of the sons of David! You are a great multitude, and with you are the circular golden altars Yeroboam made for your gods!

9 But have you not driven out the priests of Yahweh, the sons of Aaron, the Levites, and made for yourselves preachers, just as the peoples of the other nations have done? Just anyone who comes may consecrate himself with a young bull and seven rams, and then becomes a preacher of the ● gods!

10 But as for us, Yahweh is our Father! We have not forsaken Him, and the priests who minister to Yahweh are the sons of Aaron, and the Levites assist them in their duties!

11 They sacrifice burnt offerings and burn sweet incense to Yahweh during the Tamid every morning and every evening. They also set the showbread on the ritually clean table on the Weekly Sabbath, and they light the lamps on the golden lampstand every night, for we keep the command of Yahweh our Father—but you have forsaken Him!

12 Behold, Yahweh is on our side, and He is in command! His priests, with signal trumpets;

● GODS, are the Baalim, which are the Lords, Gods, Goddesses, El, and Elohim, which are worshipped in opposition to YAHWEH, the Heavenly Father.

chatsotserot, are ready to sound the alarm against you! O sons of Israyl, do not fight with Yahweh, the Father of our fathers, for you will not succeed!

13 Now Yeroboam had sent an ambush to attack them from their rear. Yeroboam was positioned in front of them, and the ambush was positioned behind them.

14 When Yahdah looked around, they realized they were being attacked from both the front and the rear, so they cried out to Yahweh. The priests blew their trumpets; chatsotserot.

15 And the men of Yahdah shouted their battle cry. When the men of Yahdah shouted their battle cry, Yahweh struck down Yeroboam and all Israyl in front of Abiyah and Yahdah.

16 The children of Israyl fled in front of Yahdah, for Yahweh had delivered them into their hands.

17 Abiyah and his men inflicted heavy losses on them—500,000 capable fighting men of Israyl fell slain.

18 So the children of Israyl were humbled on that occasion, while the children of Yahdah had the victory because they relied on Yahweh, the Father of their fathers.

19 Abiyah pursued Yeroboam and captured from him the cities of Bethel with its surrounding villages, Yeshanah with its surrounding villages, and Ephron with its surrounding villages.

20 Yeroboam did not regain power again during the reign of Abiyah. Finally Yahweh struck Yeroboam down, and he died.

21 But Abiyah grew powerful, married fourteen wives, and begot twenty-two sons and sixteen daughters.

22 Now the rest of the events of the reign of Abiyah, his ways, and what he said, are written in the writings of the prophet Iddo.

CHAP. 14

So Abiyah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the City of David. Then Asa his son succeeded him as king, and during his reign the land was at peace for ten years.

2 Asa did what was correct and right in the eyes of Yahweh his Father; servng Yahweh.

3 For he removed the altars of the strange gods and the Houses with the High Places, broke down the sacred pillars, cut down the sacred poles,

4 And commanded Yahdah to seek Yahweh, the Father of their fathers, and to observe and do His laws and His commandments.

5 Because he removed the high places and the incense altars from all the cities of Yahdah, the kingdom was at peace under him.

6 He built up fortified cities in Yahdah.

because the country was undisturbed. He fought no wars in those years, because Yahweh had given him rest.

7 So he said to Yahdah; Let us build up these cities by constructing walls, towers, gates, and bars to surround them. The land is at our disposal, because we sought Yahweh. We sought Him, and He has given us peace all around. So they built them up, and enjoyed success.

8 Asa had an army of 300,000 men from Yahdah who carried shields and spears, and 280,000 men from Benyamin who carried shields and drew bows, all of whom were valiant warriors.

9 Then Zerah the Ethiopian came out against them with an army of 1,000,000 men and 300 chariots, and came as far as Mareshah.

10 Asa went out to meet him, and they prepared for the battle in the Valley of Zephathah near Mareshah.

11 Then Asa cried out to Yahweh his Father, and said; O Yahweh, there is no One like You, Who helps the weak against the powerful! Help us, O Yahweh our Father, for we trust in You, and with Your Name we advance against this multitude. O Yahweh, You are our Father! Do not let man prevail against You!

12 So Yahweh struck down the Ethiopians in front of Asa and Yahdah, and the Ethiopians fled.

13 Asa and his men pursued them as far as Gerar, and so many Ethiopians fell they were incapable of recovering. They were crushed in front of Yahweh and His army, and the men of Yahdah carried away a great amount of plunder.

14 They destroyed all the cities around Gerar, for the terror of Yahweh was upon them, and they plundered all the cities, for there was a great amount of booty in them.

15 They also attacked those who had livestock, and carried off sheep and camels in abundance when they returned to Jerusalem.

CHAP. 15

The Spirit of Yahweh came upon Azaryah son of Oded,

2 As he went out to meet Asa, and he said to him; Hear me, Asa, and all Yahdah and Benyamin! Yahweh will be with you as long as you are with Him. If you seek Him, then He will be found by you! But if you forsake Him, He will forsake you!

3 For a long time Israyl was without the Father of Truth, and was without a priest who taught the Law; The Torah.

4 But in their trouble they turned to Yahweh, the Father of Israyl, and when they sought Him, He was found by them.

5 At that time there was no security for those who went in and came out; rather, there was much unrest among the inhabitants of all the lands.

6 So nation was destroyed by nation, and one city by another, because Yahweh was distressing them with every kind of trouble.

7 But as for you, be strong, and do not become discouraged, for your work shall be rewarded!

8 When Asa heard these words of prophecy from Azaryah son of Oded, the prophet, he became encouraged, and removed the abominable and disgusting gods from all the land of Yahdah and Benyamin, and from the cities he had captured in the hill country of Ephraim. Then he repaired the altar of Yahweh that was in front of the porch of The House of Yahweh.

9 And summoned together all Yahdah and Benyamin, with those who were from Ephraim, Menasheh, and Simeon who had settled among them, for they had deserted Israyl in great numbers when they realized that Yahweh his Father was with him.

10 So they gathered together at Jerusalem in the Third Moon, in the fifteenth year of the reign of King Asa.

11 At that time, they sacrificed to Yahweh 700 bulls and 7,000 sheep from the plunder they had brought back.

12 They also entered into a covenant to seek Yahweh, the Father of their fathers, with all their heart; mind, and with all their being.

13 And that whoever would not seek Yahweh, the Father of Israyl, would be put to death, whether young or old, man or woman.

14 They vowed an oath in front of Yahweh with a loud voice, with a shout of joy, with trumpets; chatsotserot, and with rams' horns; shofarot.

15 All Yahdah rejoiced over the oath, for they had vowed it with all their heart; mind, and had sought Him with all their being, so He was found by them, and Yahweh gave them peace all around.

16 Asa the king even removed his grandmother Maacah from being queen mother, because she had made an ● obscene, and disgusting image of Asherah; Ishiar, Astarte, Easter; The Sacred Pole, which Asa cut down, smashed, and burned in the Kidron Valley between Jerusalem and the Mount of Olives.

17 Although he did not completely remove the high places from Israyl, Asa's heart; mind, was perfect toward Yahweh all his life.

18 He also brought into The House of Yahweh those things which his father had dedicated, and also those things which he himself had dedicated; silver, gold, and other articles.

19 Then there was no more war until the thirty-fifth year of the reign of Asa.

● Constructed a sacred pole to resemble the shape of a PRIAPUS, the male generative organ, honoring the gods of Fertility-Sun worship.

CHAP. 16

In the thirty-sixth year of the reign of Asa, Baasha king of Israyl attacked Yahdah and built up Ramah, effectivly preventing Asa king of Yadah from going out or coming in.

2 So Asa took out silver and gold from the treasuries of The House of Yahweh and from the king's house, and dispatched them to Ben-Hadad, the king of Aram, who lived in Damascus, saying:

3 Let us make a treaty between me and you, like the one between my father and your father. Behold, I have sent you silver and gold. Come, break your treaty with Baasha king of Israyl, so he will withdraw from me.

4 So Ben-Hadad agreed with King Asa, and sent the captain of his army to the cities of Israyl. They attacked Iyon, Dan, Abel Maim, and all the storage cities of Naphtali.

5 When Baasha was informed of this, he ceased building up Ramah, and stopped his work there.

6 Then King Asa ordered all Yahdah, and they carried away the stones and timber which Baasha had used for fortifying Ramah, and he used them to build up Geba and Mizpah.

7 At that time Hanani the seer came to Asa king of Yahdah, and said to him; Because you relied on the king of Aram, and did not rely upon Yahweh your Father, the army of the king of Aram has escaped from your hands!

8 Were the Ethiopians and the Libyans not a huge army, with a great number of chariots and horsemen? Yet, because you relied upon Yahweh, He delivered them into your hands!

9 For the eyes of Yahweh move to and fro throughout all the earth to strengthen and support those whose hearts are perfect toward Him. In this respect you have acted foolishly, and from now on you will have wars!

10 But Asa was angered by the seer because of this, and threw him into prison. At the same time, Asa also mistreated and oppressed some of the people.

11 Note that the events of the reign of Asa, his first through his last, are recorded in the book of the kings of Yahdah and Israyl.

12 In the thirty-ninth year of his reign, Asa became diseased in his feet, and his illness was severe. Yet even during his disease ● he did not seek Yahweh, but he sought the physicians—only.

13 So Asa slept with his fathers, dying in the forty-first year of his reign.

14 They buried him in his own tomb, which he had made for himself in the City of David. They laid him in the crypt which was filled with spices and various perfumes blended in oil, and they made a huge funeral fire on his behalf.

● Yahweh is The Healer (Psalm 103:3), but Asa consulted ONLY physicians, without consulting Yahweh AT ALL, reflecting a tragic lack of confidence in Him.

CHAP. 17

Then Yahshaphat his son succeeded him as king, and fortified himself against Israyl.

2 He stationed troops in all the fortified cities of Yahdah, setting garrisons in the land of Yahdah and in the cities of Ephraim, which Asa his father had captured.

3 Now Yahweh was with Yahshaphat, for he walked in the ways of his father David; he did not seek Baal; Lord.

4 But he sought Yahweh, the Father of his father. He walked in His commandments, and not according to the practices of Israyl.

5 So Yahweh established the kingdom in his hands. All Yahdah brought gifts to Yahshaphat, and he had an abundance of riches and great honor.

6 His heart; mind was so firmly set on the ways of Yahweh that he again removed the high places and the Asherah poles; The Sacred Poles, from Yahdah.

7 In the third year of his reign he dispatched his officials, sons of virtue: Obadyah, Zecharyah, Nethaneel, and Micahyah, to teach in the cities of Yahdah.

8 With them went the Levites—Shemayah, Nethanyah, Zebadyah, Asahel, Shemiramoth, Yahnathan, Adoniyah, Tobiyah, Tobadoniyah, and the priests—Elishama and Yahram.

9 They taught in Yahdah, taking the Book of the Law of Yahweh with them. They went throughout all the cities of Yahdah, and taught the people.

10 And the terror of Yahweh fell on all the kingdoms of the lands bordering Yahdah, so they did not incite war against Yahshaphat.

11 Some of the Philistines brought gifts and a load of silver to Yahshaphat. The Arabians also brought flocks to him: 7,700 rams and 7,700 male goats.

12 So Yahshaphat kept increasing in power, and he built fortified cities and storage cities in Yahdah.

13 And he accumulated large possessions of supplies in the cities of Yahdah. He also kept experienced fighting men in Yerusalem.

14 Their numbers, according to their fathers' houses, were—from the tribe of Yahdah: over the captains of the thousands of Yahdah was Adnah the commander, and with him were 300,000 fighting men.

15 Next in command was Yahchanan, with 280,000 fighting men.

16 And next in command was Amasyah son of Zichri, who willingly offered himself to Yahweh, and with him were 200,000 fighting men.

17 From the tribe of Benyamin—Elyada, a valiant officer, and with him were 200,000 fighting men armed with bows and shields.

18 And under him was Yahzabad, and with him were 180,000 men prepared for war.

19 These were the ones who were in the service of the king, besides those he stationed in the fortified cities throughout Yahdah.

CHAP. 18

Now Yahshaphat had great riches and much honor, but through marriage he allied himself with Ahab.

2 Some years later he went down to visit Ahab in Samaria. Ahab slaughtered many sheep and oxen for him and the people who accompanied him, and persuaded him to attack Ramoth Gilead with him.

3 Ahab king of Israyl asked Yahshaphat king of Yahdah: Will you go with me to attack Ramoth Gilead? And he answered him; I am as you are, and my people are as your people. We will go with you into war;

4 But Yahshaphat said to the king of Israyl; Inquire first for the word of Yahweh this day.

5 Then the king of Israyl gathered his prophets together, four hundred men, and asked them; Shall we go to war against Ramoth Gilead, or shall we refrain? They answered; Go up, for god will deliver it into the king's hand!

6 But Yahshaphat asked; Is there no longer a prophet of Yahweh here, so we may inquire of Him?

7 The king of Israyl answered Yahshaphat, and said; There remains only one man by whom we may inquire of Yahweh, but I hate him, because he never prophesies anything fit about me, but only evil always! He is Micahyah; Who is like Yahweh?, son of Imlah. But Yahshaphat said; The king should not say such things!

8 Then the king of Israyl summoned one of his officers, and commanded; Bring Micahyah son of Imlah at once!

9 Now the king of Israyl and Yahshaphat king of Yahdah were each sitting upon his throne, dressed in their robes. They were sitting on a threshing floor at the entrance to the gate of Samaria, and all the prophets were prophesying in front of them.

10 Zedekyah; Yahweh is Righteousness, son of Chenaanah had made himself horns of iron, and he prophesied; This is what Yahweh says; With these you shall gore the Arameans until they are destroyed!

11 All the prophets prophesied in the same manner, saying; Go up to Ramoth Gilead and succeed, for Yahweh will deliver it into the kings' hands!

12 Then the messenger who had gone to summon Micahyah spoke to him, saying; Now listen, as one man the other prophets are prophesying success for the king! May your word agree with theirs, and may you speak success!

13 But Micahyah said; As surely as Yahweh lives, whatever my Father says, that is what I will speak.

14 Then he entered the king's presence, and the king asked him; Micahyah, shall we attack Ramoth Gilead, or shall we refrain? He answered; Go and succeed, and they shall be delivered into your hands!

15 But the king said to him; How many times shall I make you vow that you will tell me nothing but the truth in the Name of Yahweh?

16 Then he answered; I saw all Israyl; scattered on the hills, like sheep that have no shepherd. And Yahweh said; These have no ruler. Let each man return to his home in peace.

17 The king of Israyl then said to Yahshaphat; Did I not tell you that he would prophesy nothing fit concerning me, but only evil?

18 Then Micahyah said; Therefore hear the word of Yahweh! I saw Yahweh sitting on His throne, and all the host of heaven standing on His right hand and on His left.

19 Yahweh asked; Who will lure Ahab king of Israyl to go up, so he may fall in defeat at Ramoth Gilead? One gave this suggestion, and another suggested that.

20 Then a spirit came forward, stood in front of Yahweh, and said; I will lure him! Yahweh asked him; How will you do this?

21 He replied; I will go out and be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. Then Yahweh said; You will succeed in luring him! Go and do it!

22 Now therefore, behold! Yahweh has placed a lying spirit in the mouths of all these prophets of yours, and Yahweh has ordained disaster against you!

23 Then Zedekyah son of Chenaanah came up, struck Micahyah on the cheek, and asked; What kind of Spirit from Yahweh is now speaking through you?

24 Micahyah answered him; Truly, you will see on the day you go in to an inner room to hide.

25 Then the king of Israyl said; Seize Micahyah, and take him back to Amon, the ruler of the city, and to Yahash, the king's son, 26 And say; This is what the king says; Throw this one in prison, and give him meager food, and scarcity of water, until the day I return in peace!

27 Then Micahyah said; If you ever return in peace, then Yahweh has not spoken by me. And he said; Heed my word, all you people!

28 So the king of Israyl and Yahshaphat, the king of Yahdah, set out for Ramoth Gilead.

29 The king of Israyl said to Yahshaphat; I will disguise myself to go into battle, but you dress yourself in your robes. So the king of Israyl disguised himself, and they went into battle.

30 Now the king of Aram had given orders to the captains of his chariots, and said; Fight with no one, small or great, except the king of Israyl, only!

31 So when his captains of his chariots saw Yahshaphat, they thought to themselves: That is the king of Israyl! They surrounded him to attack, but Yahshaphat cried out, and Yahweh helped him—Yahweh moved them to withdraw from him.

32 When the captains of the chariots realized he was not the king of Israyl, they turned away from pursuing him.

33 But a man drew a bow at full strength at random, and his arrow struck the king of Israyl between the sections of his armor. He ordered the driver of his chariot: Turn around and carry me out of the battle, for I am wounded.

34 The battle raged throughout the day, while the king of Israyl was propped up in his chariot, in full view of the Arameans until evening, and about the time of sunset he died.

CHAP. 19

However, Yahshaphat king of Yahdah returned in safety to his house in Yerusalem.

2 Yahu the seer, the son of Hanani, went out to meet him, and said to King Yahshaphat: Should you help those who are evil, or love those who hate Yahweh? Because of this, the wrath of Yahweh is upon you!

3 There are, however, some righteous things in you, for you have removed the Asheroth; The Sacred Poles representing the goddess Ishtar, Ashtar, Easter, and have determined in your heart; mind, to seek Yahweh.

4 So Yahshaphat lived at Yerusalem, and he again went out among the people, from Beersheba to the hill country of Ephraim, and turned them back to Yahweh, the Father of their fathers.

5 He also appointed judges in the land, in each of the fortified cities of Yahdah.

6 And instructed the judges; Consider carefully what you do, for you do not judge for a man, but for Yahweh Who is with you in the judgment.

7 Now may the reverence of Yahweh be upon you! Be careful what you do, for in Yahweh our Father there is no injustice, no partiality, nor taking of bribes.

8 Yahshaphat also appointed at Yerusalem some of the Levites, priests, and some of the chief leaders of Israyl to administer the Law of Yahweh, and to settle disputes. They also lived in Yerusalem.

9 He ordered them, saying; You must perform your duties in the reverence of Yahweh, faithfully, and with a perfect heart.

10 Whatever case comes before you from your brothers who live in your cities, whether bloodshed or various offences against law or commandment, against statutes or ordinances, you are to warn them not to trespass against Yahweh, or His wrath will come upon you, as well as your brother. However, if you warn them, you will be guiltless.

11 Take notice that Amaryah the High Priest is over you in all matters pertaining to Yahweh, that Zebadyah son of Ishmael, the chief over the house of Yahdah is over you in all matters pertaining to the king, and the Levites will serve as your officials. May you judge with great courage, and may Yahweh be on the side of the innocent!

CHAP. 20

After this, the people of Moab, with the people of Ammon and some of the Meunites, came to fight against Yahshaphat.

2 Some men came and reported this to Yahshaphat, saying; A great multitude from the other side of the Dead Sea; from Edom, is coming against you. Behold, they are in Hazazon-Tamar (which is En Gedi).

3 Yahshaphat became alarmed at this, and then he determined to seek Yahweh. He proclaimed a fast throughout all Yahdah.

4 Then Yahdah gathered together to inquire of Yahweh—from all the cities of Yahdah they came to seek Yahweh.

5 Then Yahshaphat stood up in the congregation of Yahdah and Yerusalem in the House of Yahweh in front of the new court.

6 And said; O Yahweh, Father of our fathers, are You not our Father in heaven, and do You not rule over all the kingdoms of the nations, and in Your hand is there not power and strength, so no one is able to withstand You?

7 Are You not our Father, Who drove out the inhabitants of this land from in front of Your people Israyl, and gave it to the descendants of Abraham, Your friend, forever?

8 They have lived in it, and have built You a sanctuary in it for Your Name, and said;

9 If, when evil comes upon us, whether from the sword, judgment, plague, or famine, if we will stand in front of this House and in Your presence (for Your Name is in this House), and cry out to You in our distress, then You will hear us and help us.

10 But now, here are men from Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir, whose land You would not allow Israyl to invade when they came from Egypt, but they turned away from them and did not destroy them.

11 They are here to repay us by coming to throw us out of Your possession which You have given us to inherit!

12 O our Father, will You not judge them? For we have no power against this innumerable multitude that is coming against us, and because we do not know what to do, our eyes are upon You.

13 Now all Yahdah, including their wives, sons, and little children, were standing in front of Yahweh.

14 Then the Spirit of Yahweh came upon Yachaziel son of Zecharyah, the son of Benayah, the son of Yeiel, the son of Mattanyah, a Levite of the sons of Asaph, as he stood among the congregation;

15 And he said; Listen, all who live in Yahdah and Yerusalem! Listen, King Yahshaphat! This is what Yahweh says to you; Do not be afraid nor discouraged because of this great multitude, for the battle is not yours! It is Yahweh's!

16 Tomorrow go down against them. They will be climbing up by the ascent of Ziz, so you will find them at the end of the ravine in the direction of the Wilderness of Yeruel.

17 You will not have to fight in this battle, but take your positions, stand still, and see the salvation of Yahweh, Who is with you, O Yahdah and Yerusalem! Do not be afraid nor be discouraged! Tomorrow go out against them, for Yahweh is with you!

18 Then Yahshaphat bowed his head with his face to the ground, and all Yahdah and the inhabitants of Yerusalem bowed in front of Yahweh, to worship Yahweh.

19 Then some Levites from the Kohathites and Korahites stood up and praised Yahweh, the Father of Israyl, with very loud voices.

20 Early in the morning they rose up and prepared to set out into the Wilderness of Tekoa. While they were going out, Yahshaphat stood up, and said; Hear me, O Yahdah and people of Yerusalem! Believe in Yahweh your Father, and you shall be established! Believe His prophets, and you shall succeed!

21 After consulting with the people, he appointed men to be clothed in the holy garments Yahweh ordained, to walk in front of the army singing; HalleluYahweh! Give thanks to Yahweh, for His love endures forever!

22 The moment they began to sing Yahweh's praises, Yahweh set ambushes for the people of Ammon, Moab and Mount Seir, who had come against Yahdah, and they were defeated.

23 The men of Ammon and Moab mounted an attack against the men from Mount Seir, to utterly kill and destroy them. Then, when they had finished off the inhabitants of Seir, they began to destroy one another.

24 When Yahdah came to the place that overlooks the wilderness, they looked for a multitude, but there were their dead bodies, fallen on the earth. No one had escaped.

25 When Yahshaphat and his men came to take the plunder, they found cattle in great abundance, equipment, garments, and costly articles beyond estimation, which they stripped off for themselves. There was more than they could carry away in one day, so they were there three days gathering the plunder, because there was so much of it.

26 Then on the fourth day they gathered in the Valley of Berachah, and there they blessed Yahweh. The name of that place was called The Valley of Berachah; Blessing, until this day.

27 With Yahshaphat in the lead, and every man of Yahdah and Yerusalem following him, they returned to Yerusalem with joy, for Yahweh had made them rejoice over their enemies.

28 They came to Yerusalem to The House of Yahweh with harps, zithers, and trumpets; chatsotserot.

29 And the terror of Yahweh was on all the kingdoms of the lands when they heard that Yahweh had fought against the enemies of Israyl.

30 Then the reign of Yahshaphat was peaceful, for his Father gave him rest on all his borders.

31 Yahshaphat was king over Yahdah. He was thirty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned twenty-five years in Yerusalem. His mother's name was Azubah, the daughter of Shilhi.

32 He walked in the way of his father Asa, and did not turn away from it, doing right in the eyes of Yahweh; servng Yahweh.

33 Nevertheless, the high places were not removed, for the people still had not set their hearts; minds, on Yahweh, the Father of their fathers.

34 Now the rest of the events of the reign of Yahshaphat, his first through his last, truly they are written in the book of Yahu son of Hanani, which are recorded in the book of the kings of Israyl.

35 Afterward, Yahshaphat king of Yahdah allied himself with Ahazyah, the king of Israyl, though this was wickedness on his part.

36 However, he allied himself with him to build ships to go to Tarshish. So they constructed the ships in Ezion Geber.

37 But Eliezer son of Dodayah of Mareshah prophesied against Yahshaphat, saying; Because you have allied yourself with Ahazyah, Yahweh will destroy what you have made! Then the ships were wrecked, and they were not able to go to Tarshish.

CHAP. 21

So Yahshaphat slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the City of David. And Yahram; Yahweh is Exalted, his son, succeeded him as king.

2 His brothers, sons of Yahshaphat, were

Azaryah, Yehiel, Zecharyah, Azaryah, Michael, and Shephatyah—all of them sons of Yahshaphat, the king of Yahdah.

3 Their father had presented them great gifts of silver, gold, and other valuables, along with fortified cities in Yahdah, but he had given the kingdom to Yahram, because he was his first-born son.

4 But when Yahram had become established over the kingdom, he killed all his brothers with the sword, along with some of the officials of Israyl.

5 Yahram was thirty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned eight years in Yerusalem.

6 He walked in the way of the kings of Israyl, just as the house of Ahab had done, for his wife was the daughter of Ahab, and he did evil in the eyes of Yahweh; servng the gods.

7 Yet Yahweh would not destroy the house of David, because of the covenant He had made with David, and since He had promised to give a lamp to him and to his descendants forever.

8 During his reign the Edomites rebelled against Yahdah's authority, and made a king over themselves.

9 So Yahram went against them with his officers and chariots. The Edomites surrounded him and his chariot officers, but he got up and broke through during the night.

10 So the Edomites have been in rebellion against Yahdah's authority to this day. At that time Libnah rebelled against his rule, because he had forsaken Yahweh, the Father of his fathers.

11 He also built high places in the hills of Yahdah, led the people of Yerusalem into prostituting themselves to the gods, and led Yahdah astray.

12 Then a letter came to him from Yliyah the prophet, saying; This is what Yahweh, the Father of your father David, says: Because you have not walked in the ways of Yahshaphat your father, nor in the ways of Asa king of Yahdah.

13 But have followed in the way of the kings of Israyl, and have caused Yahdah and the people of Yerusalem to prostitute themselves to the gods, just like the prostitution of the house of Ahab, and because you also have murdered your brothers, those of your own father's household, who were better than yourself!

14 Behold, Yahweh is going to strike your people, your sons, your wives, and everything that is yours, with a great blow—

15 And you will become very sick with a lingering disease of your intestines, until the disease causes your intestines to come out.

16 Then Yahweh stirred up against Yahram the Philistines and the Arabs, who lived near the Ethiopians.

17 They attacked Yahdah, invaded it, and carried off all the possessions found in the king's house, together with his sons and wives. Not a son remained to him but Yahachaz; Ahazyah, Yahweh has Seized, the youngest of his sons.

18 Then after all this, Yahweh struck him in his intestines with an incurable disease.

19 In the course of time, after the end of two years, his intestines came out because of his disease, and he died in severe pain. His people made no funeral fire for him, like the funeral fires for his fathers.

20 He was thirty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned in Yerusalem for eight years. He died, to no one's regret, and was buried in the City of David, but not in the tombs of the kings.

CHAP. 22

The people of Yerusalem made Ahazyah; Seized by Yahweh, the youngest son of Yahram, the king in his place, because the raiders who came with the Arabs against the camp had killed all the older ones. This was the reason Ahazyah, the son of Yahram king of Yahdah, became king.

2 Ahazyah was about twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned one year in Yerusalem. His mother's name was Athalyah, the granddaughter of Omri.

3 He also walked in the ways of the house of Ahab; servng the gods, for his mother taught him to do evil.

4 So he did evil in the eyes of Yahweh, just like the house of Ahab, for they counseled and advised him after the death of his father, to his own destruction.

5 He also followed their counsel when he went with Yahram son of Ahab, the king of Israyl, to war against Hazael king of Aram at Ramoth Gilead. The Arameans wounded Yahram of Israyl.

6 He returned to Yezreel to recuperate from the wounds he had received at Ramah, when he fought against Hazael king of Aram. Then Ahazyah son of Yahram king of Yahdah went down to visit Yahram son of Ahab in Yezreel, because he was sick.

7 Now the downfall of Ahazyah, when he went to visit Yahram, was Yahweh's doing, for when he arrived he went out with Yahram to Yahu son of Nimshi, whom Yahweh had anointed to cut off the house of Ahab.

8 When Yahu was carrying out the judgment on the house of Ahab, and found the officials of Yahdah and the sons of Ahazyah's relatives, who had been attending Ahazyah, and he killed them.

9 He then went in search of Ahazyah, and his men captured him while he was hiding in Samaria, and brought him to Yahu, who executed him. But they buried him, for they said; He is the son of Yahshaphat, who sought Yahweh with all his heart. However, there was no one remaining of the house of Ahazyah powerful enough to rule over the kingdom.

10 When Athalyah, the mother of Ahazyah, learned that her son was dead, she rose up and sought to destroy all the royal heirs of the house of Yahdah.

11 But Yahshabeath, the daughter of the king, took Yahash, her nephew, the son of Ahazyah, and stole him away from among the king's sons who were being murdered, and hid him and his nurse in a bedroom. So Yahshabeath, the daughter of King Yahram, the wife of Yahyada the High Priest, and the sister of King Ahazyah, hid Yahash from Athalyah, and she did not kill him.

12 He remained hidden by them in The House of Yahweh for six years, during which time Athalyah reigned over the land.

CHAP. 23

In the seventh year, Yahyada the High Priest gained support, and made a pact with the captains of hundreds, who were: Azaryah son of Yeroham, Ishmael son of Yahchanan, Azaryah son of Obed, Maaseyah son of Adayah, and Elishaphat son of Zichri.

2 They went throughout Yahdah and summoned the Levites from all the cities of Yahdah, along with the heads of the fathers' houses of Israel, and they came to Jerusalem.

3 The whole congregation made a covenant with the king in The House of Yahweh. Yahyada said to them; The king's son shall reign, just as Yahweh promised concerning the sons of David.

4 This is what you are to do: One-third of you, both priests and Levites, who enter for duty on the Sabbath shall keep watch at the gates.

5 One-third of you shall guard the house of the king, and one-third of you shall keep watch at the Gate of the Foundation. Meanwhile all the people shall remain in the courts of The House of Yahweh.

6 Allow no one to come into the Holy Place of The House of Yahweh, except the priests and the Levites who serve. They may go in, for they are consecrated, but all the other people must follow the statutes of Yahweh.

7 Then the Levites shall surround the king on all sides, every man with his weapon in his hand. Whoever enters into the House, let him be put to death. You are to remain with the king when he comes in and when he goes out.

8 So the Levites and all Yahdah did everything Yahyada the High Priest instructed. Each man took charge of his men, those who came on as well as they who went off Sabbath duty, for Yahyada the High Priest had dismissed none of the divisions from duty.

9 Then Yahyada the High Priest gave the captains of the hundreds the spears and the large and small shields that had belonged to King David, which were in The House of Yahweh.

10 He stationed all the men, every man with his weapon in his hand, all around the king—from the south side of the House to the north side of the House, near the altar to The House of Yahweh.

11 Then they brought out the king's son, placed the crown on him, gave him the Testimony, The Book of The Law, and made him king. Yahyadah and his sons anointed him, and proclaimed; Long live the king!

12 When Athalyah heard the sound of the people running and praising the king, she joined the people at The House of Yahweh.

13 When she looked, behold the king was standing by his column at the entrance, the captains and trumpeters were beside the king, all the people of the land were rejoicing and blowing the trumpets; chaotserot, and the singers with the musical instruments were leading the praises. Then Athalyah tore her clothes, and shouted; Treason! Treason!

14 Yahyada the High Priest sent out the captains of hundreds, who were officers over the army, and said to them; Take her away under guard, and slay with the sword whoever follows her! For the High Priest had given these orders; Do not kill her in The House of Yahweh.

15 So they seized her when she came to the entrance of the Horse Gate at the king's house, and they killed her there.

16 Then Yahyada made a covenant between himself, the people, and the king, that they would be Yahweh's people.

17 All the people went to the House of Baal; Lord, and tore it down. They smashed its altars and its images of the gods, and killed Mattan, the priest of Baal; Lord, in front of the altars.

18 Yahyada placed the care of The House of Yahweh into the hands of the priests, the Levites, whom David had appointed over The House of Yahweh to offer the burnt offerings of Yahweh, just as it is written in the Law given through Mosheh, with rejoicing and singing, as David had ordered.

19 He stationed the gatekeepers at the gates of The House of Yahweh, so that no one who was in any way unclean could enter.

20 Then he took the captains of the hundreds, the nobles, the governors of the people, and all the people of the land, and escorted the king from The House of Yahweh. They went into the king's house through the Upper Gate, and set the king on the throne of the kingdom.

21 So all the people of the land rejoiced, but those in the city were quiet, for they had killed Athalyah with the sword.

CHAP. 24

Yahash was seven years old when he became king, and he reigned forty years in Yerusalem. his mother's name was Zibiah of Beersheba.

2 Yahash did right in the eyes of Yahweh; serving Yahweh, during the lifetime of Yahyada the High Priest.

3 Yahyada acquired two wives for him, and he begot sons and daughters.

4 Afterward, Yahash set his heart; mind, on repairing The House of Yahweh.

5 He summoned the priests and the Levites, and said to them; Go out to the cities of Yahdah, and collect money from all Israyl year after year in order to repair The House of Yahweh your Father. Do this thing immediately. However, the Levites were in no hurry.

6 So the king summoned Yahyada the High Priest, and asked him; Why have you not required the Levites to bring in from Yahdah and Yerusalem the tax which Mosheh, the servant of Yahweh, and the congregation of Israyl imposed for the Tent of the Testimony?

7 Now the sons of Athalyah, that wicked woman, had broken into The House of Yahweh, and had presented all the dedicated things of The House of Yahweh as objects for the Baalim; Lords Gods, and Goddesses.

* 8 So at the king's direction, they constructed a chest and set it outside, at the gate of The House of Yahweh.

9 They issued a proclamation throughout Yahdah and Yerusalem, instructing them to bring to Yahweh the tax which Mosheh, the servant of Yahweh, had imposed on Israyl in the wilderness.

10 All the officials and all the people rejoiced, brought in and deposited their contributions in the chest, until it was full.

11 Whenever the chest was brought in by the Levites for the king's officials to inspect, and they saw there was a large enough amount of money, the royal scribe and the official of the High Priest would come and empty the chest, and then return it to its place. They did so day after day, and so collected money in abundance.

12 Then the king and Yahyada gave it to those who did the work of the service of The House of Yahweh, and they hired stonemasons and carpenters to repair The House of Yahweh, as well as those who worked in iron and bronze to restore The House of Yahweh.

13 The workmen labored, and the work progressed, until they had restored The House of Yahweh to its original condition and proper state.

14 When they had finished, they returned the surplus money to the king and Yahyada. From this they made articles for The House of Yahweh, articles for the service and the burnt offerings, and also ladles and other objects of gold and silver. They offered burnt offerings in The House of Yahweh continually all during the lifetime of Yahyada.

15 But Yahyada grew old and full of years, and he died at the age of one hundred and thirty.

16 They buried him in the City of David among the kings, because he had done righteousness in Israyl, both toward Yahweh and toward His House.

17 After the death of Yahyada, the officials of Yahdah came and bowed down to the king, and he yielded to them.

18 They abandoned The House of Yahweh, the Father of their fathers, and served the Asherahs; The Sacred Poles, and the images of the gods, so wrath came upon Yahdah and Yerusalem because of their guilt.

19 So He sent prophets among them to bring them back to Yahweh. They testified against them, but they refused to listen.

20 Then the Spirit of Yahweh came upon Zecharyah, the son of Yahyada the High Priest. He stood in front of the people, and said to them; This is what Yahweh says: Why do you transgress the commandments of Yahweh, to make yourselves unable to succeed? Because you have forsaken Yahweh, He also has forsaken you!

21 So they conspired and plotted against him, and at the king's orders they stoned him to death in the court of The House of Yahweh.

22 So King Yahash did not remember the kindness; chesed, which Yahyada, Zecharyah's father, had done for him, but he killed his son. As he died, he cried out; May Yahweh look upon this, and may He repay!

23 And it came to pass during the ● Feast Circuit (tekufah), in the springtime, that the army of Aram came up to attack him. They came to Yahdah and Yerusalem, and annihilated all the leaders of the people from among the people, and dispatched all their possessions to the king of Damascus.

24 Although the army of Arameans came with a small company of men, Yahweh delivered a very great army into their hands, because they had forsaken Yahweh, the Father of their fathers. Therefore they executed judgment against Yahash.

25 When the Arameans withdrew, they left Yahash severely wounded. Then his officials conspired against him for the blood of the son of Yahyada the priest, and killed him on his bed. He died, and they buried him in the City of David, but they did not bury him in the tombs of the kings.

26 These are the men who conspired against him: Zabad son of Shimeath, the Ammonitess, and Yahzabad son of Shimrith, the Moabitess.

27 Now the record of his sons, the many oracles about him, and the repairing of The House of Yahweh, truly are written in the records of the book of the kings. Then Amazyah his son succeeded him as king.

CHAP. 25

Amazyah; Yahweh will Establish, was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Yahaddan; Delightful to Yahweh, of Jerusalem.

2 He did right in the eyes of Yahweh; servng Yahweh, but not with a perfect heart.

3 When the kingdom was established in his hands, he executed his officials who had murdered his father, the king.

4 However, he did not execute their children, for it is written in the Law, in the book of Mo-sheh, which Yahweh commanded, saying; The fathers shall not be put to death for their children, nor shall the children be put to death for their fathers, but a person shall die for his own sin.

5 Amazyah summoned the people of Yahdah together, and assigned them to captains of thousands and captains of hundreds, according to their fathers' houses, throughout all Yahdah and Benyamin. He took a census of them from twenty years old and older, and found them to be 300,000 capable men, ready for service, and able to handle spear and shield.

6 He also hired 100,000 warriors from Israyl for a hundred talents of silver; about 3 3/4 tons.

7 But a man of Yahweh came to him, and said, O king, do not allow the army of Israyl to go with you, for Yahweh is not with Israyl, nor with any of the children of Ephraim.

8 Even if you go and fight courageously in battle, Yahweh will make you fall in front of your enemy, for Yahweh has the power to help, or to throw down.

9 Then Amazyah said to the man of Yahweh; But what am I to do about the hundred talents I have given to the troops from Israyl? The man of Yahweh answered him; Yahweh is able to give you much more than that.

10 So Amazyah dismissed the troops that had come to him from Ephraim, so they might return to their homes. But their anger burned against Yahdah, and they returned to their homes greatly angered.

11 However, Amazyah took courage, led out his people, went to the Valley of Salt, and there killed 10,000 of the men of Seir.

12 The children of Yahdah took captive another 10,000 alive, brought them to the top of a rock, then threw them off the rock, so they all were dashed to pieces.

13 Meanwhile the men of the army of Israyl, which Amazyah had dismissed so they would not accompany them into battle, raided the cities of Yahdah from Samaria to Beth Horon, killed 3,000 of them, and carried away much plunder.

14 When Amazyah returned from the slaughter of the Edomites, he brought back the gods of the people of Seir, and set them up to be his own gods. He bowed down in front of them and burned incense to them.

15 So the anger of Yahweh burned against Amazyah, and He sent a prophet to him, who said to him; Why have you inquired of the gods of the people who could not even save their own people from your hands?

16 As he was speaking to him, the king said to him; Have we made you the king's advisor? Stop, or you will be struck down! The prophet ceased, and said; I know that Yahweh has set His mind to destroy you, because you have done this, and have not listened to my counsel.

17 Then Amazyah king of Yahdah consulted with his advisers, and issued a call to combat to Yahash, the son of Yahahaz, the son of Yahu, the king of Israyl, saying; Come, let us face each other in battle.

18 But Yahash king of Israyl responded to Amazyah king of Yahdah, saying; The thistle in Lebanon sent word to the cedar in Lebanon, and said; Give your daughter to my son in marriage. But a wild beast came along and trampled the thistle.

19 You have truly defeated Edom, and your heart is lifted up with pride. Glory in your success, but stay at home! Why should you meddle in trouble that will only cause your downfall—yours, and Yahdah with you!

20 But Amazyah would not listen, for this came from Yahweh so He could deliver them into the hands of Yahash, because he inquired of the gods of Edom.

21 So Yahash king of Israyl went up, and he and Amazyah king of Yahdah faced each other at Beth Shemesh in Yahdah.

22 Yahdah was defeated by Israyl, and every man fled to his own home.

23 Yahash, the king of Israyl, captured Amazyah king of Yahdah, the son of Yahash, the son of Yahahaz, at Beth Shemesh. Then he went to Jerusalem, and broke down the wall of Jerusalem from the Gate of Ephraim to the Corner Gate, a section four hundred cubits long; about 600 feet.

24 He took all the gold and silver articles found in The House of Yahweh under the charge of the sons of Obed-Edom, and in the treasuries of the king's house, along with captives, and returned to Samaria.

25 Amazyah son of Yahash, the king of Yahdah, lived fifteen years after the death of Yahash son of Yahahaz, the king of Israyl.

26 Now the rest of the events of the reign of Amazyah, his first through his last, truly are they not written in the book of the kings of Yahdah and Israyl?

27 From the time that Amazyah forsook Yahweh, they plotted a conspiracy against him in Yerusalem, so he fled to Lachish. But they dispatched men to Lachish after him, and killed him there.

28 Then they carried him back on horses, and buried him with his fathers in the City of Yahdah.

CHAP. 26

Then all the people of Yahdah took • Uzziyah: Strength of Yahweh, who was sixteen years old, and made him king in the place of his father Amazyah.

2 He rebuilt Elath and restored it to Yahdah, after the king slept with his fathers.

3 Uzziyah was sixteen years old when he became king, and he reigned fifty-two years in Yerusalem. His mother's name was Yecholyah; Yahweh will Enable, of Yerusalem.

4 He did right in the eyes of Yahweh, in all the ways his father Amazyah had done.

5 He inquired of Yahweh just as long as Zecharyah, who instructed him in the reverence of Yahweh, lived, and just as long as he sought Yahweh, Yahweh gave him success.

6 He went out and fought against the Philistines, and broke down the wall of Gath, the wall of Yavneh, and the wall of Ashdod, and built cities in the region around Ashdod and in the other territories of the Philistines.

7 Yahweh helped him against the Philistines, against the Arabs at Gur Baal, and against the Meunites.

8 The Ammonites brought tribute to Uzziyah, and his renown spread as far as the border of Egypt, because he had become very powerful.

9 Uzziyah built towers in Yerusalem at the Corner gate, at the Valley Gate, and at the corner buttress of the wall, and fortified them.

10 He also built towers in the wilderness and dug out many cisterns, because he had much livestock in the Shephelah; foothills, and in the plain. He had farmers and vinedressers in the mountains and in the fertile lands, for he loved the soil.

11 Uzziyah had an army of well-trained fighting men ready for service, who were organized in companies according to the number on their roll, as prepared by Yeiel the scribe and Maaseyah the officer, under the direction of Hananyah, one of the king's officials.

12 The total number of chief family leaders over the fighting men was 2,600.

13 Under their command was an army of 307,500 trained warriors, a powerful force to uphold the king against the enemy.

14 Uzziyah provided shields, spears, helmets, armor, bows, and slings to cast stones for the entire army.

15 He constructed devices on the towers and corners in Yerusalem, designed by skillful men, which could shoot arrows and hurl large stones. So his renown spread far and wide, for he was greatly helped until he became powerful.

16 But when he became powerful his heart was lifted up with pride, to his own destruction, for he transgressed against Yahweh his Father by entering The House of Yahweh to burn incense on the altar of incense.

17 Azaryah the High Priest, accompanied by eighty brave priests of Yahweh, went in after him.

18 They confronted King Uzziyah, and said to him: It is not permissible for you, Uzziyah, to burn incense to Yahweh. Only the priests, the sons of Aaron, who are consecrated for that purpose, may burn incense. Leave the sanctuary, for you have trespassed! You will receive no honor from Yahweh our Father!

19 Uzziyah, who had a censer in his hand ready to burn incense, became furious. While he was raging at the priests in front of the altar of incense in The House of Yahweh, leprosy broke out on his forehead.

20 When Azaryah the High Priest and all the other priests looked at him, they saw that he was leprous on his forehead, so they hurried him out of that place. He also was anxious to get out, because Yahweh had struck him.

21 King Uzziyah was a leper until the day of his death. He lived in a house where he was relieved of responsibility, because he was a leper, and was excluded from The House of Yahweh. So Yahtham: Yahweh is Perfect, the king's son, had charge in the king's house, and judged the people of the land.

22 Now the rest of the events of the reign of Uzziyah, from his first through his last, are written by Isayah son of Amoz, the prophet.

23 So Uzziyah slept with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in a field of burial which belonged to the kings, because the people said: He is a leper. Then Yahtham his son succeeded him as king.

• The name, UZZIYAH is frequently referred to as AZARYAH in many of the genealogies. The Chronicler may have avoided the name Azaryah, since this was the name of the High Priest during the incident at the altar of incense in The House of Yahweh (II Chronicles 26:18).

LEPROSY, in the Scriptures, is a generic term under which were included all kinds of skin ailments. The disease Uzziyah-Azaryah incurred kept him from participating in any areas relating to the king's duties pertaining to The House of Yahweh. Yahtham took over his official duties, while he was relieved of responsibility.

CHAP. 27

Yahtham was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned sixteen years in Yerusalem. His mother's name was Yerushah, the daughter of Zadok.

2 He did right in the eyes of Yahweh, just as his father Uzziyah (Azaryah) had done; but unlike him, he did not enter The House of Yahweh. However, the people continued to do wrong.

3 He built the Upper Gate of The House of Yahweh, and he built extensively onto the wall of the Ophel.

4 He also built cities in the hills of Yahdah, and in the forests he built fortresses and towers.

5 He fought against the king of the Ammonites and defeated them. The people of Ammon brought him tribute that year of one hundred talents of silver, about 3 3/4 tons, ten thousand kors of wheat and ten thousand kors of barley; about 65,000 bushels. The people of Ammon also paid him this amount in the second and third years, as well.

6 Yahtham became powerful because he continued steadfastly in Yahweh's ways, in front of Yahweh his Father.

7 Now the rest of the events of the reign of Yahtham, all his wars and his exploits, truly are written in the book of the kings of Israyl and Yahdah.

8 He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned sixteen years in Yerusalem.

9 So Yahtham slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the City of David. Then Ahaz his son succeeded him as king.

CHAP. 28

Ahaz was twenty years old when he became king, and he reigned sixteen years in Yerusalem, but he did not do right in the eyes of Yahweh, as his father David had done.

2 For he walked in the ways of the kings of Israyl, and made molded images in order to worship the Baalim; Lords, Gods, and Goddesses.

3 He burned incense in the Valley of Ben Hinnom, and sacrificed his children in the fire, in accordance with the abominations of the nations, whom Yahweh had driven out from in front of the children of Israyl.

4 He sacrificed and burned incense on the high places, on the hilltops, and under every spreading tree.

5 Because of these things, Yahweh his Father delivered him into the hands of the king of Aram. They defeated him and took a large number of them as captives, and brought them to Damascus. He was also delivered into the hands of the king of Israyl, who inflicted heavy casualties on him.

6 Pekah son of Remalyah, killed 120,000 in Yahdah in one day, all of them fighting men, because they had forsaken Yahweh, the Father of their fathers.

7 Zichri, a mighty warrior of Ephraim, killed Maseyah, the king's son, Azrikam, the officer in charge of the king's house, and Elkanah, the second to the king.

8 The children of Israyl carried away as captives 200,000 of the wives, sons, and daughters of their kinsmen. They also seized a large amount of plunder, which they carried back to Samaria.

9 But there was at that place a prophet of Yahweh, whose name was Oded. He went out in front of the army that had returned to Samaria, and said to them; Because Yahweh, the Father of your fathers, was angry with Yahdah, He delivered them into your hands. But you killed them in a rage that reaches to heaven.

10 Now you intend to make the children of Yahdah and Yerusalem your own male and female slaves, but are you not also guilty of committing sin in front of Yahweh your Father?

11 Listen to me now and return the captives you took from your brothers, or the fierce wrath of Yahweh will fall upon you.

12 Then some of the chiefs of the children of Ephraim, Azaryah son of Yahchanan, Berechyah son of Meshillemoth, Yechizkiyah son of Shallum, and Amasa son of Hadlai, confronted those who returned from the war,

13 And said to them; You must not bring the captives here, for we have already offended Yahweh. You intend to multiply our sins and our guilt, although our guilt is enough to bring fierce wrath against Israyl!

14 So the armed men left the captives and the plunder in front of the captains and the whole congregation.

15 Then the men who were designated by name, took the captives and, from the plunder, they clothed all who were naked. They provided them with clothing and sandals, with food and drink, and anointed them with oil; and they let all the weak ones ride on donkeys. They brought them to Yericho, the city of palms, to their brothers, then they returned to Samaria.

16 At that time King Ahaz had sent to the kings of Assyria for help.

17 For the Edomites had come again, attacked Yahdah, and carried away captives.

18 The Philistines had also invaded the cities of the Shephelah; foothills, and the Negev of Yahdah, and had captured Beth Shemesh, Aiyalon, Gederoth, Sochoh with its surrounding villages, Timnah with its surrounding villages, and Gimzo with its surrounding villages, and they settled there.

19 Yahweh humbled Yahdah because of Ahaz king of Israyl, for he had promoted wickedness in Yahdah, and had been continually unfaithful to Yahweh.

20 But Tiglath Pileser, king of Assyria came up against him and oppressed him, rather than assisting him.

21 Ahaz took some of the things from The House of Yahweh, from the king's house, and from the leaders of the people, and gave them to the king of Assyria, but that did not help him.

22 In the very time of his trouble, he became even more unfaithful to Yahweh! That was King Ahaz!

23 He offered sacrifices to the gods of Damascus who had defeated him, for he thought; Because the gods of the kings of Aram helped them, I will offer sacrifice to them, and it may be they will help me. But they were the downfall of him, and the downfall of all Israyl.

24 Ahaz gathered together the furnishings of The House of Yahweh, and cut them up. He shut up the doors of The House of Yahweh, and made altars for himself in every corner of Yerusalem.

25 In every city in Yahdah he built Houses with High Places to burn sacrifices to hinder gods, and provoked Yahweh, the Father of his fathers, to wrath.

26 Now the rest of the events of his reign, and all his ways, from the first through his last, truly are written in the book of the kings of Yahdah and Israyl.

27 So Ahaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city, in Yerusalem, but they did not bring him into the tombs of the kings of Israyl. Then Hezekyah his son succeeded him as king.

CHAP. 29

Hezekyah; Chizkiyah, Yahweh will Prevail, became king when he was twenty-five years old, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Yerusalem. His mother's name was Abiyah, the daughter of Zecharyah.

2 He did right in the eyes of Yahweh; servicing Yahweh, just as his father David had done.

3 In the first year of his reign, in the First Moon, he opened the doors of The House of Yahweh and repaired them.

4 He brought in the priests and the Levites, gathered them together in the square on the east side,

5 And said to them; Listen to me, Levites! Consecrate and sanctify yourselves now, and consecrate and sanctify The House of Yahweh, the Father of your fathers, and remove the impurity and defilement from the sanctuary.

6 Our fathers have trespassed, being untrue, and have done evil in the eyes of Yahweh our Father. They have forsaken Him; they have turned their faces away from the dwelling place of Yahweh, and have turned their backs on Him!

7 They have also shut up the doors of the porch, and put out the lamps. They have not burned incense, nor have they presented any burnt offerings in the sanctuary of Yahweh, the Father of Israyl.

8 Because of these things, the wrath of Yahweh fell upon Yahdah and Yerusalem, and He has made them the object of terror, horror, and ridicule, as you can see with your own eyes.

9 This is why our fathers have fallen by the sword, and our sons, our daughters, and our wives have gone into captivity.

10 Now it is in my heart; mind, to make a covenant with Yahweh, the Father of Israyl, so His fierce wrath might turn away from us.

11 My sons, do not be negligent now, for Yahweh has chosen you to stand in front of Him, to serve Him, to minister in front of Him, and to burn incense.

12 Then the Levites rose up—Mahath son of Amasai and Yahyl son of Azaryah, from the line of Kohath. Then from the line of Merari were Kish son of Abdi and Azaryah son of Yehallelel. From the line of Gershon were Yahach son of Zimmah and Eden son of Yahach.

13 Of the sons of Elizaphan were Shimri and Yeiel. Of the sons of Asaph were Zecharyah and Mattanyah.

14 Of the sons of Heman were Yehiel and Shimei, and of the sons of Yeduthun were Shemayah and Uzziel.

15 They gathered their brothers, consecrated and sanctified themselves, and went in to purify and sanctify The House of Yahweh.

16 The priests went into the inner part of The House of Yahweh to cleanse and purify it. They brought out, to the courtyard of Yahweh's House, everything unclean that they found in The House of Yahweh, then the Levites took it out and carried it to the Kidron Valley.

17 They began the consecration on the first day of the First Moon, and by the eighth day of the moon they had reached the porch of Yahweh, so in eight days they had consecrated and sanctified The House of Yahweh, and by the sixteenth day of the First Moon they were finished.

18 Then they went to King Hezekyah, and reported; We have cleansed all The House of Yahweh, the altar of burnt offering with all its related articles, and the table for the showbread with all its related articles.

19 We have prepared and sanctified all the articles that King Ahaz removed in his transgression while he was king, and they are in front of the altar of Yahweh.

20 King Hezekyah rose early the next morning, gathered the chiefs of the city together, and went up to The House of Yahweh.

21 They brought seven bulls, seven rams, seven male lambs, along with seven male goats as a sin offering for the kingdom, for the sanctuary, and for Yahdah. Then he instructed the priests, the sons of Aaron, to offer them on the altar of Yahweh.

22 So they slaughtered the bulls, and the priests took the blood, and sprinkled it toward the altar. They slaughtered the rams, and sprinkled the blood toward the altar. They also slaughtered the lambs, and sprinkled the blood toward the altar.

23 Then they brought the goats for the sin offering before the king and the congregation, and they laid their hands upon them.

24 Then the priests slaughtered them, and made a sin offering with their blood at the altar, to make atonement for all Israyl; for the king had ordered a burnt offering and a sin offering for all Israyl.

25 Then he stationed the Levites in The House of Yahweh with cymbals, with zithers, and with harps, according to the order of David, of Gad the king's seer, and of Nathan the prophet, for this was the commandment of Yahweh by His prophets.

26 The Levites stood at attention with the instruments of David, while the priests were ready with the trumpets; chatsotserot.

27 Then Hezekyah ordered them to offer the burnt offering on the altar. When the burnt offering began, the songs of Yahweh and the trumpets also began, to the accompaniment of the instruments of David, the king of Israyl.

28 While the whole congregation worshiped, the singers sang, and the trumpeters sounded the trumpets, all continuing until the burnt offering was completed.

29 When the sacrifice was completed, the king and all who were with him kneeled down and worshiped.

30 King Hezekyah and his officials ordered the Levites to sing praise to Yahweh with the words of David and of Asaph the seer. So they sang praises with gladness, and they bowed their heads and worshiped.

31 Then Hezekyah responded, and said: Now that you have consecrated and sanctified yourselves to Yahweh, draw near and bring sacrifices and thank offerings into The House of Yahweh. So the congregation brought sacrifices and thank offerings, and all who had a willing heart brought burnt offerings.

32 The number of burnt offerings which the congregation brought was: 70 bulls, 100 rams, and 200 male lambs—all of these were offered as burnt offerings to Yahweh.

33 The consecrated gifts were: 600 bulls and 3,000 sheep.

34 However, the Aaronic priests were too few in number at that time, to skin all the burnt offerings, so their brothers the Levites assisted them until the work was finished, and until other Aaronic priests had consecrated and sanctified themselves, for the Levites were more conscientious in sanctifying themselves than the Aaronic priests.

35 There were burnt offerings in abundance, together with the fat of the peace offerings, along with the drink offerings with every burnt offering. So the service of The House of Yahweh was reestablished.

36 Then Hezekyah and all the people rejoiced about what Yahweh had brought about for the people, because the events came to pass so quickly.

CHAP. 30

Hezekyah sent word to all Israyl and Yahdah, and also wrote letters to Ephraim and Menasheh, inviting them to come to The House of Yahweh at Yerusalem, to ● keep the Passover to Yahweh, the Father of Israyl,

2 For the king, his officials, and all the congregation in Yerusalem had agreed to keep the Passover in the Second Moon.

3 Now they had been unable to keep it at the proper time in the First Moon because the priests had not consecrated and sanctified themselves in sufficient numbers, and the people were not gathered together at Yerusalem.

4 This decision seemed right to the king and all the congregation.

5 So they resolved to issue a proclamation throughout all Israyl, from Beersheba to Dan, inviting them to come to keep the Passover to Yahweh, the Father of Israyl, at Yerusalem, since they had not held The Feast of Unleavened Bread according to what was written for a long time.

6 The runners went throughout all Israyl and Yahdah carrying the letters from the king and his officials, with the following message: Children of Israyl, return to Yahweh, the Father of Abraham, Isaac, and Israyl. He then will return to the remnant of you who have escaped from the hands of the kings of Assyria.

7 Do not be like your fathers and your brothers who trespassed against and wronged Yahweh, the Father of our fathers, Who handed them over to desolation, as you see.

8 Do not be stiffnecked, as your fathers were, but submit yourselves to Yahweh. Enter His sanctuary, which He has sanctified forever, and serve Yahweh your Father, so the fierceness of His wrath may turn away from you.

9 If you return to Yahweh, your brothers and your children will be dealt with compassion-

● The word KEEP is translated from the word, ASAH, #6213 in Strong's Hebrew Dictionary, which means to MAKE or DO in the widest applications, including OFFER, PREPARE, SACRIFICE, and HOLD A FEAST, Leviticus 23:5-6, Numbers 9:2-14, II Chronicles 35:1-19, Ezraiah 6:19-22.

ately by those who led them captive, and will be permitted to return to this land, for Yahweh your Father is merciful and compassionate. He will not turn His face from you, if you will return to Him.

10 So the runners went from city to city throughout the land of Ephraim and Menasheh, as far as Zebulun, but the people ridiculed and mocked them.

11 Nonetheless, some from Asher, Menasheh, and Zebulun humbled themselves, and came to Jerusalem.

12 The hand of Yahweh was upon Yahdah, to give the people a unity of mind to obey the orders of the king and his officials, which followed the word of Yahweh.

13 A huge crowd of people, a numerous congregation, gathered together to keep the Feast of Unleavened Bread in the Second Moon.

14 So they rose up and took away the altars in Yerusalem, and also removed the incense altars, and threw them into the Kidron Valley,

15 Then they • sacrificed the Passover lambs on the fourteenth day of the Second Moon. The priests and the Levites were ashamed, so they consecrated and sanctified themselves, and brought burnt offerings to The House of Yahweh.

16 They then stood at their stations as prescribed in the Law given through Mosheh, the man of Yahweh, and sprinkled the blood which they received from the hands of the Levites.

17 Since many in the crowd had not sanctified themselves, the Levites had to kill the Passover lambs for all those who were not ceremonially clean, and who could not consecrate their lambs to Yahweh.

18 There were a multitude of people, especially from Ephraim, Menasheh, Issachar, and Zebulun, who had not cleansed themselves, yet they ate the Passover, contrary to what was written. But Hezekyah prayed for them, and said; May Yahweh, Who is forgiving, pardon everyone—

19 Who determines in his heart; mind, to seek our Father Yahweh, the Father of our fathers, even though he is not cleansed according to the specifications of the ceremonial purification of the sanctuary.

20 And Yahweh listened to Hezekyah, and healed the people.

21 Then the children of Israyl, who were present at Yerusalem, observed the Feast of Unleavened Bread for seven days with great joy, and the Levites and the priests praised Yahweh day after day in song, accompanied by the resounding instruments used to praise Yahweh.

22 Hezekyah also complimented all the Levites who had exhibited their understanding of the conduct of the service of Yahweh. After they had eaten throughout the seven day Feast—during which they sacrificed peace offerings and praised Yahweh, the Father of their fathers, by extending their hands in worship and reverence of Him—

23 The whole congregation agreed to keep the Feast for another seven days, so they kept it for seven more days with joy.

24 King Hezekyah gave the whole congregation 1,000 bulls and 7,000 sheep, and the officials gave them 1,000 bulls and 10,000 sheep, and a large number of priests consecrated and sanctified themselves.

25 The whole congregation of Yahweh rejoiced, along with the priests and the Levites, the congregation of Israyl, including the sojourners who came from the land of Israyl, as well as those who lived in Yahdah.

26 There was great joy in Yerusalem. Nothing like this had taken place in Yerusalem since the days of Solomon son of David, the king of Israyl.

27 Then the priests, who are Levites, stood up and blessed the people; and Yahweh listened to them, for their prayer came up to heaven, His holy dwelling place.

CHAP. 31

When all this was over, all Israyl who had been present there, went out to the cities of Yahdah, and broke the sacred pillars, cut the sacred poles into pieces, and threw down the houses and altars on the high places. They did this in all Yahdah, Benyamin, Ephraim, and Menasheh. After they had completely destroyed all of them, the children of Israyl returned to their own cities, every man to his own property.

2 Hezekyah appointed the priests and the Levites to their divisions, corresponding to their assigned responsibilities. The priests and Levites were to offer burnt offerings and peace offerings, to minister, to call to remembrance Yahweh's Name, and to give thanks and praise in the courts of The House of Yahweh.

3 The king also dedicated a portion of his possessions for the service of the burnt offerings, which were: the morning and evening Tamid, the continual daily burnt offerings, the burnt offerings for the Sabbaths, for the New Moons, and for the appointed set Feasts of Yahweh, as prescribed in the Law of Yahweh.

4 Hezekyah commanded the people who lived in Yerusalem to contribute to the support of the priests and the Levites, so they could occupy themselves exclusively with the Law of Yahweh.

5 As soon as the order was proclaimed, the children of Israyl brought their firstfruits of grain, wine, oil, honey, and all the produce of the field in abundance. They brought in the tithe of everything in great quantities.

6 The children of Israyl and Yahdah, who lived in the cities of Yahdah, brought the tithes of oxen and sheep, and the tithes of the holy things consecrated to Yahweh their Father, and they piled them in heaps.

7 In the Third Moon they began to accumulate the piles, and by the Seventh Moon they were finished.

8 When Hezekyah and his officials came and saw these heaps, they praised Yahweh and blessed His people Israyl.

9 Then Hezekyah consulted the priests and the Levites about the heaps.

10 And Azaryah the High Priest, from the house of Zadok, answered him, and said; Since they began to bring the contributions to The House of Yahweh, there has been enough to eat, with plenty to spare. Yahweh has blessed His people, and this great amount is left over.

11 Then Hezekyah gave orders to prepare storerooms in The House of Yahweh, and they prepared them.

12 Then they faithfully brought in the contributions, the tithes, and the dedicated things. Conanyah, a Levite, was placed in charge of these things, and his brother Shimei was his assistant.

13 Yehiel, Azazyah, Nahath, Asahel, Yerimoth, Yahzabad, Eliel, Ismachyah, Mahath, and Benayah were supervisors under Conanyah and Shimei his brother, by the orders of Hezekyah the king and Azaryah the official in charge of The House of Yahweh.

14 Kore, a Levite, the son of Imnah, the keeper of the East Gate, was in charge of the freewill offerings to Yahweh, and over the distribution of the contributions to Yahweh and the dedicated things.

15 His faithful and loyal assistants in the priestly cities were Eden, Minyamin, Yahshua, Shemayah, Amaryah, and Shecanyah, who distributed these to their brothers according to their divisions, old and young alike.

16 In addition, they distributed to the males thirty years old and older—whose names were in the genealogical records, and who entered The House of Yahweh to perform the daily duties of their various tasks, according to their responsibilities and their divisions.

17 They also distributed to the priests registered by their father's house in the genealogical records, and also to the Levites who were twenty years old and older, according to their responsibilities and their divisions.

18 And the official genealogy included all their small children, their wives, their sons, and their daughters—the whole company of them, because they were faithful in consecrating themselves.

19 The sons of Aaron, the priests who occupied the fields of the common-lands of their cities, had men of renown in every city ready to distribute portions to every male among the priests and to everyone included in the official genealogy of the Levites.

20 Hezekyah did this throughout all Yahdah, doing what was beneficial, right, and true in front of Yahweh his Father.

21 In every work he undertook in the service of The House of Yahweh, and in the obedience of the Law and commandments, he sought Yahweh with all his heart, and he succeeded.

CHAP. 32

After all these works of faithfulness, Sennacherib king of Assyria came up and invaded Yahdah. He laid siege to the fortified cities, thinking to conquer them for himself.

2 When Hezekyah learned that Sennacherib had come, and that he intended to make war against Yerusalem,

3 He consulted with his officials and military commanders about closing up the water sources outside the city, and they helped him.

4 A large number of people gathered together to stop up all the springs, and the brook that ran through the land, saying; Why should the kings of Assyria find abundant water supplies when they come?

5 He also worked with determination, and repaired every section of the wall that was damaged, built towers on it, then built another wall on the outside of that one, and reinforced the Millo in the City of David. He also manufactured weapons and shields in abundance.

6 He appointed military officers over the people, and summoned them together in front of him in the open square of the city gate. He gave them encouragement, saying;

7 Be strong and courageous! Do not be afraid, nor be discouraged, before the king of Assyria and all the multitude coming with him, for there are more with us than with him!

8 With him is only an arm of flesh, but with us is Yahweh our Father, Who will help us and fight our battles! And the people were encouraged by the words of Hezekyah, the king of Yahdah.

9 After this, Sennacherib king of Assyria dispatched his officers to Yerusalem (but he and the forces under his command laid siege against Lachish), to Hezekyah and all Yahdah with him, with the following message;

10 This is what Sennacherib king of Assyria says; What refuge do you trust in, that you remain under siege in Yerusalem?

11 Does not Hezekyah deceive you, in order to let you die of hunger and thirst, when he says to you: Yahweh our Father will save us from the hands of the king of Assyria?

12 Has not this same Hezekyah removed the Houses with the High Places and the altars, saying: You must worship before one altar and burn incense on it?

13 Do you not realize what I and my fathers have done to all the peoples of other lands? Were the gods of those nations ever able to deliver their land from my hands?

14 Who, of all the gods of these nations that my fathers destroyed, has been able to save their people from me? How, then, can your god save you from my hands?

15 Do not allow Hezekyah to lie to you and deceive you like this! Do not believe him! No god of any nation or kingdom has ever been able to deliver his people from my hands, or the hands of my fathers! How much less can your god deliver you from my hands?

16 His officers spoke still further against Yahweh, Hezekyah's Father, and against Hezekyah, Yahweh's servant.

17 He also wrote letters reviling Yahweh, the Father of Israyl, to speak against Him, saying: Just as the gods of the peoples of the nations did not deliver their people from my hands, so the god of Hezekyah will not save his people from my hands.

18 Then they called out with a loud voice in Hebrew to the people of Yerusalem who stood on the wall, to frighten and terrify them, so they might take the city.

19 They spoke about the Father of Yerusalem in the same way as they would about the gods of the people of the earth—the work of men's hands!

20 Now because of this, King Hezekyah and the prophet Isayah, the son of Amoz, prayed, and cried out toward Yahweh in heaven.

21 Then Yahweh sent a malak, who destroyed every fighting man, and the leaders and captains in the camp of the king of Assyria. So he withdrew to his own land in dishonor. And, when he went into the house of his god, some of his own sons cut him down with the sword.

22 So Yahweh saved Hezekyah and the people of Yerusalem from the hands of Sennacherib king of Assyria, and from the hands of all others, and He gave them peace on every side.

23 Then many brought offerings to Yahweh at Yerusalem, and valuable gifts to Hezekyah king of Yahdah. From then on he was greatly esteemed in the eyes of the people of all the nations.

24 At that time, Hezekyah became sick and near death, so he prayed to Yahweh, Who answered him and gave him a sign.

25 But Hezekyah did not respond according to the benefit he received, but he became proud. Because of this, Yahweh's wrath was about to fall upon him, and upon Yahdah and Yerusalem.

26 But Hezekyah humbled himself, and repented for the pride of his heart, as did the people of Yerusalem, so Yahweh's wrath did not come upon them during the lifetime of Hezekyah.

27 Hezekyah became very rich, and was held in great honor. He made treasuries for his silver, gold, precious stones, spices, shields, and for all kinds of valuables.

28 He also constructed buildings to store the harvests of grain, wine, and oil, and he built stalls for various kinds of livestock, and pens for flocks.

29 He also provided cities for himself, in addition to great numbers of flocks and herds, for Yahweh had given him very great riches.

30 This same Hezekyah also stopped the water-outlet of Upper Gihon, and brought the water in by a tunnel on the west side of the City of David. Hezekyah was successful in everything he undertook.

31 But when the officials were sent by the rulers of Babylon, inquiring about the sign that was done in the land, Yahweh withdrew from him, in order to test him, so He might know all that was in his heart; mind.

32 Now the rest of the events of the reign of Hezekyah, and his acts of love, truly are written in the vision of Isayah, the son of Amoz, the prophet, in the book of the kings of Yahdah and Israyl.

33 So Hezekyah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the upper tombs of the sons of David. All Yahdah and the people of Yerusalem honored him when he died. And Menasheh his son succeeded him as king.

CHAP. 33

Menasheh; Making to Forget, was twelve years old when he became king, and he reigned fifty-five years in Yerusalem.

2 But he did evil in the eyes of Yahweh; servicing the gods, following the abominable practices of the nations whom Yahweh had driven out from in front of the children of Israyl.

3 He rebuilt the Houses with the High Places, which his father Hezekyah had broken down. He raised up altars for the Baalim; the Lords, Gods, and Goddesses, made Asherah Poles; The Sacred Poles representing the Goddess Asherah, and worshiped all the host of the heaven, and served them.

4 He also built altars in The House of Yahweh, of which Yahweh had said; In Yerusalem shall My Name be forever.

5 He also built altars for all the host of heaven in both courts of The House of Yahweh.

6 He sacrificed his sons in fire in the Valley of Ben Hinnom, he practiced divination, used witchcraft and sorcery, and consulted mediums and spiritists. He did much evil in the eyes of Yahweh, provoking Him to anger.

7 He even set a carved image of the goddess Asherah; The Sacred Pole, in The House of Yahweh, of which Yahweh had said to David and to Solomon his son; In this House and in Yerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israyl, I will establish My Name forever.

8 I will not again remove the foot of Israyl from the land upon which I permitted your fathers to stand—only as long as they are careful to observe and do all that I commanded them, according to the whole Law, with the statutes, and the ordinances given through Moses.

9 But Menasheh led Yahdah and the people of Yerusalem astray, so they did even more evil than the nations, whom Yahweh had destroyed from in front of the children of Israyl.

10 Yahweh spoke to Menasheh and his people, but they refused to listen.

11 So Yahweh brought against them the captains of the army of the king of Assyria, who captured Menasheh, hooked him through his nose, bound him with bronze chains, and took him off to Babylon.

12 During his affliction he implored Yahweh his Father, and humbled himself greatly in front of Yahweh, the Father of his fathers.

13 And prayed to Him. Yahweh was moved by his supplication, and listened to his plea. He then brought him back to Yerusalem, and to his kingdom. Then Menasheh knew that Yahweh was the Almighty Father.

14 After this, he rebuilt the outer wall of the City of David, west of the Gihon Spring in the valley, as far as the entrance of the Fish Gate, encircling the hill of Ophel, and also raised it to a much greater height. He stationed military officers in all the fortified cities of Yahdah.

15 He removed the foreign gods and the image of Asherah; The Sacred Pole, from The House of Yahweh, and all the altars that he had built on the mount of The House of Yahweh and in Yerusalem; he threw them all out of the city.

16 He also repaired the altar of Yahweh, and sacrificed peace offerings and thank offering upon it, then commanded Yahdah to serve Yahweh, the Father of Israyl.

17 Nonetheless, the people still sacrificed on the high places, but now only to Yahweh their Father.

18 Now the rest of the events of the reign of Menasheh, his prayer to Yahweh, and the message of the seers who spoke to him in the Name of Yahweh, the Father of Israyl, truly are written in the book of the kings of Israyl.

19 Then his prayer, and how Yahweh listened to his supplication, all his sin, trespass, and guilt, and the sites where he built Houses with High Places, and set up Asherah Poles and images of the gods before he was brought low, truly are written among the records of his seers.

20 So Menasheh slept with his fathers, and they buried him in his own house. Then his son Amon succeeded him as king.

21 Amon was twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned two years in Yerusalem.

22 He did evil in the eyes of Yahweh; erving the gods, just as his father Menasheh had done. Amon sacrificed to the images of the gods which Menasheh had made, and served them.

23 But he did not humble himself in front of Yahweh, as his father Menasheh had humbled himself. That one, Amon, increased his guilt.

24 Then his officials conspired against him, and killed him in his own house.

25 However, the people of the land killed all those who had conspired against King Amon. Then the people of the land made Yoshiyah his son the king in his place.

CHAP. 34

Yoshiyah; Foundation of Yahweh, was eight years old when he became king, and he reigned thirty-one years in Yerusalem.

2 He did right in the eyes of Yahweh, and walked in all the ways of his father David. He did not turn aside to the right hand, nor to the left.

3 For in the eighth year of his reign, while he was yet a youth, he began to seek the Father of his father David. Then in the twelfth year of his reign he began to purge Yahdah and Yerusalem of the Houses with the High Places, of the Asherah Poles, and of the carved and molded images of the gods.

4 They broke down the altars of the Baalim; the Lords, Gods, and Goddesses, in his presence, cut to pieces the incense altars that were above them; and the Asherah Poles and carved and molded images of the gods he broke in pieces, pulverized them to dust, and scattered it on the graves of those who had sacrificed to them.

5 He also burned the bones of the priests on their altars, and cleansed Yahdah and Yerusalem.

6 And in the cities of Menasheh, Ephraim, and Simeon, as far as Naphtali, and in the desolation around them,

7 He tore down the altars and the Asherah Poles, and pounded the carved images into dust, and cut down all the incense altars throughout all the land. Then he returned to Yerusalem.

8 In the eighteenth year of his reign, when he had purged the land and The House of Yahweh of the gods, he sent Shaphan son of Azalyah, Maaseyah the governor of the city, and Yahach son of Yahahaz the recorder, to repair The House of Yahweh his Father.

9 When they came to Hilkiyah the High Priest, they delivered the money that was brought into The House of Yahweh, which the Levites who watched the doors had collected from the hands of Menasheh, Ephraim, from all the remnant of Israyl, from all Yahdah and Benjamin, and from the people of Yerusalem.

10 They gave it to the men who supervised the work of The House of Yahweh. These men paid the workers who repaired and restored The House of Yahweh.

11 They paid the craftsmen and builders to buy dressed stone and timber for beams, for the buildings the kings of Yahdah had neglected and allowed to deteriorate.

12 All the men did the work faithfully. The overseers supervising the work were Levites. They were; Yachath and Obadyah from the line of Merari, and Zecharyah and Meshullam from the line of Kohath. The Levites, all of whom were skilled in playing musical instruments.

13 Were in charge of the labor force, and supervised all the work in any given area. Some of the Levites were scribes, officials, and gate-keepers.

14 When they were bringing out the money that was brought into The House of Yahweh, Hilkiyah the High Priest found the Book of the Law of Yahweh given through Mosheh.

15 Hilkiyah reported this to Shaphan the scribe, and said: I have found the Book of the Law in The House of Yahweh. Then Hilkiyah gave the book to Shaphan.

16 Shaphan took the book to the king when he went to make his report. He said: All that was committed to your officials to do, they are doing.

17 They have collected the money that was found in The House of Yahweh, and have given it to the supervisors so they may pay the workmen.

18 Then Shaphan informed the king; Hilkiyah the High Priest has given me a book. And Shaphan read the book in the king's presence.

19 As soon as the king had heard the words of the Law, he tore his clothes.

20 Then the king gave these orders to Hilkiyah, Ahikam son of Shaphan, Abdon son of Micahyah, Shaphan the scribe, and Asayah, an official of the king, saying:

21 Go and inquire of Yahweh for me, and for those remaining in Israyl and Yahdah, concerning the words written in this book which has been found. Great is the wrath of Yahweh that is poured out upon us, because our fathers have not kept the word of Yahweh, not observing and doing all that is written in this book.

22 Hilkiyah, along with those the king had appointed, went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum, son of Tokhath, son of Hasrah, the keeper of the wardrobe. She lived in Yerusalem, in the Second Quarter. They informed her of the reason for their visit.

23 And she answered them, and said: This is what Yahweh, the Father of Israyl, says: Tell the man who sent you to Me.

24 This is what Yahweh says: Behold, I will bring disaster on this place and on its people—all the curses that are written in the book which has been read in the presence of the king of Yahdah—

25 Because they have forsaken Me in order to burn incense to the hinder gods, and so have provoked Me to anger with all the works of their hands. Because of this, My wrath will be poured out on this place, and it will not be quenched.

26 But as for the king of Yahdah, who sent you to inquire of Yahweh, you shall speak to him in the following manner: This is what Yahweh, the Father of Israyl, says concerning the words you have heard:

27 Because your heart: mind, was submissive, and you humbled yourself in front of Yahweh when you heard His words against this place and its people—you humbled yourself in front of Me, and you tore your clothes, and you wept in My presence—I also have heard you, says Yahweh.

28 Surely I will gather you to your fathers, and you will be gathered to your grave in peace. Your eyes shall not see all the disaster I will bring on this place and its people. So they brought this word back to the king.

29 The king summoned together all the elders of Yahdah and Yerusalem.

30 Then the king went up to The House of Yahweh, along with all the men of Yahdah, the people of Yerusalem, and the priests and the Levites—all the people, from the greatest to the least. He read in their hearing all the words of the Book of the Covenant; Book of the Law, which had been discovered in The House of Yahweh.

31 The king stood at his column and renewed the covenant in the presence of Yahweh—to follow Yahweh, to keep His commandments, His testimonies, and His statutes with all his heart; mind, and being, and to perform and do the words of the covenant which were written in this book.

32 Then he required all who were present from Yerusalem and Benjamin to vow to keep the covenant, and the people of Yerusalem acted according to the covenant of Yahweh, the Father of their fathers.

33 Yoshiyah removed all the abominations from the territories belonging to the children of Israyl, and required all who were present in Israyl to diligently serve Yahweh their Father. Throughout his lifetime they did not turn away from following Yahweh, the Father of their fathers.

CHAP. 35

Then Yoshiyah kept a Passover to Yahweh in Yerusalem, and they • killed the Passover lambs on the fourteenth day of the First Moon.

2 He assigned the priests to their responsibilities, and encouraged them for their service of The House of Yahweh.

3 He also said to the Levites, who instructed all Israyl, and who were consecrated and holy to Yahweh; Put the holy ark in The House of Yahweh which Solomon, son of David and king of Israyl, built. It no longer needs to be carried on your shoulders. Now serve Yahweh your Father and His people Israyl!

4 Arrange yourselves by your fathers' houses into your appointed divisions, following what is written by David king of Israyl, and what is written by Solomon his son.

5 Stand in the court of The House of Yahweh, according to the divisions of the fathers' houses of your brothers who are lay people, so that for each family division there will be Levites ready to render service.

6 Then kill the Passover lambs, consecrate and prepare them for your brothers, so they may observe and do according to the word of Yahweh given through Mosheh.

7 Yoshiyah gave to all the lay people who were present there lambs and young goats from the flock—all for Passover sacrifices—to the number of 30,000, as well as 3,000 cattle for other sacrifices. These came from the king's own possessions.

8 His officials also contributed voluntarily to the people, to the priests, and to the Levites, Hilkiyah, Zecharyah, and Yehiel, the chief administrators of The House of Yahweh, gave the Aaronic priests 2,600 from the flock for Passover sacrifices, and 300 cattle for other sacrifices.

9 Also Conanyah, along with his brothers Shemayah and Nethanel, and Hashabiyah, Yeiel, and Yahzabad, the chiefs of the Levites, gave to the Levites 5,000 from the flock for Passover sacrifices and 500 cattle for other sacrifices.

10 So the service was arranged. The priests stood at the altar, and the Levites stood in the court according to the divisions, at the command of the king.

11 The Levites killed the Passover offerings, and passed the blood to the Aaronic priests, who sprinkled the blood on the altar with their hands, while the Levites skinned the animals.

12 They also removed the portions for the burnt offering, giving them to the family divisions of the lay people, so they might offer it to Yahweh, as written in The Book of The Law, which Yahweh gave through Mosheh. They did the same with the cattle.

13 They roasted the Passover lambs over the fire, according to the ordinance, but the other holy offerings they boiled in pots, caldrons, and pans. These they quickly cut up for the sons of the people.

14 After this, they prepared for themselves and for the priests, because the priests, the sons of Aaron, were busy offering burnt offerings and the fat until night. So the Levites prepared for themselves and for the priests, the sons of Aaron.

15 The singers, the sons of Asaph, were also occupied according to the command of David, Heman, and Yeduthun, the king's seer, and the gatekeepers were posted at each gate. They did not have to leave their positions, because their brothers, the Levites, prepared for them as well.

16 So all the service of Yahweh was prepared the same day—to • keep the Passover, and to offer burnt offerings on the altar of Yahweh, according to the command of King Yoshiyah.

17 And the children of Israyl who were present • kept the Passover at that time, and the Feast of Unleavened Bread for seven days.

18 There was not prepared a Passover like that since the days of Samuyl the prophet, and none of the kings of Israyl observed such a Passover as Yoshiyah • kept, with the priests, the Levites, and all Yahdah and Israyl who were present with the people of Yerusalem.

19 In the eighteenth year of the reign of Yoshiyah this Passover was • kept.

20 After all this, when Yoshiyah had set The House of Yahweh in order, Necho king of Egypt came up to fight at Carchemish on the Euphrates, and Yoshiyah went out against him:

21 But he sent messengers to him, saying; What do I have against you, O king of Yahdah? • I am not coming against you this day, but against the house with whom I am waging war. My god has commanded me to move quickly, so stop interfering with god who is with me, for your own sake, or you will be destroyed.

22 However Yoshiyah would not withdraw from him, but he disguised himself to engage him in battle. He did not inquire of Yahweh to seek His advice and counsel concerning the warning coming from the mouth of Necho. Instead, he went to fight him on the plain of Megiddo.

23 The archers shot King Yoshiyah, and he commanded his officers; Take me away, for I am wounded severely.

24 His officers took him out of his own chariot, and laid him in the second chariot which he had, and brought him to Yerusalem. He died, and was buried in the tombs of his fathers; and all Yahdah and Yerusalem mourned for Yoshiyah.

••••• KEPT, KEEP: See Footnote on Page 375.

• Necho was not attacking Yahdah itself, but was passing through Yahdah on his way to assist the Assyrians at Carchemish, and to reinforce his own garrison there. Yoshiyah, apparently, was an ally of the Babylonians, and attempted to impede the march of Necho, without inquiring of Yahweh first.

25 Yeremyah composed a lamentation for Yoshiyah, and all the male and female singers lament for Yoshiyah in their funeral songs to this day. They wail them according to established custom throughout Israyl, and truly are written in the Book of the Laments.

26 Now the rest of the events of the reign of Yoshiyah, and his acts of love according to the writings of the Law of Yahweh, 27 And his works, the first through the last, truly are written in the book of the kings of Israyl and Yahdah.

CHAP. 36

Then the people of the land took Yahahaz; Seized by Yahweh, the son of Yoshiyah, and made him king in Yerusalem in his father's place.

2 Yahahaz was twenty-three years old when he became king, and he reigned three moons in Yerusalem.

3 The king of Egypt deposed him at Yerusalem and subjected the land to tribute in the amount of one hundred talents of silver; about 3 3/4 tons, and a talent of gold; about 75 pounds.

4 Then the king of Egypt made Elyakim, his brother, king over Yahdah and Yerusalem, but changed his name to Yahyakim; Established by Yahweh. Then Necho took Yahahaz his brother, and carried him off to Egypt.

5 Yahyakim was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned eleven years in Yerusalem. He did evil in the eyes of Yahweh; serving the gods.

6 So Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up and attacked him, and bound him with bronze chains to take him to Babylon.

7 Nebuchadnezzar also carried off to Babylon various articles from The House of Yahweh, and put them in his palace in Babylon.

8 Now the rest of the events of Yahyakim, the abominations he was guilty of, and what came upon him because of his guilt, truly are written in the book of the kings of Israyl and Yahdah. Then Yahyakin; Ordained of Yahweh, succeeded him as king.

9 Yahyakin was eighteen years old when he became king, and he reigned in Yerusalem three moons and ten days, doing evil in the eyes of Yahweh; serving the gods.

10 At the turn of the year, in the spring, King Nebuchadnezzar sent for him and brought him to Babylon, together with the costly articles from The House of Yahweh, and made Zedekyah; Righteousness of Yahweh, who was the brother of Yahyakim and the uncle of Yahyakin, king over Yahdah and Yerusalem.

11 Zedekyah was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned eleven years in Yerusalem.

12 He did evil in the eyes of Yahweh his Father; servng the gods, and did not humble himself in the presence of Yeremyah the prophet, who spoke from the mouth of Yahweh.

13 He also rebelled against King Nebuchadnezzar, who had made him vow loyalty by Yahweh, but he stiffened his neck and hardened his heart against turning to Yahweh, the Father of Israyl.

14 Furthermore, all the leaders of the priests and the people transgressed more and more, following all the abominations of the nations, and defiling The House of Yahweh which He had consecrated and sanctified in Yerusalem.

15 Yahweh, the Father of their fathers, sent warnings to them by the hands of His messengers, sending them again and again, because He had compassion on His people and on His dwelling place.

16 However, they ridiculed the messengers of Yahweh, despised His words, and scoffed at His prophets, until the wrath of Yahweh became so fierce against His people, that there was no recourse.

17 Because of this, He brought up against them the king of the Chaldeans, who killed their young men with the sword in the house of their sanctuary, and had no compassion on the young man or the virgin, on the aged or the infirm. He gave them all into his hands.

18 All the articles of The House of Yahweh, the large and the small, the treasures of The House of Yahweh, the treasures of the king and his officials—all of these he carried off to Babylon.

19 Then they burned down The House of Yahweh, and broke down the wall of Yerusalem. They burned all its palaces with fire, and destroyed everything of value there.

20 Those who escaped the sword, he carried in exile to Babylon, and they became slaves to him and his sons until the rise of the kingdom of Persia—

21 In fulfillment of the ● word of Yahweh spoken by the mouth of Yeremyah, until the land had enjoyed her Sabbaths. Every year she lay desolate she kept Sabbath, resting until the seventy years were complete.

22 Now in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, so that the ● word of Yahweh spoken by the mouth of Yeremyah might be fulfilled, Yahweh stirred the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, to make a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, which he also put in writing, saying:

23 This is what Cyrus, the king of Persia, says: Yahweh, the Father in heaven, has given me all the kingdoms of the earth, and He has appointed me to build a House for Him at Yerusalem in Yahdah. Whoever among you belongs to all His people, may Yahweh his Father be with him, and let him go up!

Now in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, so that the word of Yahweh spoken by the mouth of Yeremyah might be fulfilled, Yahweh stirred the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, to make a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, which he also put in writing, saying:

2 This is what Cyrus, the king of Persia, says: Yahweh, the Father in heaven, has given me all the kingdoms of the earth, and He has appointed me to build a House for Him at Yerusalem in Yahdah.

3 Whoever among you belongs to all His people, may Yahweh his Father be with him, and let him go up to Yerusalem, which is in Yahdah, and build The House of Yahweh, the Father of Israyl, Who is the Almighty in Yerusalem.

4 And the people who choose to remain in any place he is now living, let the men of his place support him with silver and gold, with possessions and livestock, as well as freewill offerings for The House of Yahweh, which is in Yerusalem.

5 Then the heads of the fathers' houses of Yahdah and Benjamin, the priests and the Levites, with all those whose spirits Yahweh had touched, arose to go up to build The House of Yahweh in Yerusalem.

6 All those around them supported them encouragingly with articles of silver and gold, with possessions and livestock, and with other valuable gifts, in addition to all they willingly offered.

7 King Cyrus also brought out the articles of The House of Yahweh, which Nebuchadnezzar had carried from Yerusalem and placed in the house of his gods.

8 Cyrus the king of Persia entrusted them to Mithredath the treasurer, who counted them out to Sheshbazzar, the highest official of Yahdah.

9 This was the number inventoried: 30 gold dishes, 1,029 silver dishes,

10 Bowls made of gold, 30; similar bowls made of silver, 410; and other articles, 1,000.

11 The total number of gold and silver articles came to 5,400. All of these Sheshbazzar took with him when he brought up the exiles from Babylon to Yerusalem.

CHAP. 2

These were the people of the province who returned from captivity, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had carried captive to Babylon, and who returned to Yerusalem and Yahdah, each one to his own city.

2 They were the ones who came with Zerubabel, Yahshua, Nehemyah, Serayah, Reelayah, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispar, Bigvai, Rehum, and Baanah—and the number of these men of the people of Israyl, were:

3 The descendants of Parosh, 2,172.

4 The descendants of Shephatiah, 372.

5 The descendants of Arah, 775.

6 The descendants of Yahshua and Yahab, tribally linked to Pahath Moab, 2,812.

7 The descendants of Elam, 1,254.

8 The descendants of Zattu, 945.

9 The descendants of Zaccai, 760.

10 The descendants of Bani, 642.

11 The descendants of Bebai, 623.

12 The descendants of Azgad, 1,222.

13 The descendants of Adonikam, 666.

14 The descendants of Bigvai, 2,056.

15 The descendants of Adin, 454.

16 The descendants of Ater, that is, through Hezekyah, 98.

17 The descendants of Bezai, 323.

18 The descendants of Yorah, 112.

19 The descendants of Hashum, 223.

20 The descendants of Gibbar, 95.

21 The men from the city of Bethlehem, 123.

22 The men from the city of Netophah, 56.

23 The men from the city of Anathoth, 128.

24 The men from the city of Azmaveth, 42.

25 The men from the cities of Kiryath Yearim, Chephirah, and Beeroth, 743.

26 The men from the city of Ramah and Geba, 621.

27 The men from the city of Michmas, 122.

28 The men from the cities of Bethel and Ai, 223.

29 The men from the city of Nebo, 52.

30 The men from the city of Magbish, 156.

31 The men from the other city of Elam numbered 1,254.

32 The men from the city of Harim, 320.

33 The men from the cities of Lod, Hadid, and Ono, 725.

34 The men from the city of Yericho, 345.

35 The men from the city of Senaah, 3,630.

36 These were the Aaronic Priests who returned: The descendants of Yedayah, through the family; house, of Yahshua, 973.

37 The descendants of Immer, 1,052.

38 The descendants of Pashhur, 1,247.

39 The descendants of Harim, 1,017.

40 These were the Levites who returned: The descendants of Yahshua and Kadmiel, through the line of Hodayah, 74.

41 These were the Levitical Singers who returned, through the line of Asaph, 128.

42 These were the Levitical Gatekeepers who returned: The descendants of Shallum, Ater, Talmon, Akkub, Hatita, and Shobai, 139.

43 These were the Nethinim; Servants, who returned: The descendants of Ziha, Hasupha, Tabbaoth, 44 Keros, Siaha, Padon,

45 Lebanah, Hagabah, Akkub,

46 Hagab, Shalmal, Hanan,

47 Giddel, Gahar, Reayah,

48 Rezin, Nekoda, Gazzam,

49 Uzza, Paseah, Besai,

50 Asnah, Meunim, Nephusim,

51 Bakbuk, Hakupha, Harhur,

52 Bazluth, Mehida, Harsha,

53 Barkos, Siser, Temah,

54 Netziach, and Hatipha.

55 The descendants of the servants of Solomon who returned were: The descendants of Sotai, Ha-Sophereth, Peruda,

56 Yaala, Darkon, Giddel,

57 Shephatyah, Hattil, Pochereth Hazzebaim, and Ami.

58 All the descendants of the Nethinim and the descendants of Solomon's servants numbered 392.

59 These were the ones who came from the cities of Tel Melah, Tel Harsha, Cherub, Addan, and Immer, but they were unable to identify their father's house, nor was their origin proven by genealogy to be of Israyl—

60 The descendants of Delayah, Tobyah, and Nekoda, 652.

61 These descendants of the priests—the descendants of Habayah, Hakkoz, and Barzillai (who had married one of the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite and was called by that name)—

62 These searched their register in the official genealogies, but because their names were not found written there, they were disqualified from the priesthood, being defiled.

63 Therefore, the governor ordered them not to eat any of the most holy things until the High Priest could consult with the Urim and Thummim.

64 The total number of the whole congregation was 42,360,

65 Besides their male and female servants, which numbered 7,337, they also had 200 men and women singers.

66 Their horses numbered 736, their mules numbered 245,

67 Their camels numbered 435, and their donkeys number 6,720.

68 Some of the heads of the fathers' houses, when they arrived at The House of Yahweh in Yerusalem, contributed freewill offerings to rebuild The House of Yahweh on its site.

69 They contributed to the treasury for the work, as each one was able to give, 61,000 gold drachmas; about 1,100 pounds of gold, 5,000 minas of silver; about 6,000 pounds of silver, and 100 priestly garments.

70 The priests, the Levites, the singers, the gatekeepers, and the Nethinim moved into their own cities, along with some of the other people, and the rest of the children of Israyl moved into their own cities.

CHAP. 3

When the Seventh Moon came, after the children of Israyl settled in their cities, the people gathered together, as one body, at Yerusalem.

2 Then Yahshua son of Yahzadak and his brothers the priests, and Zerubbabel son of Shieltiel (Pedayah) and his associates rose up and built the altar of the Father of Israyl, to sacrifice burnt offerings on it, as written in the Law given through Mosheh, the man of Yahweh.

3 Though they were afraid of the peoples around them, they built the altar on its bases, and they sacrificed the burnt offerings to Yahweh on it: the morning and evening Tamid, the continual daily burnt offerings.

4 In the Seventh Moon they also kept the Feast of Tabernacles and, in accordance with what is written, they offered the ordained number of burnt offerings prescribed for each day.

5 And afterward, in addition, they offered the continual burnt offerings of the Tamid, the offerings for the Sabbaths, the New Moons, for all the holy Feasts of Yahweh, and for all who brought a freewill offering for Yahweh.

6 From the first day of the Seventh Moon they began to sacrifice burnt offerings to Yahweh, even though the foundation of The House of Yahweh had not yet been laid.

7 They also gave money for the stonemasons and carpenters, and contributed food, drink, and oil as payment for the Sidonians (Phoenicians) and Tyrians for bringing cedar logs from Lebanon by sea to Yaffo, complying with the permission granted them by Cyrus, the king of Persia.

8 Then in the Second Moon of the second year of their arrival at The House of Yahweh in Yerusalem, Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel (Pedayah), Yahshua son of Yahzadak, and the rest of their brothers—the priests, the Levites, and all the other men of Israyl who had come out of captivity—began the work by appointing some of the Levites who were twenty years old and older to supervise the work of The House of Yahweh—

9 Yahshua with his sons and brothers, along with Kadmiel and his sons (descendants of Hodayah), together with Henadad and their sons and brothers—all Levites—joined together as one to supervise those working on the House of Yahweh.

10 When the builders laid the foundation of The House of Yahweh, the priests took their positions, arrayed in their apparel, with trumpets; chaisotserot, in their hands. The Levitical singers, the sons of Asaph, took their positions with cymbals, ready to praise Yahweh as prescribed by the ordinance of David king of Israyl.

11 Then they sang alternately, saying: HalleluYahweh! Give thanks to Yahweh! For He is righteous, and His love endures forever toward Israyl. Then all the people shouted a great shout, saying: HalleluYahweh! Praise Yahweh! because the foundation of The House of Yahweh was laid.

12 Many of the older priests, Levites, and heads of fathers' houses, who had seen the first House, wept with a loud voice when the foundation of this House was laid in front of their eyes, while many others shouted aloud with joy.

13 So the people could not distinguish between the noise of the joyful shout and that of the loud weeping, for the people shouted so loudly that the sound was heard far off.

CHAP. 4

When the adversaries of Yahdah and Benjamin heard that the exiles of the captivity were building The House of Yahweh for the Father of Israyl,

2 They came to Zerubbabel and the heads of the fathers' houses, and said to them: Allow us to build with you, for we seek your Father just as you do. We have sacrificed to Him since the days of Esarhaddon king of Assyria, who brought us here.

3 But Zerubbabel, Yahshua, and the rest of the heads of the fathers' houses of Israyl said to them: It is not for you to work with us to build The House of Yahweh for our Father. We, alone, will build for Yahweh, the Father of Israyl, just as King Cyrus, the king of Persia, has commanded us.

4 Then the people of the land tried to undermine the moral of Yahdah, by discouraging them from building.

5 They hired counselors against them to frustrate their purpose all during the lifetime of Cyrus king of Persia, even until the reign of Darius king of Persia.

6 In the reign of Xerxes, in the beginning of his reign, they drafted an official accusation against the people of Yahdah and Yerusalem.

7 Also during the reign of Artaxerxes, Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabeel, and the rest of their associates wrote to Artaxerxes, the king of Persia, concerning Yerusalem. The letter was written in Aramaic, then translated into Hebrew.

8 Rehum, the chancellor, and Shimshai, the scribe, wrote this letter against Yerusalem to King Artaxerxes in this manner:

9 From Rehum the chancellor, Shimshai the scribe, together with the rest of their associates—the officials who pass judgment on the men from Tarpel, from Persia, those from Erech, from Babylon and Susa, that is, the Elamites,

10 And the rest of the nations whom the great and noble Osnapper, that is, Assurbanipal, captured and resettled in the cities of Samaria and the rest of the provinces beyond the Euphrates River, and now,

11 (This is a copy of the letter they sent to him:) To Artaxerxes the king, from your servants, the men of the provinces beyond the Euphrates River, and now;

12 Let it be known to the king that those from Yahdah who came up from you have arrived in Yerusalem, and are rebuilding that rebellious and evil city. They are restoring the walls and repairing the foundations.

13 Let it now be known to the king that if this city is rebuilt and its walls are restored, no more taxes, tribute, or duty will be paid, and the king's treasury will diminish.

14 Now, because we are under obligation to the king, and because it is not proper for us to witness anything that might bring dishonor on the king, we have dispatched this information to the king,

15 So that a search may be made in the book of the records of your fathers. In these records you will find that this city is a rebellious city, dangerous to kings and provinces. They have incited rebellion and sedition within this city since ancient times, which was the cause for this city being destroyed.

16 We inform the king that if this city is rebuilt and its walls are restored, you will not rule over the region beyond the Euphrates River.

17 Then the king dispatched this answer: To Rehum the chancellor, to Shimshai the scribe, and to the rest of their associates who live in Samaria, and in the region beyond the Euphrates River. Greetings! And now, 18 The official letter you sent to us has been translated clearly, and has been read in my presence.

19 I gave the orders, and a search has been made, and it was found that this city has indeed risen up in insurrection against kings in the past, and that rebellion and sedition have been perpetrated from it.

20 There have been powerful kings who ruled over Yerusalem, who have ruled over all the provinces beyond the Euphrates River, and taxes, tribute, and duty have been paid to them.

21 And now, issue an order to make those men cease their work, so this city may not be rebuilt until the command is issued by me.

22 Be careful not to neglect this matter. Why should this threat increase, to the damage of the king's interest?

23 When the copy of the letter from King Artaxerxes was read to Rehum the chancellor, to Shimshai the scribe, and to their associates, they immediately went to those of Yahdah living in Yerusalem, and compelled them by a show of weapons to cease their work.

24 So the work on The House of Yahweh at Yerusalem ceased until the second year of the reign of Darius, the king of Persia.

CHAP. 5

Then the prophet Chagyah, and Zecharyah the prophet, grandson of Iddo, prophesied to the people of Yahdah in Yerusalem in the Name of the Father of Israyl. Who was over them.

2 Then Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel (Pedayah) and Yahshua, the son of Yahzadak, rose up and set to work to build The House of Yahweh in Yerusalem, and the prophets of Yahweh were with them, supporting them.

3 At that same time Tattenai, the governor of the region beyond the Euphrates River, along with Shethar-Bozenai and their associates, came to them, and spoke in this matter to them; Who issued you the command to build this House and restore this wall?

4 They also asked; What are the names of the men who were constructing this building?

5 But the eye of Yahweh was upon the elders of Yahdah, and they were not stopped until a report could go to Darius, and a written answer was returned concerning this matter.

6 This is a copy of the letter that Tattenai, the governor of the region beyond the Euphrates River, Shethar-Bozenai, and his associates, the officials who lived across the Euphrates River, dispatched to Darius the king;

7 (The letter they sent to him reads as follows:) To King Darius: Sincere greetings!

8 Let it be known to the king that we went into the province of Yahdah, to the House of the great god. The people are rebuilding it with large stones, and timbers are going into the walls. The work is being carried on with diligence, and is succeeding in their hands.

9 Then we confronted the elders, and said this to them: Who issued the order to build this House and restore these walls?

10 We also asked them their names in order to inform you, so we might write the names of the men who were in charge among them.

11 And they gave us this answer, saying; We are the servants of the Father in heaven and earth, and we are rebuilding the House that was built many years ago. A great king of Israyl built it and completed it;

12 But because our fathers provoked the Father in heaven to wrath, He handed them over to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, the Chaldean, who destroyed this House, and carried the people into exile to Babylon.

13 However, in the first year of Cyrus king of Babylon, King Cyrus issued a decree for the rebuilding of this House for Yahweh.

14 Also, the gold and silver articles of The House of Yahweh, which Nebuchadnezzar had taken from the House in Yerusalem, and had placed into a house in Babylon, Cyrus the king took from that house in Babylon, and they were given to one by the name of Sheshbazzar, whom he had appointed governor.

15 He said to him; Take these articles, and go. Carry them to the site of the House in Yerusalem, and let The House of Yahweh be rebuilt on its original site.

16 Then the same Sheshbazzar came and laid the foundation of The House of Yahweh in Yerusalem, and from that time until now it has been under construction, but it is not finished yet.

17 And now, if it seems right to the king, let a search be made in the archives of the king in Babylon, whether it is true that a decree was issued by King Cyrus to rebuild this House of Yahweh at Yerusalem, and let the decision of the king concerning this matter be sent to us.

CHAP. 6

Then King Darius issued an order, and a search was instituted in the house of the scrolls, where the treasures were stored in Babylon.

2 And a scroll was found in the fortress of Ecbatana in the province of Media, with the following written upon it:

3 Memorandum: In the first year of King Cyrus, King Cyrus issued a decree concerning The House of Yahweh in Yerusalem—Let the House be rebuilt on the place where they offered sacrifices. Let the foundations of it be laid, let its height be sixty cubits and its width be sixty cubits; about 90 feet high and 90 feet wide.

4 With three courses of heavy stones and one row of new timber. Let the expenses incurred be paid from the treasury of the king.

5 Let the gold and silver articles, which Nebuchadnezzar took from The House of Yahweh in Jerusalem and brought to Babylon, be restored and returned to their proper place in The House of Yahweh, depositing them in The House of Yahweh.

6 Therefore, Tattenai, governor of the region beyond the Euphrates River, Shethar-Bozenai, and your associates, the officials of the province across the Euphrates River: Stay away from there.

7 Let the work on The House of Yahweh proceed without interference. Let the governor of Yahdah and the elders of Yahdah build The House of Yahweh on its site.

8 Moreover, I hereby decree what you are to do for Yahdah and the elders in the construction of The House of Yahweh: Let the costs incurred be paid at the king's expense from taxes collected in the region beyond the Euphrates River. Give this immediately to those men, so the work may not be interrupted.

9 And whatever they require—young bulls, rams, and lambs for the burnt offerings to the Father in heaven, wheat, salt, wine or oil, whatever the priests in Jerusalem may request—let it be given to them day after day without fail.

10 So they may offer sacrifice of sweet aroma to the Father in heaven, and may pray for the life of the king and his sons.

11 Furthermore, I decree that if anyone changes this edict, let a timber be pulled out of his own house, let it be set up, and let him be hanged on it. Also let his house be turned into a pile of rubble because of this.

12 And may Yahweh, Who causes His Name to dwell there, destroy any king or people who puts their hand to alter this decree, or to destroy The House of Yahweh in Jerusalem. I, Darius, have so decreed! Let it be carried out precisely!

13 Then Tattenai, governor of the region beyond the Euphrates River, Shethar-Bozenai, and their associates, carried it out with diligence because of the decree King Darius had sent.

14 So the elders of Yahdah built, and they succeeded through the prophesying of Chagyah the prophet and Zecharyah, the grandson of Iddo. They built it and finished it according to the commandment of the Father of Israyl, and according to the decrees of Cyrus, Darius, and Artaxerxes, the kings of Persia.

15 Now The House of Yahweh was finished on the third day of the moon Adar, the Twelfth Moon, in the sixth year of the reign of King Darius.

16 Then the children of Israyl, the Aaronic priests, and the Levites celebrated the dedication of The House of Yahweh with great joy.

17 For the dedication of this House for Yahweh they sacrificed 100 bulls, 200 rams, 400 male lambs; and, as a sin offering for all Israyl, they offered 12 male goats representing the number of the tribes of Israyl.

18 They installed the priests in their divisions, and installed the Levites in their positions for the service of The House of Yahweh at Jerusalem, just as it is written in The Book of the Law given through Mosheh.

19 Then the descendants of the captivity ● sacrificed the Passover on the fourteenth day of the First Moon—

20 For the priests and the Levites had purified and consecrated themselves, and all were ritually clean, so they killed the Passover lambs for all the descendants of the captivity, for their brothers the priests, and for themselves—

21 Then the children of Israyl who had returned from exile ate the Passover lambs, together with all who had separated themselves from the filthiness and impurity of the land, in order to seek Yahweh, the Father of Israyl:

22 And they kept the Feast of Unleavened Bread seven days with joy; for Yahweh had made them joyful, and turned the heart of the king of Assyria toward them, to strengthen their hands in the work of The House of Yahweh, the Father of Israyl.

CHAP.7

Now after these things, during the reign of Artaxerxes king of Persia, Ezrayah son of Sera-yah, the son of Azaryah, the son of Hiikiyah,

2 The son of Shallum, the son of Zadok, the son of Ahitub,

3 The son of Amaryah, the son of Azaryah, the son of Merayoth,

4 The son of Zerayah, the son of Uzzi, the son of Bukki,

5 The son of Abishua, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the first High Priest—

6 This Ezrayah came up from Babylon. He was a scribe, skilled in the Law of Yahweh Father of Israyl, given through the hand of Mosheh. The king had granted him everything he requested, for the hand of Yahweh his Father was upon him.

7 Some of the children of Israyl—the priests, the Levites, the singers, the gatekeepers, and the Nethinim, came up to Jerusalem in the seventh year of King Artaxerxes.

8 Ezrayah arrived in Jerusalem in the Fifth Moon, in the seventh year of the king.

9 On the first day of the First Moon he had begun his journey from Babylon, and on the first day of the Fifth Moon he arrived in Jerusalem, for the guiding hand of his Father Yahweh was upon him.

10 For Ezrayah had prepared his heart; set his mind, to seek the Law of Yahweh, and to observe and do it, and to teach statutes and ordinances in Israyl.

11 Now this is the copy of the letter that King Artaxerxes gave to Ezrayah the priest, the scribe, well versed in the words of the commandments of Yahweh, and of His statutes to Israyl:

12 Artaxerxes, king of kings! To Ezrayah the priest, an expert in the Law of the Father in heaven: Greetings! And now, 13 I issue a decree that all those of the people of Israyl in my kingdom, as well as their priests and Levites, who are willing to go to Yerusalem, may go with you.

14 Because you have been dispatched by the king and his seven advisers to inquire about Yahdah and Yerusalem, with regard to the Law of your Father, which is in your hand,

15 You are to take with you the silver and gold that the king and his advisers have freely given to the Father of Israyl, Whose dwelling is in Yerusalem,

16 Together with all the silver and gold you may be given in all the provinces of Babylon, along with the freewill offerings of the people and the priests, freely offered for The House of Yahweh in Yerusalem.

17 With this money be sure to buy bulls, rams, and male lambs, together with their grain offerings and their drink offerings, and sacrifice them on the altar of The House of Yahweh in Yerusalem.

18 Then you and your brothers may then do whatever seems right with the gold and silver that is left, in accordance with the will of your Father.

19 Deliver to the Father in Yerusalem the full number of all the articles given to you for the service of The House of Yahweh in Yerusalem.

20 Whatever more may be required for The House of Yahweh, which you may have to provide, pay for it from the treasury of the king.

21 Now I, King Artaxerxes, order all the treasurers who are in the region beyond the Euphrates River, to provide diligently whatever Ezrayah the priest, the scribe of the Law of the Father in heaven, may require of you—

22 Up to 100 talents of silver; about 7,500 pounds, 100 kors of wheat; about 600 bushels, 100 baths of wine; about 600 gallons, and salt without a set limit.

23 Whatever is commanded by the Father in heaven, let it be diligently done for The House of Yahweh, for the Father in heaven! Why should wrath fall upon the realm of the king and his sons?

24 We also inform you it shall not be lawful to impose tax, tribute, or duty on any of the priests, Levites, singers, gatekeepers, Nethinim, or any other servants of The House of Yahweh.

25 And you, Ezrayah, appoint magistrates and judges, in accordance with the wisdom your Father has given you, who shall judge all the people beyond the Euphrates River—all who know the Law of Yahweh. And you must teach all those who do not know these Laws.

26 Whoever will not observe the Law of your Father and the law of the king, let sentence be pronounced upon him for death, for putting out of the camp, for confiscation of property, or for imprisonment.

27 Blessed be Yahweh, Father of our fathers, who has put this thing into the heart; mind, of the king, to honor The House of Yahweh in Yerusalem, 28 And has extended that honor to me from the king and his advisers, in the presence of all his mighty officials. I have been encouraged, for the hand of Yahweh my Father was upon me, and I have gathered leading men of Israyl to go up with me.

CHAP. 8

These are the heads of their fathers' houses, and this is the genealogy of those who accompanied me from Babylon during the reign of King Artaxerxes:

2 Of the descendants of Phinehas: Gershom. Of the descendants of Ithamar: Daniel. Of the descendants of David: Hattush—

3 Who is a descendant of Shecanyah. Of the descendants of Parosh: Zecharyah, and registered with him were 150 males.

4 Of the descendants of Pahath-Moab: Al-Yahenai son of Serahyah, and with him were 200 males.

5 Of the descendants of Zattu: Shecanyah son of Yachaziel, and with him were 300 males.

6 Of the descendants of Adin: Ebed son of Yahnathan, and with him were 50 males.

7 Of the descendants of Elam: Yeshayah son of Athalyah, and with him were 70 males.

8 Of the descendants of Shephatyah: Zebad-yah son of Michael, and with him were 80 males.

9 Of the descendants of Yahab: Obadyah son of Yehiel, and with him were 218 males.

10 Of the descendants of Bani: Shelomith son of Yosiphyah, and with him 160 males.

11 Of the descendants of Bebai: Zecharyah son of Bebai, and with him 28 males.

12 Of the descendants of Azgad: Yahcahnan son of Hakkatan, and with him were 110 males.

13 Of the descendants of Adonikam, the last ones, were: Eliphelet, Yeiel, and Shemayah. There were 60 males with them.

14 Of the descendants of Bigvai were: Uthai and Zabbud. There were 70 males with them.

15 I gathered them by the canal that flows to Ahava, and we camped there for three days. I searched among the people and the priests, but I found no Levites among them there.

16 Then I sent for Eliezer, Ariel, Shemayah,

Elnathan, Yarib, Elnathan, Nathan, Zecharyah, Meshullam, all the leaders, and also for Yahyarib and Elnathan, men who had learning and knowledge.

17 These I sent to Iddo, the head of the place Casiphia. I told them what to say to Iddo and his brothers, the Nethinim, who were at the place Casiphia, so they might bring attendants for The House of Yahweh.

18 Because the guiding hand of our Father was upon us, they brought us a wise man of the descendants of Mahli, a son of Levi, son of Israyl. His name was Sherebyah, and with him were 18 of his sons and brothers.

19 And of the descendants of Mahli, a son of Levi, son of Israyl, they brought Hashabayah, and with him Yeshayah. His brothers and their sons came to 20 men.

20 Of the descendants of the Nethinim, whom David and his officials had appointed to assist the Levites, were brought 220 men. All of these men were designated by name.

21 Then I proclaimed a fast there by the canal that flows to Ahava, so we might humble ourselves in front Yahweh our Father and inquire of Him the right way for ourselves, our little ones, and all our possessions.

22 For I was ashamed to request of the king an escort of cavalry to aid us against any enemy on our route, for we had spoken to the king, and had said: The hand of Yahweh protects all those who seek Him, but His power and His wrath are against those who forsake Him.

23 So we fasted and made supplication to Yahweh about this, and He answered our prayer.

24 Then I set apart twelve of the leading priests—Sherebyah, Hashabayah, and ten of their brothers.

25 And I weighed out to them the offerings of silver, gold, and the articles that the king, his advisers, his officials, and all Israyl who were present there, had offered to The House of Yahweh.

26 I weighed out to them 650 talents of silver; about 50,000 pounds, silver articles weighing 100 talents; about 7,500 pounds, gold articles weighing 100 talents; about 7,500 pounds.

27 Twenty gold bowls valued at 1,000 darics; about 19 pounds, and two vessels of shining burnished bronze as valuable as gold.

28 I said to them; You are holy to Yahweh, and the articles are also holy. The silver and the gold are freewill offerings to Yahweh, the Father of our fathers.

29 Guard them carefully until you weigh them out in front of the officials of the priests, the Levites, and the heads of the fathers' houses of Israyl in Yerusaleim, in the rooms of The House of Yahweh.

30 So the priests and the Levites accepted the silver, the gold, and the articles by weight, to take them to Yerusaleim to The House of Yahweh.

31 Then we set out from the canal which flows to Ahava on the twelfth day of the First Moon, starting our journey to Yerusaleim. The hand of Yahweh was with us, and He kept us out of the hands of the enemy, and from ambush along the route.

32 When we arrived in Yerusaleim, we waited there three days.

33 Then on the fourth day the silver, the gold, and the articles were weighed in The House of Yahweh, under the supervision of Meremoth son of Uriyah, the priest, assisted by Eleazar, the son of Phinehas, and the Levites: Yahzabad son of Yahshua, and Noadyah son of Binnui.

34 Everything was accounted for by number and weight, and the total of the weight was written down at that time.

35 The descendants of those who had been carried away captive, who had returned from exile, offered burnt offerings to the Father in heaven. They sacrificed 12 bulls for all Israyl, 96 rams, and 77 male lambs. They sacrificed as their sin offering 12 male goats. All these were sacrificed as burnt offerings to Yahweh.

36 They also delivered the king's orders to the king's satraps and governors in the region beyond the Euphrates River. They were obligated to obey the king's orders, so they supported the people and The House of Yahweh.

CHAP. 9

When these things had been done, the leaders came to me, and said; The people of Israyl, the priests, and the Levites have not set themselves apart from the peoples of the lands, whose abominable practices are like those of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Yebusites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, and the Egyptians, and the Amorites.

2 They have taken some of their daughters as wives for themselves and their sons, so the holy race has become contaminated by the peoples of the lands. Truly, the officials and leaders are the worst offenders in this trespass.

3 When I heard this matter, I tore my clothes and my tallit, I pulled hair out of my head and from my beard, and I sat down horrified and appalled.

4 Then everyone who trembled at the words of Yahweh, the Father of Israyl, gathered around me because of the transgression of those who had returned from captivity, while I sat horrified and appalled until the time of the evening sacrifice.

5 At the evening sacrifice I rose from my self-affliction and fasting, and having torn my clothing and my tallit, I fell on my knees and spread out my hands to Yahweh my Father,

6 And said; O my Father, I am too ashamed and humiliated to lift my face up to You, O Yahweh, because our sins have multiplied until they are higher than our heads, and our guilt has risen up to the heavens.

7 From the days of our fathers until this day, we have remained in guilt, and because of our sins we and our kings our priests have been given into the hands of the kings of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, to plunder, and to humiliation and ridicule, as it is this day.

8 And now, for a short time, honor has been shown from Yahweh our Father, by leaving us a remnant and giving us a firm place in this sanctuary, so Yahweh may make our eyes shine and give us a measure of relief from our bondage.

9 We are slaves, yet Yahweh did not forsake us in our bondage. He has extended kindness; chesed, to us in the sight of the kings of Persia, and has revived us so we might rebuild The House of Yahweh, restore its ruins, and give us a wall of protection in Yahdah and Yerusalem.

10 And now, O Yahweh, what shall we say after this? For we have forsaken Your commandments,

11 Which You have commanded through Your servants the prophets, saying; The land you are entering to possess is an unclean land, polluted by the people of the lands and their abominations, which have filled it with their uncleanness and impurity from one end to the other.

12 Therefore, do not give your daughters in marriage to their sons, nor take their daughters as wives for your sons. Do not seek their peace nor friendly relations, so you may be strong, and eat the bountiful things from the land, and leave it as an inheritance to your children forever.

13 Now after all that has come upon us because of our evil deeds, and because of our great guilt for You, O Yahweh, have punished us less than our iniquities deserve, and have given us this great deliverance;

14 Shall we again break Your commandments, and join in marriage with the people who commit these abominations? Would You not be angry with us enough to completely destroy us, leaving us without a remnant, or a survivor?

15 O Yahweh, Father of Israyl, You are righteous! For we are this day an escaped remnant. We stand in front of You in our guilt, yet no one can abide in Your presence because of this!

CHAP. 10

While Ezrayah prayed, worshiping and rev-

ering Yahweh with extended hands, confessing his sin and praising Yahweh as he weeped and bowed down in front of the House of Yahweh, a very large congregation of men, women, and children gathered around him from Israyl, for they too wept bitterly.

2 Then Shechanyah son of Yehiel, a descendant of Elam, spoke up and said to Ezrayah; We have trespassed against our Father, and we have married foreign women from the people of the land. Yet, in spite of this, there is still hope for Israyl.

3 Now let us make a covenant in front of Yahweh to put away all these wives and those who have been born to them, in accordance with the counsel as you and those decide, who tremble at the commandment of Yahweh, letting it be done according to the Law.

4 Rise up! The matter is in your hands, and we will support you! Be of great courage, and do it!

5 Then Ezrayah rose up and made the leaders of the priests, the Levites, and all Israyl vow an oath that they would do what had been advised. So they vowed the oath.

6 Then Ezrayah withdrew from in front of The House of Yahweh, and went to the room of Yahchanan son of Eliashib. While he was there, he ate no food and drank no water, for he mourned because of the guilt of the exiles.

7 A proclamation was then made throughout Yahdah and Yerusalem to all the descendants of the captives, that they must gather at Yerusalem,

8 And whoever refused to appear within three days, in accordance with the demand of the officials and the elders, all his property would be confiscated, and he himself would be excluded from the congregation of the captives.

9 So all the men of Yahdah and Benyamin gathered together at Yerusalem within three days—it was the twentieth day of the Ninth Moon, and all the people sat in the open square of The House of Yahweh, trembling because of this matter, and because of the heavy rain.

10 Then Ezrayah the priest stood up, and said to them; You have transgressed and married pagan wives, adding to the guilt of Israyl.

11 Therefore, acknowledge this to Yahweh, the Father of your fathers, and then do His will! Set yourselves apart from the people of the land, and from your pagan wives!

12 Then all the congregation responded, and said in a loud voice; Yes! What you have said, is what we must do!

13 But there are many people here, and it is the rainy season. We are not able to remain outside, and this matter can not be finished in one or two days, for there are many of us who have transgressed in this matter.

14 Let our officials have charge of the whole congregation, and let all those in our cities who have married pagan wives come at appointed times, together with the elders and judges of each city, until the fierce wrath of our Father is turned away from us because of this matter.

15 Only Yahnathan son of Asahel and Yachzeyah son of Tikvah were opposed to this, and Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite supported them.

16 Then the descendants of the captives did as suggested. Ezrayah the priest selected men who were the heads of their father's house, each of them appointed by name. They sat down on the first day of the Tenth Moon to investigate the matter.

17 By the first day of the First Moon they finished their examination of all the men who had married pagan wives.

18 Among the sons of the priests who had married pagan wives were: from the descendants of Yahshua son of Yahzadak and his brothers: Maaseyah, Eliezer, Yarib, and Gedalyah.

19 Each of them vowed that they would put away their wives and, being guilty, they sacrificed a ram of the flock as their trespass offering.

20 From the descendants of Immer: Hanani and Zebadyah.

21 From the descendants of Harim: Maaseyah, Yliyah, Shemayah, Yehiel, and Uzziyah.

22 From the descendants of Pashhur: Al-Yahenai, Masseyah, Ishmael, Nethaneel, Yahzabad, and Elasah.

23 Among the sons of the Levites were: Yahzabad, Shimei, Kelayah (that is, Kelita), Pethahyah, Yahdah, and Eliezer.

24 Guilty among the singers was Elyashib. Among the sons of the gatekeepers were: Shalum, Telem, and Uri.

25 Guilty among the sons of Israyl, from the descendants of Parosh were: Ramyah, Yeziyah, Malchiyah, Miyamin, Eleazar, Malchiyah, and Benayah.

26 From the descendants of Elam were: Mattanyah, Zecharyah, Yehiel, Abdi, Yeremoth, and Yliyah.

27 From the descendants of Zattu were: Al-Yahenai, Elyashib, Mattanyah, Yeremoth, Zabad, and Aziza.

28 From the descendants of Bebai were: Yahchanan, Hananyah, Zabbai, and Athlai.

29 From the descendants of Bani were: Meshullam, Malluch, Adayah, Yashub, Sheal, and Ramoth.

30 From the descendants of Pahath-Moab were: Adna, Chelal, Benayah, Maaseyah, Mattanyah, Bezeleel, Binnui, and Menasheh.

31 From the descendants of Harim were: Eliezer, Ishiyah, Malchiyah, Shemayah, Shimeon.

32 Benyamim, Malluch, and Shemaryah.

33 From the descendants of Hashum were: Mattenai, Mattattah, Zabad, Eliphelet, Yeremai, Menasheh, and Shimei.

34 From the descendants of Bani were: Maadai, Amram, Uel,

35 Benayah, Bedeyah, Cheluh,

36 Vanyah, Meremoth, Elyashib,

37 Mattanyah, Mattenai, Yaasai,

38 Bani, Minnui, Shimei,

39 Shelemyah, Nathan, Adayah,

40 Machnadebai, Shashai, Sharai,

41 Azareel, Shelemyah, Shemaryah,

42 Shallum, Amaryah, and Yahseph.

43 From the descendants of Nebo were: Yeiel, Mattithyah, Zabad, Zebina, Yaddai, Yahyl, and Benayah.

44 All these men had married pagan wives, and some also had children by these wives.

NEHEMYAH

Yahweh has Consoled

DIBRE HAYYAMIM

Records of the Times

These are the words of Nehemyah son of Hachalyah. It was in the moon Chislev, the Tenth Moon, of the twentieth year, while I was in the citadel of Susa,

2 That Hanani, one of my brothers, arrived with men from Yahdah. I asked them about the welfare of those of Yahdah who had survived the captivity, and who had returned to Yerusalem.

3 They answered me, and said; The survivors of the captivity in that province are in great distress and dishonor. The wall of Yerusalem is broken down, and its gates are destroyed by fire.

4 When I heard these words, I sat down and wept, and mourned for many days while I fasted and prayed in front of the Father in heaven.

5 I said: I pray, Yahweh Father in heaven, O great and awesome Father, Who keeps Your covenant and Your mercy and love with those who love You by observing and doing all Your commandments,

6 Let Your ears be attentive and let Your eyes be open, so You may listen to the prayer of Your servant which I am praying before You now, day and night, on behalf of the children of Israyl, Your servants. I acknowledge the sins of the children of Israyl, which we have committed against You, both I and my father's house have sinned.

7 We have acted corruptly against You, for we have not kept the commandments, the statutes, nor the ordinances which You commanded through Your servant Mosheh.

8 Remember, I pray, the word You commanded Your servant Mosheh, saying; If you transgress, I will scatter you throughout the nations,

9 But if you turn to Me, and keep My commandments, and observe and do them, even though some of you are thrust to the farthest reaches of the earth, I will gather them from there, and bring them to the place which I have chosen as a dwelling for My Name.

10 Now these are Your servants and Your people. You have redeemed them by Your great power, and by Your strong hands.

11 O Yahweh, I pray, let Your ears be attentive to the prayer of Your servant and the prayer of Your servants who delight in revering Your Name. Let Your servant have success this day, I pray, and may You grant him mercy in the sight of this man. For I was the king's cupbearer.

CHAP. 2

In the moon Nisan, the First Moon, in the twentieth year of King Artaxerxes, when wine was presented for the king, I took the wine and served the king. Now I had never been sad in his presence before this,

2 So the king asked me; Why do you look so sad, when you are not sick? This is depressing! Then I became dreadfully afraid,

3 And said to the king; May the king live forever! Why should I not be sad, when the city, the place of my fathers' tombs, lies waste, and its gates are destroyed by fire?

4 Then the king said to me; What is it that you want? I said a silent prayer to Yahweh, my Father in heaven,

5 And then I asked the king; If it pleases the king, and if your servant has found honor in your sight, I ask that you send me to Yahdah, to the city of my fathers' tombs, so I may rebuild it.

6 While the queen was sitting beside him, the king asked me; How long will this journey be? When will you return? So it pleased the king to send me, and I set him a time.

7 I further said to the king; If it pleases the king, may letters be given to me for the governors of the region beyond the Euphrates River, so they would allow me to pass through until I reach Yahdah;

8 And an order to Asaph, the keeper of the king's forest, to furnish timber to make beams for the gates of the citadel by The House of Yahweh, for the city wall, and for the house I will occupy? And the king granted these to me, by the guiding hand of Yahweh which was with me.

9 Then I went to the governors in the region beyond the Euphrates River, and I presented them with the king's letters. Now the king had sent with me an escort of cavalry.

10 When Sanballat the Horonite, and Tob-yah the Ammonite official heard about this, they were greatly displeased that someone had come to promote the well-being of the children of Israyl.

11 So I arrived in Yerusalem, and after being there three days.

12 I rose up during the night, and set out with a few men. I had not informed anyone what Yahweh had inspired me to do at Yerusalem; nor were there any mounts with us, except for the one I rode.

13 I went out by night through the Valley Gate, toward the Well of Figs and the Dung Gate, and examined the walls of Yerusalem which were broken down, and its gates which were destroyed by fire.

14 Then I went on to the Fountain Gate and to the King's Pool, but there was not room enough for the animal under me to go through there.

15 So I set out by night through the valley and examined the wall, then I turned back and re-entered the city through the Valley Gate.

16 I returned without the officials knowing where I had gone, or what I had done; and I had not yet told the people of Yahdah, the priests, the nobles, the officials, nor the others who would participate in the work.

17 So I said to them: You see the distress we are in, how Yerusalem lies waste, and its gates destroyed with fire. Come, let us rebuild the wall of Yerusalem, so we may no longer be mocked and ridiculed.

18 Then I told them of the hand of my Father, Who had been guiding me, and also of the king's words which he had spoken to me. So they said: Let us start rebuilding. Then they began this righteous work.

19 But when Sanballat the Horonite, Tob-yah the Ammonite official, and Geshem the Arab heard about this, they ridiculed and mocked us, and said: What is this thing you are doing? Are you going to rebel against the king?

20 I answered them with the following reply: Yahweh, our Father in heaven, will give us success. Therefore we, His servants, will rise up and build, but you have no share, or right, or record in Yerusalem.

CHAP. 3

Then Elyashib the High Priest, along with his brothers the priests, set to work to rebuild the Sheep Gate. They consecrated it and hung its doors. They repaired the walls up to the Tower of the Hundred, which they consecrated, and the Tower of Hananeel.

2 The men of Yericho rebuilt next to him, and Zaccur son of Imri rebuilt next to them.

3 The sons of Hassenaah rebuilt the Fish Gate. They laid its beams and hung its doors with its bolts and bars.

4 Next to them Meremoth, the son of Uriyah son of Hakkoz, made repairs. Next to them Meshullam, the son of Berechyah son of Meshezabeel, made repairs. Next to them Zadok son of Baana made repairs.

5 Next to them the Tekoites made repairs; but their nobles would not put their shoulders to the work under their supervisors.

6 Yahyada son of Paseah, and Meshullam son of Besodeyah repaired the Yeshanah Gate, the Old Gate. They laid its beams and hung its doors, with its bolts and bars.

7 Next to them Melatyah the Gibeonite, and Yadon the Meronothite—men of Gibeon and Mizpah who were under the jurisdiction of the governor of the region beyond the Euphrates River—made repairs.

8 Next to them Uzziel son of Harhayah, one of the goldsmiths, made repairs. Then next to him Hananyah, one of the perfume mixers, made repairs. So they restored the walls of Yerusalem up to the Broad Wall.

9 Then next to them Rephayah son of Hur, the chief of half the district of Yerusalem, made repairs.

10 Next to them Yedayah son of Harumaph made repairs in front of his house. Next to him Hattush son of Hashabneyah made repairs.

11 Malchiyah son of Harim, and Hashub son of Pahath-Moab repaired another section of wall up to the Tower of the Ovens.

12 Next to them worked Shallun son of Hal-loshesh, the chief of half the district of Yerusalem. He and his daughters made repairs.

13 Hanun and the people of Zanoah repaired the Valley Gate. They rebuilt it, and hung its doors with its bolts and bars. They also repaired a thousand cubits; about 1,500 feet, of the wall up to the Dung Gate.

14 Malchiyah son of Rechab, the chief of the district of Beth Haccerem rebuilt the Dung Gate. He built it, and he hung its doors with its bolts and bars.

15 Shallun son of Col-Hozeh, the chief of the district of Mizpah, repaired the Fountain Gate. He rebuilt it, roofed it, hung its doors with its bolts and bars, and repaired the wall of the Pool of Shelah; Siloam, by the King's Garden, up to the steps that go down from the City of David.

16 After him Nehemyah son of Azbuk, the chief of half the district of Beth Zur, made repairs up to the point opposite the tombs of David, and up to the artificial pool and the House of the Mighty.

17 After him the Levites, under the supervision of Rehum son of Bani, made repairs. Next to him Hashabiyah, the chief of half the district of Keilah, made repairs for his district.

18 After him their brothers, under the supervision of Bavai son of Henadad, the chief of the other half district of Keilah, made repairs on the wall.

19 Next to him Ezer son of Yahshua, the chief of Mizpah, repaired another section in front of the ascent of the armory, at the angle.

20 After him Baruch son of Zabbai repaired another section of wall, beginning at the angle and going up to the door of the house of Elyashib, the High Priest.

21 After him Meremoth, the son of Uriyah son of Hakkoz, repaired another section of wall, beginning at the door of the house of Elyashib and going to the end of the house of Elyashib.

22 After him the priests from the surrounding district made repairs.

23 After them Benyamin and Hasshub made repairs opposite their houses. After them Azaryah, the son of Maaseyah son of Ananyah, made repairs by his house.

24 After him Binnui son of Henadad repaired another section from the house of Azaryah to the angle and the corner.

25 Palal son of Uzai made repairs from in front of the angle and on the tower projecting from the upper palace, near the court of the guard; the prison. After him Pedayah son of Parosh made repairs.

26 The Nethinim who lived on the hill of Ophel made repairs up to a point opposite the Water Gate toward the east, to the projecting tower.

27 After them the Tekoites repaired another section of wall next to the great projecting tower up to the wall of Ophel.

28 The priests repaired above the Horse Gate, each one in front of his own house.

29 After them Zadok son of Immer repaired in front of his house, and after him Shemayah son of Shecanyah, the gatekeeper at the East Gate, made repairs.

30 After him Hananyah son of Shelemyah, and Hanun, the sixth son of Zalaph, repaired another section of wall. After him Meshullam son of Berechyah made repairs in front of his property.

31 After him Malchiyah, one of the goldsmiths, made repairs on the wall up to the house of the gifts and the merchants, in front of the Miphkad Gate; Inspection Gate, up to the upper room at the corner.

32 Then between the upper room at the corner and the Sheep Gate, the goldsmiths and merchants made repairs.

CHAP. 4

When Sanballat heard that we were rebuilding the wall, he became furiously angry, and ridiculed the people of Yahdah.

2 He spoke in the presence of his brothers and the army of Samaria, and said: What are those wretched people doing? Will they rebuild their wall? Will they offer sacrifices? Will they complete it in a day? Can they bring back the stones out of those heaps of rubble, which have been burned?

3 Tobyah the Ammonite was standing beside him, and said: Whatever they build, if even a fox jumped up on it, he would break down their wall of stones!

4 And I, Nehemyah, prayed: Hear us, O Yahweh, for we are despised! Turn their ridicule back on their own heads, and make them plunder for a land of captivity!

5 Do not forgive their iniquity, and may their sin not be blotted out in front of You: for they have provoked You to anger before the builders.

6 But we continued to repair the wall; and the whole wall was joined together up to half of its height, because the people had a mind to work.

7 When Sanballat, Tobyah, the Arabs, the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites heard that the walls of Jerusalem were being restored and the gaps were being closed, they became very angry.

8 Then they all plotted and schemed together to come and attack Jerusalem, and create trouble.

9 But we prayed to our Father, and set up a guard day and night to resist this plan.

10 Then in Yahdah it was said: The strength of the laborers is giving out. The rubble is so vast, that we are unable by ourselves to rebuild the wall.

11 And our adversaries said: Before they know or see a thing, we will be in the middle of them, and kill them. Then this work will cease.

12 When the people of Yahdah who lived near them came, they told us ten times over: Wherever you turn, they will attack.

13 So I stationed some of the men behind the lowest points of the wall at the exposed places, appointing them according to their fathers' houses, armed with swords, spears, and bows.

14 Seeing their fear, I rose and spoke to the nobles, the officials, and the rest of the people, and said: Do not be afraid of them! Remember Yahweh, Who is great and awesome, then fight for your brothers, your sons, your daughters, your wives, and your homes!

15 When our enemies heard that we were aware of their scheme, and that Yahweh had brought their plan to nothing, we all returned to the wall, each to his own work.

16 But from that time on, half of my men worked at the construction, while the other half wore armor and carried the spears, shields and bows. The officers were behind all the people of Yahdah.

17 Who were rebuilding the wall. Those who carried burdens worked at the construction with one hand, and with the other hand they held a weapon.

18 Every one of the builders had his sword strapped at his side as he worked, and the one who sounded the trumpet; shofar, stayed beside me.

19 Then I said to the nobles, the officials, and the rest of the people; The work is spread out in all directions, and we are separated far from each other along the wall.

20 Whenever you hear the sound of the trumpet; shofar, gather at the place it is sounding. Our Father Yahweh will fight for us.

21 So we continued our work, with half of them carrying spears, from the time the day broke until the stars appeared at night.

22 At that time I also said to the people; Let each man and his helper stay at night inside Yerusalem. They may serve as guards by night and in the working crew by day.

23 So neither I, my brothers, my servants, nor the guards with me removed their clothes. Each man carried his weapon in his hand, even when he went to water.

CHAP. 5

There was a great outcry of the men and their wives against their brothers of Yahdah.

2 There were some who cried out; We are having to give our sons and daughters in pledge before they will let us have grain, so we may eat and live!

3 There were some who cried out; We have mortgaged our lands, vineyards, and houses, so we might buy grain because of the famine!

4 There were also some who cried out; We have borrowed money to pay the king's tax assessed on our lands and vineyards!

5 They said; We are the same flesh and blood as our brothers, and our children are the same as their children. But we are forcing our sons and our daughters to be pledged as slaves! Truly, some of our daughters have already been brought into bondage, but it is not in our power to redeem them, for our fields and vineyards belong to others!

6 I became very angry when I heard their outcry and these charges.

7 So I very carefully thought about this matter, then I brought a charge against them, saying; You are exacting usury from your own brothers! Then I called a great convocation to deal with them,

8 And said to them; As we have been able, we have redeemed our brothers of Yahdah who had to sell themselves to the Gentiles. But you are selling your own brothers, just to have them sold back to us! They remained silent, for they had no defense.

9 Then I said; What you are doing is not right! Should you not walk in the reverence of Yahweh, because of the censure and scorn of the Gentiles, our enemies?

10 I, as well as my brothers and my men, are also lending the people money and grain, but let the exacting of usury cease!

11 Return their fields, their vineyards, their olive groves, and their houses to them this day, and the debt for usury you have charged them—the hundredth part of the money, grain, new wine, and oil that you have claimed!

12 They agreed, and said; We will return everything, and we will require nothing more of them. We will do as you require. However, I summoned the priests, and made them vow an oath that they would do as they had promised.

13 Then I shook out the fold of my pocket, and said; So may Yahweh shake out each man from his own house, and from his own property, who does not perform this oath. In this way may he be shaken out and emptied! And all the congregation said; So be it! And HalleluYahweh! And the people kept their vow.

14 From the time I was appointed to be the governor in the land of Yahdah—from the twentieth year until the thirty-second year of King Artaxerxes, twelve years—neither I nor my brothers ate the governor's food allotment.

15 But the previous governors before me placed a heavy burden on the people, and took from them forty shekels of silver; about one pound, a day for food and wine. Yes, even their assistants tyrannized the people, but I did not do so, because of my reverence for Yahweh.

16 Instead, I continued the work on this wall, and we did not acquire any land. All my men gathered there for the work.

17 At my table sat 150 men and officials of Yahdah, besides those who came to us from the surrounding nations.

18 The daily preparations of food consisted of one ox, six choice sheep, and fowl. Every ten days wine was delivered in abundance. Yet in spite of this, I did not demand the governor's food allotment, because the demands were heavy on the people.

19 Remember me, O Yahweh, for the righteousness I have done on behalf of the people.

CHAP. 6

When Sanballat, Tobyah, Geshem the Arab, and all our other enemies heard that I had rebuilt the wall, and no gaps remained in it (although at that time I had not yet hung the doors of the gates),

2 Sanballat and Geshem sent a message to me saying; Come, let us meet together in Keppherim; one of the villages, in the plain of Ono. But their purpose was to harm me.

3 So I dispatched a messenger to them, saying; I am doing a great work, and I am unable to come down. Why should the work cease while I leave it to go down to you?

4 They sent this same message to me four times, but I answered them in the same manner.

5 Then Sanballat sent his messenger to me as he had done before, for the fifth time, with an open letter in his hand.

6 The following was written in it: It is reported among the nations, and Geshem says it is true, that you and the people of Yahdah are planning to rebel. According to the report, it is for that reason that you are rebuilding the wall, so you may become their king.

7 You have also appointed prophets to prophesy in Yerusalem, and say; There is a king in Yahdah! Now the king will be informed of this report, so come and let us hold a conference.

8 I sent back to him this reply, saying; Such things as you accuse are not being done. You have invented them out of your own imagination!

9 They just wanted to intimidate us, thinking to themselves; This will undermine their determination to do the work, and it will not be accomplished. Now therefore, O Yahweh, strengthen my determination!

10 After this, I went to the house of Shemayah, the son of Delayah son of Mehetabeel, who spoke to me privately saying; Let us meet at The House of Yahweh, inside the sanctuary, and let us shut the doors, for they are coming to kill you. By night they are coming to kill you.

11 But I answered, and said; Should a man in my position run? Who like me would enter the sanctuary to save his life? I will not go!

12 Besides, I perceived that Yahweh had not sent him, but that the prophecy he spoke against me came from Tobyah and Sanballat, who had hired him.

13 For he had been hired to terrify me, and in my terror commit a sin by doing this. They would then give me a bad name, and reproach me in an evil report.

14 Yahweh, remember Tobyah and Sanballat for these deeds of theirs, and also Noadyah and the rest of the prophets who would have made me afraid.

15 The wall was finished on the twenty-fifth of Elul, the Sixth Moon, in 52 days.

16 When all our enemies heard of this, and all the Gentiles around us saw this thing, our enemies became discouraged and their self-confidence diminished markedly, for they realized this work was done by Yahweh our Father.

17 In those days many letters from the nobles of Yahdah went to Tobyah, and the letters of Tobyah went to them.

18 Many in Yahdah were bound to him by an oath, for he was the son-in-law of Shechanyah son of Arah, and his own son Yahchanan had married the daughter of Meshullam son of Berechyah.

19 So they kept reporting his kind deeds to me, and reporting what I said to him; and Tobyah kept sending me threatening letters.

CHAP. 7

When the wall was rebuilt and I had hung the doors, I then appointed the gatekeepers, the singers, and the Levites.

2 I then placed Hanani my brother in charge of Yerusalem, along with Hananyah, the chief of the citadel, for he was a faithful and loyal man, and revered Yahweh more than many.

3 I gave them these orders, and said; Do not open the gates of Yerusalem until the sun is hot. While the gatekeepers are still standing guard, you must shut the gates and bar them. Appoint guards from the men of Yerusalem, some to their positions at the watch-stations, and some in front of their own houses.

4 Now the city was large and spacious, but the people in it were few and the houses were not rebuilt.

5 Then Yahweh put it in my heart; mind, to gather the nobles, the officials, and the people to be officially registered by their genealogies; for I had found a register of the genealogy of those who had come up in the first return, in which the following was recorded:

6 These were the people of the province who returned from captivity, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had carried captive to Babylon, and who returned to Yerusalem and Yahdah, each one to his own city.

7 They were the ones who came with Zerubabel, Yahshua, Nehemyah, Azaryah, Raamyah, Nahamani, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispereth, Bigvai, Nehum, and Baanah—and the number of these men of the people of Israyl were:

8 The descendants of Parosh, 2,172.

9 The descendants of Shephatyah, 372.

10 The descendants of Arah, 652.

11 The descendants of Pahath-Moab, from the descendants of Yahshua and Yahab, 2,818.

12 The descendants of Elam, 1,254.

13 The descendants of Zattu, 845.

14 The descendants of Zaccai, 760.

15 The descendants of Binnui, 648.

16 The descendants of Bebai, 628.

17 The descendants of Azgad, 2,322.

18 The descendants of Adonikam, 667.

19 The descendants of Bigvai, 2,067.

20 The descendants of Adin, 655.

21 The descendants of Ater, through Hezekyah, 98.

- 22 The descendants of Hashum, 328.
 23 The descendants of Bezai, 324.
 24 The descendants of Hariph, 112.
 25 The descendants of Gibeon, 95.
 26 The men from the cities of Bethlehem and Netophah, 188.
 27 The men from the city of Anathoth, 128.
 28 The men from the city of Beth Azmaveth, 42.
 29 The men from the cities of Kiryath Yearim, Chephirah, and Beeroth, 743.
 30 The men from the cities of Ramah and Geba, 621.
 31 The men from the city of Michmas, 122.
 32 The men from the cities of Bethel and Ai, 123.
 33 The men from the other city of Nebo, 52.
 34 The men from the other city of Elam, 1,254.
 35 The men from the city of Harim, 320.
 36 The men from the city of Jericho, 345.
 37 The men from the cities of Lod, Hadid, and Ono, 721.
 38 The men from the city of Senaah, 3,930.
 39 These were the Aaronic priests who returned: The descendants of Yedayah, through the family; house, of Yahshua, 973.
 40 The descendants of Immer, 1,052.
 41 The descendants of Pashhur, 1,247.
 42 The descendants of Harim, 1,017.
 43 These were the Levites who returned: The descendants of Yahshua and Kadmiel, through the line of Hodeyah, 74.
 44 These were the Levitical Singers who returned, through the descendants of Asaph, 148.
 45 These were the Levitical Gatekeepers who returned, through the descendants of Shallum, Ater, Talmon, Akkub, Hatita, and Shobai, 138.
 46 These were the Nethinim; Sanctuary Servants, who returned, who were the descendants of: Ziha, Hasupha, Tabbaoth,
 47 Keros, Sia, Padon,
 48 Lebana, Hagaba, Shalmal,
 49 Hanan, Giddel, Gahar,
 50 Reayah, Rezin, Nekoda,
 51 Gazzam, Uzza, Paseah,
 52 Besai, Meunim, Nephishesim,
 53 Bakbuk, Hakupha, Harhur,
 54 Bazlith, Mehida, Harsha,
 55 Barkos, Sisera, Temah,
 56 Netziach, and Hatipha.
 57 These were the servants of Solomon who returned, who were the descendants of: Sotai, Sophereth, Perida,
 58 Yaala, Darkon, Giddel,
 59 Shephatiah, Hattil, Pochereth Hazzebaim, and Amon.
 60 All the descendants of the Nethinim and the descendants of Solomon's servants who returned, numbered 392.

61 These were the ones who came from the cities of Tel Melah, Tel Harsha, Cherub, Adan, and Immer, but they were unable to identify their father's house, nor was their origin proven by genealogy to be of Israyl—

62 The descendants of Delayah, Tobyah, and Nekoda were questioned about their claim to be Israylites. These men numbered 642;

63 And included these descendants of the priests: the descendants of Hobayah, Hakkoz, and Barzillai (who had married one of the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite and was called by that name)—

64 These searched their register in the official genealogies, but because their names were not found written there, they were disqualified from the priesthood, being defiled.

65 Therefore, the governor; the Tirshatha, ordered them not to eat any of the most holy things until the High Priest could consult with the Urim and Thummim.

66 The total number of the whole congregation was 42,360;

67 Besides their male and female servants, which numbered 7,337, they had 245 men and women singers.

68 Their horses numbered 736, their mules numbered 245.

69 Their camels numbered 435, and their donkeys numbered 6,720.

70 Some of the heads of the fathers' houses, when they arrived at Yerusalem, contributed to The Work (The House of Yahweh). The governor gave to the treasury 1,000 gold drachmas; about 19 pounds of gold, 50 bowls, and 530 priestly garments.

71 Some of the heads of the fathers' houses contributed to the treasury of The Work (The House of Yahweh) 20,000 gold drachmas; about 375 pounds of gold, and 2,200 silver minas; about 1,667 pounds of silver.

72 Then the rest of the people gave 20,000 gold drachmas; about 375 pounds of gold, 2,000 silver minas; about 1,500 pounds of silver, and 67 priestly garments.

73 The priests, the Levites, the singers, the gatekeepers, and the Nethinim moved into their own cities, along with some of the other people, and the rest of the children of Israyl moved into their own cities. When the Seventh Moon came, the children of Israyl were settled in their cities.

CHAP. 8

All the people gathered together in one body in the open square in front of the Water Gate, and they requested Ezrayah the scribe to bring out The Book of the Law given through Moshah, which Yahweh had commanded Israyl.

2 So Ezrayah the priest brought the Law before the congregation, which was made up of men and women, and all who could understand, on the first day of the Seventh Moon; the Feast of Trumpets.

3 He read from the Book of the Law in the open square in front of the Water Gate, in the presence of the men and women, and all who understood, from morning until noon. All the people listened attentively to the words of the Book of the Law.

4 Ezrayah the scribe stood on a wooden podium which was constructed for this purpose. Standing beside him, to his right, was Matthyah, Shema, Anayah, Uriyah, Hilkiyah, and Maaseyah. Standing beside him to his left was Pedayah, Mishael, Malchiyah, Hashum, Hashbadana, Zecharyah, and Meshullam.

5 Then Ezrayah opened the book in the sight of all the people—for he was standing higher than all the people—and when he opened it, all the people stood up.

6 When Ezrayah praised Yahweh, the Almighty Father, saying; HalleluYahweh! all the people then responded, saying; HalleluYahweh! Let it be so!—while they all lifted up their hands. Then they worshiped and paid homage to Yahweh, the heavenly Father, bowing their heads with their faces to the ground.

7 The Levites—Yahshua, Bani, Sherebyah, Yamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodiya, Maaseyah, Kelita, Azaryah, Yahzabad, Hanan, and Pelayah, instructed the people in the Law, while all the people remained standing there.

8 They explained the readings from the Book of the Law, making it comprehensible, so they might understand the meaning.

9 Then Nehemyah the governor, Ezrayah the priest and scribe, and the Levites who instructed the people, said to all the people; This day is holy to Yahweh your Father. Do not mourn nor weep—for all the people wept when they heard the words of the Law.

10 Nehemyah said to them; Go, enjoy your rich food and sweet drinks, and send some to those who have nothing prepared. This day is holy to Yahweh. Do not grieve nor sorrow, for your joy in Yahweh is your strength.

11 The Levites also urged the people not to grieve, saying; Hold your peace, for this day is holy. Do not grieve.

12 Then all the people went away to eat, to drink, to share portions, and to rejoice at this great Feast of Trumpets, for they understood the things that were revealed to them.

13 On the second day the heads of the fathers' houses of the people, with the priests and Levites, were again gathered around Ezrayah in order to understand the words of the Law.

14 Then they found written in the Law, which Yahweh had commanded through Mo- sheh, that the children of Israyl must dwell in booths during the Feast of Tabernacles in the Seventh Moon.

15 So they issued the following proclamation, and circulated it throughout all their cities and in Yerusalem: Go out to the hill country and bring in olive branches, pine branches, myrtle branches, palm branches, and branches of other leafy trees to build booths, just as it is written.

16 Then the people went out and brought them, and built booths for themselves, each one on the flat roof of his house or in their courtyards, in the courts of The House of Yahweh, in the open square of the Water Gate, and in the open square of the Gate of Ephraim.

17 The whole congregation of those who had returned from captivity and exile built booths and dwelled in them—for since the days of Yahshua son of Nun until that day, the children of Israyl had not done this—and there was very great joy and gladness.

18 Day after day, from the first day through the last day of the Feast, he read from the Book of the Law of Yahweh for seven days. Then on the eighth day was a holy convocation, the Last Great Day, according to what is written.

CHAP. 9

Now on the twenty-fourth day of this moon the children of Israyl gathered themselves together with fasting, with sackcloth, and with dust on their heads, which represented the material man was created from.

2 Then those of the lineage of Israyl, who had separated themselves from all foreigners, stood up and acknowledged their sins, and the iniquities of their fathers.

3 While they remained standing in their place, they read from the Book of the Law of Yahweh their Father for the fourth part of the day, then for another fourth they revered and worshiped Yahweh, giving thanks and praise to Him with uplifted hands.

4 Then Yahshua, Bani, Kadmiel, Shebanyah, Bunni, Sherebyah, Bani, and Chenani stood on the steps of the Levites and cried out with a loud voice to Yahweh their Father.

5 And the Levites, Yahshua, Kadmiel, Bani Hashabneyah, Sherebyah, Hodiya, Shebanyah, and Pethahyah said; Stand up, and praise Yahweh your Father for ever and ever! May Your glorious Name, exalted above all blessing and praise, be remembered and exalted!

6 You alone are Yahweh, You have created the heavens, the heaven of heavens and all their host, the earth and everything upon it, the waters and everything in them. You preserve them all, and the host of heaven worships You.

7 You are Yahweh our Father Who chose Abram, and brought him out of Ur of the Chaldees, and gave him the name of Abraham.

8 When You found his heart faithful in front of You. You made a covenant with him, to give the land of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Yebusites, and the Girgashites—to give it to his descendants. You have kept the promise You have made, for You are righteous.

9 You saw the affliction of our fathers in Egypt, and You heard their cry by the Red Sea.

10 You sent miraculous signs and wonders against Pharaoh, against all his officials, and against all the people of his land, for You knew that they had acted proudly against our fathers. You made a Name for Yourself, as it is to this day.

11 You divided the sea in front of them, so they went through the midst of the sea on dry ground, but their pursuers You hurled into the depths, like a stone into the mighty waters.

12 You led them by day with a pillar of cloud, and by night with a pillar of fire, to give them light on the way they were to go.

13 You came down upon the Mount of Sinai, and spoke with them from heaven, and gave them just ordinances and true laws, and righteous statutes and commandments.

14 You made known to them Your holy Sabbath, and commanded them precepts, statutes, and laws, through the hand of Mosheh Your servant.

15 You gave them bread from heaven for their hunger, and brought them water out of the rock for their thirst. You ordered them to go in to take possession of the land which You vowed with an oath to give them.

16 But they, our fathers, acted arrogantly, and stiffened their necks in stubbornness, and did not listen to Your command.

17 They refused to obey, and failed to remember Your miracles, which You performed among them. They became stubborn, and in their rebellion they chose a leader in order to return to their bondage. But You are our Father, willing to forgive, merciful and compassionate, slow to anger, with unfailing kindness, and You did not forsake them.

18 Even when they made the molded altars for themselves, and said: This is your god which brought you up out of Egypt! and committed sin, provoking You to anger:

19 In Your great mercy You did not forsake them in the wilderness. The pillar of cloud did not depart from them by day, which guided them on the way, nor did the pillar of fire by night depart from them, which gave light on the way they were to go.

20 You also gave Your righteous Spirit to instruct them, and did not withhold Your manna from their mouth, and You gave them water for their thirst.

21 Forty years You supported them in the wilderness, and they lacked nothing. Their clothes did not wear out, nor did their feet swell.

22 You gave them kingdoms and peoples, allotting to them even the outermost boundaries. They took possession of the land of Sihon, the king of Heshbon, and the land of Og, the king of Bashan.

23 You made their children as numerous as the stars in the sky, and You brought them into the land which You had ordered their fathers to go in and possess.

24 So the people went in and possessed the land. You subjected under them the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, and gave them into their hands, with their kings and the peoples of the land, to deal with them as they pleased.

25 They captured fortified cities and productive land. They took possession of houses filled with possessions, cisterns already dug, vineyards, olive groves, and fruit trees in abundance. So they ate and were filled, they grew fat and delighted themselves in Your great bountifulness.

26 But they became disobedient and rebelled against You. They cast Your Law behind their backs, and killed Your prophets who prophesied against them, trying to turn them back to Yourself, and they worked great provocations, provoking You to anger.

27 Then You handed them over to their enemies, who oppressed them. So in the time of their trouble, when they cried to You, You heard from heaven, and in Your great compassion You sent them saviors who saved them from the hands of their enemies.

28 But as soon as they were at rest, they again did evil in Your eyes. Then You abandoned them into the hands of their enemies, so they ruled over them. Yet when they turned and cried to You again, You heard them from heaven, and in Your compassion You saved them many times.

29 You testified a warning against them, so You might bring them back to Your Law. Yet they acted arrogantly, and would not obey Your commandments, and sinned against Your judgments (which if a man will perform and do them, he shall even live by them). But they shrugged their shoulders, stiffened their necks, and refused to hear.

30 Yet for many years You had patience with them, and testified a warning to them by Your Spirit through Your prophets; but they did not listen, so You turned them over to the hands of the peoples of the lands.

31 Nevertheless, in Your great mercy You did not utterly destroy them nor forsake them, for You are a Father of mercy and compassion.

32 Now, O Yahweh, our great, mighty, and awesome Father, Who keeps His covenant and love, do not let all this trouble seem a small thing in front of You—this trouble that has come upon us, our kings, our rulers, our priests, our prophets, our fathers, and upon all Your people, from the days of the kings of Assyria until this very day.

33 You have acted right and just in all that has come upon us, for You have dealt faithfully, while we have dealt unjustly.

34 Neither have our kings, our leaders, our priests, nor our fathers, kept Your Law. They have not paid attention to Your commandments nor to Your testimonies, with which You warned them.

35 They have not served You, nor have they turned away from their evil works, not even in their own kingdom despite the manifold bountifulness You bestowed upon them, nor in the spacious and rich land which You set in front of them.

36 So here we are this day, subjected like servants in the land You gave to our forefathers, so they could eat the fruit from its rich bountifulness. Here we are this day, servants in it.

37 And its abundant increase goes to the kings You have set over us because of all our sins. They rule over our bodies and our cattle just as they please, and we are in great distress.

38 Because of all these things, we are making a binding covenant, and writing it; and our rulers, our Levites, and our priests are affixing their seals upon it.

CHAP. 10

Those who affixed their seals on this document of the binding covenant were recorded. Nehemyah the governor, the son of Hacalyah affixed his seal. Then the Aaronic priests who affixed their seals on the covenant were: Zedekyah,

- 2 Serayah, Azaryah, Yeremyah,
- 3 Pashhur, Amaryah, Malchiyah,
- 4 Hattush, Shebanyah, Malluch,
- 5 Harim, Meremoth, Obadyah,
- 6 Daniel, Ginnethon, Baruch,
- 7 Meshullam, Abiyah, Miyamin,
- 8 Maazyah, Bilgai, and Shemayah.

9 The Levites who affixed their seals on the covenant were: Yahshua son of Azanyah, Binui, of the descendants of Henadad, Kadmiel,

10 And their brothers Shebanyah, Hodayah, Kelita, Pelayah, Hanan,

- 11 Micahyah, Rehob, Hashabayah,
- 12 Zaccur, Sherebyah, Shebanyah,
- 13 Hodayah, Bani, and Beninu.

14 The leaders of the people who affixed their seals on the covenant were: Parosh, Pahath-Moab, Elam, Zattu, Bani.

15 Bunni, Azgad, Bebai,

16 Adonyah, Bigvai, Adin,

17 Ater, Hezekyah, Azzur,

18 Hodayah, Hashum, Bezai,

19 Hariph, Anathoth, Nebai,

20 Magpiash, Meshullam, Hezir,

21 Meshezabeel, Zadok, Yaddua,

22 Pelatyah, Hanan, Anayah,

23 Hoshea, Hananyah, Hasshub,

24 Hallohes, Pilha, Shobek,

25 Rehum, Hashabnah, Maaseyah,

26 Ahiyah, Hanan, Anan,

27 Malluch, Harim, and Baanah.

28 The rest of the people—the priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers, the Nethinim, and all those who had set themselves apart from the people of the land to the obedience of the Law of Yahweh, along with their wives, their sons, and their daughters—everyone who had knowledge and understanding.

29 Joined with their noble brothers, and bound themselves with a curse and a vowed oath to follow the Law of Yahweh which was given through Mosheh, the servant of Yahweh, and to observe and do all the commandments of Yahweh our Father, along with His ordinances and His statutes.

30 We vowed that we would not give our daughters in marriage to the peoples of the land, nor would we take their daughters for our sons.

31 We vowed that if the peoples of the land brought any merchandise or grain to sell on the Sabbath day, we would not buy this from them on the Weekly Sabbath nor on a holy day during Yahweh's Feasts. We vowed we would let the land rest every seventh year, and that we would cancel the debts of our brothers in the seventh year.

32 Also we assumed the obligation to contribute one-third of a shekel; about 1/8 ounce of silver, each year for the service of The House of Yahweh—

33 For the showbread, for the grain offerings and burnt offerings for the Tamid, the regular morning and evening sacrifices, for the offerings for the Sabbaths, for the New Moons, and for the set appointed Feasts, for the consecrated gift offerings, for the sin offerings to make atonement for Israyl, and for all the work of The House of Yahweh.

34 We cast lots among the priests, the Levites, and the people, to determine the supply of wood each of the fathers' houses were to bring at the appointed Feasts year by year, in order to burn it on the altar of Yahweh our Father, just as it is written in the Law.

35 We also assumed the responsibility of bringing the firstfruits of our harvests and the firstfruits of the fruit of our trees, year by year, to The House of Yahweh,

36 As well as the firstborn of our sons, whom we would redeem, and the firstborn of our cattle, herds, and flocks. We would bring these to the priests who minister at The House of Yahweh, just as it is written in the Law.

37 We vowed we would also bring the first of our ground meal, the first of our offerings, the first of our fruits from all kinds of trees, the first of our wine and oil, to the storerooms of The House of Yahweh for the priests. We will also bring a tithe of our harvests to the Levites who collect the tithes in all the cities where we work.

38 A priest descended from Aaron would accompany the Levites when they receive the tithes, and the Levites were then to bring a tenth of the tithes up to The House of Yahweh, to the rooms of the storehouse.

39 All the children of the sons of Israyl and the children of sons of Levi are to bring their offerings of grain, of new wine, and of oil to the rooms of the storehouse, where the articles of the sanctuary are kept, and where the ministering priests and the gatekeepers and singers stay. We vowed by a curse and an oath that we would not neglect The House of Yahweh.

CHAP. 11

Now all the leaders of the people lived in Yerusalem, but the rest of the people had cast lots to bring one out of every ten to live in Yerusalem, the holy city, while the remaining nine remained in the outlying cities.

2 The people praised all the men who volunteered to live at Yerusalem.

3 These are the heads of the province who lived in Yerusalem. (However, in the cities of Yahdah everyone lived on his own possession in their cities: Israylites, priests, Levites, Nethinim, and descendants of Solomon's servants,

4 While others of the children of Yahdah and Benyamin lived in Yerusalem.) These are the descendants of Yahdah who lived in Yerusalem: Athalyah, the son of Uzziyah, son of Zecharyah, son of Amaryah, son of Shephatyah, son of Mahalaleel, a descendant of Perez son of Yahdah;

5 Then Maaseyah, the son of Baruch, son of Col-Hozeh, son of Hazayah, son of Adayah, son of Yahyarib, son of Zecharyah, a descendant of Shelah son of Yahdah.

6 All the descendants of Perez who lived in Yerusalem numbered 468 outstanding men.

7 These are the descendants of Benyamin who lived in Yerusalem: Sallu, the son of Meshullam, son of Yoed, son of Pedayah, son of Kolayah, son of Maaseyah, son of Ithiel, son of Yeshayah,

8 And after him was Gabbai and Sallai. The descendants of Benyamin who lived in Yerusalem numbered 928 men.

9 Yahyl son of Zichri was their chief official, and Yahdah, the son of Hassenuah, was second in command over the city.

10 These are the descendants of the Aaronic priests who lived in Yerusalem: Yedayah, the son of Yahyarib, Yachin, 11 Serayah, the son of Hilkiyah, son of Meshullam, son of Zadok, son of Merayoth, son of Ahitub, was the chief of The House of Yahweh.

12 And his brothers who carried on the work of The House of Yahweh numbered 822 men. Adayah, the son of Zeroham, son of Pelalyah, son of Amzi, son of Zecharyah, son of Pashhur, son of Malchiyah,

13 And his brothers, who were heads of their fathers' houses, numbered 242. Amashai, the son of Azareel, son of Ahzai, son of Meshillemoth, son of Immer, 14 And his brothers, heads of the fathers' houses, outstanding men, numbered 128. Their chief official was Zabdriel ben Ha-Gedolim: son of high priestly descent.

15 The descendants of the Levites who lived in the city of Yerusalem were: Shemayah, the son of Hasshub, son of Azrikam, son of Hashabyah, son of Bunni.

16 Shabbethai and Yahzabad, who were Levitical chiefs, were in charge of the business outside The House of Yahweh.

17 Mattanyah, the son of Micahyah, son of Zabdi, son of Asaph, was the director who led in remembering Yahweh's Name, thanksgiving, and prayer, while Bakkbukyah was second among his brothers. Then there was Abda, the son of Shammua, son of Galal, son of Yeduthun.

18 All the Levites in the holy city numbered 284 men.

19 The gatekeepers who lived in Yerusalem were: Akkub, Talmon, and their brothers who watched the gates. They numbered 172.

20 All the rest of the sons of Israyl, and the priests and Levites, lived in all the cities of Yahdah, everyone in his own inheritance.

21 However, the Nethinim lived in the Ophel. Ziha and Gishpa were over the Nethinim.

22 The official in charge of the Levites in Yerusalem was Uzzi, the son of Bani, son of Hashabyah, son of Mattanyah, son of Micahyah. He was one of the descendants of Asaph, who were the song leaders for the worship service of The House of Yahweh.

23 The singers were under the authority of the king, who commanded a certain number of them should be singers day by day.

24 Pethahyah, the son of Meshezabeel, one of the descendants of Zerach son of Yahdah, represented the matters of the people to the king.

25 Some of the people of Yahdah lived in their own villages with their own fields. Some of the children of Yahdah lived in Kiryath Arba with its surrounding villages, some in Dibon with its surrounding villages, in Yekabzeel with its surrounding villages, as well as in:

26 Yahshua, Moladah, Beth Pelet,

27 Hazar Shual, and Beersheba with its surrounding villages.

28 They lived in Ziklag and Meconah with its surrounding villages.

29 In En Rimmon, Zorah, Yarmuth,

30 Zanoah and Adullam with their surrounding villages, in Lachish with its commonlands, and in Azekah with its surrounding villages. They settled from Beersheba to the Valley of Hinnom.

31 The descendants of the sons of Benjamin lived in Geba, Michmas, Aiya, and Bethel, and in their surrounding villages.

32 They lived in Anathoth, Nob, Ananyah,

33 Hazor, Ramah, Gittaim,

34 Hadid, Zeboyim, Neballat,

35 Lod, Ono, and in the Valley of Craftsmen.

36 Also, some of the divisions of Levites in Yahdah settled in Benjamin.

CHAP. 12

These are the Aaronic priests, who are Levites, who came up with Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel (Pedayah), and Yahshua. They were: Serayah, Yeremyah, Ezrayah,

2 Amaryah, Malluch, Hattush,

3 Shecanyah, Rehum, Meremoth,

4 Iddo, Ginnethoi, Abiyah,

5 Miyamin, Maadyah, Bilgah,

6 And Shemayah, as well as Yahyarib, Yedayah,

7 Sallu, Amok, Hilkiyah, and Yedayah. These were the chiefs of those Levites and their brothers during the days of Yahshua.

8 These are the Levites who came up with them: Yahshua, Binnui, Kadmiel, Sherebyah, Yahdah, and Mattanyah who, with their brothers, were in charge of the songs of praise.

9 Bakbukyah and Unni, their brothers, stood on the opposite side of them in the song service.

10 This was the line of High Priests beginning during the time of Zerubbabel: Yahshua begot Yahyakim, Yahyakim begot Elyashib, Elyashib begot Yahyada, 11 Yahyada begot Yahchanan, then Yahchanan begot Yaddua.

12 Now in the days when Yahyakim was High Priest, the priests who were the heads of the fathers' houses were these: The head of the house; family, of Serayah was Merayah. The head of the house of Yeremyah was Hananyah.

13 The head of the house of Ezrayah was Meshullam. The head of the house of Amaryah was Yahchanan.

14 The head of the house of Malluch was Yahnathan. The head of the house of Shebanyah was Yahseph.

15 The head of the house of Harim was Adna. The head of the house of Merayoth was Helkai.

16 The head of the house of Iddo was Zecharyah. The head of the house of Ginnethon was Meshullam.

17 The head of the house of Abiyah was Zichri. The head of the house of Miyamin was not written. The head of the house of Moadyah was Piltai.

18 The head of the house of Bilgah was Shammua. The head of the house of Shemayah was Yahnathan.

19 The head of the house of Yahyarib was Mattanai. The head of the house of Yedayah was Uzzi.

20 The head of the house of Sallu was Kallai. The head of the house of Amok was Eber.

21 The head of the house of Hilkiyah was Hashabiyah, and the head of the house of Yedayah was Nethaneel.

22 The Levites, who were heads of their fathers' houses, were recorded in the days of Elyashib, Yahyada, Yahchanan, and Yaddua. Those who were heads of fathers' houses of the Aaronic priests were recorded from the reign of Darius.

23 The sons of Levi, who were the heads of their fathers' houses up to the days of Yahchanan, the High Priest, the son of Elyashib, were written in the book of the chronicles.

24 The heads of the fathers' houses of the Levites were Hashabiyah, Sherebyah, and Yahshua son of Kadmiel, and their brothers, who stood on opposite sides of each other, gave praise and thanks in song, one group responding to the other group, according to the directions of David, the man of Yahweh.

25 The heads of the fathers' houses of the gatekeepers, who kept watch at the gates of the storerooms, were Mattanyah, Bakbukyah, Obadyah, Meshullam, Talmon, and Akkub.

26 These lived in the time of Yahyakim, the son of Yahshua son of Yahzadak, the High Priest, and also during the time of Nehemyah the governor, and Ezrayah the scribe and priest.

27 At the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem, the Levites were sought out from the places they lived. They were then brought to Jerusalem in order to perform the dedication with great joy, with songs of thanksgiving and praise, and with the music of the cymbals, harps, and zithers.

28 So the singers, who were Levites, gathered together from the territory around Jerusalem.

from the villages of the Netophathites.

29 From Beth Haggilgal, and from their lands around Geba and Azmaveth (the singers had built villages for themselves in all directions from Yerusalem).

30 First, the priests and Levites ceremonially sanctified and purified themselves, then they ceremonially purified the people, the gates, and the wall.

31 Then I had the chiefs of Yahdah come up on the wall, and then I appointed two large thanksgiving choirs. One of the choirs was to proceed alongside the wall to the right, going toward the Dung Gate.

32 Hoshayah and half of the chiefs of Yahdah followed the choir proceeding to the right.

33 Along with Azaryah, Ezrayah, and Meshullam.

34 Yahdah, Benyamin, Shemayah, and Yeremyah accompanied the choir proceeding to the right.

35 Sounding the trumpets; chatsotserot, for they were descendants of the Aaronic priests. Zecharyah, the son of Yahnathan, son of Shemayah, son of Mattanyah, son of Micahyah, son of Zaccur, the son of Asaph, 36 And his brothers, Shemayah, Azarel, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethaneel, Yahdah, and Hanani played the musical instruments prescribed by David, the man of Yahweh. Ezrayah, the priest and scribe, led this procession.

37 They walked along from the Dung Gate to the Fountain Gate, then proceeded directly up the steps of the City of David, passing above the house of David to the Water Gate, toward the east.

38 The other choir proceeded to the left. I, Nehemyah, and the other half of the chiefs of Yahdah followed along behind them. We proceeded along the wall past the Tower of the Ovens to the Broad Wall.

39 Over the Gate of Ephraim, the Yeshanah Gate, the Old Gate, the Fish Gate, the Tower of Hananeel, and the Tower of the Hundred, then up to Sheep Gate. At the Gate of the Guard we came to a halt.

40 Then the two choirs that sang and played the songs of praise and thanks to Yahweh took their positions in The House of Yahweh, as did I and half the officials with me.

41 Then the Aaronic priests, Elyakim, Maaseyah, Miyamin, Micahyah, Al-Yahenai, Zecharyah, and Hananyah sounded the trumpets; chatsotserot.

42 Along with Maaseyah, Shemayah, Eleazar, Uzzi, Yahchanan, Malchiyah, Elam, and Ezer. The singers sang inspiringly under the direction of Yezrayah.

43 That day they offered great sacrifices, and rejoiced, for Yahweh had given them great joy. The women and children also rejoiced, so the sound of rejoicing in Yerusalem was heard very far away.

44 At that time men were appointed to be in charge of the rooms of the storehouse for the offerings, for the firstfruits, and for the tithes, and to gather in to the storehouses the portions specified by the Law from the fields of the cities for the priests and the Levites, because Yahdah held the priests and Levites who ministered in great esteem.

45 They, as well as the singers and gatekeepers, conducted the service of Yahweh, and performed the service of purification, according to the directions of David, and of Solomon his son.

46 In ancient times, in the days of David and Asaph, there had been directors for the singers and for the songs of praise and thanksgiving to Yahweh.

47 In the days of Zerubbabel and Nehemyah all Israyl provided regular daily portions for the singers and gatekeepers. They also dedicated their tithes to the Levites, then the Levites dedicated the tithe of what they had received to the Aaronic priests.

CHAP. 13

On that day they read aloud from the Book of the Law given through Mosheh, and they found written in it that no Ammonite or Moabite should ever enter into the congregation of Yahweh.

2 Because they had not welcomed the children of Israyl with food and water, but they had hired Balaam to curse them. (However, our Father turned the curse of Balaam into a blessing upon them.)

3 When they had heard the Law, they excluded all the foreigners from Israyl.

4 Before this, Elyashib the priest, who was in charge of the rooms in The House of Yahweh, and who was closely allied with Tobyah,

5 Had provided him a spacious room previously used to store the grain offerings, the frankincense, the articles, and the tithes of grain, new wine and oil, which were commanded to be distributed to the Levites, the singers, and the gatekeepers, and for the offerings for the priests.

6 While all this was taking place I was not in Yerusalem, for in the thirty-second year of Artaxerses king of Babylon, I had returned to the king. Some time later I obtained permission from the king.

7 And I returned to Yerusalem to discover the evil thing Elyashib had done for Tobyah, by providing him a room in the courts of The House of Yahweh.

8 This extremely annoyed me, so I threw all of Tobyah's household possessions out of the room.

9 I commanded them to ritually cleanse the rooms, and then I put back into them the articles of The House of Yahweh, along with the grain offerings and the frankincense.

10 I further learned that the Levites had not been given their allotted portions, because each of the Levites and the singers who performed the work had returned to his own fields in order to earn a living.

11 I reprimanded the elders, and asked; Why is The House of Yahweh forsaken? Then I summoned the Levites and the singers, and I positioned them in their assigned places.

12 All Yahdah again brought the tithes of the grain, the new wine, and the oil into the storehouse.

13 I appointed Shelemyah the priest, Zadok the scribe, and Pedayah from among the Levites, to be in charge of the storerooms, and I assigned Hanan, the son of Zaccur, son of Matanyahu, to assist them, for they were all considered reliable and trustworthy. Their responsibility was to distribute the allotted portions to their brothers.

14 Remember me, O Yahweh my Father, for this, and do not blot out my righteous deeds I have done for The House of Yahweh and for its services!

15 In those days I saw men of Yahdah treading in their winepresses and harvesting grain on the Sabbath day. I saw men loading their donkeys with wine, grapes, figs, and all other kinds of merchandise in order to bring it into Yerusalem on the Sabbath day. Then I warned them against selling these things on the Sabbath day.

16 Men of Tyre living in Yerusalem brought in fish and all kinds of merchandise, and sold them on the Sabbath to the children of Yahdah in Yerusalem.

17 Then I reprimanded the nobles of Yahdah, and said to them; Why are you doing this evil thing? Why are you desecrating and profaning the Sabbath day?

18 Did not your fathers do the same thing, and did not Yahweh bring all this disaster upon us and upon this city? Now you are bringing added wrath upon Israyl by desecrating and profaning the Sabbath!

19 As the evening shadows began to darken, at sunset before the Sabbath day, I ordered the gates of Yerusalem to be shut, and directed that they were not to be opened until after the Sabbath. I stationed some of my own men at the gates to make sure no loads would be brought in on the Sabbath day.

20 Now the traders and merchandisers spent the night outside Yerusalem once or twice.

21 But I warned them, and said to them; Why are you sleeping around the wall? If you do this again, I will use force against you! From that time on they did not come on the Sabbath.

22 Then I ordered the Levites to cleanse and purify themselves and stand guard at the gates, in order to sanctify and keep the Sabbath day holy. Remember me, O Yahweh my Father, for this also, and show compassion for me according to the greatness of Your mercy!

23 In those days I also saw men of Yahdah who had married women of Ashdod, Ammon, and Moab.

24 Half of their children spoke the language of Ashdod, or the language of one of the other peoples, and did not know how to speak the language of Yahdah.

25 So I reprimanded them, and called curses down upon them. I struck some of them and pulled out their hair, and I made them vow an oath in the Name of Yahweh, saying; You must not give your daughters in marriage to their sons, nor take their daughters as wives for your sons, or for yourselves!

26 Did not Solomon king of Israyl transgress in these very things? Though among the many nations there was no king like him, and he was loved by Yahweh his Father, and Yahweh made him king over all Israyl, but even he was led into sin by pagan wives!

27 Must we hear now that you as well are doing all this great evil, and are transgressing against Yahweh by marrying pagan women?

28 Now one of the sons of Yahyada, the son of Elyashib the High Priest, was a son-in-law of Sanballat the Horonite, so I expelled him from my presence.

29 Remember them, O Yahweh my Father, for they have defiled the priesthood, and the covenant of the Aaronic priests and Levites.

30 Then I purged the priest and Levites of everything pagan, and assigned the duties of service to the priests and Levites.

31 I also assigned the contribution of the wood offering at its appointed times, along with the offering of firstfruits. Remember me, O Yahweh my Father, for righteousness!

HADASSAH

MYRTLE Megillah Esther

It was in the days of Ahashwerosh; the chief of the rulers, Xerxes (this was the Xerxes who reigned from India to Ethiopia, ruling over one hundred and twenty seven provinces).

2 When King Xerxes sat on the throne of his kingdom in the citadel at Susa,

3 In the third year of his reign, he gave a feast for all his officials and nobles—the powers of Media and Persia—the officers of the army, the nobles, and the rulers of the provinces were present there.

4 He displayed the great wealth of his empire and the splendor of his majesty, for a total of 180 days.

5 Now when these days were over, the king gave a feast lasting seven days for all the men staying in the citadel of Susa, for both the mighty and the insignificant, in the court of the garden of the king's palace.

6 The garden was decorated with hangings of white and blue linen, fastened with cords of white flnen and purple material tied to silver rings on marble columns. There were couches of gold and silver on a mosaic pavement of alabaster, turquoise, and white and black marble.

7 The drinks were served from gold goblets, with no two alike, and there was an abundance of royal wine, keeping with the king's generosity.

8 The drinking, according to the king's orders to his household servants, was not to be compulsory. Each man could drink as he chose.

9 Queen Vashti also held a feast for the women in the palace of King Xerxes.

10 On the seventh day, when the king was in high spirits because of the wine, he commanded Mehuman, Bizthan, Harbona, Bigtha, Abagtha, Zethar, and Carcas, the seven eunuchs who personally served King Xerxes,

11 To bring Queen Vashti before the king's presence, wearing the crown of the kingdom, so he might display her beauty to the people and the officials, for she was beautiful to behold.

12 But Queen Vashti refused to come at the king's command delivered by his eunuchs. Because of this, the king was furious, and his anger burned within him.

13 The king immediately counseled with the experts who knew the laws. (It was customary for the king to consult experts in matters of law and justice,

14 His closest advisors being Carshena, She-thar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memucan, the seven princes of Persia and Media who could personally converse with the king, and who ranked highest in the kingdom.)

15 He asked; What shall be done to Queen Vashti, according to the law, since she did not obey the command of King Xerxes delivered by the eunuchs?

16 Then Memucan answered in the presence of the king and the nobles, and said; Queen Vashti not only has wronged the king, but all the princes and all the men in the provinces of King Xerxes.

17 The queen's behavior will be reported to all women, and their husbands will be despised in their eyes, when it is made known that King Xerxes commanded Queen Vashi to be brought in before him, but she refused to come.

18 This very day the women among the nobility of Persia and Media will hear about the queen's behavior, and will respond to the king's nobles in the same way. There will be no end to the contempt and discord.

19 If it pleases the king, let a royal decree be sent from him, and let it be recorded in the laws of the Persians and the Medes, so it may not be altered or changed in any way, that Vashti will never again be brought into the presence of King Xerxes. Then let the king give her royal position as Queen of the empire of King Xerxes to another who is better than she.

20 Then, when the king's decree is proclaimed through all his great empire, all wives will honor their own husbands, whether they are mighty or insignificant.

21 This advice was pleasing to the king and the princes, and the king acted on the counsel of Memucan.

22 Then he sent letters to all the king's provinces, each letter written in the script of the individual province, to every people in their own language, proclaiming in each man's dialect that the man should be the head of his own house.

CHAP 2

After these things, when the anger of King Xerxes had subsided, he thought about Vashti, and what she had done to instigate his decrees against her.

2 Then the king's attendants who served him, suggested; Let a search be made for beautiful young virgins for the king.

3 Let the king appoint officials in all the provinces of his kingdom, so they may assemble all the beautiful young virgins into the house of the women in the citadel at Susa. Let them be under the supervision of Hegai, the king's eunuch, who is in charge of the women, and let beauty treatments be given to the women.

4 Then let the young woman, the one who pleases the king, be queen in the place of Vashti. This suggestion pleased the king, and he acted upon it.

5 In Susa the citadel there was a certain Yahdai whose name was Mordecai, the son of Yair, son of Shimei, son of Kish, a Benjaminite.

6 Who had been carried captive into exile from Yerusalem by Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. He was among those taken captive with Yahyakin king of Yahdah.

7 Mordecai had brought up his cousin Hadassah, for she had neither father nor mother. The young woman was lovely in form and features. When her father and mother died, Mordecai had accepted her as his own daughter.

8 So, when the king's proclamation and decree was announced, and when many young women were assembled to Susa the citadel under the care of Hegai, Hadassah was also taken to the king's palace and entrusted to Hegai, who was in charge of the women.

9 Now the young woman pleased him and he was kindly disposed toward her; so he promptly provided her with her beauty treatments and her proper daily allowance of food. Then seven selected maids were provided for her from the king's palace, and he moved her and her maids to the best quarters in the house of the women.

10 Hadassah had not yet revealed her race or her descent, for Mordecai had given her orders forbidding it.

11 Every day Mordecai walked in front of the court of the women's quarters, to learn of Hadassah's welfare and progress.

12 Now each young woman would take her turn going in to King Xerxes after she had completed twelve moons on a beauty regimen. This was the prescribed beauty regimen for the women: six moons of treatment with oil of myrrh, then six moons of treatment with perfumes and cosmetics.

13 After her beauty regimen was over, each young woman went to the king. She was given whatever she wanted to take with her when she left the house of the women for the king's living quarters.

14 She went in, in the evening, and the next morning she returned to another section of the house of the women, to the care of Shaashgaz, the king's eunuch who supervised the concubines. She would never go in to the king again unless the king delighted in her, and he summoned her by name.

15 Now, when the turn came for Hadassah, the daughter of Abihail, the uncle of Mordecai (who had raised her as his own daughter), to go in to the king, she asked for nothing except that which Hegai, the king's eunuch in charge of the women, suggested she take. Hadassah endeared everyone who met her.

16 So Hadassah was taken to King Xerxes, to his royal quarters, in the Tenth Moon, the moon Tebeth, in the seventh year of his reign.

17 The king loved Hadassah more than all his other wives, and she endeared him to herself and won his acceptance more than all the other virgins, so he set the royal crown upon her head and made her his queen in the place of Vashti.

18 Then the king proclaimed a great marriage feast, in honor of Hadassah, for all his officials and nobles. He proclaimed a holiday in the provinces and gave gifts worthy of the king's generosity.

19 When those virgins were being assembled together, Mordecai was sitting within the king's gate;

20 And Hadassah had not yet revealed her race or her religion, just as Mordecai had told her, for Hadassah obeyed the instructions of Mordecai as she had done when she was being raised by him.

21 At that time, when Mordecai sat within the king's gate, two of the king's eunuchs who guarded the doorway, Bigthan and Teresh, became angry with the king and plotted to assassinate King Xerxes.

22 But Mordecai found out about the plot, and informed Queen Hadassah. Then Hadassah informed the king in Mordecai's name.

23 When an investigation was made into the matter, and the plot was confirmed, both of them were hanged on the gallows. This matter was recorded in the book of the chronicles in the presence of the king.

CHAP. 3

After these things King Xerxes promoted Haman son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, elevating him in his office and making him the highest ruler among the nobles.

2 All the officials of the king at the king's gate bowed down and paid homage to Haman, for that is what the king had commanded to be done for him. But Mordecai would not bow down and pay homage.

3 Then the king's officials within the king's gate asked Mordecai: Why do you disobey the king's command?

4 Finally, after they had spoken to him day after day and he still refused to comply, they informed Haman in order to see whether Mordecai's behavior would be tolerated. (Now Mordecai had informed them that he was a Yahdai.)

5 When Haman saw for himself that Mordecai did not bow down to pay him homage, Haman was filled with rage.

6 However, he arrogantly refused to execute just Mordecai. They had told him who Mordecai's people were, so Haman sought a way to destroy all the Yahdaim throughout the whole kingdom of Xerxes, and Mordecai with them.

7 In the First Moon, which is the moon of Nisan, in the twelfth year of King Xerxes, they cast pur (that is, the lot), in front of Haman to select the day and the moon. The lot fell on the thirteenth day of the Twelfth Moon, which is the moon of Adar.

8 After the lot was cast indicating the day and the moon. Haman brought the matter before the king, and said: There is a certain people scattered and dispersed among the people in every province in your kingdom. Their laws are different from all other people's, and they do not even obey the king's commands! Because of this, it is not proper for the king to allow them to continue.

9 If it pleases the king, let it be recorded that they are to be destroyed, and I will pay ten thousand talents of silver; about 375 tons of silver, directly to the king's treasury to carry out the process.

10 So the king removed his signet ring from his hand, and gave it to Haman son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, the enemy of the Yahdaim.

11 The king said to Haman: It is your money, and the people are yours to do with as you please.

12 Then the king's scribes were summoned on the thirteenth day of the First Moon, and the decree was written exactly as Haman had dictated—to the king's satraps; governors of large provinces, the governors over small provinces and cities, over every province, and to the officials of all the people in the name of King Xerxes—and it was sealed with the royal signet ring. (The scribes wrote this in the script of each province and in the language of every people.)

13 The letters were dispatched by couriers throughout all the king's provinces, to destroy, to kill, and to annihilate all the Yahdaim—every man and boy, every woman and child—in a single day, the thirteenth day of the Twelfth Moon, the moon Adar, and to plunder their possessions.

14 A copy of the document was to be issued as a law in every province, and to be made known to all peoples, that they should be ready for that day.

15 The couriers went out quickly, at the king's command, and the decree was proclaimed in Susa the citadel. Then the king and Haman sat down to drink, while the city of Susa was in a state of confusion.

CHAP. 4

When Mordecai learned of everything that had been done, Mordecai tore his clothes, dressed in sackcloth and ashes, and went out into the city, wailing loudly and bitterly.

2 He went as far as the king's gate, but no one might enter the king's gate clothed in sackcloth.

3 And in every province where the king's decree was proclaimed, there was loud mourning among the Yahdaim, with fasting, weeping, and wailing, and many lay in sackcloth and ashes.

4 When Hadassah's maids and eunuchs came and informed her, the queen was deeply distressed. She sent clothing for Mordecai to wear, so he could take off his sackcloth, but he refused to accept it.

5 Then Hadassah summoned Hathach, one of the royal eunuchs whom the king had appointed to wait on her, and ordered him to go to Mordecai to learn what was troubling Mordecai, and why.

6 So Hathach went out to Mordecai in the city square in front of the king's gate.

7 Then Mordecai informed him of everything that had taken place, as well as the amount of money Haman had promised to pay into the king's treasuries to have the Yahdaim destroyed.

8 He also gave him a copy of the written document which had decreed their destruction, as proclaimed from Susa, so he might show it to Hadassah and explain it to her, and so he might instruct her to go to the king to intercede on their behalf, and plead in front of him for her people.

9 Hathach returned and told Hadassah everything Mordecai had said.

10 Then Hadassah gave Hathach a message for Mordecai, saying:

11 All the king's officials, and even the people of the king's provinces, know that any man or woman who goes into the inner court to the king, without having first been summoned, that there is only one penalty: to be put to death. The only exception to that penalty is for the king to extend the gold scepter to him, and only then may he live. And I have not been summoned to come to the king's presence for the past thirty days.

12 They relayed this message from Hadassah to Mordecai.

13 Mordecai sent this answer back to Hadassah, and said: Do not think that because you are in the king's house, that you alone of all the Yahdaim will escape.

14 For, if you persist in keeping silent at this time, relief and deliverance will arise from another place, but you and your father's house will perish. Yet who knows if you have not come to the royal throne for just such a time as this.

15 Then Hadassah sent this reply to Mordecai;

16 Go and gather all the Yahdaim now in Susa, and fast for me. Do not eat nor drink for three days, neither night nor day. I also, and my maids will fast as you do. When this is still being done, I will go to the king, which is against the law. And if I perish, I perish.

17 Then Mordecai left and carried out the instructions Hadassah had given him.

CHAP. 5

On the third day, Hadassah dressed in her royal robes and stood in the inner court of the king's palace, in front of the king's hall. The king was seated on his throne in the throne room, facing the entrance to the court.

2 When the king saw Queen Hadassah standing in the court, he was pleased to see her, and the king held out the gold scepter in his hand toward her. Then Hadassah approached him and touched the top of the scepter.

3 The king asked her; What do you want, Queen Hadassah? What is your petition? Even if you ask for half of my kingdom, it shall be given to you.

4 Hadassah answered, and said; If it pleases the king, let the king, along with Haman, come today to a banquet that I have prepared for him.

5 Then the king commanded; Summon Haman quickly, so he may do as Hadassah has requested. Both the king and Haman went to the banquet that Hadassah had prepared.

6 As they were drinking wine, the king again said to Hadassah; What is your request? It shall be given to you! What is your petition? Even if it is half the kingdom, it shall be done!

7 Then Hadassah answered, and said; This is my request and my petition.

8 If I have found honor in the eyes of the king, and if it pleases the king to grant my petition and fulfill my request, then may the king and Haman come to the banquet which I will prepare for them. Then, tomorrow, I will make my request and my petition known.

9 So Haman went out that day exuberant and in high spirits; but when Haman saw Mordecai in the king's gate, and that he did not stand up, nor show fear in his presence, he was filled with rage against Mordecai.

10 Nevertheless, Haman restrained himself and went home, where he summoned his friends and Zeresh, his wife.

11 Then Haman rehearsed to them the extent of his wealth, the number of his children, all the ways the king had exalted him, and how he had promoted him above all the other officials and nobles in the kingdom.

12 Haman also related to them; Besides all that, Queen Hadassah invited only me to attend the banquet she prepared for the king; and tomorrow I am again invited by her, along with the king.

13 But all this fails to give me satisfaction, as long as I see Mordecai the Yahdai sitting at the king's gate!

14 Then his wife Zeresh and all his friends advised him; Let a gallows be made, fifty cubits high; about 75 feet high. Then, tomorrow morning, speak to the king and request that Mordecai be hanged on it. Then you may cheerfully accompany the king to the banquet. This advice pleased Haman, so he had the gallows constructed.

CHAP. 6

That night the king was unable to sleep, so he gave orders to bring the record book of the chronicles of the king's reign, and they were read in the king's presence.

2 And it was found recorded there, that Mordecai had given information about Bighana and Teresh, exposing the plot of the doorkeepers to assassinate King Xerxes.

3 Then the king asked; What honor and recognition has been bestowed upon Mordecai for this? The king's officials who attended him replied; Nothing has been done for him.

4 The king asked; Who is in the court? (Now Haman had just entered the outer court of the king's living quarters to request that the king hang Mordecai on the gallows that he had prepared for him.)

5 The king's attendants said to him; Haman is standing in the court, waiting there. The king replied; Let him enter.

6 So Haman came in, and the king asked him; What should be done for the man whom the king especially desires to honor? Then Haman thought to himself; Who would the king want to honor more than me?

7 So he answered the king, and said; For the man the king especially desires to honor:

8 Let a royal robe which the king has worn be brought out, with a horse on which the king has ridden, and the crown of the kingdom which sets on the king's head.

9 Then let this apparel and horse be delivered to one of the king's most worthy nobles, and have him array the man whom the king especially desires to honor. Then have the worthy noble lead him on horseback through the city square, and proclaim before him: This is what is done for the man whom the king especially desires to honor.

10 Then the king commanded Haman: Go at once! Take the apparel and the horse, just as you have advised, to Mordecai the Yahdai who sits at the king's gate. Do not leave out a single detail of all that you have suggested.

11 So Haman took the apparel and the horse, arrayed Mordecai, led him on horseback through the city square, and proclaimed in front of him: This is what is done for the man whom the king especially desires to honor.

12 After this, Mordecai returned to the king's gate; but Haman hurried home depressed, with his head covered in grief.

13 Haman informed his wife and his friends of everything that had taken place. Then his advisors and his wife said to him: Since Mordecai, before whom you have begun to fall, is a Yahdai, you will not succeed against him, but you will surely fail in front of him.

14 While they were still speaking with him, the king's eunuchs arrived, and they hurried to take Haman to the banquet which Hadassah had prepared.

CHAP. 7

So the king and Haman went to dine with Hadassah.

2 As they were drinking wine on the second day, the king again said to Hadassah: What is your petition, Queen Hadassah? It shall be given to you! What is your request? Even if you ask for half of my kingdom, it shall be done!

3 Then Queen Hadassah answered, and said: If I have found honor in your eyes, O king, and if it pleases the king, may my life be given to me at my request, and may the life of my people be given at my petition.

4 For I and my people have been sold for destruction, for death, and annihilation. Had we been sold as male and female slaves, I would never have said anything, for then such a minor disappointment would not have justified disturbing the king.

5 Then King Xerxes exclaimed to Hadassah: Who is it? Where is he who has dared to do such a thing?

6 Hadassah answered him, saying: An enemy and an adversary! This wicked man, Haman! Then Haman was terrified in the presence of the king and queen.

7 In his anger, the king rose up from his wine and went out into the palace garden; but Haman remained where he was to beg Hadassah for his life, for he realized the king had already decided his punishment.

8 When the king returned from the palace garden to the banquet hall, he saw Haman fallen on the couch where Hadassah was reclining. Then the king said: Will he also violate the queen while she is with me in the house? As soon as these words were spoken by the king, they covered Haman's face.

9 Then Harbonah, one of the eunuchs, said to the king: Behold! A gallows fifty cubits high; about 75 feet, is standing by Haman's house. He constructed it for Mordecai, who saved the king's life. The king then gave this command: Hang him on it!

10 So they hanged Haman on the gallows he had constructed for Mordecai, and the king's anger subsided.

CHAP. 8

That same day King Xerxes gave Hadassah the entire estate of Haman, the enemy of the Yahdaim. And Mordecai came into the presence of the king, for Hadassah had informed him of their relationship.

2 The king took off his signet ring, which he had taken from Haman, and gave it to Mordecai. Then Hadassah appointed Mordecai over Haman's estate.

3 Hadassah again pleaded with the king, falling at his feet and imploring him with tears. She begged him to put an end to the evil scheme of Haman the Agagite, which he had plotted against the Yahdaim.

4 The king extended the gold scepter toward her, so Hadassah rose up and stood in the king's presence.

5 And said: If it pleases the king, and if I have found honor in his eyes, and if this thing seems right to the king, and if he is pleased with me, let a decree be written to overrule the letters devised by Haman, the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, which he dictated for the extermination of the Yahdaim throughout all the king's provinces.

6 How can I endure to see this disaster overtake my people? How can I endure to see the destruction of my own relatives?

7 Then King Xerxes said to Queen Hadassah and to Mordecai the Yahdai: I have given Haman's estate to Hadassah, and he has been hanged on the gallows, because he would lay his hands on the Yahdaim.

8 But you, yourselves, write another decree in the king's name on behalf of the Yahdaim, just as you please, and seal it with the king's signet ring. (For a letter which is written in the king's name and sealed with the king's signet ring could not be revoked.)

9 So the king's scribes were summoned at that time, in the Third Moon, the moon Sivan, on the twenty-third day. They wrote all the words Mordecai had dictated on behalf of the Yahdaim, to the satraps, governors, and officials of the provinces from India to Ethiopia, one hundred and twenty-seven provinces in all. This decree was written in the script of each province, and in the language of each people, as well as to the Yahdaim in their script and language.

10 He wrote in the name of King Xerxes, sealed the decree with the king's signet ring, and dispatched the decrees by couriers on horseback, who rode the royal mounts bred for swiftness.

11 The king's decree granted the Yahdaim in every city to gather together for the purpose of defending their lives. They were given permission to destroy, to kill, and to annihilate every armed force of any people or province that was hostile to them, or to their women and children, and also permission to plunder their possessions.

12 On one day in all the provinces of King Xerxes, on the thirteenth day of the Twelfth Moon, the moon of Adar, was the day previously dictated for all of these things to take place.

13 A copy of the document was to be issued as a decree in every province and proclaimed to all the people, so that the Yahdaim would be ready on that day to take revenge on their enemies.

14 The couriers riding the swift horses, urged on by the king's command, departed to deliver this decree. Meanwhile, the decree was being proclaimed in Susa the citadel.

15 Mordecai left the king's presence wearing royal garments of blue and white. A great head-dress of gold was on his head, and he also wore a cloak of fine linen and purple; and the city of Susa rejoiced and was glad.

16 For the Yahdaim had light and gladness, rejoicing and honor.

17 Also in every province and city, wherever the king's command and decree was proclaimed, the Yahdaim had joy and gladness, feasting and celebrating. Many of the people of the land, the Gentiles, professed to be Yahdaim, for the fear of the Yahdaim fell upon them.

CHAP. 9

In the Twelfth Moon, the moon of Adar, on the thirteenth day, the previously selected time came for the king's command and decree to be carried out. (On the day that the enemies of the Yahdaim had hoped to overpower them, all that was reversed; it was the Yahdaim themselves who overpowered those who hated them.)

2 The Yahdaim had gathered together in their cities throughout all the provinces of King Xerxes to kill those who sought their destruction. No one was successful against them, because the fear of them had fallen upon all the people.

3 Also, the officials of the provinces, the satraps, the governors, and all those in the king's service were supportive of the Yahdaim, for the fear of Mordecai had fallen upon them.

4 Mordecai was powerful and influential in the king's palace. His renown spread throughout all the provinces, as he became more powerful and increasingly prominent.

5 So the Yahdaim defeated all their enemies, annihilating them with the stroke of the sword, and doing as they pleased to those who hated them.

6 In Susa the citadel itself, the Yahdaim killed 500 men.

7 They also killed Parshandatha, Dalphon, Aspatha,

8 Poratha, Adalia, Aridatha,

9 Parmashta, Arisai, Aridai, and Vahzatha;

10 Who were the ten sons of Haman son of Hammedatha, the enemy of the Yahdaim. But they did not lay their hands on the plunder.

11 That same day the number of those who were killed in Susa the citadel was reported to the king.

12 The king said to Queen Hadassah: The Yahdaim have killed 500 men in Susa the citadel alone, as well as the ten sons of Haman. What have they done in the remainder of the king's provinces? Now what is your petition? It shall be given to you! What is your further request? It shall be done!

13 Then Hadassah said: If it pleases the king, may it be granted to the Yahdaim in Susa to carry out this day's decree tomorrow, just as it has been done today, and let Haman's sons be hanged on the gallows.

14 So the king gave the command for this to be done, and the decree was proclaimed in Susa. Haman's ten dead sons were also hanged on the gallows.

15 So the Yahdaim in Susa regrouped again on the fourteenth of Adar, the Twelfth Moon, and killed 300 more men in Susa the city, but they did not lay their hands on the plunder.

16 Meanwhile, the rest of the Yahdaim in the king's provinces had organized and defended themselves, gaining relief from their enemies. They killed 75,000 of those who hated them, but they did not lay their hands on the plunder.

17 The fighting in the provinces was carried out on the thirteenth day on the moon Adar, the Twelfth Moon, but on the fourteenth day of that moon they rested, making that a day of feasting and gladness.

18 But the Yahdaim in Susa were gathered together to fight on the thirteenth day and then again on the fourteenth day of the moon, so it was on the fifteenth day of the moon that they rested, and made it a day of feasting and gladness.

19 (That is why the Yahdaim living in un-walled villages observe the fourteenth day of the moon of Adar as a day of joy and feasting, and a day of sending portions of food to his poor neighbor.)

20 Then Mordecai recorded these things, and dispatched letters to all the Yahdaim in every province of King Xerxes, near and far,

21 To continue among them the celebrating of the fourteenth and the fifteenth days of the moon of Adar, the Twelfth Moon,

22 As the days when the Yahdaim gained relief from their enemies, in the moon which was turned from sorrow to joy, from mourning to celebrating. He wrote them to observe these days as days of feasting and joy, and of sending food portions to each other and giving to the poor.

23 So the Yahdaim agreed to continue the custom they had begun, doing what Mordecai had written to them;

24 For Haman, son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the enemy of all Yahdaim, had plotted and schemed against the Yahdaim, in order to annihilate them, and had cast Pur (that is, the lot), for their ruin and destruction.

25 But when Queen Hadassah came before the king, the king gave a written decree that the evil scheme which Haman had devised against the Yahdaim should be returned upon his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows.

26 That is why these days are called Purim; Lots, from the word Pur. Therefore, because of all that was written in this letter, and because of all that they had seen and experienced,

27 The Yahdaim agreed and made it a custom for themselves, their descendants, and all who should join them, to continue, without fail, to celebrate these two days specified in their letter, and on the dates indicated;

28 In order for these days to be ● remembered and kept throughout every generation, every family, every province, and every city, so these days of Purim should not cease to be celebrated among the Yahdaim, and the memory of them should not be forgotten among their descendants.

29 Then Queen Hadassah, the daughter of Abihail, along with Mordecai the Yahdai, wrote with full authority to confirm this second letter about Purim.

30 Mordecai dispatched peaceful and assuring letters to the one hundred and twenty-seven provinces of the kingdom of Xerxes,

31 To establish these days of Purim on their proper dates, just as Mordecai the Yahdai and Queen Hadassah had decreed to them, and as they had established for themselves and their descendants in regard to their times of fasting and lamentation.

32 So Hadassah's decree fixed these practices for Purim, and it was recorded in the books.

CHAP. 10

King Xerxes levied tribute on both the land and the islands in the sea.

2 Now all the events of his power and his achievements, together with a full account of the influence of Mordecai, to which the king advanced him, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Media and Persia?

3 For Mordecai the Yahdai ranked second to King Xerxes, and was influential among the Yahdaim, and was held in esteem by the multitude of his own brothers. He worked for the best interests of his people, and spoke up for the welfare of his fellow Yahdaim.

● This is self-evident that nothing is wrong with setting days aside for the purpose of remembering certain events. However, it is a sin (a transgression of Yahweh's Law), to celebrate days in honor of pagan gods, in honor of customs stemming from association with pagan worship, or in honor of customs that abrogate any of the Laws, Statutes, or Judgments of Yahweh, our Creator and Heavenly Father.

IYYOB

PERSECUTED

In the land of Uz there lived a man, Iyyob was his name. That man was perfect; blameless and upright, he revered Yahweh and shunned evil.

2 Seven sons and three daughters were born to him.

3 His possessions were 7,000 sheep, 3,000 camels, 500 yoke of oxen, 500 female donkeys, as well as a large number of servants. This man became the wealthiest of all the people of the East.

4 His sons used to take turns holding feasts in their homes, and they would invite their three sisters to eat and drink with them.

5 When the days of feasting had run their course, Iyyob would send and have them purified. He would rise early in the morning and offer sacrifices for each of them, for he said; It may be that my sons have sinned and cursed Yahweh in their hearts. Iyyob did this customarily.

6 Now there was a day when the sons of Yahweh came to present themselves before Yahweh, and Satan; the Adversary and Accuser, also came among them.

7 Yahweh said to Satan; Where do you come from? Satan answered Yahweh, and said; From going back and forth in the earth, and from walking up and down in it.

8 Then Yahweh said to Satan; Have you considered My servant Iyyob? There is none like him in the earth, a perfect; blameless and upright, man, one who reveres Yahweh and shuns evil.

9 Satan answered Yahweh, and said; Does Iyyob revere Yahweh for no reason?

10 Have You not made a hedge around him, as well as around his household and all that he has, on every side? You have blessed his every effort, and his possessions have increased in the land.

11 But just put out Your hand and strike all that he has, and he will curse You to Your face.

12 So Yahweh said to Satan; Behold, all that he has is now in your power, just do not lay your hands on him personally. So Satan departed from the presence of Yahweh.

13 And there was a day when his sons and his daughters were eating and drinking wine in their oldest brother's house;

14 And a messenger came to Iyyob, and reported; The oxen were plowing and the donkeys were feeding nearby,

15 When the Sabeans attacked and carried them off. Your servants have been killed with the edge of the sword, and I alone have escaped to tell you.

16 While he was still speaking, another also came and reported; The fire of Yahweh; lightning, fell from the sky and burned your sheep and your servants, consuming them, and I alone have escaped to tell you.

17 While he was still speaking, another also came and reported; The Chaldeans formed three raiding bands and swept down simultaneously upon the camels and carried them off. They put your servants to the sword, and I alone have escaped to tell you.

18 While he was still speaking, another also came and reported; Your sons and your daughters were eating and drinking wine in their oldest brother's house;

19 When suddenly a great wind came across the wilderness and struck the four corners of the house. It collapsed on them, and they are dead, and I alone have escaped to tell you.

20 Then Iyyob got up and tore his robe, then he shaved his head. He fell to the ground and worshiped, 21 And he said; Naked came I from my mother's womb, and naked shall I return there. Yahweh gave, and Yahweh has taken away. Blessed be the Name of Yahweh.

22 In all this Iyyob did not sin by accusing Yahweh of wrongdoing.

CHAP. 2

Again there was a day when the sons of Yahweh came to present themselves before Yahweh, and Satan also came among them to present himself before Yahweh.

2 Yahweh said to Satan; Where did you come from? Satan answered Yahweh, and said; From going back and forth in the earth, and from walking up and down in it.

3 Then Yahweh said to Satan; Have you considered My servant Iyyob? There is none like him on the earth, a perfect; blameless and upright, man, one who reveres Yahweh and shuns evil. And he still holds fast to his integrity, though you incited Me against him, to destroy him without a cause.

4 So Satan answered Yahweh, and said: Skin for skin! A man will give all he has for his own life.

5 But reach out Your hand and strike his flesh and bones, then he will curse You to Your face.

6 Then Yahweh replied to Satan, and said: Behold, he is in your power. But you must spare his life.

7 Then Satan left Yahweh's presence and afflicted Iyyob with a severe skin inflammation, with painful sores from the bottom of his foot to the top of his head.

8 He took a piece of broken pottery to scrape himself, while he sat in ashes.

9 Then his wife said to him: Do you still maintain your integrity? Curse Yahweh and die!

10 But he said to her: You talk like a nebalah; a female fool void of understanding. Shall we accept success from Yahweh, and not accept trouble? In all this, Iyyob did not sin with his mouth.

11 When Iyyob's three friends heard of all the trouble that had come upon him, each one came from his own place. Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite arranged to meet together to go and sympathize with him, and comfort him.

12 When they saw him from afar, they were unable to recognize him, and they raised their voices and wept. Each tore his robe and threw dust on his head as he threw it heavenward.

13 They sat with him on the ground for seven days and seven nights. No one said a word to him, for they saw how great his grief was.

CHAP. 3

After this, Iyyob opened his mouth and cursed the day he was born.

2 And Iyyob spoke, and said:

3 Damn the day I was born, and the night it was said: A male is begotten.

4 That day—may it turn to darkness, and may Yahweh above not care about it nor may light shine upon it.

5 May darkness and the shadow of death claim it, may a cloud settle over it, and may an eclipse in the day terrify it.

6 That night—may darkness seize it, may it not be included among the days of the year, nor may it be included in the number of the moons.

7 May that night be barren. May no joyful sounds come from it!

8 Let them curse it that curse the day. Let them who are ready to raise up their mourning, cry out and curse that day.

9 May its stars of the morning be darkened, let it look for daylight, but have none. May it not even see the first rays of dawn.

10 Because it did not shut up the doors of the womb on me, to hide trouble from my eyes.

11 Why did I not die at birth? Why did I not come from the womb and perish?

12 Why was there a lap to hold me, or breasts to nurse me?

13 Because now I would be lying quietly. I would be asleep and at rest.

14 With kings and counselors of the earth, who built for themselves places which now lie in ruins.

15 I would be asleep with princes who had gold, who filled their houses with silver.

16 Why was I not hidden in the ground as a stillborn child, like an infant who never saw light?

17 In the ground the wicked cease their strife, and there the weary are at rest.

18 In the ground captive prisoners enjoy their ease, no longer hearing the slave driver's shout.

19 The insignificant and the mighty are there, and the slave is free of his owner.

20 Why is light given to him who is in misery? Why is life given to the bitter in spirit,

21 Who longs for death, but it does not come? Why is life given to those who search for death more than for hidden treasure,

22 Who are filled with gladness and rejoice when they reach the grave?

23 Why is life given to a man whose way is hidden, and whom Yahweh has hedged in?

24 My sighing comes before I eat, and my groanings pour out of me like water.

25 For the thing I greatly feared has come upon me, and that which I was afraid of has come to pass.

26 I have no rest, no quietness! I have no peace, only continuous agony!

CHAP. 4

Then Eliphaz the Temanite spoke, saying:

2 If one should dare say a word to you now, would you be able to stand it; but who could keep from speaking?

3 Look how many you have instructed, how you have strengthened feeble hands.

4 Your words have encouraged those who stumbled, and you have strengthened falling knees.

5 But now these things have come upon you, and you become discouraged. It strikes you, and you are appalled.

6 Should not your reverent conduct be your confidence? Should not the integrity of your ways be your hope?

7 Consider this: Who ever perished, if they were innocent? Where were the righteous ever destroyed?

8 I have observed that they who plow iniquity and sow trouble, have always reaped the same.

9 By the blast of Yahweh they perish, by the breath of His anger they are consumed.

10 The lion may roar, and the old lion may growl, but when the teeth of the young lions are broken, 11 The lion perishes for lack of prey, and the cubs of the lioness are scattered.

12 A word was secretly brought to me, and my ears caught a whisper of it,

13 In disturbing dreams in the night, when deep sleep falls on men,

14 Fear and terror seized me, and my body trembled.

15 A spirit brushed past my face, and the hair of my body stood on end.

16 It paused, but I could not tell what it was. It was just a form standing in front of me. There was silence, then I heard a voice saying:

17 Can a mortal be more righteous than Yahweh? Can a man be more pure than his Maker?

18 If He does not place trust in His own servants, charging His malakim with error,

19 How much more so those who live in houses; bodies of clay, whose foundations are in the dust; their bodies were created from soil, who can be crushed more easily than a moth?

20 They are shattered in pieces between morning and evening. They perish forever, no one noticing.

21 Are not the cords of their tent pulled up; pulling up, then moving on, so they die without first obtaining wisdom?

CHAP. 5

Call out now, but will any answer you? Which of the holy ones will you turn to intercede on your behalf?

2 Anger kills a fool, and envy slays the simpleton.

3 I have seen a fool taking root, but suddenly his house was cursed.

4 His children are far from safety, they are crushed in the gates where justice is administered, and there is no defender.

5 The hungry consumes his harvests, taking it even from the thorns, while the thirsty pants for their wealth.

6 For hardship does not spring from the soil, nor does adversity sprout from the ground.

7 Yet man is born for trouble, just as surely as sparks fly upward.

8 But if it were me, I would seek Yahweh, and to Yahweh I would commit my cause,

9 Who does great wonders that can not be physically understood, Who performs miracles that can not be counted,

10 Who gives rain to the earth, sending water on the fields.

11 Who exalts the humble on high, and lifts those who mourn to safety.

12 He frustrates the plots of the devious, so their hands achieve no gain.

13 He catches the clever in their well-laid plans, and their wily schemes collapse.

14 They meet with darkness in the daytime, and grope in the noonday as though it were night.

15 But He saves the needy from the sword, from the mouth of the mighty, and from their clutches.

16 So the humble has hope, and the mouth of injustice is shut.

17 Behold, blessed is the man whom Yahweh corrects, so do not reject the discipline of the Almighty.

18 For He injures, but He also binds up. He wounds, but His hands heal.

19 He shall save you from six troubles. Yes, in seven no harm shall touch you:

20 In famine He will save you from death. In war from the stroke of the sword.

21 From the scourge of the tongue; incantations and black magic, you shall be hidden, and you shall not be afraid of a demon when it comes.

22 You will laugh at plunder and famine, and wild beasts you need not fear.

23 For you shall have a covenant with Yahweh against the demons of the field, and the beasts of the field shall be at peace with you.

24 You will know that your tent is secure, and you will take inventory of your property and find nothing missing.

25 You shall also know that your descendants shall be many; your offspring like the grass of the earth.

26 You shall come to your grave at a full age, like sheaves of grain ripening in their season.

27 We have searched this out, and it is truth. Hear it, then apply this to yourself.

CHAP. 6

Then Iyyob answered, and said:

2 Oh, that my anguish could but be weighed, and my grief be placed on the scales!

3 For it would be heavier than the sands of the sea—therefore my words have been rash.

4 For the arrows of the Almighty pierce me; my spirit drinks in their poison. The terrors of Yahweh are positioned against me.

5 Does the wild donkey bray when it has grass, or does the ox bellow when it has fodder?

I have cause for crying out!

6 Can flavorless food be eaten without salt? Is there any taste in the white of an egg?

7 My body is as putrid as unclean food, which I refuse to eat.

8 Oh, that I might have my request! Oh, that Yahweh would grant what I desire:

9 That Yahweh would be willing to crush me, to loose His hand and destroy me!

10 But now this is my only consolation, and even in my unrelenting pain I rejoice in this—that I have not denied the words of the Holy One.

11 What strength do I have, that I should still endure? What success should I look for, that I should be patient?

12 Do I have the strength of stone? Is my flesh made of bronze?

13 Do I have any power to help myself, now that success has deserted me?

14 A despairing man should have the loyalty of his friends, even though he may seem to go mad, and forsakes the reverence of Yahweh!

15 But my brothers are as undependable as the wadis in the wilderness, as winter streams that overflow.

16 When darkened by thawing ice and swollen with melting snow,

17 But when the dry season comes they cease to flow, and in the heat of the summer the water disappears from their channels;

18 They wind around on their paths, going nowhere, and then they perish.

19 The caravans of Tema look for water, the caravans of Sheba yearn;

20 They are distressed because they were confident, for when they came there, they were only to be disappointed.

21 This same way you have been to me: loyal to me in success, but not in adversity! You see something dreadful, and terror overcomes you.

22 Did I ever say to you: Give me something? Did I ever say to you: Ransom me with your money?

23 Did I ever say to you: Deliver me from the power of my enemy? Did I ever say to you: Redeem me from the hands of my oppressors?

24 Teach me what I have done wrong, and I will cease my speaking! Show me where I have erred!

25 How pleasant helpful words would be, but what does your accusing prove?

26 Do you mean to correct what I say, and treat the words of a despairing man as just so much wind?

27 You would even cast lots for an orphan, and barter away your friend!

28 But now, look at me. I would never lie to your face.

29 Turn now, let there be no injustice! Yes.

In these previous two chapters, Eliphaz has insinuated that these things are coming upon Iyyob because he has turned from Yahweh. Iyyob then challenges them to show him his errors, then complains they are coming to accuse him, not to help him, in his grief.

look again! My righteousness still stands!

30 Is there iniquity in my mouth? Can not my tongue discern words?

CHAP. 7

Does not man have hardship appointed to him on the earth? Are not his days like those of a hired man?

2 Like a slave who longs for the shade, and like a hired man who eagerly waits for his wages,

3 So have I been allotted moons of emptiness, and tiring nights are appointed to me.

4 When I lie down, I say: How long before I get up? The night drags on and I have my fill of tossing until the dawn.

5 My flesh is caked with worms and scabs, and my skin is broken and festering.

6 My days race by swifter than a weaver's shuttle, then they come to an end, without hope.

7 Remember, O Yahweh, that my life is only a breath, and my eye will never again see success.

8 The eye that now sees me will see me no more; You will look for me, but I shall no longer be.

9 As a cloud evaporates and then disappears, so is he who goes down to his grave and does not come up.

10 He will never come to his house again, and his household will see him no more.

11 Therefore I will not restrain my mouth! I will speak in the anguish of my spirit, and complain in the bitterness of my soul!

12 Am I a sea? Am I a dragon in the deep, that You would muzzle my words?

13 If I say, my couch will comfort me, my bed may ease my complaint:

14 Then You frighten me with dreams and terrify me with visions.

15 So that my soul chooses strangling and death, rather than life in my bones!

16 I loathe my life! I would not live forever. Leave me alone, for my days are but a breath.

17 What is man, that You shall magnify him? What is man, that You should set Your heart on him?

18 What is man, that You examine him every morning, and test him every moment?

19 Will You never look away from me, nor let me alone until I swallow my spittle?

20 How have I sinned? What have I done against You, O watcher of men? Why have You chosen me as your target, so that I am a burden to even myself?

21 Why, then, do You not pardon my transgression? Why do You not forgive my iniquity? For I will soon lie down in the dust: You will search for me, but I will be no more.

CHAP. 8

Then Bildad the Shuhite spoke up, and said:

2 How long will you say such things? Your words are like a gusting wind!

3 Does Yahweh administer perverse judgment? Does the Almighty corrupt justice?

4 If your children have sinned against Him, He has repaid them for their sins.

5 But if you will only look to Yahweh, and if you will only plead with the Almighty,

6 And if you were only pure and upright, then surely by now He would have awakened for you, and restored you to your rightful place.

7 Then your past would be as nothing, and your future will hold great success.

8 Only inquire in the previous generations, and consider the things discovered by their fathers,

9 (For we were born only yesterday and know nothing, and our life on earth is only a shadow.)

10 Will they not teach you and instruct you, will they not bring forth words from their understanding?

11 Can papyrus grow without a marsh? Can reeds flourish without water?

12 While still growing and uncut, they wither faster than any other plant.

13 But such is the future of all those who forget Yahweh. The confidence of the hypocrite will perish:

14 Whose confidence and hope will only be cut off, and his trust will prove to be like a spider's house.

15 He leans on his house, but it does not stand; he clings to it, but it does not endure.

16 He is like a watered plant in the sunshine, his branches spreading out in the garden;

17 Around a rock pile his roots entwine, looking for a house of rock (The House of Yahweh).

18 But when the hypocrite is thrust away from that house, then He disowns him, saying: I have never seen you.

19 Behold, this is the joy of His way, for out of the dust another will grow.

20 Surely, Yahweh will not reject a perfect; blameless and upright, man, nor will He help the evil-doer.

21 He may yet fill your mouth with laughter, and your lips with rejoicing.

22 Then those who hate you will be clothed with shame; but the tent of the wicked will be no more.

CHAP. 9

Then Iyyob answered, and said:

2 Truly, I know that this is so, but how can a man be just; righteous, before Yahweh?

3 If one desired to contend with Him, man would not be able to answer Him one time out of a thousand.

4 Yahweh has wisdom of understanding, and vastness in power. Who has ever resisted against Him, and remained unharmed?

5 He moves mountains before one knows it, and overturns them in His anger.

6 He shakes the earth out of its place, and its pillars tremble.

7 He commands the sun, and it does not rise; He seals off the light of the stars.

8 He alone stretched out the heavens, and treads on the waves of the sea.

9 He is the Creator of the Bear, Orion, the Pleiades, and the constellations in the south.

10 He performs great deeds that can not be physically understood, yes, miracles that can not be counted.

11 If He passes by me, I am not able to see Him; when He goes by, I can not perceive Him.

12 So if He takes away, who can stop Him? Who can challenge him, saying: What are You doing?

13 A god could not even turn away His anger, so the allies of ● Rahab cowed at His feet.

14 How, then, could I contend with Him? How can I choose the words to answer Him?

15 Though I were innocent, I would not answer my Judge; I would only plead for mercy.

16 Even if I called out to Him, and He answered me, I do not believe He would listen to me.

17 He crushes me with a storm, and multiplies my wounds without a cause.

18 He would not allow me to draw my breath, but would overwhelm me with bitterness.

19 If it is a matter of strength, He is the most powerful. If it is a matter of justice, who would appoint my day in court?

20 Though I justify myself, my own mouth would condemn me. If I say I am perfect, my mouth would prove me perverse.

21 I am blameless and innocent! I am not concerned with myself, I loathe my life!

22 It is all the same; there is no moral order. That is why I say: Yahweh destroys the perfect with the wicked.

23 If the scourge; disaster in general, slays suddenly, He laughs at the despair of the innocent.

24 Earth is given to the control of the wicked, and He covers the faces of its judges. If it is not He, then who is it?

25 Now my days pass swifter than a courier. They pass suddenly, with not a momentary perception of joy.

● RAHAB, an expression for a raging, violent, pressing multitude. A Hebrew and Chaldean Lexicon to the Old Testament, by Julius Fuerst, page 1283. Found also in Psalm 87:4 and Isaiah 30:7.

26 They glide by like boats of reeds, like eagles swooping on their prey.

27 If I say: I will forget my trouble, I will change the expression on my face, and smile;

28 I am still appalled in all my suffering, for I know that You do not consider me innocent.

29 If I am considered guilty, why should I struggle in vain?

30 Even if I were to scrub myself with snow, and my hands with soap,

31 Yet You would plunge me into filth, and my clothes would abhor me; clean clothing would not be appropriate for me.

32 He is not, like me, a Man whom I could challenge, and bring with me to court.

33 If only there was a mediator between us, who might lay his hands upon us both,

34 Who might take His rod away from me, and not allow the dread of Him to terrify me, 35 Then I would speak and not fear Him; but as it now stands, I cannot do this.

CHAP. 10

I loathe my life! I will continue to complain! I will speak out in my bitterness!

2 I will say to Yahweh; Do not condemn me without showing me what charges You have against me!

3 Does it please You to oppress me, and despise the work of Your own hands, while You shine on the devices of the wicked?

4 Do You have eyes of flesh? Do You see as a human sees?

5 Are Your days the lifetime of a man? Are Your years like those of a mortal?

6 That You seek out my iniquity, and search for my sin?

7 Although You know that I am not guilty, there is no escape from Your hands.

8 Your hands have made me, fashioning and shaping me. Would You now turn and destroy me?

9 Remember, I beg You, that You made me from the clay. Will You now turn me back to dust?

10 Did You not pour me out like milk, and curdle me like cheese?

11 Did You not clothe me with skin and flesh, and knit me together with bones and sinews?

12 You have granted me life and honor, and Your care has preserved my life.

13 Yet these things You have hidden in Your mind; I know this was what was in Your mind.

14 If I should sin, then You would mark me and would not let my iniquity go unpunished.

15 If I am guilty, woe to me, for I am righteous and I still cannot lift up my head. I am full of shame and drenched in misery.

16 To exalt me, You hunt me like a lion, and again show Yourself awesome against me.

17 To exalt me. You renew Your hostility against me, and increase Your anger toward me. Successive and unceasing hardships war against me.

18 Why, then, did You bring me out of the womb? Oh, if only I had died before any eye saw me! I would have been as though I had not been.

19 I would have been carried from the womb to the grave.

20 Do I not have only a few days left? Cease then, let me alone! Allow me to have a little joy,

21 Before I go to the place where no one returns, to the land of darkness and the shadow of death,

22 A land of utter darkness, as the shadow of death, without any order, where even the light is like darkness.

CHAP. 11

Then Zopher the Naamathite spoke up, and said;

2 Are all these words to go unchallenged? Is this talker to be vindicated?

3 Will your babbling make us remain silent? When you mock, should no one rebuke you?

4 You have said; My doctrine is pure. You are clean in your own eyes!

5 But oh, that Yahweh would speak, and open His mouth against you,

6 That He would show you what is hidden, for there are two sides to wisdom; revealed and hidden. But know this: Yahweh has punished you less than your iniquity deserves!

7 Can you find out the deep things of Yahweh? Can you find out the limits of the Almighty?

8 They are higher than the heavens, what can you do? They are deeper than sheol; the grave, what is it that you know?

9 Their measure is longer than the earth and broader than the sea.

10 If Yahweh chooses to overlook, who can oppose Him? But, if Yahweh chooses to shut up in prison, and then to condemn, who can hinder Him?

11 He recognizes deceitful men, and when He sees iniquity, does He not consider it, and take note of it?

12 For a foolish man will be wise the day a wild donkey's colt is born tame!

13 Yet, if you would only prepare your mind to serve Him, and stretch out your hands to Him,

14 If you would only put far away from you the iniquity in your hands, and not allow wickedness to dwell in your tents;

15 Then surely you could lift up your face without spot or blemish. Yes, you could stand firm and have no fear.

16 You would then forget your trouble, and remember it only as waters that have passed on by;

17 And your life would be brighter than at noonday. Though you were in darkness, you would then be like the morning.

18 You would also have trust, for then there would be hope. Yes, you would look around and take your rest in confidence.

19 You would also lie down, and no one would make you afraid. Yes, many would solicit you with supplications.

20 But the eyes of the wicked will fail! They shall not escape, and their only hope will be to lose their life.

CHAP. 12

Then Iyyob answered, and said;

2 No doubt you are the educated, and wisdom will die with you!

3 But I have a mind as well as you. I am not inferior to you. Indeed, who does not know such things as these?

4 I am now one who is mocked and ridiculed by his friends, one who called on Yahweh, and He answered him, a just and upright man—now a mere laughingstock!

5 Men at ease hold disaster in contempt, as being the just reward of those whose feet have slipped!

6 But tents of robbers remain secure, and those who provoke Yahweh remain at peace; those who carry their gods in their own hands!

7 But now ask the animals, and they will teach you; and the birds of the air, and they will tell you;

8 Or speak to the earth, and it will teach you; or the fish of the sea will explain this to you.

9 Which among all these does not know that the hand of Yahweh has done this;

10 In Whose hand is the life of every living thing, and the very breath of all mankind?

11 Does not the ear test words and the mouth taste its food?

12 Is wisdom to be found among the aged? Do those who are long-lived have understanding?

13 Wisdom and power is with Yahweh! Counsel and understanding is with Him!

14 If He tears down, there is no rebuilding. If He imprisons a man, there is no release.

15 If He withholds the waters, then there is drought; or if He lets them go, then they would engulf the earth.

16 To Him belong strength and victory. Both the deceived and the deceiver are His.

17 He leads the earth's counselors to foolishness, and He makes fools of its judges.

18 He unties the belts of kings, then ties a loincloth around their waist.

19 He leads princes away plundered and bare, and overthrows well-established men.

20 He deprives the trusted counselors of sound advice, and takes away the reasoning of the elders.

21 He pours contempt on nobles, and disarms the mighty.

22 He reveals the deep things from the darkness, and He brings to light the shadow of death.

23 He makes nations great, and He destroys them; He enlarges nations, and He disperses them.

24 He deprives the leaders of the people of the earth of heart; understanding, and makes them wander in a pathless wilderness.

25 They grope in the dark without light, and He makes them stagger like a drunkard.

CHAP. 13

Behold, my eyes have seen all this, and my ear has heard and understood it.

2 I know as much as you know! I am not inferior to you.

3 But I desire to speak with the Almighty; I would reason with Yahweh my Father.

4 But you are bearers of deceit! You are fake healers, all of you!

5 Oh, if you would only remain silent. That would make each of you seem wise!

6 Hear now my reasoning. Listen to the pleadings from my mouth.

7 Is it on Yahweh's behalf that you speak evil? Is it for Him that you utter deceit?

8 Will you show respect of persons for Him? Will you contend for Yahweh?

9 Would it be well if He were to examine you? Can you deceive Him as men are deceived?

10 He would rebuke you severely, if you secretly show respect of persons!

11 Would not His terror overwhelm you? Would not the dread of Him fall on you?

12 Your precepts are proverbs of ashes! Your defenses are defenses of clay!

13 Keep silent before me so I may speak, then let come upon me what may!

14 Why do I place myself in danger? Why do I take my life in my hands?

15 He may slay me, yet I will trust in Him; I will yet defend my ways to His face.

16 This might even be my salvation, for no hypocrite shall come into His presence.

17 Listen carefully to my speech, let your ears discern what I am saying.

18 See now, I have prepared my defense, and I know that I shall be vindicated.

19 Who can bring any charges against me? If they could, I would then remain silent and die.

20 Two things only grant to me, then I will not hide from You:

21 Grant me release from the pressure I am under, and then stop terrifying me with the dread of You.

22 Then call and I shall answer You, or let me speak and You answer me.

23 What is the number of my iniquities and sins? Allow me to know my transgression and my sin!

24 Why do You hide Your face, and consider me Your enemy?

25 Will You torment a leaf driven back and forth? Will You chase after dried stubble?

26 For You write bitter things against me, and make me inherit the iniquities of my youth.

27 You put my feet in fetters, You keep close watch on all my paths, You make prints on the soles of my feet.

28 Man decays like a rotten thing, like a garment that is moth-eaten.

CHAP. 14

Man born of woman is few of days and full of trouble.

2 He comes forth like a flower, then fades away; he flees like a shadow, and continues not.

3 Do You fix Your gaze on such a one? Will You bring me before You for judgment?

4 Who can bring the clean from the unclean? No one!

5 You have determined his days, the number of his moons is with You. You have appointed his limits, which he may not exceed.

6 So look away from him, and let him rest. Let him enjoy his day of hire.

7 There is hope for a tree if it is cut down, for it will sprout again, and its tender shoots will not cease.

8 Though its root may grow old in the earth, and its stump may die in the ground,

9 Yet at the scent of water it will sprout, and put forth shoots like a seedling.

10 But when man dies, he is laid away. He breathes his last, and where is he?
